Lucy Grimble – Created To Worship – Live from London

Description

Recorded over two nights in London, ‘Created to Worship’ is Lucy’s first live album, which features 10 original songs, and an incredible 14-piece band of musicians and singers.

The invitation to embrace lies at the heart of this album. First, knowing above everything else that we are forever embraced by the unconditional love of God. From that place, learning to embrace our own individual value and to love who we have been created to be. And from there embracing the wonder and diversity of the kingdom of God and its reflection in humanity – you, me, others.

Reflecting the multi-faceted nature of worship, the songs on this album invite the listener into moments of joyful celebration and also tender reflection as it explores the themes of freedom, intimacy and wholeness that is found in the love of God.

Description

J.R.R. Tolkien, C.S. Lewis, and George MacDonald were the pioneers of the fantasy genre and their impact is unmistakable. Their works— exploring Middle-earth, Narnia, and other tales of redemption, sacrifice, and the battle of good and evil—have become best-selling books and blockbuster movies. Contemporary fantasy writers such as J.K. Rowling grew up inspired by their works.

All three were deeply committed Christians, and their spiritual convictions permeate their writing. They engaged and challenged from the pulpit of imagination, speaking truth through fantasy.

Faith in Imagination: The Fantasy Makers examines the spiritual influences of these fantasy pioneers and the lasting impact their works have on our present-day culture. Featuring Rowan Williams, Kristin Jeffrey Johnson, Malcolm Guite, Allister McGrath, and Michael Ward.

Description

This book contains shocking information which has been omitted from most Christian history books. This volume examines the tragic role Christians have played in the persecution of Jews for centuries. Most Christians are unaware of this bloody stain on the church’s legacy.

How and why did the church persecute the Jewish people with demonic hatred in the name of Christ? Merrill Bolender’s important work answers this question by providing historical documentation that readers are not likely to hear in the average pulpit or seminary.

Merrill identifies the theological error of replacement theology and shows how this unbiblical teaching played a key role in the slaughter of countless Jews during the crusades, inquisitions, pogroms, and even the holocaust. The cross – a symbol of God’s love – literally became a sword.

The church must understand the Jewish people’s prophetic role in the unfolding redemptive purposes of God in these last days. The Body of Christ must learn, understand and rightly apply the Scriptures relating to God’s covenantal plans for the land of Israel and His chosen people.

Will the church harden it’s heart and repeat the same mistakes of the past? Or will she learn from her errors, recognise sin, and repent? Only by repenting will the church experience the healing, restoration, and reconciliation that God desires – for Israel and the church.

Author Bio

Merrill Bolender and his wife Donna came from ordinary backgrounds with an undeniable calling on their lives. They lived and worked in Israel nearly three years during the 1980’s and since 2004 have worked and served with Ebenezer Operation Exodus.

This organisation, birthed in 1991, has been an instrument of the Lord assisting 133,000 Jewish people by ship and plane in their return to the land of Israel in fulfilment of Bible prophecy.
