Description

Nearly two years in the making, this project began by gathering many writers together over two sessions in both Malvern and London. With over 90 song ideas for this album and with 28 writers involved, the team chose the final album tracks through a feedback process. The album features 15 new songs that have come from 19 different writers. These new Elim Sound writers include Chris and Abby Eaton, Mark Stone, Lucy Rose Garnish, Suzanne Hanna and Fiona Crow. Elim Sound also brought in some new voices on the project, including Alex Davis (Cardiff), Shell Perris (Malvern) and Nathan Jess (Portadown, Ireland)

This is Elim Sound’s most collaborative release to date and brings a collective sound from right across our Movement. ‘One’ was Produced by Ian Yates, mixed by Trevor Michael and mastered at Abbey Road by Geoff Pesche, a number of the tracks include a 40 piece choir

Releasing just in time for when they lead worship at Spring Harvest and Elim’s National Summit in May.

Description

“Powerful. Emotionally charged. Beautifully illustrates the love between two people and the unconditional love of God.”

Husband-and-wife singing duo Joey and Rory wanted more to life...so they chose less, simplifying their lives and placing their music career on hold. They planted roots deep into the soil of their small farm, and the community they loved.

They believed God would give them a great story . . . and He did.

From the arrival of their daughter Indiana, who was born with Down Syndrome, through Joey’s struggle with and ultimate surrender to cancer, this inspiring true story of hope and faith is a love story for the ages.

Description

Most of us know Billy Graham as the self-assured and charismatic preacher who became one of the most important figures of 20th Century Christianity. Now, with the release of Billy: The Early Years, we meet Billy as the earnest and promising young man at the crossroads of faith and doubt, ultimately facing the moment of decision that launched one of history's most powerful evangelistic careers.

Most compellingly, Billy: The Early Years paints its portrait of Graham against the backdrop of his relationship with Charles Templeton, another gifted young preacher who's faith could not withstand the onslaught of scientific scepticism. He and Graham parted ways and in the film, Templeton comes to personify the rising tide of disbelief into which Graham launched his crusades.

Filmed in Tennessee, Billy: The Early Years captures the feel of the Depression-era tent revival where Graham heeded the altar call, and follows him through the doubt and resolution of the next decade.

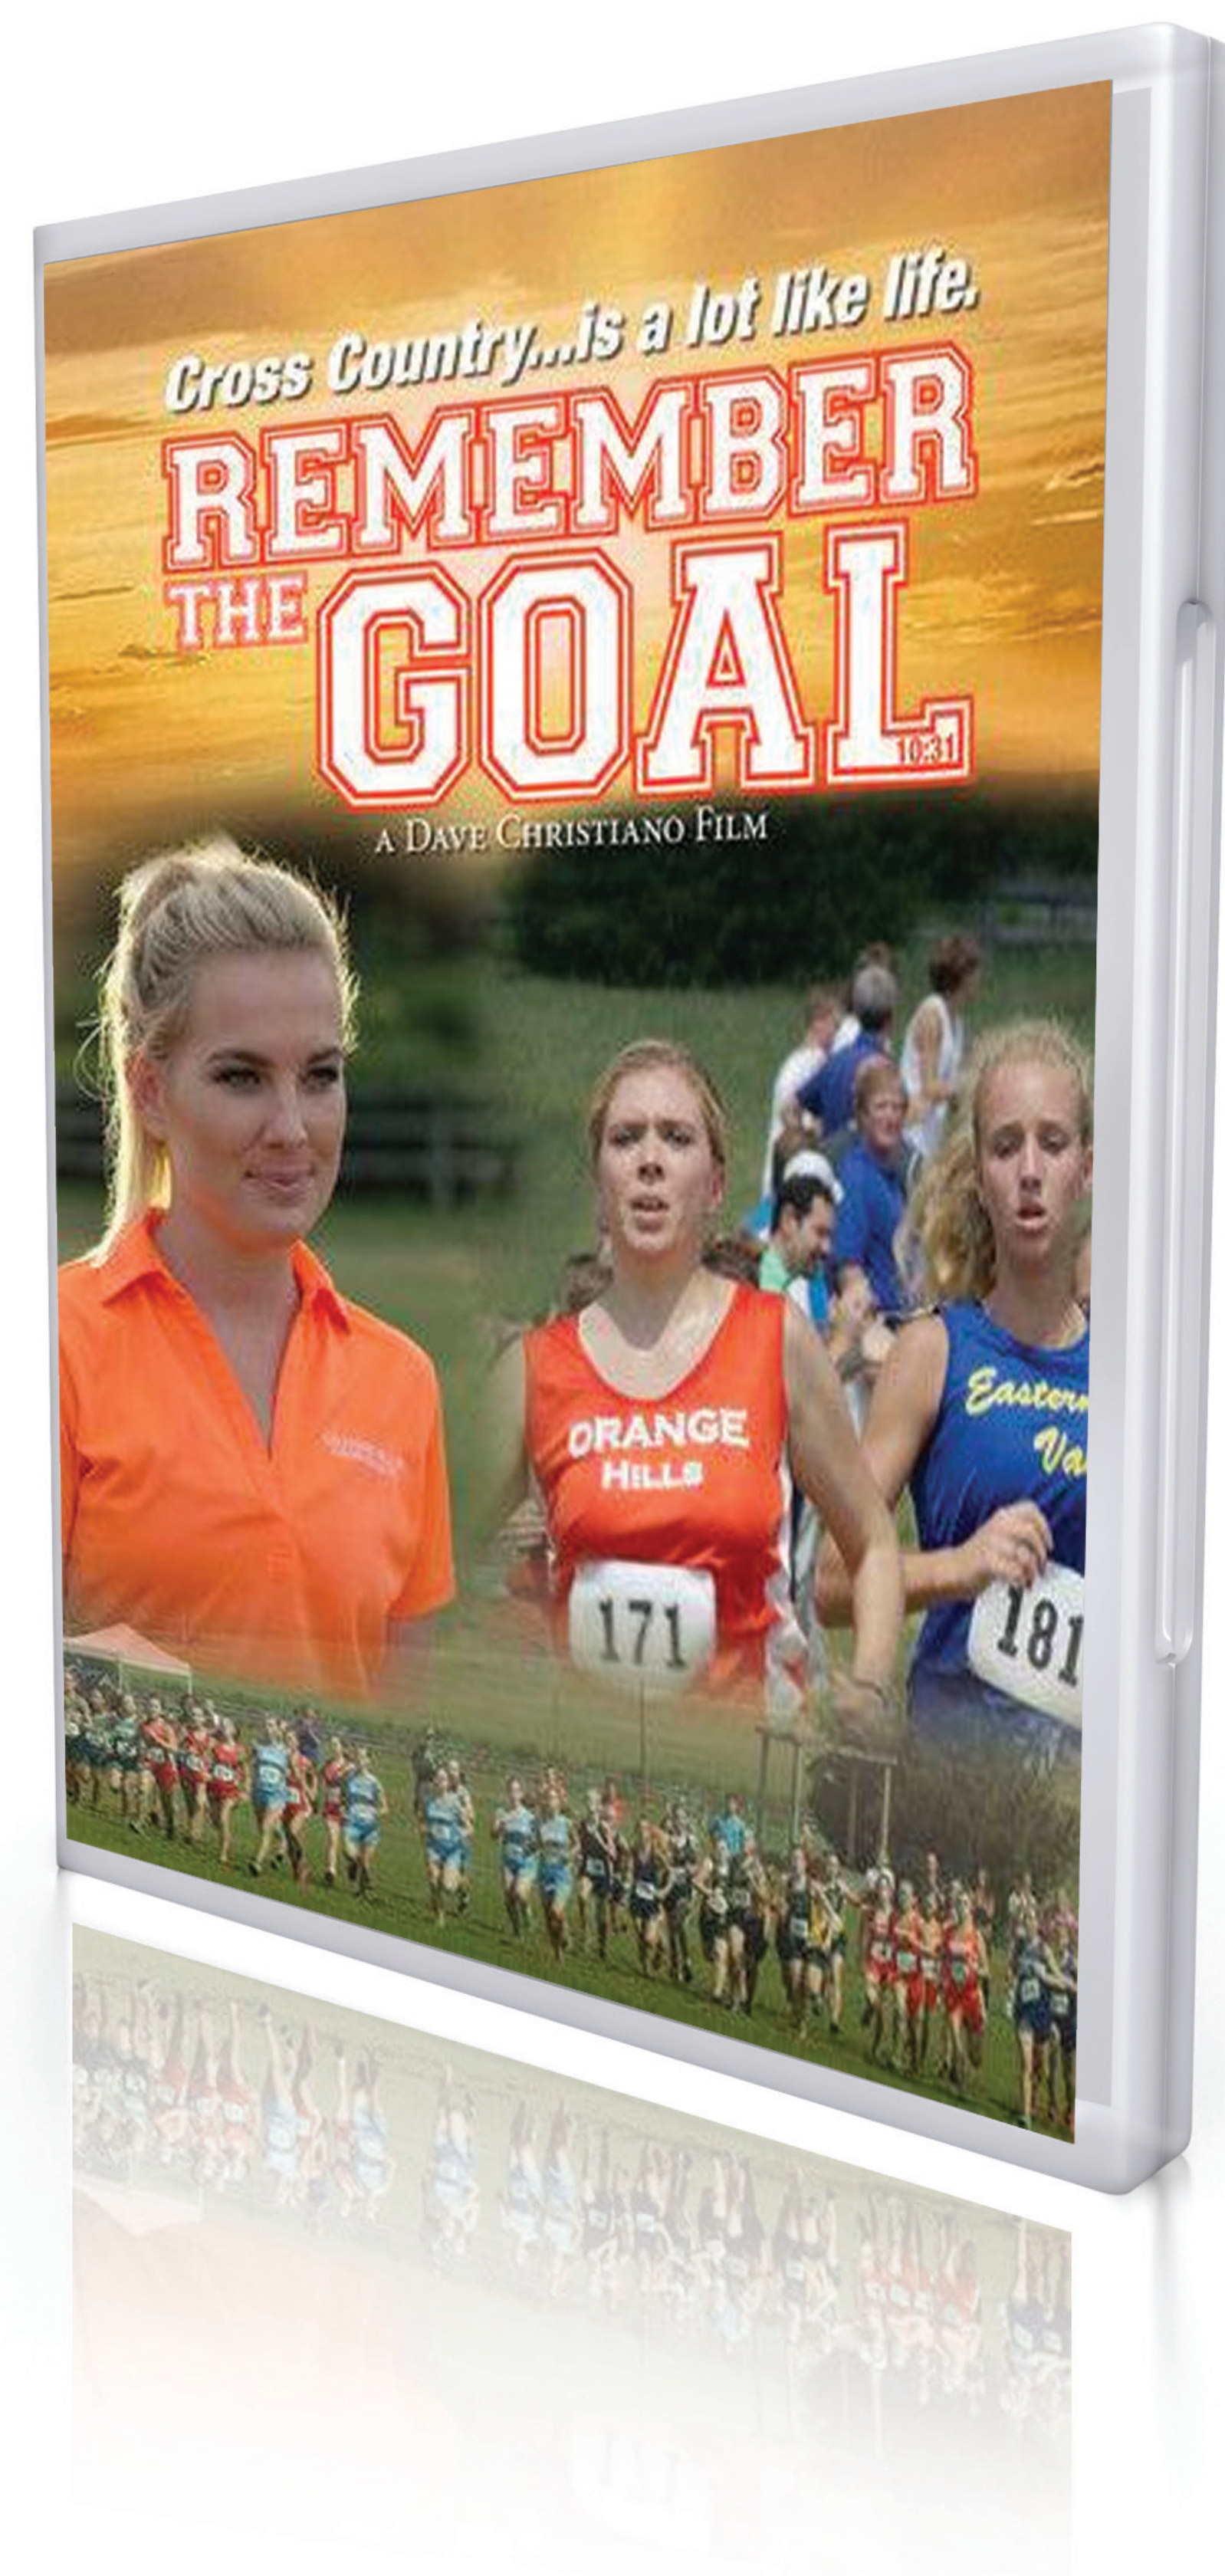

The film was directed by the versatile actor/director Robby Benson – the voice of The Beast in Disney's Beauty and the Beast. The movie's power lays in its honest portrayal of Billy's struggle with the ideas represented in Templeton's eventual unbelief and shows how Billy's faith, so dramatically portrayed in the film, goes on to change the face of modern evangelism.

Description

“Whatever you do, do all to the glory of God.” 1 Corinthians 10:31

A young female coach (Allee-Sutton Hethcoat) fresh out of college takes over the cross country program at an all girls’ Christian school and attempts to lead them to their first ever state title. As the runners begin to train, the top five girls all deal separately with particular issues relevant to teen life. As each of these stories unfold, so does the wisdom of the young coach as she guides the girls along the pathway of life.

This inspirational drama will bring a new meaning to the phrase “10:31”. (Based on 1 Corinthians 10:31, “whatever you do, do all to the glory of God”).

Endorsement:

“I recommend the movie Remember the Goal to you as fine family entertainment. It has a timely message that will resonate to the athlete and non-athlete alike.” – Jim Ryun, three-time Olympian, multiple world record holder

Description

As parents, we all want our children to grow up to be healthy and happy, but do we ever think about how we can help them grow up to love God?

Raising Faith is full of stories and encouragement to help us feel enthused and confident to nurture faith in our children. It's packed with bite-sized articles and helpful ideas to try out even in the middle of the busyness of family life.

Katharine and Andy's honest and practical advice will dispel the guilt, show us how much we're already doing, and inspire us with simple new ways to help our children love God while they are young.

"We know that there are no guarantees that our children will find a faith of their own, but there is so much we can do to help and encourage them on that journey. I love this book because it's low on guilt and high on practical things we can do as parents to really make a difference."

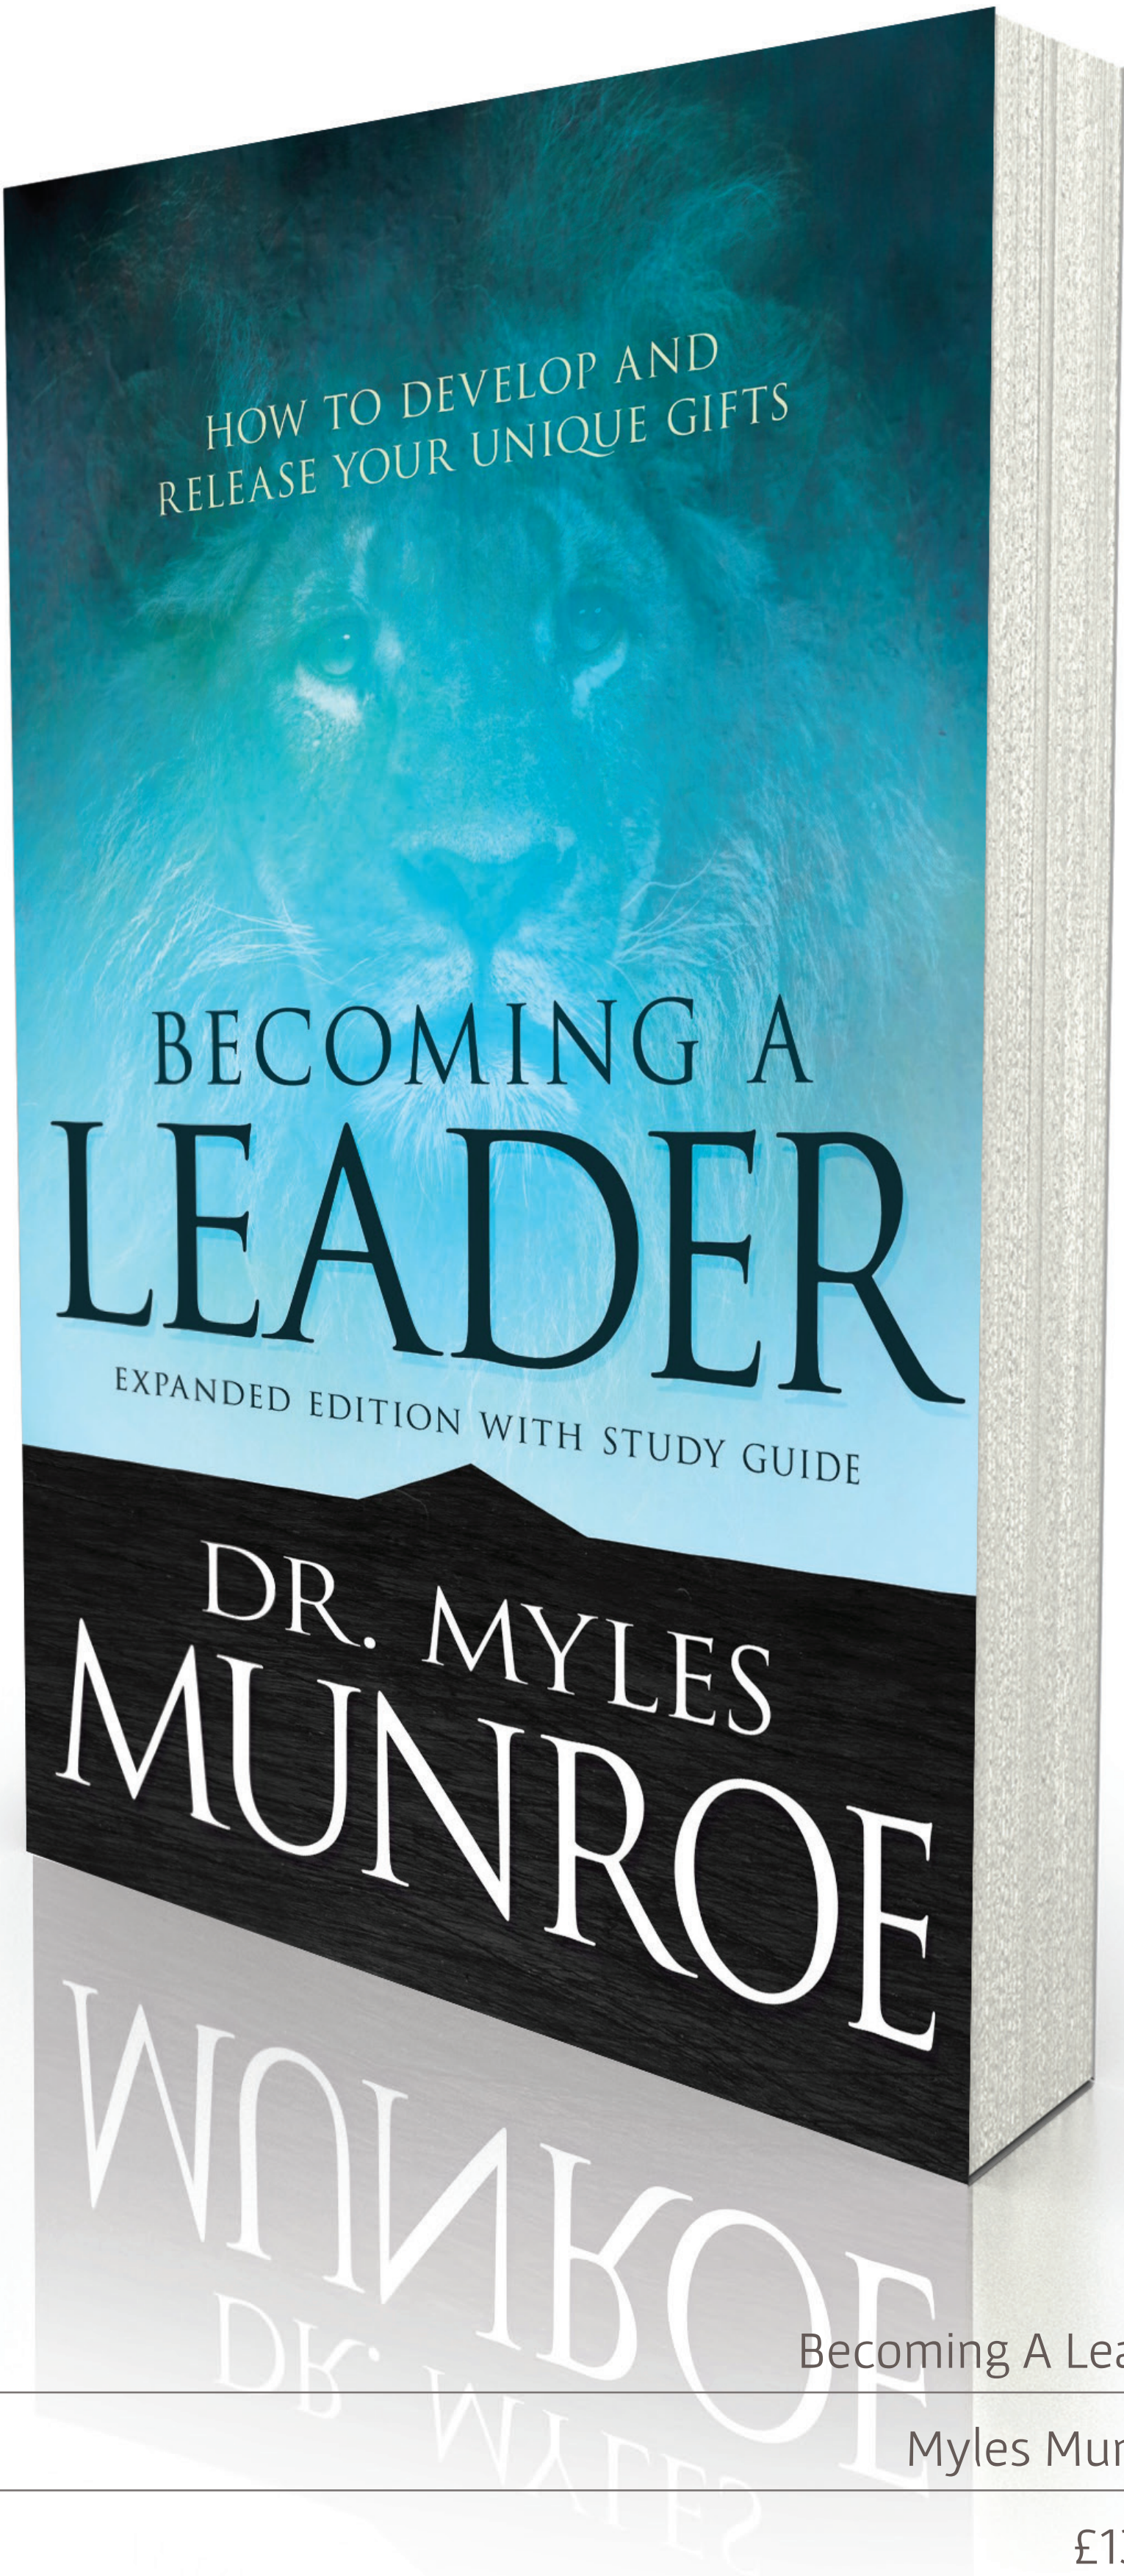

Rob Parsons, Founder and Chairman, Care for the Family

"A challenging, inspiring, hopeful and practical book that every Christian parent should read straight away. This is a vital resource for all of us who desperately want our children to find Jesus for themselves."

Cathy Madavan, speaker and writer

Description

The world is at a crossroads. No matter where you look, uprisings and unrest have laid hold of the nations, as if echoing the cries of a people longing for a greater reckoning. For rising worship minstrel William McDowell that divinely appointed time will be revealed when the sons and daughters of the King rise up and take their rightful place on the Earth.

Arise, McDowell’s arresting sophomore recording for eOne Entertainment, is a testament for such a time as this, a worship experience that not only invites listeners to join in the song, but that also moves them beyond the sanctuary to the very frontlines of society.

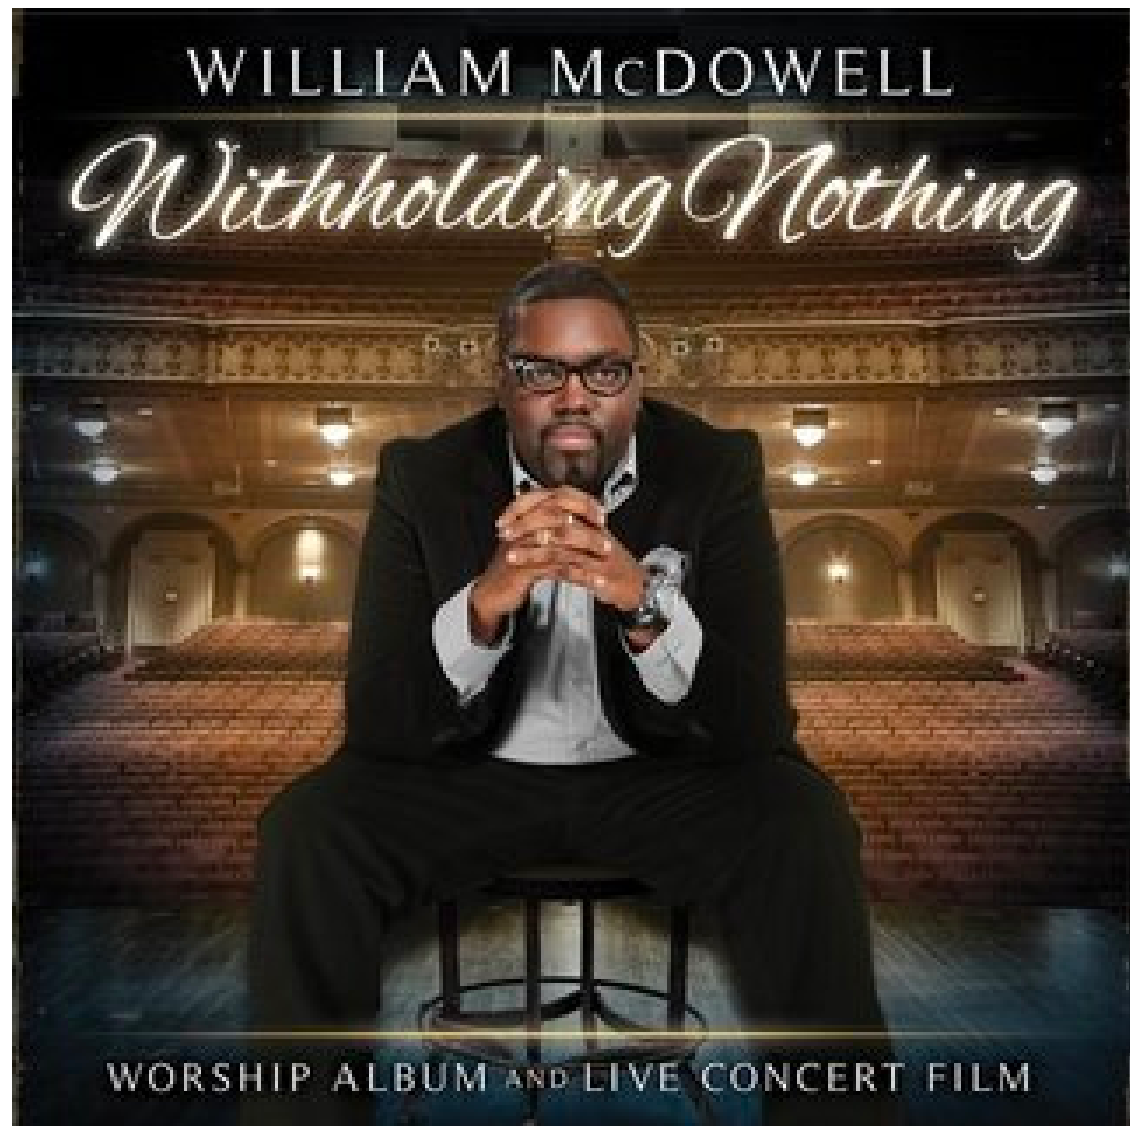

Recorded live in front of an audience of more than 2,000 worshippers at Christian Life Center in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, Arise bears all the hallmarks of a worship classic-in-the-making rife with melodies and messages that speak to the heart of the Church’s mission to know God and make him known.

Description

Terry MacAlmon’s first live worship album in 2 years is already being described as Terry’s most anointed project yet! Here’s what Terry has to say about ‘For the Bride’:

Wow – this one is special! I am very pleased with God’s anointing and presence on our 6th live worship recording, taken from the Pikes Peak Worship Festivals of 2005 and 2006. I love to capture these moments because they are so heavy with His glory. I titled this project ‘For the Bride’ because it is full of the bride of Christ offering our pure sacrifice of praise and worship to Jesus. The intimate worship found here will take you away!

You will often find yourself right in the middle of 1500 worshippers soaking in His wonderful presence. Some songs are new, some are old, and a few are somewhere in between. Altogether this is another seamless recording with the beautiful ebb and flow of the Holy Spirit promising to lift your soul to heavenly places. So get yourself alone, relax and join His glorious bride as we give our best for our King.

Holy: Piano & Orchestra – Terry MacAlmon CD

Description

Holy! Is Terry MacAlmon’s brand-new piano instrumental featuring a 70-piece orchestra. Terry travelled to Prague, Czech Republic, for the opportunity to record with the philharmonic orchestra in one of Europe’s most captivating cities.

Holy! Will impact any believer who needs a deeper walk with God because the anointing helps to bring the presence of the Lord. And of course it’s in His presence that we experience refreshing and renewal. You will love the new arrangements of some of your favourites along with several tunes Terry wrote expressly for this recording.
