Phil Wickham – Hymn of Heaven CD

Description

Phil Wickham’s 15 year career hit a high note with his last release, the critically acclaimed project ‘Living Hope.’

That impetus continues with his latest musical collaboration ‘Hymn of Heaven.’ Written during 2020 when people were not able to meet in person, Phil realised that the place where God dwells is not made by hands, or by man, but something that is inside of us.

This project brings to life joy that isn’t based on circumstances but identify in Christ alone. The first single “Battle Belongs” has already garnered success on radio and CCLI charts. It is evidence that Phil has cemented himself as one of the hymn creators of our generation.

Crowder – Milk & Honey CD

Description

Genre-defying artist and multi-instrumentalist Crowder announced a brand new studio album 'Milk & Honey'.

"The title "Milk and Honey" is about promise. When God brought his people out of Egypt, He was leading them to the land of Canaan, a land full of every good thing, flowing with milk and honey. But to get there, He led them into the wilderness...

During a season of desolation and wandering, I've been writing songs to remind me that we are headed somewhere beyond this — songs that remind me that it is the God of Abraham and Isaac, the God of Jacob, Moses and David, the God who promised a Saviour and a way back to Him, it is He that we follow and He has not left us alone. On the other side of the desert is a land of covenant promise...

This album is a celebration of the future we are marching towards together and a prayer that each of us can live in this promise in the here and now."

The Belonging Co. – See The Light 2CD

Description

The Belonging Co is set to release their third full-length album, 'See The Light'. Singles "Every Victory," feat. Danny Gokey, "Turn Your Eyes," feat. Natalie Grant, and "The Truth" feat. Lauren Strahm, lead the way for the 17-song collection of worship moments, captured over two years of church services and conferences, led by Ben Cantelon, Cody Carnes, Hope Darst, Mia Fieldes, Andrew Holt, Kari Jobe, Daniella Mason, Maggie Reed, Sarah Reeves, and Henry Seeley.

The Belonging Co is a local church based in Nashville, TN. These anthems serve as declarations of truth and are a reflection of their mandate, "Encounter over Entertainment. Intimacy over Industry. Presence over Presentation. People over Position. Jesus over everything."

Hope Darst – Peace Be Still CD

Description

Hope has been a worship leader for the past 15 years where she and her family are currently part of the congregation at The Belonging Co. in Nashville.

Within the track list of Hope Darst's debut album 'Peace Be Still' lies a rich variety, including layers of melodies that stake their claim in the pop genre, but with the heart of intimate worship lyrics. The immediate rhythm and almost cinematic orchestration of "Let It Out" grab your emotions and thrust you into a joyful shout.

Hope says "A lot of these songs are songs that I was writing on the journey where I was in life. I wasn't writing to be an artist. I was writing as a believer and as a worship leader."

Paul Wilbur – We Call Your Name EP CD

Description

In thousands of concerts, numerous recordings and over 3 million units in album sales, Paul Wilbur speaks a language of melody and meaning that goes straight to the heart.

With 'We Call Your Name,' Paul, along with Jesse Reeves ("How Great Is Our God", "Indescribable", "Our God") and other well-known songwriters, have written 5 new worship anthems, which have already been sung at worship gatherings and broadcasts with tremendous response. These songs resonate so strongly that Paul decided to release them as an EP, with a second EP expected later this year.

The songs on 'We Call Your Name' speak to the days in which we find ourselves as believers and as a church. They bring inspiration, peace and confidence in knowing who it is that we call on, and His great love for us!

Track Listing:

01. The Battle Is Yours

Description

'Christopher' is native Georgia rapper Hulvey's debut studio album, as well as his third project released under Reach Records since the 2020 EPs 'Prelude' and 'BRKNHRT'. Named after the artist's first name, the record was written and produced almost entirely from scratch.

Overall, Christopher represents an even more adventurous effort in comparison to Hulvey's previous projects, thanks to a considerable amount of diverse sounds and creative ideas. A short interlude ideally separates the first part of the album, which sees Hulvey reflect on his past experiences while being mainly influenced by hip-hop atmospheres (on songs like the opener "Can't Tell It All" and "Cold Nights"), from the second one, more introspective and inspired by worship and Gospel atmospheres (including tracks like "Holy Spirit" and "Nothing Without Jesus").

Features guest appearances from Andy Mineo and Lecrae.

The Inspirations – What A Wonderful Time Live CD

Description

Formed in 1964, The Inspirations is one of Gospel music's longest-standing quartets. The group's distinct sound is instantly recognisable and has changed little across 57 years of recordings – no matter who was singing.

Recorded at the 2020 National Quartet Convention's Fall Festival in Tennessee, this album takes listeners on a musical journey through the Inspirations' storied career.

'What a Wonderful Time Live' starts with Lester Flatt and Earl Scruggs' classic "Reunion In Heaven," then transitions to one of the group's most recognised and requested songs "Jesus Is Coming Soon," originally recorded in 1968.

Track Listing:

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| 01. Reunion In Heaven                     | 07. When He Belesed My Soul            |
| 02. Jesus Is Coming Soon                  | 08. Home Is Sounding Sweeter           |

Description

Billy Blue Records announces the release of new music from the International Bluegrass Music Association's (IBMA) 2019 Entertainers of the Year, Joe Mullins & The Radio Ramblers.

“Hear Jerusalem Calling” is the first single from the all-gospel album ‘Somewhere Beyond the Blue’.

The 11 tracks of soul-touching music once again shines a light on the band's quartet singing featuring Mullins, Adam McIntosh and Randy Barnes along with new Radio Rambler Jeff Parker. Jason Barie rounds out the quintet who bring plenty of bluegrass drive to this poignant collection of songs with a message.

Track Listing:

- |                               |  |
|-------------------------------|--|
| 01. Hear Jerusalem Calling    | 07. With the Spirit of the Lord Inside |

John Lennox & Kevin Sorbo – Against the Tide DVD

Description

Against the Tide is a travelogue, an examination of modern science, an excursion into history, an autobiography, and more. But at heart, it is the story of one man's daring stand against the tide of contemporary atheism and its drive to relegate belief in God to society's catalogue of dead ideas.

Sitting in the warmth of the Eagle and Child pub, where C.S. Lewis and J.R.R. Tolkien once gathered, Kevin Sorbo and Prof. Lennox begin a journey to discover how the Christian faith stands against atheism.

Prof. Lennox examines the consequences of an atheistic worldview, as he recounts his travels in Soviet Europe. He brings this experience to his debates with prominent atheists, including Christopher Hitchens and Richard Dawkins.

As Kevin Sorbo and Prof. Lennox walk where Jesus taught – from the top of Mount Precipice to the Sea of Galilee – they dive deeper into the story of Christianity. Standing at the Garden Tomb in Jerusalem, they reach the crux of their conversation: do science and history refute the Bible?

Description

A teenage boy raised entirely “off the grid” in the Appalachian Mountains, suddenly finds himself homeless, alone, and lost in a hi-tech modern world that he has never known before. Snatched from the jaws of the foster care system by a sympathetic deputy sheriff, who takes him into her home against the wishes of her troubled family.

Problems grow from bad to worse as he discovers the truth about himself and uncovers secrets about his past that bring new meaning to the phrase “testing your faith.”

Description

How to grow in love for your church.

God calls us to be “devoted to one another in love” (Romans 12:10). What does this look like for us today? How can we be the kind of church member who makes a real difference?

This engaging book by Tony Merida explores what church is, why being part of it is exciting, and why it’s worthy of our love and commitment. He sets out eight privileges and responsibilities of a church member: to belong, to welcome, to gather, to care, to serve, to honor, to witness and to send.

As we see how wonderful it is to belong to God’s family and be a part of his amazing witness to both the earthly and the heavenly realms, we’ll grow in our love for and commitment to our local church.

This is a great book for every churchgoer to read, whether they’re new or have been attending for some time but need re-energizing with God’s vision for the local church.

With a discussion guide at the end of the book, ‘Love Your Church’ is also a great resource for small groups.

About the Author

Tony Merida is Pastor for Preaching and Vision of Imago Dei Church, Raleigh, NC; Content Director for Acts 29; and a Council member of The Gospel Coalition.

He is the author of a number of books, including Ruth For You, The Christ-Centered Expositor, and Ordinary.

He and his wife, Kimberly, have five adopted children.

Description

Whether mildly, moderately or severely, feeling anxious is something most of us experience at some point in our lives. At its core, it's a fear—a sense of worry or tension—about what is or what might occur, but it's not one that helps. It drags us down—it doesn't enable us to thrive—and it leaves us unequipped for the day ahead.

This short, sympathetic and warm book will help both Christian and non-Christian readers understand anxiety better, learn some useful techniques to cope with it and, most importantly, show how the living God can liberate us from its grip.

Whether you are used to reading about God or not even sure if he really exists (or if he cares about your anxiety in any meaningful way), this book has precious words of encouragement for you.

“As you read, it is my prayer that you will come to see real hope and take the first few steps in a lifetime of change.” Helen Thorne, author.

Ideal for giving away to those who are feeling anxious—whether Christian or non-Christian.

About the Author

Helen Thorne is Director of Training and Resources at Biblical Counselling UK and an experienced counsellor.

She formerly worked with London City Mission and has written Purity is Possible, Walking with Domestic Abuse Suffers and 5 Things to Pray for Your City.

She attends Dundonald Church in Raynes Park, London.

Description

Inspiration from the book of Hebrews on how to live by faith in Jesus.

As Christians, we experience great joy in knowing God through Jesus and great hope in the promise of an eternity spent with God. Yet we still get weary in this life and can feel discouraged. Whether it's personal disappointment, opposition or just the costly grind of church life that gets us down, we all need help to keep going.

This wonderfully encouraging book by Bible expositor Richard Coekin will spur you on to live by faith in Jesus as you examine the witnesses of Hebrews 11. The refreshing honesty of their stories will help you manage your expectations in a world of lies and spin. They will remind you of the glory and blessing that await you at the finishing line. And they will encourage you to see that Jesus is the real Hero of the faith and that his Spirit will enable you to endure through exhaustion, opposition and discouragement.

Ideal for private devotional reading for those in need of refreshment, a timely gift for a discouraged Christian friend, and useful background reading to a small-group study of Hebrews 11.

About the Author

Richard Coekin is CEO of the London-wide Co-Mission church-planting network and Senior Pastor of Dundonald Church, one of Co-Mission's churches in South West London.

A renowned Bible teacher and the author of several books including Our Father and Ephesians For You,

Richard is married to Sian and they have five children.

Title: Servants For His Glory: A Call to Christlikeness in a World of Performance
 Author: Miguel Núñez
 Price: £14.50*
 Product Code: 9781087741888
 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Spiritual Growth
 Distribution: UK & Europe

Being is greater than doing. We all come into the world with a certain emptiness in our lives—an emptiness that leads to a search for meaning. And the world tells us that search for meaning can be solved by doing.

Unfortunately, an overemphasis on doing has led many people away from cultivating an interior life that allows them to sustain their exterior life. This explains the many failures we continuously see in day-to-day life.

When a person's inner life—who he or she is—is not prepared, that person's character does not have the maturity or the strength to sustain them in the long run.

In this book, Miguel Núñez points us to Scripture and experience to show us how being is more important than doing. He teaches us how to cultivate the foundations of our lives, so that we can be what we need to be, in order to do what we need to do.

Title: Why Believe: Christian Apologetics for a Skeptical Age
 Author: Tawa J. Anderson
 Price: £15.99*
 Product Code: 9781087724232
 Format: Hard Cover
 Genre: Apologetics
 Distribution: UK & Europe

Why bother with apologetics? Because the truth about God is worth understanding.

In an age of skepticism, the truth of the gospel can be difficult to defend. Faithful Christians may struggle to explain the reasons for their beliefs; they may even doubt that their faith is rational at all.

In the face of difficult questions of truth, Why Believe? offers a clear path forward: a Christian apologetic that is both winsome and sound. It provides accessible explanations of several core concerns of apologetics, from arguments for the existence of God and the validity of Christ's resurrection to common questions about the practice of faith.

Most important, Why Believe? argues that Christianity is not only reasonable, but also fulfilling. Only through Christianity can we know Jesus, who is "the way, the truth, and the life" (John 14:6).

 Price: £14.50*
 Product Code: 9781087712949
 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Christian Ministry
 Distribution: UK & Europe

In a 2011 State of the City Address, the mayor of pastor and author Mark Hearn's city said there were fifty-seven languages spoken at the local high school. Hearn left asking himself, How should our church respond?

This question led to a movement that brought First Baptist Duluth to reflecting its surrounding community. This journey was captured in Pastor Hearn's first book, Technicolor: Inspiring Your Church to Embrace Multicultural Ministry

Now, nearly five years after Technicolor, members of his congregation discuss the joys, struggles, and triumphs of being a part of a multi-ethnic church- providing a glimpse of the nature of a church that reflects its community.

Few books have more influenced those called to gospel ministry than Charles Spurgeon's Lectures to My Students. This influence of this book, like the Prince of Preachers himself, reverberates to our present age.

Carrying forward this tradition is Jason Allen's Letters to My Students. Dr. Allen serves as president of Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary and Spurgeon College, the former ranking as one of the largest and fastest growing seminaries in North American.

Dr. Allen has also served in multiple pastorates. His passion to serve the church by equipping a generation of pastors, missionaries, and ministers for faithful service is reflected in Letters to My Students.

Letters to My Students is a biblical, accessible guide for ministers and ministers-in-training. It brings both biblical and practical wisdom to bear on the minister's three main responsibilities: preaching, leading, and shepherding the flock of God.

Martin Lloyd-Jones famously described the call to ministry as the highest, greatest, and most glorious calling to which one can be called. If this assessment resonates with you, you'll want every available tool to strengthen your ministry. Letters to My Students is one such resource.

Description

When stress abounds, soothe your anxious heart with peace and praise.

From constant waves of negative news to meeting family, career, and community needs, women today often feel more anxious than ever. Amidst the clamor of the world and the internal longings for peace, our overwhelming need is for more of God's extraordinary presence, peace, and power in our lives.

Join Becky Harling for a 6-week study that looks to Psalm 94:19: "When anxiety was great within me, your consolation brought me joy!" The Extraordinary Power of Praise will help you put into practice the two-step process for soothing an anxious heart: finding joy to replace anxiety and learning to pour out our hearts to God in praise. Each day includes a study of a Psalm, thought provoking questions, and short morning and evening prayers. You'll also find suggested praise songs and prayer journaling prompts to help you engage more deeply with God. As you meditate on the Psalms throughout this 6-week study, you'll experience the genuine joy of God's presence, develop a positive outlook in the midst of the world's stress, and find victory over fear and anxiety.

The Extraordinary Power of Praise is suited for both individual and group use. For more of Becky's engaging, empathetic Bible teaching, go deeper into this study with the companion video series, available on DVD or for download. You can also find more peace through the Psalms with Becky's latest daily devotional Psalms for the Anxious Heart.

About the Author

BECKY HARLING has a degree in Biblical Literature and is a sought-after speaker and Bible teacher at women's conferences and retreats. Through her writing, Becky creatively combines deep biblical insight with her powerful testimony and the stories of other women. Her life experiences as a pastor's wife, parent of four adult children, grandmother of five grandchildren, women's ministries director, survivor of breast cancer and sexual abuse bring depth to her message. She brings a message of hope and healing that is refreshingly transparent. Becky is a gifted communicator with a passion for helping women find hope, healing, freedom, and ultimately life transformation through Jesus Christ.

She is the author of Rewriting Your Emotional Script, Freedom From Performing, The 30 Day Praise Challenge, The 30 Day Praise Challenge for Parents, How to Listen So People Will Talk, Who Do You Say That I AM, an 8-week Bible study, and Psalms for the Anxious Heart.

Have you ever seriously questioned Christianity?

If so, you're not alone. A lot of people have wondered if this faith is outdated . . . irrelevant . . . maybe even harmful. But what if everything is not as it seems? What if there's more to the story? What if you've never actually encountered real Christianity?

'Questioning Christianity' explores the nature and relevance of the Christian story in an accessible and compelling way. No slogans. No politics. No simple solutions to complex problems. After many years of exploring issues of faith with skeptics, seekers, and new believers, Dan Paterson and Rian Roux serve as guides to help you navigate what can be a disorienting and confusing journey.

Perhaps you're feeling lost, unable to find your bearings, and you need some help to map out the terrain around you. Or maybe you've encountered obstacles and have hard questions that need to be addressed before you can move ahead.

Whatever it is that has made you curious about this faith, there are good answers waiting to be discovered.

So go ahead. Question Christianity. Just give Christianity the chance to answer back.

About the Author

DAN PATERSON is a Christian thinker and the founder of Questioning Christianity, a ministry connecting the Christian story to life's deepest questions. With a personal background of wrestling through the problem of evil, he has earned several university qualifications in Theology and Apologetics in Australia and Oxford, fueled by a passion to help others process their doubts and discover the relevance and reasonableness of faith in Jesus. Speaking regularly to audiences around Australia and beyond, Dan is based in Brisbane, where together with his wife, Erin, their favorite job is raising three boys.

Originally from South Africa, RIAN ROUX spent his adolescence in a small fishing and farming community in the far north of Australia. Intrigued by the stories that shape our lives, he travelled widely and pursued studies in Applied Science, Education, and Theology. After a year at Oxford University, he commenced a PhD in Australia with a focus on transformative learning and student leadership development in higher education. Rian has experience in pastoral ministry, teaching, and business and currently lives and works in Toowoomba with his wife, Sally, and their three children.

Description

Good things come to those who believe . . . right?

People like to say, “Prayer works.” But what does that mean? Prayer works for what? Getting the answers from God that we want so much?

While God certainly cares for your deepest needs, Skye Jethani wants you to know that prayer is so much more than a two-way transaction with a heavenly vending machine. Jesus didn't pray like that. And with a pastor's heart, Skye wants to take you deeper into what Jesus, the lover of your soul, had to say about talking with God.

In What If Jesus Was Serious . . . About Prayer?, you'll benefit not only from Skye's words of wisdom but his doodles that help the visual learner connect with spiritual truth. Prayer isn't about getting answers, but getting God. We need more prayer in our lives--not because God can give us what we crave, but because He offers himself to us in love.

About the Author

SKYE JETHANI is an author, speaker, consultant and ordained pastor. He also serves as the co-host of the popular Phil Vischer Podcast, a weekly show that blends astute cultural and theological insights with comical conversation.

He has been a sought after consultant for groups facing challenges at the intersection of faith and culture like The Lausanne Movement, The White House Office of Faith-Based and Neighborhood Partnerships, and the Interfaith Youth Core. Skye has authored three books, The Divine Commodity: Discovering a Faith Beyond Consumer Christianity, WITH: Reimagining the Way You Relate to God, and Futureville.

Skye and his wife Amanda have three children: Zoe, Isaac, and Lucy and reside in Wheaton, IL.

Format: Hard Cover
Genre: Bible Studies
Distribution: UK & Europe

The New Testament shouldn't be complicated. So why are we often confused? Every Christian wants to love the Bible. But let's face it: we sometimes get lost in all the names, places, and doctrines that we find in its pages.

Who wrote this epistle? Which book is about justification? Joy? Jesus? Aren't they all about him? The New Testament contains complex ideas and multiple genres. Keeping it straight can be hard to do.

Wouldn't it be nice if somebody who understands the big picture would put it together for us in one place? Biblical scholar and seminary professor Patrick Schreiner draws from his years of experience as a teacher to offer a simple and memorable way of understanding Scripture. And he doesn't do it by throwing big words at you.

The contours of the New Testament and its underlying structure are depicted in visual format along with Schreiner's clear explanations. In The Visual Word, the Bible comes alive because you can see it pictured before your eyes. By taking a graphic approach, you'll notice connections you've never seen before. Gain insights you've missed all these years. And discover an overall pattern that makes each separate piece fall perfectly into place.

Is "Joy-Building" the secret to raising mature healthy kids?

Joy-filled kids aren't always happy kids, but they do know how to work for and wait for what is truly satisfying in life. In The 4 Habits of Raising Joy-Filled Kids you will discover a tool box full of skills that you can use with your children to help them grow in maturity and live with greater joy.

These tools help your kids, from infants to teens, build skills like:

- Regulating upset emotions so they can return to joy
- Forming a stable identity that doesn't change with each new emotion
- Developing discernment to distinguish between what is satisfying and what is only temporarily pleasurable
- Discovering heart values and not just living to please others
- Building "joy bonds" rather than "fear bonds"

The skills you'll learn in The 4 Habits of Raising Joy-Filled Kids will not only help you parent your children well, but they will also help you grow joy in your family.

Description

What do you need? When is the last time someone asked you this question? If it's been too long or you can't remember, this book is for you.

Really think about it. Take a deep breath. Sit in that stillness for a minute. Listen to what your heart, mind, or soul is truly longing for. Then, give that request its due attention.

Do you need...

- a fresh start?
- boldness?
- to hear everything will be okay?
- a day at the beach?
- prayer for a future and a hope?

Author Hope Lyda is at your service and here to provide insight, understanding, levity, a listening ear, and coaching for that inspired next step. Each chapter comes with a "care package" that contains a special wish for you, wisdom from God, practical application, and a personal affirmation.

Gift this one-of-a-kind book to a loved one when you can't be there to offer support or embrace this opportunity for some well-deserved self-care.

Description

When missionary Micah Wilder set his sights on bringing a Baptist congregation into the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, he had no idea that he was the one about to be changed. Yet when he finally came to know the God of the Bible, Micah had no choice but to surrender himself no matter the consequences.

For a passionate young Mormon who had grown up in the Church, finding authentic faith meant giving up all he knew: his community, his ambitions, and his place in the world. Yet as Micah struggled to reconcile the teachings of his Church with the truths revealed in the Bible, he awakened to his need for God's grace. This led him to be summoned to the door of the mission president, terrified but confident in the testimony he knew could cost him everything.

Passport to Heaven is a gripping account of Micah's surprising journey from living as a devoted member of a religion based on human works to embracing the divine mercy and freedom that can only be found in Jesus Christ.

"A passport gives you permission to travel to a desired destination. Through this personal story, my friend Micah Wilder will take you on an exciting and inspiring adventure that is wilder than you could imagine--big-church religion, hopes shattered, heavenly revelation, new life, facing challenges with the courage of a warrior, and miraculous deliverance. Buckle up for an unforgettable ride with Passport to Heaven!"
--Kirk Cameron, actor and producer

About the Author

Micah Wilder is a cofounder of Adam's Road, a ministry dedicated to sharing the gospel through song and testimony.

Micah was raised a faithful Latter-day Saint, and at the age of 19, he began two years of mission work in Florida. Incredibly, he became born again while still serving his mission.

Micah lives in Florida with his wife, Alicia, and their three sons.

Title: Image Dei
Author: Ryan McKenzie
Price: £7.99*
Product Code: 9780736979528
Format: Board Book
Genre: Children's Books
Distribution: UK & Europe

This colourful and creative board book explains to little ones in simple terms how each of us is made in God's image and therefore all equally worthy of love and respect. Each one of us is specially imprinted with the Imago Dei, the image of God.

This board book, part of the Little Seminary series for little ones, explores the many ways we reflect God's image and are His representatives here on earth.

And because we are each a reflection of God, children will learn that people of all types and backgrounds are to be treated with equal love and kindness.

Coupled with vibrant illustrations that will capture kids' imaginations, Imago Dei will help kids begin to see their place in God's plan for humanity, build positive self-image, and open young eyes to the bigger world around them.

Title: The Trinity

Price: £7.99*
Product Code: 9780736979504
Format: Board Book
Genre: Children's Books
Distribution: UK & Europe

This colourful and creative board book explains the complexities of the trinity in simple and accurate terms that will help little ones get to know God.

The trinity—the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit—can be a difficult concept for adults to grasp, let alone children.

This board book, part of the Little Seminary series for little ones, explores the three persons of God, explaining how each is fully God, how they each have different roles, and how they perfectly love each other, just as God perfectly loves us.

Coupled with vibrant illustrations that will capture kids' imaginations, the Trinity familiarizes children with the threefold nature of God and brings them one step closer to a future relationship with Jesus.

The Little Seminary series for children ages infant to four introduces little ones to complex theological concepts in a simple yet biblically accurate way, moving them closer toward a working knowledge of Christianity and a lifelong relationship with Jesus.

Description

If you are a man who is stuck and empty and ready for change, this is the book for you. If you are someone who would love to see the man in your life with the spark you used to see in his eyes, this book is a superb gift for him.

When people hear the word hero these days, the movie cliché of a superhero rescuing a desperate woman instantly comes to mind. But answering the call to be a godly hero is far from that mistaken scenario. The lives of too many guys are full of pain and frustration and an aimless desire to either medicate the pain or find another victim to rescue--the furthest thing from being a hero. The world needs men who are running on all cylinders, passionate about what they do. In The Soul of a Hero, bestselling authors and respected counselors Stephen Arterburn and David Stoop guide men to a better, hope-filled life by helping them rediscover their true God-given calling: to be a hero.

When men live into their true identity as heroes, temptations lose their allure and depression gives way to energy. Men who once felt as if their best years were behind them find a second wind to help them live every moment to its fullest. This book calls and equips men to become the heroes their wives, sons, daughters, friends, and coworkers want and need them to be.

In 'The Soul of a Hero,' you will learn how to start from empty and transform yourself into a man who is thriving with purpose, joy, and true grit.

About the Author

Stephen Arterburn is the founder and chairman of New Life Ministries--the nation's largest faith-based broadcast, counselling, and treatment ministry--and is the host of the nationally syndicated "New Life Live!" daily radio programme heard on over 180 radio stations nationwide. Steve is also the founder of the Women of Faith conferences, attended by over 3 million women.

Steve is a nationally known public speaker and has been featured in national media venues such as "Oprah," "Inside Edition," "Good Morning America," "CNN Live," the "New York Times," "USA Today," and "US News & World Report." In August 2000, Steve was inducted into the National Speakers Association's Hall of Fame. A best-selling author, Steve has written over 60 books, including the popular Every Man's series and his most recent book, "Healing Is a Choice." He has been nominated for numerous writing awards and has won four Gold Medallion Awards for writing excellence.

Steve has degrees from Baylor University and the University of North Texas as well as two honorary doctorate degrees. Steve resides with his family in Laguna Beach, California.

Description

Whispered secrets about her parents' past take on new urgency for Chariline as she pays one last visit to the land of her forefathers, the ancient kingdom of Cush.

Raised as an orphan by her aunt, Chariline has only been told a few pieces of her parents' tragic love story. Her beautiful dark skin is proof that her father was Cushite, but she knows nothing else. While visiting her grandfather before his retirement as the Roman official in the queen's court, Chariline overhears that her father is still alive, and discovering his identity becomes her obsession. Both her grandfather and the queen have reasons for keeping this secret, however, and forbid her quest. So when her only clues lead to Rome, Chariline sneaks on the ship of a merchant trusted by friends.

Theo is shocked to discover a stowaway on board his vessel and determines to be rid of her as soon as possible. But drawn in by Chariline's story, he feels honour-bound to see her safely to shore, especially when it appears someone may be willing to kill for the truth she seeks.

In this transformative tale of historical fiction, bestselling author Tessa Afshar brings to life the kingdom of Cush and the Roman Empire, introducing readers to a fascinating world filled with gripping adventure, touching romance, and a host of lovable characters—including some they may recognize from the biblical book of Acts.

About the Author

TESSA AFSHAR is the Publishers Weekly best-selling author of biblical and inspirational historical fiction, including Harvest of Gold which won a Christy Award and Land of Silence, which won an INSPY.

The Way Home: God's Invitation to New Beginnings is Afshar's critically acclaimed Bible study based on the book of Ruth, which won the ECPA Christian Book of the Year Award, 2021 in the Bible Study Category.

Born in the Middle East, Tessa spent her teen years in England and later moved to the United States. Her conversion to Christianity in her twenties changed the course of her life. She holds a Master of Divinity from Yale, where she served as co-chair of the Evangelical Fellowship for a year.

With so many "experts" touting different approaches to raising thriving children, how do you know which is the best one?

Dr. Rhonda Spencer-Hwang, professor of public health at Loma Linda University and mum of three, had the same question. As a member of a community known worldwide for its health and longevity, often referred to as a Blue Zone, she decided to study the area's many centenarians to find out what they—or their parents—did right in childhood to make them so resilient to stress, disease, and the adversities of life.

In Raising Resilient Kids, Dr. Spencer-Hwang reveals the intriguing findings from her research and offers eight principles for raising happier, healthier children who are equipped to flourish despite life's inevitable adversities.

Readers of Raising Resilient Kids will learn how to:

- Empower children with determination, motivation, and empathy
- Win over picky eaters and others who resist new routines
- Reduce negative stress and boost happiness
- Instill the values that motivate children to serve and help others
- Enhance academic performance through healthy habits
- Help kids begin to explore their passions and purpose.

 Genre: Historical Fiction

For fans of bestselling WWII fiction comes a powerful novel from Lynn Austin about three women whose lives are instantly changed when the Nazis invade the neutral Netherlands.

Lena is a wife and mother who farms alongside her husband in the tranquil countryside. Her faith has always been her compass, but can she remain steadfast when the questions grow increasingly complex and the answers could mean the difference between life and death?

Lena's daughter Ans has recently moved to the bustling city of Leiden, filled with romantic notions of a new job and a young Dutch police officer. But when she is drawn into Resistance work, her idealism collides with the dangerous reality that comes with fighting the enemy.

Miriam is a young Jewish violinist who immigrated for the safety she thought Holland would offer. She finds love in her new country, but as her family settles in Leiden, the events that follow will test them in ways she could never have imagined.

The story that unfolds illuminates the surprising endurance of the human spirit and the power of faith

Description

Does God have a hope to offer us in times of pain? Can God meet and sustain us even if our circumstances don't improve?

One of the few guarantees in life is that we will suffer. Everything around us is broken. Each of us has an expiration date. A few years ago, Eric and his wife, Elizabeth, together with their young children, were confronted with this unavoidable reality when she was faced with a terminal cancer diagnosis.

Shattered by grief, they began to wrestle with what it means to follow Jesus when everything around them seemed to be giving way. What this pastor and his wife discovered were a set of truths about God from Scripture that provided the resources they needed to survive – truths too often neglected by the modern world. God meets us in our grief, but not always in ways we expect or even want.

Coming from that jumbled place of agony and assurance, 'Either Way, We'll Be All Right' is a journey through the darkness in hopes of discovering light on the other side.

Drawing from the first 3 chapters of John’s Gospel, this study shows group members that Jesus became like us so that we could become like Him.

- Learn the nature of Christ and how true life is found in His Name.
- Depend upon God to help us believe in the name of Jesus and become His children.
- Believe in the finished work of Jesus and experience a well of abundant grace that never runs dry.
- Know who we are and who we are not because we know who Jesus is.
- Declare Jesus is the Lamb of God that will defeat all sin.
- Follow Jesus the way his first disciples did.
- Remember the old has passed away and the new has come.
- See Jesus as a prophet who confronts us, a priest who cleanses us, and a king who constructs the temple of true worship.
- Examine our relationships with Jesus and ensure that we know Him personally rather than simply knowing information about Him.
- Turn away from sin and toward Christ.
- Pursue gospel-centered multiplication.

John 1–3 Leader Kit includes a Bible Study Book, and 3 DVDs with 27–to 35–minute video sessions.

The videos include promotional material and teaching sessions featuring author Matt Chandler. The Kit also includes a code for access to digital video downloads and additional resources.

Different from the other three gospel accounts of Jesus’ life and ministry, the Gospel of John focused on the nature of Christ and how belief in Him leads to true life.

Through the first three chapters of John we learn how we’re dependent upon God to help us believe in the name of Jesus and become His children and experience a well of abundant grace that never runs dry.

To this day, Jesus continues to draw followers to Himself in the same ways He drew His first disciples. Jesus became like us so that we might become like Him.

Broken, Branded, Disaster, Invisible, Forgotten, Failure, Unloved
 Labels have a tendency to stick. You believe certain things about yourself because you live in a broken world where love seems like nothing more than an illusion. But when you begin to see yourself as God does, you will discover the truth.

You are not a failure. You are not a lost cause. You are not a disappointment. You have a Creator, a Saviour, who cared for you so much that He willingly gave His life for you. You are loved.

Through the artistry of illusion and his unique gift of evangelism, Brock Gill examines the stories of broken, forgotten, branded, and lost people in the Bible whose lives were forever changed through an encounter with Jesus.

In this seven-session video-based Bible study, students will discover that Jesus Christ is the only One who can cast our labels and disappointments aside and show us what it truly means to be loved.

Just one encounter with Jesus can change the course of our lives forever.

Marks of a Disciple Bible Study Book includes printed content for six sessions, personal study between group sessions, applicable Scripture, "How to Use This Study," a leader guide, and tips for leading a group.

Every Christian—regardless of age, demographic, or background—is designed by God to grow in faith. But many of us don't know what growth looks like. How do we even know we're growing?

In Marks of Disciple, pastor Dean Inserra examines six measurements to help us see whether or not we're developing spiritually.

This is not a checklist or a punch card, but rather a group of traits distilled from Scripture that should be evident in the life of a follower of Jesus. As we pursue these markers, our faith can flourish the way God intended.

Description

John Flavel shows Christ as our fountain of true joy: secured for his people by his humiliation and his exaltation. By humiliation, Flavel means the incarnation – Christ’s birth, ministry, and death – by exaltation he means the four stages of resurrection, ascension, intercession, and His return in judgment.

Flavel shows this twofold act (humiliation and exaltation) is the foundation of our joy because through them Christ has removed our debt and secured our inheritance.

“The believer knows,” says Flavel, “that however sweet his communion with Christ is in this world, yet that communion he will have with Christ in heaven will far excel it.”

Description

What would you give to spend an evening with Jesus, hearing Him teach and listening to Him pray? This is what we encounter in the Farewell Discourse of John 13–17.

As the shadow of the cross loomed, Christ shared His final hours with the disciples to prepare them for His death, quiet their troubled hearts, and intercede on their behalf before the Father.

In ‘Lessons from the Upper Room,’ Dr. Sinclair Ferguson draws us into these intimate hours from the night when Jesus was betrayed. This vivid picture of Christ’s ministry, from His washing the disciples’ feet to His High Priestly Prayer, shows us the heart of Jesus.

Discover His deepest desires for His people and take delight in the suffering Savior who has overcome the world.

Description

History often remembers the Puritans as killjoys and little more. Yet although they were highly disciplined, they were far from joyless. Puritans recognised the goodness of God in everything around them and strove to draw closer to him in all things in life.

This Christ-centred outlook and pure contentment fills their prayers and writings with deep wisdom and universal truths we can still learn from today. What can we learn from the Puritans? Donald McKim explores how Puritan teaching on prayer can lighten the daily struggles of Christian life.

Learn from the words of influential Puritan ministers, writers, theologians, and nonconformists including Richard Baxter, John Flavel, Matthew Henry, and Thomas Manton.

Discover how to bring God into all aspects of your life through prayer. Each entry includes meditative readings, Scripture explication, and prayer prompts to inspire and inform your own devotions.

About the Author

Donald K. McKim has served as a pastor in the Presbyterian Church (USA), a professor of theology and academic dean at Memphis Seminary, a professor at the University of Dubuque Theological Seminary, and an editor for Westminster John Knox Press.

He is an award-winning author and editor.

Rowland S. Ward – The Westminster Confession of Faith

Description

Rowland S. Ward's guide has served as an invaluable resource for many wishing to understand the rich theological tapestry of the Westminster Confession.

In this revised and expanded volume, Ward has sought to bring further clarity to, and appreciation for, this great summary of doctrinal truth.

If you are looking for an easy to read exposition of the Confession with sharp analysis of its contents and relevant discussion questions -- look no further.

"Rowland Ward's The Westminster Confession of Faith: A Study Guide has, in its various editions, been a constant and indispensable companion to me for a quarter century as I have taught the Westminster Standards in the seminary and church. There is really no modern commentary like it. If you have Robert Shaw, A.A. Hodge, Chad Van Dixhoorn, and Rowland Ward on the Confession, you really have the core library you need to unlock and apply the riches of the Confession's articulation of the Christian faith. The concision and accuracy of the theological background and summary that Ward provides, as well as the balance and insight of his historical and theological assessments, make this a "go to" volume for people who want to know what the Assembly intended in their formulations. I have pointed pastors, professors and students to this book for 25 years, and I will be recommending this edition in the years to come." – Dr. Ligon Duncan
Chancellor/CEO of Reformed Theological Seminary and the John E. Richards Professor of Systematic and Historical Theology.

About the Author

Rowland S. Ward was born and raised in Melbourne. He holds the BA and Hons BTh degrees from the University of South Africa, and the Diploma of the Free Church of Scotland College, Edinburgh (which he attended 1972–75). In 1994 he was awarded the degree ThD from the Australian College of Theology, Sydney for his dissertation on "Divisions and Unions in Australian Presbyterianism 1823–1901 with Special Reference to the Church's Attitude to its Creed".

Description

Don't fight the culture. Transform it.

When Pastor "Choco" De Jesús was twelve years old, his Chicago neighbourhood erupted in gang violence for three terrible days. On the third day, the mayor called in the National Guard to restore order. When the smoke cleared, only burned-out cars, broken store windows, and hatred remained. Choco felt vulnerable and helpless, and soon he turned to the only source of security, life, and purpose—the love of Jesus.

Pastor Choco leads out of this deep well of experience. He knows what it's like to wonder if you'll live through the day, and he knows how it feels when someone cares enough to step in and provide care and hope. His church is known for showing compassion to people who are often overlooked—or worse, despised—in our culture: prostitutes, gangbangers, the homeless, and others who feel abandoned. And Pastor Choco's bold love for people has opened doors and allowed him into the highest offices in the land, including at the White House.

Love is contagious. It breaks through defenses and destroys walls that divide us. Love is costly. It requires time, focus, and intention. Love is uncomfortable. It pushes you beyond your preconceived limitations and understanding. Love is hard. It's not convenient, and it's not always safe. But love is beautiful. Love is transformative. Love is the answer. So love them anyway.

The message of this book will tap into your deepest desires, expose your hesitations, connect you more deeply with God's love, stimulate your creativity, and help you take bold steps to love the people around you—and your love will change lives. Love Them Anyway is designed for individual study, small-group interactions, and church-wide applications that reach every corner of a church's local community. This book will help you confront your prejudices, remove fences, and get the gospel to the marginalised.

About the Author

Choco De Jesús, former senior pastor of New Life Covenant Church in Chicago, one of the largest US congregations in the Assemblies of God, has met Presidents Obama and Trump. Recently he was elected General treasurer of the Assemblies of God.

He is the founder of the nonprofit agency Chicago Dream Center, which serves the city of Chicago through residential, outreach, and rescue programmes.

In 2013 De Jesús was named one of Time magazine's 100 most influential people in the world in recognition of his authentic Christian leadership in evangelical and Latino communities. De Jesús lives in Springfield, Missouri, with his wife, Elizabeth

From the best-selling author of Prayers That Rout Demons'

The enemy works overtime to keep people bound, exhausted, and frustrated. His goal is to convince believers that God's promises are for everyone but them. When they believe his lies, they unknowingly partner with him and give him access to their lives. This is how a stronghold is formed. The enemy has bound God's people up long enough.

In Break Every Chain, John Eckhardt reveals twenty-five strongholds that commonly hold Christians captive. He exposes the enemy's tactics and teaches readers to use the power of the Word to drive the devil out and break the chains that hold them back.

This book empowers readers to stand upon the Word of the Lord, resist the devil, break free of bondage, and experience the blessings and promises of God. This book will help you discover the spiritual forces that could be behind your setbacks, failures, and defeats. You will learn how you may have unknowingly partnered with the devil by believing his lies, and you will experience breakthrough as you begin to replace his lies with the truth of God's Word.

The Holy Spirit is our Helper and when we partner with Him in prophetic spiritual warfare, we will conquer and win the battle. Tap into the voice of the Holy Spirit to:

- Effectively bind and rebuke the enemy
- Live victoriously as spiritual warfare attacks over your life cease
- Close demonic portals as you learn how to shut down demonic access
- Rely on the Holy Spirit to assist you in annihilating spiritual darkness
- Break the bonds of fear and anxiety as you become a powerful spiritual warrior

This book will show you that spiritual warfare cannot be done with natural tools, reliance on the strength of the Holy Spirit is needed. You will learn that the battle between the natural and the spiritual realm has a direct impact on how you live and what happens to you.

Description

Who are you? Would you answer this question with a reference to your vocation? Your relationships? Your greatest achievements or failures? Your appearance?

As humans, we often fashion our lives around the flimsy groundwork of these temporary things. When we inevitably experience a disappointment or tragedy, our very identity crumbles. But as a Christian, you are called to build your identity upon one, unshakeable foundation – how Jesus sees you.

In 'Radically Restored to Oneness with God,' author and veteran pastor, Peter McHugh takes you on a journey through Scripture, revealing the depths of Jesus' love for you and the tangible implications that adoption into God's Family has for your daily life.

In these pages, you will gain...

- Deliverance from comparison, expectations, judgment, and legalism.
- Assurance of God's great love for you, personally.
- Freedom to advance God's Kingdom by loving others unconditionally.

You have been adopted into Jesus' family! Discover the transformative joy that comes with rooting your identity in the solid bedrock of this powerful truth.

About the Author

Peter McHugh's life has regularly been turned upside down when the Lord has sovereignly interrupted him. These encounters have resulted in profound insights around the love of God and the nature of His Kingdom.

He shares these revelations in his books and lives them out. He is a sought-after speaker, mentor, leader and pastor to pastors.

He lives in Melbourne, Australia, with his wife, Lyn, three children, and nine grandchildren.

Mutzphey and Milo couldn't be more excited – It's their turn to take Molly the Parrot, the classroom pet, home for the weekend!

Their teacher, Mrs. Lang is counting on them. Are they up for the task? Will they rise to the occasion or "fowl" things up?

The action starts as soon as the Friday afternoon school bell rings. Before they know it, the two friends can't find Molly! Thinking they've lost her forever, they scramble to come up with a solution before Monday morning.

Join Mutzphey, Milo, and Molly on this entertaining, great adventure that all ages are sure to enjoy!

Reading Age: 5–8 years

Description

As the world grows increasingly volatile, with looming wars, rampant pandemics, and violence in the streets, many people are wondering, Is this the end of the world? Yes! And it's wonderful news!

Why? Because it means that Jesus' return is imminent. And His end-time agenda is to bless and prepare you for your destiny in these last days!

For more than 30 years, author, minister, and host of the weekly End of Days Update, Joseph Morris has been awakening the Church to Jesus' hastening return, helping believers connect the dots between Bible prophecy and current events.

In End Times Made Easy, he shares...

- Easy-to-understand, scriptural evidence of end-time events happening right now
- 50 "plus signs" of Jesus return
- The difference between the rapture and the second coming
- Answers to tough questions about the tribulation
- Amazing biblical descriptions of Christ's millennial reign on earth

There's no bad news for the Christian! The simple truths in this book will empower you to run your race with joy in these last days, eagerly awaiting Jesus' return!

About the Author

Rev. Morris has been travelling for over 30 years bringing the message of believers using their equipment for the harvest and awakening the church to the soon return of Jesus. Infusing hope and joy to the hearer with the precise signs of the coming to the Lord.

Joseph resides in Tulsa, OK with his wife, Colleen
