Brandon Lake – House of Miracles (Live) 2CD

Description

For Brandon Lake, 'House of Miracles (Live)' is much more than an album, it's the prayer of his life. His prayer is that every home in the world would become a house of miracles. Every heart is a hosting place of the Spirit of God, intricately designed to experience miracles. The songs were written to be conduits of hope for every person who listens.

Calvin Suggs – The Sun Will Shine Again CD

Description

Stellar Award-nominated gospel artist Calvin Suggs, known for hits such as “Rain On Me,” “Happy,” “Celebrate,” and “Do Nothin’,” is back with a new album, with lead single “Nobody Can,” featuring Paul Porter.

‘The Sun Will Shine Again’ includes another Suggs–Porter duet, “Little While Longer.” Calvin Suggs who wrote each of the album’s fourteen tracks, calls this his “best record to date” and expects it to last because of its variety of sacred styles. For example, besides the churchy “Nobody Can” are the R&B-flavoured “Victory” and “Little While Longer,” and the slow-grooving inspirational title track.

Description

What does archaeology tell us about the historical accuracy of the Bible? Join host Dr. Chris Sinkinson as he visits the great sites of the Holy Land, including the site of the original “City of David”; the Temple Mount; Capernaum, where you can see the remnants of the Apostle Peter’s house; and the church of the Holy Sepulchre, the site of Jesus’ crucifixion and resurrection.

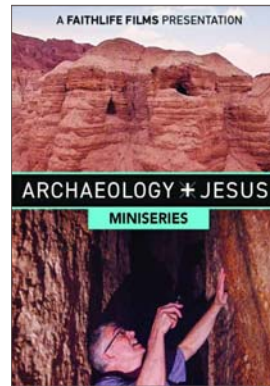

This beautifully photographed two-part documentary series takes you inside these fascinating sites and allows you to see them as never before. Insightful commentary from the host and a team of experts will connect these sites with the stories and characters of the Old and New Testaments, explaining why we can rely on the historical accuracy of the Scriptures.

Description

Peacemakers: Crossing the Divide is a one-hour documentary film that brings a message of hope through the power of the Gospel to transform lives. The setting is in one of the most conflicted areas of the world—Israel/Palestine. Arab and Jewish followers of Jesus tell their stories of obedient faith that led them to love their neighbours in ways that have brought forgiveness, healing, and reconciliation. Ultimately the film's message is about Jesus' final prayer for his followers: "May they be brought to complete unity to let the world know that you sent me..." John 17:23

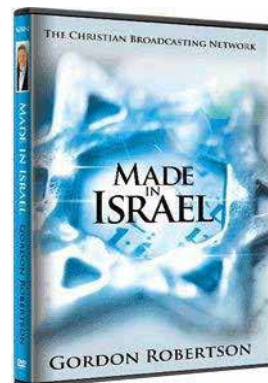

This film is meant to challenge the viewer to become a 'Peacemaker' in a world that is desperate for the true peace that only Jesus can bring—peace with God and peace with one another.

Description

This dramatic music video highlights Fanny Crosby's most popular songs, including "Blessed Assurance," "Pass Me Not," "Praise Him! Praise Him!," "Safe in the Arms of Jesus," "Rescue the Perishing," "He Hideth My Soul," "Near the Cross," and "Tell Me the Story of Jesus." Beautifully scored with a full chorus by Janet Maish Thomas, the arranger portrays the "blind poetess of song," who penned over 8,000 of America's most beloved hymns. D. Paul Thomas, playwright and actor, serves as our narrator, taking us on a compelling journey of tragedy and triumph, revealing a fully-human Fanny Crosby who overcomes the obstacles of her life by the power of God's grace.

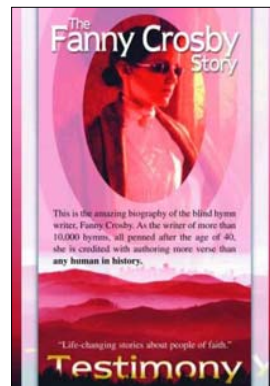

This handsomely remastered video (by Comprehensive Media) was filmed in Los Angeles in 1985, after the live show toured (as Blessed Assurance) around the nation to packed-out houses.

Various – Faith. Hope. Love DVD

Description

Six college students respond to an email from, what they believe to be, the well-known author Oscar Fielding.

In so doing, they find themselves thrown together for a wintery weekend, in a cabin nestled in the Rocky Mountains, with the understanding they will be aiding Fielding by providing research for his latest book.

In the process, these six strangers discover that a dialogue about love, relationships, faith, past struggles and conflicts leads them to uncover who they really are, and what they really believe.

Sim Dendy – Simply Church (Revised & Updated)

Description

New edition with extra chapter looking at the impact of COVID-19 on the church.

Our world needs the Church, like never before, to be full of hope. But the Church is not always what it could be. Perhaps we need a declutter. A clear-out. A detox.

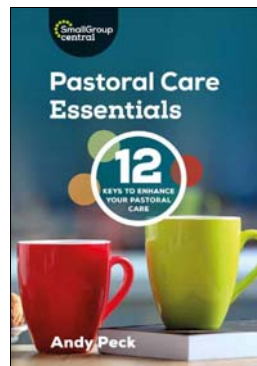

We all collect excess stuff – books, clothes, cars, gadgets... thoughts, habits, scars, traditions... Sometimes, it's good to strip things back a bit. It's healthy to occasionally explore our past and consider a fresh purpose for the future. To realign ourselves with the plan that our creator God has already set out for us. To recalibrate. To return to the start again.

To go back a couple of millennia to discover what the original Church looked like, so we can remember and reset. Simply... Church.

About the Author

Sim Dendy has been a church leader for over 20 years, and speaks regularly at conferences and churches around the UK. He is part of the leadership teams for Spring Harvest and the Ground Level network of churches, and is also a trustee of Links International, working in over 50 nations around the world. He is a co-author of Only the Brave, a study of the book of James.

Product Code: 9781952357046
Format: Paperback

As we encounter and discover God, we are inevitably led to further unpack our sense of beauty and its meaning for our faith—lives.

As a culture, we often describe God as true and good. We use beauty less often – and we struggle to articulate the intuitive relationship between it and the things of God: calling, spirituality, mission, and more.

This book is designed to bridge the gap. Through the story of Mark 14:1–11, The Story of the Woman with the Alabaster Jar, this book explores beauty and its profound implications for our lives.

Chapters include: On Beauty and Art, On Beauty and Identity, On Beauty and Generosity, On Beauty and Vulnerability, On Beauty and Mystery, On Beauty and Justice, On Beauty and Changing the World.

This book is softcover, 160 pages, perfect bound, and printed in full colour on uncoated paper. The dimensions are 6.5 in x 8.5 in.

'All That Is Made' is a guide for readers exploring the intersection of creativity and faith.

Humans are creative; it is a quality embedded in the fabric of our being, and a reality that reflects our existence as being made in the image of God.

This book is a compilation of Alabaster's Liturgy for Creatives and On Becoming Creative, and new reflections—encompassing Alabaster's lived experience as a creative company for the past two years.

It is a first step, the beginning of a conversation that allows readers to engage their faith and creativity against the larger backdrop of the God who has made all that is made.

Description

How to live confidently for Jesus in a culture that sees Christians as the bad guys.

The church used to be recognised as a force for good, but this is changing rapidly. Christians are now often seen as the bad guys, losing both respect and influence.

In our post-Christian culture, how do we offer the gospel to those around us who view it as not only wrong but possibly dangerous? And how do we ensure that the secular worldview does not entice us away with its constant barrage, online and elsewhere, of messages about self-determinism?

Author Stephen McAlpine offers an analysis of how our culture ended up this way and explains key points of tension between biblical Christianity and secular culture. He encourages Christians not to be ashamed of the gospel as it is more liberating, fulfilling and joyful than anything the world has to offer.

He also offers strategies for coping in this world, with its opposing values, and for reaching out to others wisely with the truth.

About the Author

Stephen McAlpine is a blogger and ex-journalist who writes on issues of theology, culture and the church.

He is a pastor at Providence Church in Perth, and also works at a national level for City Bible Forum, developing and presenting evangelistic material for a project called Third Space.

He is married to Jill and loves running in his spare time.

Daniel Darling – The Characters Of Easter

Description

Meet the unlikely people who witnessed history's greatest event.

At Easter, the Son of God took on the world's sin and defeated the devil, death, and grave. How is it, then, that history's most glorious moment is surrounded by fearful fishermen, despised tax collectors, marginalized women, feeble politicians, and traitorous friends?

In 'The Characters of Easter,' you'll become acquainted with the unlikely collection of ordinary people who witnessed the miracle of Christ's death and resurrection. Enter their stories and ultimately draw closer to Christ Himself as you encounter His Passion through their experiences. Take a journey back to first-century Palestine and walk in the shoes of legendary people like Simon Peter, Judas, Pilate, John, Mary Magdalene and others.

The definitive biography of Susannah Spurgeon.

While many Christians recognize the name of Charles H. Spurgeon, the beloved preacher and writer, few are familiar with the life and legacy of his wife, Susie. Yet Susannah Spurgeon was an accomplished and devout woman of God who, in addition to supporting her husband, had a tremendous ministry of her own.

Even through chronic health issues, she administered a book fund for poor pastors, edited and published her husband's sermons, led a pastor's aid ministry, made her home a hub of hospitality, and wrote five books. And as her own writings reveal, she was also a warm, charming, and fascinating woman.

'Susie' brings this vibrant woman's story to modern readers. Ray Rhodes Jr. examines Susannah's life, showing that she was not only the wife of London's most famous preacher, but also a woman who gave all she had in grateful service to the Lord. Susie is an inspiring and encouraging account of a truly remarkable woman of faith that will delight Spurgeon devotees and fans of Christian biographies alike.

"If I could, I would put this book into the hands of every Christian in America." –Dr. David Jeremiah

"Be strong and courageous. Do not be frightened, and do not be dismayed, for the LORD your God is with you wherever you go" (Joshua 1:9). Each day, you watch America turn further from Christian values and the core principles of liberty. It's frustrating to feel you can't assert biblical truth without facing condemnation, and fearful to witness outrage and victimhood replace respect and reason.

Amidst this dissent, how can you not only stay rooted in your own faith, but continue publicly testifying for Jesus? In 'We Will Not Be Silenced,' Dr. Erwin W. Lutzer prepares you to live out your convictions against a growing tide of hostility.

Gain a better understanding of nonbelievers' legitimate hurts and concerns regarding issues like racism, sexism, and poverty—and identify the toxic responses secular culture disguises as solutions. In the process, you'll see how you can show compassion and gentleness to those outside of the faith without affirming their beliefs.

'We Will Not Be Silenced' will ready you to move beyond fear and boldly accept the challenge of representing Christ to a watching world that needs Him now more than ever before.

It has never been more difficult to flee sexual immorality and pursue holiness.

We live in an age of unprecedented access to sexual temptation. Previous generations faced adultery, prostitution, and brothels. But not every person had a brothel in their pocket. Our society's obsession with sex, coupled with the technologies that make pornography so accessible, make it more challenging than it's ever been.

The result is that our families, our churches, and our society are being devastated by a pornography epidemic.

In More than a Battle, pastor and author Joe Rigney offers hope for Christian men who are seeking to live with integrity and faithfulness in the face of the sexual temptation around them. Drawing on the Scriptures, his personal experience, and his pastoral counselling, Rigney frames the struggle with lust beneath the banner of Galatians 5:16: "Walk by the Spirit and you will not gratify the desires of the flesh."

The struggle with lust is a fierce battle, an enslaving addiction, and a deep brokenness. Rigney shows us that through the gospel it is the Holy Spirit that gives us victory, sets us free, and heals our wounds.

Description

Jesus Revolution Bible Study Book includes printed content for six sessions, personal study between group sessions, applicable Scripture, “How to Use This Study,” and tips for leading a group. Throughout history, many cultures have experienced various spiritual awakenings. These eras are often short-lived, but the people who experienced them are transformed forever. That’s what happened to Greg Laurie during the Jesus Movement in the late 1960s and early ‘70s. He entered these years as a drug-using hippie and exited as a new believer eager to see others come to know Christ, a quest he continues to this day.

The Jesus Revolution Bible study draws important parallels between the cultural atmosphere of that period and our own time of spiritual apathy and outright hostility. Group participants will discover a forgotten part of recent American history and, along with it, a reason to believe that God is not finished with today’s generation and the next great American revival may be on its way.

Session topics:

1. You Say You Want a Revolution
2. Who Is the Spirit?
3. How Do We Pray?
4. What Is the Bible
5. Who Goes to Heaven?
6. What Can We Do Now?

Description

Do you or someone you love struggle with depression? If so, know that you and your loved ones can go on.

'Beauty in the Browns' author Paul Asay knows this from personal experience--his and his son's. As he shares their stories in an honest, practical, sometimes painful, and occasionally humorous way (with input from mental health professionals), you'll find someone who understands what it means to live as a Christian with depression.

He offers hope and help to those suffering from mental illness as well as those trying to help them.

Even in the bleak browns of depression, even when the world looks hopeless, God still has a plan for people dealing with this issue.

In this book, you'll find encouragement to fight the good fight and keep the faith.

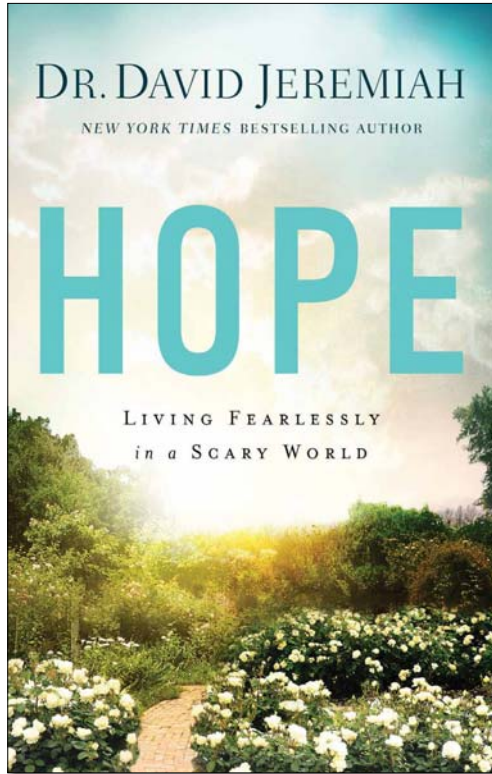

"Depression is a lens through which everything looks ugly and hopeless. But in this honest, raw account of his depression, Paul Asay reminds us that no matter how much depression distorts and discolours the world, God provides hope and beauty." --Jim Daly, President, Focus on the Family.

About the Author

 Product Code: 9781641581943
 Format: Hard Cover
 Genre: Spiritual Growth

Have you ever felt stuck in your Christian life? Have you wondered if the abundant life Jesus promised is really available for you right here and right now?

If you answered yes to either of these questions, then this book is for you. This book will help you identify the spiritual growth barriers that are keeping you stuck as well as show you the way to experience more of the abundant life: a life characterized by more love, joy, peace, and hope than you ever dreamed possible before.

Ken Baugh draws us into the inner workings of the brain and the heart, which inform how we process negative and traumatic experiences, but which also can be diverted from health and wholeness by such negative experiences. How we process hard things intellectually and spiritually recalibrates us toward either health and wholeness or bitterness and defeatism.

Ken helps us rewire our brains by simmering in the Scriptures that remind us whom we belong to and what God has promised us. The end result is a resilient, robust faith prepared to weather every storm and keep in step with Jesus.

Description

Written by William Perkins (1558–1602), 'A Golden Chain' is one of the best treatments of the doctrines of election and reprobation ever written.

Due to its controversial nature, it is one of the few significant and influential works written by a Puritan which has not been widely republished as a standalone version.

In this version of 'A Golden Chain,' transcribed from the 1597 edition of Perkins' work, it has been lightly abridged and modernised with simplified language and new structural diagrams.

This release will also include a brief introduction to both Perkins' life and work written by Perkins scholar, Matthew Payne.

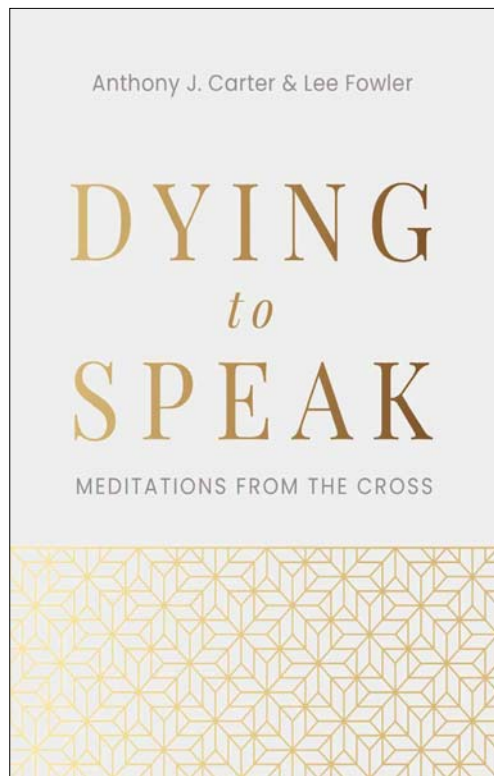

"Few books may truly be called seminal in the primary sense of that term, but William Perkins' 'A Golden Chain' certainly deserves that adjective. Reflecting the best thinking of the 16th century English reformation, it is an abundant deposit of the most valuable theology mined from holy scripture. It does not simply contain the occasional nugget, nor is it merely gilded around the edges. This cart is full of rich ore, a treasure central to the development of the riches of English puritan theology. Joined with a judicious introduction, this reprint provides the reader with an accessible introduction to the works of a leading and justly famous Church of England Puritan. You will profit greatly as you read." – Dr. James M. Renihan (President of IRBS Theological Seminary, Mansfield, Texas)

Everyone dies. No one died like Jesus.

Unlike any other person, Jesus knew when he would die. He knew how he would die. He knew what his death would accomplish. Thus, we can be assured that Jesus's last words on the cross were full of meaning--they hold an intentional and redemptive significance.

Anthony Carter and Lee Fowler take a brief, devotional look at each of our Saviour's final seven sayings on the cross. These words reveal who Jesus is: the Son of God, Messiah, Shepherd of our souls, Saviour of the world.

They also tell us who we are to be because of him: forgiven, saved, loved, reconciled, refreshed, complete, and satisfied. The work and words of Christ accomplish and announce the good news of salvation by grace, and our response is the joy of living and loving in light of that good news.

With pastoral care, Carter and Fowler remind us of the moving drama of our salvation and the implications of Christ's words for our lives today.

About the Author

Anthony Carter (MA, Reformed Theological Seminary) is lead pastor of East Point Church in East Point, Georgia. # C. Herbert Oliver – No Flesh Shall Glory (Second Edition)

Description

C. Herbert Oliver, a Black civil rights leader from Birmingham, Alabama, and a pastor in the Orthodox Presbyterian Church, spent thirteen years rethinking the racial ideologies of his day before writing 'No Flesh Shall Glory' in the late 1950s.

In clear, biblical, and unflinching language, he dismantles the dogmas of race superiority, the doctrine of racial solidarity, and the whitewashing of history and Scripture. More than that, however, he returns to the Bible's powerful and freeing conception of humanity.

"(It is my intention) to curtail all types of racism by destroying the ground on which they stand and by pointing men to nobler ends."

His book is a gracious challenge to Christians then and now--an invitation to break free from oppressive ways of thinking and to see humanity as God sees us.

This reprinting also includes Rev. Oliver's lectures on the church, social change, identity, and protest, delivered at Westminster Theological Seminary in 1964.

About the Author

Rev. C. Herbert Oliver was an unsung pastor, civil rights activist, scholar, and educational leader.

His significant contributions to the civil rights movement helped pave the way for historical changes in America.

Being jailed for allowing whites in his Birmingham, Alabama church in the late 1940's, Rev. C. Herbert Oliver made the decision to use his faith to fight against segregation, racism, false religious teachings and education reform, working alongside Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., Rev. Fred Shuttlesworth and other religious leaders.

This special boy, who lived in Minnesota, had prophetic visions and messages from God about Max, who lived in Louisiana, even though the two had never met or had any contact. These messages, which Josiah typed with one finger, were packed with amazing biblical insight and highly detailed specifics about Max's life--details that Josiah could not possibly have known unless they were revealed to him by the Holy Spirit.

In 'Jesus, Josiah, and Me,' Max Davis shows you that it is possible to encounter the living Jesus in a richer and more tangible way--that you can cultivate an awareness of His reality and know your prayers are affecting outcomes. More than an amazing account of Max's encounter with an autistic boy that sparks faith and hope, it's a story that unveils the mystery of experiencing God's presence and power like never before!

Description

Hate isn't a thing from history.

The Jewish people and Israel have been described as “a dominant and moving force behind the present and coming evils of our day”; “a monstrous system of evil...[that] will destroy us and our children” if not resisted; and a group that seeks “the annihilation of almost every Gentile man, woman, and child and the establishment of a satanic Jewish-led global dictatorship.” What’s worse is that these comments were all made by professing Christians.

In ‘Christian Antisemitism,’ respected Messianic Bible scholar Michael L. Brown, PhD, documents shocking examples of modern “Christian” antisemitism and exposes the lies that support them. Carefully researched, this book shows that church-based antisemitism is no longer a thing of the past. Rather, a dangerous, shocking tide of “Christian” antisemitism has begun to rise. In ‘Christian Antisemitism,’ Dr. Brown shows you how to stem this tide now and overcome the evil of “Christian” antisemitism with the powerful love of the cross!

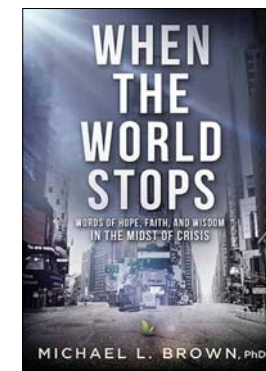

This book will show you how to confront everyday antisemitism in all areas of your life and become a champion for the people of Israel.

About the Author

Michael L. Brown, PhD, is founder and president of AskDrBrown Ministries and president of FIRE School of Ministry.

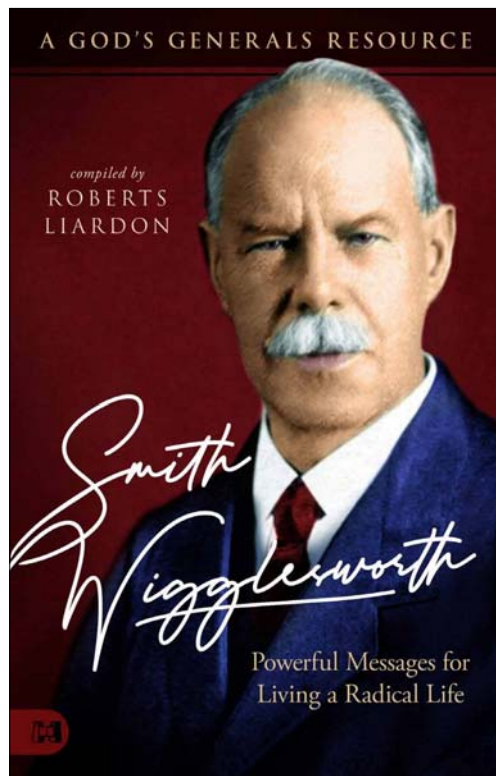

The author of more than thirty-five books, he is also the host of the nationally syndicated daily talk radio show The Line of Fire, as well as the host of shows on GOD TV, NRBTv, and METV.
