Description

When newcomer Grácia Davis arrives in debate class, “undercover Christians” Chase and OB are challenged to take a stand for what they believe in.

Grácia embodies warmth and confidence, making both friends and enemies. Her faith outlook on the world soon turns out to be less welcome in class than other ideas. As she confronts an institutional double-standard on freedom of speech, school faculty clash over a Christian teacher who has misstepped.

All the while, Grácia reaches out to a fellow student caught in a destructive relationship. With growing affection for the friend he was once afraid even to call on the phone, Chase ultimately follows her courageous example and takes a tremendous personal risk to discover his own voice.

Description

Charlton Heston and Yul Brynner star in this classic adventure drama directed by Cecil B. de Mille. After Egyptian Pharaoh Rameses I (Ian Keith) orders the death of all firstborn Hebrew males, Moses (Heston) is spared by his mother who casts him adrift in a reed basket on the Nile.

Picked up by the Pharaoh's daughter Bithiah (Nina Foch), Moses is adopted and brought up in the court of her brother Seti (Cedric Hardwicke). However, after his Hebrew heritage is revealed, Moses is banished by his half-brother Rameses II (Brynner) and sent out into the desert. When he is then given a message by God, Moses vows to return to Egypt and free his people from slavery.

Description

William Wyler directs this historical epic starring Charlton Heston in the title role. Judah Ben-Hur (Heston) is a Jewish prince who falls out with his close Roman friend Messala (Stephen Boyd) when he refuses to promote Roman rule over his people – his mother and sister are imprisoned and he is enslaved. Hur plans and achieves revenge after three years as a slave and later becoming a charioteer, but finds true peace when he returns to Jerusalem and joins the new following of Jesus Christ.

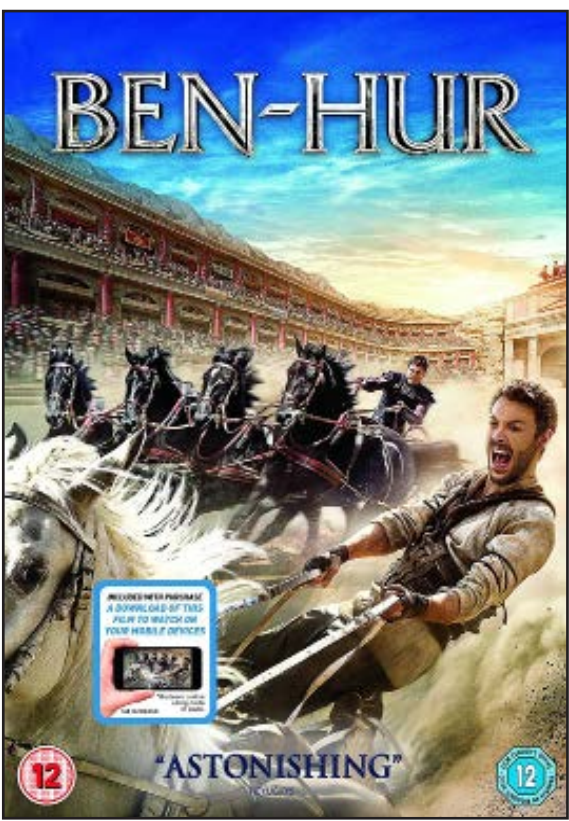

The film won eleven Academy Awards including Best Picture, Best Director, Best Actor in a Leading Role (Heston) and Best Actor in a Supporting Role (Hugh Griffith).

Description

The story of a peasant girl Bernadette Soubirous, a poverty-stricken, pure hearted adolescent, who saw a vision, of a “Beautiful Lady” near her home town of Lourdes in 1858. The wondrous news spreads rapidly throughout France, leaving in its wake a variety of consequences: adoration, suspicion and greed among the people of Lourdes skepticism from the town doctor (Lee J. Cobb) charges of insanity from the town prosecutor (Vincent Price) threats of physical punishment, then support and guidance from the Dean of Lourdes (Charles Bickford), who finally becomes convinced that the miracle has, indeed, taken place.

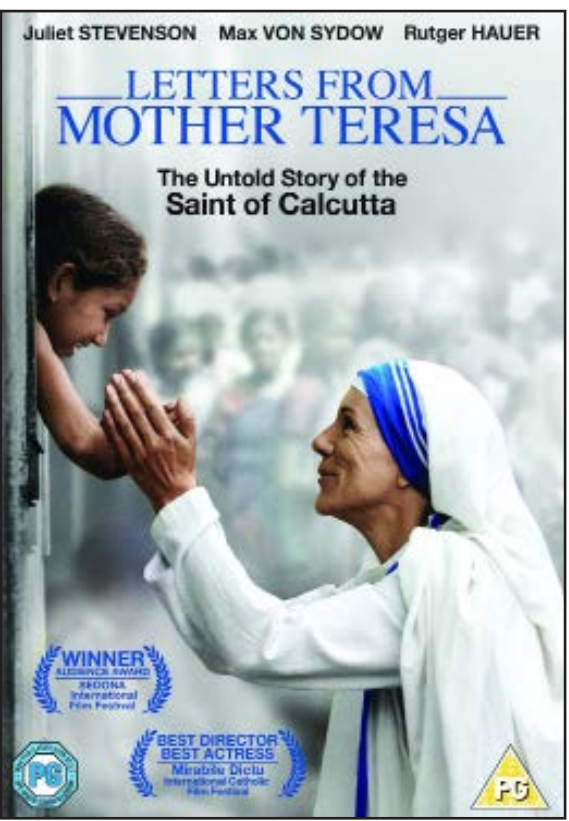

Winner of four Academy Awards, including Best Actress and Best Score, this true story is both first-rate filmmaking and an inspiring tribute to faith, courage and the human spirit.

Jesus Culture – Living With A Fire CD

Description

New live worship album ‘Living With A Fire’ was recorded at Jesus Culture’s home church during their conference in Sacramento, CA and features worship leaders Kim Walker–Smith, Chris Quilala, Bryan & Katie Torwalt, Derek Johnson and Chris McClarney.

“It was amazing to record at our home conference again,” shares Chris Quilala. “The worship that poured out by every single person in the room was contagious. I forever want my heart to burn with passion for God so the world might know the love of Christ through my life. This is the simple message of Living with a Fire. It is especially important for the church, in this time, to keep their hearts burning for Jesus and to be a light to the world.”

Kim Walker Smith adds, “Over the years we have poured our lives out for Jesus, fought for our relationships with Him, and also our relationships with each other. When we first started, it was a passion that ignited in our hearts that became the flame and Jesus fanned into a fire. Our prayer in the beginning was that we would never lose sight of what matters above everything else; relationship with Jesus and bringing Him glory! Now, on the verge of 20 years, we can say with conviction that our hearts are still burning for Jesus, and we are still wanting to bring Him glory, above all.”

This album proclaims the matchless love of Jesus and to see a generation of young and old, completely given to walking in His presence.

Description

Love Surpassing Knowledge is about creating an accessible community which reflects God’s heart for all people and includes those with additional needs. Accessibility is so much more than ramps and physical access. This book explores how we can enable everyone to have a deep knowing of God’s love – a love which surpasses anything we can know or explain. A love that does not depend on our own ability at all, but depends entirely on the character of our God. A love that sees value in each and every individual, no matter what the world sees.

“Full of wisdom and hope, drawing on years of experience from within New Wine, and written by someone whose heart is full of love for those who are often excluded.” – Paul Harcourt, National Leader, New Wine

“Naomi is a practitioner and a pioneer who is giving a voice to the often voiceless in our society; those with additional needs or mental health issues. Her writing makes the profound and universal message of God’s love something that we can offer to another without stigma and prejudice.” – Will Van Der Hart, Pastoral Chaplain, Holy Trinity Brompton

Naomi is head of Accessible Church Ministry for New Wine. She currently works for Growing Hope King’s Cross, based at KXC church in London.

Description

“Like most of us who want our lives to be more happy than sad, I have pondered the concept of joy. I have been prophesied over regarding joy and delighted in the idea of it. Not to compensate for a grumpy disposition, but because I genuinely want to be a joyful person!”

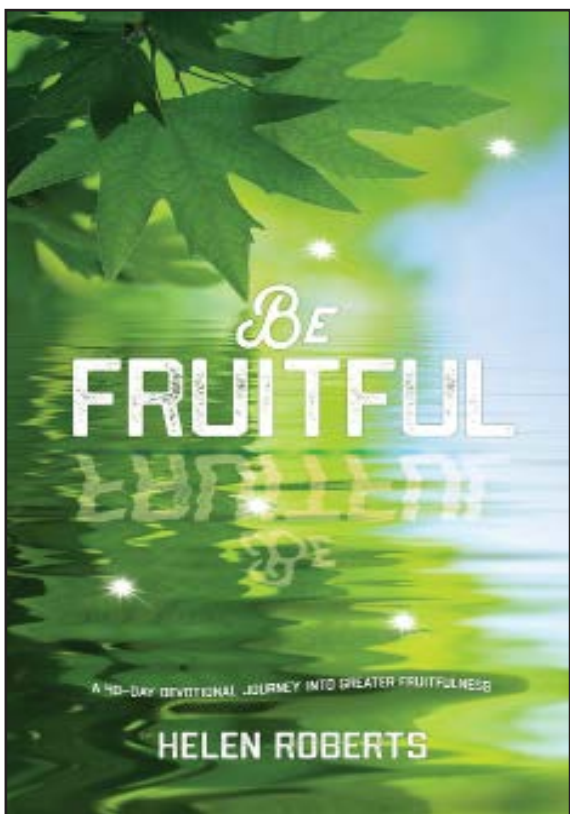

Joy, as a fruit of the Holy Spirit, breaks the bonds of sadness. Joy brings strength and peace. Joy brings fulfilment and endurance.

So how do we get real joy?

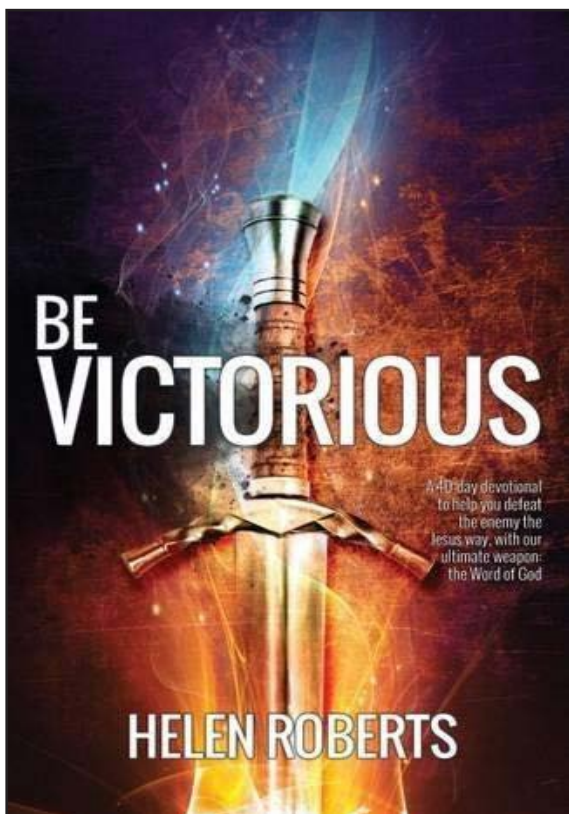

An in-depth study of the story of the Prodigal Son reveals that there were in fact two lost sons in Jesus’ parable – the one who ran away, and the one who stayed at home, yet still lost his understanding of true sonship. Through this parable, Helen Roberts explores the meaning of true joy – how we can find it, and how we can apply it to the way we live, day by day.

Helen’s devotional plans on the YouVersion Bible app have been read almost 50,000 times.

Description

Feel drained? Like all your strength has been sapped? Killing Kryptonite offers a way to fight back against the tide of tiredness. Get your mind, your faith and life back on track today. You Can Destroy What Steals Your Strength.

Just like Superman, who can leap over any hurdle and defeat every foe, followers of Christ have the supernatural ability to conquer the challenges we face. But the problem for both Superman and us is there's a kryptonite that steals our strength.

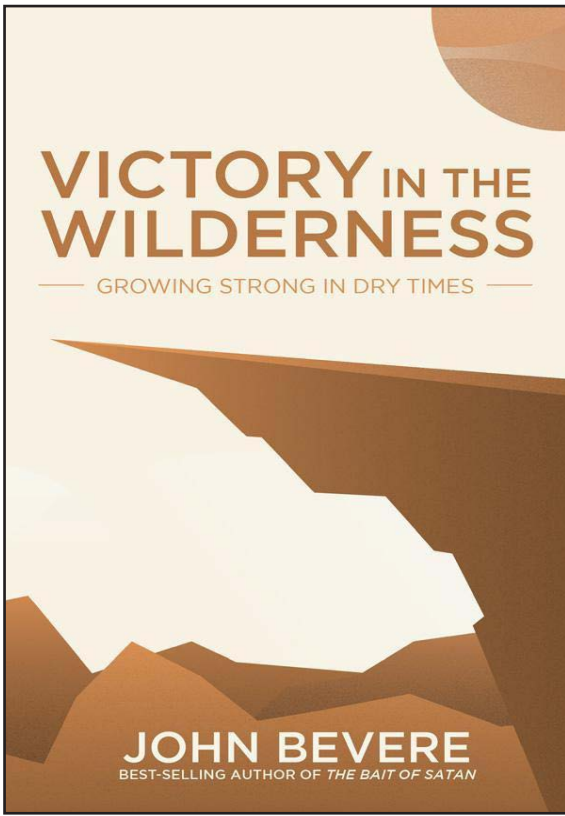

Of course, both Superman and kryptonite are fictional. But spiritual kryptonite is not.

This book offers answers to why so many of us are unable to experience the divine strength that was evident among first-century Christians.

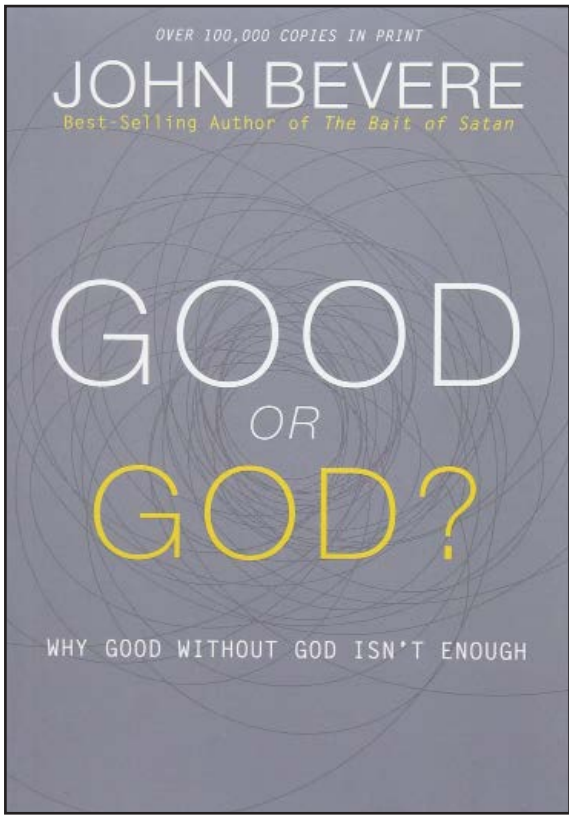

In Killing Kryptonite, John Bevere reveals what this kryptonite is, why it's compromising our communities, and how to break free from its bondage.

Not for the faint of heart, Killing Kryptonite is anything but a spiritual sugar high. This is serious truth for any Christ-follower who longs to embrace the challenging but rewarding path of transformation.

Description

Why Good Without God Isn't Enough
If it's good, it must be God. Right?

These days the terms good and God seem synonymous. We believe what's generally accepted as good must be in line with God's will. Generosity, humility, justice – good. Selfishness, arrogance, cruelty – evil. The distinction seems pretty straightforward.

But is that all there is to it? If good is so obvious, why does the Bible say that we need discernment to recognise it?

Good or God? isn't another self-help message. This book will do more than ask you to change your behaviour. It will empower you to engage with God on a level that will change every aspect of your life.

Description

What if you learned you were part of an experiment where the next 24 hours would determine the quality of the rest of your life? Everything from the job you hold to the neighbourhood and house you live in will be tied to how you navigate the course of one day. How would you approach those 24 hours? Would you be intentional or would you hope for the best and leave everything to chance? As far-fetched as this experiment might seem, it closely resembles how your choices today will impact your forever.

In Driven by Eternity, best-selling author John Bevere uses an eye-opening allegory and extensive Scripture to paint a vivid picture of the way our lives on this earth shape our eternal existence. Life beyond that final breath is much more than just a destination.

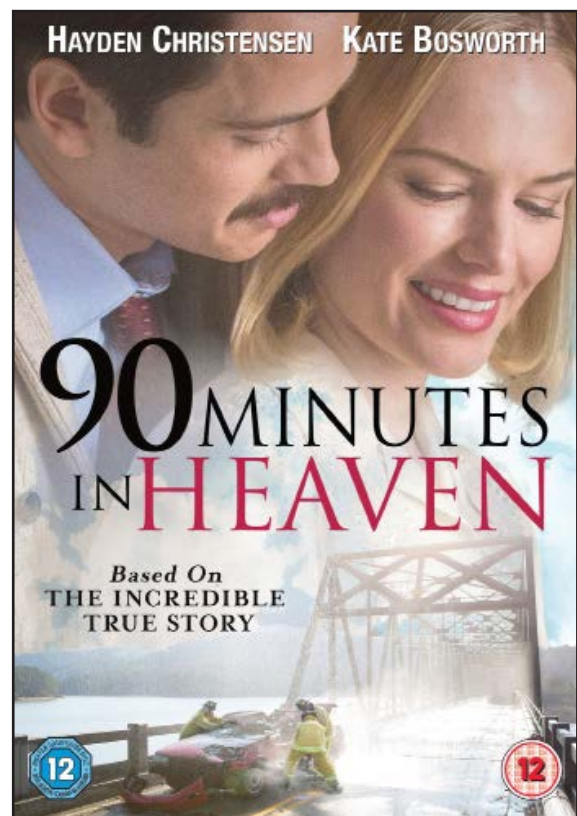

Don't wait until it's too late. Discover now how you can make your life count both today and forever.

Book includes discussion questions for group study.

Description

For tens of thousands of Christians over the last century, Charles Haddon Spurgeon’s Morning and Evening has been a daily devotional guide through life’s ups and downs.

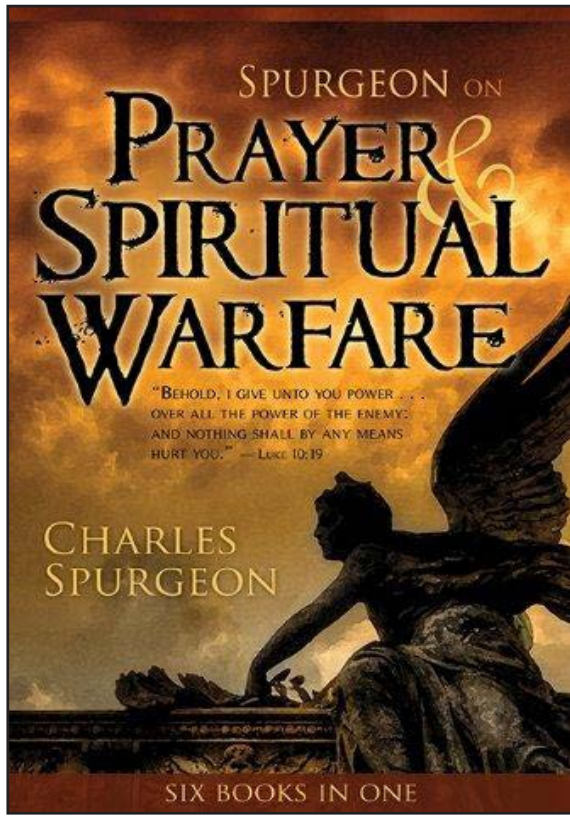

New generations can once again enjoy Spurgeon’s beautiful prose and elegant command of the English language in this completely revised edition. Morning and Evening offers readers the best of Spurgeon’s insight and wise counsel on themes that are as relevant to our day as they were in his day. In this updated version, Spurgeon’s work is returned to its former brilliance while retaining the beautiful language of the original King James Version.

Special Features: Each day’s devotions are presented on a two–page spread for complete ease of use. Each of the 732 devotions alone for every morning and evening of the year provides inspiring meditations on portions of Scripture drawn from every book of the Bible. A new topical index helps readers discover Spurgeon’s thoughts on various topics important to Christian life. An index of texts lets readers find what Spurgeon had to say about a particular Bible verse. Spurgeon has penned meditations, expressed simply but eloquently, that continue to draw readers to faith and obedience.

Description

What is the one thing that “puts God to work”? Prayer!

In response to His children’s prayers and petitions, God has promised to answer, to do, and to give us “all things whatsoever.”

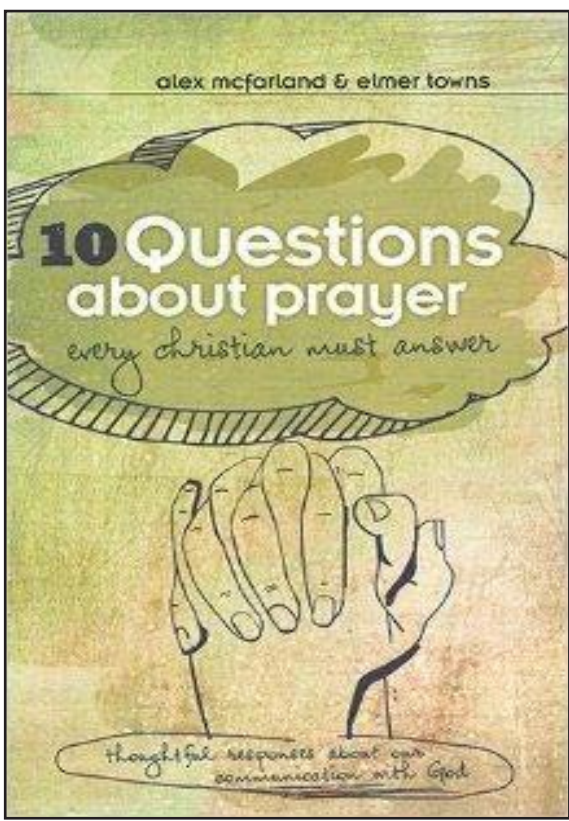

E. M. Bounds expounds on God’s need of people who pray. He explains why prayer moves God to act, how busyness in church activities can hinder prayer, why Jesus could not dispense with prayer, how the early apostles gave themselves to prayer, and why prayer is essential in God’s kingdom.

Includes inspiring sketches of the prayer lives of dedicated Christians, such as David Brainerd, George Müller, and Jonathan Edwards. This journal edition includes room for readers to reflect and add their own prayers.
