Kari Jobe – The Blessing (Live) LP Vinyl

Description

GRAMMY-nominated and multi-Dove Award Winning worship leader Kari Jobe released her first new album after three years with the release of The Blessing (Live). Now available on LP Vinyl.

“Recording this album live without an audience was something I wrestled with, but I really felt God say to keep moving forward,” shares Kari Jobe. “I felt like if I waited, I would be disobeying the Lord. I’m trusting that these songs are meant to release hope right now in this uncertain season. When I was working on this new album, I wanted to think about the church – little did I know that I would have to have the ‘church’ in my heart when I recorded a live album as well.” “We need Jesus, we need His presence,” Jobe explains. “Thankfully, His presence goes with us wherever we go. We can access Him anywhere we are. My heart is that people would experience that in every moment of this album. That they would be drawn to the heart of the Father who loves them.”

Various – America And The Israel Effect DVD

Description

The annals of history record the rise and fall of countless empires, nations, and individuals. In ancient times, God vowed to Abraham and his descendants that He would “bless those who bless you, and curse those who curse you” (Genesis 12:3). Is there a link?

The United States of America is the world’s sole current superpower and the wealthiest nation in history. Has this uniquely blessed nation evidenced the continuing dynamic power of this covenant promise?

This documentary film traces the rise and decline of the ‘American Empire’ alongside her complex relationship with the Jewish People. What role did she play in the re-birth of Israel in her historic homeland? How did the United States’ rich Christian heritage influence the geo-political factors surrounding her rise to prominence? What motivates the political alliance between Israel and the USA?

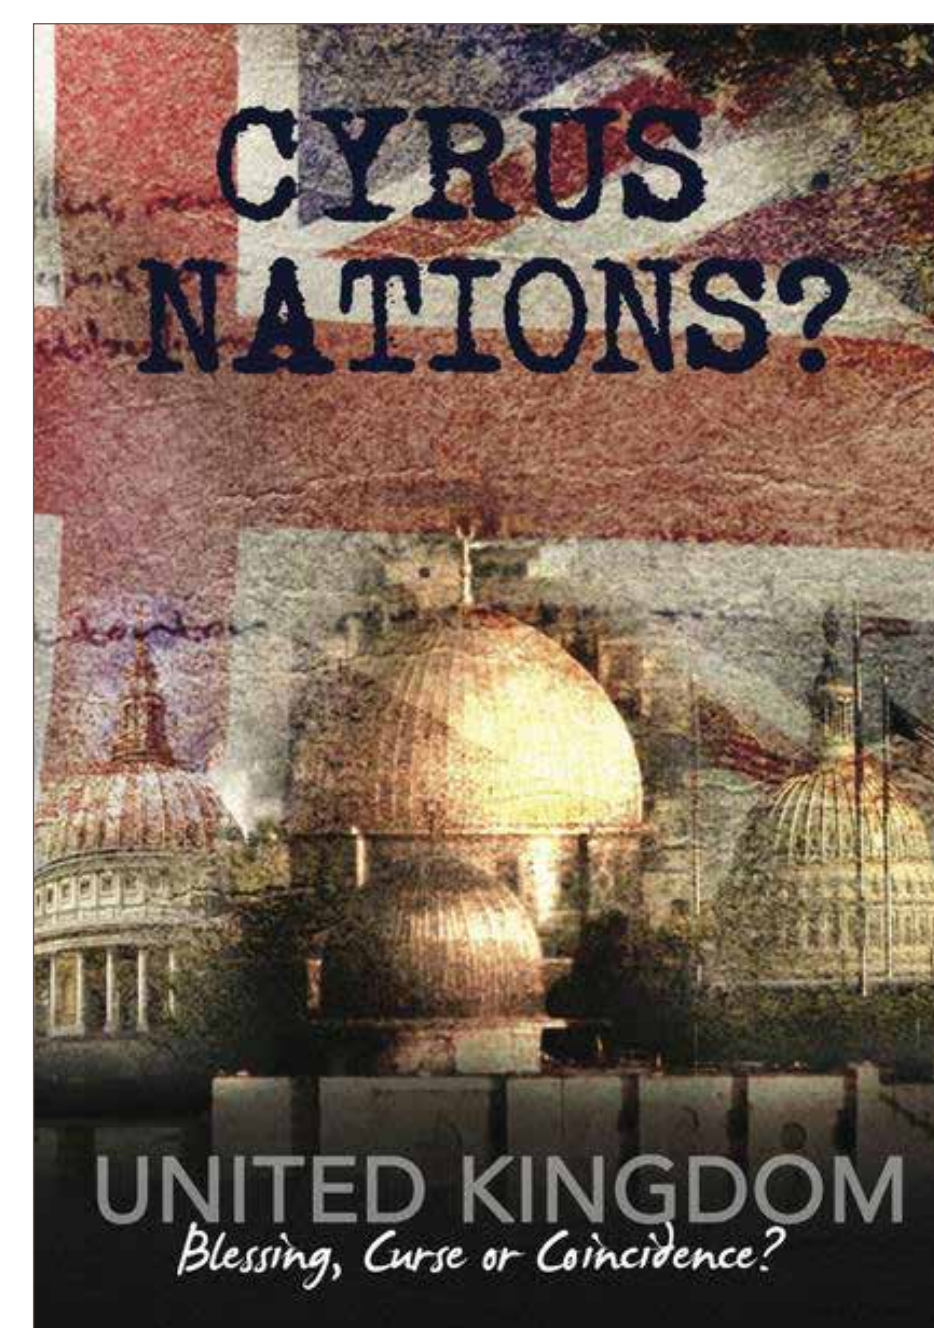

Is the political and cultural shift in America today related at all to her rejection of Biblical values and principles? Where is the hope for her future? In ancient times King Cyrus had a unique call to help restore the Jewish people to their homeland. Is the USA a modern-day Cyrus?

Description

From the New York Times, USA Today, and Publishers Weekly bestselling author!

The enemy is invisible and moving fast. The body count is rising. And time is running out. Marcus Ryker has spent his entire career studying killers. One thing he knows for sure: a peace summit is the ultimate stage for an assassination.

President Andrew Clarke is determined to announce his historic peace plan from the Temple Mount in Jerusalem. But when senior American officials who support the plan begin violently dying, Clarke orders Ryker and his team of CIA operatives to hunt down those responsible and bring the killing spree to an end.

When the Palestinians denounce the American plan, the Saudis signal they may be ready to forge a historic treaty with Israel. Could the Saudi king's support be the missing ingredient that will lead to peace at long last?

Ryker soon uncovers a chilling plot to kill the American president. A well-resourced international alliance is dead set against the peace plan. They will stop at nothing to strike a blow against the Americans and seize leadership of the Muslim world.

With all eyes on Jerusalem and the president in the crosshairs, it's up to Ryker to eliminate the terrible evil that's been set in motion. The fate of the region depends on his success. He has 48 hours.

Did God Give Us Our Senses So that We Could Enjoy Him More?

'Sensing God' is a discovery of Jesus in all of the sensory points embedded into each of us. It shows how the holiest acts in our daily lives are often the simplest: revelling in the beauty of nature; listening to our favourite music; eating a nourishing meal with family. These are potentially heartbeats of a living faith, and when we learn to recognize and respond to God's goodness in them, it draws us into redemptive participation with Him, the source of all beauty.

Joel Clarkson shares personal stories and paints vivid imagery so that we, too, can taste and see (and hear and touch and smell) that the Lord is good. In our exploration, we meet Jesus, who invites us to enjoy his presence and proclaim his visible, tangible, and touchable gospel. We physically experience the glory of our Creator and at the same time, we make that encounter a testimony to a broken world that is desperate for restoration. We are encouraged to get the good dirt of God's holy world under our nails.

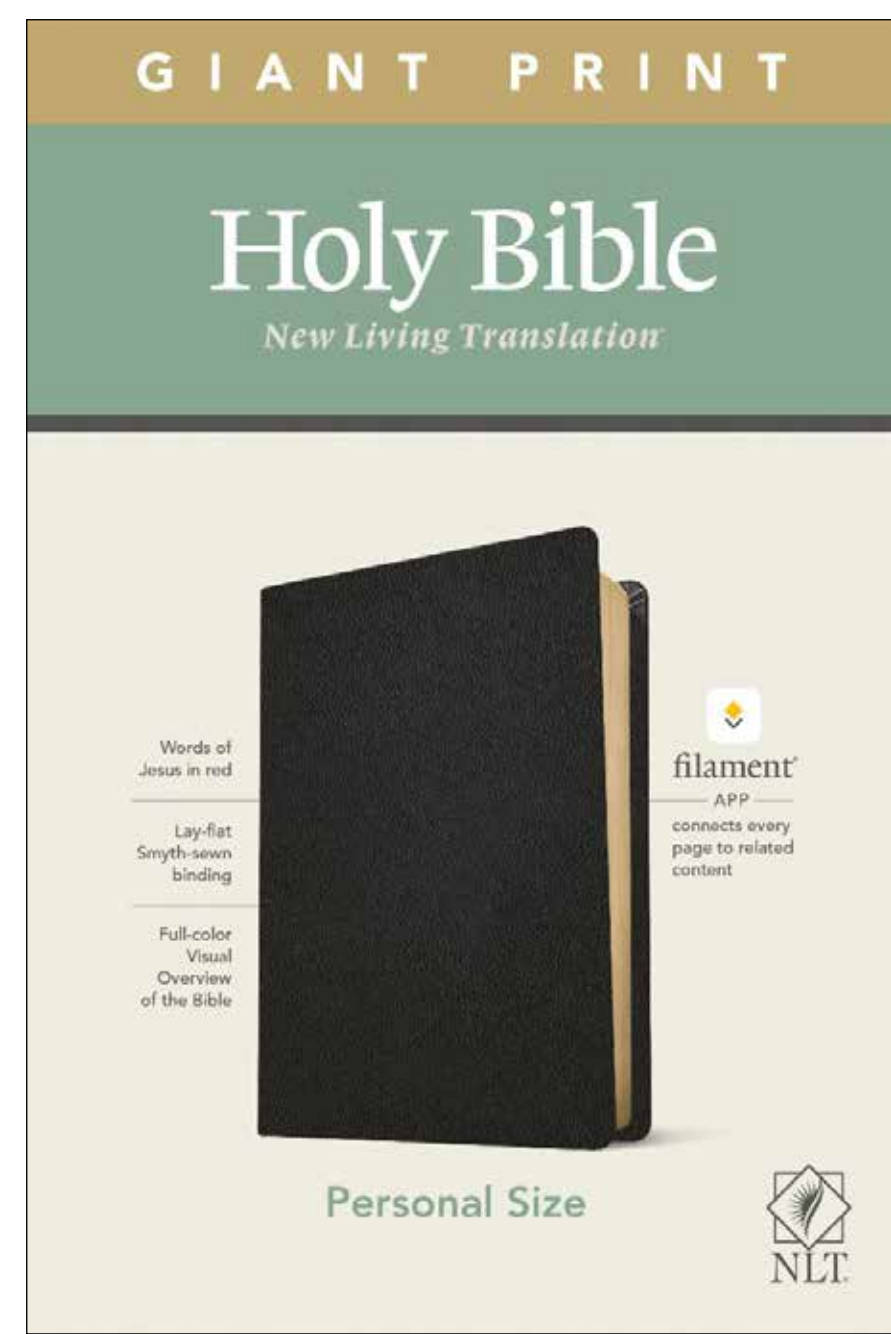

Together, we will come into contact with the God who reaches out to us with His eternal truth through the goodness of beauty. Will you join the journey? Come and learn how to truly worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness.

About the Author

Joel was born to American missionaries in Vienna, Austria. He attended Berklee College of Music, where he received his degree in music composition, and the University of St Andrews, where he received his Masters in Theology in 2018. He remains in St Andrews, where he is pursuing a PhD in Theology.

With her stammering tongue and quiet ways, Cadence Piper has always struggled to be accepted. After the death of her mother, Cadence sets her heart on becoming a nurse, both to erase the stain her brother has left on the family's honour and to find long-sought approval in the eyes of her father.

When Dorothea Dix turns her away due to her young age and pretty face, Cadence finds another way to serve . . . singing to the soldiers in Judiciary Square Hospital. Only one stubborn doctor stands in her way.

Joshua Ivy is an intense man with a compassionate heart for the hurting and downtrodden. The one thing he can't have is an idealistic woman destroying the plans he's so carefully laid.

When the chaos of war thrusts Cadence into the middle of his clandestine activities, he must decide if the lives at stake, and his own heart, are worth the risk of letting Cadence inside.

Everything changes when Joshua and Cadence unearth the workings of a secret society so vile, the course of their lives, and the war, could be altered forever. If they fight an enemy they cannot see, will the One who sees all show them the way in the darkest night?

When Lilliana Swope's beloved mother dies, Lilliana gathers her last ounce of courage and flees her abusive husband for the home of her only living relative in the foothills of No Creek, North Carolina. Though Hyacinth Belvidere hasn't seen Lilliana since she was five, she offers her cherished great-niece a safe harbour. ## Description

Sadly, it's not unusual for some parenting books to make new parents feel more rather than less anxious!

They can leave us feeling that if only we were doing x, y and z, or trying a bit harder, our baby would be sleeping through the night, or feeding better... or already speaking French.

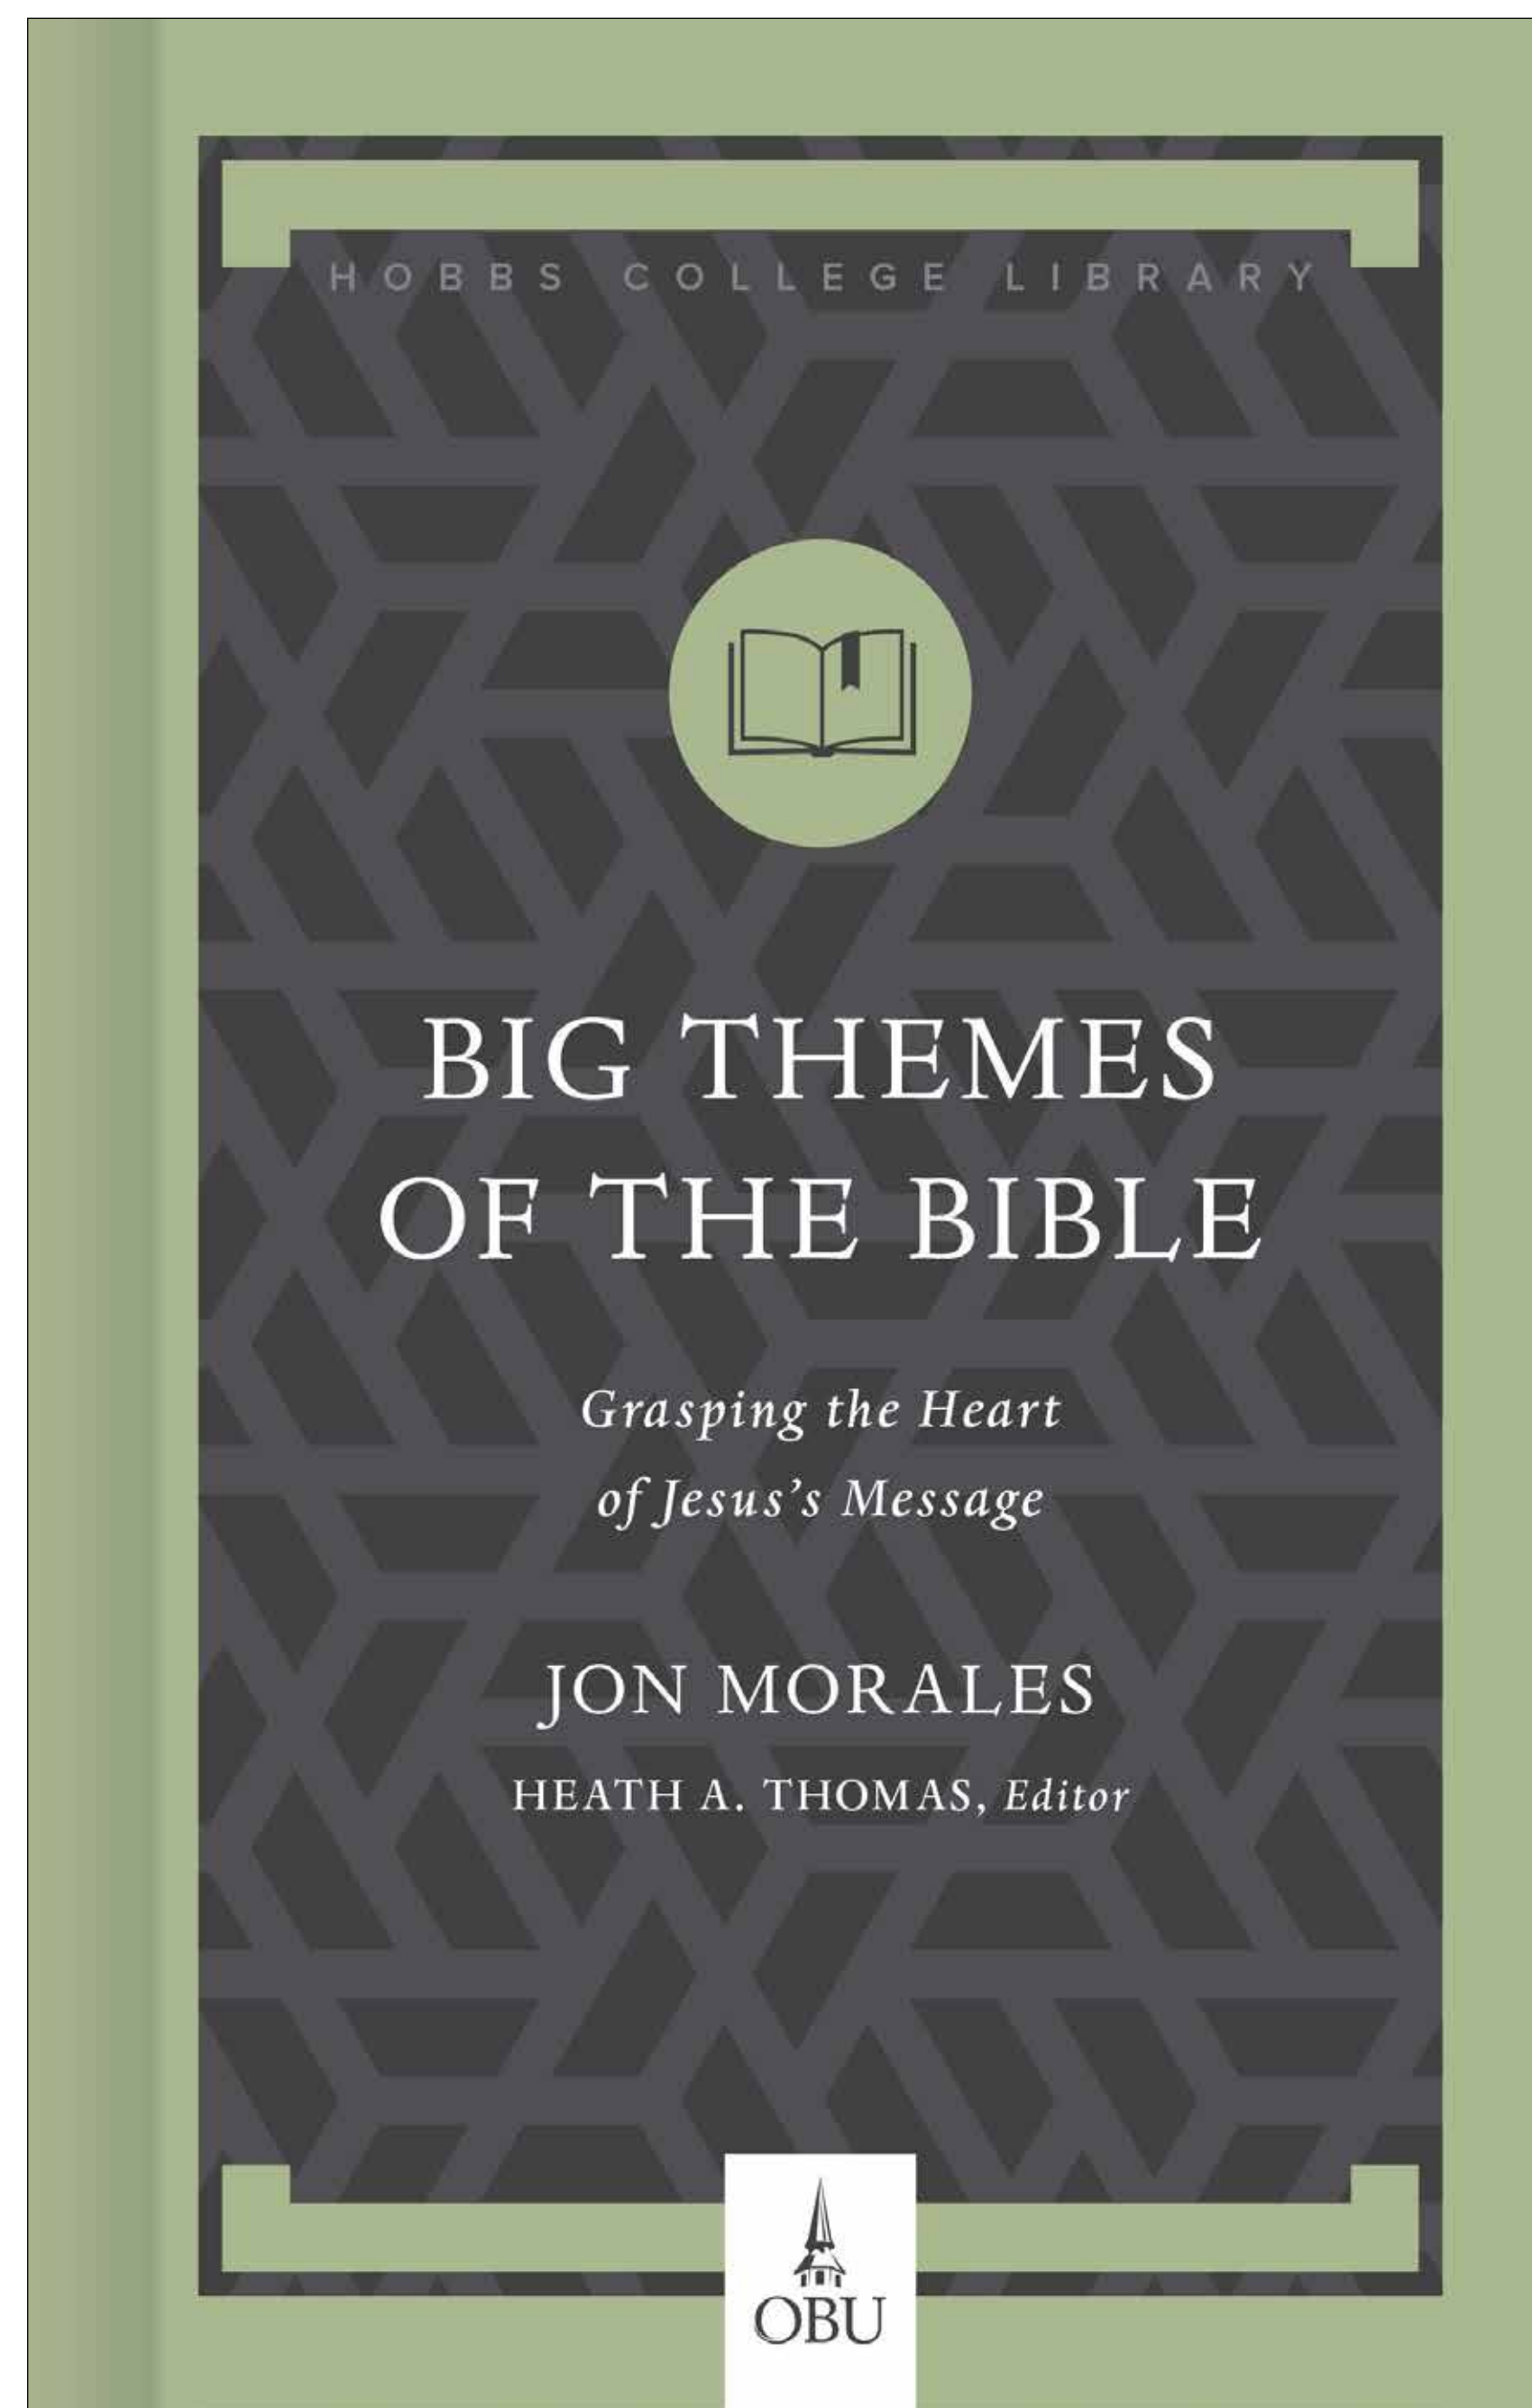

This book is different. It recognises that parenting is just about the most costly, challenging and courageous voyage we will ever embark on as adults. But it comfortingly unpacks what parenting looks like when we partner with God.

From a firmly anchored biblical stance, mother of four, Ems Hancock, offers a real, light-hearted, thought-provoking look at godly parenting to help you navigate the world of raising your babies.

About the Author

Ems Hancock is an author, speaker and mental health coach for children and adults. She is married to Jon, a children's TV producer and together they have four children.

'Big Themes of the Bible' teaches readers to better understand the work of Christ as he's revealed to us in some of the major themes of Scripture.

Each of the big themes in this book – creation, forgiveness, people, presence, yoke, and healing – captures important aspects of the story of God and his good purposes for his creation.

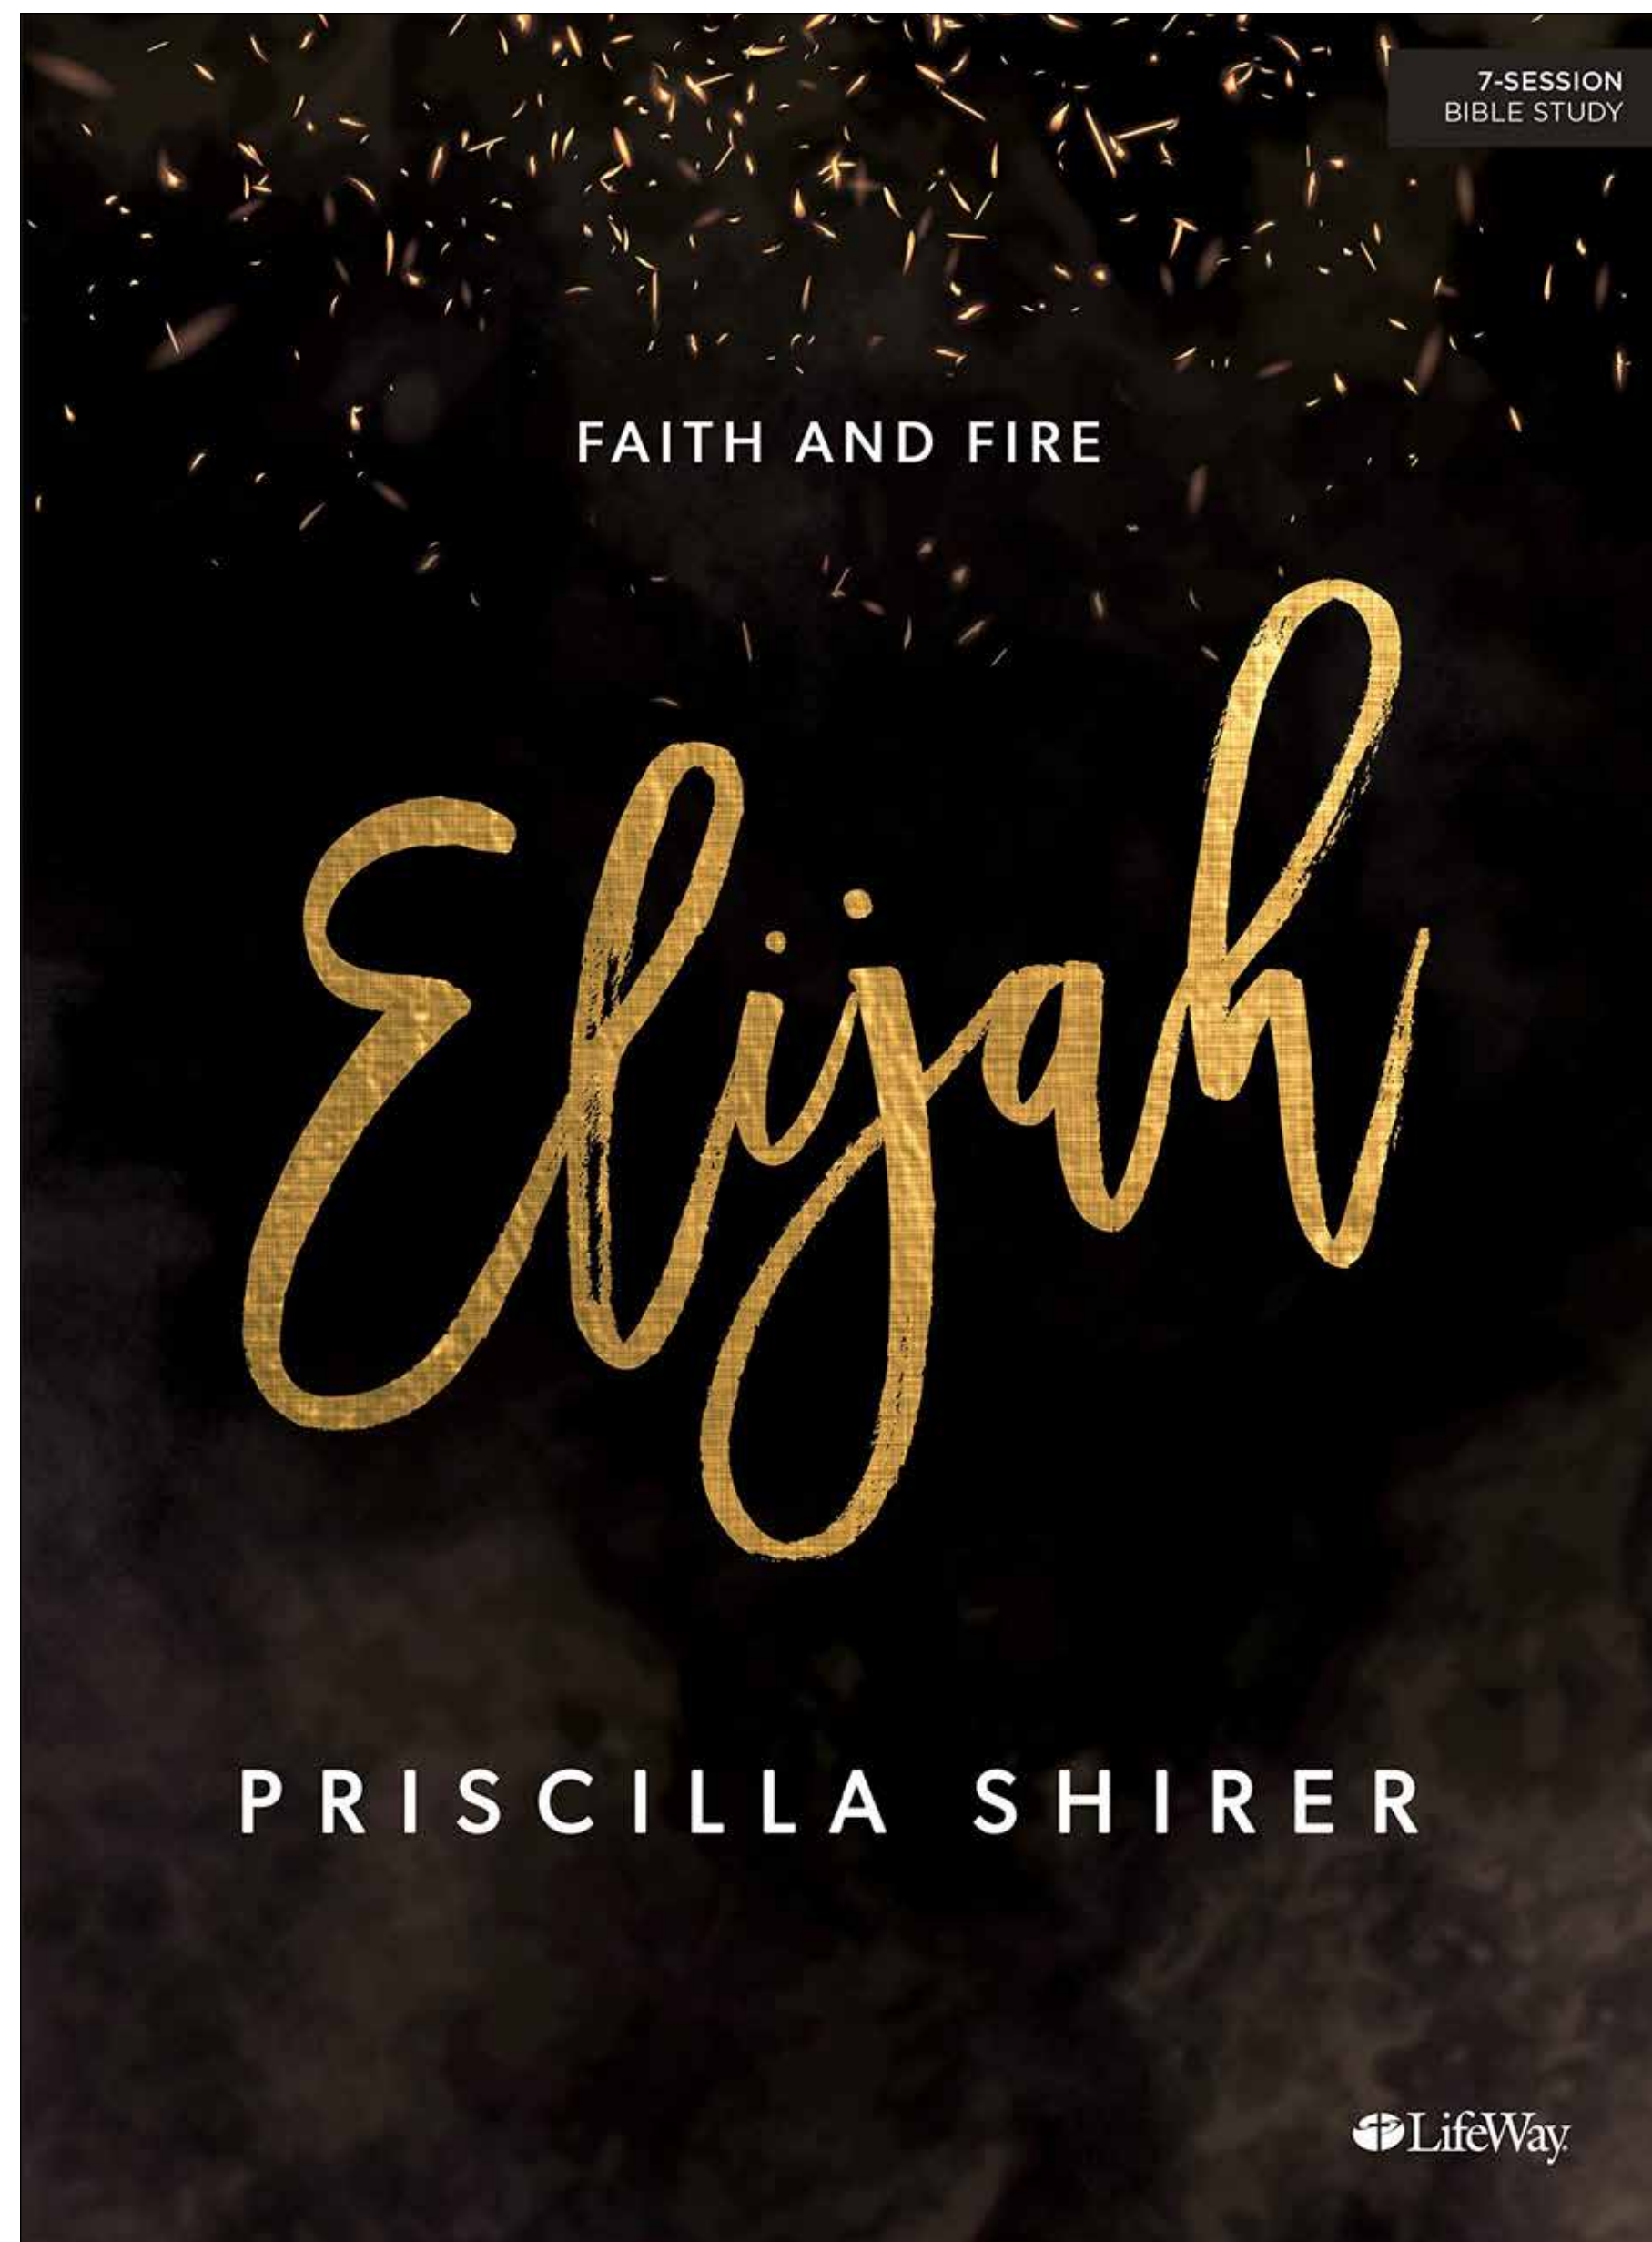

"Jon Morales is one of the brightest young stars in the evangelical firmament, and 'Big Themes of the Bible' reveals why. In it, he highlights the narrative coherence of the Bible, the relationship of the Old and New Testaments, and the importance of the church. He connects everything to Jesus's message in a way that is accessible and helpful for college students, laypeople, and ministers. Highly recommended."

Old Testament heroes are best known for their most celebrated, highlight moments: Moses dividing the Red Sea; David slaying Goliath; Joshua marching around the defiant walls of Jericho. And Elijah—calling down fire on Mount Carmel.

Blinded by the remarkable narratives of our biblical heroes, we can forget they each had a backstory—months and years of development, even difficulty, which fortified their spiritual muscle and prepared them for the tasks that made their lives unforgettable. Every serious believer longs to summon up the kind of boldness and faith that can stand firm on Mount Carmel and pray down heaven into impossible situations. Yet few are willing to go through the process required to get them there.

This 7-session Bible study is your invitation to surrender to that process.

Join author and Bible teacher Priscilla Shirer on a journey through the life and times of Elijah. Discover how the fire on Mount Carmel was forged in the valley of famine. And how the emboldened, fiery faith you desire is being fashioned by God in your life right now.

About the Author

Priscilla Shirer is a Bible teacher and conference speaker with a Master's degree in Biblical Studies from Dallas Theological Seminary. Also a popular author, her books include the New York Times Best-Seller, The Resolution for Women, One in a Million, and Life Interrupted.

Influential author and teacher John C. Maxwell travels around the world to meet with people of all backgrounds, helping them discover their God-given purpose. John's timeless leadership principles equip and empower people from Fortune 500 companies to community leaders to do remarkable things and lead significant and fulfilled lives.

Now you can gain from John's wisdom and guidance with this collection of some of his most impactful quotes. Whether you are called to lead or you're simply seeking God's direction for your life, you will benefit from his valuable insights on:

- Taking Action: In the beginning, you just need to get moving. Try different things. It's much easier to start doing something right if you've already started doing something.
- Dreaming Big: Dreams are valuable commodities. They propel us forward. They give us energy. They make us enthusiastic. Everyone ought to have a dream.
- Investing in Others: One of the ironies of leadership is that you become a better leader by sharing whatever power you have, not by saving it all for yourself. You're meant to be a river, not a reservoir. If you use your power to empower others, your leadership will extend far beyond your grasp.

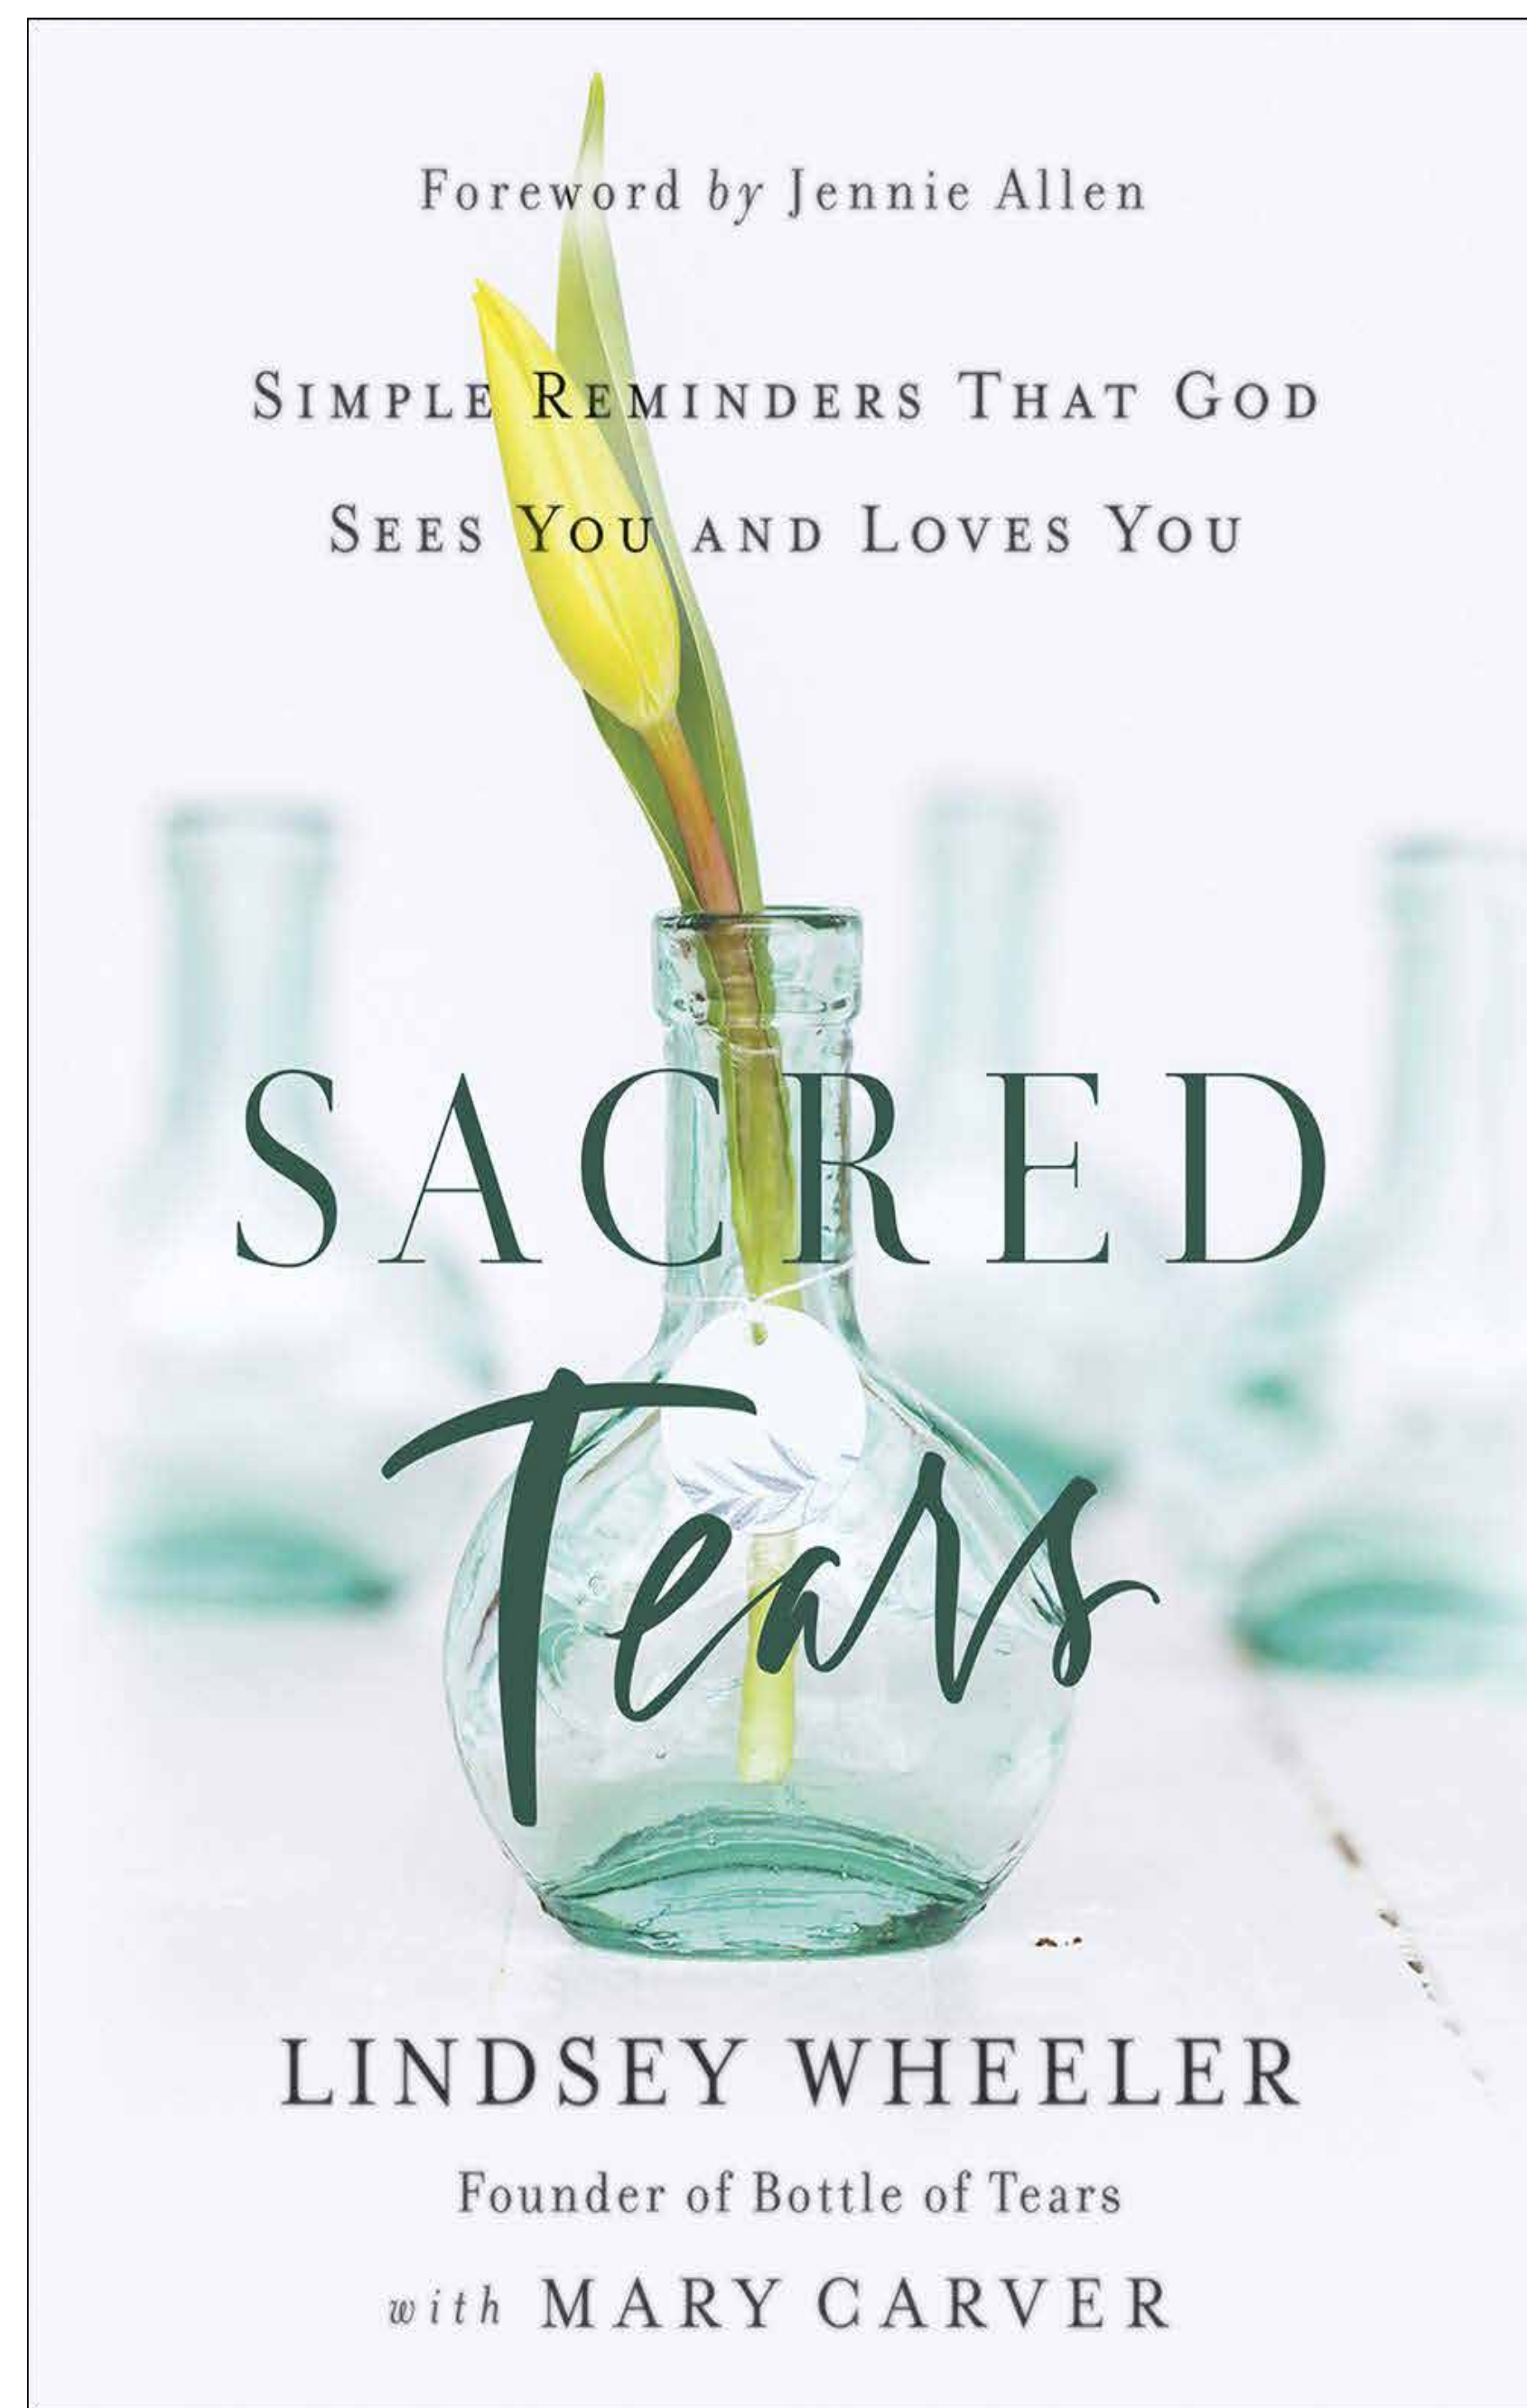

Let John's words inspire you to make a difference in your home, your workplace, and your world.

About the Author

Renown leader, speaker, teacher, and author John C. Maxwell has devoted his life to influencing the world and changing lives one at a time. What if, instead of keeping up with change, you could get ahead of it?

Our mission as Christians was the same yesterday as it is today and will be tomorrow. The world, however, is changing faster than ever before, and keeping up feels impossible. The realities of human life--from how we develop relationships to how we use technology to have impact--therefore change rapidly too. It's critical that Christian leaders take this into consideration as they plan for their organizations' future.

In 'What Comes Next?', strategists and innovation experts Nick Skytland and Ali Llewellyn use the eight elements of their Futures Framework to teach us how to help shape the future, be visionary, and grow our businesses and ministries.

This futures-thinking process is a proven solution for executives, entrepreneurs, pastors, and anyone in between who struggles to respond to an ever-changing world.

From looking outwardly to please others to looking inwardly to define ourselves, we constantly try to cultivate or construct our identities. But guided by the whims of culture or the faulty advice of tradition, we often find identity collapses when life falls apart or change threatens that fragile structure.

Is it possible to discover an identity bolstered with unassailable confidence, strengthened for the challenges of life rather than destroyed by them, and free from the whims of cultural pressure? Yes! It is an identity received, not achieved--an identity established in the gospel.

In 'Stop Trying', Cary Schmidt's storytelling creates compelling scenes in which you'll see yourself and your self. You'll understand why defining your identity outside of Jesus Christ is ultimately fragile, hollow, and unsatisfying. And you'll discover that your truest and most fulfilling identity is a byproduct of a relationship that changes everything.

Kids today are faced with a huge range of different views on who God is (or isn't). How can they be sure who's got it right?

This beautifully illustrated hardback storybook for children aged 3-6 is written by the team behind The Garden, the Curtain and the Cross.

It retells two extraordinary events in history when the God of the Bible proved himself to be the one true God. First it takes children back to Elijah's time and the gripping "God contest" between the God of the Bible, Yahweh, and the false god Baal.

Then it fast-forwards to a different mountain and another "God contest" at an empty tomb. Once the evidence is examined, it invites kids, in a world of so many options, to decide with confidence to join Team Jesus.

Description

A profound biblical examination of the divine work of sanctification.

The mandate for holiness is based in the very character and person of God: we are to be holy because God is holy. His grace never leaves a man where it finds him. Grace always transforms the sinner into a saint a holy man. God's will is for His people to be holy, and the explanations of why and how we become holy are throughout the Bible.

Explaining the tension between positional and progressive holiness, Joel Beeke and Michael Barrett expound the doctrine of sanctification and show that it is the application of the gospel to our daily lives. If you've ever considered why, if we are saved by grace alone, holiness matters, this book is for you.

"The biblical emphasis of this book, strongly reinforced by excellent Puritan teachings, makes this volume a golden treasury for the modern reader. All who are travellers on the road of true holiness have heaven itself as their sure destination." – Maurice Roberts

"I heartily recommend this valuable resource of solid spiritual food at a time when many are tempted to get by on fast-food substitutes." – Cornelis Pronk

"It is genuinely refreshing to find a current book on holiness so vigorous and earnest, concerned to unite faith and life so closely and warmly. Christ-centered at its core, it is sweetly clear in its doctrine and strongly compelling in its demands, while always pastorally sensitive and practically helpful." – Jeremy Walker

About the Authors

Joel R. Beeke is President and Professor of Systematic Theology and Homiletics at Puritan Reformed Theological Seminary and Pastor of the Heritage Reformed Congregation in Grand Rapids, Michigan.

Michael P. V. Barrett is vice president for academic affairs, academic dean, and professor of Old Testament at Puritan Reformed Theological Seminary in Grand Rapids, Michigan. He is a minister in the Heritage Reformed Congregations.

The book is divided into three main sections – apparent contradictions in the divine nature; apparent contradictions in the experience of salvation; and apparent contradiction in the characteristics of being in Christ.

Ross Cunningham, who has a background in creative design, has introduced each chapter with an attractive graphic representation of the paradox in question.

Description

Some things will not happen until you open your mouth. Your voice has the power to bring heaven to earth. God has given believers the ability to speak as He spoke, causing things that were not to be. The believer's voice pulls, roots out, throws down, destroys, and builds up and plants (Jeremiah 1:10). When we speak according to the Spirit of God, our voices bring heaven to earth. When we open our mouths, heaven is speaking. When we prophesy, heaven is speaking. When we speak by the Spirit of God, heaven is speaking. No matter how much it seems like hell is raging, when we open our mouths and speak God's Word, heaven comes.

In 'Activate Heaven', John Eckhardt shows you how to use your voice to advance God's agenda in the earth and equips you to stand against everything the enemy uses to silence your voice, from depression and confusion to sickness, pain, and rejection. The enemy would like nothing more than to silence the church. But when we open our mouths, the sick get healed, demons flee, miracles and finances are released, resulting in situations turned around.

Speaking the will of God—speaking forth that which is in heaven—is the essence of the prophetic. Therefore, it's time to stop complaining and start prophesying. It's time to stop talking about how bad things are and begin to open our mouths and declare that as we speak heaven comes. This book will teach you how to use the most powerful tool you possess: Your voice. You will be empowered to rip off the muzzle placed upon you by man, and you will exercise the supernatural power of your voice.

About the Author

Apostle John Eckhardt is overseer of Crusaders Ministries in Chicago, Illinois. Gifted with a strong apostolic anointing, he has ministered throughout the United States and overseas in more than eighty nations.

He is a sought-after international conference speaker and has authored more than forty books, including 'Prayers That Rout Demons'; 'Prayers That Break Curses'; 'Prophet, Arise; and 'God Still Speaks'.

Description

Take heart! God's grace is for prodigal children (and parents too).

When eighteen-year-old Barbara rejects her parents' Christianity, God's grace pursues all three—through grief and conflict to joyful reconciliation.

This honest, vulnerable account, written by father and daughter, offers invaluable lessons for parents and children at any age or stage—and for anyone with a prodigal loved one—showing how struggles may be faced with humility, courage, and hope.

Includes questions for group study and discussion.

This third edition has a redesigned cover and interior and features a new foreword from Barbara Miller Juliani.

"Jill and I saw this remarkable story unfold first hand. It's not just the story of a prodigal daughter, but also a father who was acting like the elder son. Dad's (Jack's) willingness to first take the beam out of his eye transformed him into the kind of dad a prodigal would want to return to."--Paul E. Miller, Executive Director, seeJesus; Author, A Praying Life
