Harry Connick, Jr. – Alone With My Faith CD

Description

Harry Connick, Jr., the iconic GRAMMY® and Emmy®-winning and Tony-nominated musician and actor, readies the release of his newest album, 'Alone With My Faith.'

Performing and tracking each of the album's vocals and musical instruments by himself in his home studio, what started as a creative outlet and an intimate retreat from the dizzying uncertainty of the pandemic quickly evolved into a vulnerably healing collection of inspiring music.

Across the project's 13 tracks, Harry Connick, Jr. journeys through the range of human emotions with music that is anchored in his faith and brimming with universal hope.

Sam Levine – Smooth Inspiration CD

Description

A smooth jazz instrumental collection of contemporary Christian hits.

Sam Levine is known for his tender and heartfelt renditions of contemporary hits. He has been featured in live performances with such superstars as Whitney Houston and Al Jarreau, has recorded with Michael McDonald, The Neville Brothers, and Amy Grant, and has contributed musically to such motion picture soundtracks as Honeymoon In Vegas and Sweet Dreams.

He is at home playing smooth jazz as he is 1950s nostalgic pop.

Bri Babineaux – The Encounter Continues (Live) CD

Description

Bri Babineaux, who rose to fame in 2015 with riveting YouTube gospel performances that earned millions of views and then in the following year bowed a debut album, heralded as a slick #1 bestselling contemporary gospel offering, is back on the scene with a new musical direction and work, The Encounter Continues.

From co-writing songs, supervising the art design and carefully selecting cover songs, Bri delivers a high-energy live project that was recorded at a church just outside of New Orleans.

This eight-song set opens with the infectious rocker “Never Be the Same Again” and closes with an equally compelling rendition of Bethel Music’s “Raise A Hallelujah”.

Description

‘You’ll bounce back...’

How many of us have heard these well-meaning words when faced with mental or physical health challenges, trauma or the loss of dreams? And yet, life’s battles can leave us scarred and changed. Why would we want to go back when what we’ve been through has taught us so much?

It’s time to bounce forwards instead.

In ‘Bouncing Forwards’ Patrick draws on his own journey of making peace with his on-going anxiety, to look honestly and vulnerably at the temptation to wait for the day when all will be well whilst missing out on what’s happening in the here and now. Exploring resilience, acceptance and emotional agility, Patrick shows how we can find meaning in some of life’s toughest moments and the hope to journey on.

About the Author

Patrick Regan OBE is the CEO of Kintsugi Hope, and the founder and president of urban youth work charity XLP.

He is the author of five books and hosts the When Faith Gets Shaken TV programme currently on TBN.

While being a mother is challenging, demanding, and sometimes isolating, it is one of the most important, heroic, and life-changing roles out there, and God is with you every day on the job.

In 'Leaning of the Promises of God for Moms', Sally Clarkson provides you with the words you need at the times you need them most.

This gift of daily encouragement and Scripture passages is meant to inspire you, grant you wisdom, and remind you that your job is not only important here and now but eternally.

As you shape the next generation, 'Leaning on the Promises of God for Moms' will give you practical ways to bring God's life to the lives of your children.

While walking along the path of motherhood, this gift of precious and important words will guide you on your journey, filling you with the grace and unfailing love God has for you.

Description

From the New York Times, USA Today, and Publishers Weekly bestselling author!
A game-changing peace treaty between Israel and the Saudis is nearly done.

The secretary of state is headed to the region to seal the deal.

And Special Agent Marcus Ryker is leading an advance trip along the Israeli-Lebanon border, ahead of the secretary's arrival.

But when Ryker and his team are ambushed by Hezbollah forces, a nightmare scenario begins to unfold. The last thing the White House can afford is a new war in the Mideast that could derail the treaty and set the region ablaze. U.S. and Israeli forces are mobilizing to find the hostages and get them home, but Ryker knows the clock is ticking.

When Hezbollah realizes who they've captured, no amount of ransom will save them--they'll be transferred to Beirut and then to Tehran to be executed on live television.

In the fourth installment of Rosenberg's gripping new series, Marcus Ryker finds himself in the most dangerous situation he has ever faced--captured, brutalized, and dragged deep behind enemy lines.

Should he wait to be rescued? Or try to escape? How? And what if his colleagues are too wounded to run?

This is the CIA's most valuable operative as you have never seen him before.

About the Author

Joel C. Rosenberg (www.joelrosenberg.com) is a New York Times bestselling author of 15 novels and 4 non-fiction books with 5 million copies in print. He is also the founder and Editor-in-Chief of two news and analysis websites, www.allisrael.com and allarab.news.

In 2006, he founded The Joshua Fund, a non-profit educational and charitable organization to mobilize Christians to "bless Israel and her neighbors in the name of Jesus, according to Genesis 12:1-3." The group has invested more than $50 million in providing humanitarian relief to Holocaust survivors and the needy in Israel, to Syrian and Israeli refugees, and to strengthening the Church in the Middle East.

Joel and his wife, Lynn, are dual U.S.-Israeli citizens and live in Jerusalem. Two of their four sons have served in the Israeli Defense Forces.

A young girl, kidnapped on the eve of World War II, changes the lives of a German archaeologist forced into the Nazi Party and—decades later—a researcher trying to overcome her own trauma.

1940. Hanna Tillich cherishes her work as an archaeologist for the Third Reich, searching for the Holy Grail and other artifacts to bolster evidence of a master Aryan race. But when she is reassigned to work as a museum curator in Nuremberg, then forced to marry an SS officer and adopt a young girl, Hanna begins to see behind the Nazi facade. A prayer labyrinth becomes a storehouse for Hanna's secrets, but as she comes to love Lilly as her own daughter, she fears that what she's hiding—and what she begins to uncover—could put them both in mortal danger.

Eighty years later, Ember Ellis is a Holocaust researcher intent on confronting hatred toward the Jewish people and other minorities. She reconnects with a former teacher on Martha's Vineyard after she learns that Mrs. Kiehl's mother once worked with the Nazi Ahnenerbe. And yet, Mrs. Kiehl describes her mother as "a friend to the Jewish people." Wondering how both could be true, Ember helps Mrs. Kiehl regain her fractured childhood memories of World War II while at the same time confronting the heartache of her own secret past—and the person who wants to silence Ember forever.

Description

New York Times bestselling author Dr. Daniel Amen equips you with powerful weapons to battle the inner dragons that are breathing fire on your brain, driving unhealthy behaviours, and robbing you of joy and contentment.

Your brain is always listening and responding to these hidden influences and unless you recognize and deal with them, they can steal your happiness, spoil your relationships, and sabotage your health. This book will teach you to tame the:

1. Dragons from the Past that ignite your most painful emotions;
2. Negative Thought Dragons that attack you, fueling anxiety and depression;
3. They and Them Dragons, people in your life whose own dragons do battle with yours;
4. Bad Habit Dragons that increase the chances you'll be overweight, overwhelmed, and an underachiever;
5. Addicted Dragons that make you lose control of your health, wealth, and relationships;
6. Scheming Dragons, advertisers and social media sites that steal your attention.

In 'Your Brain Is Always Listening,' Dr. Daniel Amen shows you how to recognize harmful dragons and gives you the weapons to vanquish them. With these practical tools, you can stop feeling sad, mad, nervous, or out of control and start being happier, calmer, and more in control of your own destiny.

What if women unraveled the evils of patriarchy?

With men safely "gentled" in a worldwide Liberation, the matriarchy of Nedé has risen from the ashes. Seventeen-year-old Reina Pierce has never given a thought to the Brutes of old. Itching to escape her mother's finca and keeping her training for the Alexia and her forbidden friendship a secret, her greatest worry is which Destiny she'll choose on her next birthday.

But when she's selected as a candidate for the Succession instead, competing to become Nedé's ninth Matriarch, she discovers their Eden has come at a cost she's not sure she's willing to pay.

Jess Corban's debut novel presents a new twist to the dystopian genre, delivering heart-pounding action, thought-provoking revelations, and a setting as lush as the jungles of Central America.

A school project goes terribly wrong in this middle-grade thriller about ex-homeschooler and Christian teen Hudson Sutton and his experiences in his new school.

When he makes two friends and attempts to take on an established hierarchy of bullying, he doesn't realize he's taking a risk he never expected--becoming a bully himself.

From the same author who wrote the suspenseful fiction Code of Silence series, this is a realistic look at the extent and reality of bullying, especially through social media, with a Christian protagonist who learns that relationships, bullying, and doing the right thing are a bit more complicated than he realized. It also touches on the subject of suicide.

As a woman who wants to follow Jesus in her everyday life, you yearn for intimacy with God. You long to know His presence, to be satisfied in heart and soul, but you don't know how. You feel like you're trudging through your days, making sure you're doing everything you can for Him . . . but you can't shake the feeling that something is missing.

Linda Dillow understands. She longed for depth of intimacy with God, but in the middle of a busy and complicated life, realized that she'd settled for serving Him. And when our actions for God are our primary focus, we miss the extraordinary honor of getting to be with Him. So how can we be with Him? Through a life of worship.

True worship is both a specific act and a lifestyle. As you learn what it means to bow your knee (the act of worship), you'll gain a renewed intimacy with God. And as you learn to bow your thoughts, words, work, attitudes, will, and even pain (the lifestyle of worship), you'll be drawn into God's holy and life-giving presence--the place where He will truly satisfy your thirsty soul.

- Are you governed increasingly by God's Word?
- Are you more loving?
- Are you a quicker forgiver?

These and other questions bring the lofty idea of "sanctification" into a helpful and convicting spotlight. With a new discussion guide optimized for small groups and Christian education, this concise and compelling book will transform your spiritual life and the life of your church.

Donna VanLiere – The Day Of Ezekiel’s Hope

Description

Millions have vanished...
War has erupted around the globe...
Cities have been ransacked and overrun with lawlessness...
Yet this is only the beginning of the chaos that is to come.

Emma Grady has seen civilization collapse and New York gutted by nuclear attack. Amidst this international crisis, she and her growing family of outcasts must unravel the meaning of these strange and horrifying events, even as they struggle to survive.

On the other side of the world, Zerah Adler finds Israel surrounded by invaders intent on total annihilation. In Jerusalem, two men have the power to stop the rain and call down plagues of every kind. Are they sorcerers, or do they have the power of God? And a magnetic new leader has emerged, promising to provide peace and even salvation to the globe.

In the gripping follow-up to The Time of Jacob's Trouble, bestselling author Donna VanLiere explores the end times through the journeys of Emma, Zerah, and others who face unprecedented danger. In the final chapters, you'll discover what God's Word says about our world's future and yours and realize that things aren't spiraling downward but are actually looking up!

About the Author

Donna VanLiere is a New York Times and USA Today bestselling author, with six novels turned into made-for-TV movies, including The Christmas Shoes.

A longtime student of Bible prophecy, she is passionate about speaking and teaching, revealing the hope of Scripture and what it has to say about today's headlines.

Gloria Furman – A Tale Of Two Kings

Description

From the very beginning, the Bible tells a story of redemption. God made the first man to rule as king over all He created, only to see Adam's reign end before it had barely begun. God knew all this and that's why He sent the One True King, Jesus, to dwell with us and reclaim what Adam had lost, saving mankind from the penalty of sin.

Bestselling author Gloria Furman makes this concept come alive for kids in this colorful and creative book comparing Adam, the archetype, with Christ, "the last Adam." Children will learn that while Adam's sin sentenced all of us to death, Jesus's crucifixion and glorious resurrection restored the promise of eternal life for all those who believe in Him.

Kids will be reassured that because Jesus is still on the throne, they can trust him whenever they feel sad or scared. There's nothing that Christ their King can't do for them!

About the Author

Gloria Furman is the author of several popular books, including Missional Motherhood, Glimpses of Grace, and Alive in Him. Gloria lives in the Middle East where her husband, Dave, is the pastor of Redeemer Church of Dubai.

Description

Help Your Kids Get to Know Jesus

The story of Jesus isn’t confined to the Gospels. He is mentioned throughout the Old Testament, as prophets and scholars eagerly awaited His blessed arrival in Bethlehem. Each of Jesus’s names and positions holds a special promise for believers and reveals a part of His human and divine nature.

Popular pastor, speaker, and author Dr. Tony Evans helps children (ages 8 to 12) learn what these names mean and how they apply to kids’ everyday lives. In language kids can understand, they will encounter Jesus as...

- Christ
- Immanuel
- Lamb of God
- Son of God
- Son of Man
- Great High Priest

These names and more will give children a greater understanding of Jesus and lead them closer to salvation and a lifelong relationship with Him.

About the Author

Dr. Tony Evans is founder and senior pastor of Oak Cliff Bible Fellowship in Dallas, founder and president of The Urban Alternative, chaplain of the NBA’s Dallas Mavericks, and author of A Kid’s Guide to the Power of Words and A Kid’s Guide to the Names of God. His radio broadcast, The Alternative with Dr. Tony Evans, can be heard on more than 1000 US outlets daily and in more than 130 countries.

The Voice of The Martyrs – When Faith Is Forbidden

Description

Take a 40-day journey to meet brothers and sisters who share in the sufferings of Christ.

'When Faith Is Forbidden' takes you to meet a Chinese Christian woman who called six months in prison "a wonderful time," an Iraqi pastor and his wife just eight days after assassins' bullets ripped into his flesh, and others from our spiritual family who've suffered greatly for wearing the name of Christ.

Each stop on this 40-day journey includes inspiration and encouragement through the story of a persecuted believer. You'll also find space for reflection and a suggested prayer as you grow to understand the realities of living under persecution--and learn from the examples of the bold believers you'll meet.

For more than 20 years, Todd Nettleton (host of The Voice of the Martyrs Radio) has travelled the world to interview hundreds of Christians who've been persecuted for the name of Christ.

Now he opens his memory bank--and even his personal journals--to take you along to meet bold believers who will inspire you to a deeper walk with Christ.

About the Author

PHILIP TODD NETTLETON is the Chief of Media Relations and Message Integration for the Voice of the Martyrs--USA and host of The Voice of the Martyrs Radio. He serves as a voice for persecuted Christians, inspiring Christians with the faithfulness of Christ's followers in 70+ nations where they face persecution for wearing His name. During more than 20 years serving at VOM, Todd has travelled the world and conducted face-to-face interviews with hundreds of Christians who've endured persecution in more than 30 nations. Todd and his wife, Charlotte, have two sons and two daughters-in-law. In his spare time he enjoys reading, music, travel and sports, including serving as commissioner of a fantasy football league.

THE VOICE OF THE MARTYRS is a nonprofit, interdenominational missions organization dedicated to serving the persecuted church worldwide through practical and spiritual assistance and leading other members of the body of Christ into fellowship with them. Voice of the Martyrs was founded in 1967 by Pastor Richard Wurmbrand, who was imprisoned for fourteen years in Communist Romania for his faith in Christ; his wife, Sabrina, was imprisoned for three years. In 1965 they were ransomed out of Romania, and soon thereafter they established the global network of missions of which Voice of the Martyrs is a part. They based these missions on Hebrews 13:3, Continue to remember those in prison as if you were together with them in prison, and those who are mistreated as if you yourselves were suffering. (NIV)

Description

Have we over complicated, over systematized, and over formalized making disciples?

When our hearts are changed by Christ, it's natural that we should want to help others come to know Him too. And while Scripture clearly sets forth how to do so, modern Western society has formalized, professionalized, and systemized disciplemaking to a point that it seems too complicated to practice. What happened to the simple, heart-to-heart ministries of the New Testament?

In 'Walk with Me,' you'll return to the essential biblical practices that help people grow as Christ-followers in simple, slow, and deep ways.

Learn how you can connect with your neighbours, coworkers, or anyone you want to reach with the gospel in ways that are relational and Spirit-led. You'll learn five kingdom principles that will reshape how you can pass on the faith:

- In heart-to-heart ways
- By keeping it simple
- By going slow
- By building deep
- By living on mission

About the Author

BILL MOWRY (M.A., Ohio State University) has a passion for creating ministry cultures where relational disciplemaking is the norm. Bill and wife Peggy serve on staff with The Navigators Church Ministries in Columbus, Ohio. Both are avid gardeners and Peggy is a certified Master Gardener.

Bill and Peggy have two adult children, two special grandchildren, and a coon hound named Ginger. They live on Above and Beyond Acres where they want to create a little place of beauty in a fallen world where people can reflect on the goodness of God. Title: Virtual Reality Church
Author: Darrell L. Bock & Jonathan Armstrong
Price: £12.99*
Product Code: 9780802420800
Format: Paperback
Genre: Doctrine & Theology/ Technology
Distribution: UK & Europe

Is Virtual Reality a Biblical Reality?

The invention of the printing press catalyzed Martin Luther's reformation; radios and televisions delivered Billy Graham's gospel proclamations to millions of households. Technological advancements have undoubtedly advanced kingdom work for centuries--but is the same true for the burgeoning technologies of today?

As virtual reality becomes increasingly prominent throughout society, churches must assess how to respond thoughtfully and biblically.

In Virtual Reality Church, theologians Darrell Bock and Jonathan Armstrong present a systematic reflection on how to faithfully apply virtual reality for ministry purposes. They examine the risks--like compromising the meaning of tangible worship--and opportunities--like safely reaching persecuted churches--of integrating revolutionary technologies into the Christian life.

Learn to think critically, theologically, and pastorally about new technologies so that you can faithfully advance the gospel into the future.

Title: What Great Ministry Leaders Get Right

Product Code: 9780802423139
Format: Paperback
Genre: Leadership Books
Distribution: UK & Europe

Ministry throws unexpected challenges at you. What if a little more training could help you navigate them successfully?

Though church leaders take courses in preaching and Christian education, when do they learn about personal limitations and the benefits of intimate friendships? Or what about conflict resolution? Knowledge gaps like these are often the primary factors that lead to frustration and burnout.

In What Great Ministry Leaders Get Right, Jimmy Dodd of PastorServe and Renaut van der Riet of Mosaic Church in Winter Garden, FL, outline the six core competencies church leaders need to develop healthy, biblical, and sustainable leadership. Jimmy and Renaut address the critical lessons often missing from ministry training that all leaders need to successfully serve their congregations.

Whether you've been in the pulpit for years or are just beginning your ministry education, every pastor can make sure they're prepared for the real-world challenges of ministry.

Description

Does the Bible feel confusing and complicated to you? Perhaps some of it feels familiar, but overall, does it feel impossible to navigate? Maybe you recognize the stories, but you just don't know how they all fit together. Yet they do fit together.

In her unique and remarkably readable way, Angie Smith—bestselling author of 'What Women Fear,' 'Mended,' 'I Will Carry You,' and 'Seamless'—helps you tie together all the loose, disconnected threads you find the Bible, weaving them into a beautifully crafted storyline.

After reading 'Woven,' when it comes to reading Scripture, you'll go:

- From confused to confident
- From lost to knowledgeable
- And ultimately, from God's heart to yours

Because once you see the big picture, you'll see it on every page. Every time.

About the Author

Angie is married to Todd Smith, lead singer of the Dove Award winning group Selah. She is mum to Ellie, Abby, Kate, Audrey and Charlotte. Angie desires to walk with Jesus authentically through the inevitable joys and sorrows of this life in a way that reflects his faithfulness to never leave us and never forsake us, and to encourage other believers to do the same.

She is the bestselling author of the Bible study Seamless: Understanding the Bible as One Complete Story, as well as two children's books and several books for adults including Chasing God and What Women Fear.

Description

In a world where Christian role models seem increasingly rare, this Bible reminds us that some of the most worthy examples of godly character are the biblical figures who brought leadership, wisdom, and inspiration to God's people. Each of these men faced trials, frustrations, and even failure, yet they were empowered by God to persevere and achieve great things for his glory.

In the 'CSB Men of Character Bible,' renowned Bible teacher Dr. Gene Getz guides men through Scripture by exploring the lives of men of character found throughout the Bible. Over 60 in-depth articles on men of character are strategically placed in the Bible alongside the accompanying text, with associated key life principles, application questions, and verses to remember.

Features include:

- 60 in-depth articles on men of character
- application questions and key life principles
- verses to remember
- nearly 50 profiles of men of character focused on specific character principles
- introductions and reading plans for each book of the Bible
- Smyth-sewn binding
- presentation page
- two-column text
- cross-references
- footnotes
- topical subheadings
- black-letter text
- 9.75-point type
- concordance, and full-colour maps.

The CSB Men of Character Bible features the highly readable, highly reliable text of the Christian Standard Bible(R) (CSB). The CSB stays as literal as possible to the Bible's original meaning without sacrificing clarity, making it easier to engage with Scripture's life-transforming message and to share it with others.

About the Author

Dr. Gene Getz is the host of "Renewal Radio" heard on stations across the U.S. as well as online worldwide. A church-planting pastor in the Dallas Metroplex since 1972, he is also president of the Center for Church Renewal, pastor emeritus of Chase Oaks Church (formerly Fellowship Bible Church North) in Plano, Texas, and an adjunct professor at Dallas Theological Seminary.

How can you share the gospel with someone who doesn't care?

As Western culture becomes increasingly indifferent to questions of faith, diverted by secularism, comfort, and distraction, believers encounter many people who don't so much doubt God as they are apathetic toward him.

In 'Apatheism,' Kyle Beshears urges us to recapture the joy of our salvation and demonstrates how to faithfully display the love of Christ to atheist friends and neighbours.

Explore the timeless truths of Scripture! What is truth? Can we make up our own truth? The Bible makes it clear that God's Word is the source of truth. Scripture reveals timeless truths that—when believed and followed—shape our lives to look more like Jesus.

In the Big Truths Storybook Bible, readers ages 6 to 10 will find 52 stories, each tied to one of the Bible's big truths, and showcased with amazing new art from The Gospel Project for Kids.

This unique storybook Bible reveals dozens of biblical doctrines through approachable biblical retellings, short doctrinal descriptions, and helpful discussion questions.

Through the story of Joseph, for example, kids will discover that God is in control of everything in heaven and on earth. Through the story of David, kids will see that grace is when God gives us something good even when we do not deserve it.

These big truths can be deep and sometimes difficult, but they are essential for young believers today. More than ever, kids need to know where to go to look for truth and find it: in the pages of the Bible!

Description

Does your marriage feel stuck in a rut? Do you feel like you and your spouse are never on the same team? Do you want a flourishing and vibrant marriage that reflects the gospel?

Over 7 sessions, Complement shines a compelling light on the beauty of marriage as God intends it. Through biblical teaching, storytelling, and real-life examples, Jamie and Aaron Ivey dismantle the distorted cultural views of submission, servanthood, and leadership within a marriage and offer a better view of healthy, godly marriage. In this study, participants will walk through the purpose of marriage as the Scripture relates it and tackle topics such as family mission, sex, leadership, fighting, and forgiveness. Because marriage is meant to not only give life and hope to both husband and wife, but also point the world to Christ.

Features:

- Personal study segments to complete between 7 weeks of group sessions
- Leader tips to help facilitate questions and discussions within small groups
- Six enriching teaching videos, approximately 15–20 minutes, plus a brief closing session

Benefits:

- Replace cultural lies about love and marriage with biblical insight about what God intends marriage to be.
- Be challenged to build a marriage that reflects the gospel.
- Learn how to embrace God's mission for your family.
- Be reminded that your marriage is worth fighting for.

About the Author

Jamie Ivey believes in women and wants big things for them. Through her podcast, The Happy Hour with Jamie Ivey, she uses a raw and intimate approach to connect with her audience. Jamie's prayer and hope is for God to use her words to encourage and show others that they are not alone, while constantly pointing them to Jesus. Jamie and her husband, Aaron, worship pastor at The Austin Stone Community Church, live in Austin, Texas with their four kids and two dogs.

Aaron Ivey is the Pastor of Worship at The Austin Stone Community Church in Austin, Texas, where he pastors a team of three hundred worship leaders, artists, storytellers, and musicians. Aaron has written and produced 10 worship albums and has written hundreds of congregational worship songs that are sung all over the world. He and his wife Jamie have been married for fifteen years, and have four children, Cayden, Amos, Deacon, and Story.

1 Corinthians is one of the most gripping books in the Bible. In this letter, Paul, the complicated, layered apostle, writes to the people trying a wild new social experiment known as a Christian community.

Not unlike the church today, this community dealt with factions, sexual immorality, gender issues, money issues, theological questions, lawsuits, problems in worship, and problems in leadership.

In 1 Corinthians: Searching the Depths of God, Jaime Clark-Soles explores these topics and the awe inspiring, breathtaking world of the first-century church. Examining the teachings of Paul, she addresses church history, the logic of the cross, spiritual gifts, death, afterlife and the resurrection, human sexuality, and the joys and challenges of living in community.

Participants will learn to look at 1 Corinthians from a variety of viewpoints and apply its lessons to their own faith.

Courage is the foundational virtue required for the Christian life. But often we wonder if we have what it takes to live the vital life Jesus offers his disciples.

In 'Courage: Jesus and the Call to Brave Faith,' pastor and author Tom Berlin challenges us to unlock the courage that we already possess as Christ followers.

By examining the life of Christ, we will begin to understand what true courage is and how God works in the lives of Christ followers as they exhibit a brave faith. Once we have eyes to hear what Jesus is showing us, once we have ears to hear, we can begin to find the remarkable life Jesus offers us.

Title: Scripture And The Skeptic
 Author: Eric Huffman
 Price: £13.50*
 Product Code: 9781791004217
 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Bible Studies
 Distribution: UK & Europe

The Bible is the best-selling, most widely read, and most quoted book in history. It is also misunderstood, misquoted, and fiercely debated. If, as Christians believe, the Bible is the Word of God, why is it so complex and difficult to interpret in parts, yet simple enough for even children to understand in others?

In 'Scripture and the Skeptic' Eric Huffman, author of '40 Days of Doubt', helps readers understand and cope with confusion about the Bible and provides answers to questions by reframing it as a perfect and seamless story.

Huffman illustrates how the Bible, even the parts some consider ungodly, presents the beautiful story that God intended to tell.

Through storytelling from his own experiences and his take on Bible stories, Huffman helps readers understand the Bible by interpreting the entire book through the lens of Jesus' life, death, and resurrection. He shows how every part of the Bible is either crying out for Jesus, witnessing his incarnation, or responding in the aftermath of his resurrection.

Nearly everyone has heard of the Ten Commandments, the list of "thou-shalt-nots" found in the Bible. Jesus saw these commandments not as onerous burdens, but as guideposts to help us experience a good and beautiful life.

In this book of Scripture and inspiration, bestselling author Adam Hamilton brings modern eyes to the most important set of ethics in history. He considers the commandments in their historical context, considering the meaning of each commandment in Hebrew, unpacking how Jesus reinterpreted them, and showing how every thou-shalt-not was intended to point to a life-giving "thou shalt." He also explores how the latest research in science and psychology illuminates these commandments, rightly understood, as a way of ordering one's life beautifully in the present day. In a culture marked by workaholicism, materialism, and social media-driven envy, God has given us a time-tested path that leads to gratitude, confidence, and peace.

The Leader Guide contains everything needed to guide a group through the six-week study.

Description

Luther and Calvin, the great reformers of the sixteenth century, are remembered for their writings and theological debates, but do we think of them as great missionaries? Can we learn from them for mission work today?

The Reformation had a defining and far-reaching impact on the western world and beyond. It shaped the development of Europe over the next 500 years. It not only touched on church life and key doctrinal issues but had implications in terms of ethics, the birth of liberal democracy, education, the arts, science, the economy and much more. This all evolved as part of Calvin's and Luther's evangelistic vision. With such a legacy, this vision is worth your attention.

"Superb! Calvin's renewed vision for mission and evangelism with his strategic thinking and initiatives for the advance of the gospel provide an urgent challenge for Christians today. The final chapter with its 'Ten Lessons for Today' is essential reading for any involved in church leadership and evangelism. You will benefit immensely from reading this book."

– D. Eryl Davies, Elder, Heath Evangelical Church, Cardiff & Consulting Editor, Evangelical Magazine

"... a simple yet profound look into the missionary heart of both Luther and Calvin. While certainly concerned with evangelism, theirs was a much more encompassing vision of the gospel: God's glory extended to the ends of the earth. For those looking to understand and imbibe this Reformation vision, let Brown be your guide."

– Coleman M. Ford, Co-founder of the Center for Ancient Christian Studies, Adjunct Instructor of Church History, Boyce College, Louisville, Kentucky

Sharon James – How Christianity Transformed The World

Description

Many people today would say that Christianity has done more harm than good to our world.

Sharon James argues, however, in seeking to love their neighbour and reflect God's moral character the followers of Jesus have had a largely positive impact on our society.

James takes a number of areas – education, healthcare, justice, human dignity – and traces the ways in which these benefits have spread with the gospel.

Chapter Headings:

- Freedom
- Religious Liberty

Nestled in a few verses in Luke's Gospel is a Jesus who would not have been tolerated today: He was not politically correct and He certainly did not try to save people's feelings.

Steven Lawson unpacks these few verses, looking at the unashamed honesty, passion, and urgency with which Jesus explains the life-long cost involved in choosing to follow Him.

True Christianity is the biggest sacrifice any person ever makes ... but it is in pursuit of the most precious prize ever glimpsed.

"A fickle or indifferent disciple is a contradiction. Here is a book every Christian ought to read and seriously take to heart."

– John MacArthur, Chancellor Emeritus, The Master's University and Seminary and Pastor-Teacher, Grace Community Church, Sun Valley, California

This book for those who are anxious gently directs our eyes back to Jesus. Taking the whole message of the gospel, Horatius Bonar shows us that although we cannot save ourselves by our character or our works, we can have peace in the finished work of Jesus Christ.

Horatius Bonar (1808–1889) was a minister in Scotland for over 50 years. He is best known today as the writer of many great hymns.

"There likely has never been a more attractive and yet definitive exposition of the Gospel message answering the age-old question offered by Job – How can a man be right with God? Horatius Bonar's Gospel primer provides for us an incomparable instrument for personal growth, evangelism and discipleship."

– Harry L. Reeder III, Senior Pastor, Briarwood Presbyterian Church, Birmingham, Alabama

The way of peace and the way of holiness lie side by side, or rather, they are one. That which bestows the one imparts the other; and he who takes the one takes the other also.

The Spirit of peace is the Spirit of holiness. The God of peace is the God of holiness.

In the companion work to his book God's Way of Peace, Horatius Bonar shows us that a life that has been saved is a life that is holy. The Spirit of God works in us to make us holy. The saving work of Christ on the cross has given us the victory over sin, but while we are on this earth we battle on. Read and be encouraged.

"A timeless and eloquent gem in authentic, biblical spirituality. Bonar reminds us we have been saved for holiness. This short treatise is a treasure as valuable as Luther's 'Freedom of the Christian' and Calvin's 'The Christian Life'"

– Natalie Brand, Author and Tutor for Women, Union School of Theology, Wales

Title: Church For Grown-Ups
 Author: John Benton
 Price: £6.99*
 Product Code: 9781527106802
 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Church
 Distribution: UK & Europe

In a self-centred, immature world the Church is called to be different.

Christians of all ages should be growing in spiritual maturity.

John Benton guides us through what the book of Philippians has to say about a maturing church and gives helpful suggestions for how this can be put into practice and shows the joy that can be ours when we live God's way.

"Watch out cruise-control Christians—you will never look at Philippians the same way again! ... John Benton deftly draws out six expectations Paul had for the church at Philippi (quality, priority, community, integrity, stability, and generosity). Every member of the Body of Christ would do well to read and reflect upon these truths for maturity in Christ. I profited much from this study."

The reality of being made in the image of God, but of being marred by sin, is the chief characteristic of the human race.

This separation from our Creator, and ultimate union with him through the death of his Son affects all aspects of our lives. The issue of identity and the value of human life have come to the fore in recent years and David McKay's short book reminds us of who God has created us to be.

"In these pocket-sized, packed-full pages, Professor David McKay has given us a wonderfully lucid, mind-renewing exposition of biblical teaching. His splendid book provides both the clarity and the stability we desperately need."

– Sinclair B. Ferguson, Chancellor's Professor of Systematic Theology, Reformed Theological Seminary, Jackson, Mississippi

We may associate a number of images with the Eastern Orthodox church – ornate church buildings, services with candles and incense, men wearing embellished robes – but what does the Eastern Orthodox church actually believe?

What are the similarities and differences between them and western evangelical churches? What is their history?

In this short book Panagiotis Kantartzis introduces us to Eastern Orthodoxy from an Evangelical perspective and tells us what we need to know.

"Pastor Kantartzis covers the most important points with clear, concise and well-researched prose. If you want the best engagement with Orthodoxy from an evangelical perspective, look no further.

We learn from an early age how to navigate the difficult emotions of life. Fear. Sadness. Worry. Loneliness. Rejection.

For some of us, we learn to avoid painful emotions. Others of us may "feed" our emotions through various temporary distractions. Still others may hide or cover them up. Yet the Bible teaches us to bring all our hurts to God.

'Tell God How You Feel' is a discipleship tool for parents to use in engaging their children with their emotions. Christina Fox uses warm encouraging story times to help children engage with the vivid, descriptive words of the Psalms of Lament, helping them develop the habit of turning to God during hard and difficult times.

Description

Explore the things that really matter for a successful ministry.

“Well done good and faithful servant.” Every ministry leader wants to hear these words when they meet their Lord. But what does successful ministry look like?

There are many books on leadership strategies and church structures, but this one looks at what matters most: the character and attitude of church leaders. It recognises that the spiritual health of the church leaders in large part determines the spiritual health of the congregation and therefore the success of the ministry.

In this short, punchy, challenging, and at times surprising book, Rico Tice draws on decades of experience in church leadership to call fellow pastors and others with oversight of areas of church ministry to define success biblically, fight their sin, lead themselves, and serve their churches. It will be a battle, but one worth fighting because personal holiness and godly leadership matter eternally.

A must-read on pastoral leadership for pastors, elders, worship leaders, youth leaders, and anyone else with a leadership role in church ministry.

About the Author

Rico Tice is Senior Minister (Evangelism) at All Souls Church, Langham Place in London. Born in Chile before being educated in England, Rico spent a year working at a church in inner city Liverpool and then studied history at Bristol University (where he was captain of the rugby team). He went on to graduate from theological college at Wycliffe Hall, Oxford.

Rico is a passionate evangelist, and the Founder of Christianity Explored Ministries. He is a regular speaker at missions and evangelistic events around the world, and is the author of Honest Evangelism and Capturing God.

Description

Discover how God uses the daily struggles and sacrifices of motherhood to make us more like Christ.

There are many books on motherhood but not many that talk about how hard it is – physically, mentally, and spiritually – and what to do when you reach your limits.

When Liz Wann became a mother, she was unprepared for how hard it would be. In this book, she writes honestly about these deeply challenging aspects of motherhood and how God works through them to make us more like his Son.

“Coming to the end of who I was, and what motherhood was stripping me of, was a good thing that drove me to Christ and to the power that he supplies in every failure and weakness of motherhood.” Liz Wann.

This short, easy-to-read book encourages mothers to depend on Christ when they reach the end of themselves. They will find that God will supply what they need to cope with the daily sacrifices and challenges of motherhood, and that he will use these struggles to make them more like Christ.

Liz has been involved with the ministries of Risen Motherhood and Revive Our Hearts, writing about how God has been working in her life through the hardships of motherhood.

About the Author

Liz Wann lives and writes in West Philadelphia.

She attended Rollins college in Winter Park, FL and received a B.A. in English and writing. She is a stay at home mum, but also does freelance writing for various ministries/publications, including Truth for Life with Alistair Begg.

Description

Today, forces are at work to strip the principles and precepts of faith from public venues or minimize their significance. Many progressive leaders are convinced that when Christianity disintegrates it will create peace on earth. But the loss of our heritage will merely create a spiritual vacuum that will be filled with folly, crammed with chaos, or invaded by Islam.

In 'Hope for This Present Crisis,' Dr. Youssef provides a diagnosis of the insanity of the current culture and a seven-step prescription for restoring sanity to a world gone mad. Here's the seven-step path to restoring a world gone mad:

- Remember the Truth – Stand firm on the truth of the gospel.
- Restore the Soul – Seek God's approval—not the approval of other people.
- Revitalize the Family – Guard your children from the horrors of the Internet.
- Reestablish the Classroom – Support conscientious, caring public school teachers.
- Respect our Freedoms – Know your rights.
- Reform our Society – Morally and spiritually purify yourself.
- Revive the Church – Demonstrate the forgiving love of Jesus at all times

About the Author

Dr. Michael Youssef was born in Egypt and lived in Lebanon and Australia before coming to the United States and fulfilling a childhood dream of becoming an American citizen. He holds degrees from Moore College in Sydney and Fuller Theological Seminary in Pasadena, California, and holds a doctorate in social anthropology from Emory University in Atlanta.

He founded The Church of the Apostles, which was the launching pad for Leading The Way's international ministry. Dr. Youssef has authored more than forty books, including popular titles such as Saving Christianity? and When the Crosses Are Gone. He and his wife, Elizabeth, reside in Atlanta.

Is it possible our world has gone mad? We are under siege and the war is not from without; it is from within. The collapse of the Roman Empire occurred in a single generation and was not so much the result of invasions by their enemies but the result of moral decay and internal corruption.

Similar patterns are emerging in America. We neglected or abandoned our traditional institutions long ago, but now it's time to take them back. Today, forces are at work to strip the principles and precepts of faith from public venues or minimize their significance.

Many progressive leaders are convinced that when Christianity disintegrates it will create peace on earth. But the loss of our heritage will merely create a spiritual vacuum that will be filled with folly, crammed with chaos, or invaded by Islam.

The reality is: Western civilization will become so decadent and reckless that America will collapse like a house of cards. In This Present Crisis, Dr. Youssef provides a diagnosis of the insanity of the current culture and a seven-step prescription for restoring sanity to a world gone mad.

Are you ready to go deeper in your relationship with the Holy Spirit?

From Passover to Pentecost is a fifty-day journey specifically designed to prepare you for a fresh and deep experience with the Holy Spirit.

In From Passover to Pentecost, Cynthia shares that the Bible tells us to count the fifty days beginning with Passover and ending with Pentecost, called in Hebrew Shavuot (Leviticus 23:15-16). It was on this fiftieth day called Pentecost that the first believers received the Holy Spirit (Acts 2).

They had been waiting in Jerusalem for the "Promise of the Father" when God's Spirit fell on them. I believe that as we wait upon the LORD from Passover to Pentecost, preparing our hearts by giving Him our love and devotion, we too can receive a fresh endowment of power and revelation through the ever-present living Spirit of God!

This book will encourage you to enter into a new place of intimacy with the Holy Spirit, and receive a fresh impartation of power and revelation.

Description

- A sacred place of intimacy with God.
- A weapon of spiritual warfare.
- A prophetic act that creates dynamic change.
- A catalyst for total healing.

Join Beni and Bill Johnson on this journey of rediscovery, and open yourself to a powerful encounter with the living God!

About the Authors

Beni and her husband, Bill Johnson, are the senior pastors of Bethel Church.

Beni has a call to intercession that is an integral part of the Bethel Church mission. She was pivotal in the development of Bethel's Prayer House as well as the intercession team. Beni also carries a call to see the church become healthy and whole in their bodies, souls, and spirits. Her heart is to see the people of God live lives that are healthy and free and see them pave the way to bringing health back to the world as God intended. Her passion for people, health, and intercession have all helped to bring the much-needed breakthrough in Bethel's ministry.

Beni's vision is to see the people of God live lives filled with joyful prayer, intercession, and complete wellness.

Description

Many churches and individuals now affirm the gay Christian life and cheer-on LGBTQ Pride. But what if the LGBTQ life isn't the party--for our neighbours, loved ones, or ourselves--that the world says it is? What if these valuable people are in pain? Pain that sex and Gay Pride won't heal?

After a life of hopelessness and a suicidal season over his confused sexual identity and unwanted same-sex desires, Ken discovered that Jesus offered real inner healing and intimate relationship. Since then, Ken has worked tirelessly to help others experience the same hope and transformation he found.

In The Journey Out, Ken Williams will...

- Demystify homosexuality and gender identity issues.
- Share stories of real transformation of sexual identity.
- Help you form an intimate connection with Jesus and journey toward wholeness and freedom.
- Lead you to meet with God in key areas crucial to growth.
- Offer wisdom for supporters: parents, family, friends, and pastors.

If you are longing to be deeply known and unconditionally loved, Jesus wants to fulfill those desires, regardless of your area of struggle. You will meet Him in the pages of 'The Journey Out' and discover a new life filled with true hope and enduring joy!

About the Author

Ken Williams encountered God as a supernatural good father after years of hopelessness and a suicidal struggle with homosexuality, and that CHANGED everything.

Ken is now married to his beautiful wife (since 2006), and they have four children together. He is a pastor (Redding, CA), co-leads an LGBTQ ministry (EquippedToLove.com), is co-founder of a movement of men and women who testify of transformation (CHANGEDmovement.com), and holds a B.S. in Marketing/Finance.

In this broken world, we encounter enemy attacks, personal injustice, and everyday trials. While Jesus never promised His people a trouble-free life, he did promise that their labour would not be in vain.

God promises to reimburse his people for every hardship they encounter: "Instead of your shame you will receive a double portion, and instead of disgrace you will rejoice in your inheritance." (Isaiah 61:7, NIV)

Tragically, many believers never access this divine plan for redeeming suffering.

It's time to be proactive. It's time to claim double blessing for the trials you've experienced!

Katherine Ruonala is a globally recognized pastor, speaker, and author. Though she operates in signs and wonders, she has also experienced her share of challenges and troubles. In the midst of a particularly dark season in her life, God revealed a supernatural strategy for restoration and supernatural recompense.

Description

Many Christians have a limited understanding of basic Bible doctrine, and this lack of knowledge breeds frustration and robs them of many blessings that belong to them as believers. Often they find themselves stumbling in the same areas over and over, missing out on the vibrant Christian life they know they should be experiencing.

In this book, Rick Renner puts these frustrations to rest as he guides the reader through the six basic doctrines every believer should know so that he can build his life in Christ on a solid foundation of Scripture and sound doctrine. Rick teaches:

- Repentance -- what it is, what it isn't, and how to do it.
- What is saving faith?
- Three baptisms in the New Testament.
- What is the laying on of hands?
- The doctrines of resurrection and eternal judgment.
- A transplant that will save your life.
- The missing link in many churches today and how it is affecting the whole Body of Christ.

What you will learn in these pages will help lay a foundation underneath your life -- or fortify the foundation that has already been laid -- so that you can live the life of fulfillment and contentment in Christ that God intends for you.

About the Author

Rick Renner, author of more than 30 books, is well known for his top-selling classics 'Sparkling Gems From the Greek' and 'Dressed To Kill'-- which have sold more than a million copies combined. Rick's broad understanding of the Greek language and biblical history opens up the Scriptures in a unique way that enables readers to gain wisdom and insight while learning something brand new from the Word of God.

A highly respected leader, teacher, and author within the Christian community, both in the U.S. and abroad, Rick and his wife Denise have traveled the earth for three decades, teaching the Word of God. They work together to see the Gospel preached, leadership trained and churches established throughout the former Soviet Union.

Description

The Scriptures give us a full-colour picture of a God who is moved by emotions such as yearning, love, and compassion. Our human emotions reflect the emotional qualities of our Creator, who made us in His own image. Feelings have a vital place in any believer's life, not just in those who have a more sensitive nature due to their personalities.

'The Feeler' by James W. Goll delivers a remarkable biblical perspective on our emotions and how they help us to discern and act on God's voice. We experience the love, joy, and presence of God with our feelings. Our emotions have an impact on our bodies, our level of holiness, our relationships, and our decisions.

The Bible tells us we need to have our "senses trained to discern good and evil" (Hebrews 5:14 NASB). What are we training? Both our natural senses and our spiritual senses. Our physical senses, with the addition of "knowing," correspond to our spiritual senses in these ways:

- Eyes (sight): visions and dreams
- Ears (hearing): voices and sounds
- Heart (touch): emotions and feelings
- Tongue (taste): good and evil
- Nose (smell): good and bad
- Mind (knowing): divine thoughts and impressions

This book will show you how to listen for and recognize the often subtle ways God's Spirit speaks to believers, as well as how to discern good and evil spirits. With consecrated gifts and senses, you can reach out to the body of Christ and to the world at large in both spiritual and practical ways, making you much better equipped to fulfill your role as an ambassador of the gospel.

Description

The Hidden Man by E. W. Kenyon is a masterly unveiling of the deeper walk in the Spirit.

“The hidden man of the heart” is the human spirit recreated in Christ. The only way to know God and the Lord Jesus Christ is through the spirit because this is how God imparts His messages to us. He unveils spiritual realities to our hidden man, and one of those vital messages is an understanding of our identity in Christ. It is of utmost importance that we understand who we are. Until we do, we can’t know the riches that belong to us and the abilities that are ours.

Faith, like wisdom, is a product of our spirit. Until our spirit gains mastery over our senses, our faith will never be strong and vigorous. Faith is developed and wisdom is enriched as we meditate and act on the Word of God.

The secret of the divine life is to learn how to live in the spirit realm and have one’s lamp filled with the oil of heaven. This book will open new spiritual vistas and make the Word a thrilling reality for you!

About the Author

E. W. Kenyon (1867–1948) was born in Saratoga County, New York. At age nineteen, he preached his first sermon. He pastored several churches in New England and founded the Bethel Bible Institute in Spencer, Massachusetts. (The school later became the Providence Bible Institute when it was relocated to Providence, Rhode Island.)

Kenyon served as an evangelist for over twenty years. In 1931, he became a pioneer in Christian radio on the Pacific Coast with his show, Kenyon’s Church of the Air, for which he earned the moniker “The Faith Builder.”

He also began the New Covenant Baptist Church in Seattle. In addition to his pastoral and radio ministries, Kenyon wrote extensively. Among his books are The Blood Covenant, In His Presence, Jesus the Healer, New Creation Realities, and Two Kinds of Righteousness.

Title: The Perfectionist: Growing As An Enneagram 1
 Author: Elisabeth Bennett
 Price: £13.50*
 Product Code: 9781641235686
 Format: Hard Cover
 Genre: Personal Growth
 Distribution: UK & Europe

The Enneagram is an ancient personality typology using nine points within a circle to represent nine distinct personality types. This sixty-day devotional is for the Perfectionist, number 1 of the Enneagram personality types.

This book will help Perfectionists, and those who love them, better understand how God created them and how best to use their unique gifts to serve Him and love others. It features a full explanation of what the Enneagram is and how it benefits people, followed by a full description of what it means to be a 1, including the Perfectionist's deadly sin and their greatest strength.

Some attributes of the Perfectionist:

- Motivation: To be good, have integrity, and achieve this by following the rules.
- Biggest Fear: Ones fear being evil or corrupt, unable to do good things or make a difference.
- Gut Triad: Ones, along with Eights and Nines, receive information through their gut, instinctively feeling if something is right or wrong. When Ones see others blatantly disobeying the "rules" that are very obvious to them, it triggers an anger response, and can cause Ones to be burdened by boiling frustration.

This sixty-day devotional is for the Guardian, number 6 of the Enneagram personality types.

This book will help Guardians, and those who love them, better understand how God created them and how best to use their unique gifts to serve Him and love others. It features a full explanation of what the Enneagram is and how it benefits people, followed by a full description of what it means to be a 6, including the Guardian's deadly sin and their greatest strength.

Some attributes of the Guardian:

- Motivation: Security: physical safety, having a supportive community, and maintaining the status quo.
- Biggest Fear: Sixes fear being without support or guidance. This, they fear, might lead to them making horrible life-altering decisions and choices.
- Head Triad: Sixes, along with Fives and Sevens, receive all information as something that needs to be thought over and analyzed before they can trust their feelings or gut to process it. This is the most pronounced in Sixes as they take information in as something to analyze...and then analyze their own conclusion.

Title: The Enthusiast: Growing As An Enneagram 7

Some attributes of the Enthusiast:

- Motivation: To be satisfied. This leads to Sevens pursuing the things they think will bring them happiness and true satisfaction in life.
- Biggest Fear: Sevens fear being deprived or in pain. They avoid negative emotions as much as possible.
- Head Triad: Sevens, along with Fives and Sixes, receive all information as something that needs to be thought over and analyzed before they can trust their feelings or gut to process it. Sevens take information in as something to analyze, and then they move on to feeling.

Charles Simeon (1759–1836) was one of the foremost evangelical leaders of the Anglican church. While based in Holy Trinity, Cambridge all his life, his influence stretched across the world.

John Stott said Charles Simeon was his mentor, through his writing, and that it was Simeon who taught him how to preach. He asked for words from Simeon’s memorial plaque in Holy Trinity Church to be written on his own headstone (in Dale churchyard in Pembrokeshire, near his writing retreat, The Hookses).

This short book looks at Simeon’s life, and tracks his legacy down to the present day. The Cambridge Inter-Collegiate Christian Union (CICCU) which formed the root of mission endeavour in many parts of the world, traces its beginnings to Simeon. He purchased advowsons (the right to appoint clergy) in many parishes, and Simeon’s Trustees (now merged with Hyndman’s Trust) continue to make these appointments.

The silhouette artist Edouart Augustin cut Simeon’s silhouettes as he preached. This book features each of the silhouettes.

Frances Whitehead was working for the BBC in London when Stott asked her to become his secretary. For 55 years she was his right hand: gatekeeper, administrator, typist, encourager and enabler.

In his Will, Stott named her as his 'friend and Executor'. Their partnership – unique, effective, and not without humour – has been described as "one of the greatest Christian partnerships of the 20th century".

But what lay behind the dogged determination, fiercely protective streak, occasional imperious tone, and ready, warm laughter Frances brought to her role?

This book tracks her life and glimpses her ancestry to find the answer.

The Protestant Reformation would change not only the Church, but business, culture, commerce and education. In short, it changed everything.

In the 16th century England had only two universities, Oxford and Cambridge. Each was to play a major role in the unfolding of a drama both terrible and glorious.

Through these pages we walk in the steps of graduates and faculty who became martyrs and leaders.

Where space allows, we also glance sideways at a few other milestones in Oxbridge Christian history.

 Format: Paperback
 Genre: General Interest
 Distribution: UK & Europe

Simeon-the-cat is the travel guide and the author. His main ambition in life is to become famous. He has also set his heart on meeting the White Rabbit.

While pursuing these goals in travelling around the city, he takes time to air his views on Mr Bean, the Internet, and on how the British do not value words, amid a host of other things.

Over-confident in his ability to reason, he enjoys talking with academics and students. He creates havoc in Blackwell's, finds a previously-undiscovered poem by Gerard Manley Hopkins, and lays plans to take the grin off the face of the Cheshire Cat.

Does he really meet the White Rabbit? It seems he does!

This is a travel guide to Oxford in a genre all its own.

Fourth edition. This book is for any church exploring a building project.

Principles are illustrated by stories, and it is full of practical advice. Church members will be asking good and genuine questions like 'Why spend money on buildings when the church is people?' 'Shouldn't we give the money to mission instead?'

The book seeks to engage with these questions. Any building project requires sacrificial giving. The author sets out to help people respond to that need in a thoughtful way.

The only book of its kind, to our knowledge.

Author: James Philip
Price: £5.99*
Product Code: 9781999662110
Format: Paperback
Genre: Devotional/ Easter & Lent
Distribution: UK & Europe

This fresh re-telling of the Easter story from the Last Supper to Calvary brings many new insights. The intrigue and betrayal in the air as the disciples ate; the fierce, costly love shown by Christ in Gethsemane, as his disciples slept; the illegal and unjust kangaroo court in the middle of the night; the drama of the earth becoming dark and quaking as the Son of God died.

Read the story anew, as told and interpreted by this pastor-theologian.

"From time to time a publication appears – of modest size and author – its value greater than a whole bookshelf of bestsellers. The Cross falls in that category. The fine quality of James Philip's mind will be immediately obvious. But his writing is also full of pathos. He is at one with his subject, and has clearly been more deeply impacted by it than by anything else."
 – Revd Prof Sinclair B. Ferguson, Chancellor's Professor of Systematic Theology, Reformed Theological Seminary.

Generosity is part of the Christian life. And the money we give has to be looked after with integrity. The apostle Paul teaches on both these aspects of handling money. Money is a risky business, always with temptation.

John Stott looks at the Apostle Paul's teaching (1 Corinthians 16 and 2 Corinthians 8,9) on Christian giving. How do we decide what to give? Is it ever right for our giving to go down, if circumstances change?

For general use in church life, or with particular reference to a giving appeal or building project.

Chris Wright takes the same passages, and opens out the Apostle's teaching on how to handle money with integrity and transparency.

For Treasurers or for anyone who is responsible for special appeals.

Questions included for personal reflection or for group discussion.

Description

Many books, programmes, and financial gurus will tell you what to do with your money, but God's Word is the ultimate source of financial wisdom.

First and foremost, it gives us our goal as Christians--not to be debt-free or to get rich but to glorify God in all things. All other financial principles in Scripture flow out of this high calling.

In an accessible Q&A format, biblical counsellor and former financial consultant Jim Newheiser presents financial wisdom that is grounded in faithful biblical exegesis and rooted in sound theology.

- What are common misunderstandings about money?
- How can you create and balance a budget?
- How can you get out of debt? What insurance do you need?

He answers these questions and more, providing a go-to resource for laypeople and those who counsel them.

About the Author

Jim Newheiser (MA, DMin, Westminster Theological Seminary) is director of the Christian Counselling programme and associate professor of practical theology at Reformed Theological Seminary in Charlotte.

Description

Suffering is common to the human experience. It is miserable to endure and a problem that has challenged sages, philosophers, theologians--and the person next door--for generations. Graciously, God provides us with an entire book of the Bible on this subject.

In 'Considering Job', Anthony T. Selvaggio demonstrates how God is glorified as both sovereign and good through the reality of human suffering. Selvaggio prepares us to courageously face suffering in our life and more effectively minister to others experiencing miseries in their lives. By embracing the wisdom of this ancient book of Job, we will be drawn closer to our holy, righteous, merciful, and good God.

Do the opening chapters of Genesis constitute real history?

Concerned with an apparent shift among conservative scholars to answer in the negative, Cornelis Van Dam argues that reading Genesis 1 and 2 as history is not only justified but necessary. Van Dam clarifies the different roles that ancient Near Eastern literature and scientific theories should play in our understanding of the Bible as he carefully deals with the exegetical details of the first two chapters of the Bible.

Pastors, students, and church leaders will find In the Beginning an informed guide that will restore their confidence in the complete reliability of the Genesis creation account.

Table of Contents:

- Introduction
- The Place of Extra-Biblical Evidence in Interpreting Scripture
- The Historicity of Genesis 1:1-2:3
- “In the Beginning”
- The Days of Creation
- “God Created”
- “The Heavens and the Earth” and Cosmology

Samuel Davies was Jonathan Edwards’s successor at what is now Princeton University. He is considered the founder of Southern Presbyterianism and was a key proponent of religious tolerance and social justice in early eighteenth-century America.

He convinced the king of England to be tolerant to the American colonies in matters of religious observance and was also a champion of educating slaves in accordance with their equal standing in heaven.

His prime legacy, however, is in the form of his sermons. Davies was regarded as one of the preeminent evangelists of his era and its finest preacher.

All three volumes of this collection of Davies’s sermons are titled Sermons on Important Subjects, and all three show the vitality that pervaded Davies’s oratory. These are indeed important writings on important subjects.

Christian biographies for young readers.

No one could have imagined that the frail, enslaved, seven-year-old girl who arrived in Boston, Massachusetts, in 1761 would become the first published African American, achieving fame for her poetry in both America and England.

After arriving, Phillis quickly learned to read the Bible and other classic literature, publishing her first poem in 1767 when she was thirteen and a book of poetry in 1773.

Her poetry encouraged freedom for all people, and she proved to a doubting generation that intelligence and creativity are not limited to a particular ethnicity.

Through Phillis’s story, young readers will learn the importance of trusting God’s plan while standing up for justice and the good of other human beings.

Description

Have you ever been asked by a stranger, “Are you saved?” Many Christians use this question as an opportunity to tell someone about Jesus.

But a common response to that question might catch us off guard: “Saved from what?” Until this essential question can be answered, we won’t be able to make sense of Christ’s sacrifice or explain it to others.

In ‘Saved from What?’, Dr. R.C. Sproul reveals that the greatest danger we face is the holy wrath of God against our sin. But the glory of the gospel is that the One from whom we need to be saved is the very One who saves us.

As we better understand the severity of our sin and the sufficiency of Christ’s atonement, the truth of God’s grace will deepen our worship and drive us to make His salvation known.

About the Author

Dr. R.C. Sproul (1939–2017) was founder of Ligonier Ministries, an international Christian discipleship organization located near Orlando, Fla. He was also founding pastor of Saint Andrew’s Chapel in Sanford, Fla., first president of Reformation Bible College, and executive editor of Tabletalk magazine.

His radio programme, Renewing Your Mind, is still broadcast daily on hundreds of radio stations around the world and can also be heard online.

Dr. Sproul contributed dozens of articles to national evangelical publications, spoke at conferences, churches, colleges, and seminaries around the world, and wrote more than one hundred books, including The Holiness of God, Chosen by God, and Everyone’s a Theologian. He also served as general editor of the Reformation Study Bible.
