Description

9-year-old Brian (Rowan Smyth) has a supernatural encounter with God, an experience that sends him on an adventurous quest to “find out more about what Christians believe.”

He faces heavy opposition from the world around him especially from his own father Simon (Matt Lindquist), an atheist TV newscaster. Brian finds allies in the pastor of a local church (Wilford Brimley) and a wounded U.S. Marine (Jeremy London).

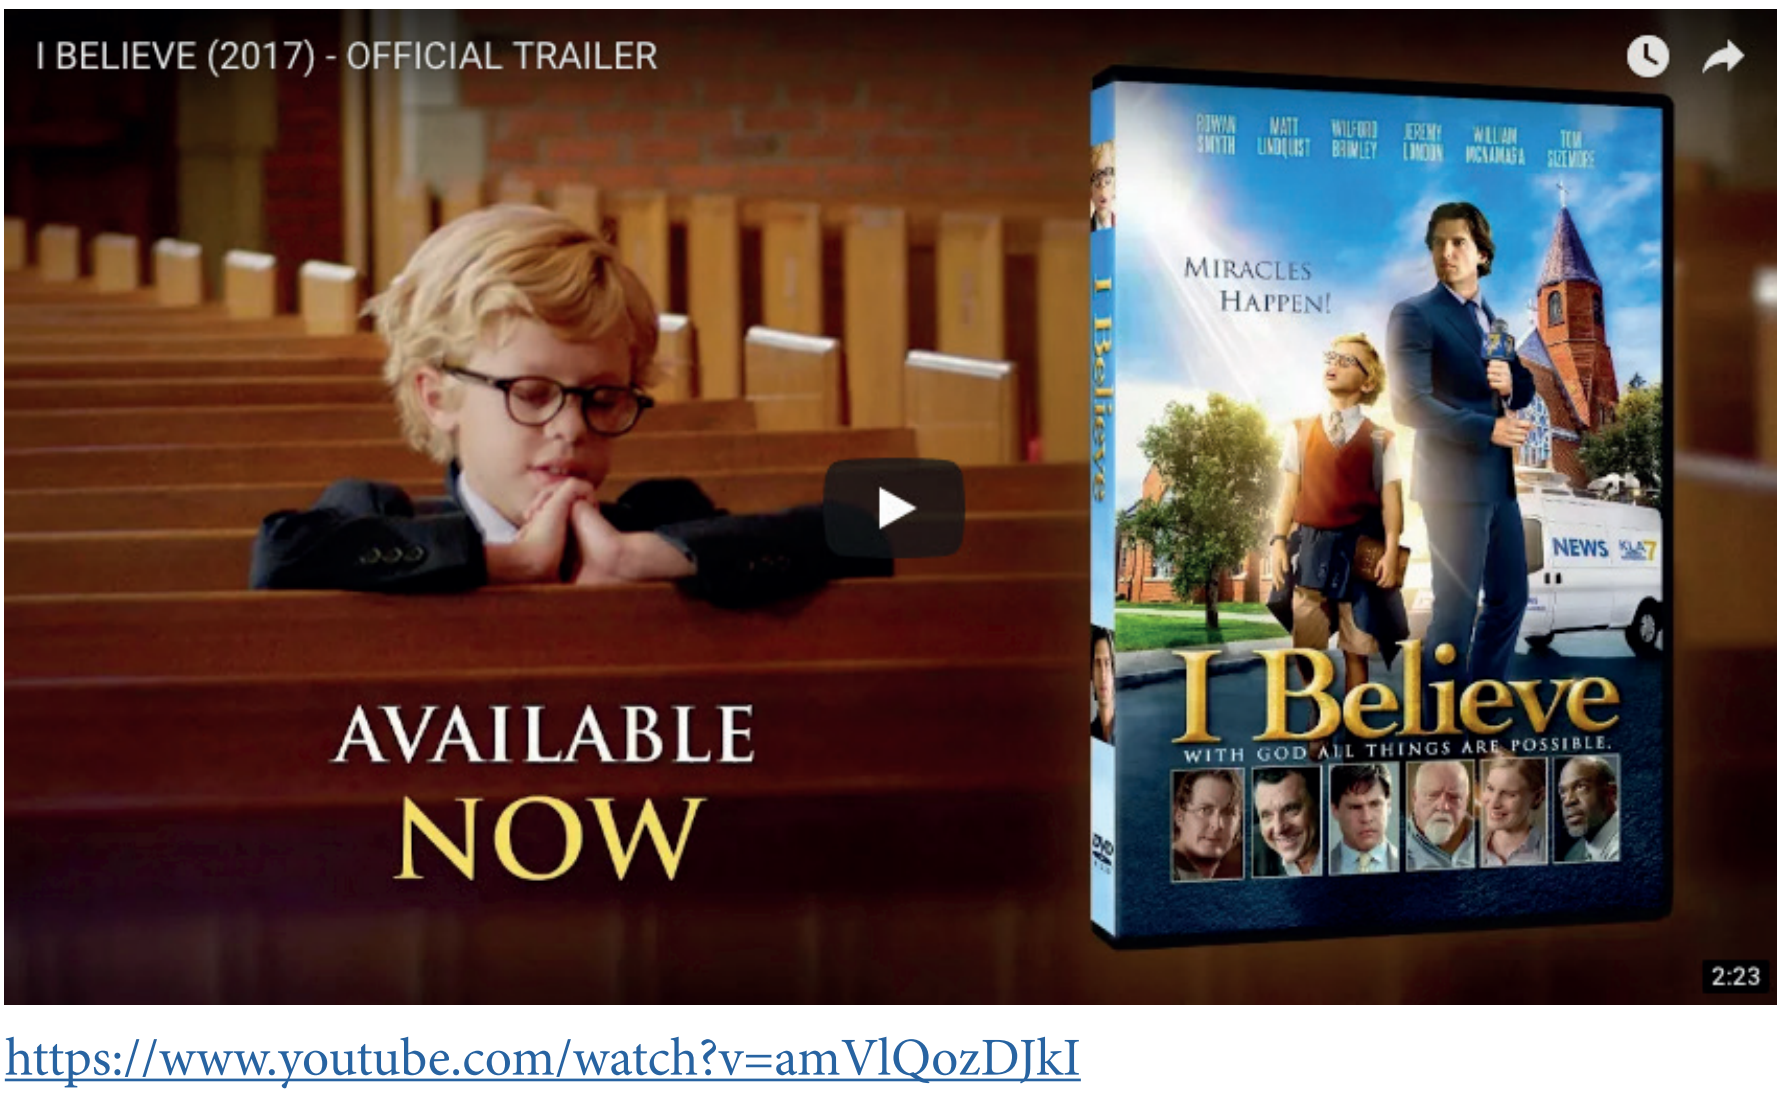

Brian’s pure and innocent faith brings about manifestations of God’s extraordinary power that quickly become Breaking News.

Don’t miss out on this miracle packed adventure!

Approx. 90 minutes.

Description

The Book of Daniel is a Bible movie that is simply titled, beautifully written, and well produced. This film takes you on the journey of Daniel's life as he serves four different kings spanning from Israel being taken captive to Babylon, to their release from bondage with the order to rebuild Jerusalem. This work of Christian cinema skillfully weaves the Scriptures together to tell one of God's most amazing stories.

Unique in its approach, The Book of Daniel tells a story that is much bigger than Daniel. It all starts with Israel being taken captive by King Nebuchadnezzar. Daniel relies on words of Jeremiah the prophet to guide the course of his life, and the destiny of the nation of Israel. Overcoming trials, tests, and persecution, Daniel prospers under the reign of one king after another as Israel endures its 70 years of captivity. The stage is then set for Daniel to intercede to God on behalf of his people so that they may be granted their freedom at the conclusion of their long captivity.

The film itself is quite Biblically accurate with only a little bit of creative license taken in the scene where Daniel actually recounts the 70+ year story. This movie is Dove approved for all audiences.

Description

Yellow Day chronicles a young man’s life-changing and inspirational journey through the mysterious Yellow Day.

Yellow Day is simply a fun day celebrating outreach at a kid’s camp, but to some, God bestows visions and miracles, transforming their lives. For this young man, the Yellow Day becomes an imaginative adventure: showing him true heroes, challenging him to face his fears, find love, and inviting him to accept grace.

A beautiful retreat with the motto: “Lives are changed and souls are strengthened.” Guided by a friendly 10-year-old girl, his spiritual journey back to the light, to witness the triumphs of others, face his fears, and fulfil his destiny, will test the strength of both his faith and his courage.

Description

“As I look back over the past 70 years leading the Crusade Choirs around the world for Billy Graham, I remember how wonderful the Lord has been and celebrate the joy and privilege of this extraordinary experience. My heart has been thrilled as I’ve listened to the way the Crusade Choirs have interpreted the wonderful hymns and songs on this CD. They painted sound pictures with compassion, joy and praise in their hearts and created a very special experience for you and the congregations that heard them. In the words of Billy Graham following each Hour of Decision radio programme through the years, “May the Lord bless you – real good!”” – Cliff Barrows.

“Great theology produces great hymnology, which produces great doxology.” – Stephen Olford

Description

“There is a uniqueness about a choir in the UK because the men usually sing a men’s part – unlike many parts of the world where men struggle with the melody. Of course, so much is lost when the harmony is not included, but I never worried about that in the UK because those male voices were always present and they sang the hymns with joy and understanding. That is one of the blessings of the choral ministry in Britain that I appreciated most of all. The blend, the balance, and the blessing are so wonderfully united with the volunteer choir in the UK. What a joy it has been for me to lead them, to encourage them, and to enjoy them. May those who listen to this CD experience the same joy. This is my prayer.” – Cliff Barrows

Description

When the Saints documents one young man's mission to end sexual exploitation in the African nation of Malawi, a journey that begins in his own heart.

The program not only calls us to care about justice for girls trafficked in rural Africa, but also to examine the ways that lust, personal impurity, pornography, and distorted views about romantic relationships serve to feed the problem.

The film is a thought-provoking and powerful tool to rally the saints with a call to greater purity.

Description

Evergreen stems from a season of renewed creativity for Assad. Forging through the flames of personal pain in the deepest corners of her broken heart, new songs of rebirth, identity, the rebuilding of trust and discovery of joy and love have taken shape.

“Faith and belief are not things that come easily to me at all. It’s become one of the battles of my life to not feel ashamed about that,” admits Assad. “I lose my faith a lot, and find it over-and-over again,” she continues. “The best picture I can come up with to describe what’s it’s like is that sometimes when I look inside my heart, it looks like a burned-out forest –bare branches everywhere and destruction. But there’s always a tree in the middle and it’s evergreen. It’s the tree of life. That’s what I hold onto when I’m feeling lost. ‘Drawn to You’ is a song about what I find at the bottom of the pile of my fears, my anxiety, my belief and my unbelief; I find that, at the end of every day, in every season, I am still drawn to God.”

Description

Many believers seem to “have it all” in theory or doctrine but not in actual experience. If God has already given us an abundant inheritance in Christ, why do we so often lack what we need? And how can we enter into its blessings?

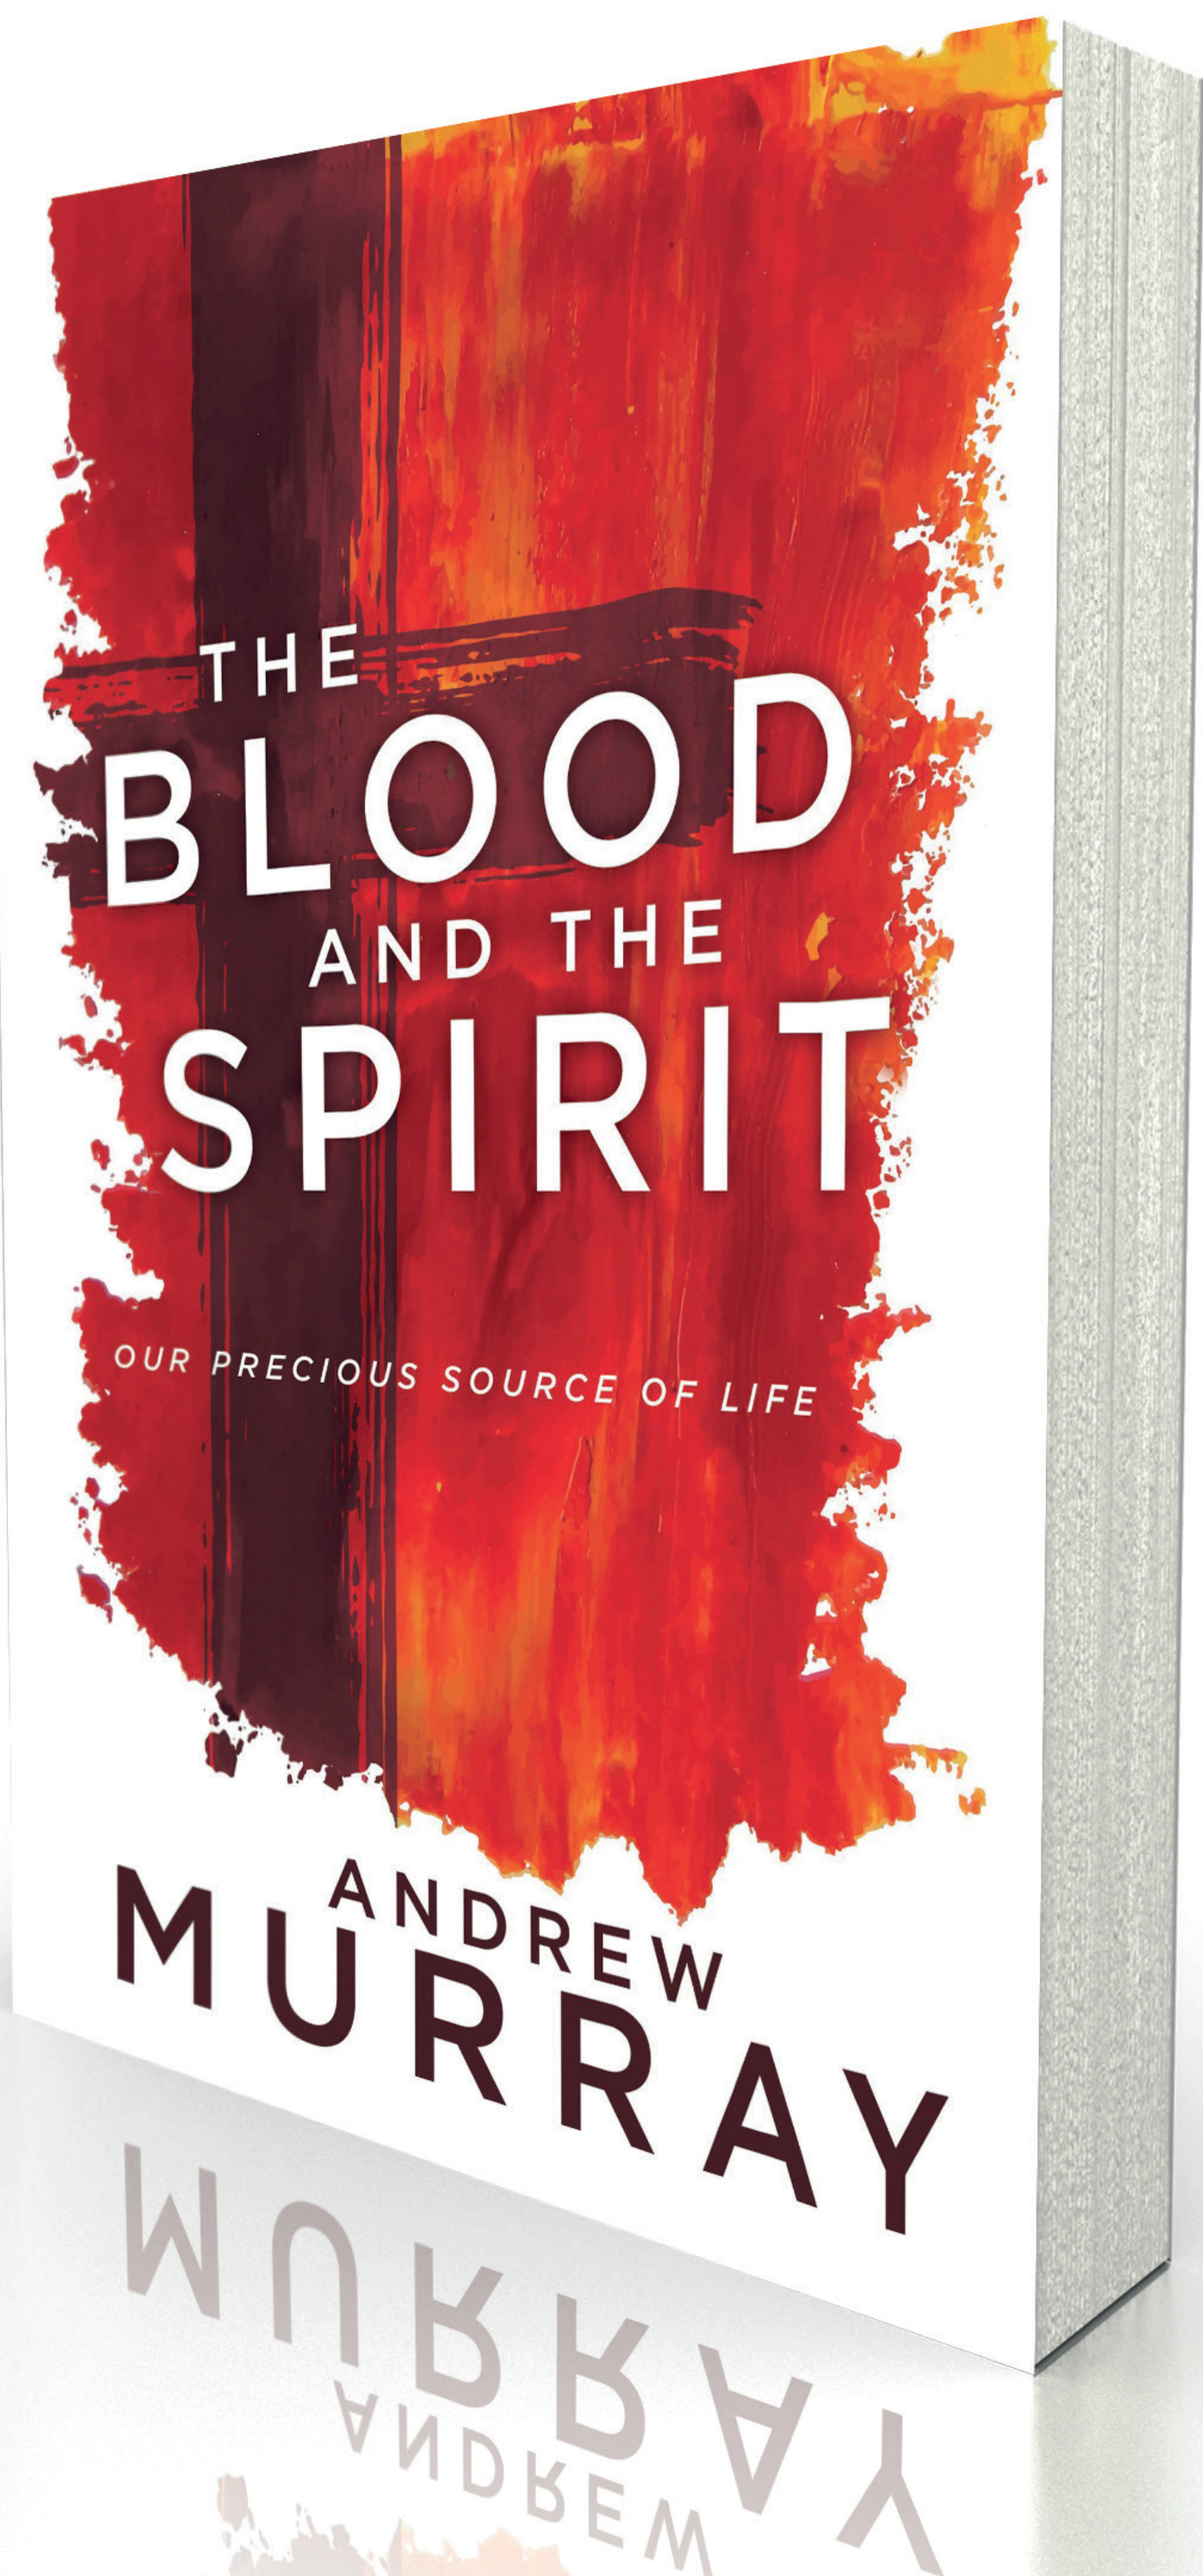

To receive our full birthright, we must understand God’s promises and how to possess them. Every day, challenges arise in our lives that can be met through God’s powerful provision.

In a very practical way, renowned Bible teacher Derek Prince shows us how to address our difficulties and have our needs supplied by claiming the specific promises appropriate for each situation.

We can receive blessings in the form of wisdom, guidance, favor at work, good relationships, financial prosperity, healing, peace of mind, and more. God’s provision is in His promises, and His promises are our inheritance—now and for all eternity!

Discover how to claim your inheritance today. “[God] has given us everything we need.... He has given us His very great and precious promises” (2 Peter 1:3–4 NIV).

Description

Andrew Murray, who strongly believed that missions are the chief end of the church, never tired of spreading the word about the powerful work of the Spirit through the blood of Christ.

In both his sacrificial life and his writings, Murray explained the mystery of Christ’s blood as our precious source of life.

In The Blood and the Spirit, he reflects on the tremendous power that Christ’s blood has for each of us if we accept it as our rightful inheritance and rely upon it to protect and enable us to accomplish our purposes in God.
