Description

Evidence marks Josh Baldwin’s second album with Bethel Music, a sequel to his debut album ‘The War Is Over’ in 2017. This studio album unfolds into a natural and organic sound for Josh, taking him back to his deep southern roots.

Josh describes his project as a journey of coming home, watching as all throughout his history, God has faithfully walked beside him every step of the way. Echoing 2 Corinthians 5:17, “Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come: The old has gone, the new is here,” the album was birthed through Baldwin’s personal journey of becoming content in who he is called to be and a deep trust in the faithfulness of God. Josh’s lyrics give listeners strong, imaginative language as they begin their own journeys reflecting on the evidence of God’s goodness in their lives. Josh’s vocals ascend from quiet, gentle melodies to soaring declarations. Evidence will impart inspiration to every listener by providing a space to realize their identity in a Father who is always there.

Various – The Gift of Christmas DVD

Description

Christmas time at the Kentucky home of George and Denise Barnett, the decorations are up and the kids are smiling, but all is not well. George is worried about his friend Don Ford while choir director Denise is fretting over the Christmas Eve concert at their church. Meanwhile, George's brother Allen is working as a studio guitarist in Los Angeles. Allen has promised to come back to Kentucky for months – a promise that has been left unfulfilled. George learns that Don Ford is worried about his daughter Celia, a struggling actress in Hollywood – and George formulates a plan. Allen drives home and brings Celia with him. Turns out that's easier said than done. But just when George and Denise think they have everything in order, Denise's parents decide to pay a visit for the holidays. George finds out that Don Ford doesn't appreciate him meddling and the church choir loses its soloist for the concert. Celia, a fine singer, may be the answer to the choir soloist problem but conflicts arise...

Various – The Wager DVD

Description

Brucie, is abandoned and left on the steps of the police station as a mere infant, leaving a future that consists of seventeen foster homes. He begins to be influenced by his surroundings, as a war for his soul wages. After a trip to church with his friend Suzy things appear to be looking up for young Brucie, that is until he is pulled from the grid, against his will, by the Cartel to do their bidding. By the time he breaks free from the Cartel's stronghold, he is equipped with a heinous past and gambling addiction. He tries to go on in spite of his infirmities, but all seems lost as he loses his job and is evicted to be once again cast to the streets. In what seems to be a last ditch effort... he takes everything he has left to the Casino in hopes for what would be the grand wager. Instead he loses everything and seems to be without hope... that is...until a man in white walks up and asks him if he would like to make a small wager. Brucie loses the wager and is mysteriously jolted back in time to see life from the eyes of those he brutally hurt—an experience that will forever alter his broken life.

Various – Out of the Ashes: C.T. Studd, Cricketer & Missionary

Description

Born into a wealthy, upper class family in England, C.T. Studd had it all. He studied at prestigious schools, including Cambridge University, and went on to become one of the country's most celebrated athletes. But Studd realised that fame and flattery would not last, and as a Christian, he sensed a profound calling to forsake the things of the world and live for the world to come.

Studd described his zealous, uncompromising faith as "muscular Christianity".

He reached countless people with the gospel message and challenged Christians to engage in evangelism. Today his pioneering work continues through Worldwide Evangelization for Christ (WEC), the mission agency he founded in 1913.

This docudrama explores Studd's extraordinary life and teaching through expert interviews and engaging re-enactments scenes.

Various – In God’s Company: Thomas Cook Travel Pioneer DVD

Description

There is no name in the world more instantly recognisable in connection with travel than Thomas Cook. A devout Christian, his great passion was to bring people closer together and nearer to their Creator by making “God’s earth with all its fullness and beauty” accessible and affordable to all.

Renowned British Prime Minister William Gladstone ranked him among the nation’s great public benefactors. This documentary tells the remarkable story of how Thomas Cook progressed from his early years of pain and struggle to becoming a household name across the globe.

Various – In God’s Company: William Hartley DVD

Description

Today William Hartley would be applauded for establishing a brand that made him immensely wealthy, yet his aim was not material success but to “serve the Lord every day to the best of my ability”.

His business practice reflected his faith, earning him an outstanding reputation for integrity, quality, and care for his customers & employees. Even during the horror years of the First World War he maintained the highest standards.

A man of great compassion, he used his immense wealth to enrich the lives of others. This documentary tells his inspiring story.

Various – Balfour 100: Partners in this Great Enterprise DVD

Description

A brilliant souvenir DVD commemorating the centenary of the Balfour Declaration, which paved the way for the rebirth of the State of Israel.

November 2nd 2017 was the centenary of the Balfour declaration – a short letter to Lord Rothschild that gave British Governmental support to the hopes and dreams of the Jewish people to return to their ancient Land of Israel.

Arthur Balfour, Foreign Secretary at the time, was the signatory, giving his name to this famous document. Balfour, along with most of the war cabinet that devised the letter, was a Christian, whose political decisions were influenced by his faith; in this case, his belief in biblical prophecies of a restored Israel.

One hundred years later a group of Christian leaders, influenced by the same belief in the Bible's promises, expressed their biblical support for the Jewish people and for the now-restored Israel by hosting an event at the Royal Albert Hall in London. Their vision was to show the Jewish people of the United Kingdom an enduring friendship from within the evangelical Christian community and to enable both communities to celebrate the centenary of the Balfour declaration together.

“Partners in this Great Enterprise” took place on November 7th, 2017 with around 3,500 people from the Jewish and Christian communities gathered to enjoy the programme recorded on this DVD.

Everyone in Britain today should understand the amazing part played by this nation in the purposes of God for his people Israel.

Run time: Approx. 160 minutes.

Various – Whose Land? Part 1 – Foundations DVD

Description

A century after the Balfour Declaration of November 1917 the argument over the land – then known as Palestine – rages on.

Politicians, clerics and school teachers living in the Gaza strip, the West Bank and the Old City of Jerusalem, teach their children, teenagers and young adults that the Balfour Declaration was illegal, and that the whole of the land – now known as Israel – in fact belongs to the Arab people who are today known as the Palestinians. The Palestinian claim goes on to assert that the Jewish people have no historic connection with Jerusalem, that they are in fact trying to Judaize the Holy City and that the Jewish presence there is illegal.

Moreover, this claim is now becoming widely accepted among many in the Western world. So what historic and legal claim do the Palestinian Arabs have over Jerusalem and the Land of Israel?

Do the Jewish people have historic and legal rights? If so, when and where did they originate?

In the two-part documentary “Whose Land?” Col. Richard Kemp, together with a group of historians and international lawyers, examines the conflicting claims of the Palestinians and the Israelis through the eyes of verifiable history and international law.

Part One Running Time: 90 minutes.

Flying High For the Glory of God: Orville Rogers Story DVD

Description

Pilot and world champion runner Orville Rogers trained bomber pilots in World War II, flew the B-36 on secret missions during the Korean Conflict, ferried airplanes to remote Christian missions all over the world, and managed to squeeze in a thirty-one-year career as a pilot with Braniff Airways.

As if that wasn't enough, Orville took up running at age fifty and ran his first marathon six years later. At age ninety he broke two world records. He has set eighteen world records to date and continues to compete annually. This is remarkable considering he was born in 1917.

Be inspired by the extraordinary life of Orville Rogers in this engaging documentary.

Description

His Daily Telegraph obituary commented that George Muller robbed 'the cruel streets of thousands of victims'. Here Clive Langmead presents a carefully researched biography to help you explore Muller's journey of faith from Germany to England, and how, by the power of prayer and faith in God's provision, he established orphanages, saving the lives of thousands of children.

There is a section at the end of each chapter with valuable insights into Muller's prayer life, a further glimpse into his 'simple faith', and points to encourage, inspire and challenge your own private life. This beautifully presented book accompanies the drama biography of the same name, and is fully illustrated with original photos and artifacts, and stills from the film.

'People who want to retire and sit back doing little ... will not want to read this book. George Muller was saturated with God's Word and it was demonstrated in his life. To this day thousands of children, and the global Body of Christ, have benefited from this.' George Verwer, Founder of Operation Mobilisation

About the Author

Clive Langmead's biography 'Robber Of The Cruel Streets' fondly remembers the man who cared for and educated more than 100,000 orphans before he died in 1898.

Mr Langmead, a former BBC television producer, is no stranger to biography writing, but said he found this book particularly interesting.

Peter Morden – C.H.Spurgeon: The People’s Preacher

Description

At Spurgeon’s funeral in 1892 he was called the ‘Prince of Preachers’ but he is also known for much more than that... So who was the real man behind the headlines? Was he different in private to the way he appeared in public? What was his prayer-life like and his attitude to the Bible? Did he have weaknesses and how were these overcome? All these questions are explored in Peter Morden’s fine book.

To help you on your journey to discover more about Spurgeon, and ultimately the Lord Jesus, there are sections at the end of each chapter to challenge and encourage.

This beautifully designed book accompanies the drama documentary of the same name and is fully illustrated with photos, pictures and stills from the film.

About the Author

Peter Morden is Senior Pastor at South Parade Baptist Church in Leeds, a multi-congregational church serving different communities across north Leeds. He is also Distinguished Visiting Scholar at Spurgeon’s College, London, where he was previously on the staff for ten years, and an Associate Tutor at St Hild College, Yorkshire.

In 2010 he completed PhD research on the spirituality of Charles Haddon Spurgeon, the foremost popular preacher of the Victorian age. He has written ‘C.H. Spurgeon: The People’s Preacher’ and ‘John Bunyan: The People’s Pilgrim’. In addition, he was historical consultant for the award winning docudrama ‘C.H. Spurgeon: The People’s Preacher’ and has written and presented a Christian study group resource which draws on the film, entitled ‘Growing Together with C.H. Spurgeon – The People’s Preacher’. He has also written a large number of academic articles and chapters in books. In 2011 he was elected a fellow of the Royal Historical Society.

Peter enjoys running, walking, watching football and spending time with family and friends. He was happily married to Anne for 26 years until her death from cancer in June 2018. He has two children, Rachel and Joseph.

Adrian Plass – Preaching to the Converted CD (Audio Book)

Description

A selection of over 24 classic Plass 'bits' combined with some new material, recorded with characterization by Adrian and Bridget.

'Selected from twenty years worth of material performed all over the world. The contents of this recording represent my response to a church that has always inspired a mixture of love and irritation in me.

'Silliness and subtle Pharisaim still dog our attempts to understand and convey the wonderful, mystical ordinariness of God's desire to be a Father to his people.

'How a boringly orthodox Christian like me ended up using humour as a counter to these negative influences is beyond my understanding, but my journey through the last two decades has certainly been a rewarding and fascinating one.' – Adrian Plass

Description

Living a life of generosity is not reserved for rich people. It's the result of people who are "all in" for giving God permission to use them as a conduit of His blessing and provision.

Kingdom Builders know that they are alive for a purpose bigger than themselves—a purpose committed to building His Kingdom and turning church vision into a magnificent global and local reality.

Sharing from his own journey of living an "all in" life, and telling the inspiring story of how Kingdom Builders first started within Hillsong Church, Andrew Denton will encourage and challenge you to take bold, wise steps of faith that will lead you on a path beyond your wildest dreams.

About the Author

Andrew Denton is a successful business owner and long-time elder at Hillsong Church who has circled the globe sharing a simple message: inspiring pastors and their congregations to live life on a different level and finance the Kingdom.

He's also raised three wonderful, God-fearing children alongside his beautiful bride, Susan.

As a kid he wanted to be a professional surfer and travel the world; God answered one of those prayers. When Andrew's not cycling, texting Denton's Daily Verse out to leaders around the planet, or drinking a long-black, you can find him enjoying time with his grandkids at home in Sydney, Australia.

Relational, honest and straight-forward, Andrew's approach to ministry and life is nothing short of inspirational. His talks have impacted thousands of believers world-wide. Which is why the truths found within these pages will challenge you to become a Kingdom Builder and change the way you serve God forever.

Description

What is the way forward for the church?

Tragically, in recent years, Christians have gotten used to revelations of abuses of many kinds in our most respected churches – from Willow Creek to Harvest, from Southern Baptist pastors to Sovereign Grace churches. Respected author and theologian Scot McKnight and former Willow Creek member Laura Barringer wrote this book to paint a pathway forward for the church.

We need a better way. The sad truth is that churches of all shapes and sizes are susceptible to abuses of power, sexual abuse, and spiritual abuse. Abuses occur most frequently when Christians neglect to create a culture that resists abuse and promotes healing, safety, and spiritual growth.

How do we keep these devastating events from repeating themselves? We need a map to get us from where we are today to where we ought to be as the body of Christ. That map is in a mysterious and beautiful little Hebrew word in Scripture that we translate “good,” the word tov.

In this book, McKnight and Barringer explore the concept of tov unpacking its richness and how it can help Christians and churches rise up to fulfill their true calling as imitators of Jesus.

About the Authors

Scot McKnight (PhD, Nottingham) is the Julius R. Mantey Professor of New Testament at Northern Seminary in Lisle, Illinois. He is the author of more than fifty books, including the award-winning ‘The Jesus Creed’ as well as ‘The King Jesus Gospel’, ‘A Fellowship of Differents’, ‘One.Life’, ‘The Blue Parakeet’, and ‘Kingdom Conspiracy.’

Laura Barringer is a teacher of first and second grade students. She is the co-author of ‘Sharing God’s Love: The Jesus Creed for Children’ and wrote a teacher lesson and activity guide to accompany the book. She is also co-author of ‘A Church Called Tov: Forming a Goodness Culture That Resists Abuses of Power and Promotes Healing’ (October 2020).

Laura is a graduate of Wheaton College (IL) and currently resides in the Chicago suburbs with her husband, Mark, and three beagles.

Description

“This may be the most influential book you will read this year.” Lee Strobel, bestselling author of ‘The Case for Christ.’

A Movement Seeks to Redefine Christianity. Some Think that It Is a Much-Needed Progressive Reformation. Others Believe that It Is an Attack on Historic Christianity.

Alisa Childers never thought she would question her Christian faith. She was raised in a Christian home, where she had seen her mum and dad feed the hungry, clothe the homeless, and love the outcast. She had witnessed God at work and then had dedicated her own life to leading worship, as part of the popular Christian band ZOEGirl. All that was deeply challenged when she met a progressive pastor, who called himself a hopeful agnostic.

‘Another Gospel?’ describes the intellectual journey Alisa took over several years as she wrestled with a series of questions that struck at the core of the Christian faith. After everything she had ever believed about God, Jesus, and the Bible had been picked apart, she found herself at the brink of despair . . . until God rescued her, helping her to rebuild her faith, one solid brick at a time.

In a culture of endless questions, you need solid answers. If you or someone you love has encountered the ideas of progressive Christianity and aren’t sure how to respond, Alisa’s journey will show you how to determine and rest in what’s unmistakably true.

About the Author

Alisa Childers is a wife, a mum, an author, a blogger, a speaker, and a worship leader.

She was a member of the award-winning CCM recording group ZOEGirl.

She is a popular speaker at apologetics and Christian worldview conferences, including reThink. She has been published at The Gospel Coalition, Crosswalk, the Stream, For Every Mom, Decision magazine, and The Christian Post.

Her blog post “Girl, Wash Your Face? What Rachel Hollis Gets Right . . . and Wrong” received more than one million views. You can connect with Alisa online at alisachilders.com.

Description

Creator, Father, King is a One Year devotional written to help teens learn more about God and see His love, His perfect character, and His eternal plan of redemption to reconcile lost sinners to Himself.

Josh Cooley uses verses from all 66 books of the Bible to show how God can be found throughout Scripture.

Each of the 365 devotions includes a “what does it mean” section, a “now what” section, and a “did you know” section.

It gives practical ideas for spiritual growth, additional perspectives and background for each devotion, and a summary of how each devotion describes God.

About the Author

Joshua Cooley is a New York Times bestselling author, a fulltime children’s minister and a longtime sportswriting veteran.

He has authored or contributed to 11 books, the latest of which is a youth devotional entitled ‘Creator, Father, King: A One Year Journey With God’ (Tyndale, 2020).

He has also written the Heroes of the Bible Devotional, The One Year Devotions With Jesus, and The Biggest Win: Pro Football Players Tackle Faith.

In 2018, he teamed with Super Bowl LII MVP Nick Foles to co-author the star quarterback’s bestselling memoir, Believe It: My Journey of Success, Failure, and Overcoming the Odds.

"Am I the only one who sees this am I just imagining things? Is something wrong with me . . . or could this be abuse?"

Maybe you don't know for sure: all you know is something feels off when you think about a certain relationship or interaction with an institution or organization. You feel alone and confused but calling it "abuse" feels extreme and unsettling, a label for what happens to other people but not you. Yet you can't shake the feeling: something's not right.

In his debut book, researcher and advocate Wade Mullen introduces us to the groundbreaking world of impression management the strategies that individuals and organizations utilize to gain power and cover up their wrongdoings. Mullen reveals a pattern that accompanies many types of abuse, almost as if abusers are somehow reading from the same playbook. If we can learn to decode these evil methods if we can learn the language of abuse we can help stop the cycle and make abusers less effective at accomplishing destruction in our lives.

Something's Not Right will help you to identify and describe tactics that were previously unidentifiable and indescribable, and give you the language you need to move toward freedom and create a safer future for yourself and others.

Updated with new findings on Gen Z!

With five generations in the workplace at once, there's bound to be some sticking points. This is the first time in history that we have five different generations working side-by-side in the workplace: the Traditionalists (born before 1945), the Baby Boomers (born 1946–1964), Gen X (born between 1965–1980), Millennials (born 1981–2001) and Gen Z (born 1996–present).

Haydn Shaw, popular business speaker and generational expert, has identified 12 places where the 5 generations typically come apart in the workplace (and in life as well). These sticking points revolve around differing attitudes toward managing one's own time, texting, social media, organizational structure, and of course, clothing preferences. If we don't learn to work together and stick together around these 12 sticking points, then we'll be wasting a lot of time fighting each other instead of enjoying a friendly and productive team.

Sticking Points is a must-read book that will help you understand the generational differences you encounter while teaching us how we can learn to speak one another's language and get better results together.

Four months after the demonic ruler Molek was dragged off Owen Edmonds's land by angelic forces, the spiritual battle in Masonville, TX, is once again intensifying.

Owen and his girlfriend, Ray Anne, continue their mission to persuade the town's residents to unite and turn to God, but their efforts are stymied again and again. Even their fellow Lights seem unaware of the looming danger.

Under relentless spiritual attack, Owen and Ray Anne must come face-to-face with their own failures and choose whether they will turn toward God and each other or allow their pride and fear to tear them apart.

When everything looks dark and all their resources are depleted, where will they find hope for themselves and Masonville?

The Defiance is the third book in the Delusion series, bringing closure to this thrilling series.

When kids step into the Imagination Station, they experience an unforgettable journey filled with action-packed adventure and excitement. Each book whisks readers away on a new journey with cousins Patrick and Beth around the world and back in time.

Patrick and Beth travel back in time in the Imagination Station to a grain ship in the Mediterranean Sea during the first century. A violent storm has been raging for fourteen days, and the ship is in danger of crashing into the African coastline or breaking up due to the crashing waves.

On the ship, the cousins meet Paul, a prisoner on his way to Rome for trial, and his travelling companions. Paul tells everyone that God has told him that everyone on the ship will be saved . . . if they stick together.

But the passengers are forced to abandon the ship and swim for shore when the ship runs aground. Will God's promise come true?

Album 69 explores six stories on commitment and resolving conflict.

Long-held secrets are uncovered and major revelations are made. Listeners have long wondered about Morrie Rydell's plans for the kids in Odyssey.

All will be revealed and questions will be answered in these episodes.

Elsewhere, Jules's mother suddenly arrives in Odyssey to take Jules back to California, maybe for good. What will happen to Jules, her newfound musical career, and her friends back in Odyssey?

Description

God has a plan to make your life count for eternity. Stop wasting it.

You want your life to matter. To mean something. But if you're like most people, you probably don't have a compelling answer to the question, "What are you going to do with your life?"

In this book, J.D. Greear considers Jesus' radical call to give your life away to the greatest cause of all. To view your life from the perspective of eternity. To start making decisions now that you'll be glad you made then.

It's time to put your "yes" on the table and let God put it on the map.

About the Author

J. D. Greear is lead pastor of The Summit Church, a multi-site congregation in Raleigh-Durham, North Carolina.

He holds an M.Div. in International Church Planting and a Ph.D. in Systematic Theology from the Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Greear also lived and worked among Muslims in Southeast Asia for two years and wrote Breaking the Islam Code.

He and his wife have four children.

Description

'Urban Legends of Church History' surveys forty of the most commonly misunderstood events of church history from the period of the early church through the modern age.

While these "urban legends" sometimes arise out of falsehood or fabrication, they are often the product of an exaggerated recounting of actual historical events.

With a pastoral tone and helpful explanations, authors John Adair and Michael Svigel tackle legendary misconceptions, such as the early church worshipping on Saturday and the unbroken chain of apostolic succession.

Urban Legends of Church History will correct misunderstandings of key events in church history and guide readers in applying principles that have characterized the Christian church since the first century.

About the Authors

John Adair is assistant professor of theological studies at Dallas Theological Seminary.

Michael J. Svigel is department chair and professor of theological studies at Dallas Theological Seminary.

Description

Does the Bible feel confusing and complicated to you? Perhaps some of it feels familiar, but overall, does it feel impossible to navigate? Maybe you recognize the stories, but you just don't know how they all fit together. Yet they do fit together.

In her unique and remarkably readable way, Angie Smith--bestselling author of 'What Women Fear', 'Mended', 'I Will Carry You', and 'Seamless'--helps you tie together all the loose, disconnected threads you find the Bible, weaving them into a beautifully crafted storyline. After reading Woven, when it comes to reading Scripture, you'll go:

From confused to confident
From lost to knowledgeable
And ultimately, from God's heart to yours

Because once you see the big picture, you'll see it on every page. Every time.

About the Author

Angie is married to Todd Smith, lead singer of the Dove Award winning group Selah. She is mum to Ellie, Abby, Kate, Audrey and Charlotte.

Angie desires to walk with Jesus authentically through the inevitable joys and sorrows of this life in a way that reflects his faithfulness to never leave us and never forsake us, and to encourage other believers to do the same. This passion, along with a deep desire to understand and help others to understand the Bible, has fueled her writing since 2008.

She is the bestselling author of the Bible study Seamless: Understanding the Bible as One Complete Story, as well as two children's books and several books for adults including Chasing God and What Women Fear.

She holds a Master's degree in Developmental Psychology from Vanderbilt University. Angie and Todd live in Nashville with their girls, their dog Finley and their cat Oliver.

Have you ever felt held back from the abundant life God promises you? Do you ever look at the satisfaction and success in other people's lives, and wonder where yours is?

In You Be You, beloved podcast host and author Jamie Ivey reveals that the abundant life you want is closer than you think. It's not over there in someone else's life. No. It's right here, right now, in your life as it already is—you just have to know how to take hold of it. And in this book, Jamie shows you how to:

- Throw out false definitions of success
- Give up the idea that you must have someone else's skills, talents, family, or resources to succeed
- Use the beautiful level of influence that God has given you
- Start leaving your deepest mark on the world by living your story

Are you ready to finally bloom where you're planted? To finally free yourself to flourish? To live a life that could only be done by Him and through you? Then jump into You Be You, and you'll find yourself satisfied and succeeding in ways you never expected.

Whether it's starting a new job, graduating from school, welcoming a new baby in the house, sending a child off out of the nest, or simply dealing with the daily battles of worry, fear, health, and faith, we've all been there before, and we all come out on the other side with lesson learned.

And that's exactly the kind of message this beautiful coffee table book offers. With more than twenty years of experience in work, marriage, parenting, faith, and music, the GRAMMY Nominated and Dove-award winning ladies of Point of Grace—beloved and longtime CCM artists—share the the lessons God has taught them in these areas and many more: • Faith • Marriage • Parenting • Graduation • New Jobs • Babies • Preparing for an Empty Nest • Priorities and Routines • Gratitude • Parenting • Worry • Boundaries • Health • Authenticity • College.

The back section also offers a journaling space for you to move beyond our stories and record your own lessons learned. Use this space to remind yourself of His great grace in the future, or perhaps even pass on these insights as a gift to a loved one who might need your wisdom now.

The most significant challenge facing Christians isn't a crisis of clarity, but a crisis of courage. We know what to do, we just don't have the guts to do it. But what is courage? Is it bravery? Bravado? A total lack of fear?

"It is curious," wrote Mark Twain, "curious that physical courage should be so common in the world, and moral courage so rare."

This moral courage—not being free of fear, but being willing and able to do the right thing even when you are afraid—is the quality we most lack, and the quality we most desperately need.

In 'The Courage to Stand', bestselling and award-winning author Russell Moore (Onward; The Storm-Tossed Family) inspires courage in readers by exposing its absence and pointing the way to true courage—the way that is the person and presence of Jesus Christ.

Title: Rethink Your Self
 Author: Trevor Wax
 Price: £14.50*

 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Spiritual Growth
 Distribution: UK & Europe

Follow your heart. You do you. You are enough. We take these slogans for granted, but what if this path to personal happiness leads to a dead-end?

In 'Rethink Your Self', Trevin Wax encourages you to rethink some of our society's most common assumptions about identity and the road to happiness.

Most people define their identity and purpose by first looking in (to their desires), then looking around (to express their uniqueness), and finally—maybe—looking up (to add a spiritual dimension to life).

'Rethink Your Self' proposes a counter-intuitive approach: looking up before looking in. It's only when we look up to learn who we were created to be that we discover our true purpose and become our truest selves.

Title: Holman Illustrated Guide to Biblical Geography
 Author: Paul H. Wright
 Price: £23.99*
 Product Code: 9780805494839
 Format: Hard Cover
 Genre: Bible Atlases
 Distribution: UK & Europe

The Holman Illustrated Guide to Biblical Geography includes more than 200 images and over 50 maps to provide a coherent and meaningful set of pegs on which to hang the events that march across the biblical stage.

For many Bible readers (and teachers!), one king, one battle, one story often blurs into the next. A geographical grid provides an objective structure to make sense of the biblical narrative. Historical and cultural geography give hue and texture to what are sometimes seen as rather flat, black-and-white pages of the biblical text.

- Chapters include:
- Exploring the World of the Bible
  - Building Blocks of Biblical Geography
  - The Land of Ancient Israel: The Southern Regions (Judah/Judea)
  - The Land of Ancient Israel: The Central Regions (Israel/Samaria)
  - The Land of Ancient Israel: The Northern Regions (Galilee)
  - Transjordan
  - Afterword: Geography of the Heart

 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Bible Studies
 Distribution: UK & Europe

In the Old Testament, God reveals himself to people in particular places so that they may communicate with and worship him.

There are three broad categories for these places: temporary, movable, and permanent.

Unlike the pagan deities, who were connected to the created world, God's worshipers had to rely on him to reveal himself. Communication was often difficult, but God made it possible through places such as Bethel, Shiloh, and the Tabernacle.

In the New Testament, Jesus takes these categories and applies them to himself, showing that he is the primary access to God. Subsequently, the Holy Spirit comes and gives believers unprecedented access to God, making them connecting points between God and the world.

Go Now to Shiloh explores the challenges believers have faced when communicating with God over the centuries, and shows what an immense gift we have as New Testament believers.

Have you ever been super scared of the dark?

The Bright Light and the Super Scary Darkness uses the imagery of darkness and light to help children understand God's power over evil.

With an emphasis on Jesus, the Light of the World, this book reassures children ages 4–8 who struggle with fear and anxiety and offers them courage from God's Word.

Kids will find comfort in the book's reassuring tone and brilliant illustrations, which show that Jesus' love is strong enough to defeat even the super scary darkness.

Title: Echo Island
 Author: Jared C. Wilson
 Price: £11.99*
 Product Code: 9781535996716
 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Children's Fiction
 Distribution: UK & Europe

In this YA suspense-thriller, four longtime friends return to their home from a weekend trip only to discover something terrifying has happened—everyone has disappeared.

The island is empty. While considering multiple theories, the four teenage boys scour the island for clues, a task which proves difficult since nothing electronic works. As they embark on their quest, several unexplained incidents suggest that Echo Island is not entirely deserted after all.

Soon, a kindly British man named Jack arrives. He reveals some of the mystery, which causes the story to take a startling turn, upending everything the characters have always believed about themselves, their home, and reality itself.

Echo Island is a fast-paced YA mystery with profound theological implications. As the boys discover the truth about what happened to Echo Island, they are forced to struggle with difficult doctrines such as predestination and free will. Since many teenage readers wrestle with trusting a God they cannot fully understand, Echo Island is a relevant and relatable tale—one that will keep readers turning the pages, eager to both find answers to the mystery and learn more about God's truth in the process.

Kids love to read about heroes, and sometimes animals are a big part of the Bible's best hero stories!

This chunky board book gathers six stories, introducing preschoolers to fun new animal friends and teaching them biblical truths along the way.

Young readers will learn about:

- The fish who swallowed Jonah
- The dove who found an olive branch
- The camel who helped find a special person
- The lion whose mouth was shut
- The lamb who wandered away
- The donkey who went to Bethlehem

Description

Open your eyes and your heart to a bigger picture of God.

In 'Biography of God', Pastor Skip Heitzig draws on his biblical knowledge and personal experience to tackle the universal questions: Is God real and can He be truly known?

Drawing on philosophy and science to unpack the Bible, Heitzig offers answers to these questions and more as he helps you explore what it means to be God's friend and how to know Him intimately.

As you begin to recognize and remove the limits you've placed on God and you get to know Him personally—His nature, His character, and His plans—you will experience a richer faith.

About the Author

Skip Heitzig, author of 'The Bible from 30,000 Feet', is pastor-teacher of Calvary Church, ministering to more than 15,000 people weekly.

He holds a DD and PhD from Trinity Southwest University and has a popular multimedia teaching ministry that includes print, audio, and online resources.

 Price: £11.99*
 Product Code: 9780736980975
 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Personal Growth
 Distribution: UK & Europe

Does your job leave you physically and emotionally drained? Is the stress you feel over work affecting your sleep, your attitude, and your relationships? Have you lost meaning in your career?

You are not alone, and there is hope. Mental health expert Amy O'Hana knows what vocational burnout is. She has addressed it in the counselling office, taught about it in college classrooms, and written an entire doctoral dissertation about it.

She also experienced it herself. Amy learned that the secret to healing from career exhaustion lies in being, not doing. When you allow your heart, body, and mind to reconnect with God, you will experience renewed energy, productivity, and fulfillment.

There is nothing you need to do but receive His love and let it restore your passion and purpose. Amy explains why vocational stress occurs (and how it differs from depression), how to identify the signs that you might be suffering from burnout, and what God wants to do to refresh and restore you. You or a loved one can begin the journey beyond burnout today.

Men of fearless faith meet men who have used their God-given talents to live out their faith to the fullest. They come from a variety of backgrounds, eras, and ethnicities, but each one has answered the Lord's call on their life in bold and innovative ways.

Children of all ages will be inspired by the stories of C.S. Lewis—professor and author of the influential Chronicles of Narnia series Zhang Boli—Chinese dissident, journalist, and Christian pastor Richard Allen—former slave and founder of the African Methodist Episcopal Church Tim Tebow—athlete, Heisman trophy winner, and outspoken follower of Christ Father Damien—priest who dedicated his life to helping lepers in Hawaii

These and the 45 other defenders of the faith featured in this book have made a profound impact on the world around them, and in many cases changed the course of history. Strong, smart, and sometimes outspoken, these men are tremendous examples of God's love in action. These inspiring profiles will captivate kids' imaginations and encourage them to discover their own gifts and how they can use them to glorify God.

Description

A biblical framework for living a grounded, hopeful and genuinely happy life.

Everyone wants to be happy, and we all pursue happiness in different ways. Some people are thrill-seekers; others are homebodies. Some people are loners; others love big families or communities. Some people express things creatively; others consume what is created. Some sing; others listen to music. Whatever we find happiness in, we are united by our desire for work that matters and relationships that fulfil.

As Christians, we often fall into the trap of basing our hopes on earthly things, even when we know they only make us happy for a short time. But how are we to experience happiness in this life? How do we avoid expecting too much of earthly things and being disappointed, or expecting too little and becoming cynics?

In this book, recovering cynic Barnabas Piper helps us to throw off both the unrealistic expectations that end in disappointment and the guilty sense that Christians are not meant to have fun. He shows how having a clear view of the reality of the fall and the promise of redemption frees us to live a life that's grounded, hopeful and genuinely happy.

Reflections for Advent that help us to adore Jesus—the one who came to save us and make our futures certain. Life is full of unexpected twists and turns and this has been particularly so in 2020.

But the most unexpected and significant event in the history of the world actually happened over 2000 years ago when God himself became one of us in the person of Jesus Christ.

These Advent reflections, written by David Mathis, help us to lift our eyes to wonder of the incarnation and worship the one who came to save us and make our futures certain.

Be amazed once more by the unexpected details of Jesus' unique birth and saving work with these short daily devotions and prayers, and renew your worship of our humble, generous and loving Saviour.

Title: Not Just Another Christmas (Pk of 10)
 Author: Dave Gobbett
 Price: £4.99*
 Product Code: 9781784985653
 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Christmas/ Evangelistic Resource
 Distribution: UK & Europe

Most of us know what to expect when it comes to Christmas: the lights, the food, the tree, the traditions. But it's possible to be so familiar with the trimmings that we walk right past the main act: Jesus.

This compelling evangelistic booklet explains why Jesus' message is one that you don't want to miss, and how he can turn "just another Christmas" into something altogether more memorable.

This short, winsome introduction to the Christian message is based on John 1:14 and is ideal for giving away at carol services and other evangelistic Christmas events.

Title: Searching For Christmas
 Author: J. D. Greear
 Price: £2.99*
 Product Code: 9781784985318
 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Christmas/ Evangelistic Resource
 Distribution: UK & Europe

Most of us are familiar with the events of the first Christmas—the manger scene, shepherds watching sheep, angels singing their songs, and wise men arriving—but what if there's more to the story? What if the birth of Jesus is actually the most significant event in all of history and can transform our lives?

This evangelistic book goes beyond the birth of Jesus to look at what he did when he grew up and how he fulfilled the names given to him centuries beforehand by the prophet Isaiah.

In a compelling, insightful, winsome and personal way, J.D. Greear shows that if we get to know the God who lies behind the Christmas story and at the heart of the Christmas story, we'll discover the joy, hope, purpose and belonging we're all searching for.

Readers will see that Jesus is the Wonderful Counsellor, who can guide them in all truth; the Mighty God, who made and owns everything; the Eternal Father, who they can trust to love them for ever; and the Prince of Peace, who died in their place so that they can be forgiven and accepted eternally.

Title: A Better Than Anything Christmas
Author: Barbara Reaoch
Price: £5.99*
Product Code: 9781784985301
Format: Paperback
Genre: Children's Books/ Christmas & Advent/ Devotional
Distribution: UK & Europe

'A Better Than Anything Christmas' is the second Advent devotional for families from Barbara Reaoch, author of the very popular A Jesus Christmas.

These daily devotions in the Gospels give a thorough investigation of why Jesus came. In the lead-up to Christmas, families will explore 25 reasons why Jesus came, and they will see that what Jesus gives us is better than anything else we could wish for.

Each day there is a passage to read together, questions to think about, an explanation and a prayer. There are also age-appropriate application questions, some for younger children and some for older children, as well as journalling space so that each family member can write or draw their own response to what God has shown them.

So get each family member a copy of A Better Than Anything Christmas and a Bible, and find ten minutes a day in December to look at God's word together so that kids get more excited about Jesus than anything else that Christmas offers.

Title: There's A Lion In My Nativity
Author: Kim Barnes & Lizzie Laferton
Price: £4.99*
Product Code: 9781784985325
Format: Paperback
Genre: Children's Books/ Christmas & Advent
Distribution: UK & Europe

Fun rhyming story of a Christmas nativity play that will teach children ages 4-7 profound truths about Jesus.

This rhyming book with warm, quirky illustrations makes a beautiful Christmas gift for children who are 4-7 years old.

In this story of a Christmas nativity play, Mary thinks she is the star of the show. However, as the play goes on, she finds that every scene has been stolen by an unlikely character or object, such as a tent, a phone and a lion!

With the help of the narrator, Mary realises that each one actually teaches us a profound truth about Jesus. The tent teaches us that Jesus came to live among us humbly; the phone teaches us that Jesus came to connect us to God; and the lion shows us that Jesus is the king of the universe!

Along with Mary, readers will see that Jesus is the true star of the show and that it is wonderful to know him.

Description

Many faithful church-goers often feel like something is missing. Perhaps you need more than a daily devotional or small group discussion. Perhaps you feel like you're just going through the motions. What all Christians need for the spiritual journey is a vibrant, life-changing kingdom encounter.

Dr. Tony Evans identifies kingdom encounters as powerful moments when we connect with God beyond information and through experience. In Kingdom Encounters, Dr. Evans explores how the faithful characters of Scripture encountered God--and were forever changed. As we see in the lives of these characters, these moments often occur in the middle of conflicts and trials when we least expect it.

Dr. Evans' hope for you is that, "you realize that when things are going left, you feel trapped and God seems absent, that you are probably right where God wants you in order to experience a life-altering kingdom encounter." Join Dr. Evans as he explores how these moments can bolster your faith, restore your hope, and make clear to you the face of our almighty God.

About the Author

DR. TONY EVANS is the founder and senior pastor of Oak Cliff Bible Fellowship in Dallas, founder and president of The Urban Alternative, former chaplain of the NFL's Dallas Cowboys, and present chaplain of the NBA's Dallas Mavericks.

His radio broadcast, The Alternative with Dr. Tony Evans, can be heard on over 1,200 US radio outlets daily and in more than 130 countries.

Dr. Evans launched the Tony Evans Training Center in 2017, an online learning platform providing quality seminary-style courses for a fraction of the cost to any person in any place. The goal is to increase Bible literacy not only in lay people but also in those Christian leaders who cannot afford nor find the time for formal ongoing education.

Spend a year unearthing the wonder of the Holy Spirit alongside A. W. Tozer. Tozer was a man who thirsted for the Spirit of God, who prayed often and shunned distraction so that he might drink Him in more steadily.

In these daily meditations on Scripture, Tozer will inspire you to do the same. According to Tozer, the Spirit is neglected by the modern church. But when believers know the Spirit--intimately and accurately--they experience freedom from stagnancy. They know power and life. This devotional explores many of the defining characteristics of the Holy Spirit. Each day stokes the believer's internal desire to hunger and thirst after the Spirit of God.

Encounter Tozer's heart and wisdom like never before in this newly revised edition. Continue worshipping alongside Tozer with the rest of his Trinitarian devotions: Tozer on the Son of God and Tozer on the Almighty God. With each page, may your heart be filled and your worship increased.

Description

In this digital age, children spend more time interacting with screens and less time playing outside, reading a book, or interacting with family. Though technology has its benefits, it also has its harms.

In 'Screen Kids' Gary Chapman and Arlene Pellicane will empower you with the tools you need to make positive changes. Through stories, science, and wisdom, you'll discover how to take back your home from an overdependence on screens. Plus, you'll learn to teach the five A+ skills that every child needs to master: affection, appreciation, anger management, apology, and attention. Learn how to:

- Protect and nurture your child's growing brain
- Establish simple boundaries that make a huge difference
- Recognize the warning signs of gaming too much
- Raise a child who won't gauge success through social media
- Teach your child to be safe online

This newly revised edition features the latest research and interactive assessments, so you can best confront the issues technology create in your home. Now is the time to equip your child with a healthy relationship with screens and an even healthier relationship with others.

Things aren't what they once were. As younger generations become increasingly immersed in the endless presence of tech, older generations struggle finding common ground to relate. The gap between grandparent and grandchild may feel wider than ever.

Grandparenting Screen Kids is a grandparent's guide to start bridging this gap. Relationship expert Gary Chapman along with coauthor Arlene Pellicane will help you understand this different (and often troubling) world of iPads, YouTube and video games. They will offer activities to keep your grandkids occupied without screens and assist you in navigating differences with your adult children.

It's easy to feel overwhelmed, under informed, and physically unable to meet the demands of active grandkids. That's why this companion guide to the book Screen Kids has been written to connect you to information and encouragement. Technology isn't going anywhere and your grandkids need you more than ever to guide them in ways that computer's can't.

Title: The Grumbler's Guide to Giving Thanks
 Author: Dustin Crowe
 Price: £11.50*
 Product Code: 9780802419859
 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Spiritual Growth
 Distribution: UK & Europe

The apostle Paul instructed the Philippians to be anxious in nothing and thankful in everything. And when he said everything--he meant everything. We can all agree that this is easier said than done. Disappointments and discontent may cause you to slip into dissatisfaction, and grumbling becomes a state of mind--gratitude seems impossible to find. However, what if this is the precise reason you lack the joy of a God-filled life? Instead of a reaction to when things are going well, what if gratitude is actually necessary to knowing the hope of our gracious God?

This is exactly what Pastor Dustin Crowe identifies in The Grumbler's Guide to Giving Thanks. Dustin examines the biblical foundations of thankfulness and traces how it can reshape every-day Christian living. When we express gratitude in all things, we not only praise our Creator, we also get to know Him better. With The Grumbler's Guide, you'll learn how to practice thanksgiving in both simple and extraordinary ways, even when you're tempted to dwell on the negative. You'll find your outlook on life realigned to see the hand of God in everything, strengthening your trust in Him.

Title: Hosanna In Excelsis
 Author: David & Barbara Leeman
 Price: £12.99*
 Product Code: 9780802419934
 Format: Hard Cover
 Genre: Devotional/ Christmas & Advent
 Distribution: UK & Europe

Music has always been central to celebrating the coming of Christ into the world. With Hosanna in Excelsis you can experience the hymns of the season like never before.

This devotional couples the lyrics and score of a new hymn daily with a devotional message about the hymn's biblical and spiritual truths. You'll find hymns of advent like "O Come, O Come Emmanuel" that anticipate the coming of Christ, hymns of Nativity like "O Little Town of Bethlehem" that celebrate His birth, and hymns of Epiphany like "Go Tell it on the Mountain" that marvel at His glory. Go deeper with classic Christmas favorites like "O Holy Night" and learn others that may be lesser-known like "On Jordan's Bank the Baptist's Cry." Each devotional teaches you about the background of the hymn, while inviting you into worship and praise.

Celebrate the coming of Christ by immersing yourself in the legacy of music that truly honors the Christmas season. Hosanna in Excelsis is a great Christmas gift for the musicians in your life or for anyone who wants to go deeper celebrating the birth of our saviour.

Description

In the midst of a godless culture, Paul did what was necessary to reach the masses with the message of everlasting life: he reasoned about Jesus “in the marketplace daily with those who happened to be there” (Acts 17:17) and preached on Mars Hill, on the main route to the Parthenon in Athens.

We too are living in the midst of a godless society, and those in the streets desperately need to hear God’s Word. If we are serious about reaching this dying world, let us emulate Jesus and the apostles and preach where sinners gather. In thirty minutes, a good open-air preacher can reach more unsaved people than the average church does in a year.

If you’re ready for something more exhilarating than skydiving, arguably more scary, and infinitely more productive, try preaching the gospel in public.

For nearly fifty years Ray Comfort has preached the gospel in the open air and witnessed one-to-one to thousands. During those years he has learned certain biblical principles that make reaching the lost so much easier.

In this publication you will find everything he learned and everything you need to know:

- Who should do it?
- Where should you go?
- How do you get started?
- What do you say?

About the Author

Ray Comfort has written more than ninety books, hosts an award-winning TV program that airs in 190 countries, and his YouTube channel (LivingWaters.com) has had over 100,000,000 views.

He lives with his wife, Sue, in Southern California.

Diamonds, gold, and precious pearls don't lie on the earth's surface. We have to search for them. And so it is with the precious gems of the Bible. We have to dig for them. They have been hidden from the eyes those who fail to "search the Scriptures."

The life of Joseph in particular is filled with enigmatic meaning and biblical types that are easily missed by a superficial reading of the wonderful story.

From his initial strange dreams, to the continual attempts to seduce him by Potiphar's unfaithful wife, to being thrown in jail as an accused sexual predator, to his divinely assisted interpretations of the bizarre dreams of the butler, the baker, and Pharaoh—all carry amazing truths that will comfort, encourage, and thrill the godly soul. And how we need comfort, because almost every day has a fresh curveball—the unexpected job loss, bills that come from nowhere, sickness, the neighbour's barking dog, and the car that breaks down. It seems that the whole world has conspired to make our short life miserable. And it certainly would be, if we missed the great lessons from a young man whose life was as colourful as his famous coat.

Title: Preparing for the Great Outpouring

Though the Holy Spirit has spoken to many in the Body of Christ that we are on the precipice of the greatest revival the world has ever seen, our hearts need to be prepared for a move of God.

Preparing for the Great Outpouring: Is Your Heart Ready for A Move of God? addresses ways in which God prepares our hearts individually and corporately for a move of the Spirit.

The book delves into six areas that serve as indicators that a vessel is actually prepared for revival.

- Brokenness • Hunger • Prayer • Persistence • Thankfulness • Courage

These are the key heart ingredients to the move of God. These indicators have accompanied past outpourings such as the Azusa Street Revival, the Brownsville Revival and the Toronto Blessing. These essential heart attitudes serve as prophetic signals that our hearts are ready for the end time outpouring that God is about to send to the world!

Title: She Found His Grace: True Story of Hope, Love, and Forgiveness After Abortion
 Author: Serena Dyksen & Julie Klose
 Price: £12.99*
 Product Code: 9781610362498
 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Contemporary Social Issues/Biography
 Distribution: UK & Europe

When Serena Dyksen heard the news that over 2,200 babies' remains were found on the property of abortion doctor Ulrich "George" Klopfer, her whole body went numb from shock. She began to sob tears of grief. "Is my baby one of those remains?" she questioned. Dr. Klopfer performed her abortion when she was just thirteen years old.

Just months before, Serena had decided to share her abortion story. After watching one of the last scenes in the pro-life movie Unplanned, she felt it was time to share the hope and healing God had done in her life. Serena's story reads like a traumatic tale: a childhood of dysfunction, rape, abortion at thirteen years old, a pregnant teenager at the age of sixteen, health issues, and a devastating event that led her to alcohol and drug abuse.

But in her book, She Found His Grace: A True Story of Hope, Love and Forgiveness After Abortion, Serena reveals the transforming power of God's healing in her life that set her completely free. She now finds comfort from Genesis 50:20 (ESV): "As for me, you meant evil against me, but God meant it for good, to bring it about that many people should be kept alive, as they are today."

Title: The Masquerade: Deception in the Last Days

 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Spiritual Warfare
 Distribution: UK & Europe

Deception abounds in the world today as Satan continues his masquerade as an angel of light. But while he may be the king of deception, he is not alone in marketing falsehood and deceiving multitudes with lies and twisted beliefs. Jesus warned His disciples to not allow themselves to be deceived.

And Paul warned Timothy to stay away from people who welcome, live in, and teach deception.

Deceptive teachings lead only to trouble and sorrow. But the Truth will reveal and deliver us from them.

Join author and evangelist, Donna Sparks, as she takes up the important task of exposing deception and removing the masks from lies masquerading as truth.

Description

Life sometimes brings difficult situations or circumstances that can leave us feeling run-down, drained, worn-out, and threadbare. These are the times we most desperately need prayer, but they can also be the times we simply don't have the words to form a prayer.

In 'Threadbare Prayer,' Stacey Thacker presents 120 simple yet heartfelt devotions to guide readers on the days they don't know what to pray. Each entry in this attractive, gift-worthy devotional contains a Bible verse, a brief thought, and a simple, concise prayer to encourage the reader's heart.

- Features 120 devotions including a Bible verse, a brief thought, and threadbare prayer.
- Helps guide readers on days they don't know what to pray.
- Make a great women's gift.
- Attractive hardcover devotional book with 2-colour interior.

"Friend, if you are worn-out and know you 'should' pray but have no words, there is help in these pages. Stacey Thacker knows the depths of deep dependence on God. She's been through the nothing-left-to-give moments. The ones in which you can only whisper, 'Lord, help.' With her authentic devotions and the Holy Spirit groaning on your behalf, I'm confident you will find hope and encouragement in these pages."

–Heather MacFadyen, Host of the Don't Mum Alone Podcast, about Threadbare Prayer.

Title: The Purpose, Pattern and Character of Worship
 Author: L. Edward Phillips
 Price: £31.99*
 Product Code: 9781791004682
 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Worship & Hymnology
 Distribution: UK & Europe

Within the broad range of Christianity we find diverse understandings of what makes for "good worship."

This book develops a typology of Christian worship to provide a method of assessing the decisions of congregations and leaders in forming and changing the orders of their worship.

Among contemporary western Protestants, we find at least six discrete characteristics of worship: –the Revival, –the Sunday School, –the Aesthetic Revival, –the Pentecostal/holiness movement, –the Prayer Meeting, –and the twentieth-century Catholic Liturgical Renewal.

These patterns find contemporary expression as: –Seeker Worship, –Creative Worship, –Traditional Worship, –Praise Worship, –House Church Worship, –and Word and Table Worship. Absent an overall authority for the structure of worship (such as the Episcopal Book of Common Prayer), many Protestant congregations have developed a "conflation of patterns," which often creates incoherent worship. This book helps leaders define the purpose, character, and pattern of their community's worship.

Title: A Worship Workbook
 Author: Gerald Liu & Khalia J. Williams
 Price: £21.99*
 Product Code: 9781501896569
 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Worship & Hymnology
 Distribution: UK & Europe

A Worship Workbook: A Practical Guide for Extraordinary Christian Liturgy introduces crucial and under-examined liturgical and social concepts for more honest and versatile excellence in the leadership of Christian worship.

By "honest," this workbook differentiates itself from other worship resources by swiftly and surgically underscoring how liturgy has led to transgressions as well as living out the truth of the Gospel. For example, the communion table for some is seen as violent because of the Crusaders who ate and drank of the meal before battle. Claiming that disturbing past and responding to it nurtures deeper and stronger practices of the Lord's Supper.

By "versatile," this workbook offers practical advice for widening the reach and accessibility of liturgy as well as its social awareness so that, for example, celebrations of indigenous peoples are not reserved for a special Sunday. This workbook will inspire church leaders to commit to gathering people of diversity as an expression of faithfulness in God.

Title: Preachers Dare
 Author: Will Willimon
 Price: £15.99*
 Product Code: 9781791008055
 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Preaching & Sermon Resources
 Distribution: UK & Europe

Preachers Dare is adapted from Will Willimon's Lyman Beecher Lectures on Preaching at Yale and is inspired by a quote from the great theologian Karl Barth. In a world in which sermons too often become hackneyed conventional wisdom or tame common sense, preachers dare to speak about the God who speaks to us as Jesus Christ.

Willimon draws upon his decades of preaching, as well as his many books on the practice of homiletics, to present a bold theology of preaching.

This work emphasizes preaching as a distinctively theological endeavour that begins with and is enabled by God. God speaks, preachers dare to speak the speech of God, and the church dares to listen.

By moving from the biblical text to the contemporary context, preachers dare to speak up for God so that God might speak today. With fresh biblical insights, creativity and pointed humor, Willimon gives today's preachers and congregations encouragement to speak with the God who has so graciously and effusively spoken to us.

R.T. Kendall – We've Never Been This Way Before

Description

As recent events have unfolded, not only America but the entire world has been brought to the precipice of the most challenging moments of our lifetimes. But while these times seem unprecedented and uncharted to us, they are not to God. Much like He said to Joshua and the children of Israel standing on the edge of the Promised Land, God now says to us: "You have never been this way before" (Josh.3:4).

God's word is tender, challenging, and scary. God knows where we've been and where we are going. As we cope with extraordinary new outbreaks of disease, racism, and cultural upheaval, we have been forced to recognize that we are not prepared for this. Nobody is.

Yet there is hope. In this timely message, trusted theologian R. T. Kendall helps you navigate the way forward by exploring how God led His people in the past. Along the way, he answers questions such as:

Where is God in all this?

What do Christians have to offer the rest of the world during these times?

Did the devil cause these things? Did God cause them?

If God allowed these things to happen, then why?

Just like today's Christians, the people of great faith listed in Hebrews 11 had to grapple with things that had not been encountered before. They needed unprecedented faith to accomplish God's purpose in unprecedented times. Join R. T. Kendall on this journey to understand what God is saying to His people in this critical hour, the ways He has already equipped you to face these uncertainties, and how to know His plan for your future.

This book will help you understand what God is saying to us during this time of uncertainty and change.

About the Author

R. T. Kendall was the pastor of Westminster Chapel in London, England for twenty five years. Born in Ashland, Kentucky, he was educated at Southern Baptists Theological Seminary (MDiv) and Oxford University (DPhil). Dr. Kendall is the author of a number of books, including Total Forgiveness, Holy Fire, and Word and Spirit.

Description

The Jewish people and Israel have been described as “a dominant and moving force behind the present and coming evils of our day”; “a monstrous system of evil...[that] will destroy us and our children” if not resisted; and a group that seeks “the annihilation of almost every Gentile man, woman, and child and the establishment of a satanic Jewish-led global dictatorship.” What’s worse is that these comments were all made by professing Christians.

In ‘Christian Antisemitism’, respected Messianic Bible scholar Michael L. Brown, PhD, documents shocking examples of modern “Christian” antisemitism and exposes the lies that support them. Carefully researched, this book shows that church-based antisemitism is no longer a thing of the past. Rather, a dangerous, shocking tide of “Christian” antisemitism has begun to rise. In Christian Antisemitism, Dr. Brown shows you how to stem this tide now and overcome the evil of “Christian” antisemitism with the powerful love of the cross!

This book will show you how to confront everyday antisemitism in all areas of your life and become a champion for the people of Israel.

About the Author

Michael L. Brown, PhD, is founder and president of AskDrBrown Ministries and president of FIRE School of Ministry. The author of more than thirty-five books, he is also the host of the nationally syndicated daily talk radio show The Line of Fire, as well as the host of shows on GOD TV, NRBTv, and METV.

His syndicated columns appear on many leading websites, and his scholarly publications range from biblical commentaries to articles in Semitic journals and theological dictionaries.

He has served as an adjunct or visiting professor at seven leading seminaries and has debated gay activists, agnostic professors, and Orthodox rabbis on university campuses.

A revolution of repentance by the power of the Holy Spirit is needed in the church to bring renewal to a hurting nation. After reading Revolution you will understand what a biblical revolution looks like and how to implement it, starting within your own heart, and going outward from there.

This book is not a call to the violent overthrow of the government, nor is it a call to take up arms, nor is it a call to political activism in and of itself. It is a call to something far more extreme, a call to live out the gospel with all its radical claims, a call for the people of God to impact this generation with the prophetic message of repentance, a call to spark the most sweeping counterculture movement in our nation's history, a call to take back the moral high ground that has been stolen from under our feet, a call to follow Jesus by life or by death.

'Revolution' answers such questions as: • What is the role of the Christian and the church during these tumultuous times? • How are we to respond to the racial upheaval happening in our nation? • What is the church's role in healing the divide in our fractured, divided country? Dr. Brown turns up the volume in this call to God's remnant people to pray, repent, and act according to the teachings of Jesus—who is calling us to holy revolution.

Title: Decoding the Prophet Jeremiah

 Price: £14.50*
 Product Code: 9781629997285
 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Bible Studies
 Distribution: UK & Europe

At twenty-three years old Jeremiah was told to speak truth to power and not to worry what the consequences may be. God told him that people love to praise the Lord but refuse to do what He says. In spite of the judgments cascading upon the heads of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the Lord promised a new covenant with Israel and Judah that would revolutionize their walk with Him. In Decoding the Prophet Jeremiah you will discover the following:

The warnings from God in Jeremiah's day are for our generation as well. Even when you feel betrayed by everyone, there is still hope. God keeps His covenant and will never leave you or forsake you.

This book is a clarion call to all believers. We need to see the bigger picture: it is not about us but about God's heart and God's kingdom. God is looking for warriors who are about advancing His kingdom by storming the gates of hell and setting His sons and daughters free from the clutches of the greatest narcissist of all time.

Mark Biltz unpacks two books of the Bible written by the prophet Jeremiah: the Book of Lamentations and the Book of Jeremiah. Biltz has uncovered fascinating Hebraic codes within Lamentations, making this a truly unique message for readers.

Description

The Holy Spirit warned that “perilous times” would come in the very last of the last days. We are in that time frame now, so it is imperative that we know how to survive victoriously. Scripture prophesies that spiritual tempests will spread across the world with far-reaching consequences. But we do not have to be a casualty of these storms!

In this eye-opening survival guide, Rick Renner covers prophetic scriptures about the end times and how to prepare for them. He teaches:

- What the word “perilous” really means and why God is alerting you.
- What exact characteristics will mark society in the very last days.
- What actions to take to protect yourself and those you love.
- Strategies to stop the devil from attacking you and your loved ones.

If you’re concerned about what you are witnessing in society — and even in the Church — the answers you need to maintain your victory are in this book! It’s a survival guide for thriving in these perilous last days.

About the Author

Rick Renner, author of more than 30 books, is well known for his top-selling classics Sparkling Gems From the Greek and Dressed To Kill-- which have sold more than a million copies combined. Rick’s broad understanding of the Greek language and biblical history opens up the Scriptures in a unique way that enables readers to gain wisdom and insight while learning something brand new from the Word of God. A highly respected leader, teacher, and author within the Christian community, both in the U.S. and abroad, Rick and his wife Denise have traveled the earth for three decades, teaching the Word of God. They work together to see the Gospel preached, leadership trained and churches established throughout the former Soviet Union.

In addition to serving as senior pastors of the Moscow Good News Church, Rick and Denise are the founders of the Riga and Kiev Good News Churches, the Good News Training Center, and the Good News Association of Pastors and Churches -- through which they oversee several hundred churches. The Renners also founded Media Mir, the first Christian television network established in the former USSR that today broadcasts to a potential audience of 110 million people. Their highest goal is to know Christ and to present Him to others in a meaningful way. Rick is the founder and senior pastor of the Moscow Good News Church. Rick and Denise reside in Moscow, along with their three sons and their families.

- Overcome the enemy
- Maintain victory
- Surround your family with protection
- Guard your property and possessions
- Connect you to outpourings of the Holy Spirit

Reclaim your rightful place of safety, power, and a glorious future by pleading the blood of Jesus today!

About the Author

Billye Brim was born again at the age of eight in 1947 and was brought up to love God and His Word. After her initial infilling of the Holy Spirit in 1967, she began the journey of fulfilling the call of God on her life. Billye served as editor of publications for Kenneth Hagin Ministries from 1970 to 1980, as well as editing books for several other well-known Bible teachers including Dr. Lester Sumrall. In 1972 she began ministering regularly at her local church in Collinsville, Oklahoma. In 1980 she began traveling full time both nationally and internationally, with her focal points in Scandinavia and Europe. She has also ministered seven times in the Soviet Union.

After the homegoing of her husband in 1986, the Lord led Billye to study Hebrew in Israel. Working primarily through a Jewish ulpan (special language school), she takes Christians to Israel at least twice a year to see modern-day Israel through Jewish eyes. Bible prophecy is an important part of Billye's teaching. Billye is a frequent conference speaker (numerous times at Brother Kenneth Copeland's Believers Conventions) and ministers in churches, Bible schools, family camps, and on television. The emphasis of her ministry is on the Glory of God and His Glorious Church. She truly loves the Body of Christ and desires to see it become the Glorious Church Jesus promised to receive unto Himself.

The Easter season is full of joy, celebration, and life. It's so easy to get swept up in the busyness of plays and pastels that we sometimes forget to stand in awe of Jesus this time of year.

Easter: Behold Your King is a thoughtful look at the Easter season, focusing on the events and deeper theological meaning of the Passion Week.

Diving into topics like: Old Testament prophecy that connects to Jesus as the Messiah, the significance of the events of Palm Sunday through the silence of Holy Saturday, and Jesus' appearances after His resurrection, this study will not only help the reader understand how beautifully deep Christ's sacrifice for us was, but also how to live in light of these life-giving truths.

This resource will also include Easter activities to help kids, students, and adults celebrate the season together.

Description

It's the most important question we can ask: Who is God? The wrong answer could spell our doom, but God has clearly revealed Himself and His majesty in His Word. Just as Moses asked the Lord on the summit of Sinai, we can approach God's Word with the ultimate request: "Show me Your glory."

In 'Show Me Your Glory: Understanding the Majestic Splendour of God,' Dr. Steven Lawson takes us to the mountaintop of divine revelation by distilling the Bible's teaching about God Himself.

Each chapter delves into the depths of God's awesome attributes, teaching that a deeper knowledge of our Creator can lead us into intimate fellowship with and reverent worship of the One who made us for Himself.

What if the priorities of your church and the priorities of God's Word were worlds apart? This realization launched the sixteenth-century Protestant Reformation as figures like Martin Luther and John Calvin worked to bring the church back under the authority of Scripture. Slowed by opposition, Calvin wrote to defend the necessity of reforming the church. This work could not wait, for souls were on the line.

In this teaching series, Dr. W. Robert Godfrey gathers insights from Calvin's treatise to ask penetrating questions for Christians and congregations today. Far from being over, the work of reforming the church is still needed—and it cannot wait.

This book consists of two open letters by the young John Calvin to evangelical believers who desired to stay and work within the Roman Catholic Church.

The first letter exposes the idolatry involved in the Mass, while the second denounces the papal abuses of the pastoral office of the church. Together, they form a resounding call for the necessity of a thoroughgoing Reformation.

This translation from David C. Noe makes the two letters available together for the first time in English. Noe also provides a helpful introduction to Calvin's early life and the problem of evangelical believers remaining in the Roman Catholic Church.

This book does not merely provide a helpful view of how Calvin believed the moderate French reform movement should decide between God and the worship of false prophets. It is also an opportunity for us to reflect on the abiding significance of the need for reformation.

Many churchgoers assume that worship is inherently boring, something we need to make exciting. But as Jonathan Landry Cruse shows, churchgoing only seems monotonous and mundane because our eyes are blinded to the supernatural wonder that is taking place all around us.

In this book, Cruse helps us perceive the significance of worship and guides us through the spiritual actions of a worship service. Once you recognize how God is doing something to us and for us and through us in each element of the service, Lord's Day worship will become the highlight of your week!

Do you live with regret? Have others sinned terribly against you?

If it has been hard for you to recover from events in your past, the possibility that you could live well in the present may seem far-fetched.

If you feel trapped by your past, God invites you to pour out your heart to him and to find comfort in his Word.

In this 31-day devotional, complete with reflection questions and practical action steps, biblical counsellor Lauren Whitman shows how the gospel transforms your understanding of the past, your life in the present, and your hope for the future.

Description

Are you struggling to forgive someone -- or multiple people -- who have deeply hurt you? Do you frequently feel bitter or offended?

When the sin of the people around us looms large in our minds, we need to look to God. His great love is not only an encouragement amid our pain but also the foundation on which we build true forgiveness for others.

In this 31-day devotional, through readings, reflection questions, and action points, biblical counsellor Hayley Satrom turns us to Scripture to see the grace and mercy that God daily pours out on us despite our sins against him -- then shows us how to forgive others in practical terms.

Description

Starting with the doctrine of the Trinity, Vern Poythress addresses six challenges concerning the compatibility of God's independence with his activities in the world.

The eternal activities among the persons of the Trinity offer a foundation for God's activities in the world.

Alternative metaphysical frameworks for explaining God's transcendence and immanence run the danger of overriding the truths of biblical revelation.
