Description

From the writers of acclaimed faith movies God's Not Dead 1 & 2 and Do You Believe, and the Producer of I Can Only Imagine, Unplanned is the thought-provoking true story of one woman's journey of transformation.

All Abby Johnson (Ashley Bratcher, 90 Minutes In Heaven) ever wanted to do was help women. As one of the youngest Planned Parenthood clinic directors in North America, she was involved in upwards of 22,000 abortions and counselled countless women about their reproductive choices. Her passion surrounding a woman's right to choose even led her to become a spokesperson for Planned Parenthood, fighting to enact legislation for the cause she so deeply believed in.

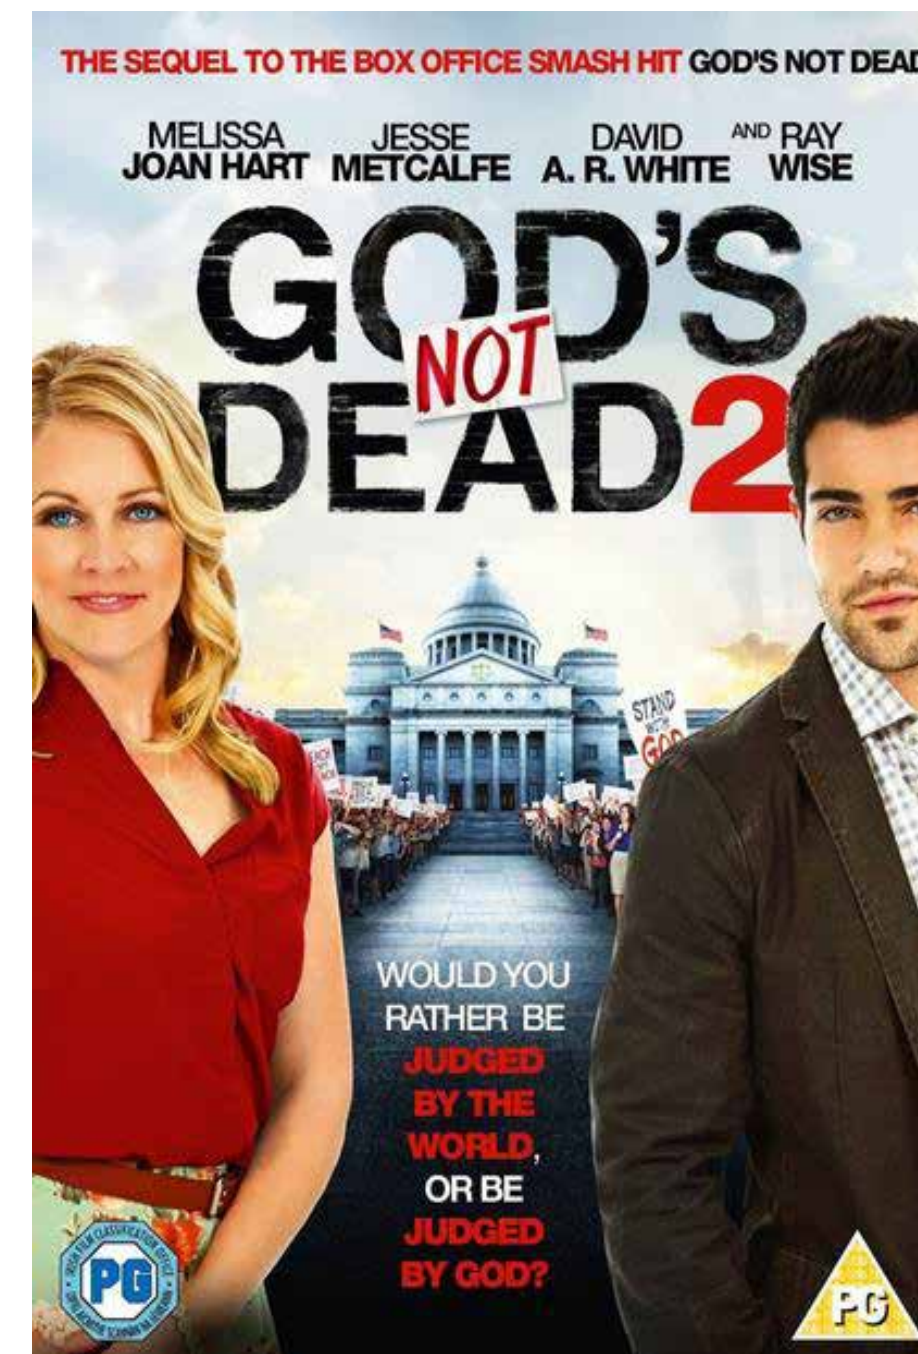

Until the day she saw something that changed everything, leading Abby to join her former enemies at 40 Days For Life, and become one of the most famous pro-life speakers in America.

Description

How do we walk with Christ--daily follow him, grow in him, and faithfully serve him? In the Gospels, Jesus modeled for us the Christian spiritual life. The apostles taught it in their writings. And the Church has, through the last 2,000 years, sought to pursue this Christian spiritual life.

In 'The Walk,' Adam Hamilton focuses on five essential spiritual practices that are rooted in Jesus' own walk with God and taught throughout the New Testament. Each of these practices is intended as part of our daily walk with Christ while also being an essential part of growing together in the church.

In each chapter, Hamilton explores one of these practices, its New Testament foundation, and what it looks like to pursue this practice daily in our personal life and together in the life of the church. Deepen your walk with Christ as we explore the five essential practices of worship, study, serving, giving, and bearing witness to our faith.

About the Author

Adam Hamilton is senior pastor of The United Methodist Church of the Resurrection in Leawood, Kansas, one of the fastest growing, most highly visible churches in the country.

Hamilton is the best-selling and award-winning author of 'Creed,' 'Half Truths,' 'The Call,' 'The Journey,' 'The Way,' '24 Hours That Changed the World,' 'John,' 'Revival,' 'Not a Silent Night,' 'Enough,' 'When Christians Get It Wrong,' and 'Seeing Gray in a World of Black and White,' all published by Abingdon Press.

Description

Victor Hugo's Les Misérables is a truly epic story. Whether you've tackled the 1,400-page 19th-century novel, witnessed the Broadway musical (and memorized its soundtrack), or seen the several screen adaptations of it, you already know the power of its story.

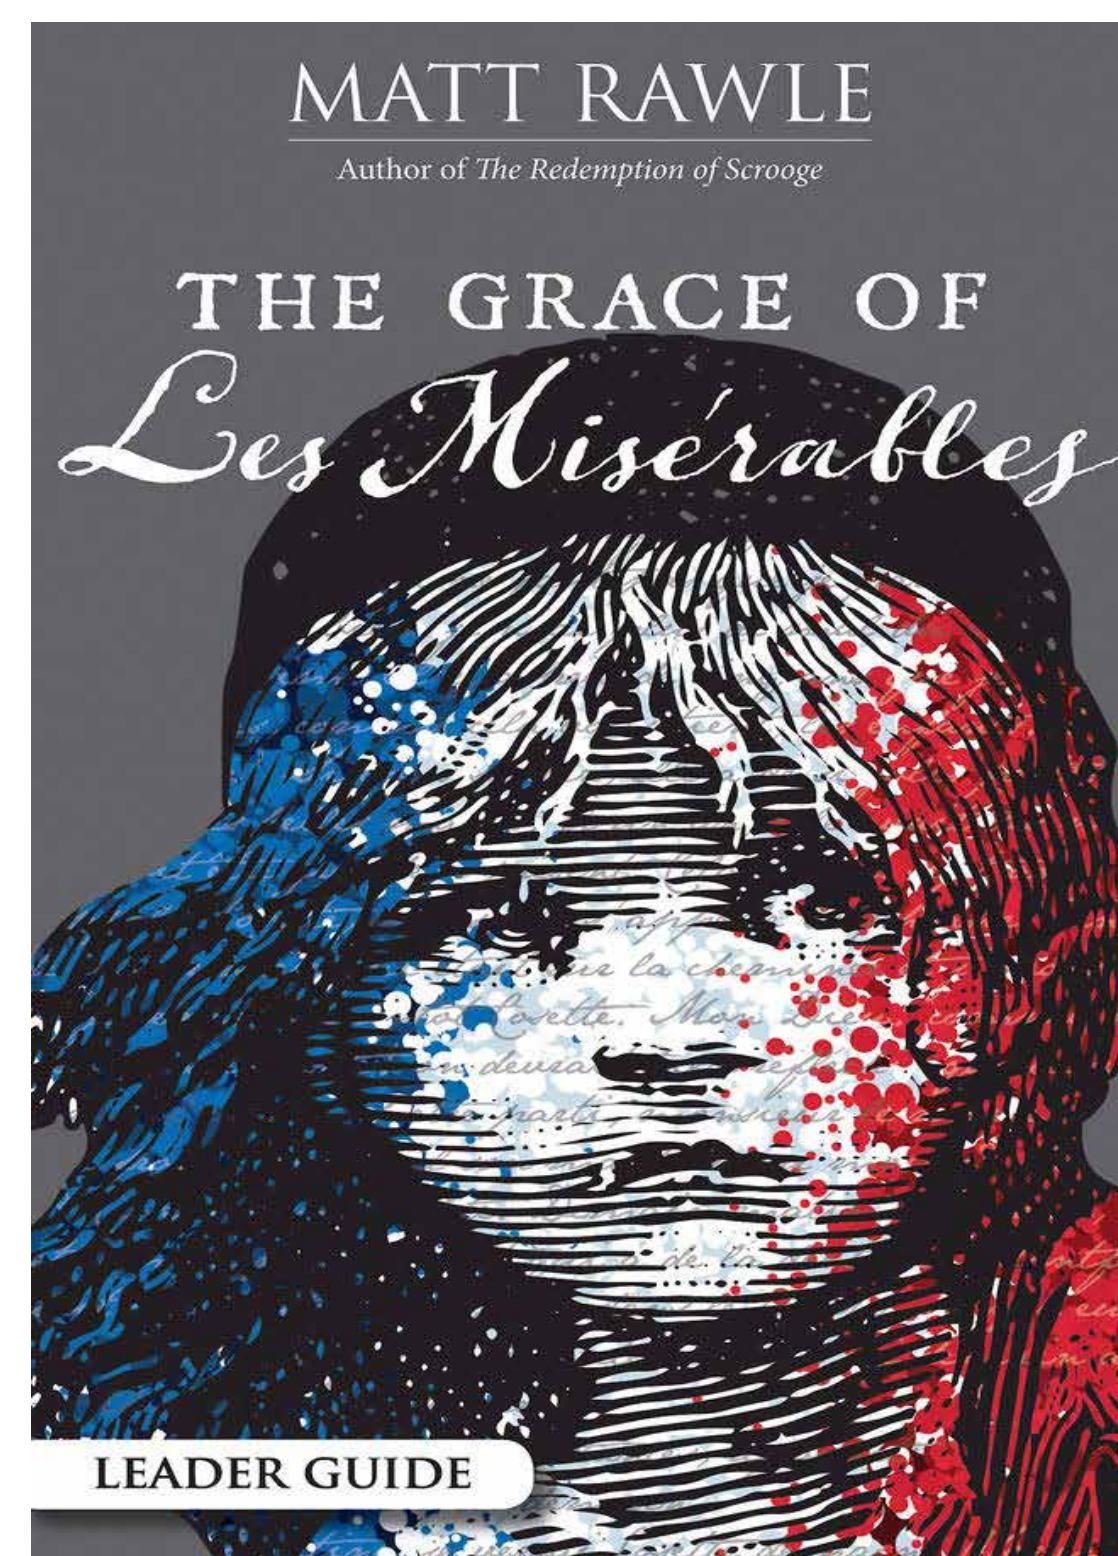

In the six-week study 'The Grace of Les Misérables,' author and pastor Matt Rawle dives into six ideals found in the story--grace, justice, poverty, revolution, love, and hope--each represented by a character in Hugo's story. As these imperfect and relatable characters interact, we can see how these ideals work together (perhaps even in spite of each other) out in the world.

About the Author

Matt Rawle is Lead Pastor at Asbury United Methodist Church in Bossier City, Louisiana.

Matt is an international speaker who loves to tell an old story in a new way, especially at the intersection of pop culture and the church.

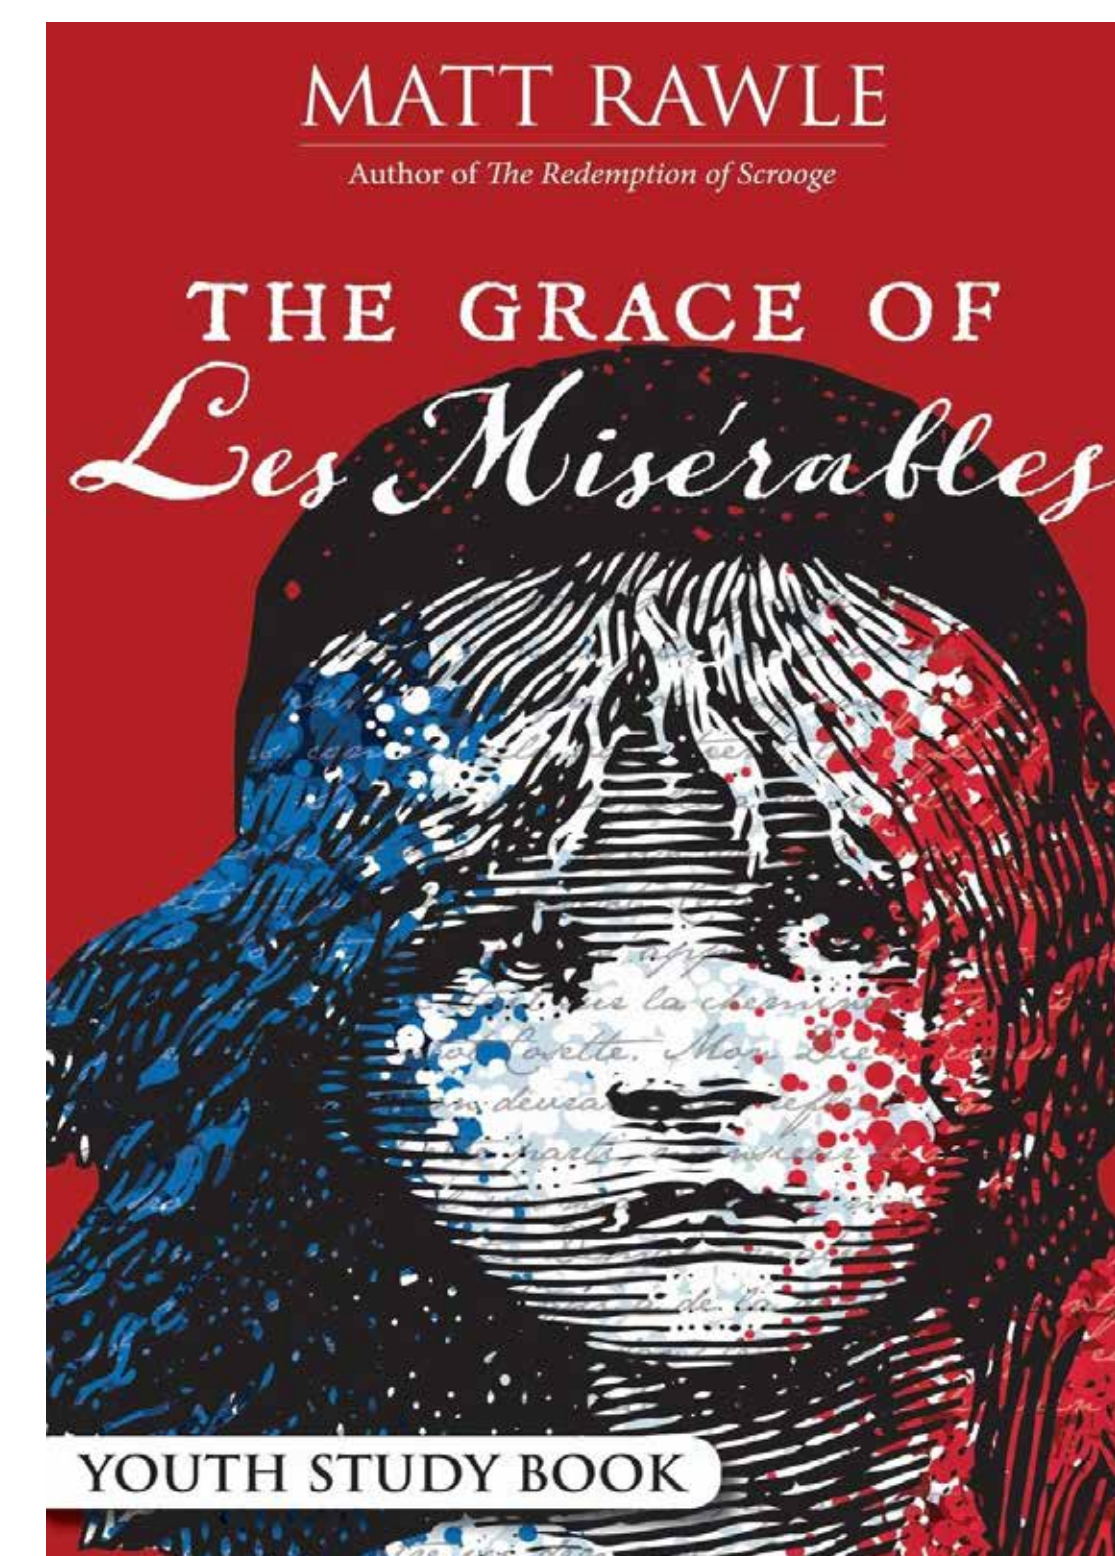

He is the author of a new series of books titled The Pop in Culture Series. The series includes The Faith of a Mockingbird, Hollywood Jesus, The Salvation of Doctor Who, The Redemption of Scrooge, What Makes a Hero?, and The Gift of the Nutcracker.

Passion Play: Living the Story of Christ's Last Days

THE PASSION PLAY

Living the Story of Christ's Last Days

Description

With few exceptions, the Oberammergau Passion Play has been presented by the inhabitants of the village of Oberammergau, Bavaria, Germany every 10 years since 1634. The play is a staging of Jesus' Passion story, covering the final period of his life from his visit to Jerusalem to the journey to the cross..

In his new book and study, 'The Passion Play: Living the Story of Christ's Last Days,' author and pastor Rob Fuquay follows the biblical story of the Passion and how it has been experienced through the centuries against the backdrop of this amazing play.

Perfect for Lent, this study takes you on a journey to the origins of the Passion Play and helps you understand how the play has been used both as a ritual of praise and later as a weapon through its anti-Semitic past. The book and study help readers and small groups feel a sense of connection to the play while recognizing their own place in the story of Jesus.

About the Author

Rob Fuquay is the senior pastor of St. Luke's United Methodist Church in Indianapolis, Indiana. He has served various congregations with his gifts of strong preaching, leadership development, and visioning.

Rob is the author of 'A New Reformation: From Luther's World to Ours and The God We Can Know,' a 7-week study designed for the entire congregation to explore the "I Am" sayings of Jesus found in the Gospel of John.

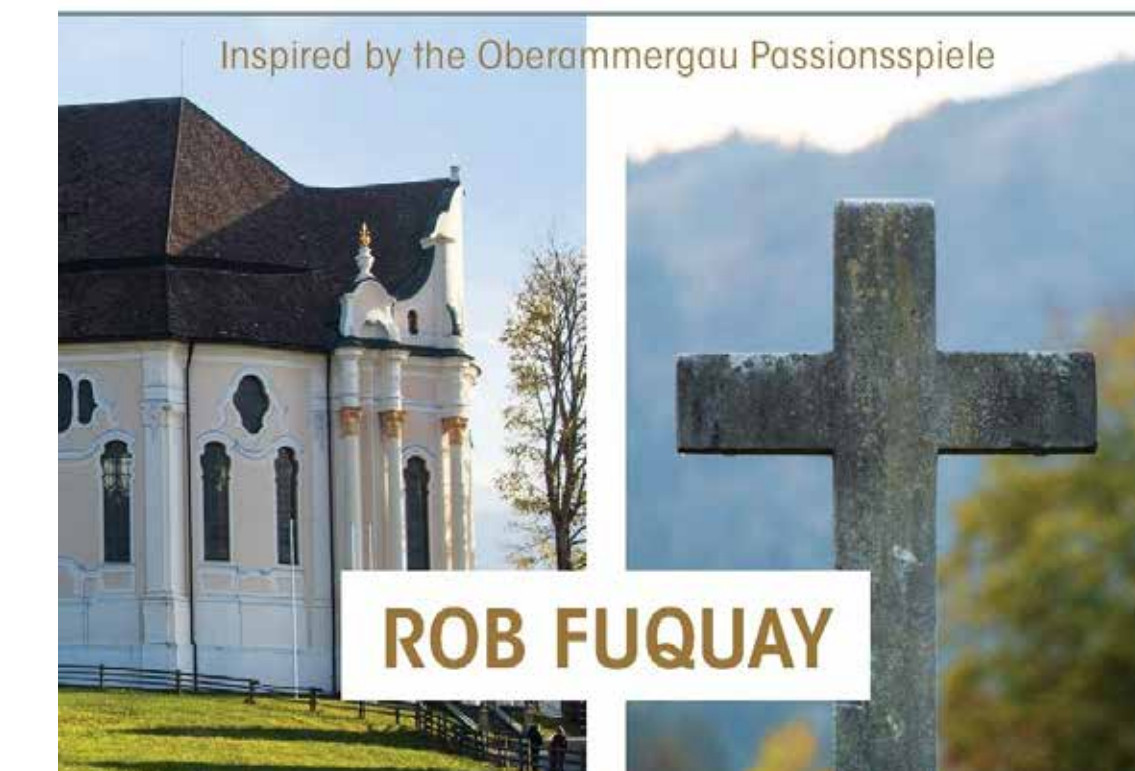

He is also the author of 'Which Way, Lord: Exploring Your Life's Purpose in the Journeys of Paul' on how to discern and follow God's leading.

Title: Praying Clear Through
 Author: Will J. Harney
 Price: £11.50
 Product Code: 9781641233323
 Format: Paperback
 Distribution: UK & Europe

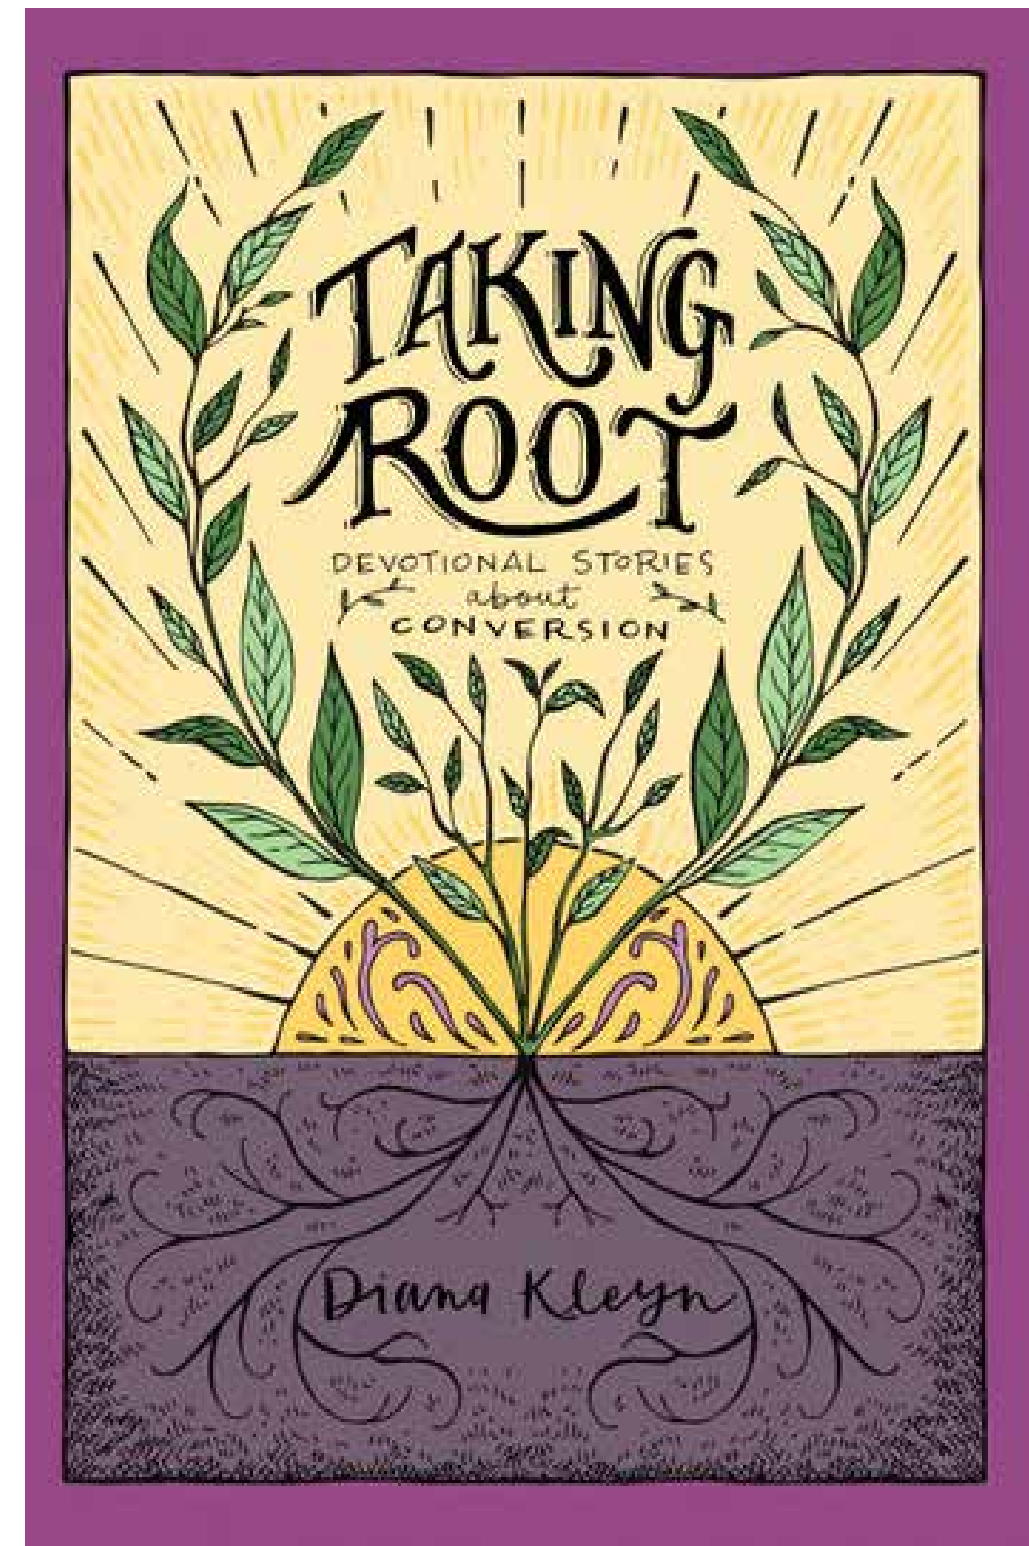

Most believers do not rise to their full privilege in prayer. Successful prayer cannot be rushed. If we want to hear from heaven, we must allow time for God's voice to fully break through the din of life.

When we have a tremendous amount of work to be done for the day, we dare not leave out prayer. As Martin Luther observed, "I have so much to do that I shall spend the first three hours in prayer."

The real danger in not taking sufficient time to commune with God and implore Him for our requests is the slow erosion of the Spirit's voice, when life's static distracts a believer from what is truly important and necessary for a successful life.

In this classic work on effective prayer, Will J. Harney reminds us that there are vast rewards in store for those who make prayer a priority. Prayer does not need to be a chore for the growing Christian, for it is one of the highest privileges accorded us. But to receive our divine answer, we must "pray clear through"-- that is, pray continually and with urgency until, at last, we hear from heaven.

Title: Taking Root
 Author: Diana Kleyn
 Price: £7.99
 Product Code: 9781601787279
 Format: Paperback
 Distribution: UK & Europe

The picture of a plant taking root is used in the Bible to teach us the idea of conversion. When someone's heart is turned from himself and his sinful ways to faith in Jesus and devotion to God, it is like a plant which starts to shoot out roots into rich soil so that it can live and take nourishment.

There is no way for a plant to have life unless it takes root, and there is no way for a person to have spiritual life unless God turns him or her out of the way of death and into the way of life.

The stories in this book have to do with plants taking roots. But as you read through them, you will not run across tales of flowers, leaves, and dirt as much as you will about spiritual plants in the garden of the Lord. They are stories about how God gives people new spiritual life by rooting their hearts in the grace of His Son Jesus Christ.

Read these stories and take the time to ask God about causing your heart to take deep root into the life-giving soil of Jesus.

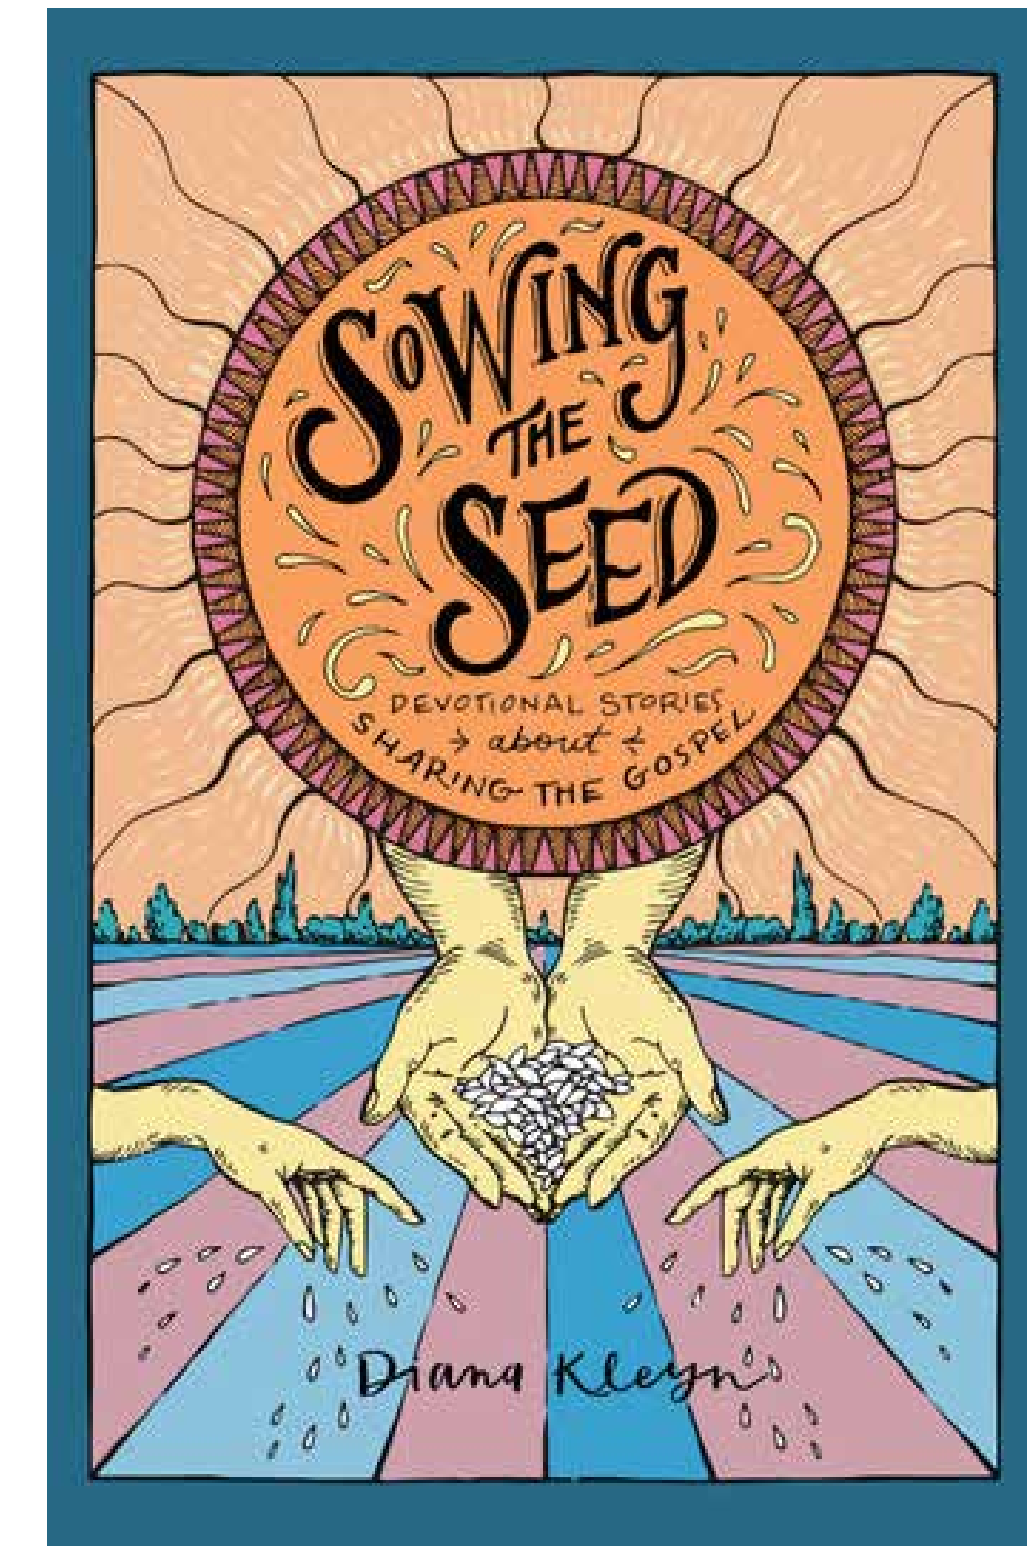

Title: Bearing Fruit
 Author: Diana Kleyn
 Price: £7.99
 Product Code: 9781601787293
 Format: Paperback
 Distribution: UK & Europe

Just like trees and plants bear fruit, so must the Christian bear spiritual fruit. Some plants and trees are meant to have only branches or stems, and leaves, and no fruit. But there are others that produce fruit: apple trees, tomato plants, blueberry bushes, etc.

Through the work of the Holy Spirit in a believer's heart, Christians begin to produce the fruit of the Spirit. This means that a Christian shows by his lifestyle that he walks in the ways of the Lord.

As you can tell an apple tree because of the tasty apples it carries on its branches, Christians should be recognized by their godly character.

Children, read these stories and see the importance of bearing the fruit of godliness.

A garden will never grow unless someone takes the time to plant seeds.

Likewise, God has planned things so that people will not be saved from their sins unless someone shares the good news of Jesus Christ with them.

Just like a seed planted in good soil brings forth a beautiful garden, God uses the gospel message to produce Christians fit for bearing spiritual fruit.

In 'Sowing the Seed,' children will read stories about people sharing the gospel with others.

These stories about missions and evangelism reinforce the importance of sharing the gospel and encourage children to see the joy of telling others about Jesus.

The Puritans often used the military motif to describe the Christian life. This is one such exemplary work on how a Christian can be victorious in his spiritual battles.

Alleine demonstrates that you become a soldier as soon as you become a true believer and he deals with the Christian's armor, the Christ about causing your heart to take deep root into the life-giving soil of Jesus.

Title: The Evil of Evils

'The Evil of Evils,' first printed in 1654, consists of sixty-seven short chapters that expose sin and urge believers to hate sin more than affliction.

Burroughs organizes his material around seven major thoughts: (1) there is more evil in the least sin than in the greatest affliction; (2) sin and God are contrary to each other; (3) sin is directly against our good; (4) sin opposes all that is good; (5) sin is the evil of all other evils; (6) sin has infinite dimension and character; and (7) sin makes us comfortable with the devil.

This treatise is invaluable for sensitizing our consciences to the "exceeding sinfulness of sin" (cf. Rom. 7:13).
