Description

Stop trying to live in your own strength and learn total dependence on Jesus.

Jesus was tested in the wilderness before He was launched into His ministry. He had fasted for 40 days and was physically weak, but passed the test and emerged in the power of the Spirit. We too have wilderness seasons in our lives – times when we feel isolated and vulnerable. Such times are testing for us too, but this is where the comparison ends.

Often the passage in Matthew Chapter 4 is used to teach believers a set of rules or principles they can follow to avoid the trap of temptation – but surely this is missing the point. The point of the wilderness is not to be confident in what we can do for ourselves – it reminds us that we can be supremely confident in what Christ has done for us. As we find a deeper understanding of the truth that life is not about us, it's all about Him, we discover the power and freedom of surrender – joyful surrender!

This 40-day devotional will take you on a journey to a place of greater dependence on Jesus. You will learn...

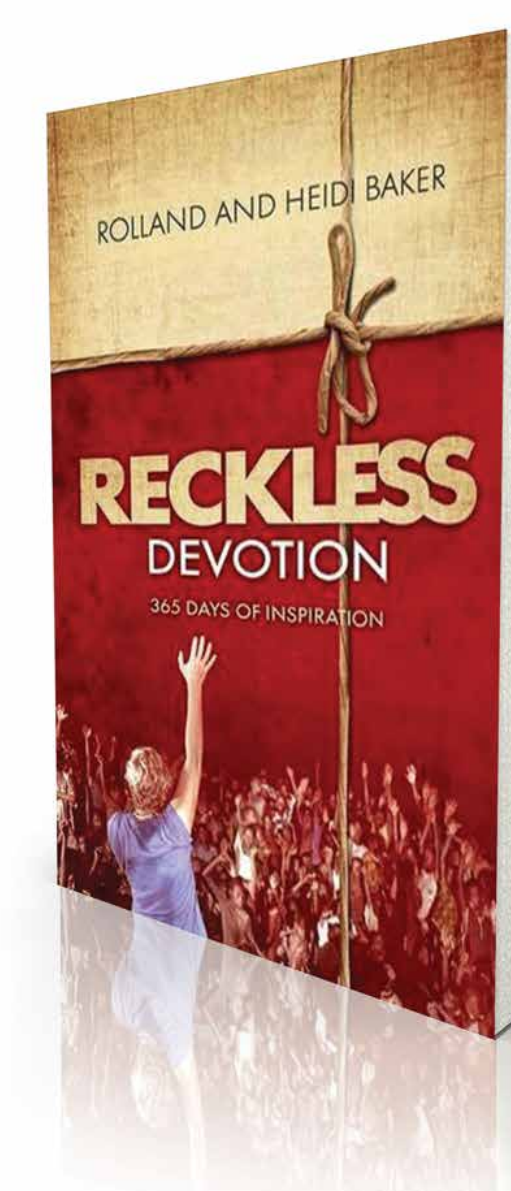

- Simple, childlike freedom and obedience
- To trust His leading
- To spend time in the secret place of His presence
- The fearless love that is the greatest expression of the Gospel

Be brave. Let the fire of God's love burn brightly in you, through joyful surrender.

Description

Do you feel like your life is a barren wilderness at the moment?

At times, areas of our lives can become like a wilderness. Grief, bereavement, loss of hope, testing, anger, rejection and pain all play their part. But God loves to come alongside us during such times, to transform our desert experience and renew our joy. This 40-day devotional journeys into the desert areas of our lives and into God's wonderful promises and love.

"There is a quiet power to these meditations, like a thunderstorm on mute ...I sense a Voice rumbling through the gentle words. Listen for that Voice ... it offers joy in the midst of life's trials." – SHERIDAN VOYSEY

"Tracy has one of the most beautiful and intimate relationships with the Lord of anyone I have ever met, so I can highly recommend this devotional. I've watched her survive many desert experiences herself, so she definitely knows what she's talking about!" – JENNIFER REES LARCOMBE

"Tracy invites us to sit a while and hear the assurances of the God who holds us in our wilderness times as well as in easier times ... the rich words and reflections on Scripture in this devotional will be a blessing to the weak and weary." – LIZ CARTER

Description

E. M. Bounds describes how every Christian can maintain a prayer life that produces significant results both personally and in the kingdom of God.

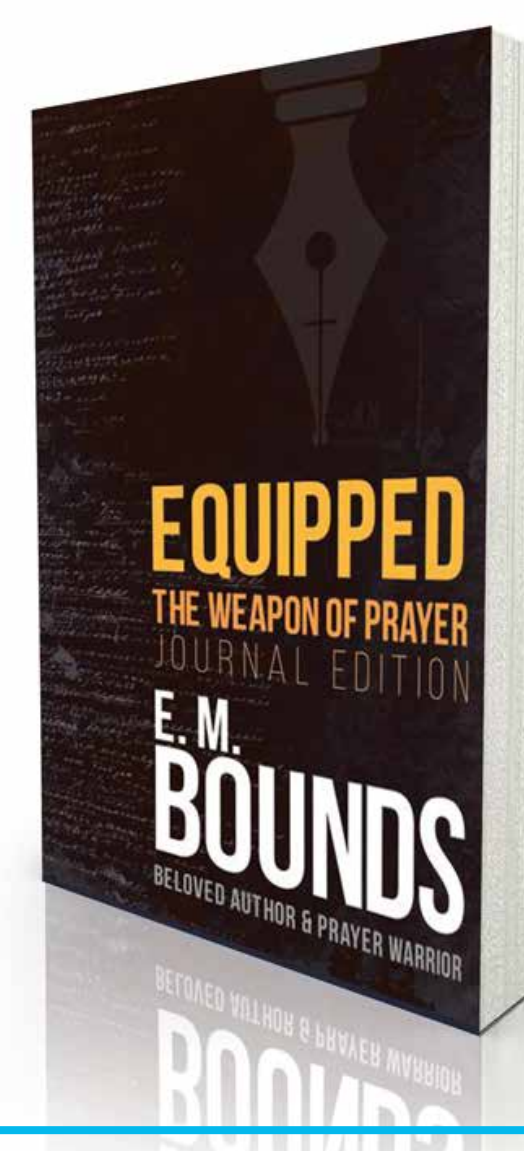

He focuses on the proper mind-set believers must attain in order to have the best prayer life. He reminds readers that one must have a humble heart and undivided allegiance to God in order to pray effectively.

He also believes strongly that prayer is available to all people—even for those who only come to God in times of trouble. His advice is intended for both personal and corporate prayer, and is a great help for serious meditation.

Author Bio

E. M. (Edward McKendree) Bounds (1835–1913) has given us a powerful legacy of prayer, believing it to be the strongest link between God and man. Bounds was a pastor and editor who spent many years reading, writing, praying, and taking part in revival ministry. Deeply concerned for the world, Bounds would rise at 4 a.m. to pray. Since the time of the apostles, no man besides Bounds has left such a rich inheritance of research into the life of prayer.

Description

Andrew Murray's writings were a cherished and vital part of his ministry in Africa.

In this classic work, Murray stresses the importance of one truth: the Holy Spirit must be known by every believer as an indwelling life of spiritual power. For Murray, this indwelling is to be accepted and treasured until it becomes part of the consciousness of the believer. As the Holy Spirit possesses us, all of our lives, even the least things, must be surrendered to His leading.

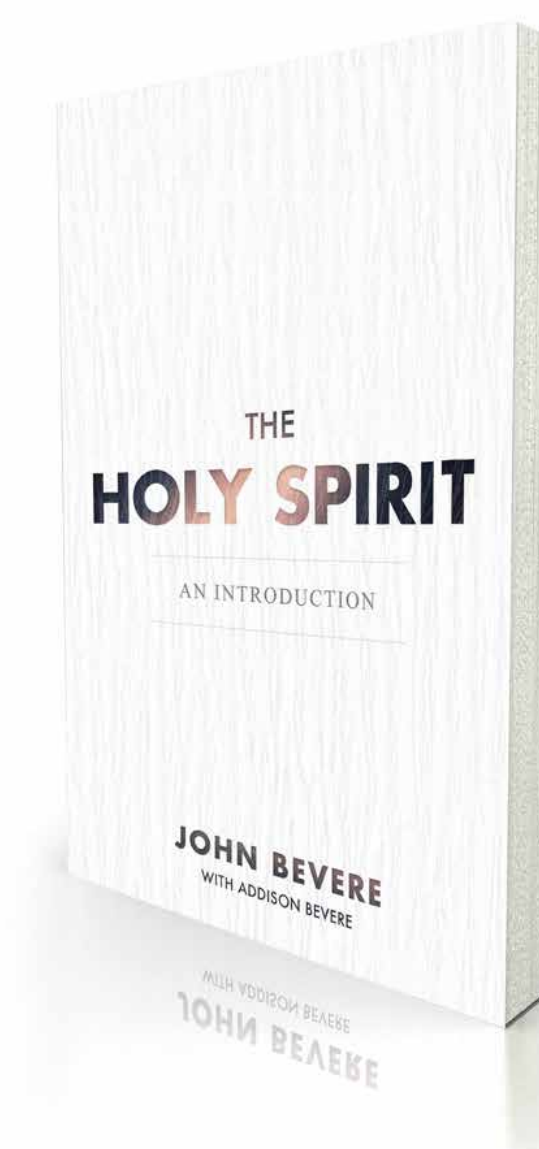

If God's people can learn to wait on the Holy Spirit for divine leading and working, placing ourselves entirely at His disposal, there will be manifestations of the Spirit's power in the church such as the world has never known.

In The Spirit of Christ, Murray covers all aspects of the Holy Spirit, in the hope that God's glory will begin to work through His church in powerful ways that would be a witness for all the world.

About the Author

South African pastor and author Andrew Murray (1828–1917) was an amazingly prolific writer. Murray began writing on the Christian life for his congregation as an extension of his local pastoral work, but he became internationally known for his books. With intense purpose and zeal for the message of the gospel, Murray wrote numerous books even after his "retirement" at age seventy-eight.

Description

In 1912, only few years before he passed away, Andrew Murray gathered with other pastors at a conference about the low state of spiritual affairs in the South African churches. 'The Prayer Life' was borne out of the soul searching and repentance that transpired at that conference.

Here, Murray addresses the problem of prayerlessness, a condition that knows no generational boundaries. Murray cuts to the heart of the problem, offering suggestions that, if followed, will have a serious impact on the life of the believer.

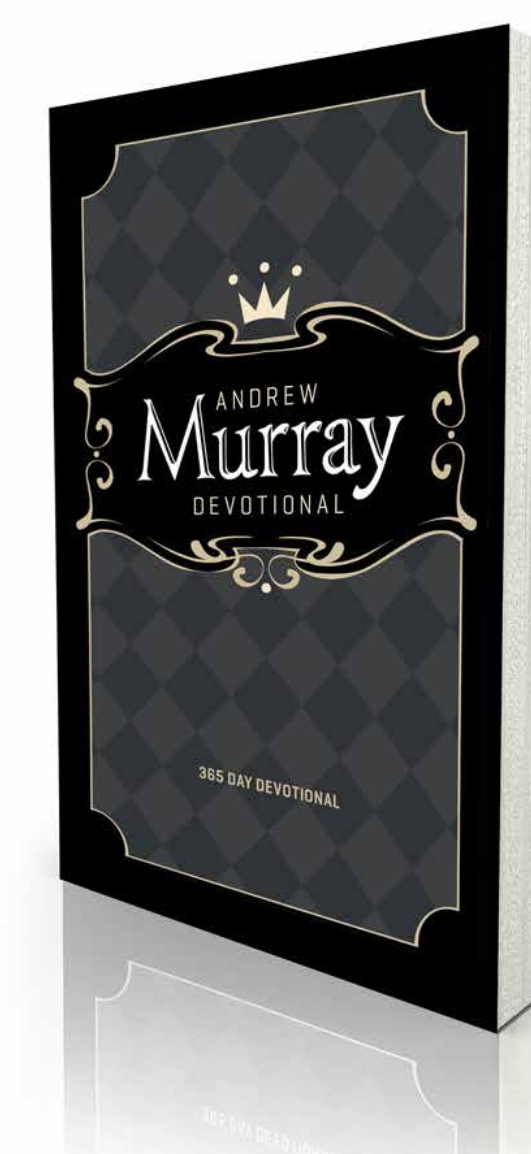

Murray explains that since prayer is an outgrowth of abiding in Christ, prayerlessness is fundamentally a lack of abiding rather than simply a lack of prayer.

'The Prayer Life' is a challenging call to a deeper Christian experience, out of which will naturally flow a life of prayer. Much more than a book on how to pray, this is a book on how to have a deeper, more effective spiritual walk with God.

Did You Know Your True Identity Was Stolen?

What if you've been living under a false identity God never intended for you to have? Through the pages of this book, you will uncover the lies and deception the world uses to keep you from discovering your TRUE identity in Christ. Once you know who you are in Him, the freedom, blessing, and authority unlocked are incredible! This book will give you a clear biblical reference point to restore your identity and help you rediscover who you have been created to be.

"Identity Theft is a frank look at who we were, what we've become through the fall, and what we can become through the new birth and a new position in Christ. Duane uses his own personal examples to help make the meaning understood. You are about to be blessed and changed as you read."— Bob Yandian, Teaching Pastor, Tulsa, OK

"No matter what you look like physically or who your parents are, you're not what God intended you to be. 'Identity Theft' is a systematic, biblical, exegetical, and theological approach to origins, identity, purpose, morality, and destiny that offers spiritual information to the reader's life."— Dr. Dennis Lindsay, President and Chief Executive Officer of Christ for the Nations, Inc., Dallas, TX

Description

“A powerful book for all those who want to grow more like Jesus. If we as the Church could see people as He sees them, and love them as He loves them, then the world would be changed!”

PAUL HARCOURT, NATIONAL LEADER, NEW WINE

“Just as gold is processed and refined, this book has the potential to renew your heart and mould it for God’s purposes. I am sure others will respond as I have – with a renewed commitment to others and a surrendered heart. I truly love this book and feel sure it will be a blessing to many.”

CATHY MADAVAN, AUTHOR & SPEAKER

“This book is potentially life-changing for you and me. Nicola calls us to the wonder of finding and releasing the God-given gold in ourselves and, in turn, in everyone else we meet. My heart leapt as I read this, my spirit was deeply stirred. This book is simply ‘gold’ as the title suggests!”

ANNE COLES, NEW WINE

“What would life look like if we stripped everything away, yielded fully to Christ and chose the way of love? It might look like what you’ll find in this book and the remarkable story of ‘Every Life’. Be prepared to be moved and have your heart broken.”
