

AUGUST RELEASES

Description

When Y&F came together to write 'All Of My Best Friends' in late 2019, there were two strong themes that naturally emerged from within the hearts of the team – an unforced sense of togetherness and a clear purpose to serve the youth.

This collection of songs would hold even more significance as we entered into a brand-new decade with the reality of living out historic times together.

Recorded live from Summer Camp in Sydney Australia, our prayer is that this record would rally a generation around bold devotion and tireless truth, capturing the rawness of youth at its passionate best.

Cory Asbury (Bethel Music) – To Love A Fool CD

BETHEL MUSIC

Description

Grammy-nominated and Dove Award-winning artist Cory Asbury's new album 'To Love A Fool' marks his second release with Bethel Music and third album to date. The album was birthed out of a year-long sabbatical, seen in the vulnerable worship and honest reflections that accompanied that time.

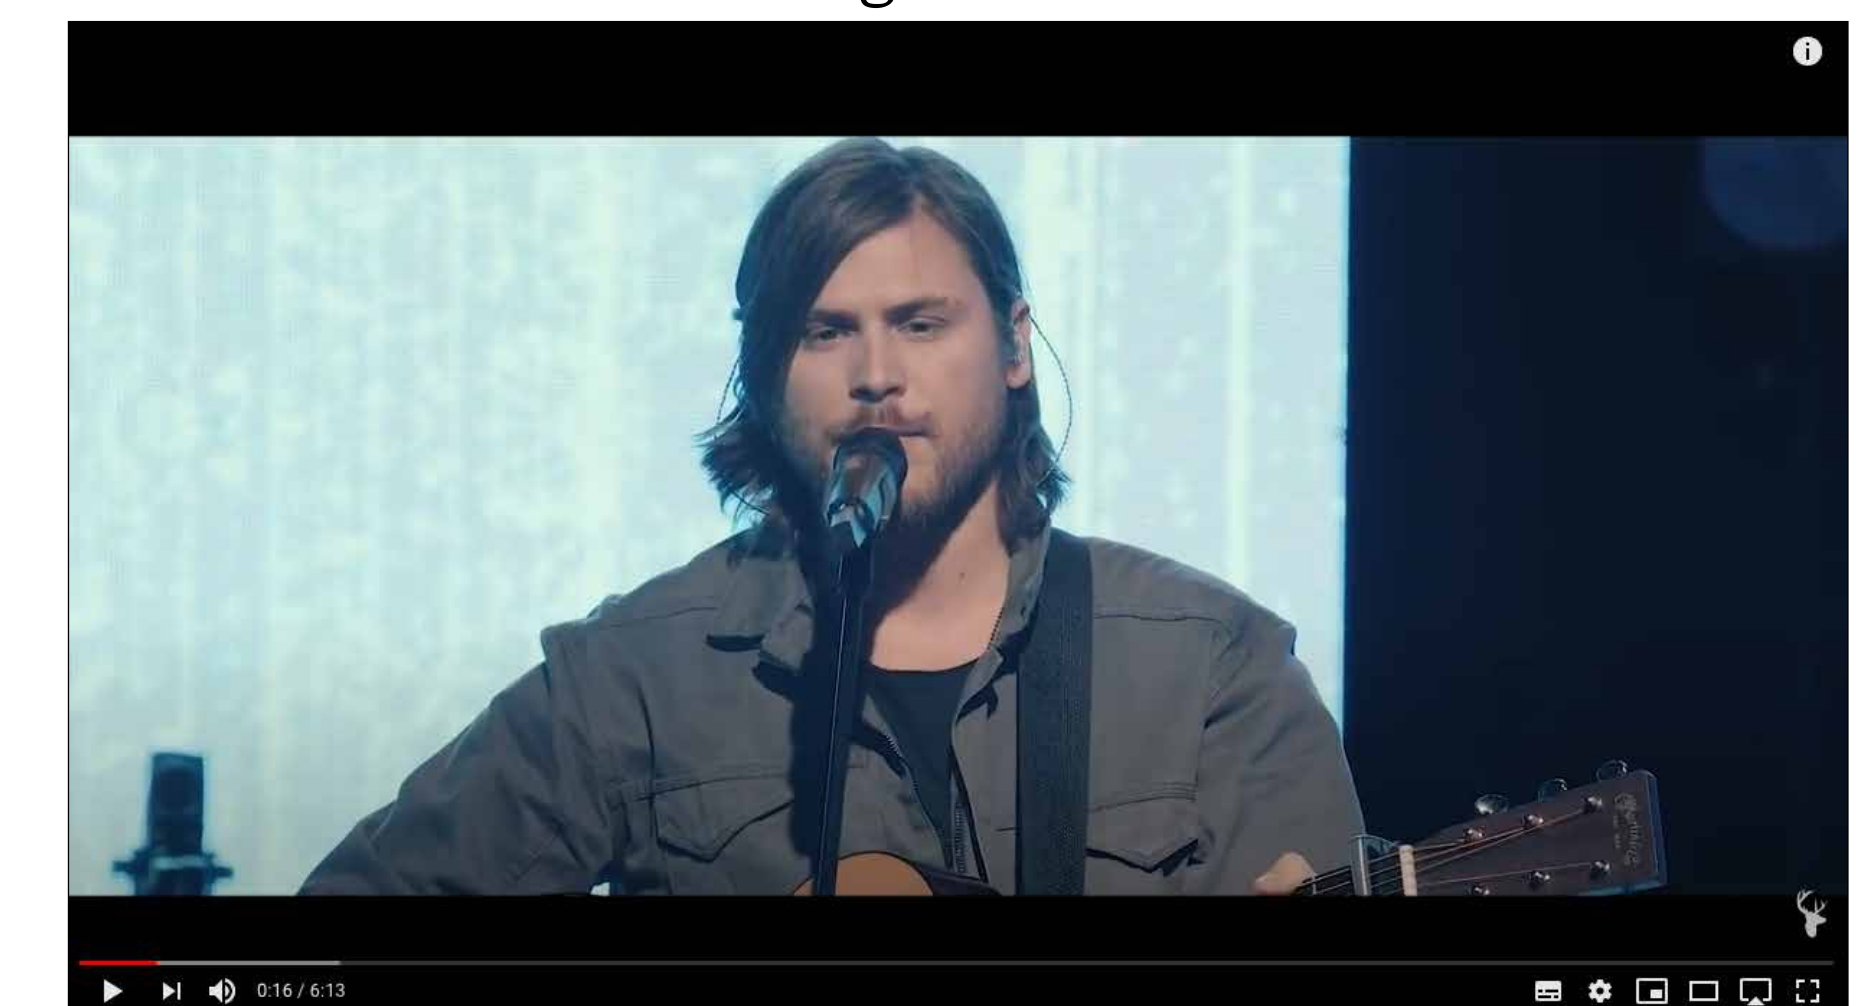

The album has a diverse sonic landscape, from the intimate sounds of "Dear God" and "Unraveling"; to the mountaintop moments of "The Father's House", Asbury's current Billboard Christian #1. The album also houses songs with mid-tempo, pop sounds, like "Sparrows" and "Canyons", bringing to the surface a new facet to Cory's classic sound.

The album camps around a constant theme in Asbury's life, the love of God and His unwavering devotion to His children: "The highest king of heaven, chose to love a fool. I don't understand it, but I know I want nothing more than you".

Description

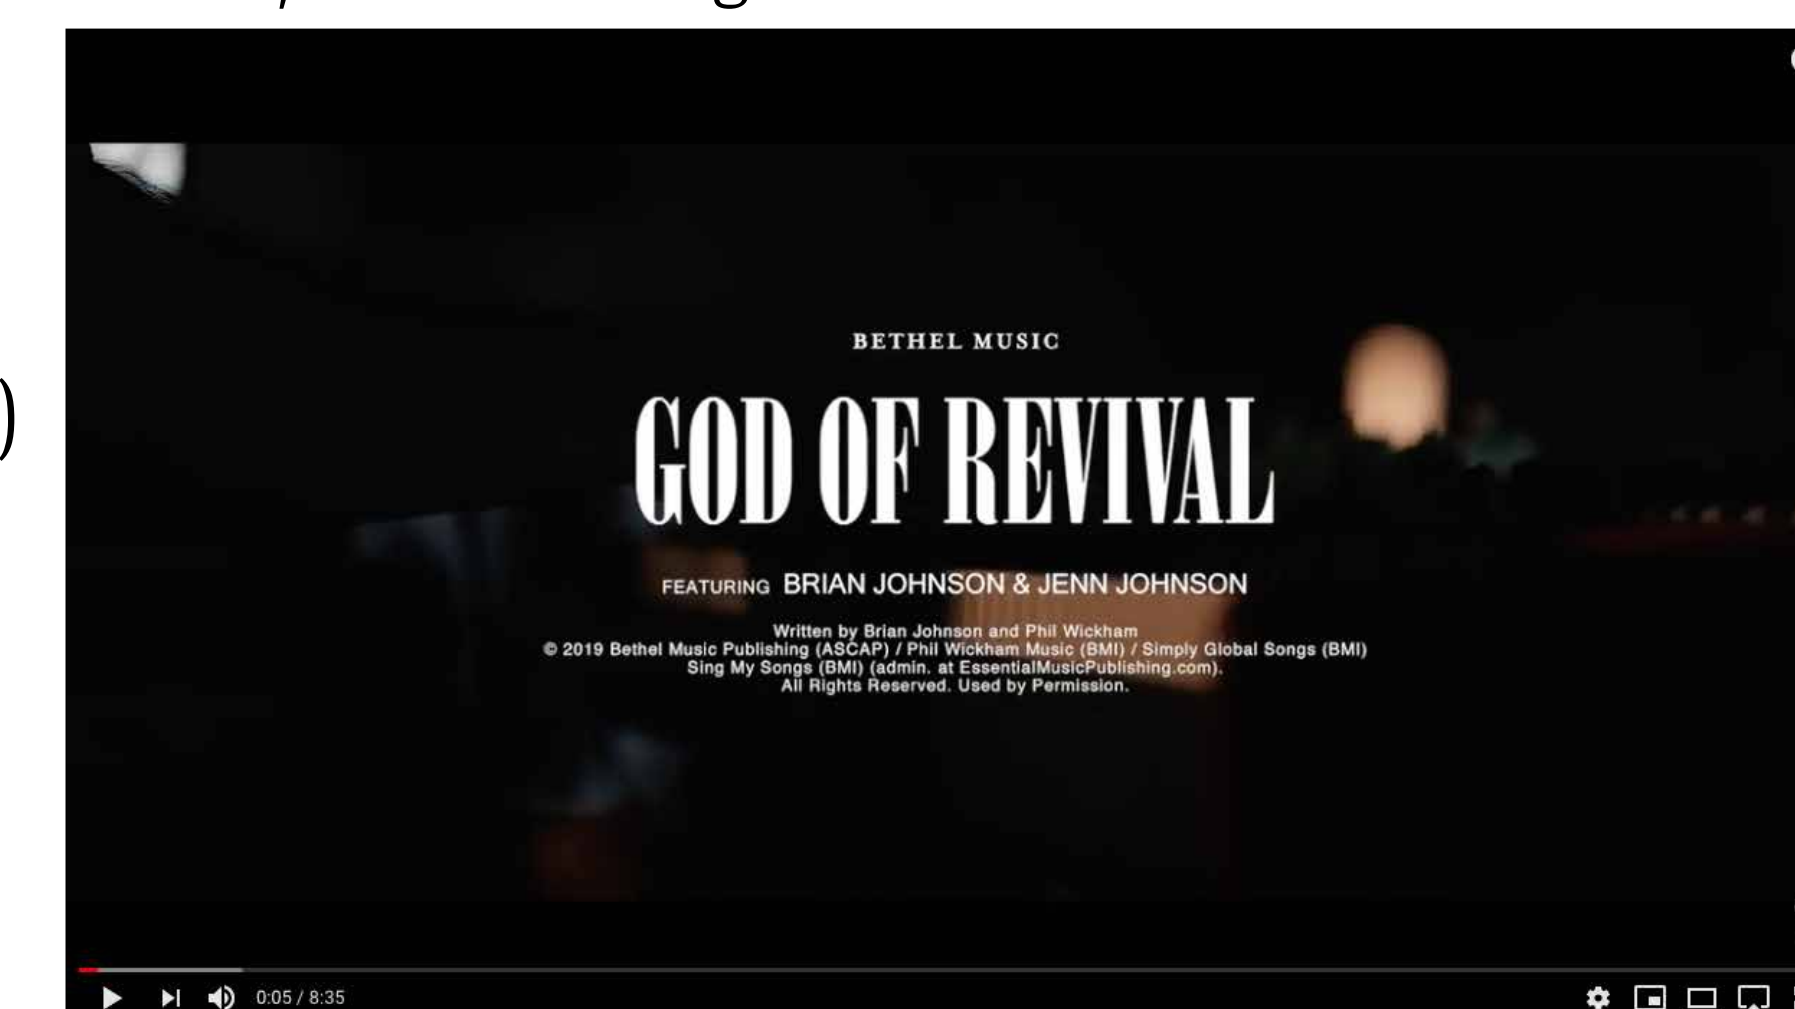

‘Revival’s In The Air’ is Bethel Music’s latest album featuring 17 new songs bursting with joy and new life. Inspired by the valley of dry bones in Ezekiel 37, we sense something rattling in the depths of the body of Christ as God breathes life, causing us to awaken and rise up with new strength. The sick are being healed, prodigals are coming home, broken hearts are being made whole – and it’s just the beginning.

Recorded live in Redding, California, the album features songs that have been reviving us as a community and family to run after God like never before. Bethel Music founders Brian and Jenn Johnson, wrote their powerful anthem “God of Revival” with Phil Wickham as a call for our families, cities, and nations to awaken to the God of the impossible. Jonathan David and Melissa Helser, known for “Raise a Hallelujah” emerge with “Revival’s In The Air,” steering the album’s title and theme. Cory Asbury, known for his Grammy-nominated “Reckless Love” appears on the album with new songs including his latest single “Egypt.”

Jeremy Camp – The Story’s Not Over (Deluxe Edition) CD

Description

GRAMMY®-nominated singer/songwriter Jeremy Camp readies the release of his 12th album, The Story’s Not Over (Deluxe Edition). Fueled by a remix of the #1 radio single, “Dead Man Walking”, the 17-track The Story’s Not Over (Deluxe Edition) balances pop nuances with vulnerable and transparent writing, and includes updated re-recordings of career defining hits “Right Here”, “Walk By Faith”, and “I Still Believe”.

Jeremy Camp is one of the most accomplished male artists in Christian music. With 5 RIAA Gold albums, nearly 4 million albums sold, a GRAMMY nomination, 3 American Music Award nominations, 5 Dove Awards, 4 ASCAP “Songwriter of the Year” Awards, and 40 No. 1 radio hits across all formats.

NEEDTOBREATHE – Out of Body CD

Description

'Out Of Body' is the seventh studio album from Grammy® Award–nominated rock band NeedToBreathe. Fueled by sweeping guitars and a massive beat, "Hang On" serves up an arena–ready chorus with an empowering and timely message. It doubles as a clarion call for a world in need of a little hope. On the other end of the sonic spectrum, yet equally hopeful, "Seasons" ebbs and flows between soft piano and plaintive strumming. The heartfelt ballad culminates in a promise from lead singer / guitarist Bear Rinehart who assures, "We're in for nasty weather. I'll ride it out with you."

The new album marks the beginning of the next chapter for NeedToBreathe.

Sidewalk Prophets – The Things That Got Us Here CD

Description

Dove Award-winning Christian music band Sidewalk Prophets knows that sometimes you have to look back before you can move forward. That's why as they step into a fresh chapter of music, the beloved band is taking time to reflect on The Things That Got Us Here, the title of their fourth studio album.

“Smile” serves as the record’s lead single, offering the first glimpse of new music. Taking its name from a line in a new song titled “Real To Me,” the album as a whole tackles universal topics like identity, forgiveness, doubt, worry, comparison, mental health and finding joy in the mundane.

Like three-minute love letters to their fans—the Great Big Family—the project’s 13 tracks radiate hope in the midst of life’s peaks and valleys.

The struggling family stays with their eccentric Aunt Norah (Janie Wyatt Wilkinson) while each try to adjust to their new life.

Pete (Rhys Doud), a quirky neighbour, convinces them to embark on an adventure inspired by a bucket-list found hidden in their Dad's high school storage boxes. Description

We live in a world that increasingly encourages us to be “true to ourselves”. It’s our right; what we deserve...

But biblical wisdom urges caution. Seeing ourselves through a human lens alone will leave us with a sense of self that falls tragically short of God’s original design. When we are the captain of our soul – and life is fuelled by desire, ambition and opportunism – we are left vulnerable and exposed. We can never uncover our true self until we meet face to face with the One who lovingly purposed and planned our lives before the beginning of time.

The story of Jacob is the story of one man’s struggle with identity, full of incident, glory and controversy. He stole what was never his, and was eventually forced to surrender to that which was always his. He wore a disguise to fool others, but ended up naked before the Lord, confronted with the real Jacob.

The story of Jacob is our story too. If, like him, we will stop grasping for self, a face to face encounter awaits that could change everything.

“John’s message of the absolute necessity of living authentically, free from pretence, with integrity, vulnerability and openness is one our generation is craving to hear. This is a thoroughly Bible-centred book. Read it, look for His face and listen for His voice.” – STEVE CAMPBELL, Senior Pastor, C3 Church

Kids love to dream about what they might do when they grow up: jobs they might have, places they might go, people they might meet. And parents and carers love to encourage and support them. But for Christian parents and carers, their greatest aspiration for their children, their dream of all dreams, is that whatever their kids do and wherever they go, they will love and follow Jesus.

As children embark on life's journey with all their potential and aspirations, express to them your biggest dream with this beautiful illustrated rhyming children's book.

As well as teaching children about the only thing that really matters in life, this book also reminds parents that telling their kids about Jesus is more important than anything else.

Makes a wonderful gift for a wide range of children—from 3 year olds to 8 year olds and even beyond...

Description

During a train trip from Chicago in the late 1940s, A. W. Tozer began to work on 'The Pursuit of God'. He wrote all night long, the words coming to him as fast as he could put them down. By the next morning, when the train pulled into McAllen, Texas, the rough draft was done.

Although written in such a remarkably short period of time, the depth, clarity, and completeness of A. W. Tozer's message has made 'The Pursuit of God' an enduring favourite—over a million copies are now in print in 20 languages.

The complete text of this classic has been divided into 31 daily meditations.

Quotations from some of Tozer's forty-plus works, contemporary authors, and even classic authors enhance the text.

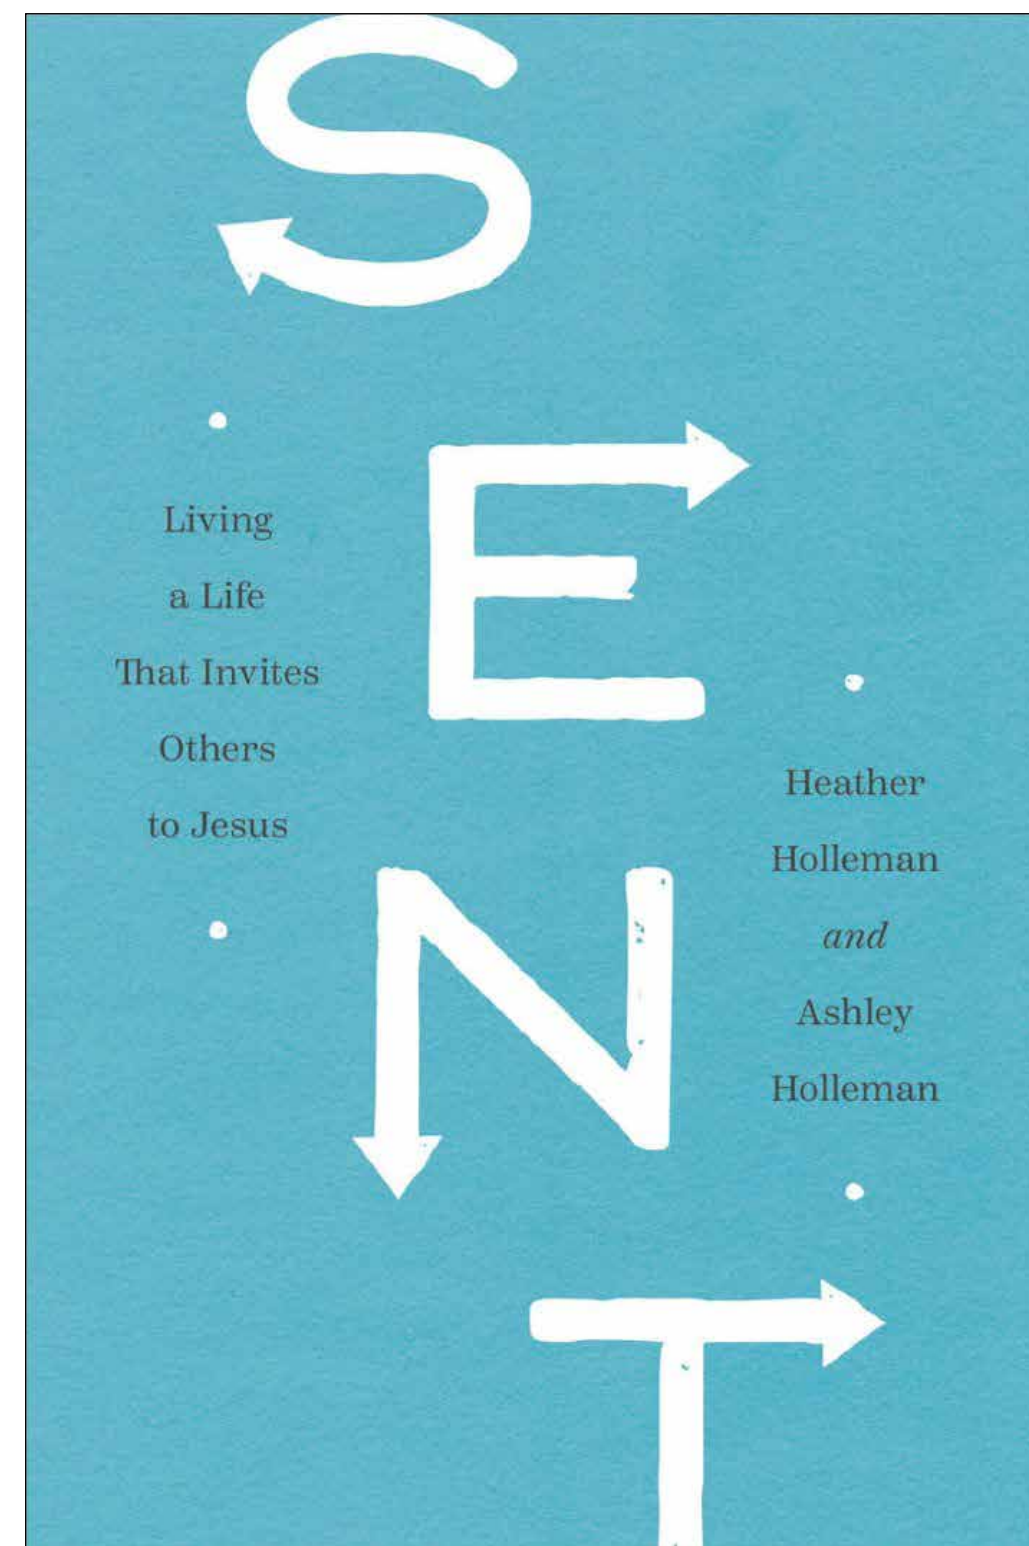

Prepare yourself for a deeply meaningful and enjoyable experience.

About the Author

A.W. TOZER began his lifelong pursuit of God at the age of seventeen after hearing a street preacher in Akron, Ohio. A self-taught theologian, Tozer was a pastor, writer and editor whose powerful use of words continues to grip the intellect and stir the soul of today's reader. Among his best-loved books are the classics 'The Pursuit of God' and 'The Attributes of God'.

 Author: Jim Wilder & Michel Hendricks
 Price: £11.99*
 Product Code: 9780802419637
 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Discipleship

Could brain science be the key to spiritual formation? Why does true Christian transformation seem fleeting? And why does Church often feel lonely, Christian community shallow, and leaders untrustworthy? For many Christians, the delight of encountering Christ eventually dwindles—and disappointment sets in. Is lasting joy possible?

These are some of the questions Michel Hendricks has considered both in his experience as a spiritual formation pastor and in his lifetime as a Christian. He began to find answers when he met Jim Wilder—a neurotheologian.

In 'The Other Half of Church', join Michel and Jim's journey as they couple brain science with the Bible to identify how to overcome spiritual stagnation by living a full-brained faith. You'll also learn the four ingredients necessary to develop and maintain a vibrant transformational community where spiritual formation occurs, relationships flourish, and the toxic spread of narcissism is eradicated.

Communicating the Scriptures is much like building a bridge. However, instead of ravines or rivers, the teacher must span both cultural boundaries and great gulfs of time between the present and the pasts of Moses, David, Jesus, and Paul.

Though God's Word is always relevant, the teacher must help students see Scripture's vast treasures. The effective, engaging Bible teacher must, therefore, become creative.

Together, Lawrence Richards and Gary Bredfeldt have created the ultimate guide to building bridges for those seeking to learn about God's Word.

Creative Bible Teaching offers a five-step process by which Christian educators can construct a bridge across time, geography, and culture to help students of all ages connect with God's Word. This newly revised edition makes learning about God's Word more accessible for both teachers and students today. Simple, clear, and memorable, the method laid out in Creative Bible Teaching provides a sure-fire way of communicating God's Word in a way that sticks.

As Your Children Grow, Will Their Faith Grow Too?

As both stories and statistics attest, the number of evangelical children who abandon Christianity in adulthood is staggering. To see effective change, parents cannot leave their child's faith to chance.

Rather, families must start nurturing faith early—you cannot start once your child is grown, you must start at home. Strengthening family and home life is the best way to encourage your children to maintain a lifelong faith.

It Starts at Home upholds marriage and family as the proving ground for lasting success. Experienced pastors Kurt Bruner and Steve Stroope provide a clear purpose, an effective strategy, and a simple plan for anyone who wants to be intentional in their homes.

Their insights will help leaders recalibrate their priorities by asking them to evaluate their leadership where it counts most. This newly revised edition evaluates the current trends families and young adults face that can contribute to this crisis.

Description

Life is a gift. We never asked to be born.

Yet here we are, living in this strange world of space and time, trying to work out what it's all about. We are adrift on a misty grey sea of ignorance, seeking a sun-kissed island of certainty, on which we hope to find clear answers to our deepest and most poignant questions.

What is the point of life?

Why are we here?

What is it about us that makes us want to ask those questions?

As far as we know, we're the only species on earth that asks these questions and dares to hope that we might find an answer. It seems that we are born to wonder, not merely to exist.

In 'Born to Wonder', Alister McGrath, a prolific Oxford scholar, scientist, and theologian, explores the deepest mystery at the heart of life itself, helping us to appreciate the purpose behind our lives and the precious nature of each moment.

About the Author

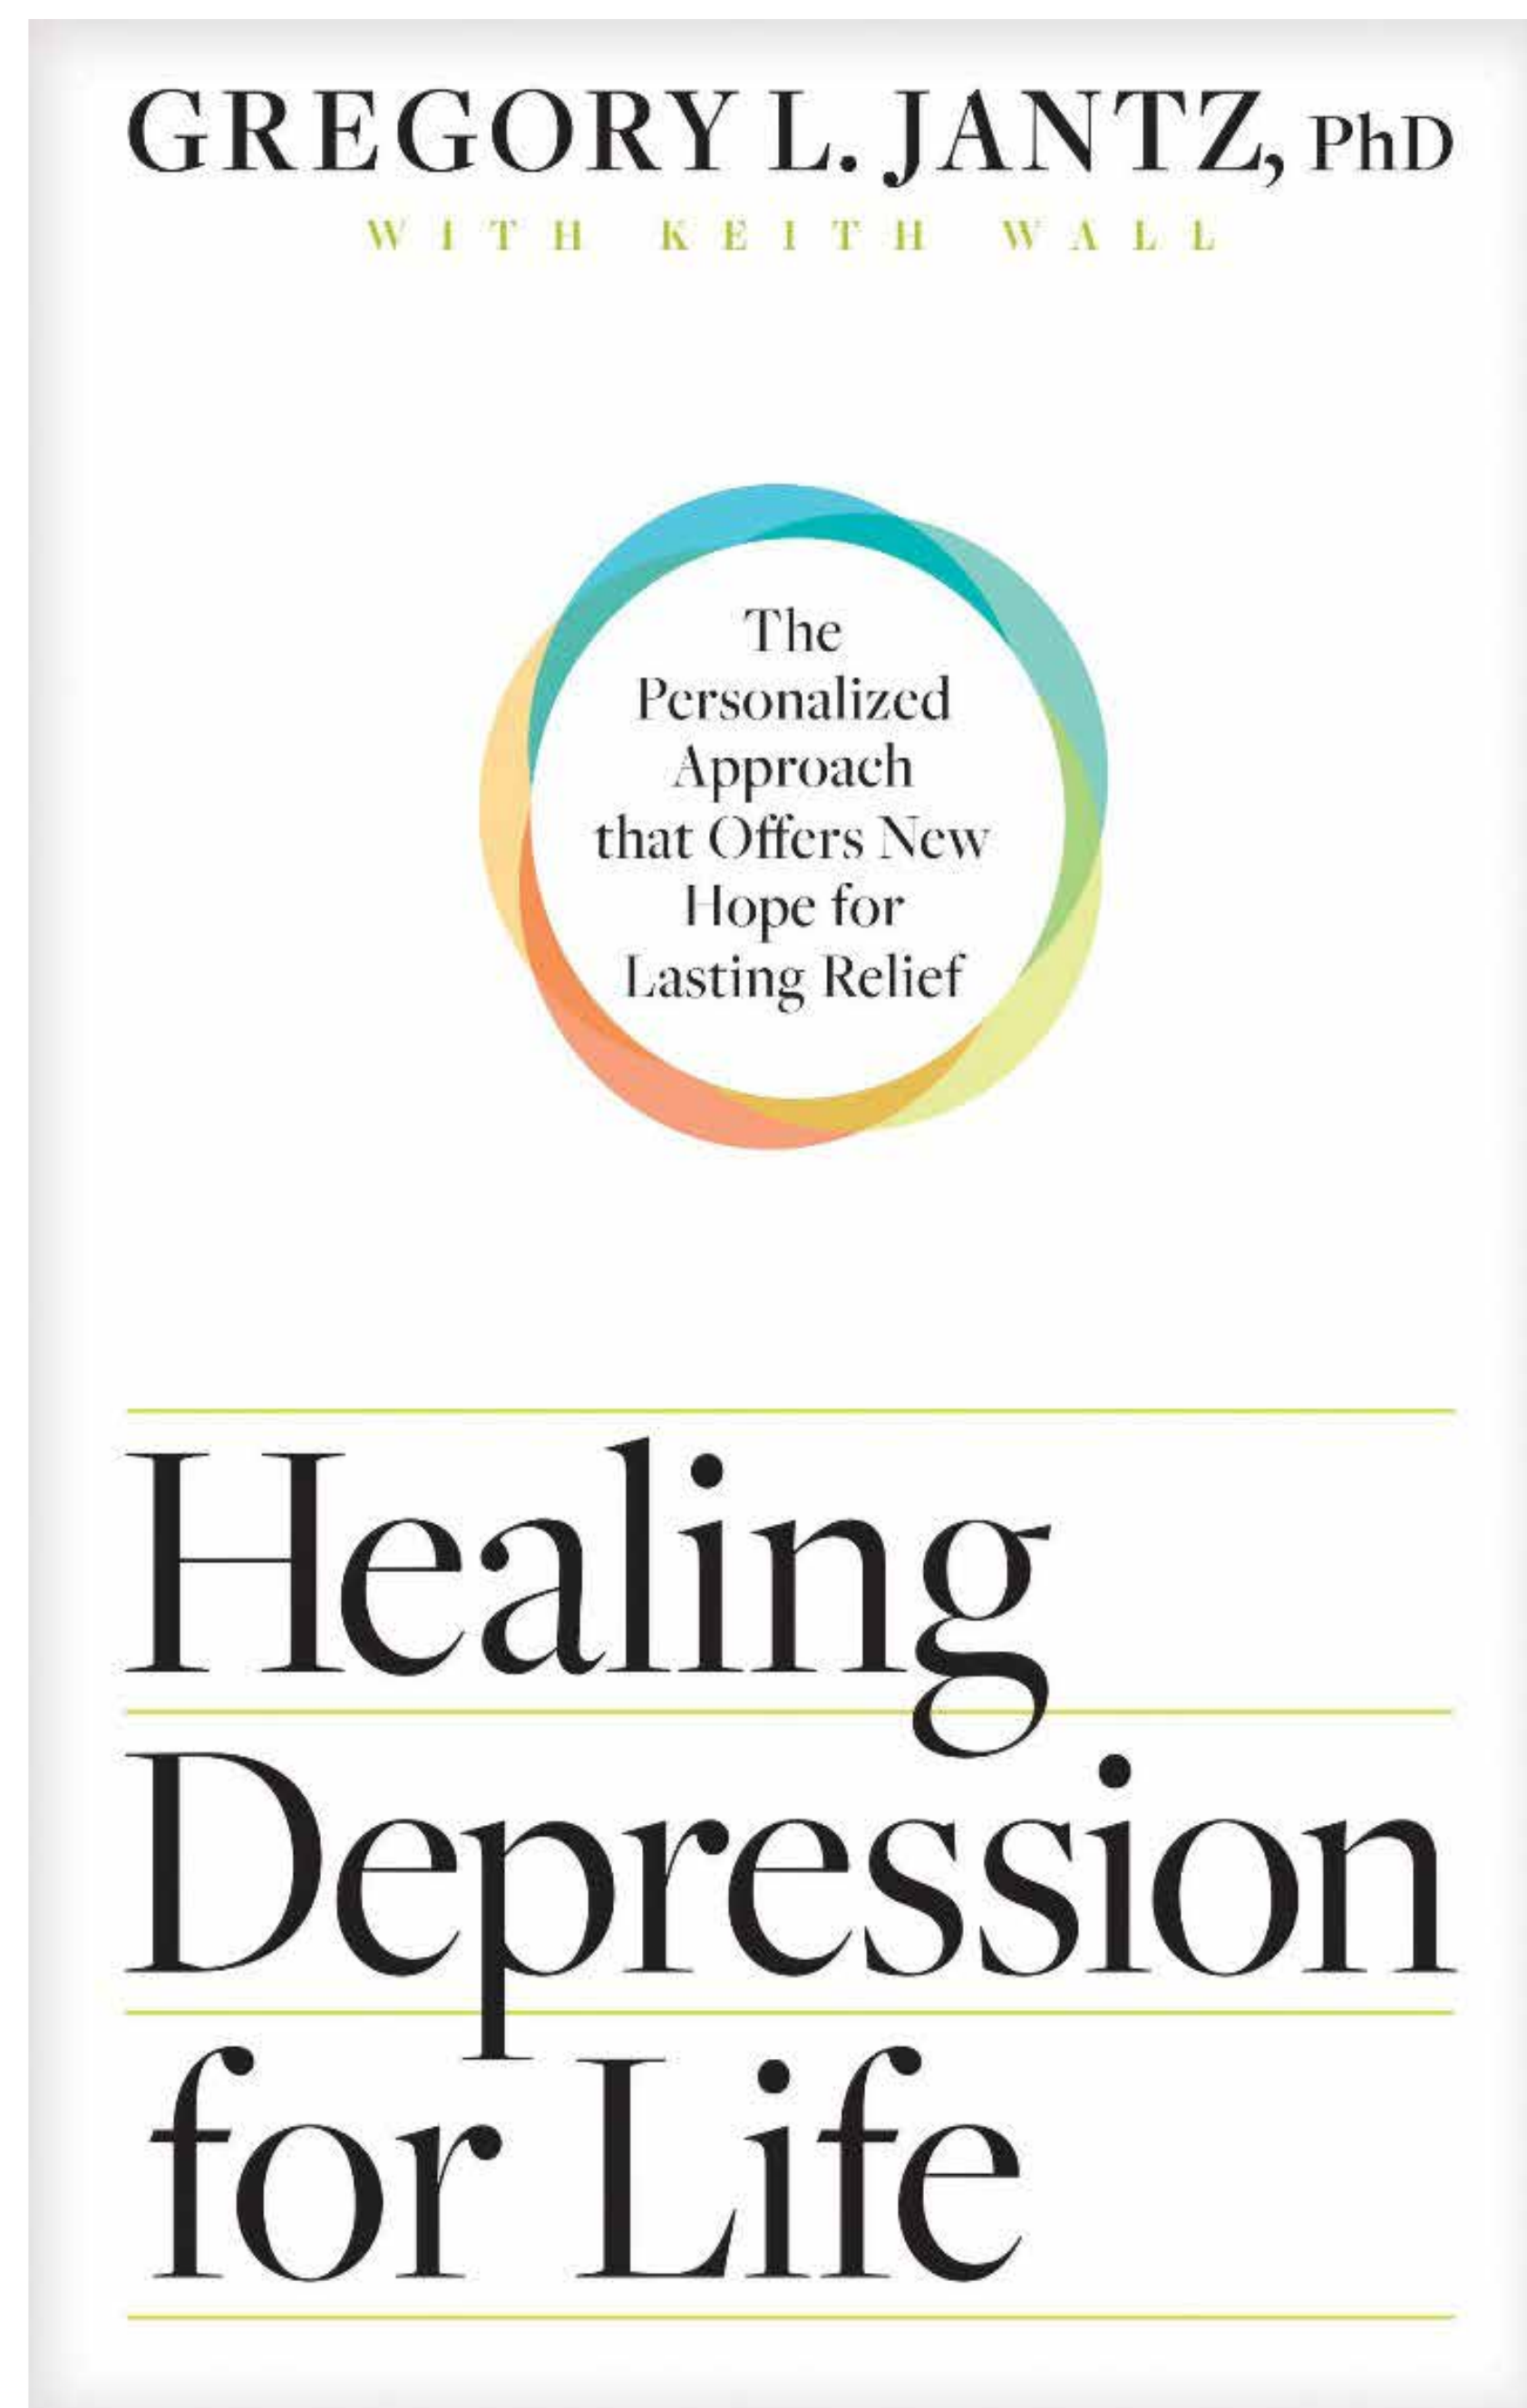

Alister McGrath was born in Belfast, Northern Ireland. After taking two degrees in the natural sciences at Oxford University, McGrath switched to the study of theology. He is now Andreas Idreos Professor of Science and Religion at Oxford University.

His writings explore a wide range of topics, at both the popular and scholarly levels, including intellectual history, the relation of science and Christian faith, and the basic themes of Christian theology.

He is the author of some of the world's most widely used textbooks on Christian theology, and has been heavily involved in public debates about the rationality of religious belief.

His more academic works deal mainly with the area of "natural theology", exploring whether there is any link between the world around us and a transcendent or divine realm.

Finally, there is new hope for those who suffer from depression.

For decades, standard treatment for depression hasn't changed. Sufferers typically are prescribed antidepressant medication and talk therapy. Period. But at least 30 percent of depression sufferers aren't helped by standard treatment. Instead, they are left still searching for true and lasting relief.

In 'Healing Depression for Life', Dr. Gregory Jantz offers a new way forward. Drawing on the innovative whole-person approach that has made his treatment centre one of the top 10 depression treatment facilities in the US, Dr. Jantz reveals the treatments, practices, and lifestyle changes that can provide lasting relief from depression—by addressing its chemical, emotional, physical, intellectual, relational, and spiritual causes. Not all depression is the same, and not all people with depression are the same.

Healing Depression for Life will help you find the missing puzzle pieces that could make all the difference in overcoming your feelings of helplessness and hopelessness and put you on the path to lasting joy.

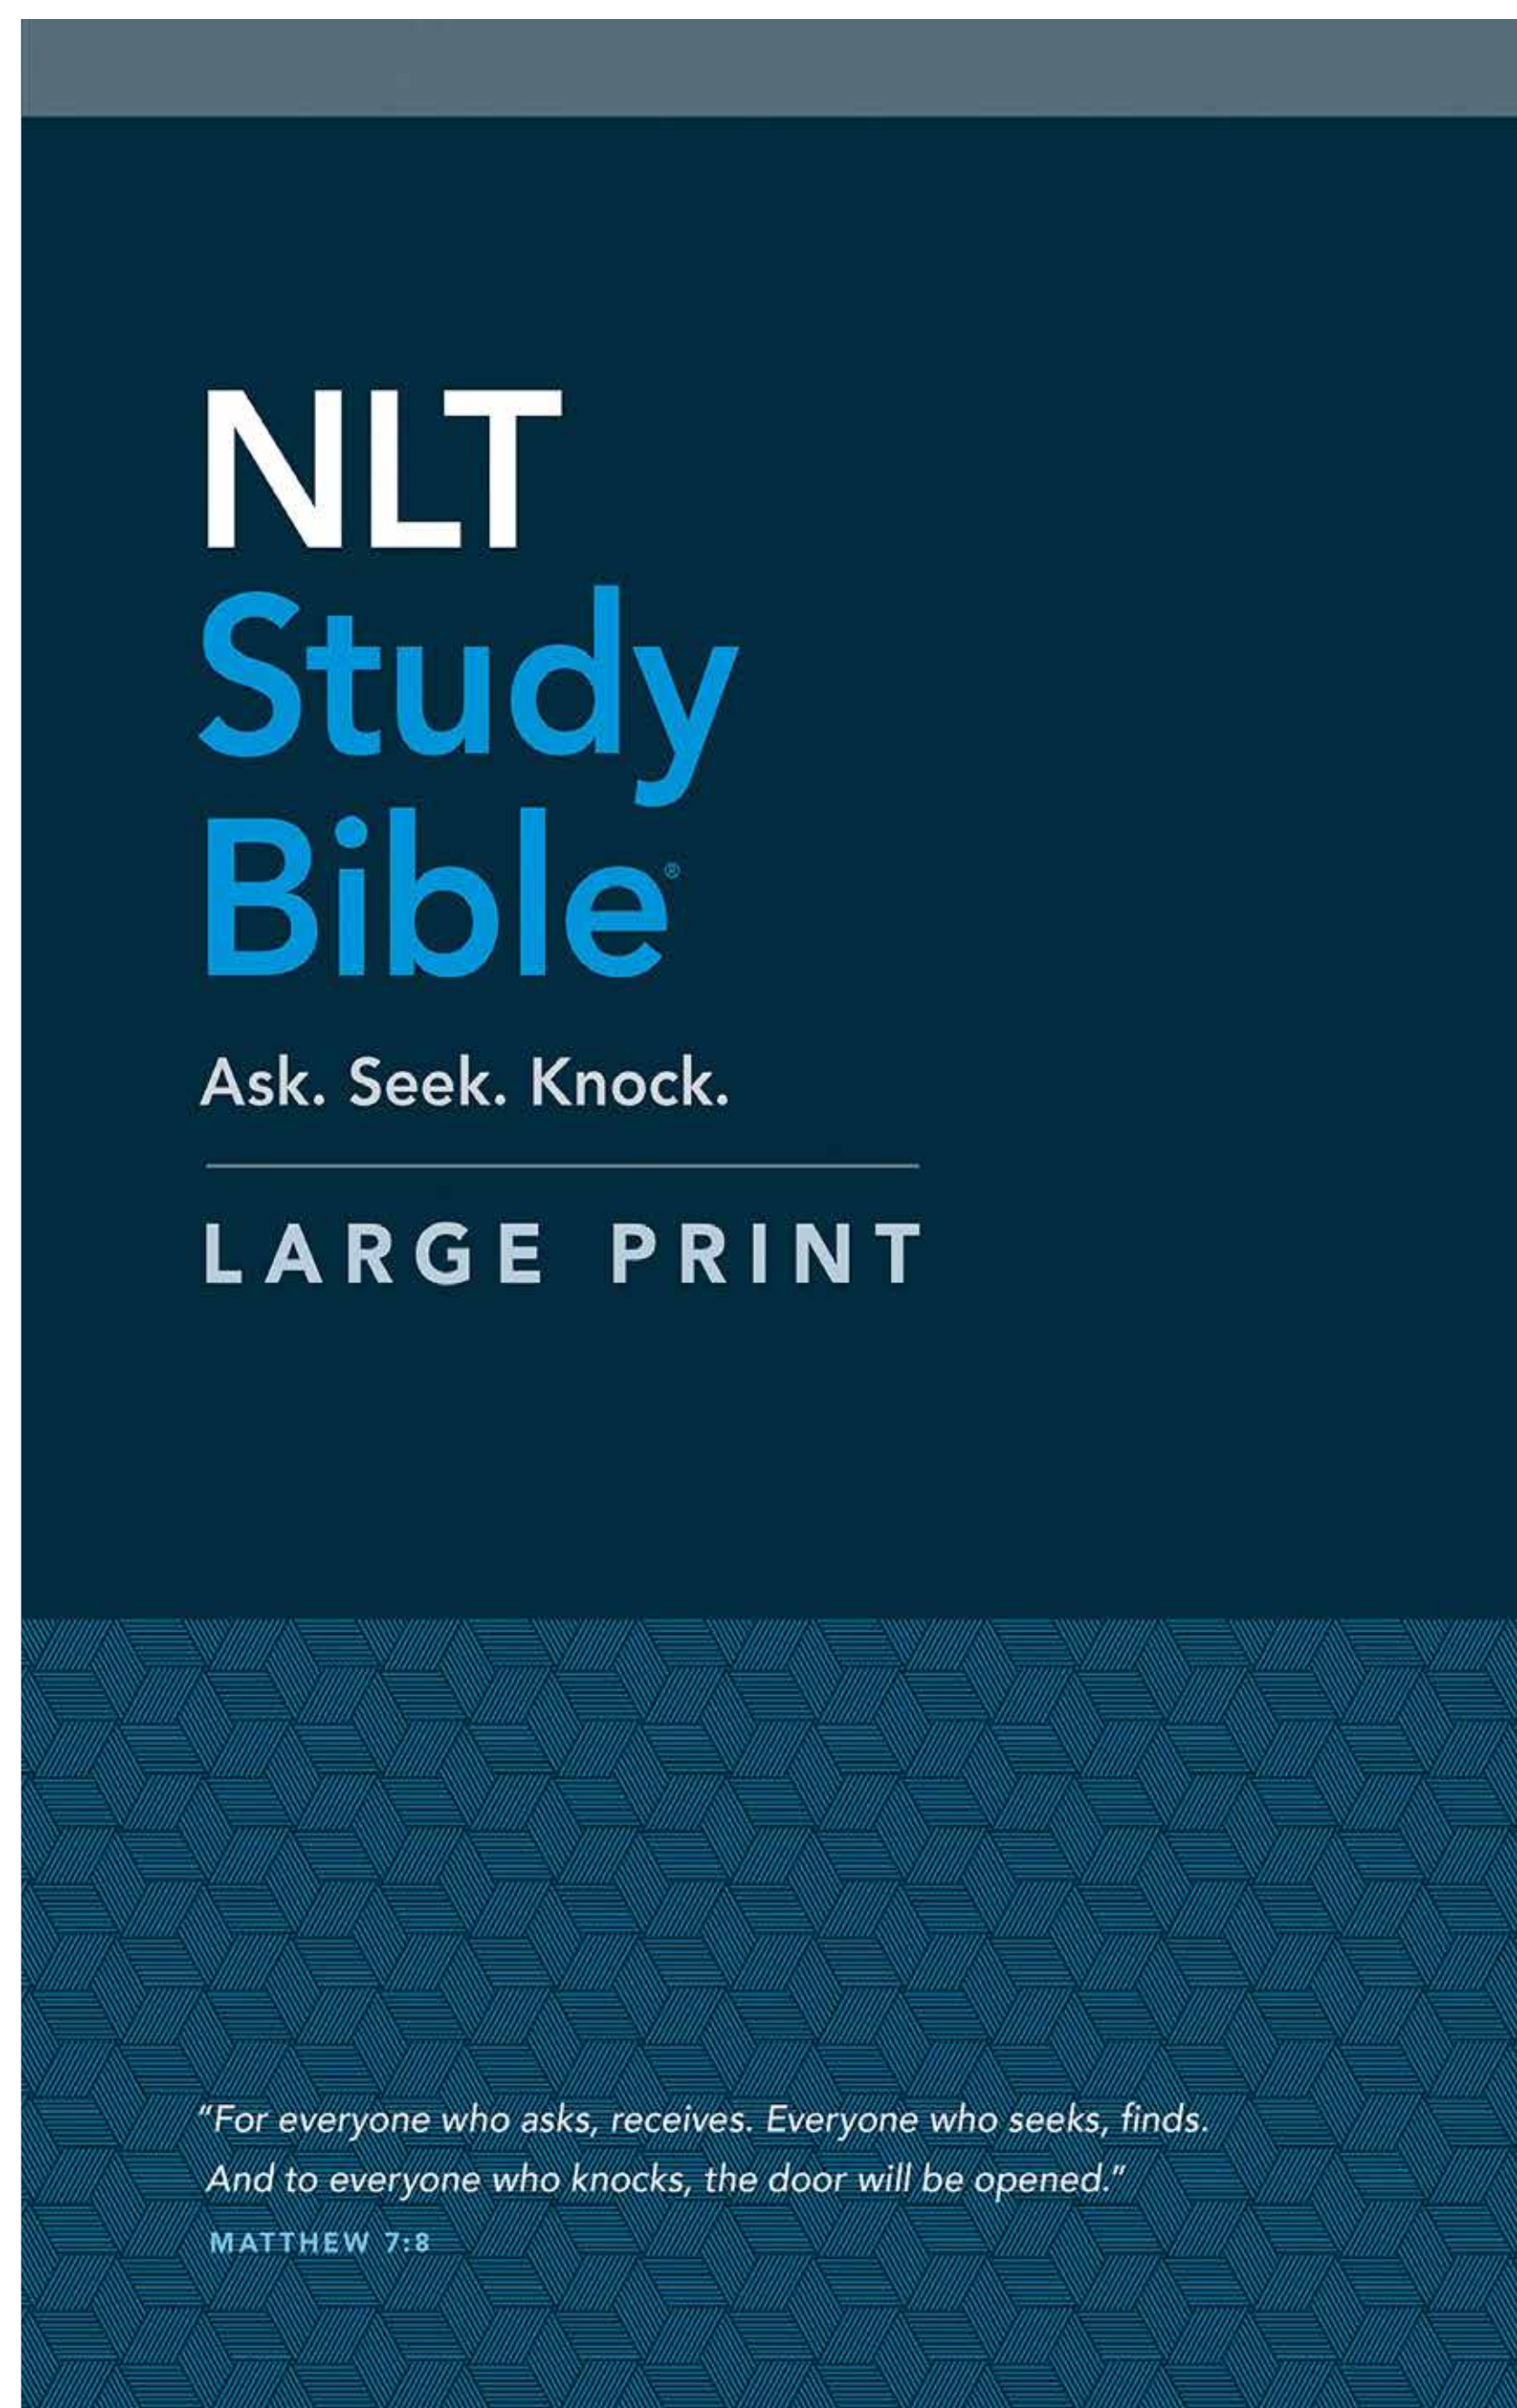

About the Author

Dr. Jantz is a best-selling author of more than 37 books. He is a go-to media source for a range of behavioral-based afflictions, including drug and alcohol addictions.

Title: A Way With Words
Author: Daniel Darling
Price: £14.50*
Product Code: 9781535995368
Format: Paperback
Genre: Personal Growth
Distribution: UK & Europe

Social media was made to bring us together. But few things have driven us further apart.

Sadly, many Christians are fueling online incivility. Others, exhausted by perpetual outrage and shame-filled from constant comparison, are leaving social media altogether.

So, how should Christians behave in this digital age? Is there a better way?

Daniel Darling believes we need an approach that applies biblical wisdom to our engagement with social media, an approach that neither retreats from modern technology nor ignores the harmful ways in which Christians often engage publicly. In short, he believes that we can and should use our online conversations for good.

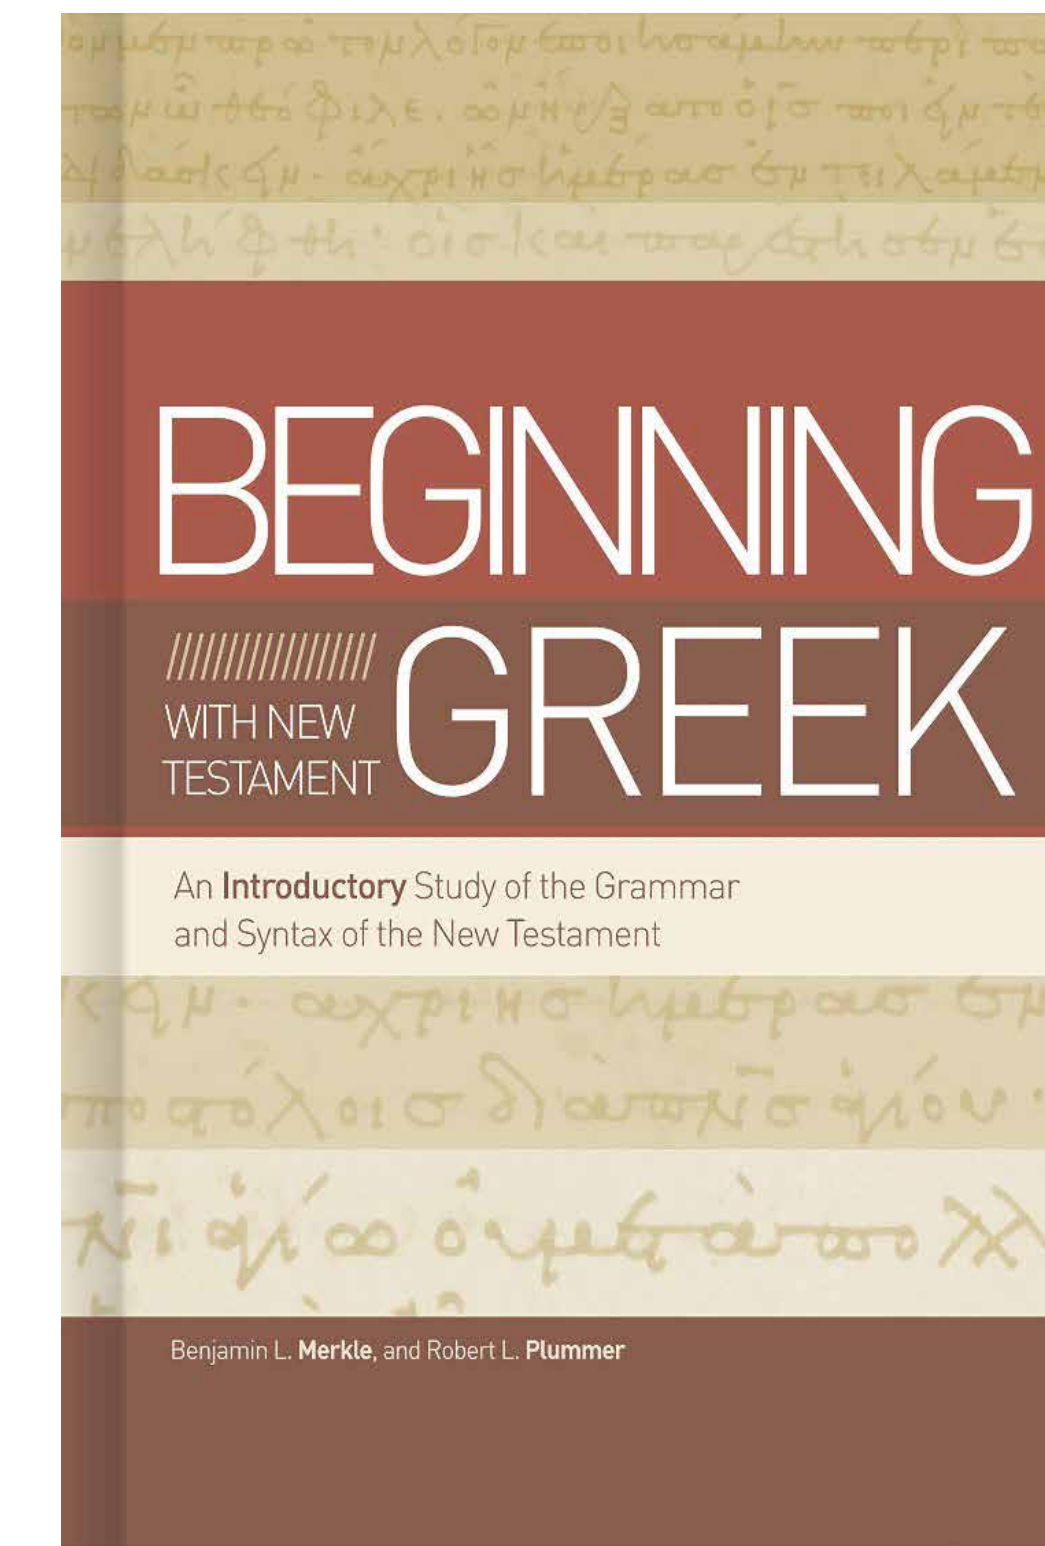

Title: Holman Illustrated Guide to Biblical Geography
Author: Paul H. Wright
Price: £23.99*
Product Code: 9780805494839
Format: Hard Cover
Genre: Bible Atlases
Distribution: UK & Europe

The Holman Illustrated Guide to Biblical Geography includes more than 200 images and over 50 maps to provide a coherent and meaningful set of pegs on which to hang the events that march across the biblical stage.

For many Bible readers (and teachers!), one king, one battle, one story often blurs into the next. A geographical grid provides an objective structure to make sense of the biblical narrative. Historical and cultural geography give hue and texture to what are sometimes seen as rather flat, black-and-white pages of the biblical text.

Chapters include:

- Exploring the World of the Bible
- Building Blocks of Biblical Geography
- The Land of Ancient Israel: The Southern Regions (Judah/Judea)
- The Land of Ancient Israel: The Central Regions (Israel/Samaria)
- The Land of Ancient Israel: The Northern Regions (Galilee)
- Transjordan
- Afterword: Geography of the Heart

John Stott – Pages from a Preacher’s Notebook

Description

Like many preachers, the great British evangelical leader John Stott was always looking for illustrations to include in his sermons and writings. Beginning in the 1940s and continuing until the early 2000s, when he came across something he thought he could use, he captured it on a note card, labelled it according to topic, and filed it away in his study.

Editor Mark Meynell, who worked at All Souls Langham Place with Stott, has selected the best of these illustrations to be included in 'Pages from a Preacher's Notebook.'

Here we see Stott's fruitful and disciplined mind on display in hundreds of preaching notes and prayers on various subjects, all arranged topically.

Whether you are a preacher or writer looking for a good idea, or an admirer of Stott who enjoys reading anything he writes, 'Pages from a Preacher's Notebook' illuminates his careful working methods for the benefit of readers today.

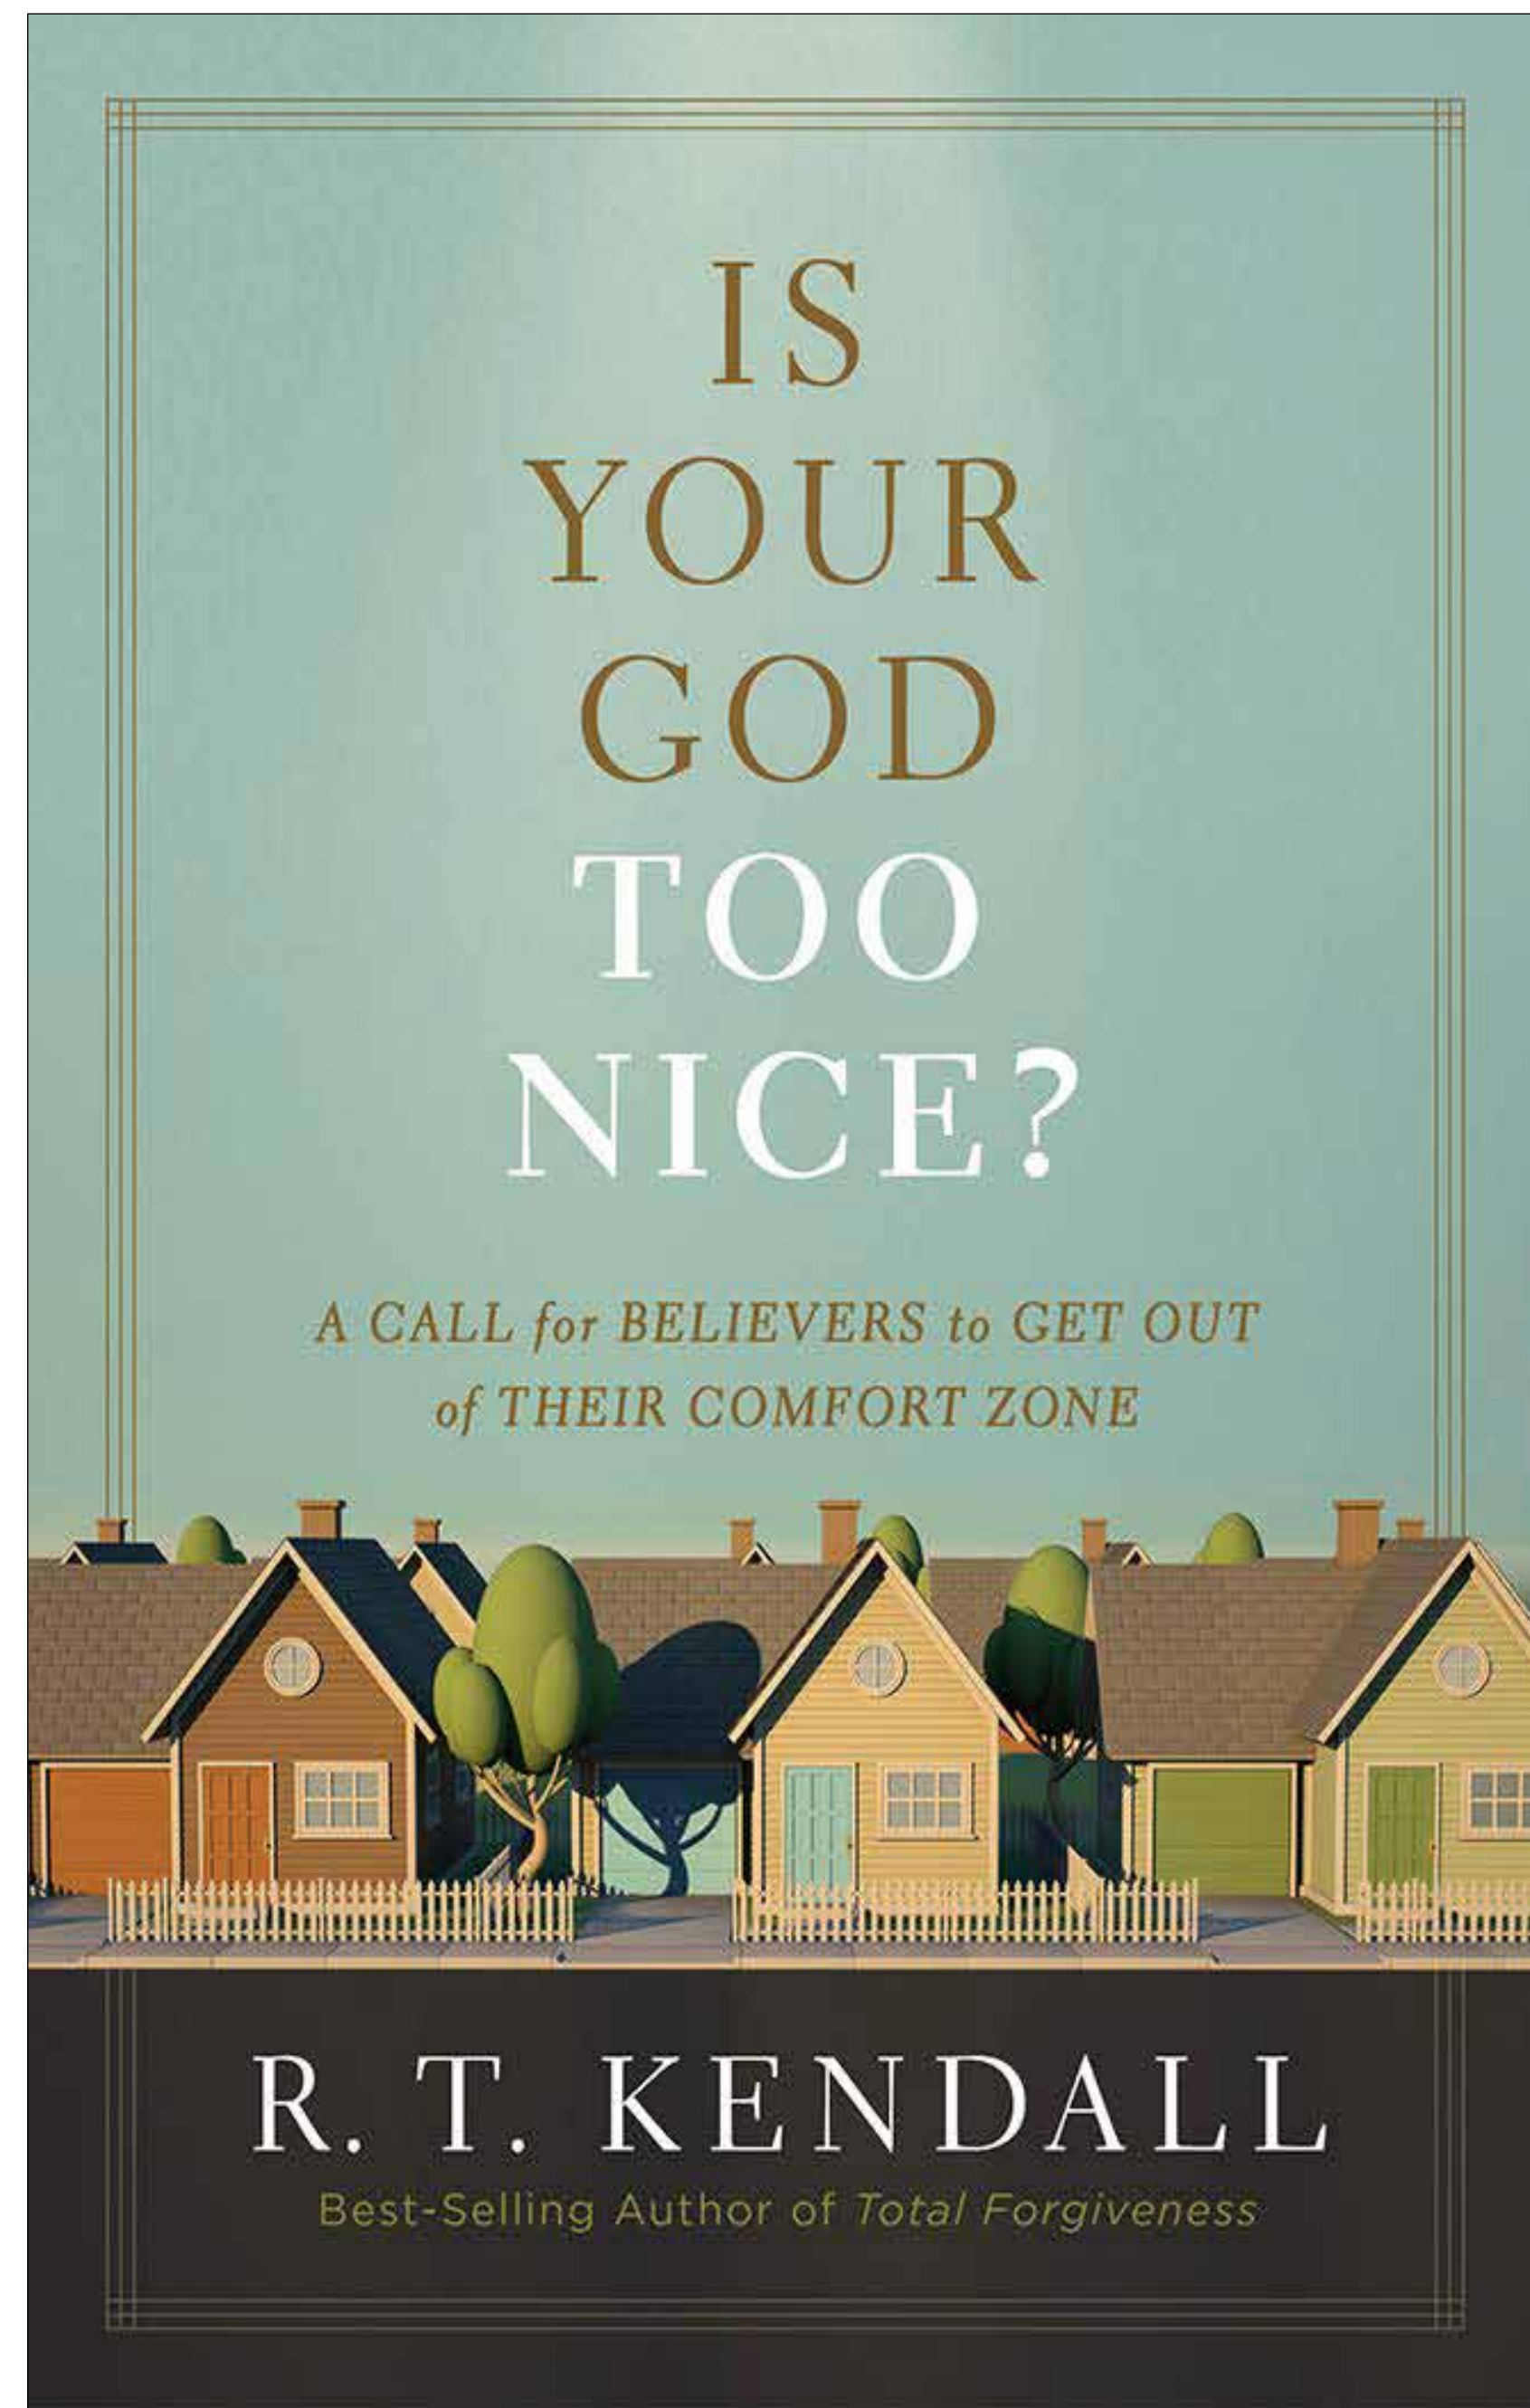

About the Author

John Stott (1921–2011) was one of the foremost Christian figures of the twentieth century. He was educated at Cambridge, studying French and theology for a double first, and then training to be an Anglican cleric. He served as rector of All Souls Church, Langham Place, in London for 25 years, where he carried out an effective urban pastoral ministry. He became known worldwide as a preacher, evangelist, and communicator of Scripture.

A leader among evangelicals in Britain, the United States and around the world, Stott was a principal framer of the landmark Lausanne Covenant in 1974. His many books, including Why I Am a Christian, Basic Christianity, Your Mind Matters: The Place of the Mind in the Christian Life, Between Two Worlds: The Challenge of Preaching Today, and The Living Church: Convictions of a Lifelong Pastor, have sold millions of copies around the world, translated into dozens of languages.

Stott was honoured by Time magazine in 2005 as one of the "100 Most Influential People in the World."

Description

This book will bring us back to the God of the Bible. Not the God we like or the way we wish He were, but the very God of the Bible--unembellished, unvarnished--as He really is. This does not mean we will like Him.

Many times we are embarrassed by the God of the Bible, especially the God of the Old Testament. We are even embarrassed by the teachings of Jesus when it comes to His being the only way to be saved, as well as God's right to judge and reward or condemn.

We attempt to manage God's PR and fix His image in the modern world. We are tempted to modify and mold God into what we want Him to be--what we think He should be. Instead we should be finding out where God is and meet Him there, even if that takes us out of our comfort zones.

This book will challenge you to give up your conception of what you would like God to be and come to know Him as He really is.

 Genre: Personal Growth

As we enter a new normal after the peak of COVID-19, we are left with fears, questions, and anxiety. While the biological virus has taken an untold toll on lives worldwide--medically and economically--the "new virus" going forward may be summed up in two words: anxiety and worry.

While our immediate attention is on our health and that of friends and loved ones, there is a perhaps a greater need: How do we practice healthy emotional and spiritual "hygiene" as we emerge from arguably the greatest crisis the world has seen since World War II? With his more than four decades of professional experience as a therapist and trusted counseling leader, Dr. Tim Clinton brings a timely message of health and hope to a stressed out, fearful world.

Dr. Clinton examines science, psychology, physiology, and other concepts to help us cope with anxiety, but the primary focus is on the consistency of God's power, goodness, and love. Clinton adds, "It's my prayer that as you continue reading, you'll increasingly sense God's peace for your mind and hope for your heart."

- Session 2: The Relationship Between Faith and Fear – Dr. Clinton and guest Dr. Ken Nichols—veteran Christian counselors with more than eighty years of combined mental health experience—dispel the myth that fear is somehow a sign of a lack of faith, and provide tools for managing your fear, rather than becoming immobilized by it.

Dr. Clinton examines science, psychology, physiology, and other concepts to help us cope with anxiety, but the primary focus is on the consistency of God's power, goodness, and love.

In this devotional, Donald McKim takes us back to the wisdom of over twenty Protestant Reformers -- including John Calvin, Martin Luther, and Philip Melanchthon.

As McKim draws from the insightful writings and prayers of the Reformers of yesteryear, he provides brief, meditative readings, along with reflection questions and prayer points, to nourish our prayer lives today.

About the Author

Donald K. McKim has served as a pastor in the Presbyterian Church (USA), a professor of theology and academic dean at Memphis Seminary, a professor at the University of Dubuque Theological Seminary, and an editor for Westminster John Knox Press. He is an award-winning author and editor.

Title: The One Participant Book
 Author: Jim and Jennifer Cowart
 Price: £11.99*
 Product Code: 9781791000318
 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Bible Study

In 'The One', by pastors Jim and Jen Cowart, readers will learn to respond to God's great love for us by reaching out to the ones in our lives who are lost, not literally but spiritually—those who have not yet discovered the rich love God has for them.

God sent his Son to earth on a rescue mission, "to seek and to save the lost" (Luke 19:10)—or as the parables in Luke 15 show us, to save "the one." And Jesus has entrusted us, his disciples, to carry on this mission until his return.

The book and the corresponding study explore Luke 15 where Jesus tells stories about rejoicing when lost things are found—specifically, a lost sheep, a lost coin, and a lost child. This passage teaches us that we're dearly loved and sought after by God, and that we are called to join in Jesus' mission to seek and to save "the one" with intentionality, perseverance, and joy.

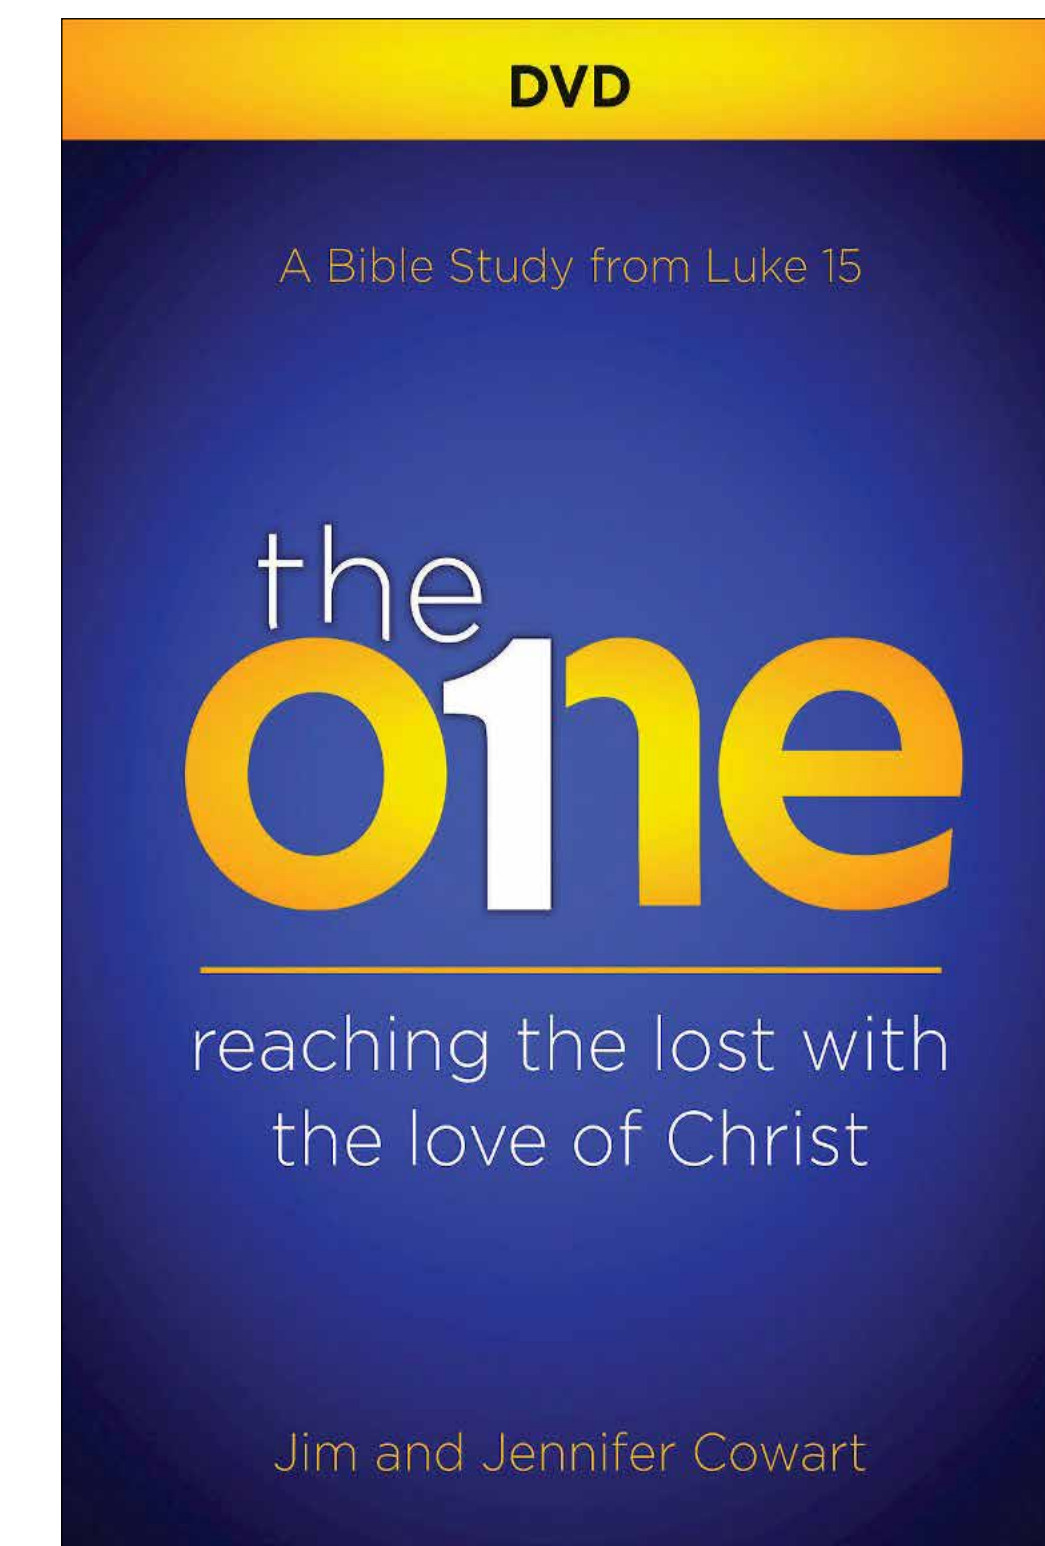

Topics include: • Who's "the one"? • The Sheep • The Coin • The Boys

'Liturgies from Below' is the culmination of a project organized by the Council for World Mission (CWM) during 2018–2019. Approximately 100 people from four continents worked with CWM, collaborating to create indigenous prayers and liturgies expressing their own contexts, for sharing with their communities and the rest of the world. The project was called "Re-Imagining Worship as Acts of Defiance and Alternatives in the Context of Empire."

What we have here is an immensely rich and varied collection of liturgical sources from various communities dealing with issues of violence, immigration, drugs, land grabbing, war, misogyny, militarization, and climate change.

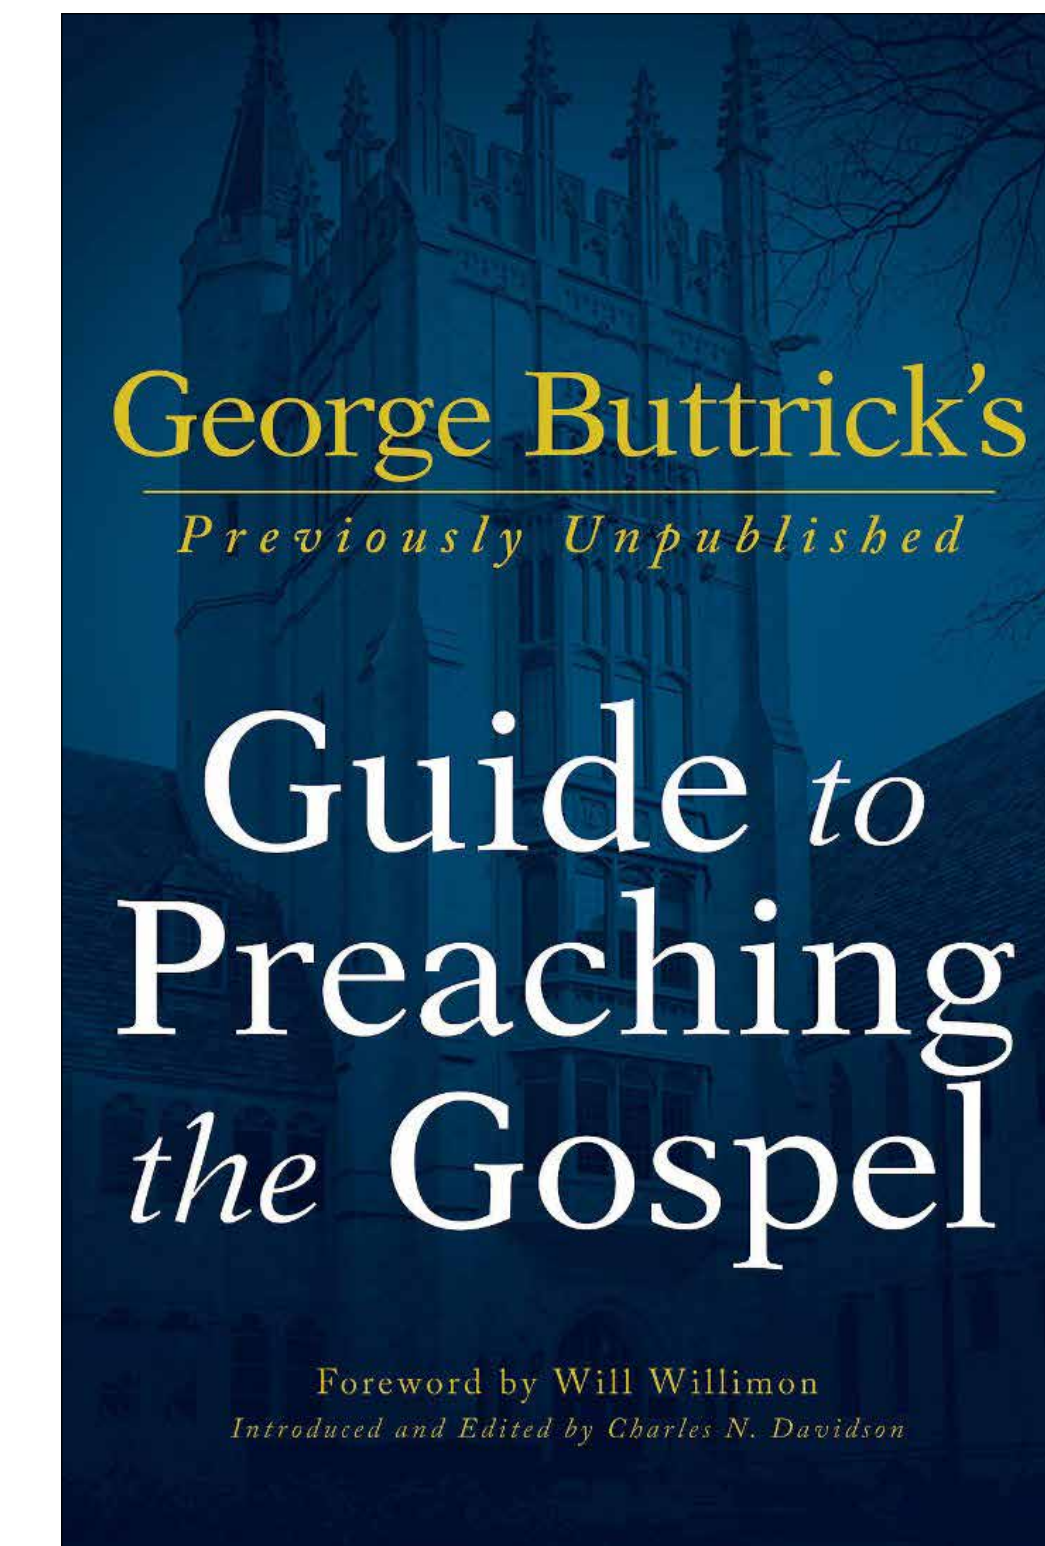

Title: Fresh Expressions of People Over Property
 Author: Audrey Warren & Kenneth H. Carter
 Price: £12.99*
 Product Code: 9781791004750
 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Pastoral Resources
 Distribution: UK & Europe

Our church buildings, and other religious places – which once stood as beacons of hope and reverence for its community – have become a burden for the organizations who seek to keep them standing. In efforts to patch leaky roofs and paint over years of wear, leaders are putting more and more money into property instead of people.

The practices we have fallen into to keep a building running are not only demoralizing to the pastoral profession and the mission of the church, but they also run the risk of violating property tax laws and incurring more debt.

What if our properties didn't have to be a source of pain but purpose and profit? Can we as faith-based organizations begin to think collaboratively about how we might further our missions by creatively and intentionally rethinking how we utilize the space we inhabit? In this book the authors reflect on strategies, scriptures, and stories that help leaders faithfully reimagine their community spaces so that they reflect that God and God's people value people over property.

 Genre: Preaching and Sermon Resources

Whether we need preaching has been asked for hundreds of years, long before an age of media saturation from streaming 24-hour news, entertainment, politics, and sports. This question hounded George Buttrick, one of the most profound preachers of the twentieth century and often compared with Billy Graham. Buttrick offers a compelling answer to the question, but his answer remained hidden for 40 years until now.

In George Buttrick's Guide to Preaching the Gospel, we learn why the world needs competent preachers, what the preacher must preach about, and how the preacher goes about creating the sermon with daily discipline and several practiced skills, including research, charting, outlining, writing, and performance.

These writings have never been published before and were found by his grandchildren after his death. A brief biography of Buttrick introduces this master orator and professor to readers who do not know his work.

Title: The Healing Practice of Celebration
 Author: Elaine A. Heath
 Price: £11.99*
 Product Code: 9781791007386
 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Spiritual Growth
 Distribution: UK & Europe

The act of celebration has deep and ancient roots among God's people, who throughout their history have joyfully celebrated God's deliverance and faithfulness. In life's high and happy moments, celebration happens naturally. But what about when life's experiences are dull and flat, or worse, when they cause us to hit rock bottom? Does God expect us to celebrate then? God does, and we can.

This book explores celebration not as an isolated event or an occasional occurrence but as a response to the reality that God is continually present, always faithful, and ever loving.

Celebration as a spiritual practice involves a posture of living so well-anchored in the fuller story of God's involvement with people throughout history that anticipatory faith and hope, regardless of present circumstances, inform our thoughts, words, and actions. This book shows us how to embrace and live into this posture.

Title: Life in Christ
 Author: Stever Harper
 Price: £14.99*
 Product Code: 9781791004705
 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Spiritual Growth
 Distribution: UK & Europe

E. Stanley Jones observed that people "know everything about life except how to live it." We humans have acquired immense knowledge and achieved great things. We are enlightened, Jones said, but not necessarily enlivened.

Harper helps us recognize our tendency to search for life through rules and dogmas rather than in relationships with other people and with God. By living in relationship, we live as enlivened Christians, the abundant life God intends for us and the life we long for. He encourages us to see the spiritual life as a movement, where we are always on the way, taking steps forward to continually align our lives with Christ.

He shows us how Christ can be the goal and pattern for our lives, motivating us to live as God's beloved and as instruments of God's love. Harper provides a wealth of helps, including a set of questions for reflecting on each chapter, a discussion guide for conversing about the book in a group, and extensive reading lists for further enrichment.
