Description

The Stray tells the true story of a stray dog who saves a struggling family in more ways than one. Written and directed by Mitch Davis (The Other Side of Heaven).

“Pluto” comes out of nowhere and quickly makes himself at home with the Davis family, who are on the brink of falling apart. Dad (Michael Cassidy; Argo, Batman v. Superman: Dawn of Justice) is a career-driven workaholic who is neglecting his marriage and family. Mum (Sarah Lancaster; Chuck, Saved by the Bell: The New Class) is at her wit’s end raising three young kids. The last thing they need is another mouth to feed. Or is it?

In just a short time with the Davis family, Pluto the “wonderdog” manages to save a lost toddler, bring comfort and companionship to a hurting 9-year-old boy, help restore a marriage, and repair a broken father-son relationship. Pluto is not only a guard dog – he’s a guardian angel.

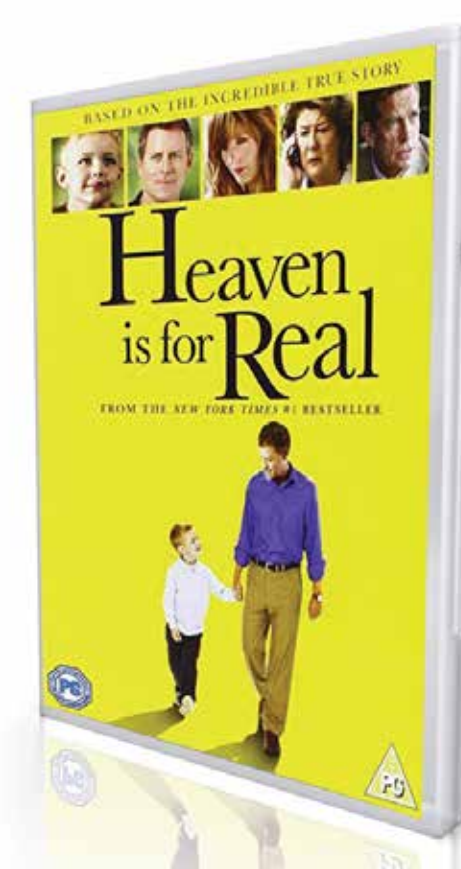

Sometimes help comes from the most unlikely places. Sometimes our prayers get answered in strange ways. Sometimes one dog can change everything.

Description

God is not finished with Betsy Simons yet! Her adventure continues in this heartfelt sequel to Heavens to Betsy.

Author Betsy Simon (Karen Lesiewicz) finally finds career success when her new novel, Heavens to Betsy, is published. The book tells the story of a young woman who is transported to an alternate universe where all the prayers she ever prayed are answered all at once.

Following advice from her agent (Ruth Kaufman), she tells the public that the book is a work of fiction. After talking with Pastor John (Jim O'Heir from TV's "Parks and Recreation") Betsy cannot continue to lie, so she risks her career and her credibility when she claims that the events portrayed in the book actually happened to her! Now she must defend her faith before a skeptical world when she agrees to do a high-profile interview with Tandum Dackery (Gary Gow), a self-serving media personality who is bent on exposing Betsy as a fraud.

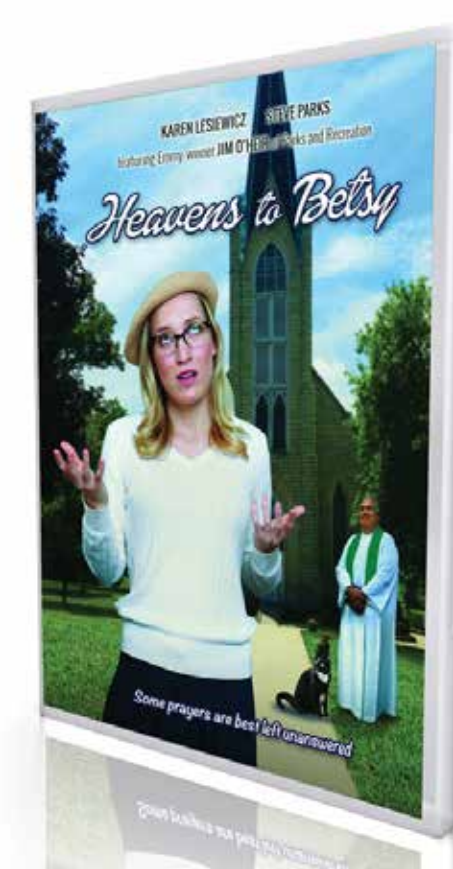

This follow-up to Heavens to Betsy is a delightful faith-based comedy with a poignant message about honouring God, no matter what the cost.

Description

Panic snuck up on Brian Johnson while he was out with his son, and it clung to him on his frenzied drive home. Feeling almost outside of himself, his family called 911.

He was spiraling into darkness. Waiting for the ambulance to arrive, unsure of what was happening, he gathered his family around him, asked his children to pray for him, then said, "This is when God becomes real."

In his first book, Brian shares how the panic and anxiety of his early life--panic he'd thought he'd beaten--came back to haunt him. After experiencing debilitating anxiety attacks from the age of 7 into his early adult years, Brian learned to use praise and worship to usher in the presence of God and push the panic away. Now in his mid-thirties and believing himself free of that suffering, Brian had brought a new vision of worship to the church, built a successful music label with his wife, and written award-winning songs and albums. He was at the height of his success, the pinnacle of his career, and from all appearances, things were better than ever. But there, in the midst of all that success, the ghost of his childhood anxiety returned, stronger than ever, and it pulled Brian into a downward spiral of chaos and darkness.

In 'When God Becomes Real', Brian shares his vulnerable story of overcoming panic and anxiety through the power of living hope. Through it, discover how you might find God, even in the darkest hour.

What if the church Jesus is building looks more like wildflowers strewn across an alpine meadow than a walled garden with manicured hedges?

If, like many other people, you have questioned whether there is something more to Jesus' church than the religious institutions we've inherited after two thousand years, you'll want to read Finding Church.

Here is straight talk from a man who has sought authentic New Testament community for more than fifty years and who has discovered it in the most unlikely places.

Description

The farmer knows not to look for grapes in spring, nor lament the barrenness of winter. Each season is critical in making his vineyard fruitful. The same is true for you. Fruitfulness is part of a cycle that includes promise and hope, perseverance and struggle, and even rest and refreshing.

If you don't know how God works through various seasons in your life you can end up unknowingly resisting him instead of embracing him in a greater process.

When Jesus wanted his followers to understand what it meant for them to be fruitful he took them to a vineyard and showed them how they could live in him like a branch lives in a vine. In this compelling book Wayne Jacobsen combines his experience of growing up on a vineyard, forty years of biblical study, and his own life-long relationship with Jesus to help unpack Jesus' words so you can live free and full in him.

In Season will help you...

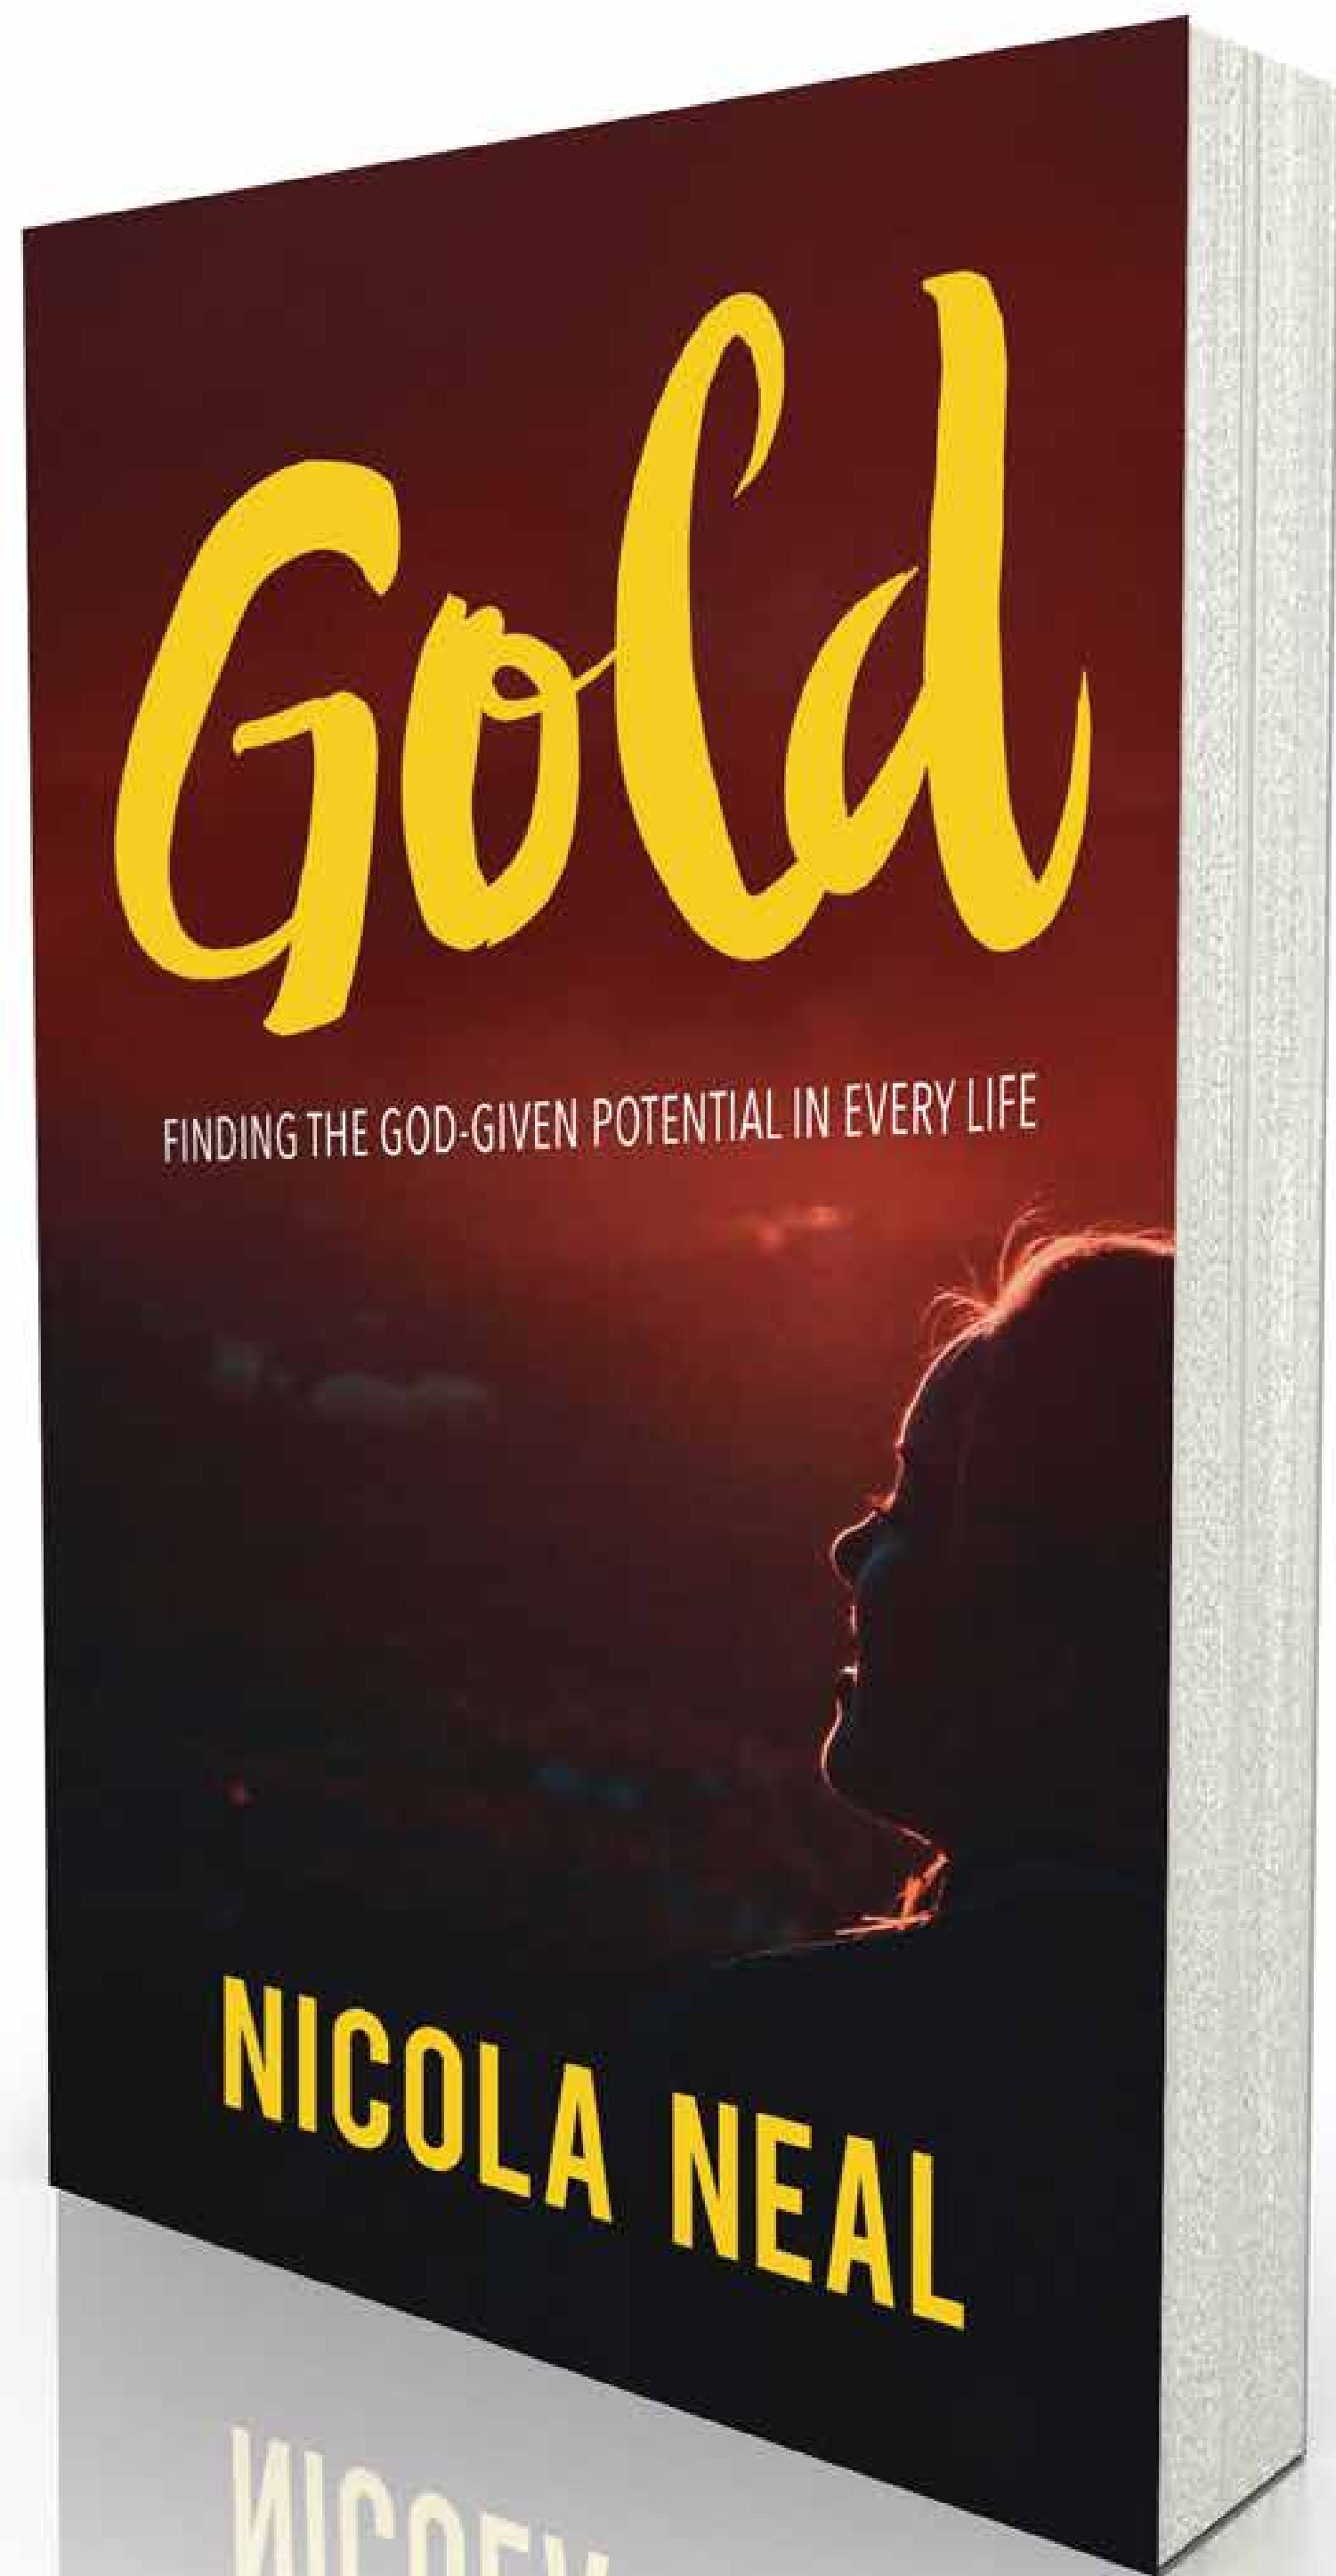

- Embrace a dynamic, transforming relationship with Jesus
- Respond to what he is doing in you each day rather than just reacting to difficult circumstances
- Discover the fruitfulness that comes not from your own efforts, but from a fulfilled life in him.
- Engage a richer and more effectual conversation with him in your daily life.

Is your conscience condemning you? What is it exactly? And does it help or hurt you?

In 'Who Told You That You Were Naked?' Andrew Wommack answers these questions and more as he outlines how the conscience affects Christians and non-Christians differently.

Andrew shares how the vast majority of Christians don't understand how the conscience operates. If they did, they would no longer struggle with the fear, shame, guilt, and doubt that keeps them from God's best.

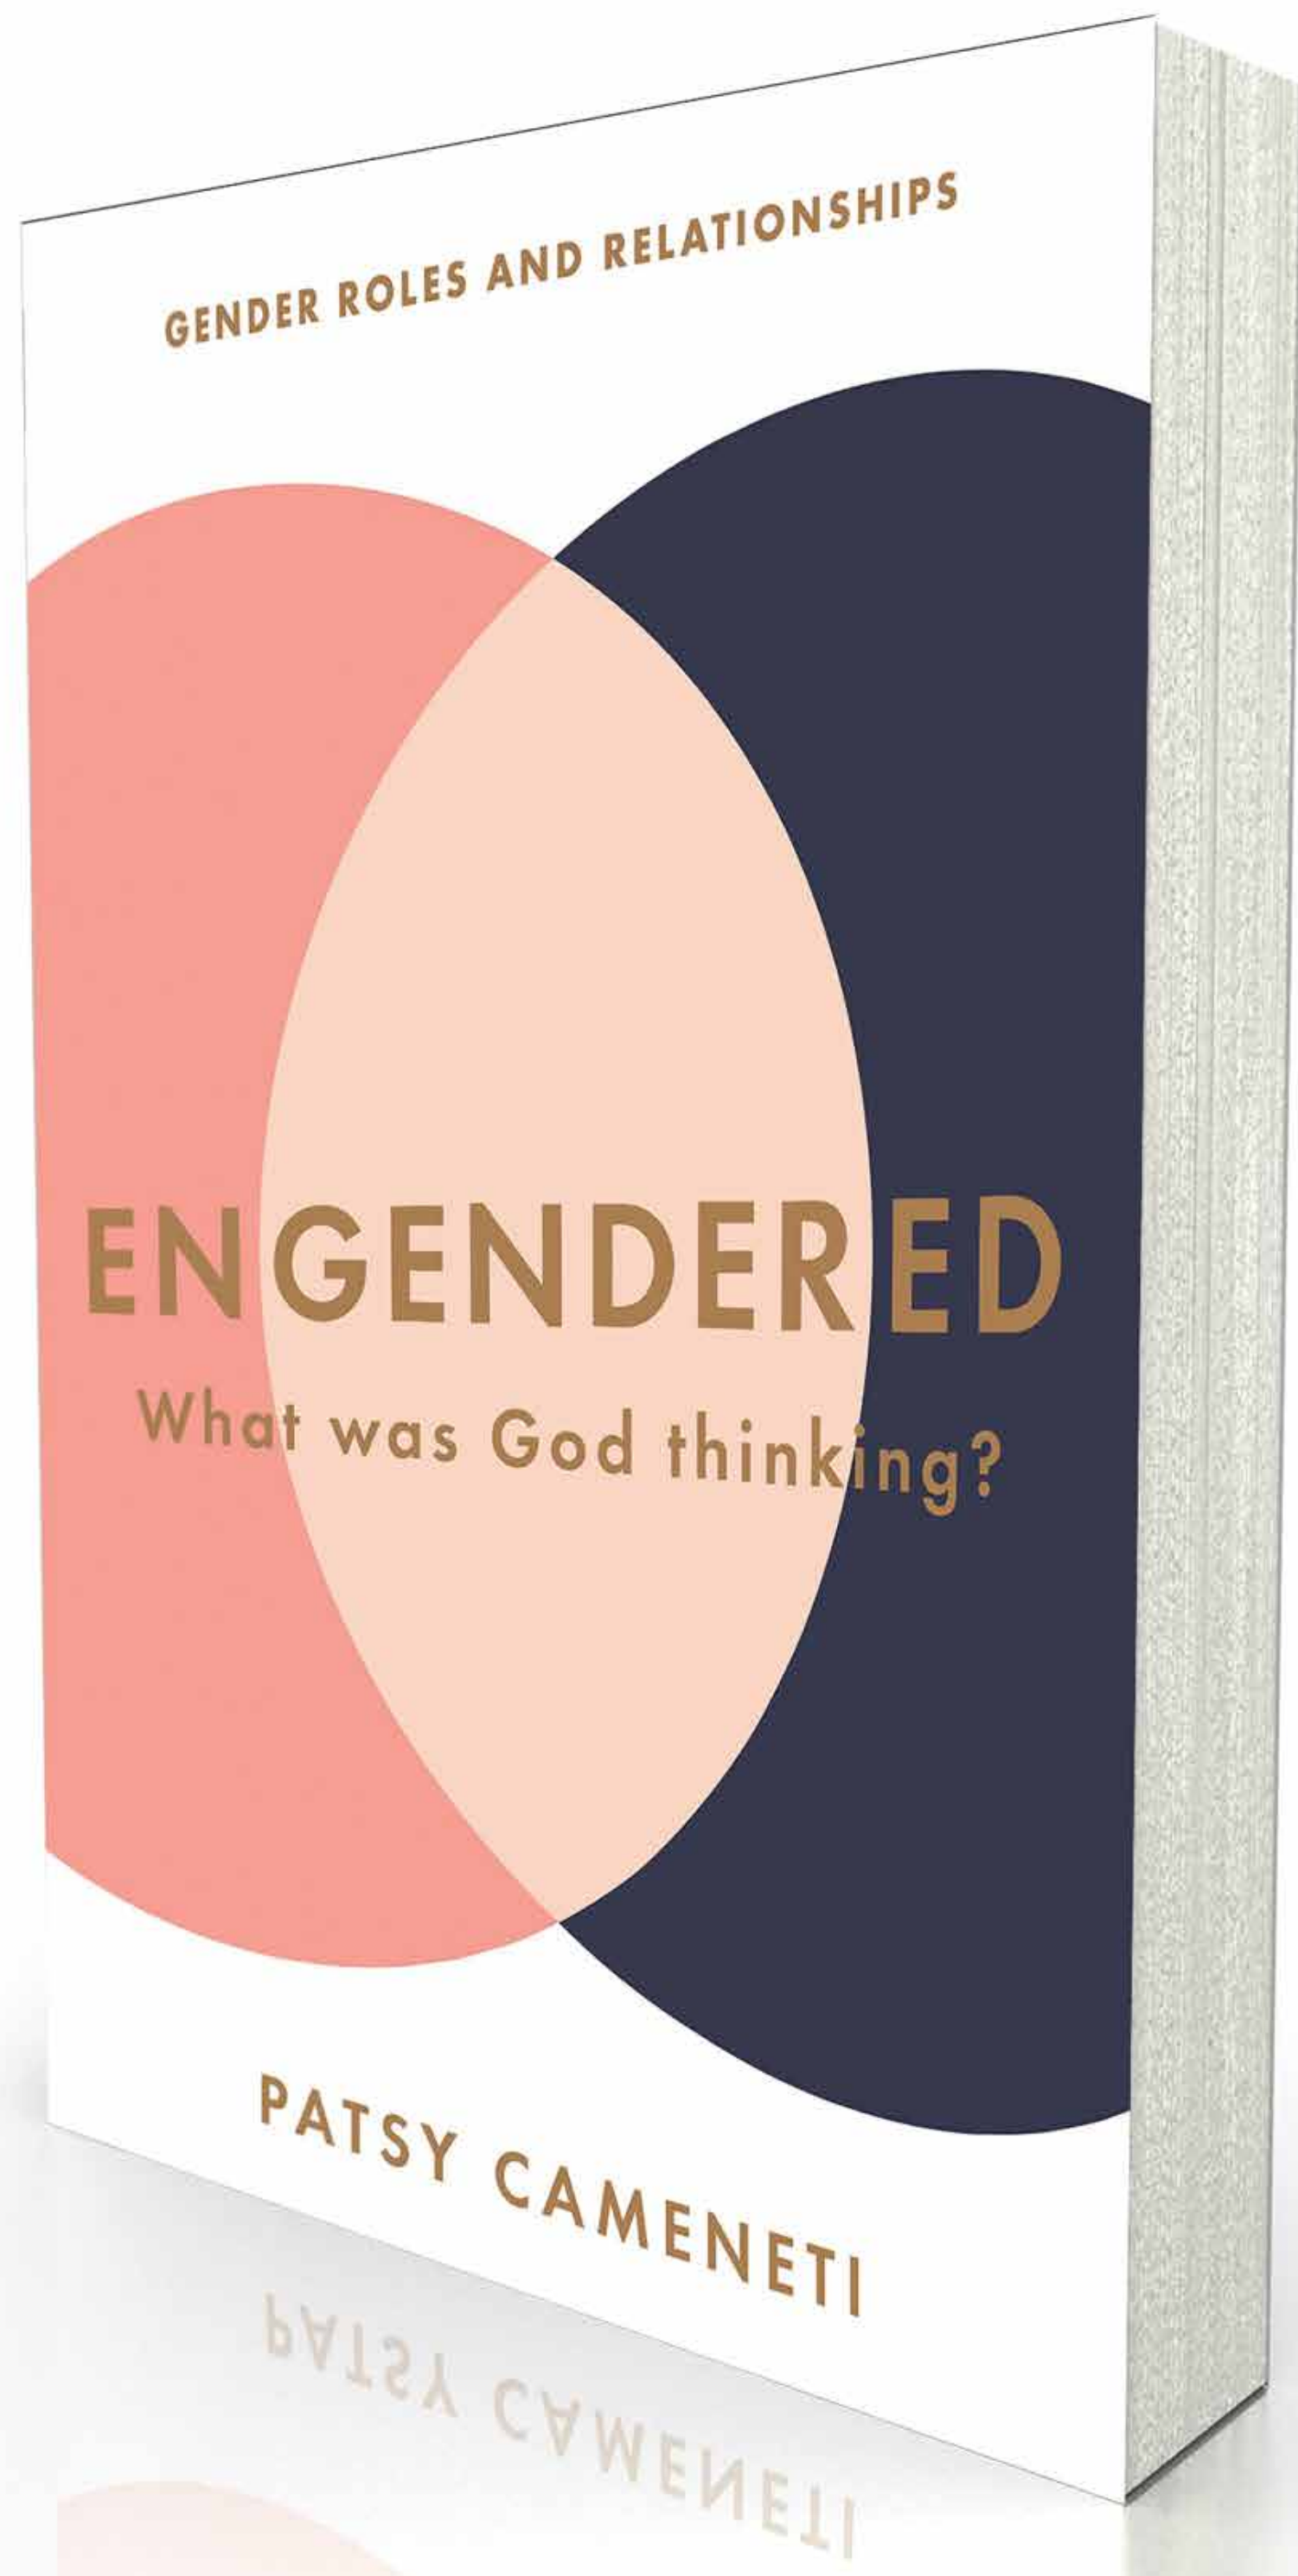

As you learn about your conscience, you'll learn how to walk in greater intimacy with Jesus, how to pray with boldness and confidence, how to receive God's promises, and how to break free from fear and doubt once and for all.

Something new is coming – watch for the signs!

Signs. They are important in almost everything we do. Nearly everywhere we go, there are signs in our lives that serve to guide us. We look for them wherever we travel, whether to the next city, state, or country — or to the next phase of our journey through life.

Jesus thinks signs are important too. That’s why He gave us clear markers in Matthew 24 that would indicate His soon return and the end of this present age. In this book, Rick Renner digs deep into the Bible to describe these signs in vivid detail so we can recognize them and know how to navigate the last-days road ahead.

The signs on the road are appearing closer together. We are on the precipice of something new. Soon we’ll see the final sign at the edge of our destination — in the very last moments just before Jesus comes.

We need the power of God at work in our nation, our churches, and our lives. In fact, we need to take Gods power to the streets to set people free and transform their lives.

How? Author and well-known minister Dr. Norvel Hayes says the nine gifts of the Spirit are the supernatural equipment God has given us to get the job done.

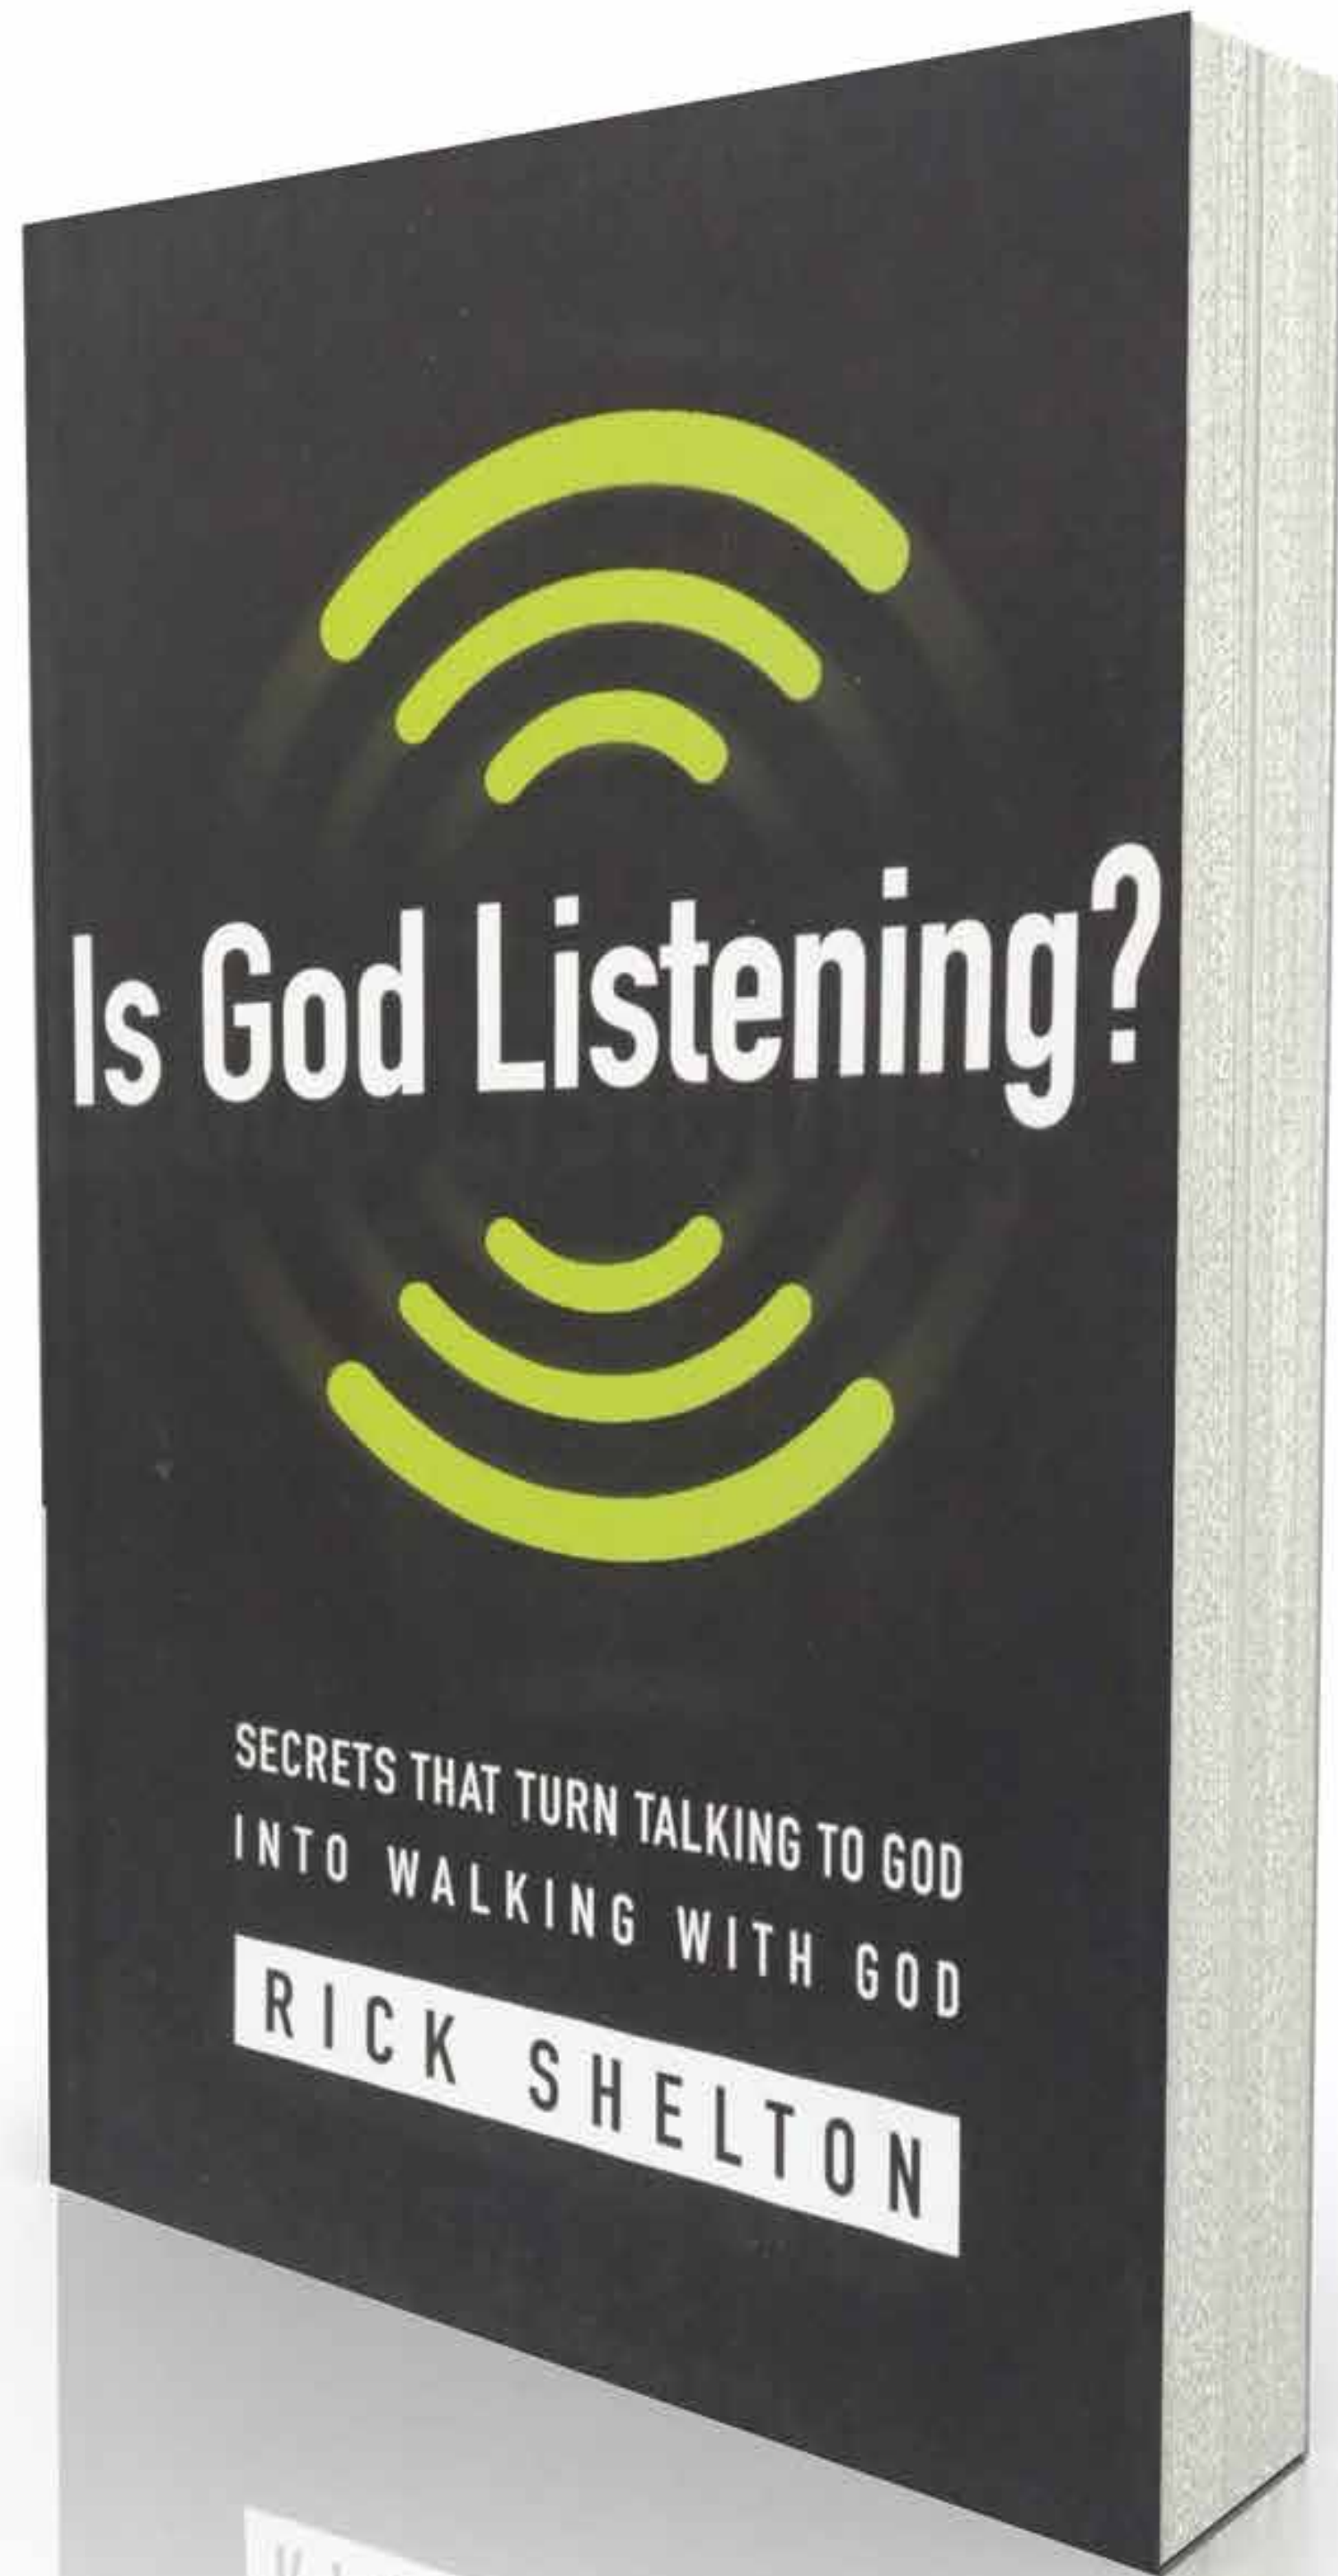

After all, the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strongholds (2 Corinthians 10:4).

In Power for Life, Dr. Hayes shares what the gifts are, who qualifies to use them, where they work, and how you can activate them. God gave the gifts to each one for the profit of all (1 Corinthians 12:7). And that means you!

13 Secrets to Finding the Secret Place

If prayer is so wonderful why do we struggle with it so much? The answer is simple. Prayer is a secret place. Many try to enter there with their head instead of their heart, and prayer becomes an obligation and a duty. They are tempted to think, Is God Listening? They try prayer for a while, but end up discouraged when it doesn't seem to produce the desired results.

Rick Shelton has discovered there are secrets to the secret place! When you find the secrets, prayer becomes a loving relationship with the Creator of the universe—not a performance before God. Instead of praying for God to reward you, God becomes the reward. God is the treasure hidden in a field; prayer is digging for that treasure.

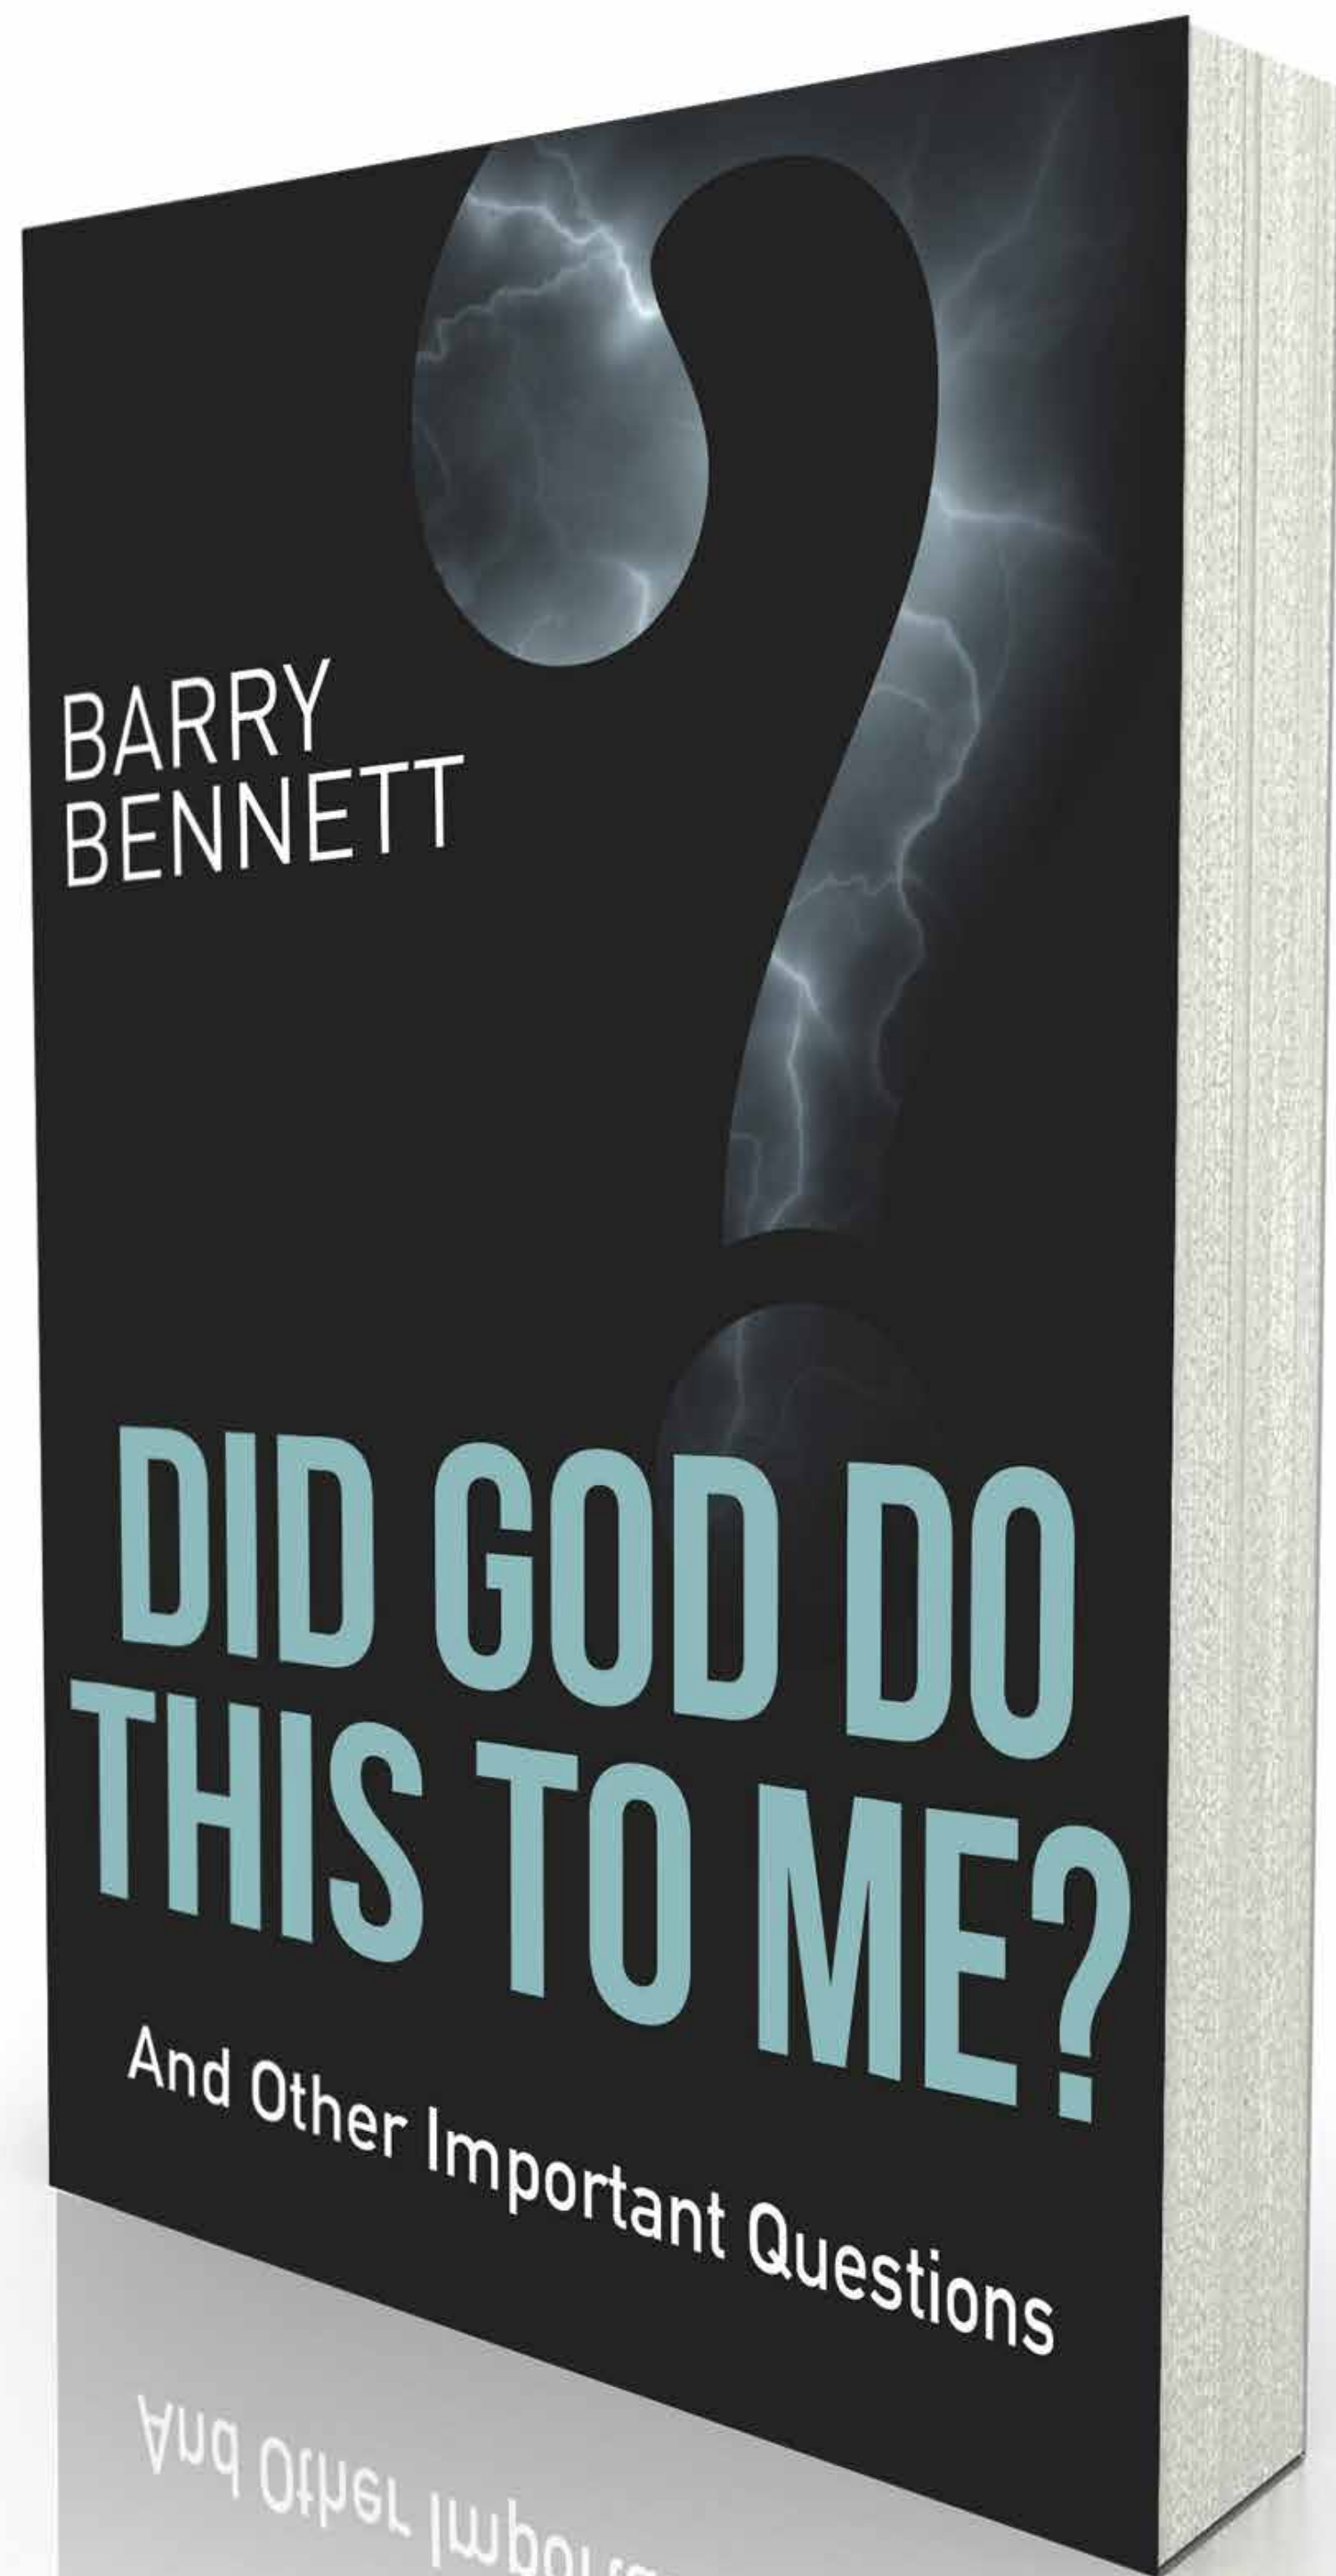

The purpose of this book is to take you on a journey digging in that field until you unearth the secrets that turn a boring prayer life into one that satisfies every longing in your soul. Rick unearthed these secrets through 40 years of prayer, and he's passionate about showing you what he's found.

Author Bio

Pastor Rick Shelton, and his wife Donna, started LifeChurch in 1980 following a vision that they received from the Lord in March 1979.

In addition to preaching at LifeChurch, they are also responsible for raising-up the next generation of leaders—both here, in their Church, as well as in churches abroad where God has given them supernatural influence. The Lord has blessed them with the opportunity to travel to many nations of the world, encouraging leaders and pastors, helping build local churches there, and engaging in life-transforming mission work.

Rick went through six years of chronic illness and fatigue from 1999 – 2005 when God supernaturally healed him and delivered him from the prescription drugs that were used to control the symptoms of a disease doctors had no cure for. Pastor Rick and Donna have been blessed with a vibrant congregation of Christ-followers, many of whom have been raised up and sent out as pastors, missionaries, worship leaders and world changers. They have four sons and five grandchildren.
