Bethel Music – Without Words 3CD Boxset

Description

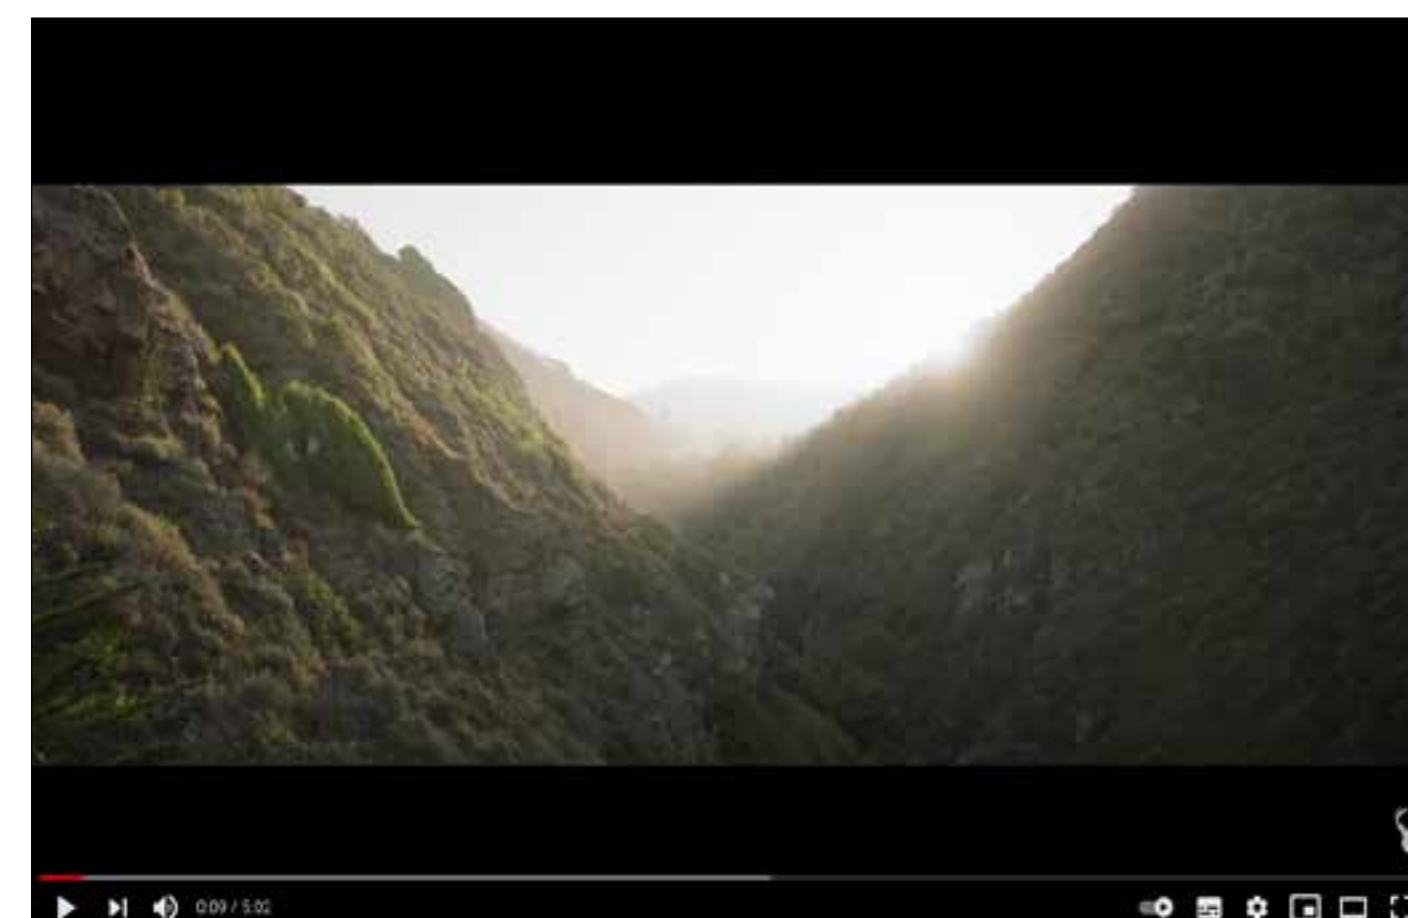

Together for the first time, all three Bethel Music 'Without Worship' in a 3CD boxset. Includes the albums: 'Without Words'; 'Synesthesia' and 'Genesis'. Another first, 'Genesis' which has previously only been available digitally, is now available on this CD.

Without Words began as an instrumental experiment by the Bethel Music community who set out to push the creative boundaries of worship. Each song offers a distinct listening experience and carries its own story. Songs from Bethel Music albums have been deconstructed and rearranged into versions that hint at original melodies through unique instrumentation and modern sounds. Each track creates a dynamic, ambient, and cinematic atmosphere— free from lyric and discourse. The sound ventures into new territory and explores what it is to worship— without words.

Rory Feek – Gentle Man CD

Description

'Gentle Man' is the first solo album from Grammy-award-winning artist Rory Feek (of Joey+Rory). This release also marks Rory's first time back in the studio since losing his wife and country music collaborator, Joey, in 2016 to cancer.

This new collection of 14 songs and stories showcase music that has a unique honesty, empathy, and humble joy that only come from having traversed the peaks and valleys of a profound life experience. And with the help of some of Nashville's finest players, the record achieves the organic purity of a bluegrass masterpiece as well as the raw emotional grit of an Americana classic. Though the album is a solo project, Rory isn't singing alone. Dolly Parton, Trisha Yearwood, Alison Krauss, Lee Ann Womack, Vince Gill, Ricky Skaggs, Sharon White, and Sonya Isaacs have all brought their familiar and iconic voices to join him on the audio recordings featured in these timeless songs.

Track Listing:

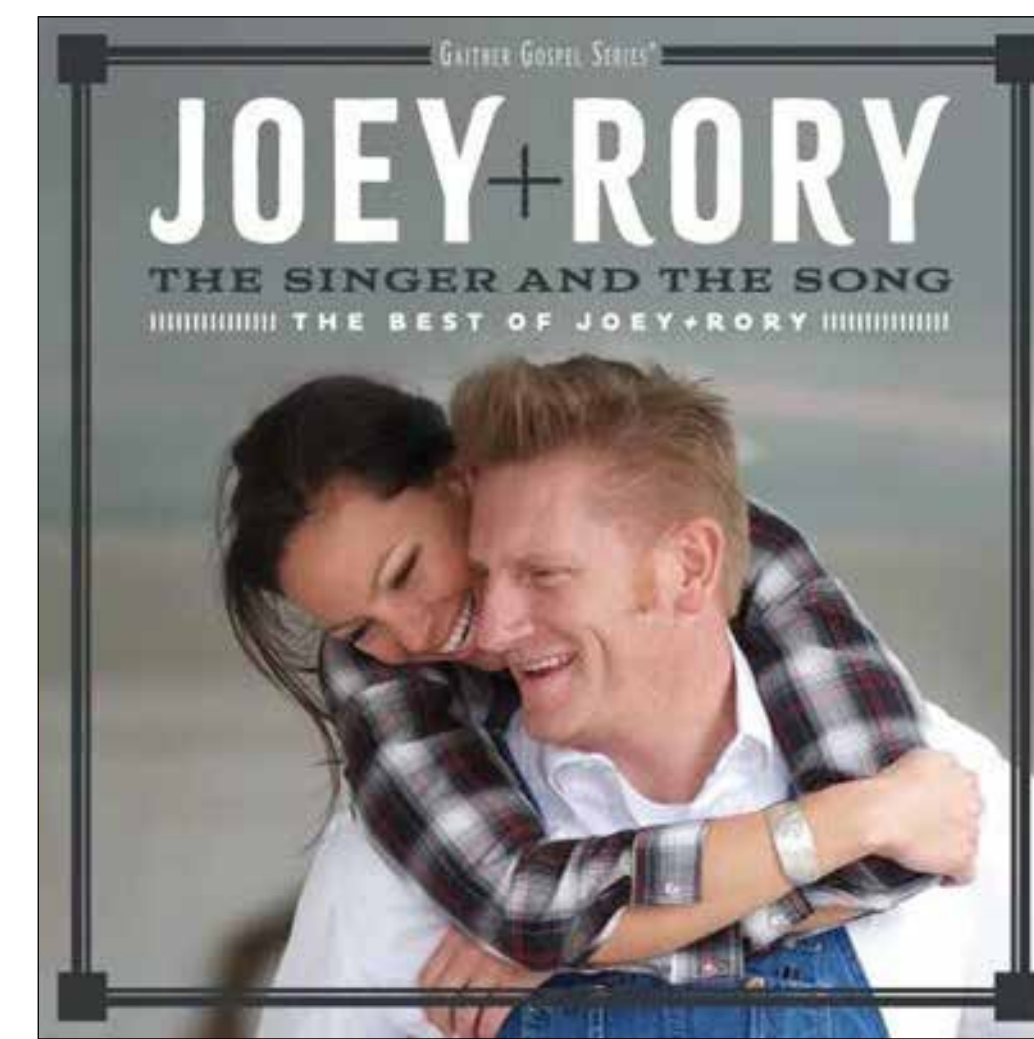

- | | |
|--|---|
| 01. Me and the Blues (ft. Vince Gill) | 09. Met Him In a Motel Room (ft. Trisha Yearwood) |
| 02. Salvation (ft. Sonia Isaacs & Mike Rogers) | 10. Don't It Make You Wanna Go Home (ft. Mike Rogers, Danny Potter, Matt Johnson) |
| 03. Gentleman (ft. Sonia & Ben Isaacs) | 11. Time Won't Tell (ft. Alison Krauss and Ben Isaacs) |
| 04. The Times They Are A Changin' | 12. Out on a Limb (ft. Heidi Feek) |
| 05. Small Talk Café (ft. Ricky Skaggs & Sharon White Skaggs) | 13. What You Gonna Do With A Broken Heart (ft. Ben Isaacs..) |
| 06. Satan & Grandma (ft. Lee Ann Womack and Ben Isaacs) | 14. One Angel (ft. Dolly Parton) |

Description

Since the age of six, Jeff Stice has had a passion for the piano, one that quickly turned into a passion for Gospel Music. By fifteen, Jeff was playing for his father's quartet and went on to accompany legendary groups such as The Rex Nelon Singers, Perfect Heart, and most recently, Triumphant Quartet. During his time with Triumphant, he enjoyed GRAMMY® and Dove Award nominations, as well as the honour of being named Musician Of The Year by the readers of Singing News a total of six times. Audiences across the globe have enjoyed his exceptional talent and afforded him the opportunity to perform on stages such as Dollywood, the National Quartet Convention, and Carnegie Hall.

On 'Sheltered in the Arms of God', Jeff Stice pays tribute to the songs of the iconic Gospel music legend Dottie Rambo.

Death Therapy – Melancholy Machines CD

Description

Death Therapy is a two man metal band from Atlanta, Georgia, and they're anything but conventional. Their affinity for experimentation is reflected not only in their genre bending sound, but in how they create it. This simple alteration to the traditional metal formula catapults their sound from common to wildly unorthodox, and it makes their live shows a wholly unique experience.

'Melancholy Machines' fully embraces the dark, groovy, electronic rock sound that has made Death Therapy unique, resulting in their grooviest, catchiest, and most unconventional record to date. One moment the listener is bombarded with fuzzy detuned bass riffs, and the next moment they're serenaded by haunting piano melodies. Whether it be saxophone solos, orchestral arrangements, bongos, or analog synths, unconventional instrumentation is a common theme throughout.

Track Listing:

- | | |
|-----------------------|-------------------------|
| 01. Familiar Shadows | 06. Bullet Holes |
| 02. Pls Snd Hlp | 07. Ghost Psalm |
| 03. Bad Day to Die | 08. The Silence of God |
| 04. Flammable Animals | 09. Recomposure |
| 05. Tension | 10. Melancholy Machines |

Dr. Chris Sinkinson – Sifting the Evidence DVD

Description

What does archaeology tell us about the historical accuracy of the Bible?

Join host Dr. Chris Sinkinson as he visits the great sites of the Holy Land, including the site of the original “City of David”; the Temple Mount; Capernaum, where you can see the remnants of the Apostle Peter’s house; and the church of the Holy Sepulchre, the site of Jesus’ crucifixion and resurrection.

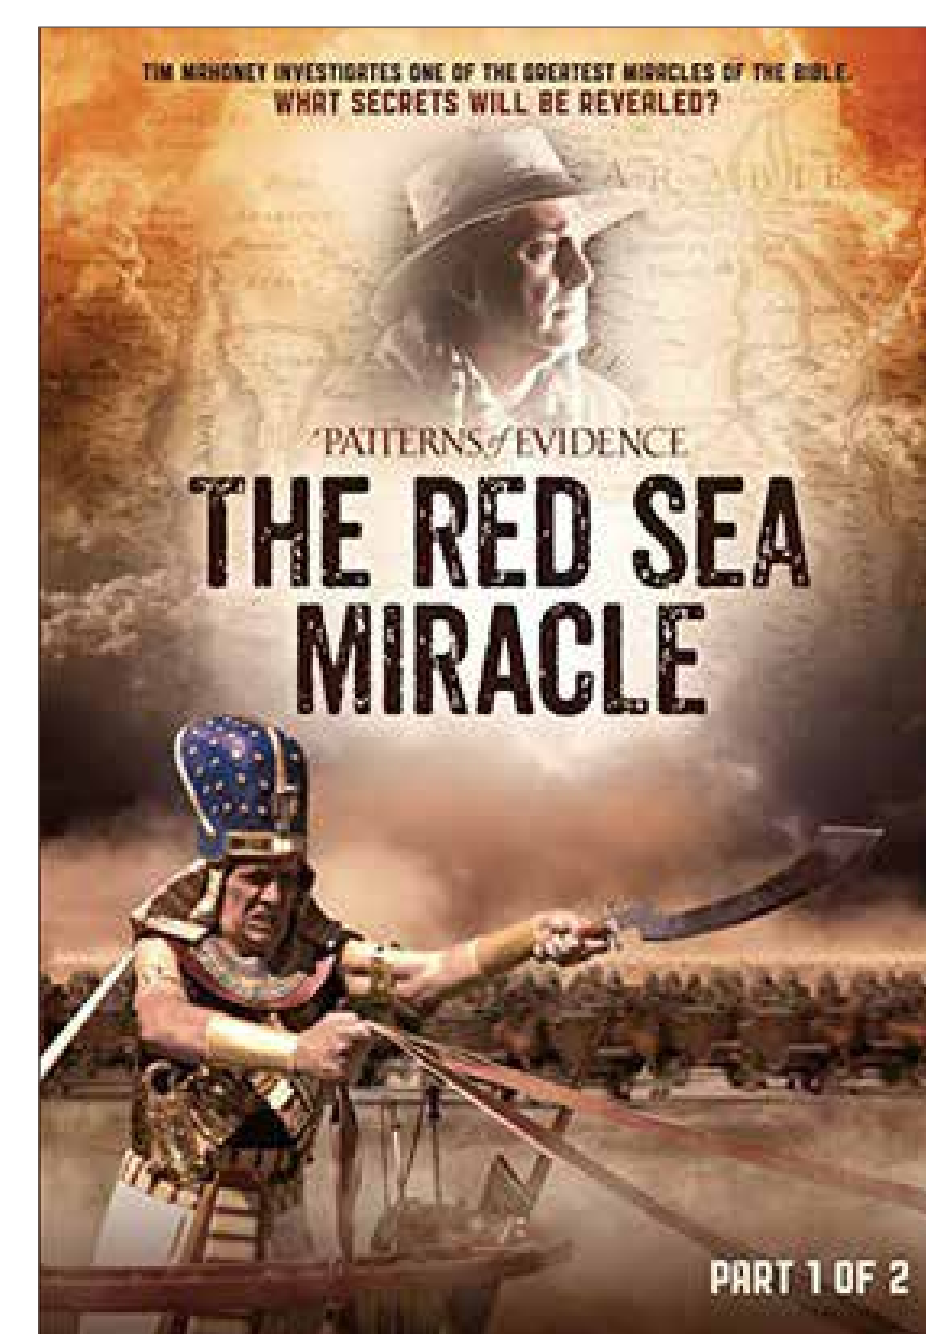

This beautifully photographed two-part documentary series takes you inside these fascinating sites and allows you to see them as never before. Insightful commentary from the host and a team of experts will connect these sites with the stories and characters of the Old and New Testaments, explaining why we can rely on the historical accuracy of the Scriptures.

Various – John Lauren’s War DVD

Description

“John Lauren’s War” is the fight for freedom by John Lauren from South Carolina, for every slave in America along with every colonist. During the War for American freedom, John told his slave-owning father, “We have sunk the Africans...below the Standard of Humanity.” Along with his freed slave, he defies his father and becomes a trusted top aide to George Washington, willing to risk everything to create liberty in the new nation.

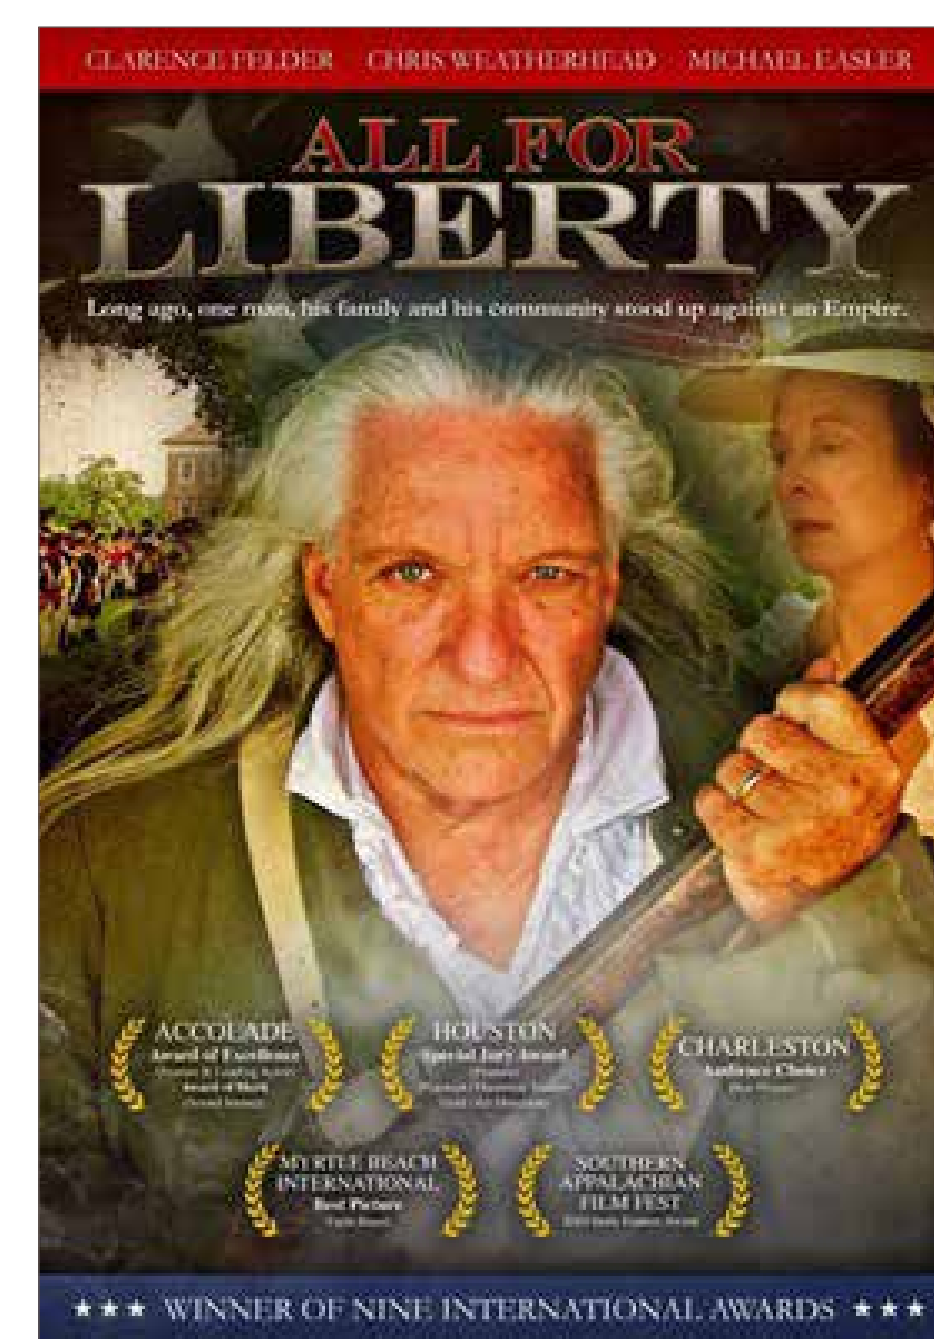

As an extraordinary warrior, brilliant visionary, charming enigma, John takes on the British army, his father, the new congress and before his death at 27, becomes one of our greatest abolitionists ninety years before slavery ended in America.

Description

What does the Trinity have to do with missions? As it turns out . . . everything.

Too often, we put theology in one part of the Christian life and missions in another--and they never meet. A doctrine like the Trinity belongs in the “intellectual” realm, while missions belongs with the “practical” parts of life. Or so we think. But is that really the way it should be?

Michael Reeves wants you to understand that the doctrine of the Trinity has everything to do with the practice of missions. When a Christian sees the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit as divine persons who are so full of love that it radiates and overflows into creation--and into the lives of human beings--our perspective on missions is radically changed. No longer is missions an obligation or a drudgery. Instead, realizing the abundance of love that goes forth from God, we who have received and delighted in such love are motivated to go forth as well.

Let the radiance of God’s triune beauty capture your heart. Then God’s great mission won’t be a chore, but will naturally overflow from your joyous delight in Him.

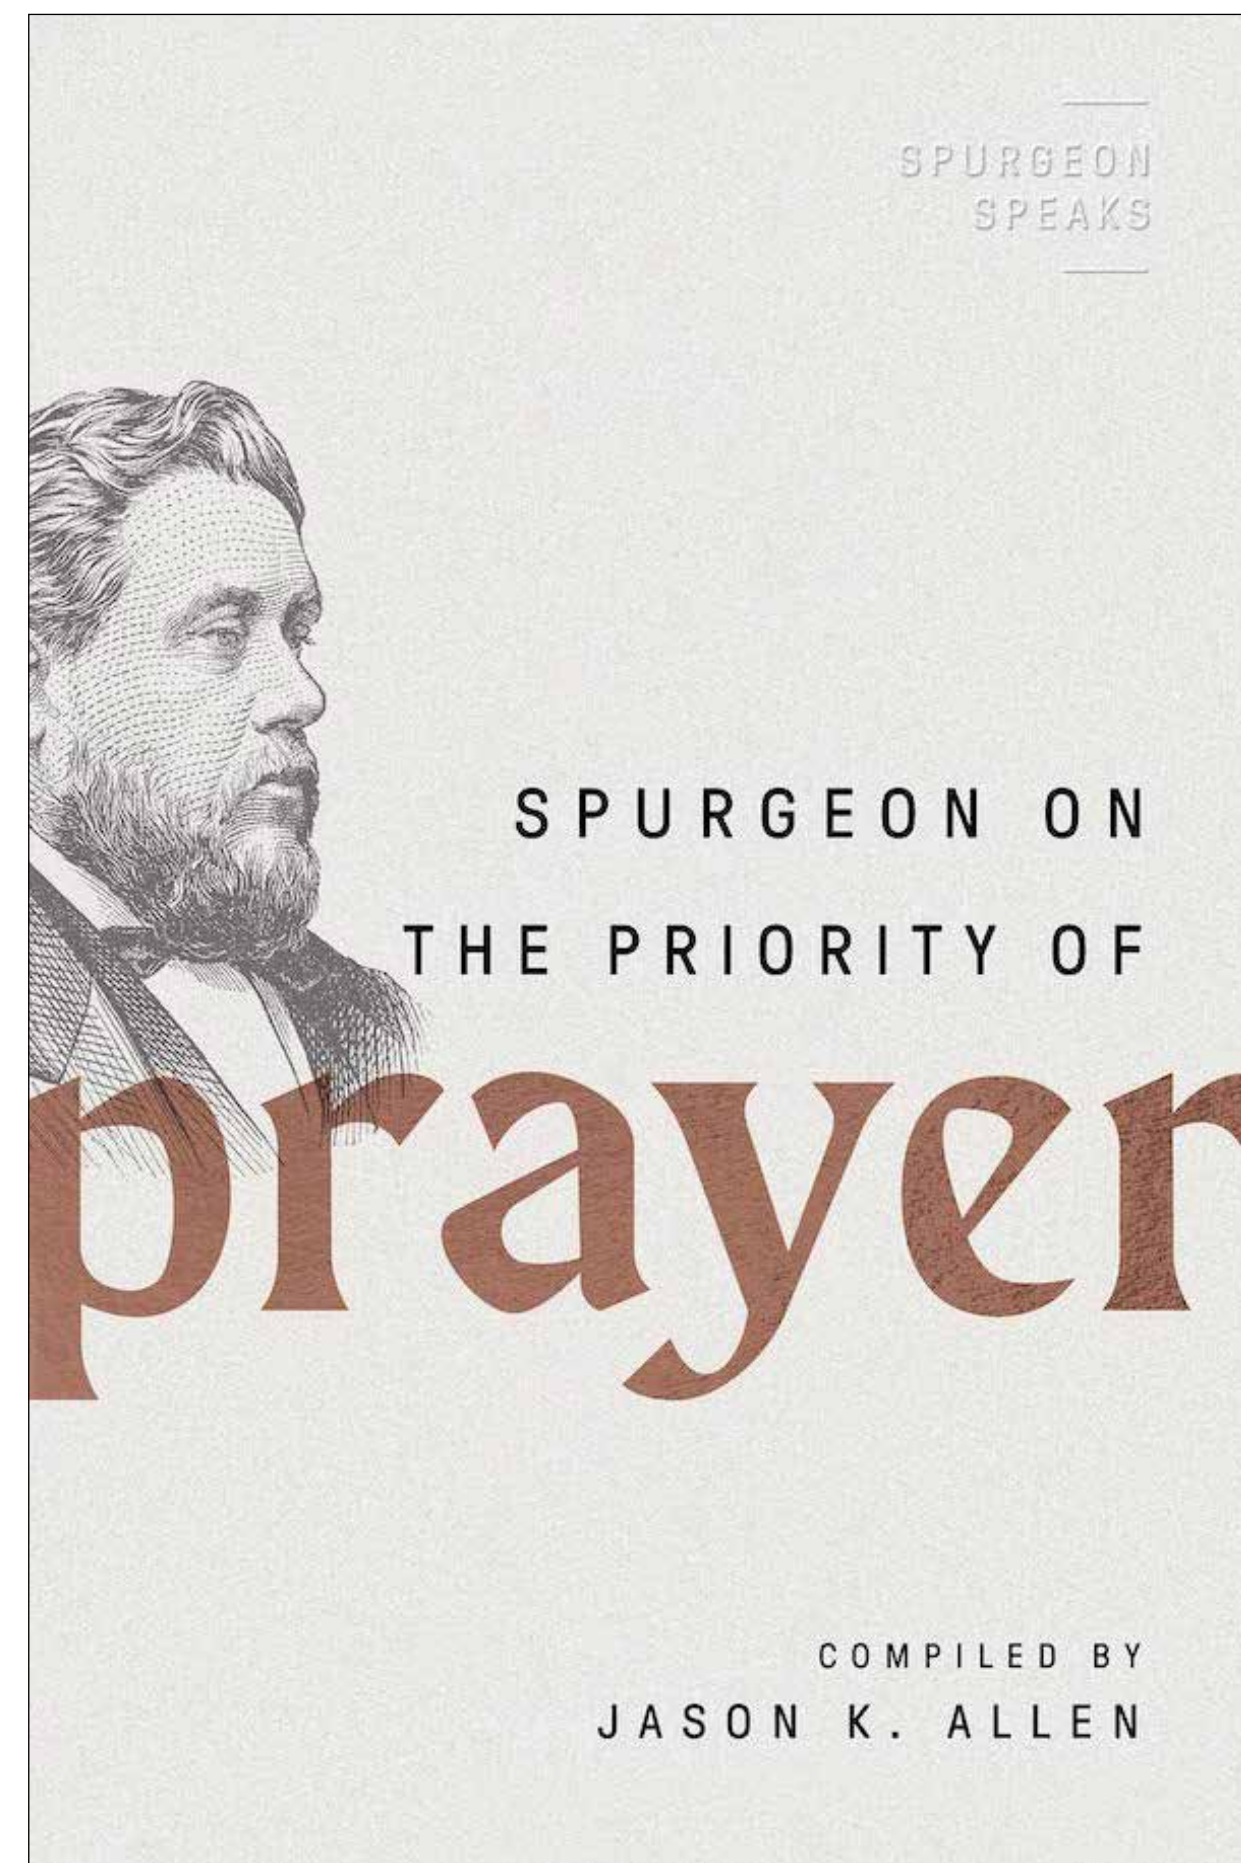

About the Author

Michael Reeves (PhD, King’s College, London) is President and Professor of Theology at Union School of Theology in the UK (www.ust.ac.uk). He is a Senior Fellow of Newton House, Oxford, Director of the European Theologians Network, and speaks and teaches regularly worldwide.

Previously he has been Head of Theology for the Universities and Colleges Christian Fellowship and an associate minister at All Souls Church, Langham Place, London. 9780802426291

Title: A Field Guide For Genuine Community
 Author: Ben Connelly
 Price: £12.99*
 Product Code: 9780802422798
 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Christian Living
 Distribution: UK & Europe

You show up at church every Sunday. You see people you know. You listen to a sermon together. And then you go home feeling just as isolated as you did before. What's going on?

We all know that a church is supposed to be a community. The trick is to actually make it one. Communities don't happen by chance-- certainly not in our Lone Ranger culture that values independence and individualism. A truly Christian community must be built by intentional practices that allow for deeper connections, centered on the unity that can only be found in Christ.

In 'A Field Guide for Genuine Community', longtime pastor and discipleship trainer Ben Connelly shows you that the biblical model for community is the family of God. In twenty-five short, practical readings, he takes you beyond the surface and helps you learn to connect with your brothers and sisters as true family members. The church isn't meant to be a collection of strangers. God intends for you to find a unified and purposeful household where you truly belong.

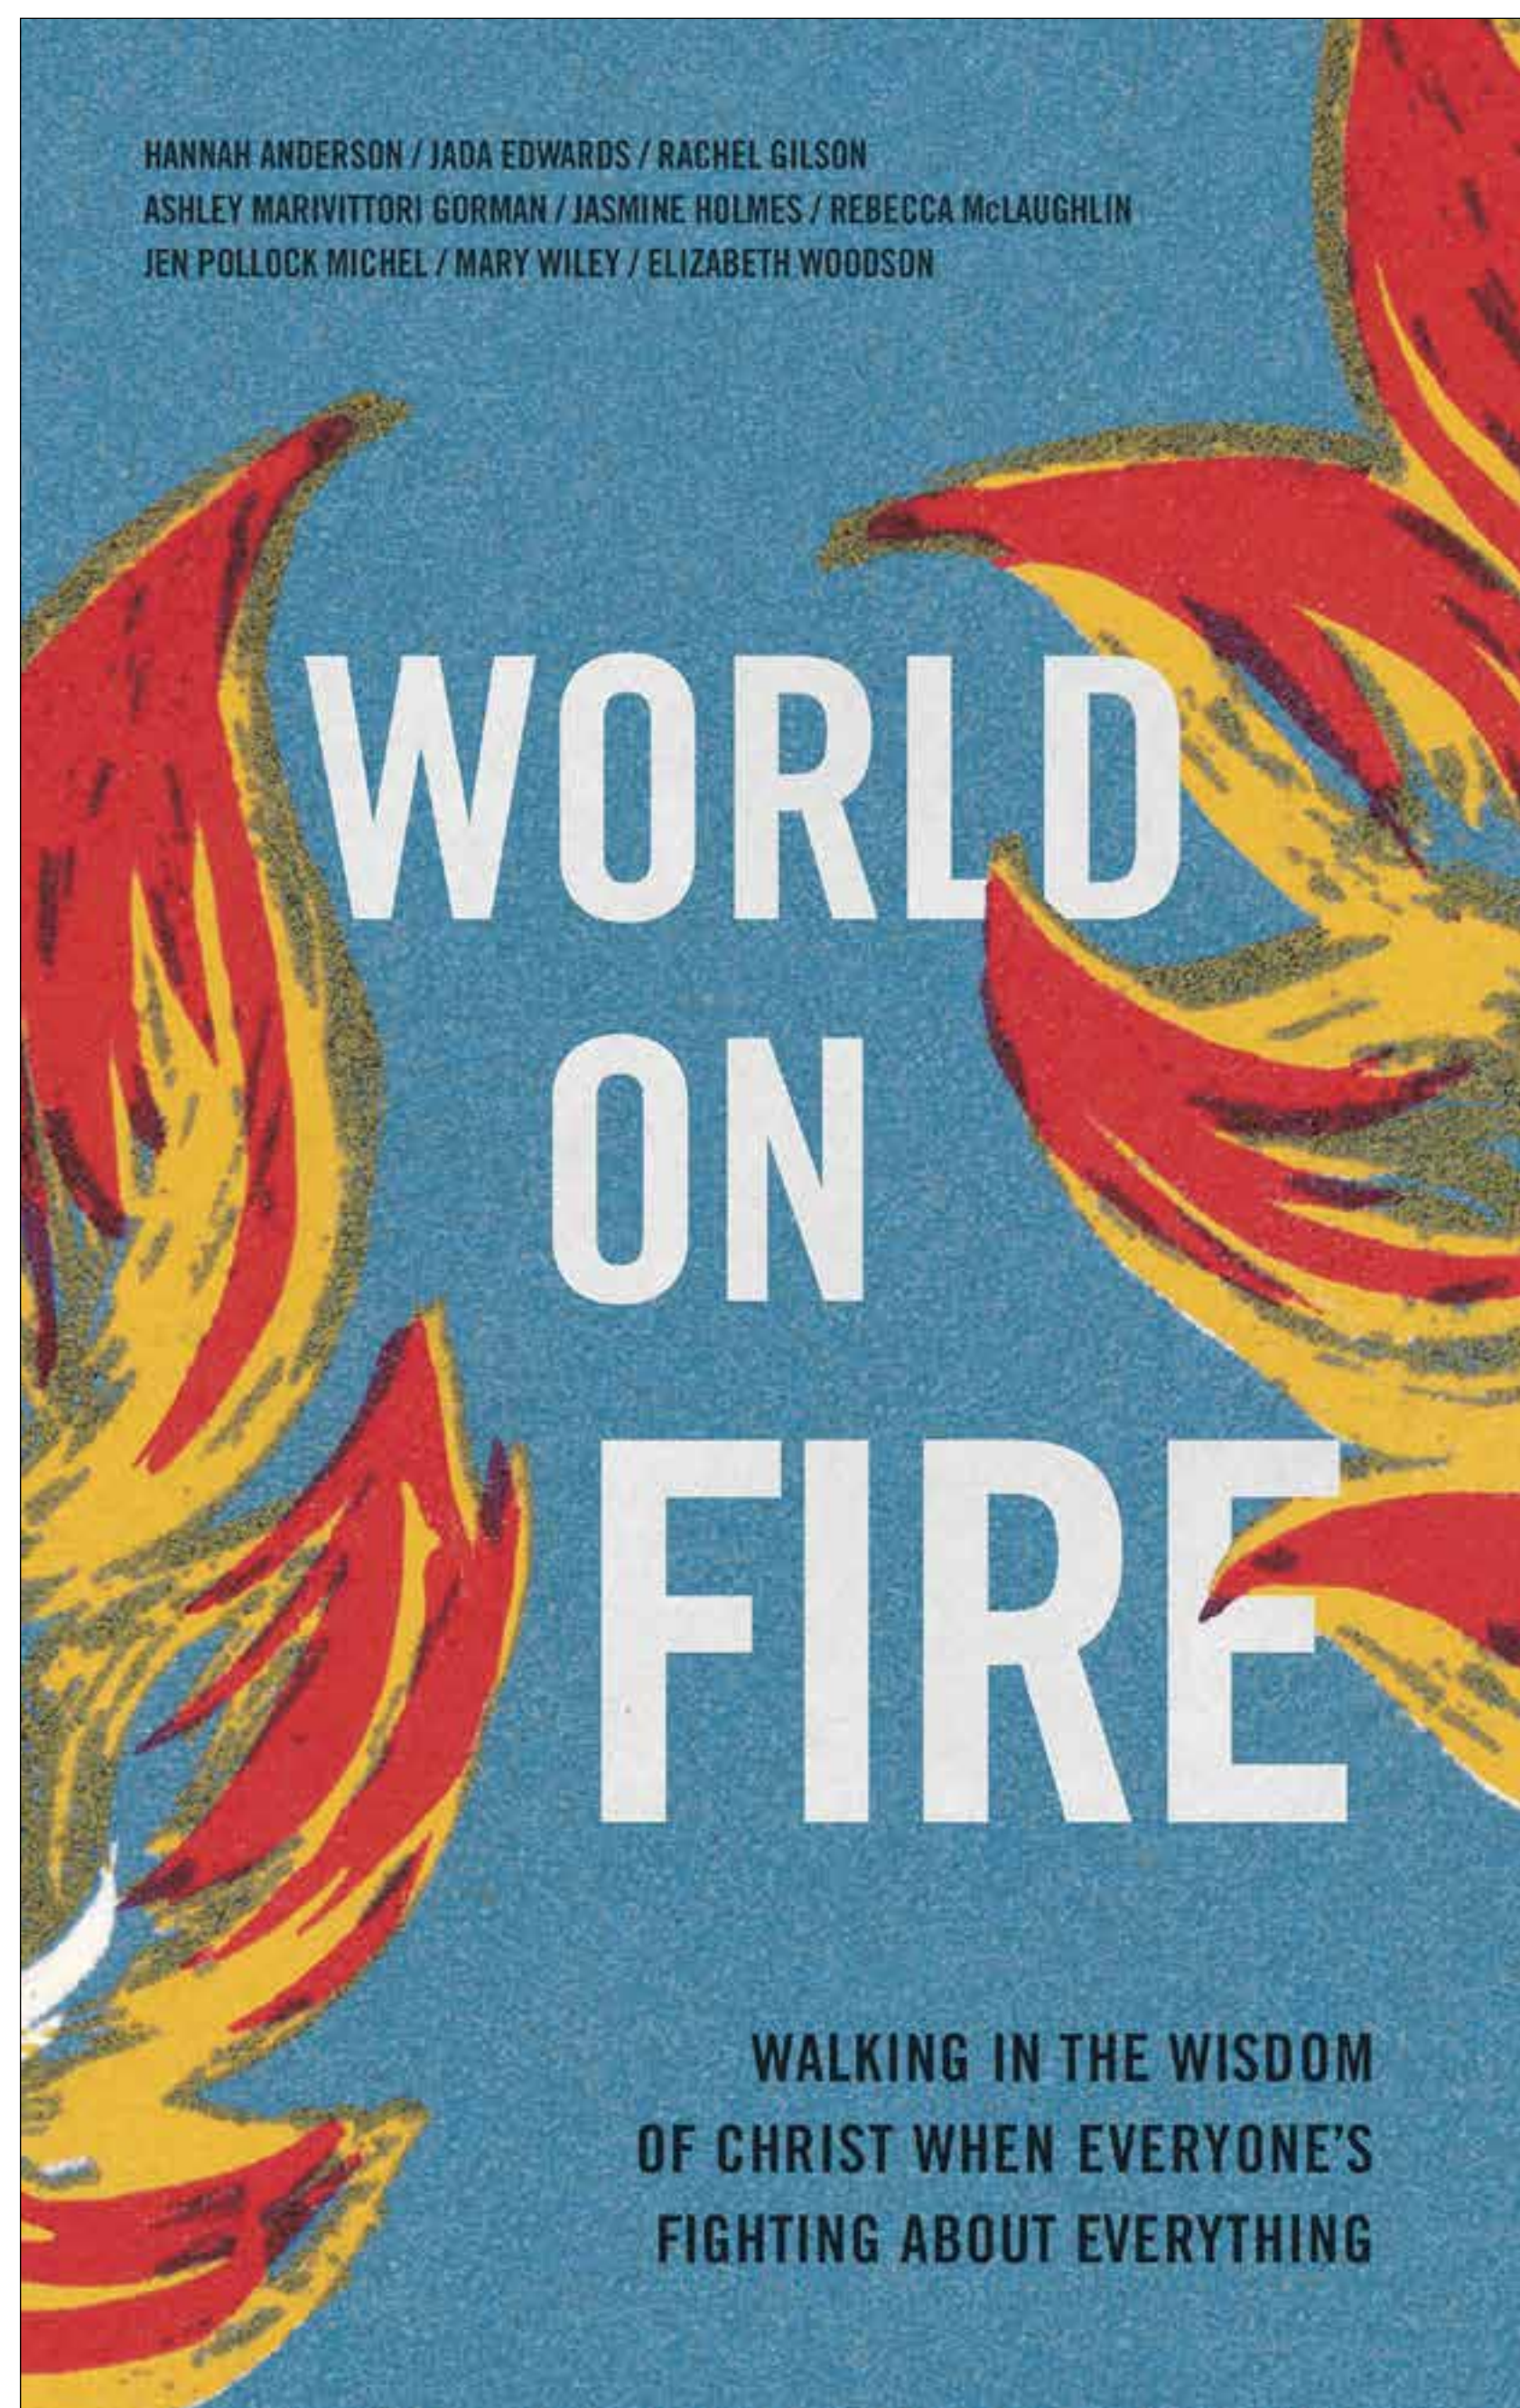

Title: The Essential Scriptures
 Author: Kevin D. Zuber
 Price: £14.50*
 Product Code: 9780802420787
 Format: Hard Cover
 Genre: Bible Handbook
 Distribution: UK & Europe

All good theology is grounded in the Word of God. Yet sometimes it's hard to keep track of which scriptures support certain doctrines.

That's where The Essential Scriptures comes in. With an easy-to-use handbook format, this reference work moves through the main headings of systematic theology, offering full quotations of the biblical verses that undergird various doctrines. No more jumping back and forth between multiple sources. The Essential Scriptures puts it all in one place, providing not only the biblical support but also a learned exposition of how those passages serve as the basis for the doctrine under discussion.

Drawing from the literal and trustworthy New American Standard Bible, scholar and theologian Kevin Zuber gives you the biblical underpinnings for every doctrine, organized around the primary headings of systematic theology:

Prolegomena * Bibliology * Theology Proper * Christology * Pneumatology * Anthropology and Hamartiology * Soteriology * Angelology * Ecclesiology * Eschatology

Description

Does it feel like no matter where you look or what the issue is, everyone seems to be fighting about everything? We live in the information age, with more access to knowledge than ever before, flowing to us in a never-ending digital stream of updates, statistics, polls, opinions, news, and narratives from those on opposing sides of any issue. And while we'd assume this influx of information would help us find a good, informed way forward in our culture, it actually stirs up all sorts of anger, anxiety, and even loneliness.

If you're anything like the contributors to World on Fire, you've realized that all this knowledge isn't the same thing as wisdom. While our world relies on expected, reflexive, status-quo, earthly wisdom to make a way forward or take a side on any given issue, Christ would rather us rely on his unexpected, counterintuitive, going-against-the-grain, heavenly wisdom as outlined in his famous Beatitudes.

This surprising wisdom is not a call to be removed from the fire we feel blazing around us, but one to engage and tame it—beginning with our own hearts. Whatever those nearest you seem to be arguing about today, and no matter what the fire looks like in your neck of the woods, Jesus has an answer for the ways his kingdom citizens should walk as they navigate the flames in his power and posture.

In their own unique voice and in their own unique way, each contributor in World on Fire welcomes you to come explore not only some of the polarizing issues of our day, but how the unexpected wisdom of Jesus might help us be more discerning and Christlike amidst them.

Title: Big Results Leadership
Author: Mark Croston
Price: £14.50*
Product Code: 9781087738345
Format: Paperback
Genre: Pastoral Resources
Distribution: UK & Europe

The success of any leadership is all too often pointed to the characteristics of good leadership. The reality is that many of us are fully aware of the qualities of a good leader.

Book after book in the pastoral community may light the path to good leadership but rarely gives us the markers that allow us to discern if we are still moving in the right direction.

Big Results: Leadership tackles that obstacle by guiding our future leaders in their early steps but also points to the “results” of that kind of leadership.

The main take away from this read is that God-centered leadership always yields big results.

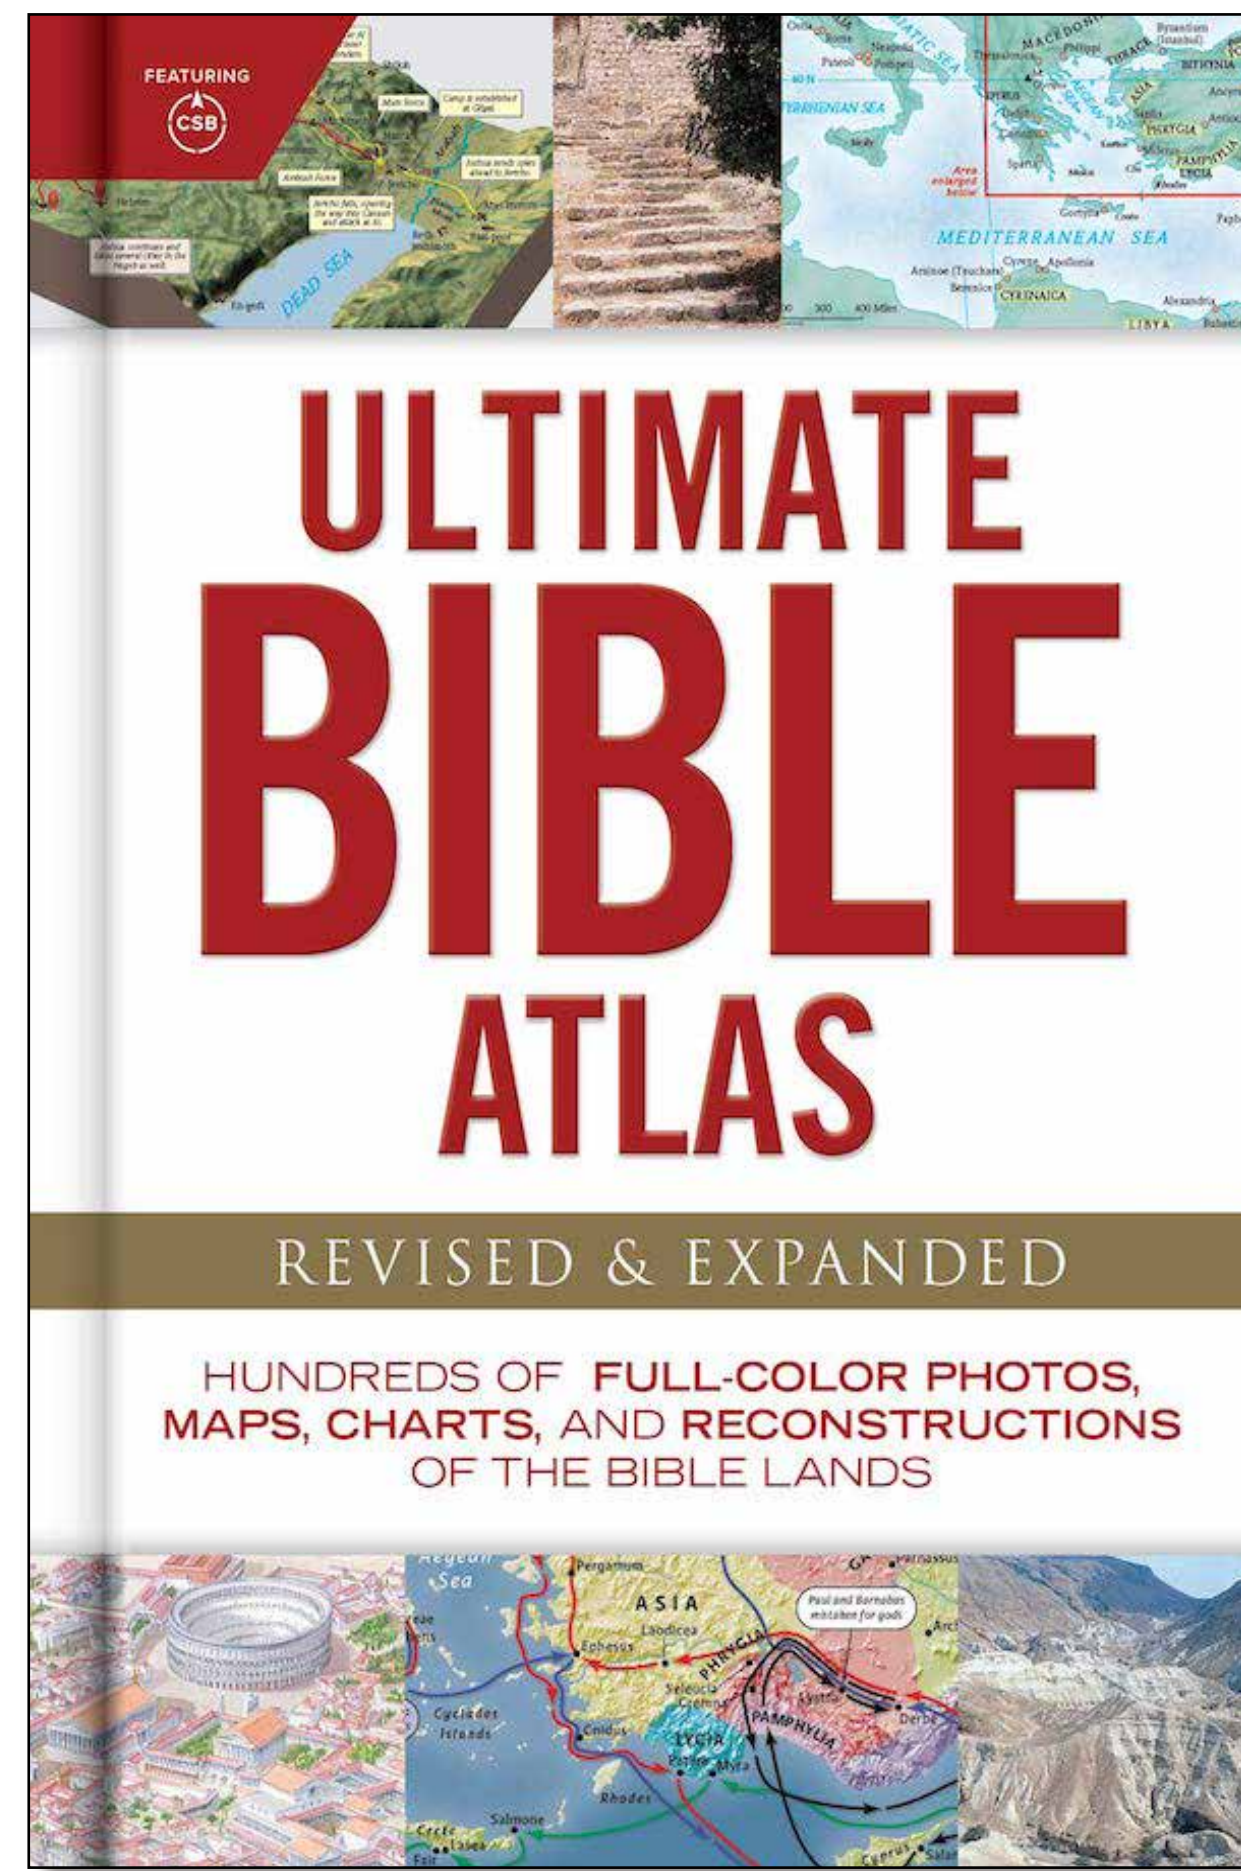

Title: From Pentecost To Patmos (Second Edition)
Author: Craig L. Blomberg and Darlene M. Seal
Price: £48.99*
Product Code: 9781535940412
Format: Hard Cover
Genre: Bible Studies
Distribution: UK & Europe

The histories, letters, and prophecies of the New Testament were written to first-century Christians in the Roman empire, but their truth remains the same today.

In From Pentecost to Patmos, 2nd edition, Craig L. Blomberg and Darlene M. Seal provide the context and clarity that readers need to better understand Acts through Revelation.

In the same style as Jesus and the Gospels, Blomberg and Seal dive deep into the second part of the New Testament, helping serious Bible students grasp the historical, linguistic, and theological significances found in each book.

Title: Easy For Me Bible Verses
 Author: B&H Kids Editorial
 Price: £6.99*
 Product Code: 9781087739403
 Format: Board Book
 Genre: Children's Books
 Distribution: UK & Europe

Young children can start memorizing a lot at a young age—from ABCs and numbers to colours and Bible verses—and they often have fun doing so!

Easy for Me Bible Verses is a delightfully illustrated board book that includes 24 Scriptures that are fundamental to the Christian faith, such as:

- In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. —Genesis 1:1
- The Lord is good to everyone. —Psalm 145:9
- God, create a clean heart for me. —Psalm 51:10
- Love your neighbour as yourself. —Matthew 22:39

In a time when biblical illiteracy runs rampant in our culture, Christian parents want to lead their children to hide God's Word in their hearts starting early. Easy for Me Bible Verses is a simple way to help parents do just that.

Description

Have you ever wished certain passages weren't in the Bible?

It can be all too easy to trade the truth of God's grace and mercy for a skewed view of certain biblical texts that seem to paint God as oppressive, distant, or difficult to understand. Upon closer examination, this harsh view of God is the exact opposite of His true character. God welcomes His children with deep compassion and care, while holding all power and authority.

In this 7-session study, discover God's extravagant love in some of Scripture's most misunderstood passages. Because the God of the Old Testament is the same redemptive, loving, and grace-filled God we see through Christ in the New Testament.

'How Much More' will show you that God is for you—even in the places He may have seemed silent before.

About the Author

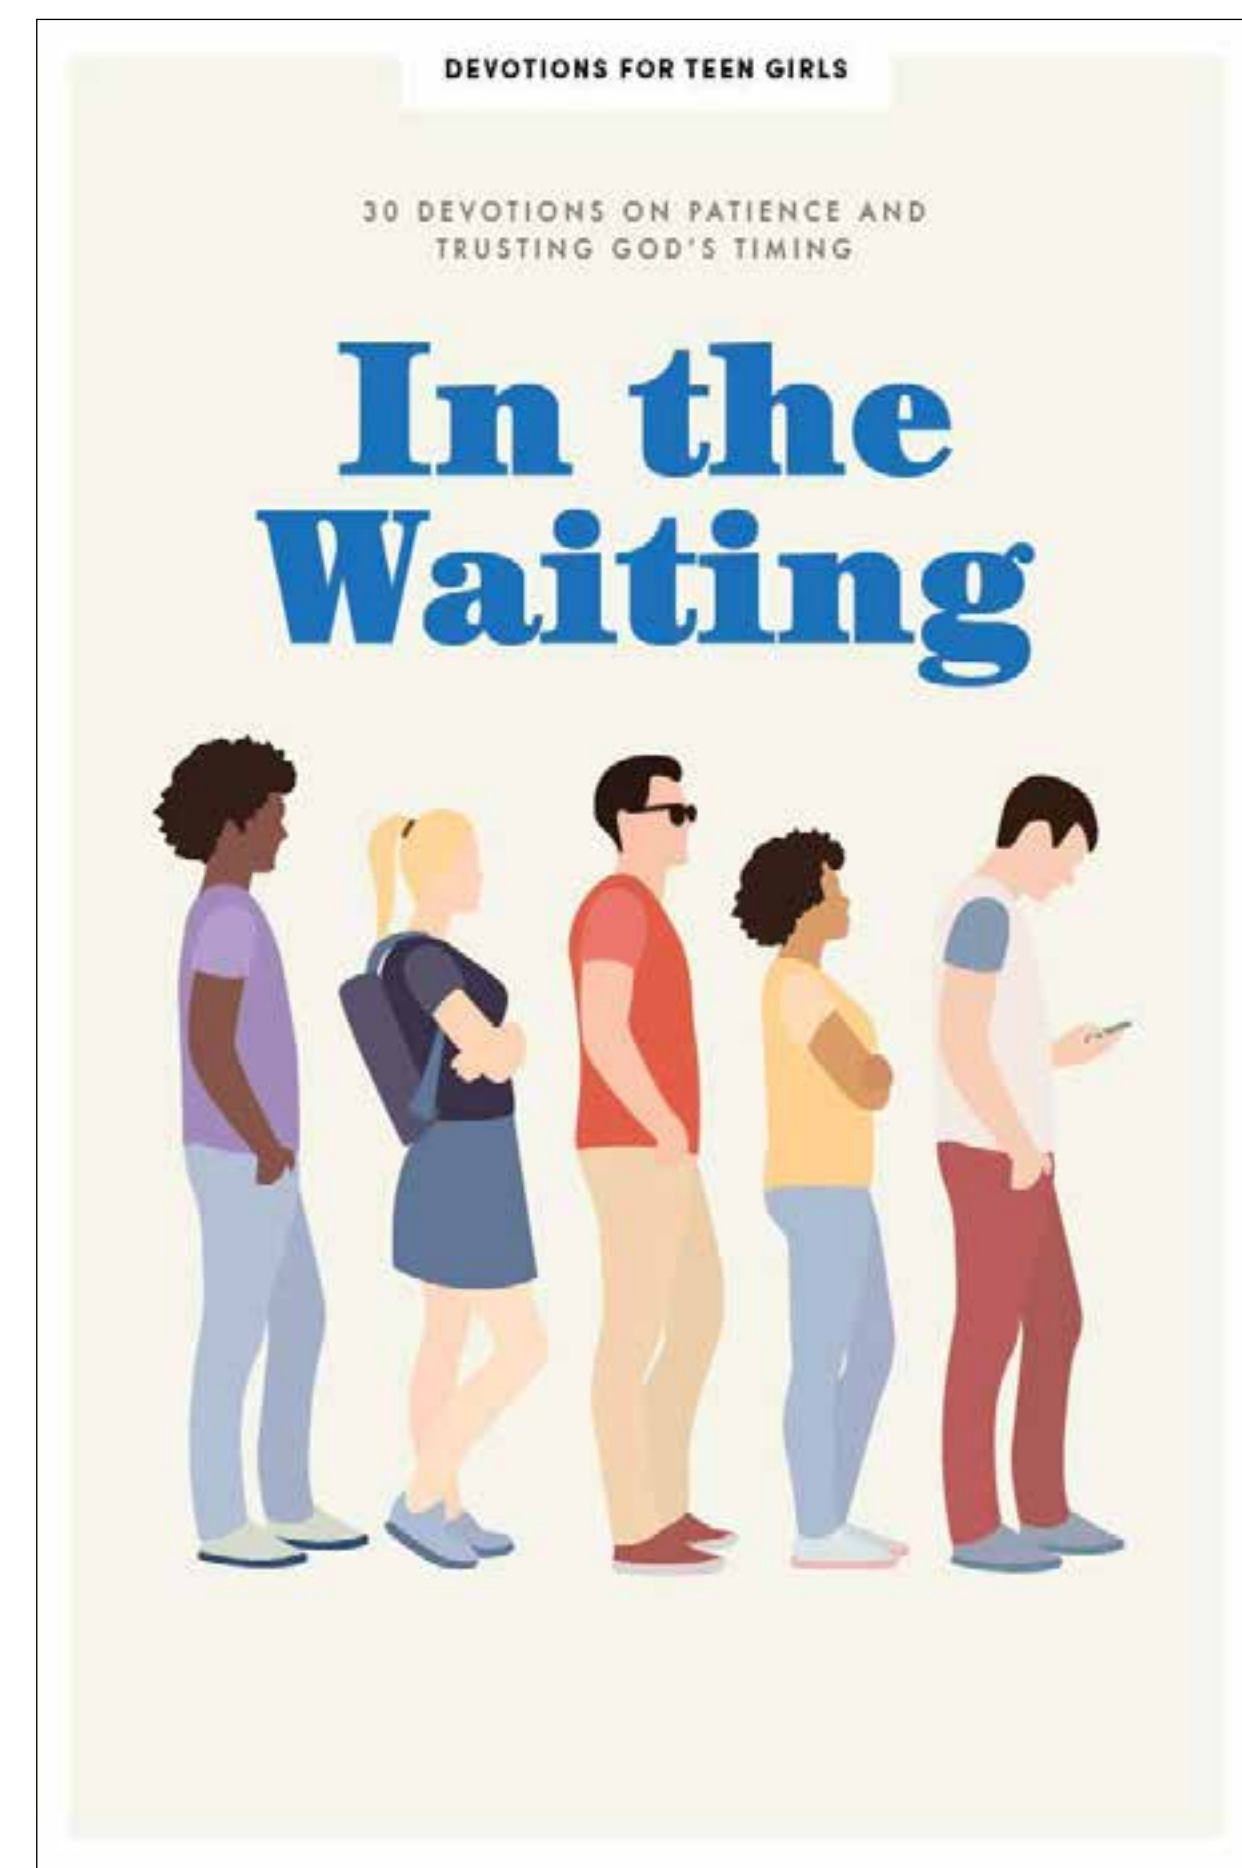

Lisa Harper is an engaging, hilarious communicator as well as an authentic and substantive Bible teacher that many enjoy hearing in person, or on countless TV and radio platforms.

She holds a Master of Theological Studies from Covenant Seminary, and a doctorate-in-progress at Denver Seminary. She's been in vocational ministry for thirty years and has written fifteen books and Bible study curriculums but says her greatest accomplishment by far is that of becoming Missy's (her adopted daughter from Haiti) mama!

They live on a hilly farmette south of Nashville, Tennessee, where they enjoy eating copious amounts of chips, queso, and guacamole.

Author: Lifeway Students
Price: £7.50*
Product Code: 9781087744339
Format: Paperback
Genre: Teen Devotional
Distribution: UK & Europe

A 30-day devotional for teen girls on patience, one of the nine fruit of the Spirit.

Wait, What?

No one likes to wait--whether it's standing in a long line at your favourite coffee shop or waiting to see if your crush is going to ask you to the homecoming dance.

We live in a society that doesn't seem to be built for waiting well. And yet, God calls us to wait on Him. You've probably heard that patience is a virtue, but it's much more than that--it's actually a fruit of the Spirit. It's biblical and something all Christians can and should be. But being surrounded by a fast-paced and instant culture can make that incredibly difficult.

Over the next 30 days, we'll discover the truth of what patience is, how God showed us patience first, and what we're called to do in the waiting.

Title: What's The Hurry?: 30-Day Student Devotional
Author: Lifeway Students
Price: £7.50*
Product Code: 9781087744353
Format: Paperback
Genre: Teen Devotional
Distribution: UK & Europe

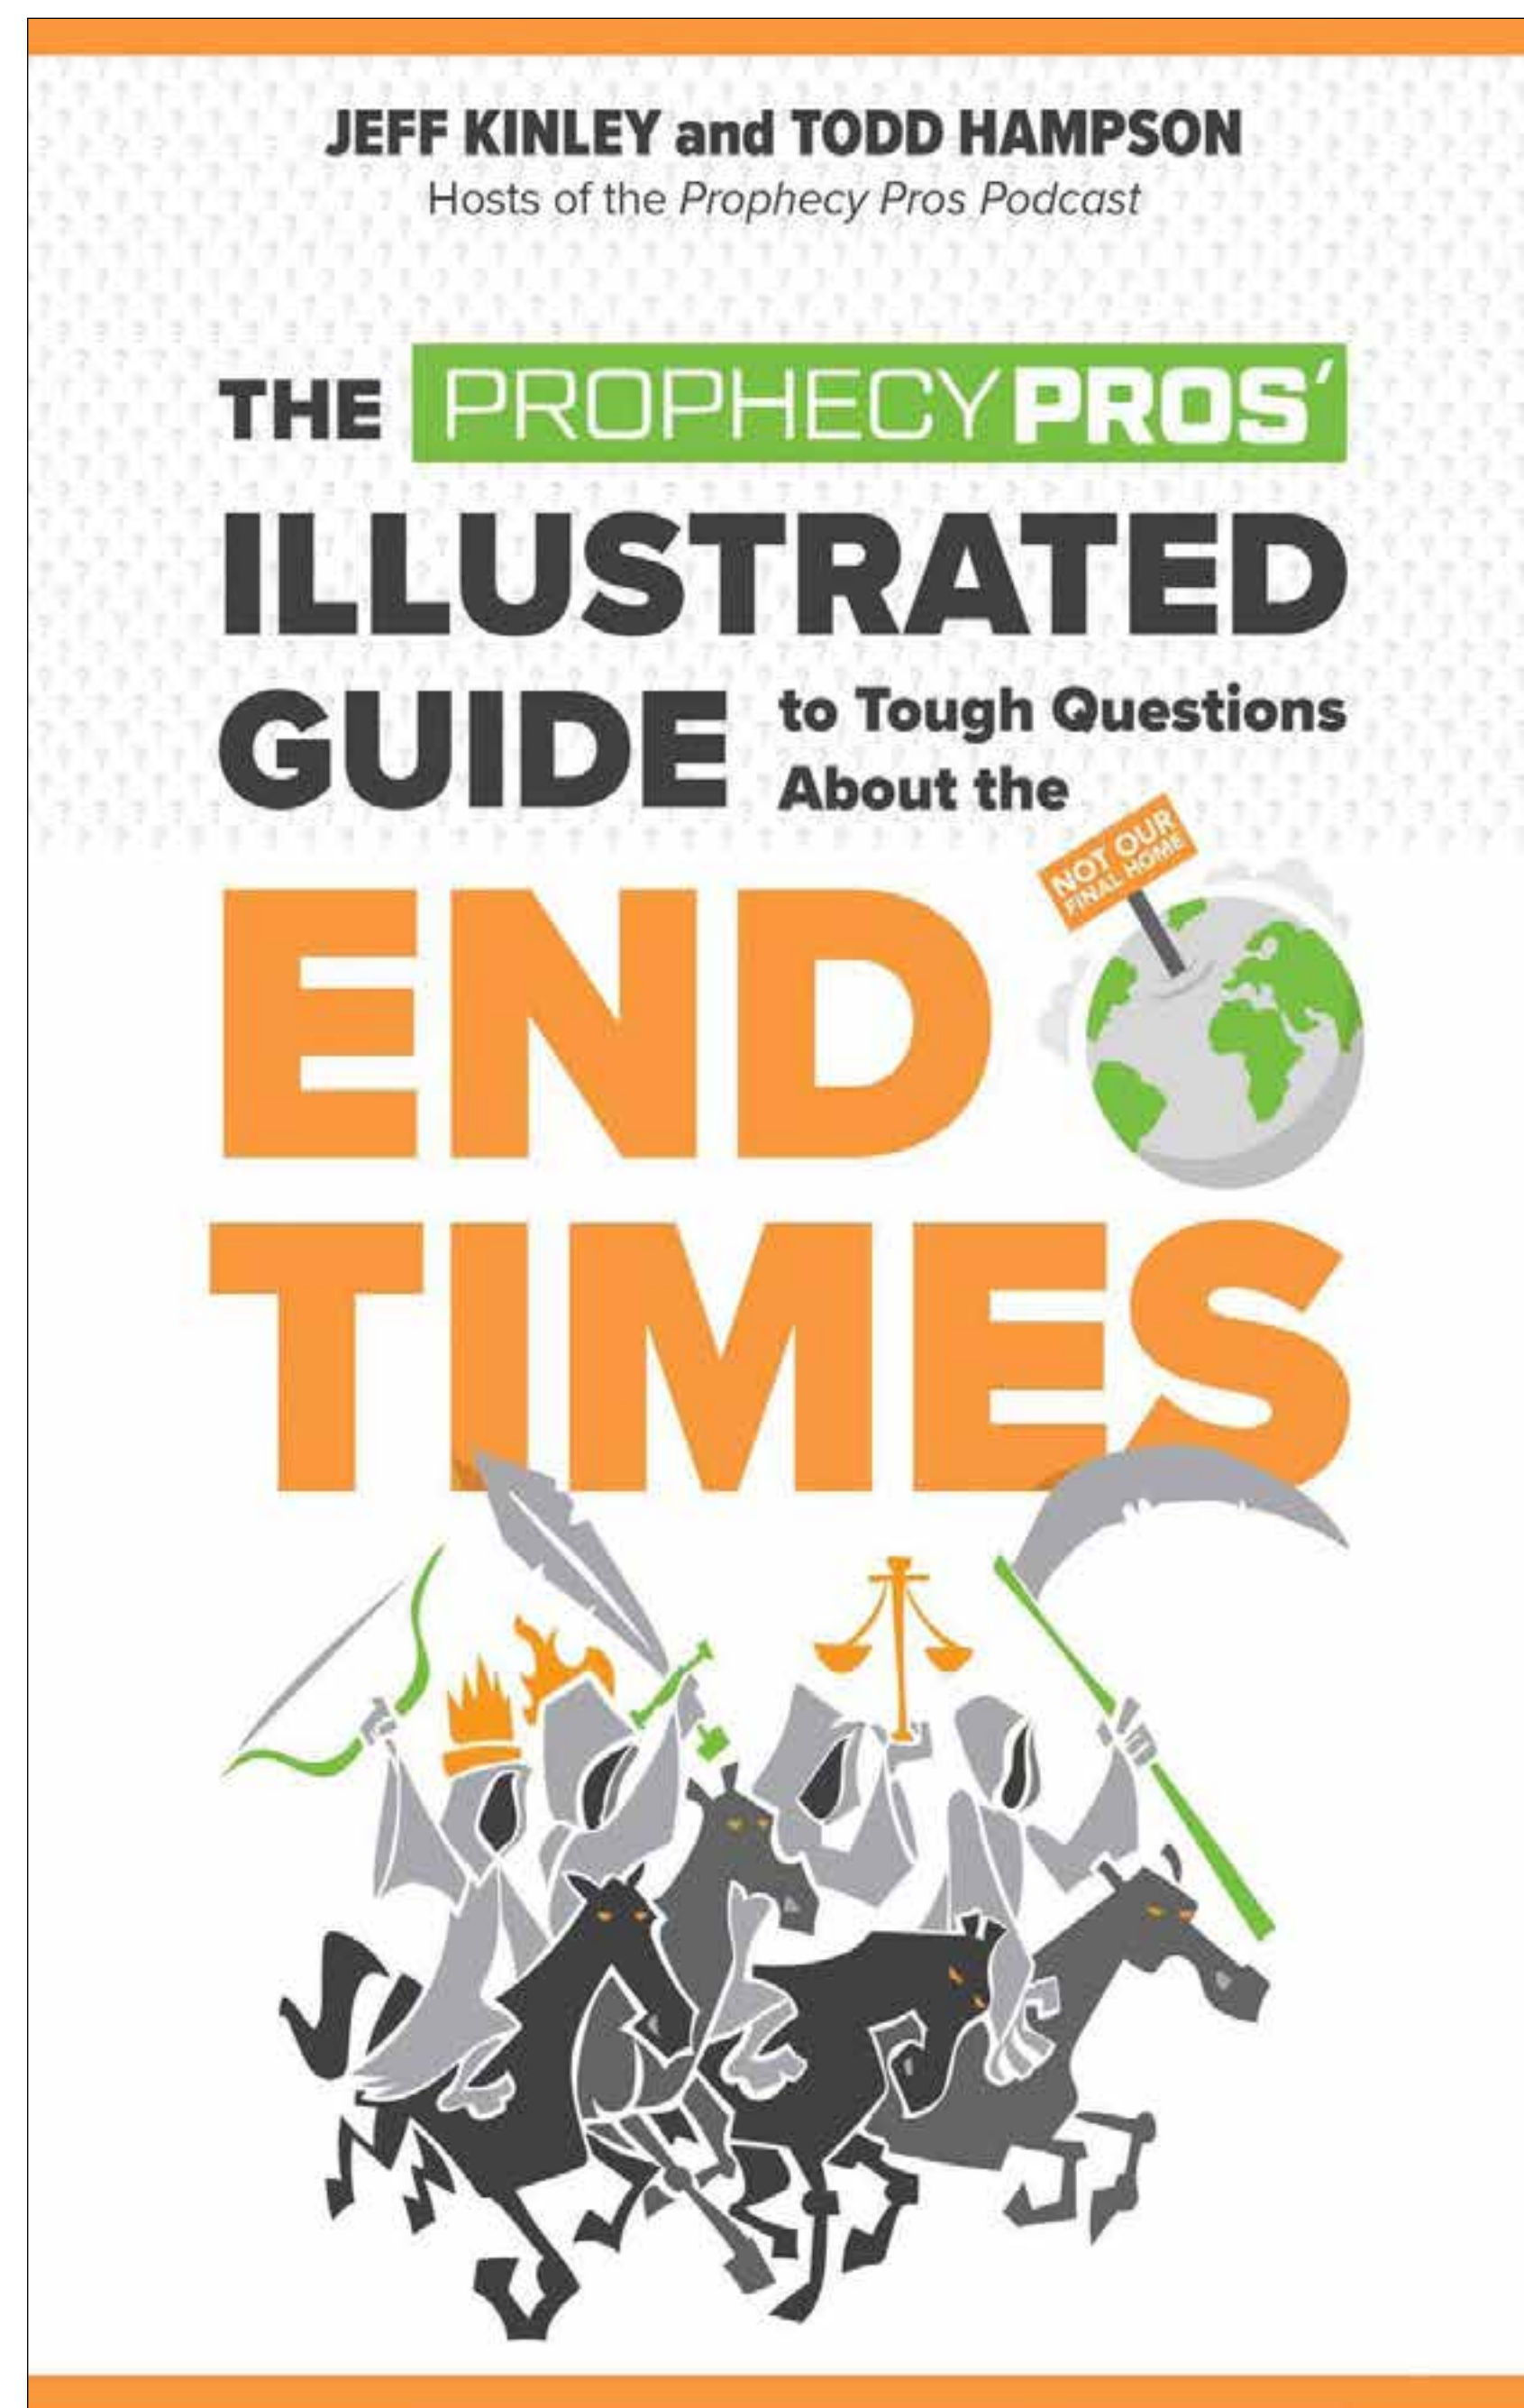

A 30-day devotional for teens on patience, one of the nine fruit of the Spirit.

Don't pray for patience...

You've heard it said you should never pray for patience because God just might give it to you. All that really means is that it's not easy to learn to be patient.

The truth is, patience is a fruit of the Spirit's transforming work in our lives. To be like Jesus, it's necessary to learn to be patient.

Over the next 30 days, this book will help you learn not to be in a hurry and how to trust God and His timing, learning patience in the process.

Description

How does a pro-choice doctor who once performed abortions for Planned Parenthood wind up on the opposite side of this embattled issue? Dr. Patricia Giebink was overpowered by God's perspective at a healing conference, becoming a pro-life advocate who repented before millions for doing abortions.

As the author tells her emotional story, you will come away with a new understanding of the complexity of life, the risks of abortion, the power of prayer, and the greatness of God's love and forgiveness--which is big enough to cover the pain of all affected by this controversial procedure.

Unexpected Choice is told from the perspective of a doctor who actually performed abortions through Planned Parenthood. The book chronicles her journey from being a pro-choice physician to someone speaking on behalf of the pro-life movement.

About the Author

Patti Giebink, M.D., is an OB/GYN physician who has over 30 years' experience delivering babies here and in hospitals overseas. While working in her private practice in Sioux Falls, SD, she began working part-time performing abortions at Planned Parenthood, the only abortion clinic in South Dakota. Eventually she closed her practice to work full-time at Planned Parenthood but left one year later in September 1997. She has not performed any abortions since.

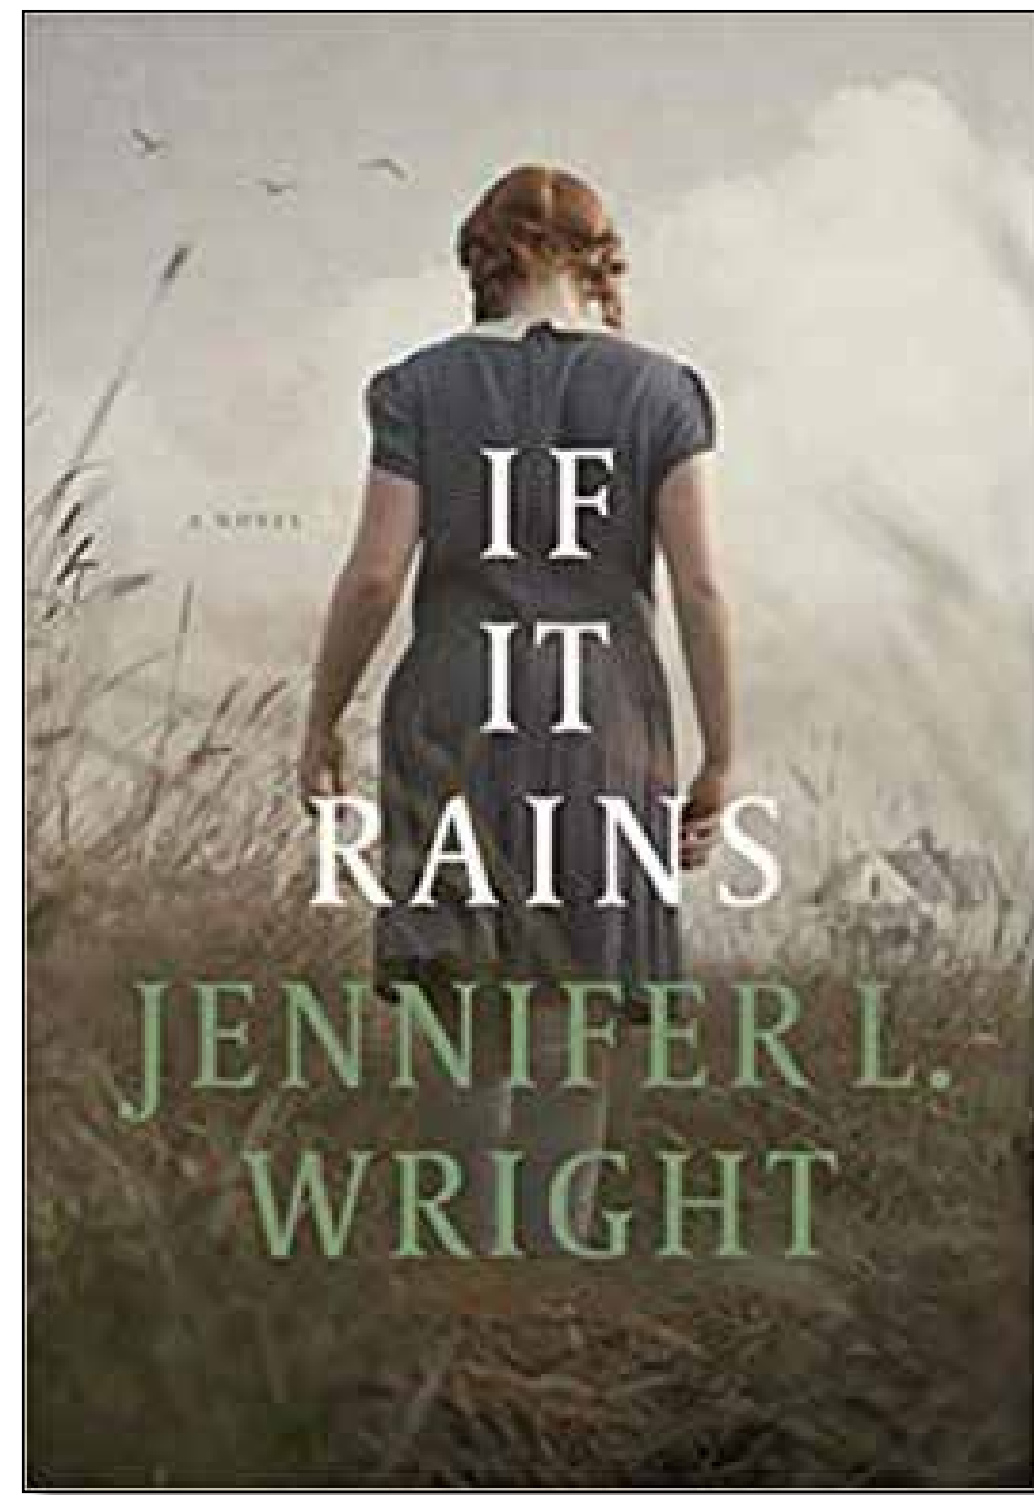

Her book, Unexpected Choice, chronicles her career, her journey and her transformation and gives readers insight into both sides of this divisive issue. Dr. Patti now spends her time helping people find compassion and sensitivity to those affected by abortion.

Dr. Patti lives in South Dakota along the Missouri River with her cat. Her hobbies include bicycling, reading, and prairie gardening. Unexpected Choice is her first book.

A story of resilience and redemption set against one of America's defining moments—the Dust Bowl. It's 1935 in Oklahoma, and lives are determined by the dust.

Fourteen-year-old Kathryn Baile, a spitfire born with a severe clubfoot, is coming of age in desperate times. Once her beloved older sister marries, Kathryn's only comfort comes in the well-worn pages of her favourite book, The Wonderful Wizard of Oz.

Then Kathryn's father decides to relocate to Indianapolis, and only the promise of a surgery to finally make her "normal" convinces Kathryn to leave Oklahoma behind. But disaster strikes along the way!

Two sisters, struggling against unspeakable hardship, discover that even in their darkest times, they are still united in spirit, and God is still with them, drawing them home.

As a police officer in Table Rock, Oregon, Leah Radcliff puts her life on the line to help others every day. But at home, Leah's battling her own personal nightmare: Brad, her abusive husband, a fellow officer, celebrated hero, and beloved son of a powerful prominent family.

Brad's violent outbursts and suspicious activities have left Leah physically and emotionally scarred, until one desperate action to put a stop to his abuse results in deadly consequences.

Though public opinion seems ready to convict Leah, Officer Clint Tanner is one of the few to believe she acted in self-defense. As he works with Leah's attorney to produce the evidence they need, new truths about Brad's dark side come to light—and reveal a deep-rooted problem in Table Rock.

There are some who have breached their sworn duty to serve and protect . . . and they'll do anything to keep their secret safe.

Escape from the Everglades is the first book in the High Water series and blends contemporary mystery and suspense, dramatic situations, and high adventure that both boys and girls will love.

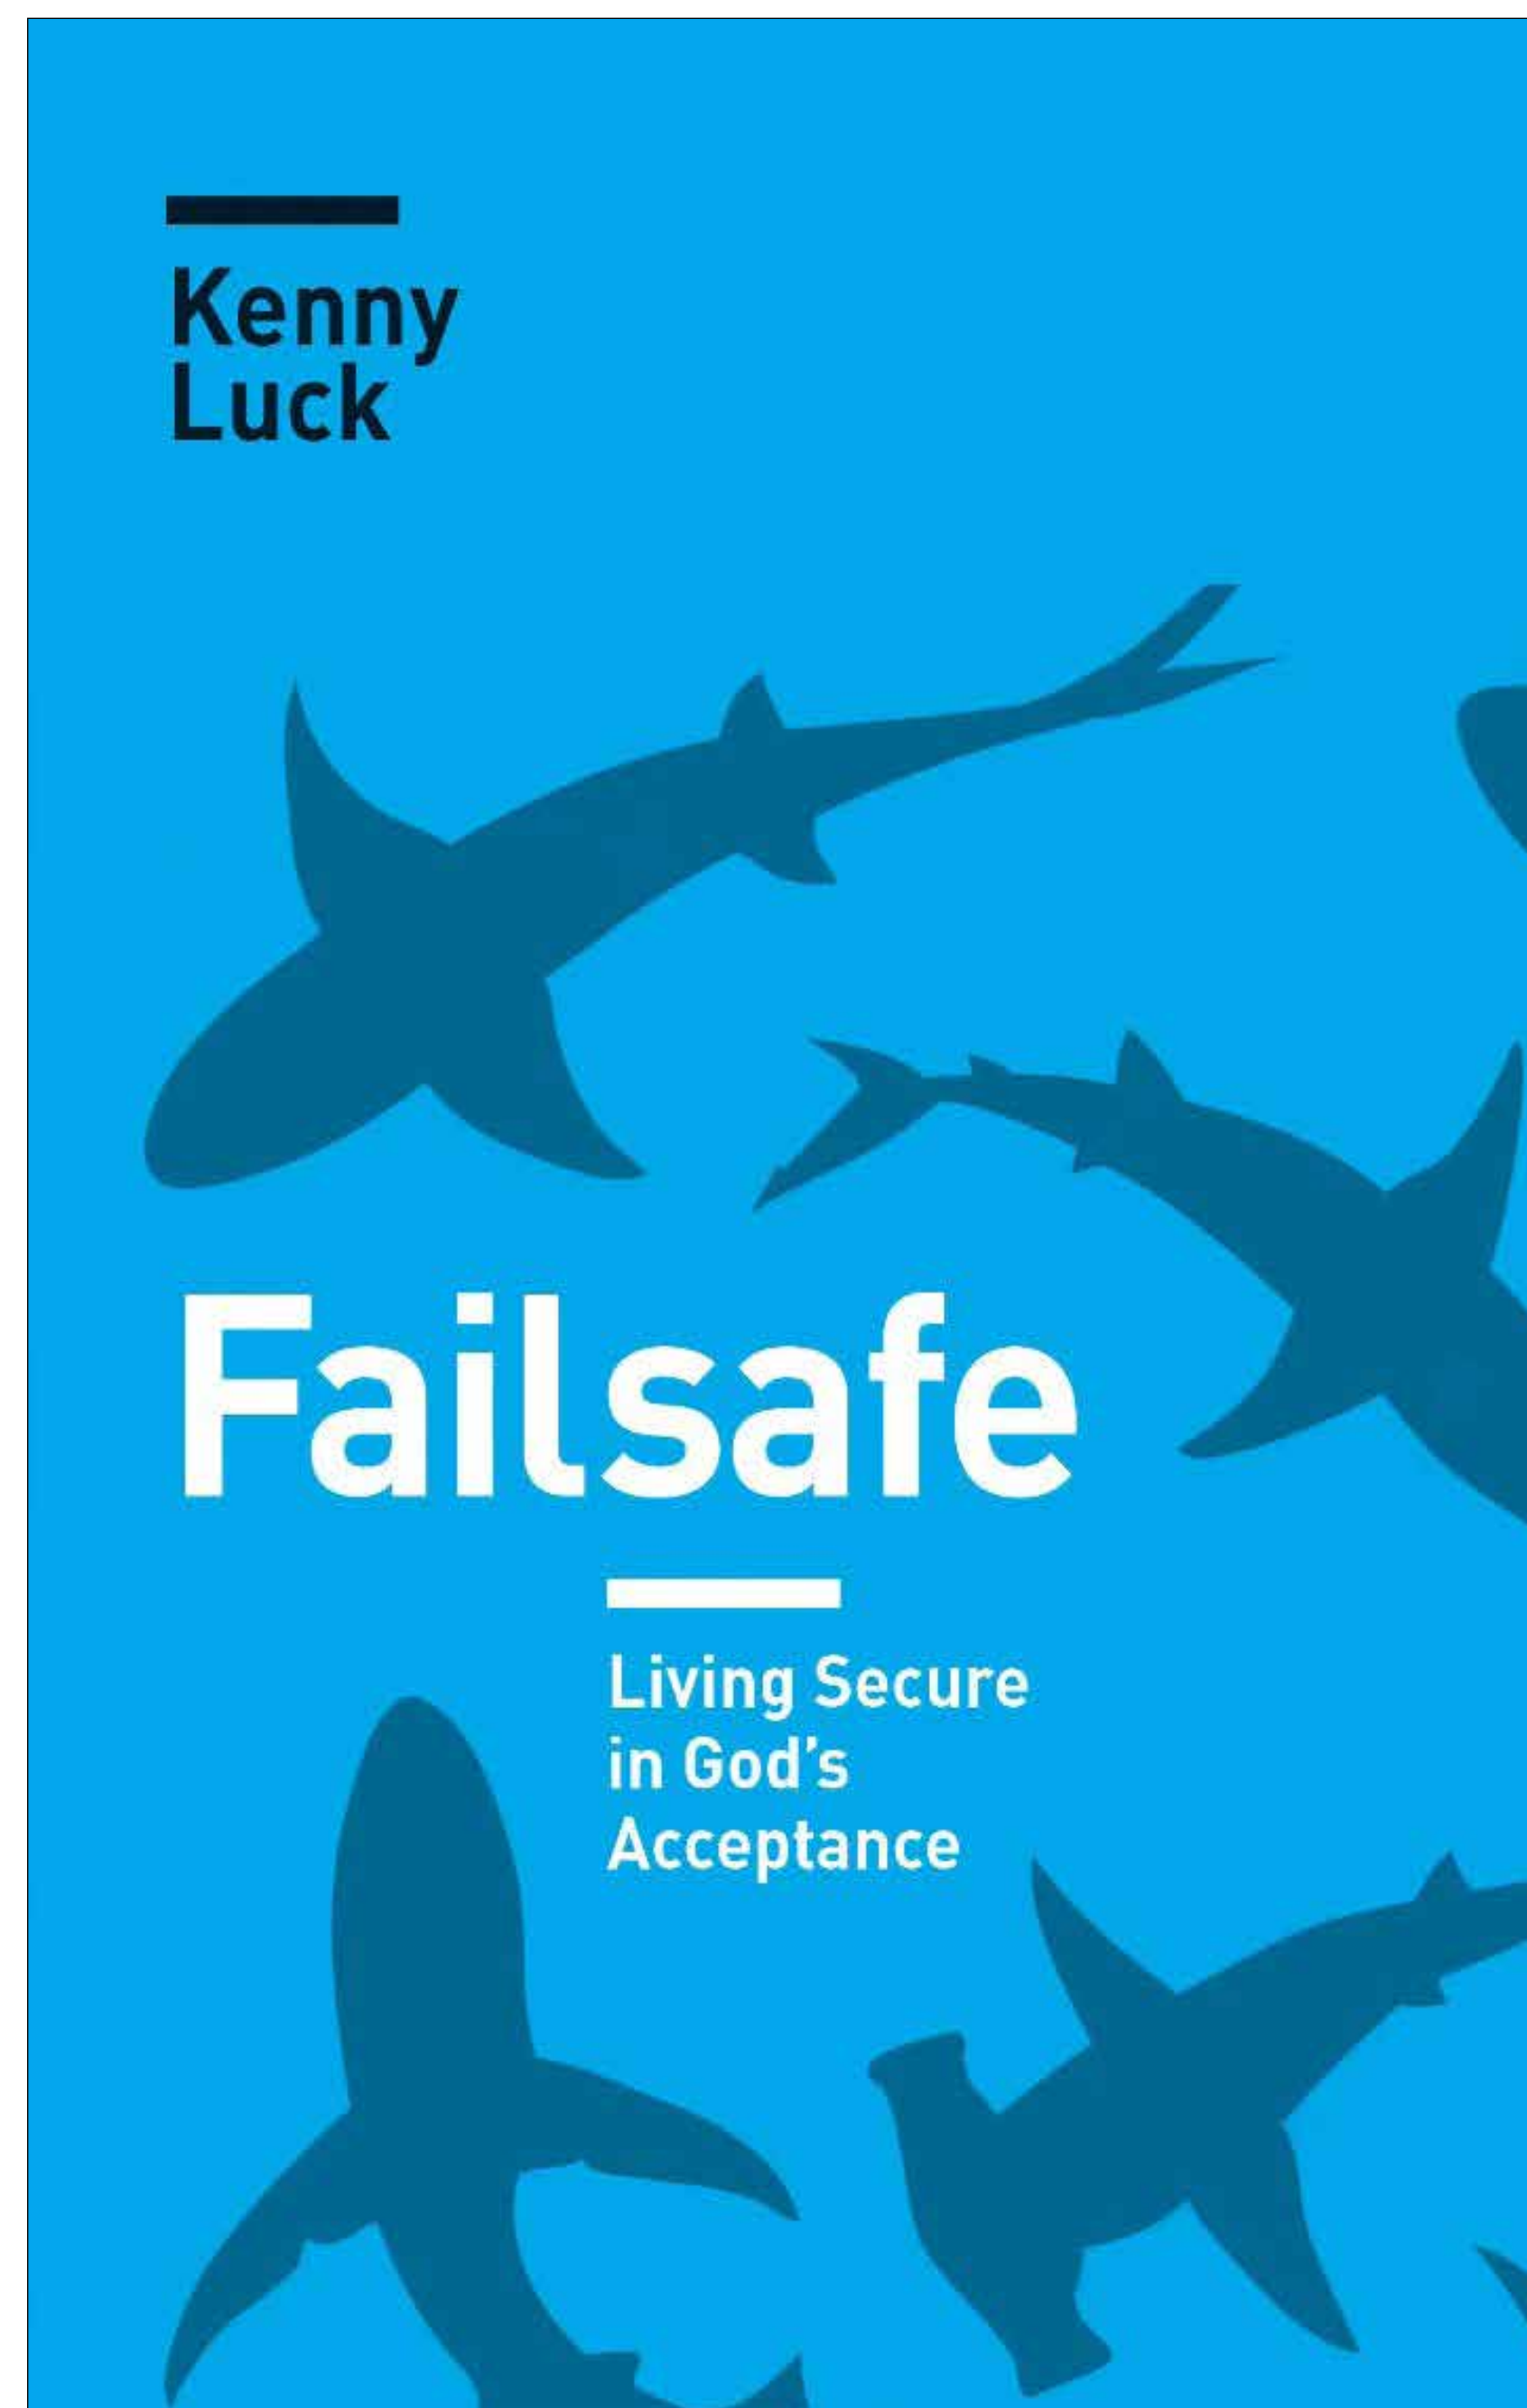

A park ranger's son hates the Everglades, and he thinks he'll just die if he doesn't escape Southern Florida soon . . . and he's right.

After Parker Buckman is mauled and nearly killed by an alligator, he sees the glades as a place of death. All he wants to do is get out of the area, and he's convinced he won't truly be okay until he does.

But he can't leave until he finds a friend who goes missing. Escaping a bad situation isn't a matter of a geographical change.

Sometimes the best way to a brighter future is to face the darkness of your past.

Description

A powerful book for men’s groups and for personal growth.

Failsafe reconnects men to their identity in Christ: made in the image of a loving God and remade as new creations no longer bound to the patterns of this world, thanks to the saving work of Jesus. As this connection with God is strengthened, men are reborn. Their emotional lives realign. Their character, spirituality, and emotional health come back into congruence, and they can face the hard things of the world with bold assurance, knowing that they are no longer slaves to their fear, their pain, or the expectations of others. They belong to the Lord, and he has overcome the world.

Veteran men’s ministry leader Kenny Luck helps men courageously face their insecurities and unlearn their unhealthy attachments to broken, worldly markers of significance: their jobs, their standing in the community, their physique, etc.

Kenny teaches that it is impossible to be spiritually mature when you are emotionally immature and points men to Christ as a model for masculinity and an anchor for their identity. This book is a rallying cry for men to become grounded in Christ so they can be set loose to serve a hurting world.

About the Author

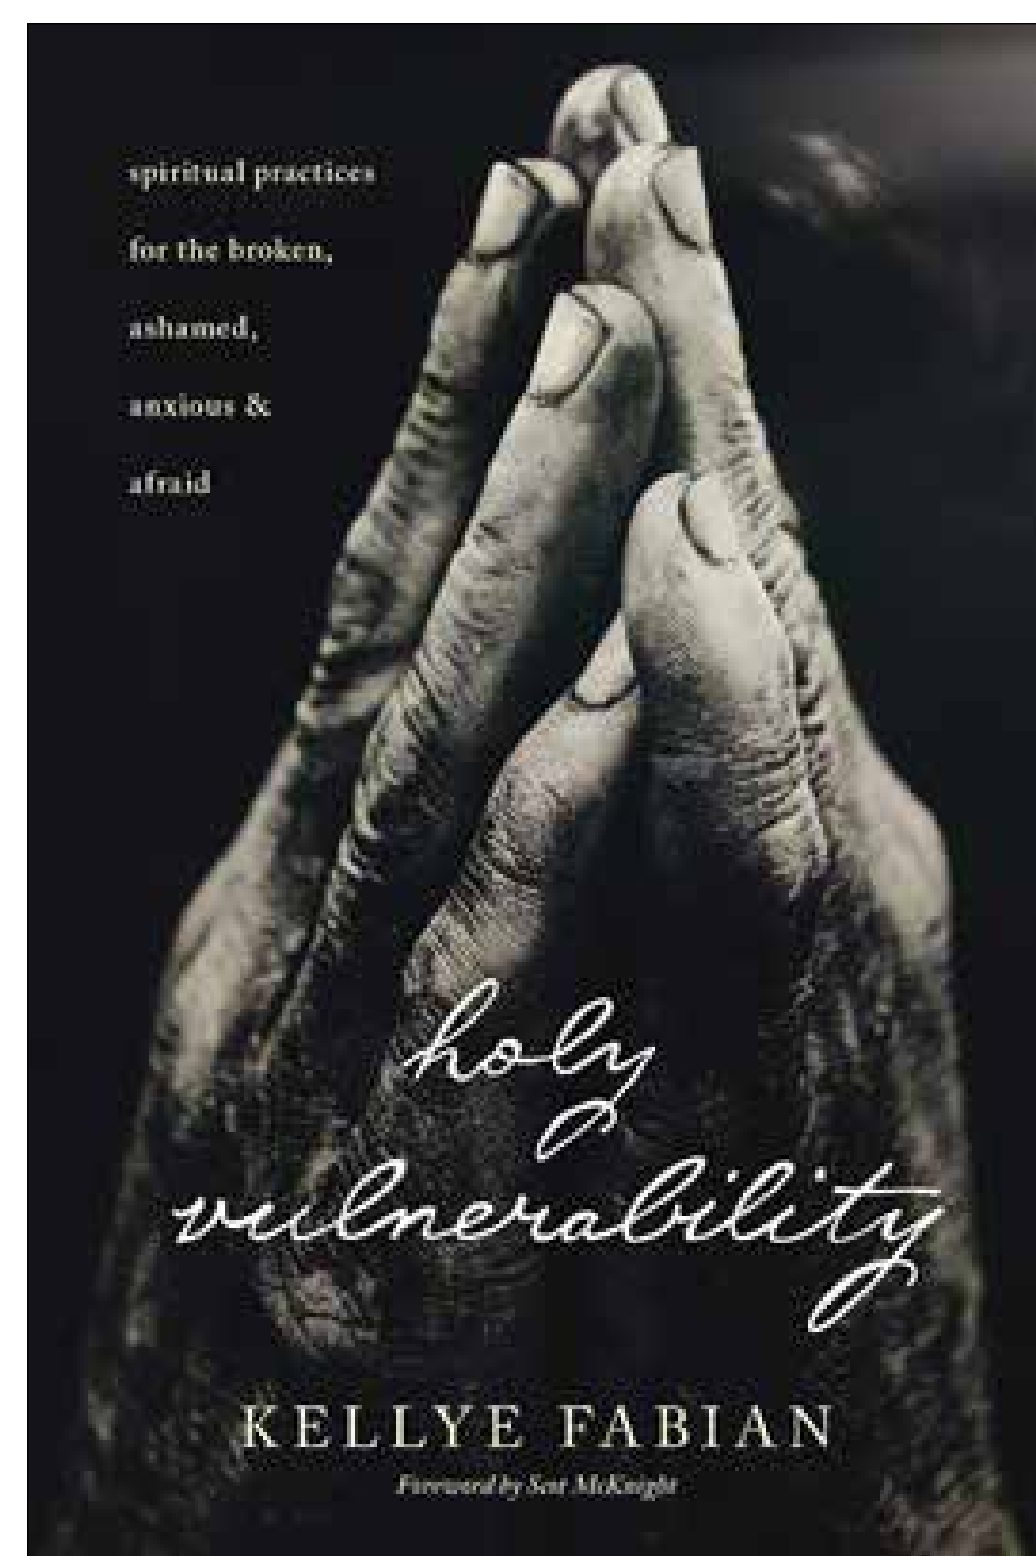

Kenny Luck founded Every Man Ministries (EMM) in 2000 to free men spiritually and ignite spiritual health worldwide.

He is currently the executive pastor of ministries at Crossline Church in Laguna Hills, California.

Prior to serving at Crossline, he was the men’s pastor at Saddleback Church in Lake Forest, California, from 1997 to 2014.

Life can seemingly be fine on the surface. But for any of us who scratch that surface, we recognize anxiety, shame, disappointment, and regret. And yet, in the depths of these feelings, in the things we hate about ourselves, others, and this world, we can invite God's presence.

This is the essence of holy vulnerability. To enter into holy vulnerability is to intentionally expose our raw wounds so that God can heal and mend and transform us. What happens when we refuse this depth of healing? Something that author Kellye Fabian calls "unholy leakage"—that thing that happens when we are afraid, ashamed, or anxious, and instead of facing the reality of what we're experiencing, we just spill it on everyone around us.

Where is anxiety occupying our hearts and minds? Where is fear hindering our relationships and limiting our faith and joy? Where is shame causing us to question our self-worth? Is there another way?

Yes. Holy Vulnerability unpacks six atypical, unexpected spiritual practices intended to open us to God's healing and transformation.

Through practices like laughter, community, and tangible engagement with creation, Kellye guides us to notice where brokenness is breaking into our lives.

A card deck with multiple games for memorizing God's Word

Based on the popular Topical Memory System from the Navigators, this engaging tool will help kids memorize Scripture—and have family fun in the process!

Turn "Sword Drills" into Bible-memory fun. Spread out the cards with your kids to play the first game, "Half & Half." Matching pictures on the back will show if you're right! Laugh together when a mismatched verse happens. Each mismatch is another chance to talk about God's truth. Then, when your kids think they've got the verses down, turn the cards over and advance to the second game, "Picture Prompts."

Helpful pictures will remind them of God's truth, love, and goodness in a way that your kids will never forget.

There are four translations included: NIV, ESV, NLT and The Message

Description

Get to know God as the generous Father who loves to give good things to his children. The great I AM, the true and living God, is a God who has the glorious habit of going about doing good to people, especially to His people. He gets glory from us by doing good to us.

Many Christians do not know God like this. God doesn't want you to remain unacquainted with Him as the God whom the apostle James winsomely describes as 'the constantly giving God.' Just the opposite. He longs for you to know Him as the God who is eager to do good things for you, like helping you say 'No!' to temptation, answering your big prayers, continuously forgiving your sins, enabling you to conquer fear, and giving you wisdom in decision making, to mention but a few examples.

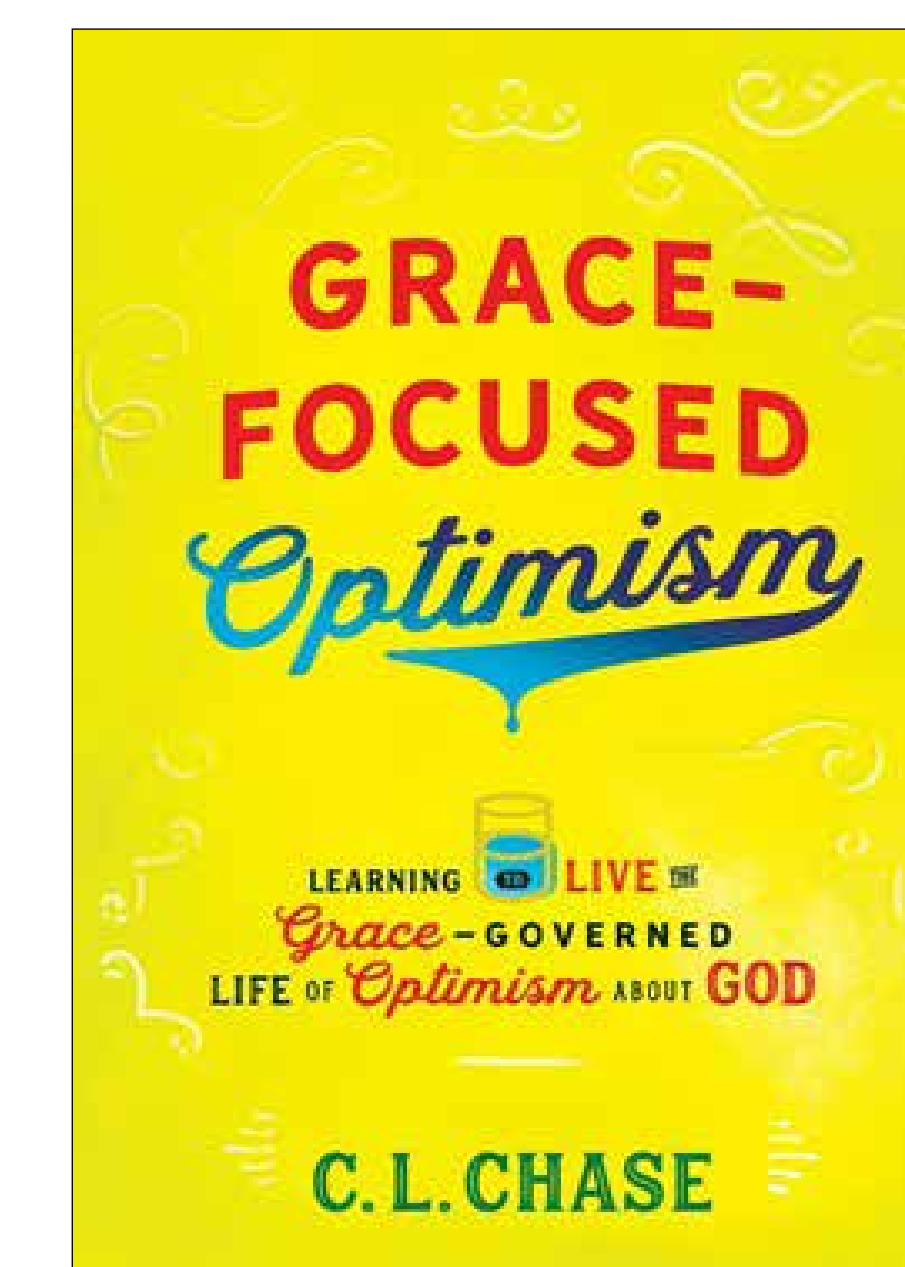

In 'Good, Good Father' C. L. Chase lays out three steps to knowing God as He wants to be known. Firstly, you must immediately begin making a big deal of the truth most Christians know but fail to take seriously. Secondly, you must begin emphasizing the Father's method of doing good to you. Thirdly, you must begin using His promises to experience Fatherly good now.

Your Heavenly Father wants you to live abundantly. His Fatherhood magnifies His love for you. He loves you intensely, openly, responsibly, enduringly, glorifying-ly. C. L. Chase's book will help you to get to know God like this.

Description

An encouraging, warm-hearted read on the theology of generosity.

Every Christian is called to give – of our money, our time, our talents – but how often do we give just because we feel we should? We resent the sacrifice of things we could enjoy ourselves, and the biblical idea of giving cheerfully seems almost impossible. Or we give because we know that it will make us feel good. Or because we want other people to think well of us. But this is not godly giving.

The motivation behind our giving is important. Giving, like everything else in the Christian life, begins with the two greatest commandments – to love the Lord our God with everything we have, and to love our neighbour as ourselves. Our cheerful, outrageous and extravagant generosity begins with unreservedly loving the God who has freely given us all things.

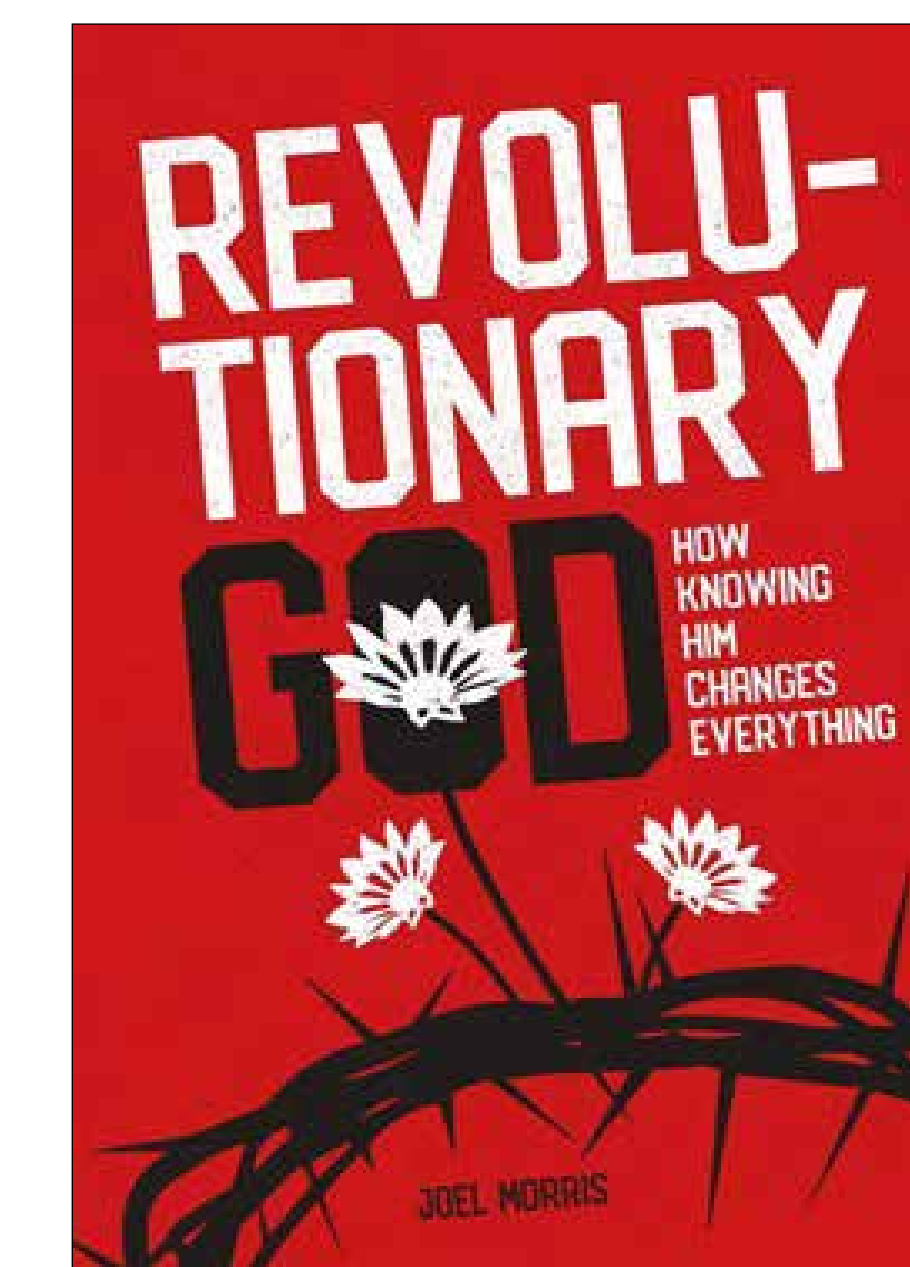

In this concise book, Joel Morris explains that our understanding and practice of generosity is based on our knowledge of God, as well as the condition of our own hearts. While many books explain that we should give, Morris dives into the why of giving. Christians can afford to be generous because we have been given so much. Generosity overflows from our life in Christ. We are the recipients of amazing grace – we didn't save ourselves, we simply said yes to the greatest gift. Although we often think of money when we speak about giving, the theology that Morris lays out so clearly can be applied to many things in our lives. To name but a few, we can be generous in serving, in giving money, time and talent, in hospitality, food, stuff and good works. The book's conclusion encourages readers to think through how the theology of generosity applies to their everyday lives.

About the Author

Joel Morris is the Executive Director of Union School of Theology in Bridgend, Wales. He is on the leadership team of Grace Community Church, Porthcawl.

He was a missionary with Operation Mobilisation on the Logos 2 ship before starting a doctorate and career in Materials Engineering which took him from Aerospace to the Nuclear sector.

Kevin Belmonte – Beacon-Light: The Life of William Borden

Description

The fascinating story of a young millionaire whose short life was lived in the service of his Lord. Although William Borden was taken from this world at the young age of 25, the years he lived were full of dedication to serve.

Kevin Belmonte draws on letters, quotations and images to paint a unique picture of William's life of commitment to God, delving into the ways 'vital truth,' as William called it, was the star he reckoned by. In the telling of the life story of William Borden, there is much to learn about living a life of devotion to God. The desire to live for Christ guided and shaped William's life, from his school days, right up until his death.

With insightful extracts of letters and telling photos, the reader is taken on a journey through William's life, from The Hill School, to Yale, to Princeton, to Bible college, and the beginning of his missionary training.

Reading this book will give a wonderful view into Borden's world, to know something of the voices and scenes he knew. A vital part of William's life was his 'Morning Watch' (or what he also called his 'breakfast') – feeding on and contemplating the Word of God and growing deeper in his faith.

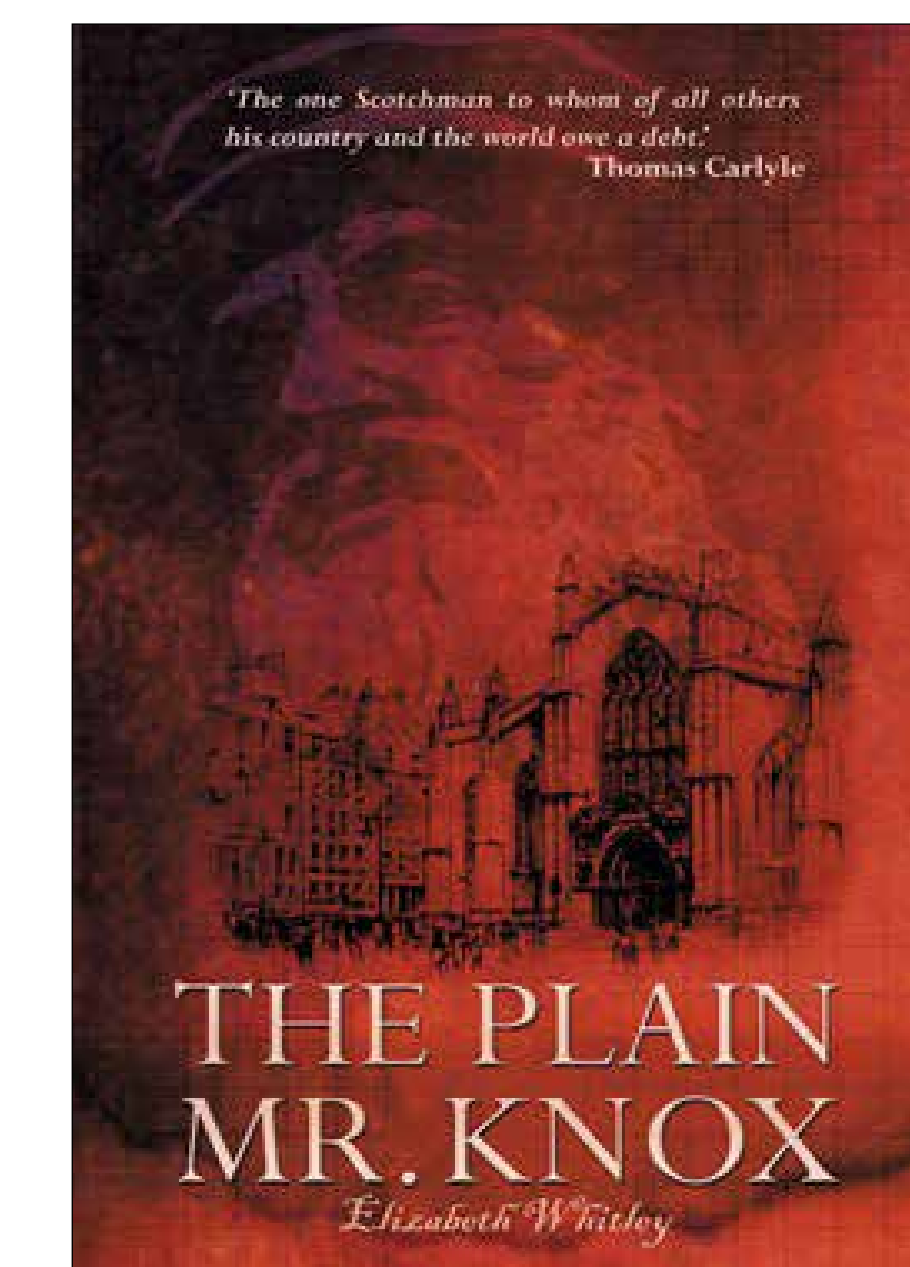

It's a privilege to have this unique insight into his life, and an inspiration for readers to strive to live such a life of devotion themselves.

About the Author

Award-winning author Kevin Belmonte holds a BA in English Literature from Gordon College, an MA in Church History from Gordon-Conwell Seminary, and a second master's degree in American and New England Studies from the University of Southern Maine.

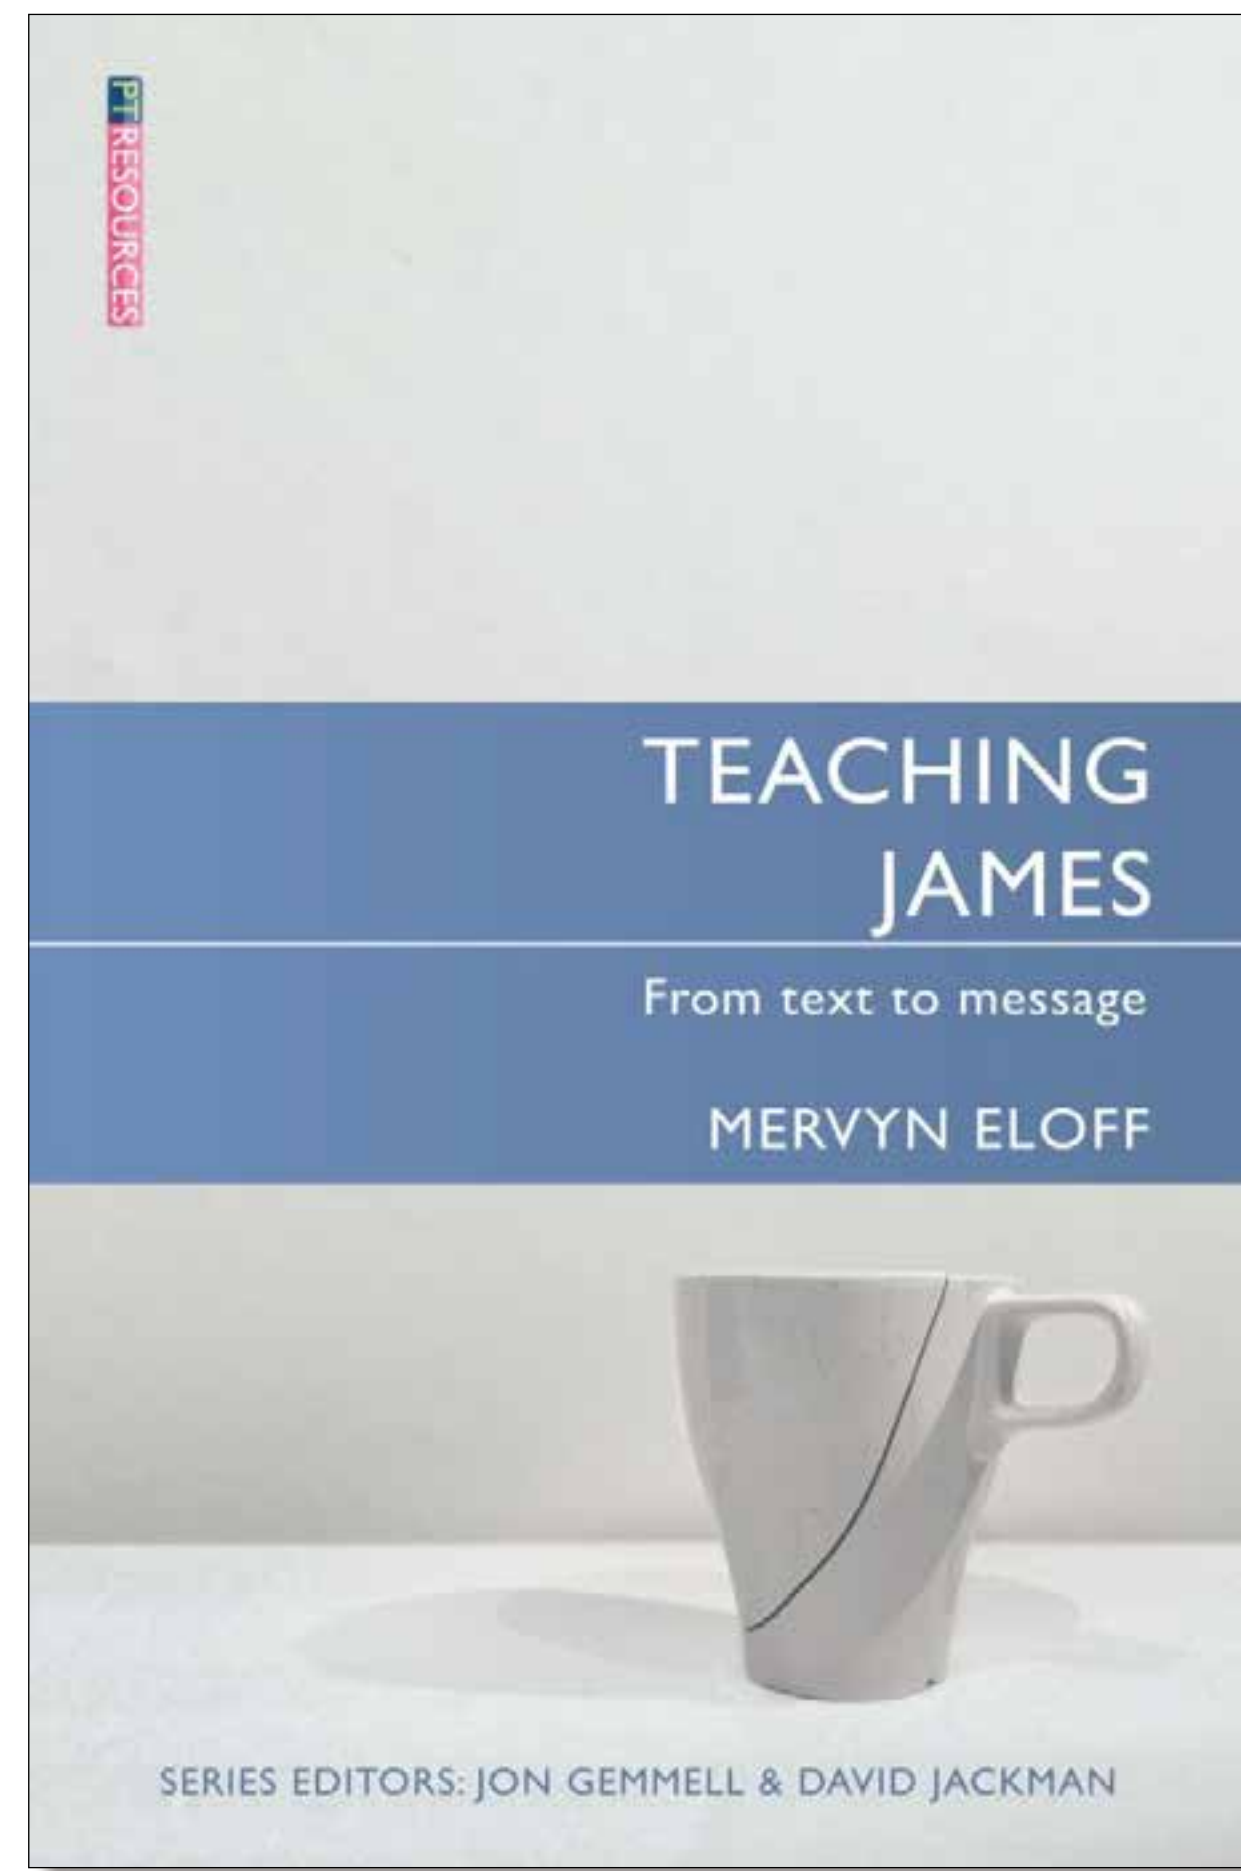

He has twice been a Finalist for the John Pollock Award for Christian Biography, and in 2003, he won that award for his biography of William Wilberforce.

Product Code: 9781527105348
Format: Paperback
Genre: Bible Studies
Distribution: UK & Europe

The letter of James is a much loved epistle in the New Testament. People warm to its seemingly practical nature as it instructs us in the nuts and bolts of the Christian life.

However, it is not an easy letter to preach and teach. People struggle to see how the letter fits together and are confused about its overall theme and purpose.

This is where Teaching James will prove to be of great assistance. Mervyn Eloff will guide you through the intricate detail of the letter whilst never losing sight of the overall theme and purpose of this dynamic Bible book. A book that is as potent and challenging today as it was when the dispersed Christians read it in the First Century.

Title: Track: Navigating Culture
 Author: Walt Mueller
 Price: £2.99*
 Product Code: 9781527106949
 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Youth & Teens/ Personal Growth
 Distribution: UK & Europe

A practical guide to living in and engaging with culture, while living for God.

We all belong to a culture. From the shows we watch to the language we use to the food we eat; culture shapes the way we look at the world, the way we act, the way we think. It affects so much of our lives, and yet we are rarely aware of it. If we are not careful, it can push us away from God's good desires for who we are and how we live in our world.

This short, helpful book from the Track series encourages young adults to think about what it means to live in the culture but to follow God's ways rather than the ways of the world.

Walt Mueller begins by explaining what culture is, how it affects the way we see the world, and how we can be aware of the differences between what God teaches in His Word and what our culture says is true. He then covers a couple of big issues that young people face where there is a stark difference between biblical truth and wisdom, and the way our friends might see things.

Title: Track: The Power of Story
 Author: Joe Deegan
 Price: £2.99*
 Product Code: 9781527106956
 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Youth & Teens/ Personal Growth
 Distribution: UK & Europe

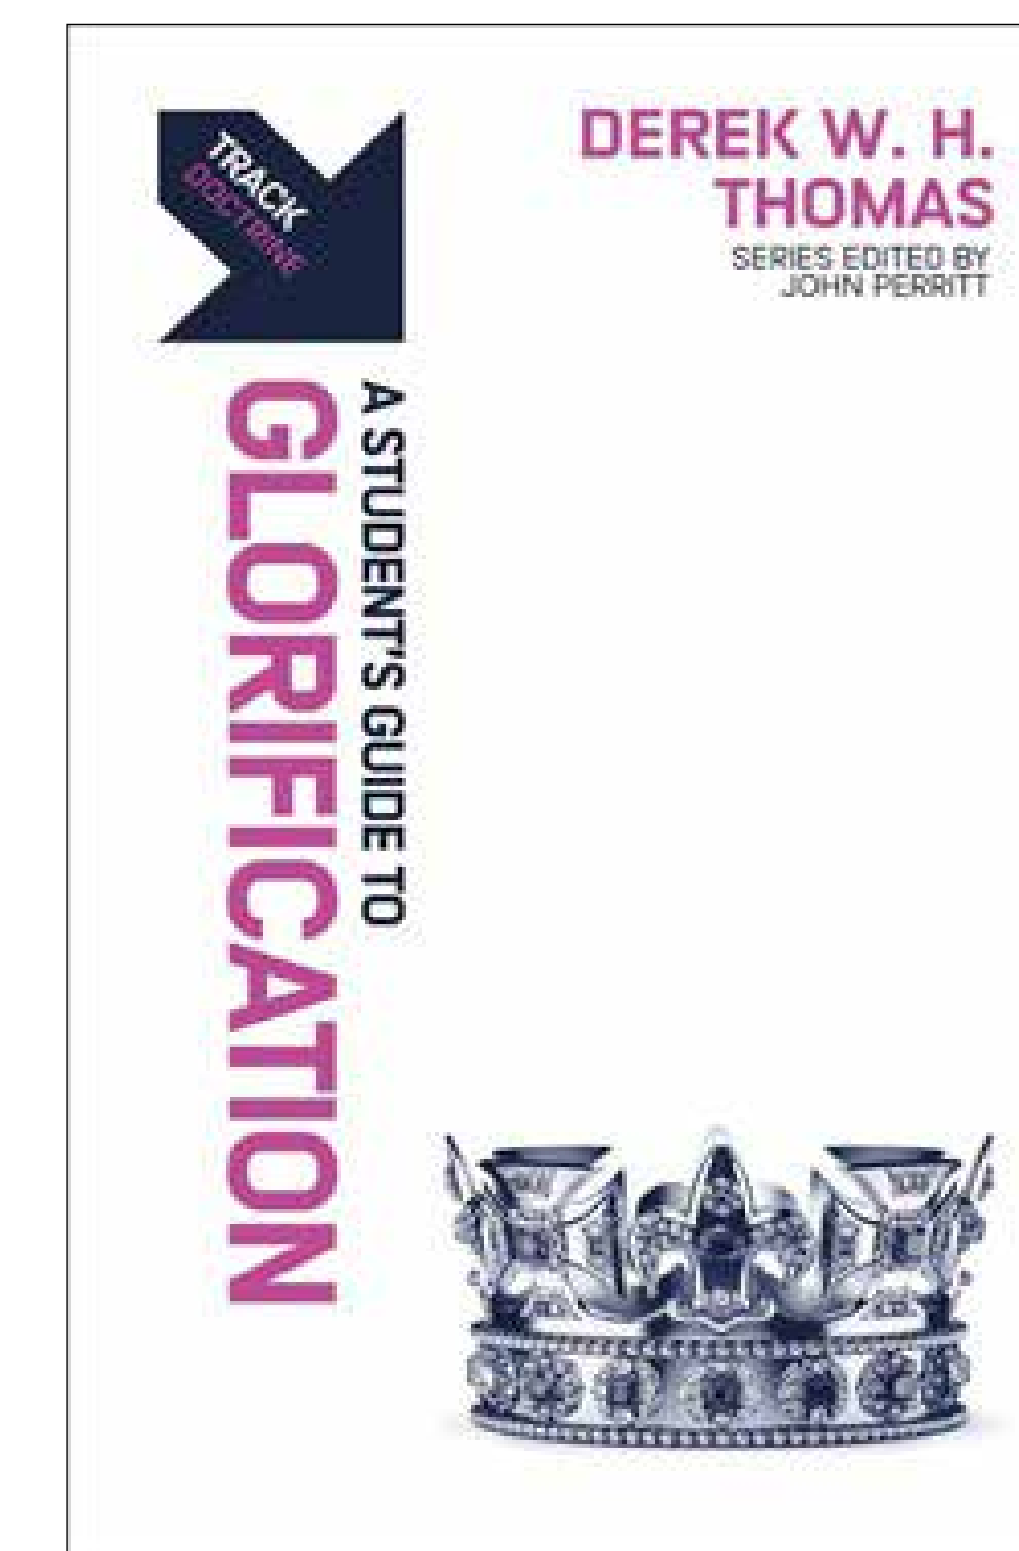

A compelling dive into the importance of stories in our lives for young adults.

Stories are powerful. They shape us and stay with us in a way that nothing else does. Ideas and wisdom can be portrayed in a way that draws the listener or reader in. Stories can build relationships and understanding. They can help to make sense of confusing concepts.

In this compelling addition to the Track series, Joe Deegan explains why stories are so important – and what role they play in our everyday lives. For centuries people have used fairy tales and folk tales to warn children not to stray into the woods or get too close to wolves. Whether fact or fiction the best stories have a familiar shape – a beginning, a middle and an ending – as well as characters that we recognise. It seems that a need for stories lives in the heart of every human.

Deegan contends that this love for stories comes from God. He is the greatest storyteller of all time, and He created us in His image.

With short chapters and questions for reflections Joe Deegan shows us how we go about understanding God's story, and our place in it.

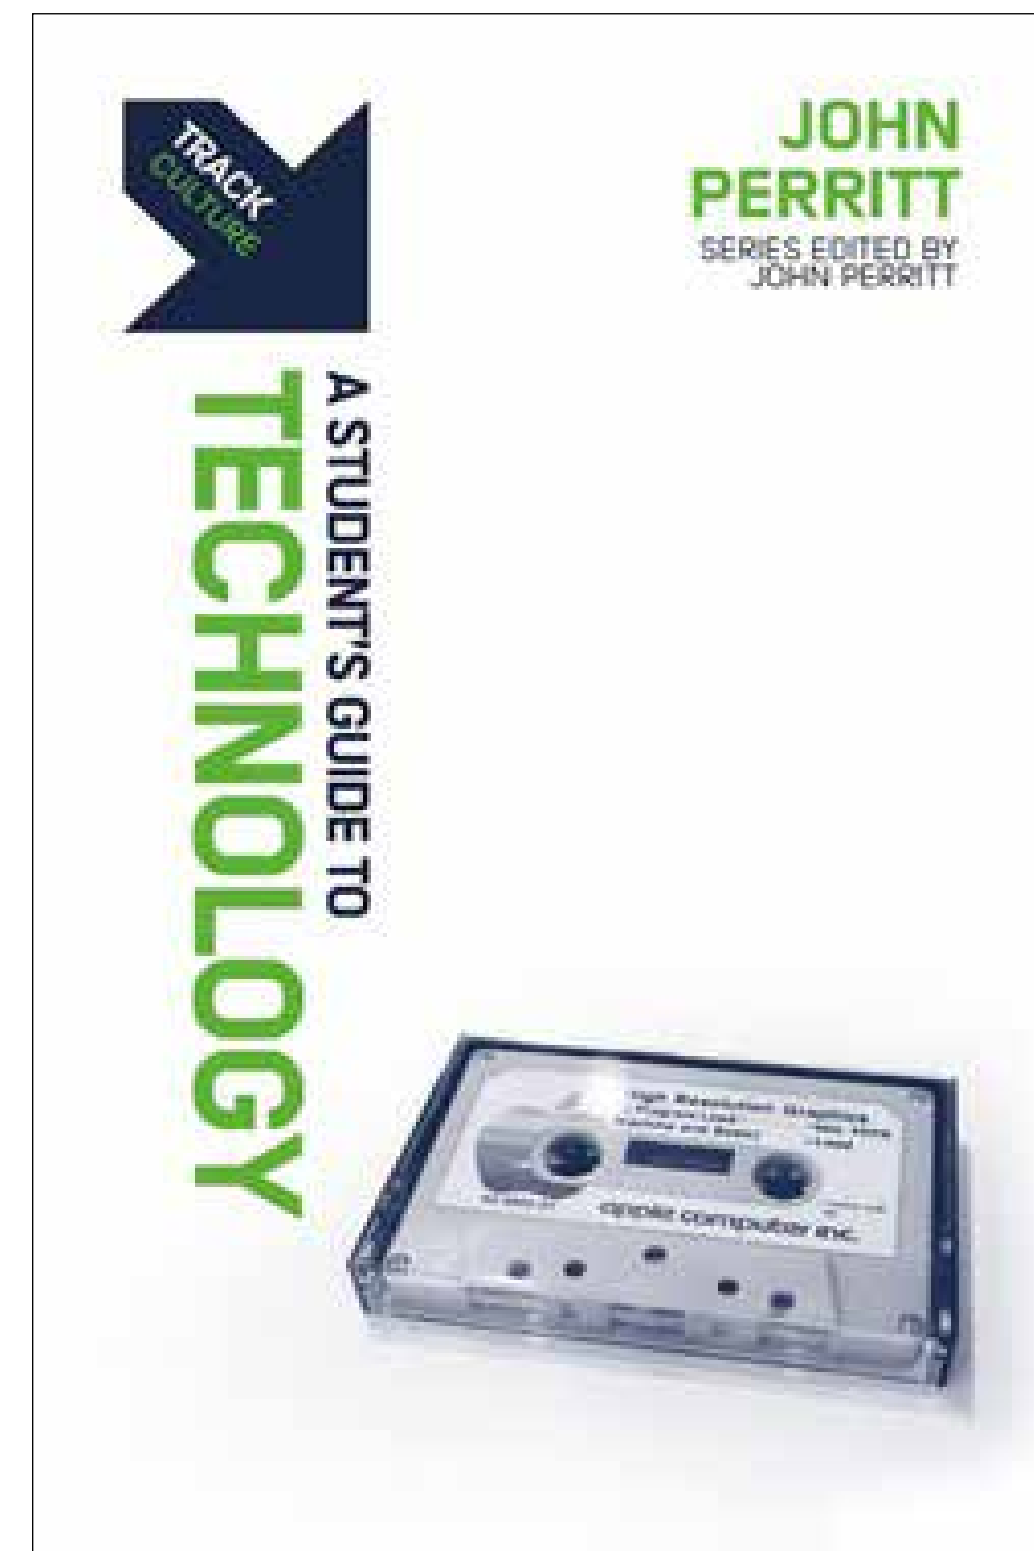

Title: Track: Glorification
 Author: Derek W. H. Thomas
 Price: £2.99*
 Product Code: 9781527106963
 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Youth & Teens/ Personal Growth
 Distribution: UK & Europe

The word glory is used throughout the Bible – in over 370 verses in fact. It is often used to describe the majesty and greatness of God. This glory is reflected in His creation – and most particularly in His people.

In this short book for young adults, Derek Thomas explains what the Bible means when it talks about glory. Beginning with the Creation, he explains how the reflection of God's glory was not completely destroyed when sin entered the world, but it was broken. Thomas then goes on to explain how this glory of God was perfectly represented in the person of Jesus; how it is partially restored in Christians; and how it will be perfectly restored in the new heavens and the new earth.

This complex topic is simply explained for teenagers and young adults who may be trying to understand the concept of glorification for the first time. Each chapter is summarised in a 'Main Point' at the end and complemented with questions to reflect on and further passages of scripture to explore. If readers are looking to dig deeper into the subject, there is also a list of recommended books that they can investigate.

Knowing that we have been saved by what Jesus has done rather than by what we have done is amazing. But how does this knowledge affect the way we live?

What's the point in being good if we will be forgiven anyway?

The Bible says that God's forgiveness frees us to live for him and through the Holy Spirit we can grow to become more and more like Jesus.

Ligon Duncan and John Perritt dive into what that means in this short book.

Rick Hill – Deep Roots of Resilient Disciples

Description

In the shifting cultural sands of the West, Christianity is no longer a dominant worldview or an accepted norm.

Twenty-first-century Christians find themselves pushed to the edges of contemporary culture, exiled in a strange land. This sifting has led to some choosing comfort and compromise as their response, laying down their cross for an easier ride. Others unconsciously replace or abandon lifelong spiritual patterns in a way that causes root systems to weaken and faith to crumble.

Yet there continue to be those who respond to Jesus call, embrace the cost of discipleship, commit to Christian community and endure challenges that come their way. They face the erosion of Cultural Christianity not with clenched fists but open hands – resilient disciples who develop a long-haul faith by building below the surface on a firm foundation.

‘Deep Roots of Resilient Disciples’ offers a roadmap for this kind of intentional discipleship life. It will help you recover ancient paths in a modern world as you are taken on a journey through the life of Jesus through the lens of our contemporary culture.

This book will enable you to discover key principles and practices that contribute to a life of lasting faith – one that is grounded in faithful discipleship but also pulsing with life and faith-fueled adventure.

About the Author

Title: Identification: A Romance in Redemption
 Author: E. W. Kenyon
 Price: £7.99*
 Product Code: 9781641236720
 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Spiritual Growth
 Distribution: UK & Europe

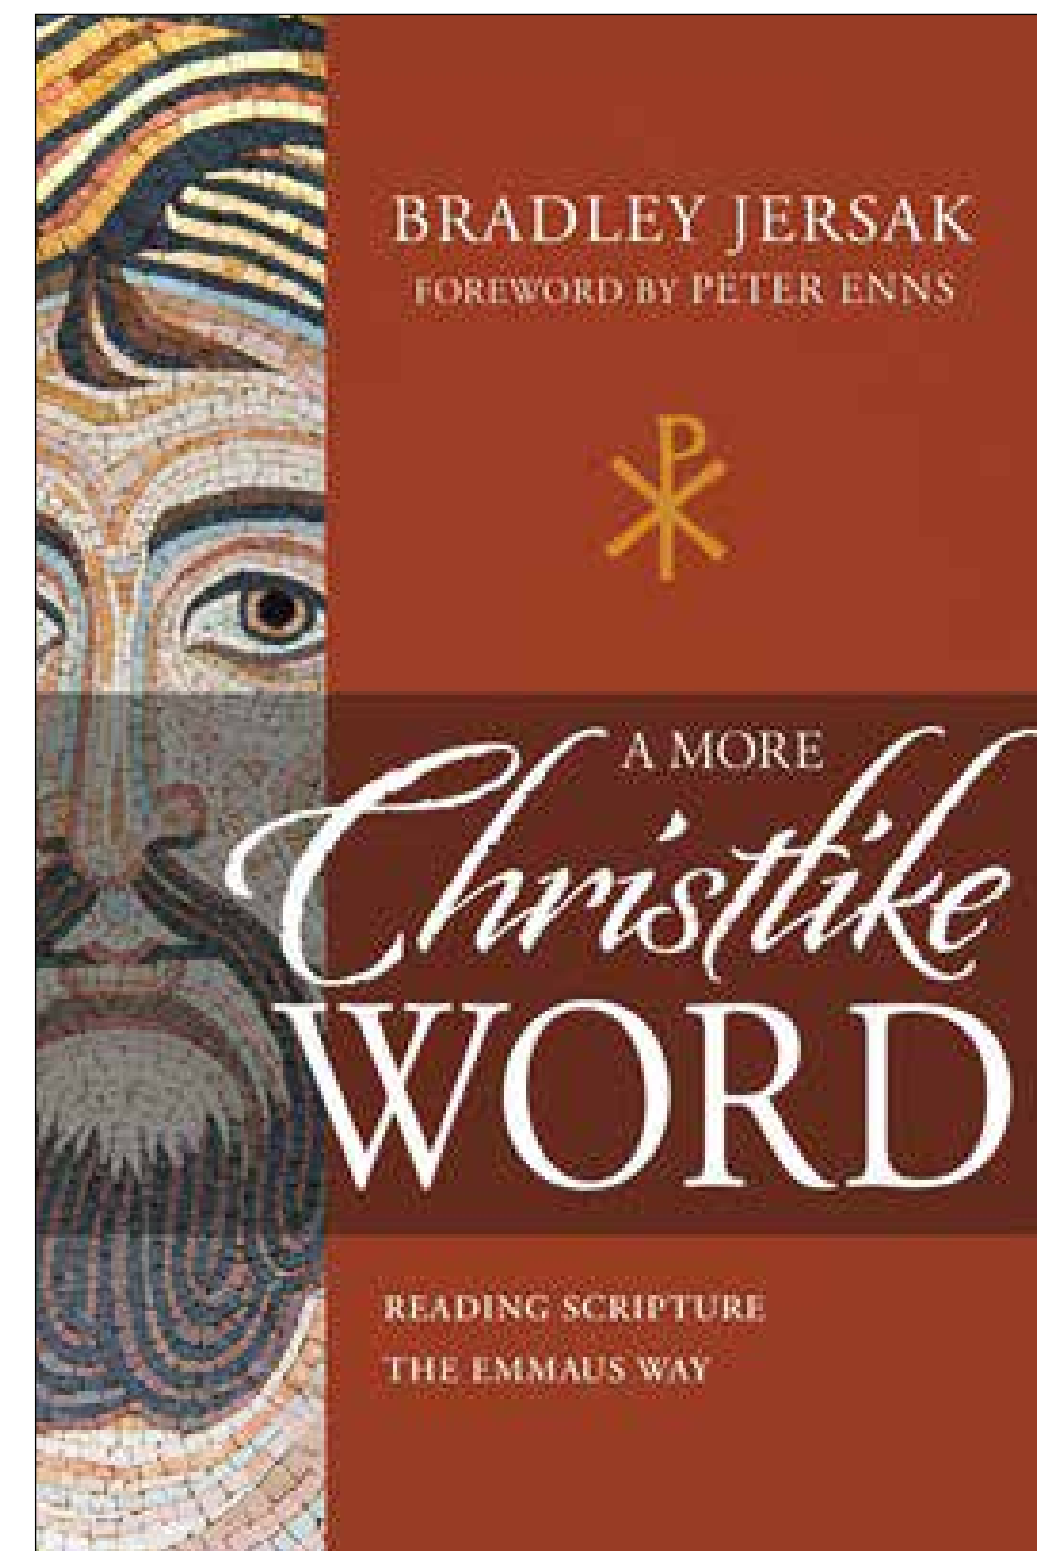

What does Identification mean? It means our complete union with Jesus in His substitutionary sacrifice. The teaching of Identification is the legal side of redemption. It unveils to us what God did for us in Christ from the time He went to the cross until He sat down at the right hand of the Father.

Christ became one with us in sin so that we might become one with Him in righteousness. He became as we were so that we might be as He is now.

In identification, we have one of the richest phases of redemption. There is a twofold oneness: first, His oneness with our sin and humanity on the cross; second, our oneness with Him in His glory on the throne.

These teachings unveil who we are in Christ and how the Father sees us in the Son. The vital aspect of redemption is what the Holy Spirit, through the Word, is doing in us now.

When these truths really gain the ascendancy in our lives, they will make us spiritual supermen. It will be the end of our spiritual weakness and failure. We will no longer struggle for faith, for all things are already ours. We will no longer pray for power, for Christ is in us. We will no longer feel the awful bondage of sin-consciousness, for we are the righteousness of God in Christ.

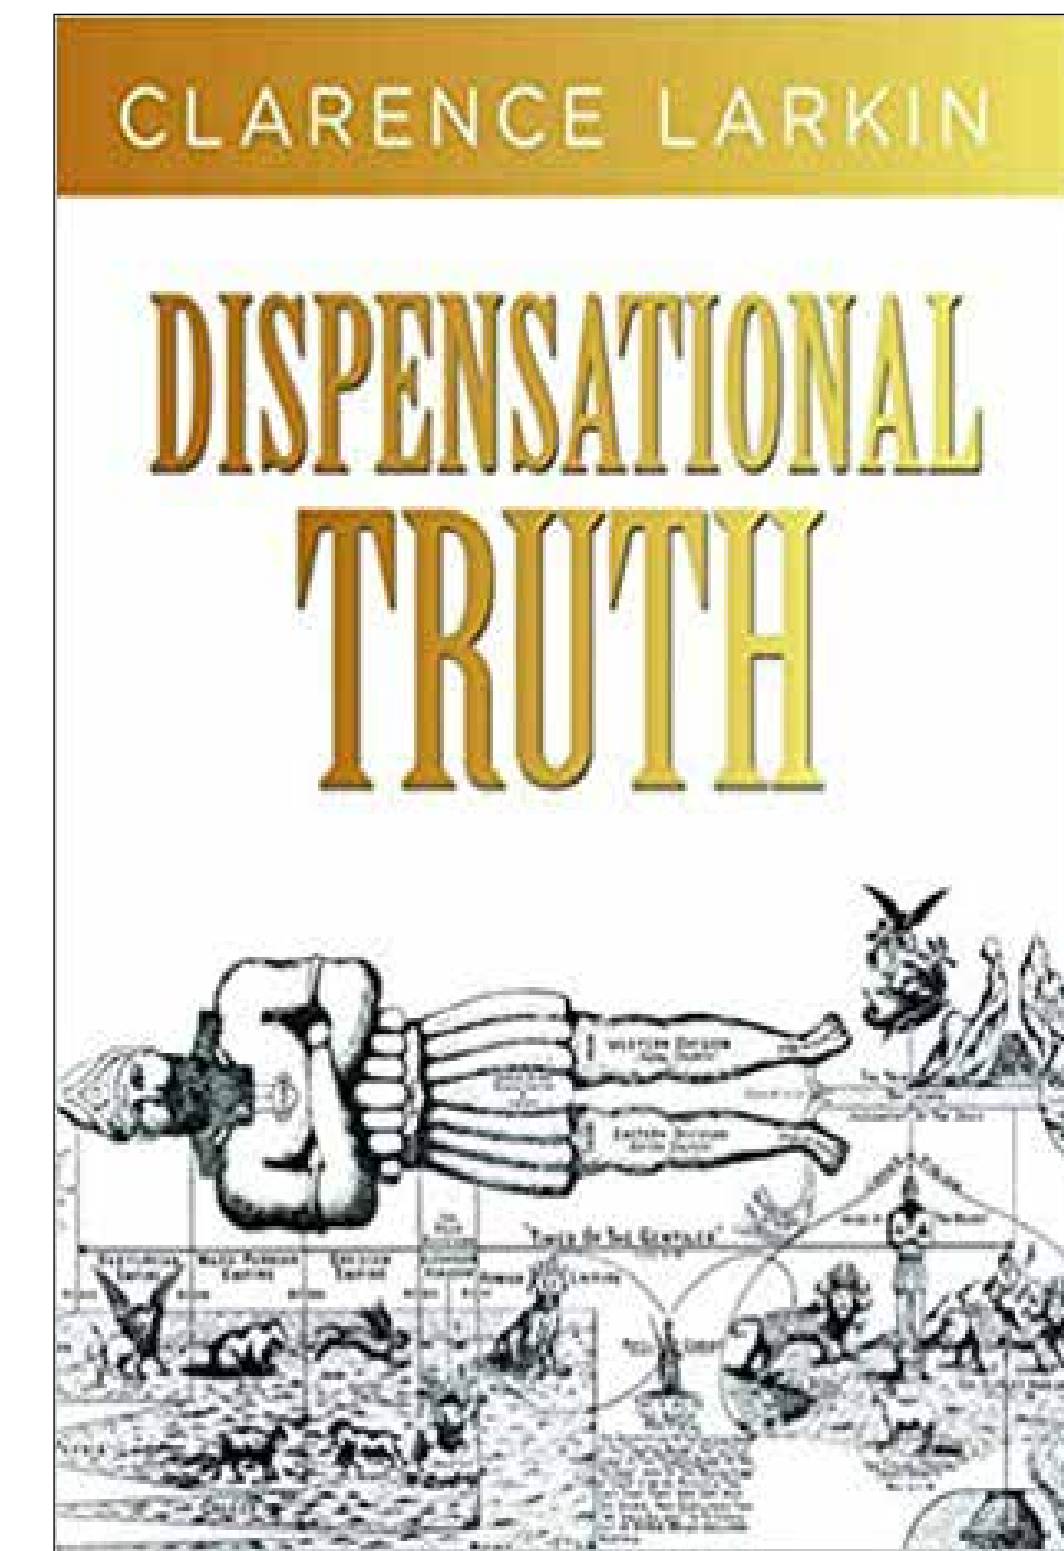

Title: A More Christlike Word
 Author: Bradley Jersak
 Price: £15.99*
 Product Code: 9781641236522
 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Exegesis and Hermeneutics
 Distribution: UK & Europe

The Scriptures are an essential aspect of the Christian faith. But we have often equated them with the living Word Himself, even elevating them above the One to whom they point. In doing so, we have distorted their central message—and our view of God.

In 'A More Christlike Word' Bradley Jersak offers a clarifying and freeing path forward, whether you consider yourself a believer, a doubter, or a skeptic, inviting you to a better and more ancient way to read the Scriptures. He calls this path the Emmaus Way because it focuses on Jesus Christ as the final Word on God. It demonstrates how all Scripture, by design, points to Jesus, revealing the true nature of the Father.

Your journey on the Emmaus Way will open up to you the fullness of the Scriptures, and, most important, lead you to the God who deeply loves and welcomes you.

Dispensational Truth is the Rev. Clarence Larkin's famous book on dispensationalism with his beautifully drawn black and white charts.

A must-have book for any student of dispensationalism, the book contains more than 115 charts, maps, and woodcuts.

The result of thirty years of study, Dispensational Truth is a gold mine of information on prophetic truth for the busy pastor, evangelist, Bible teacher, and everyone who loves God's Word. In fact, Larkin's charts have been called 'the gold standard' of pre-tribulation knowledge.

A trained draftsman, Larkin diagrammed what he read during his Bible studies. From his drawings and charts, the study of God's Word has enriched generations of those who seek illumination and clarification regarding history, prophecy, and the future of mankind.

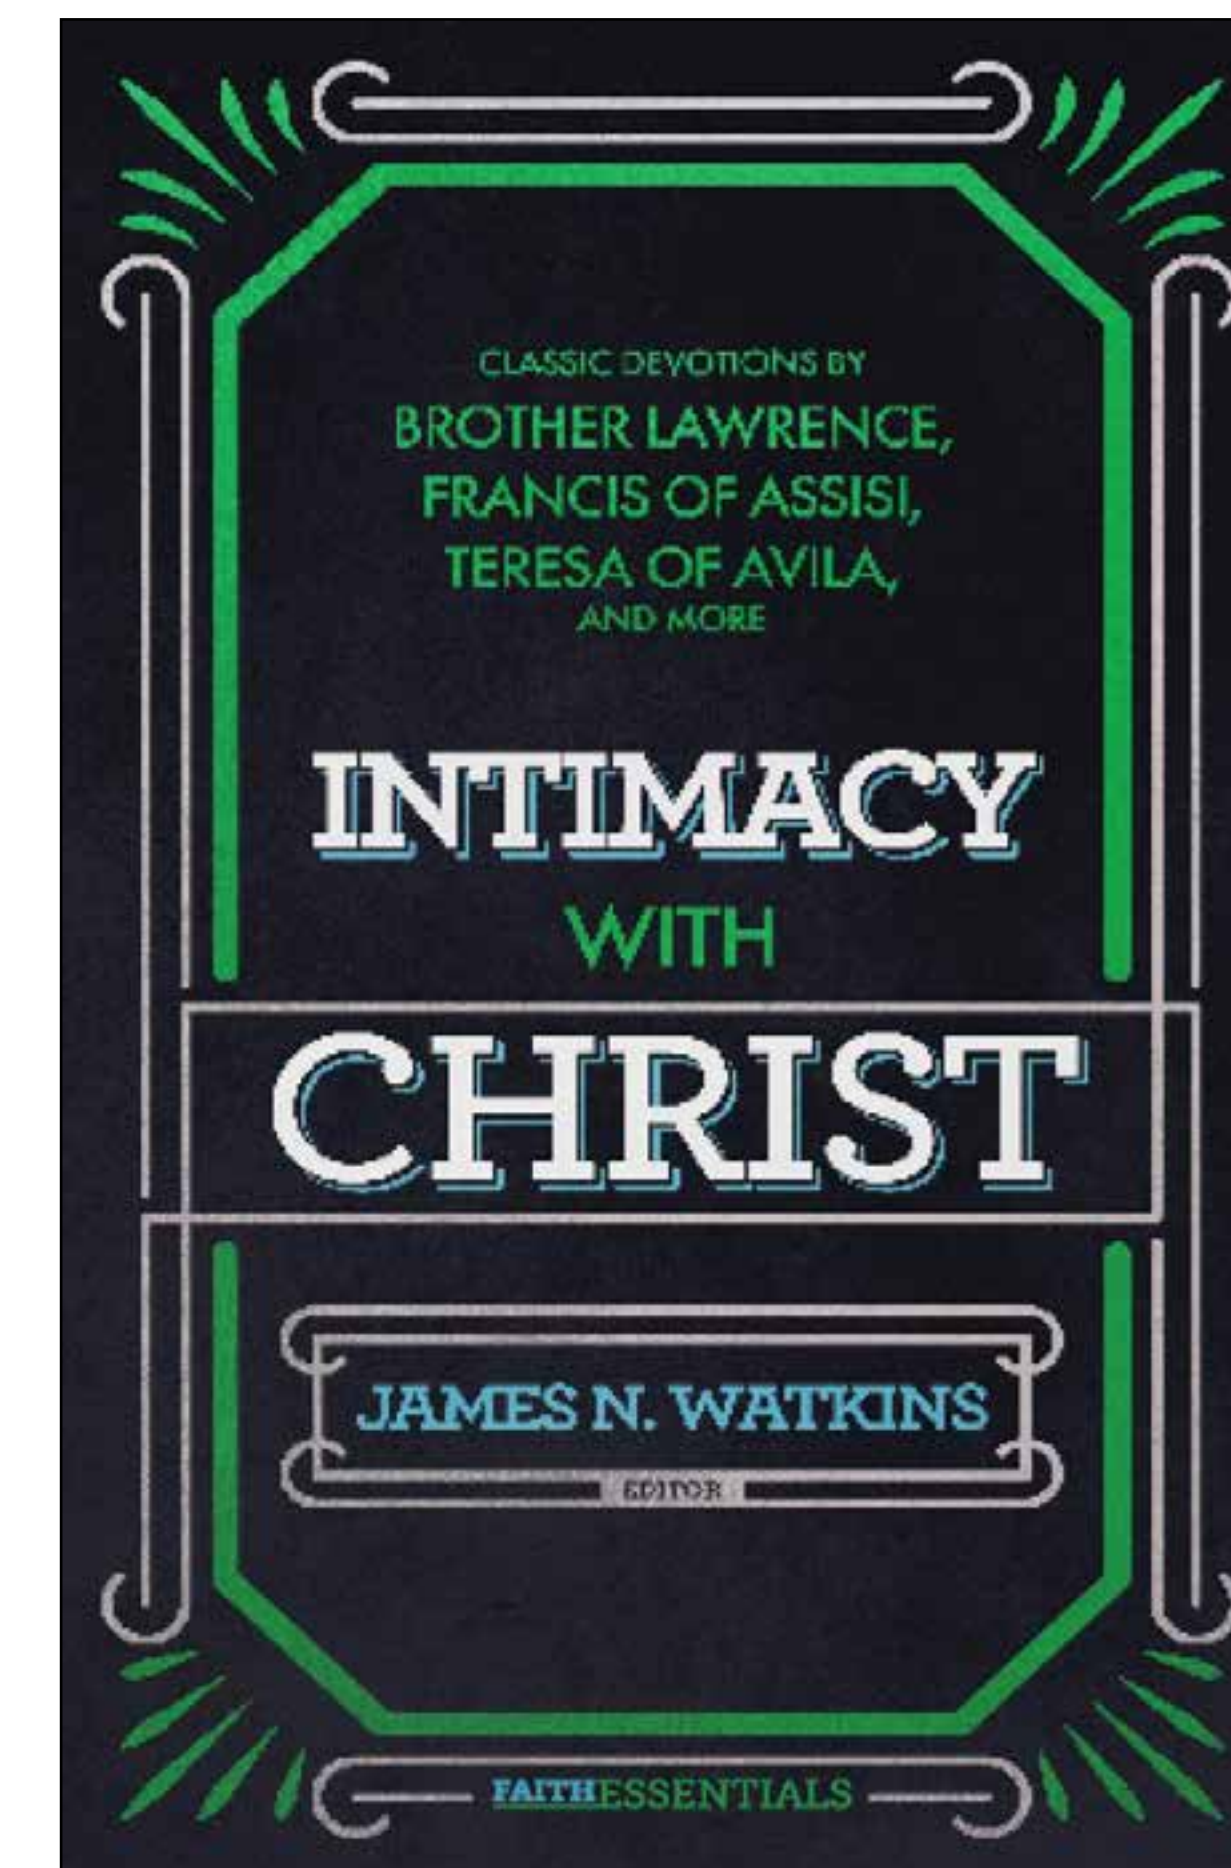

This book has sold thousands of copies since it was first published in 1920, including more than 17,000 copies in recent years.

This collection of 60 devotionals is drawn from authors who span the ages — writers who will challenge you toward intimacy with Christ.

Bernard of Clairvaux (1090–1153) teaches the art of prayer through meditation on the Scriptures. Catherine of Siena (1347–1380) shares her insights on the heart of God for His people. Francis of Assisi (1181–1226) issues a call to a joyful and humble life of service. Francis of Sales (1567–1622) addresses laypeople on issues of spiritual formation. Ignatius of Loyola (1491–1556) provides discerning advice in our relationships with others, as well as our prayer life. Madame Guyon (1648–1717), drawing from her experience of suffering and imprisonment for her faith, gives direction on the path of spiritual growth. John of the Cross (1542–1591) shines a light into our deepest spiritual darkness, and invites us to love and surrender. Lady Julian of Norwich (1341–1416) opens our eyes to the blessings of a life of love and selfless service. Thomas à Kempis (1380–1471), author of the best-selling devotional The Imitation of Christ, inspires us to purity of motives through following Christ's example.

Title: Church, School, Community
 Author: Lia McIntosh
 Price: £13.50*
 Product Code: 9781791018962
 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Church Growth & Revival
 Distribution: UK & Europe

Full access to formal schooling is a symbol of freedom, a gateway to opportunity and respect. Education can lead to physical, economic and spiritual emancipation. America has not yet achieved this promise, not by a long shot, especially in communities where people of colour live. But the church might be able to change that.

Lia McIntosh shows how leaders in the church and other organizations can work together to reshape schools so that full access to excellent education is a reality for all the community's children.

This book is for leaders who are seeking ways to improve life for people in their communities, and who are open to taking a new approach to education. One where people of faith interact directly with educational systems and organizations. It is for church leaders, educators, administrators, parents, and philanthropists who are curious about how they might work to close the opportunity gap.

McIntosh teaches how leaders can tap into communal wisdom and basic faith principles in order to create change. She shares multiple examples from churches where church-school partnerships have had dramatic impact on the church and community. In many cases, these partnerships even lead to church growth, as people are drawn to this type of service in their community.

Title: Revelation of Royalty
 Author: Bill Winston
 Price: £14.99*
 Product Code: 9781636410098
 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Spiritual Growth/Prayer
 Distribution: UK & Europe

Your feet will never take you where your mind has never been. This book will inspire you to know who you are in Christ. It will motivate you to reach higher levels of success and satisfaction in life, family, and business.

Our salvation in Christ ensures that every one of our needs or godly desires has been provided for by God. Yet many in the body of Christ are suffering and going without. Revelation is the key to developing the faith to receive the inheritance Jesus died to provide for us. One man said, "You are not suffering because there is a great devil, but because of your great ignorance." Ignorance of our identity in Christ is one reason many Christians are not possessing their divine inheritance.

As someone once said, "Your vast inheritance (in Christ) comes only in proportion to your new identity." The more revelation a person has of his new identity in Christ, the more of God's vast promises he will be able to receive and manifest in his life and circumstances.

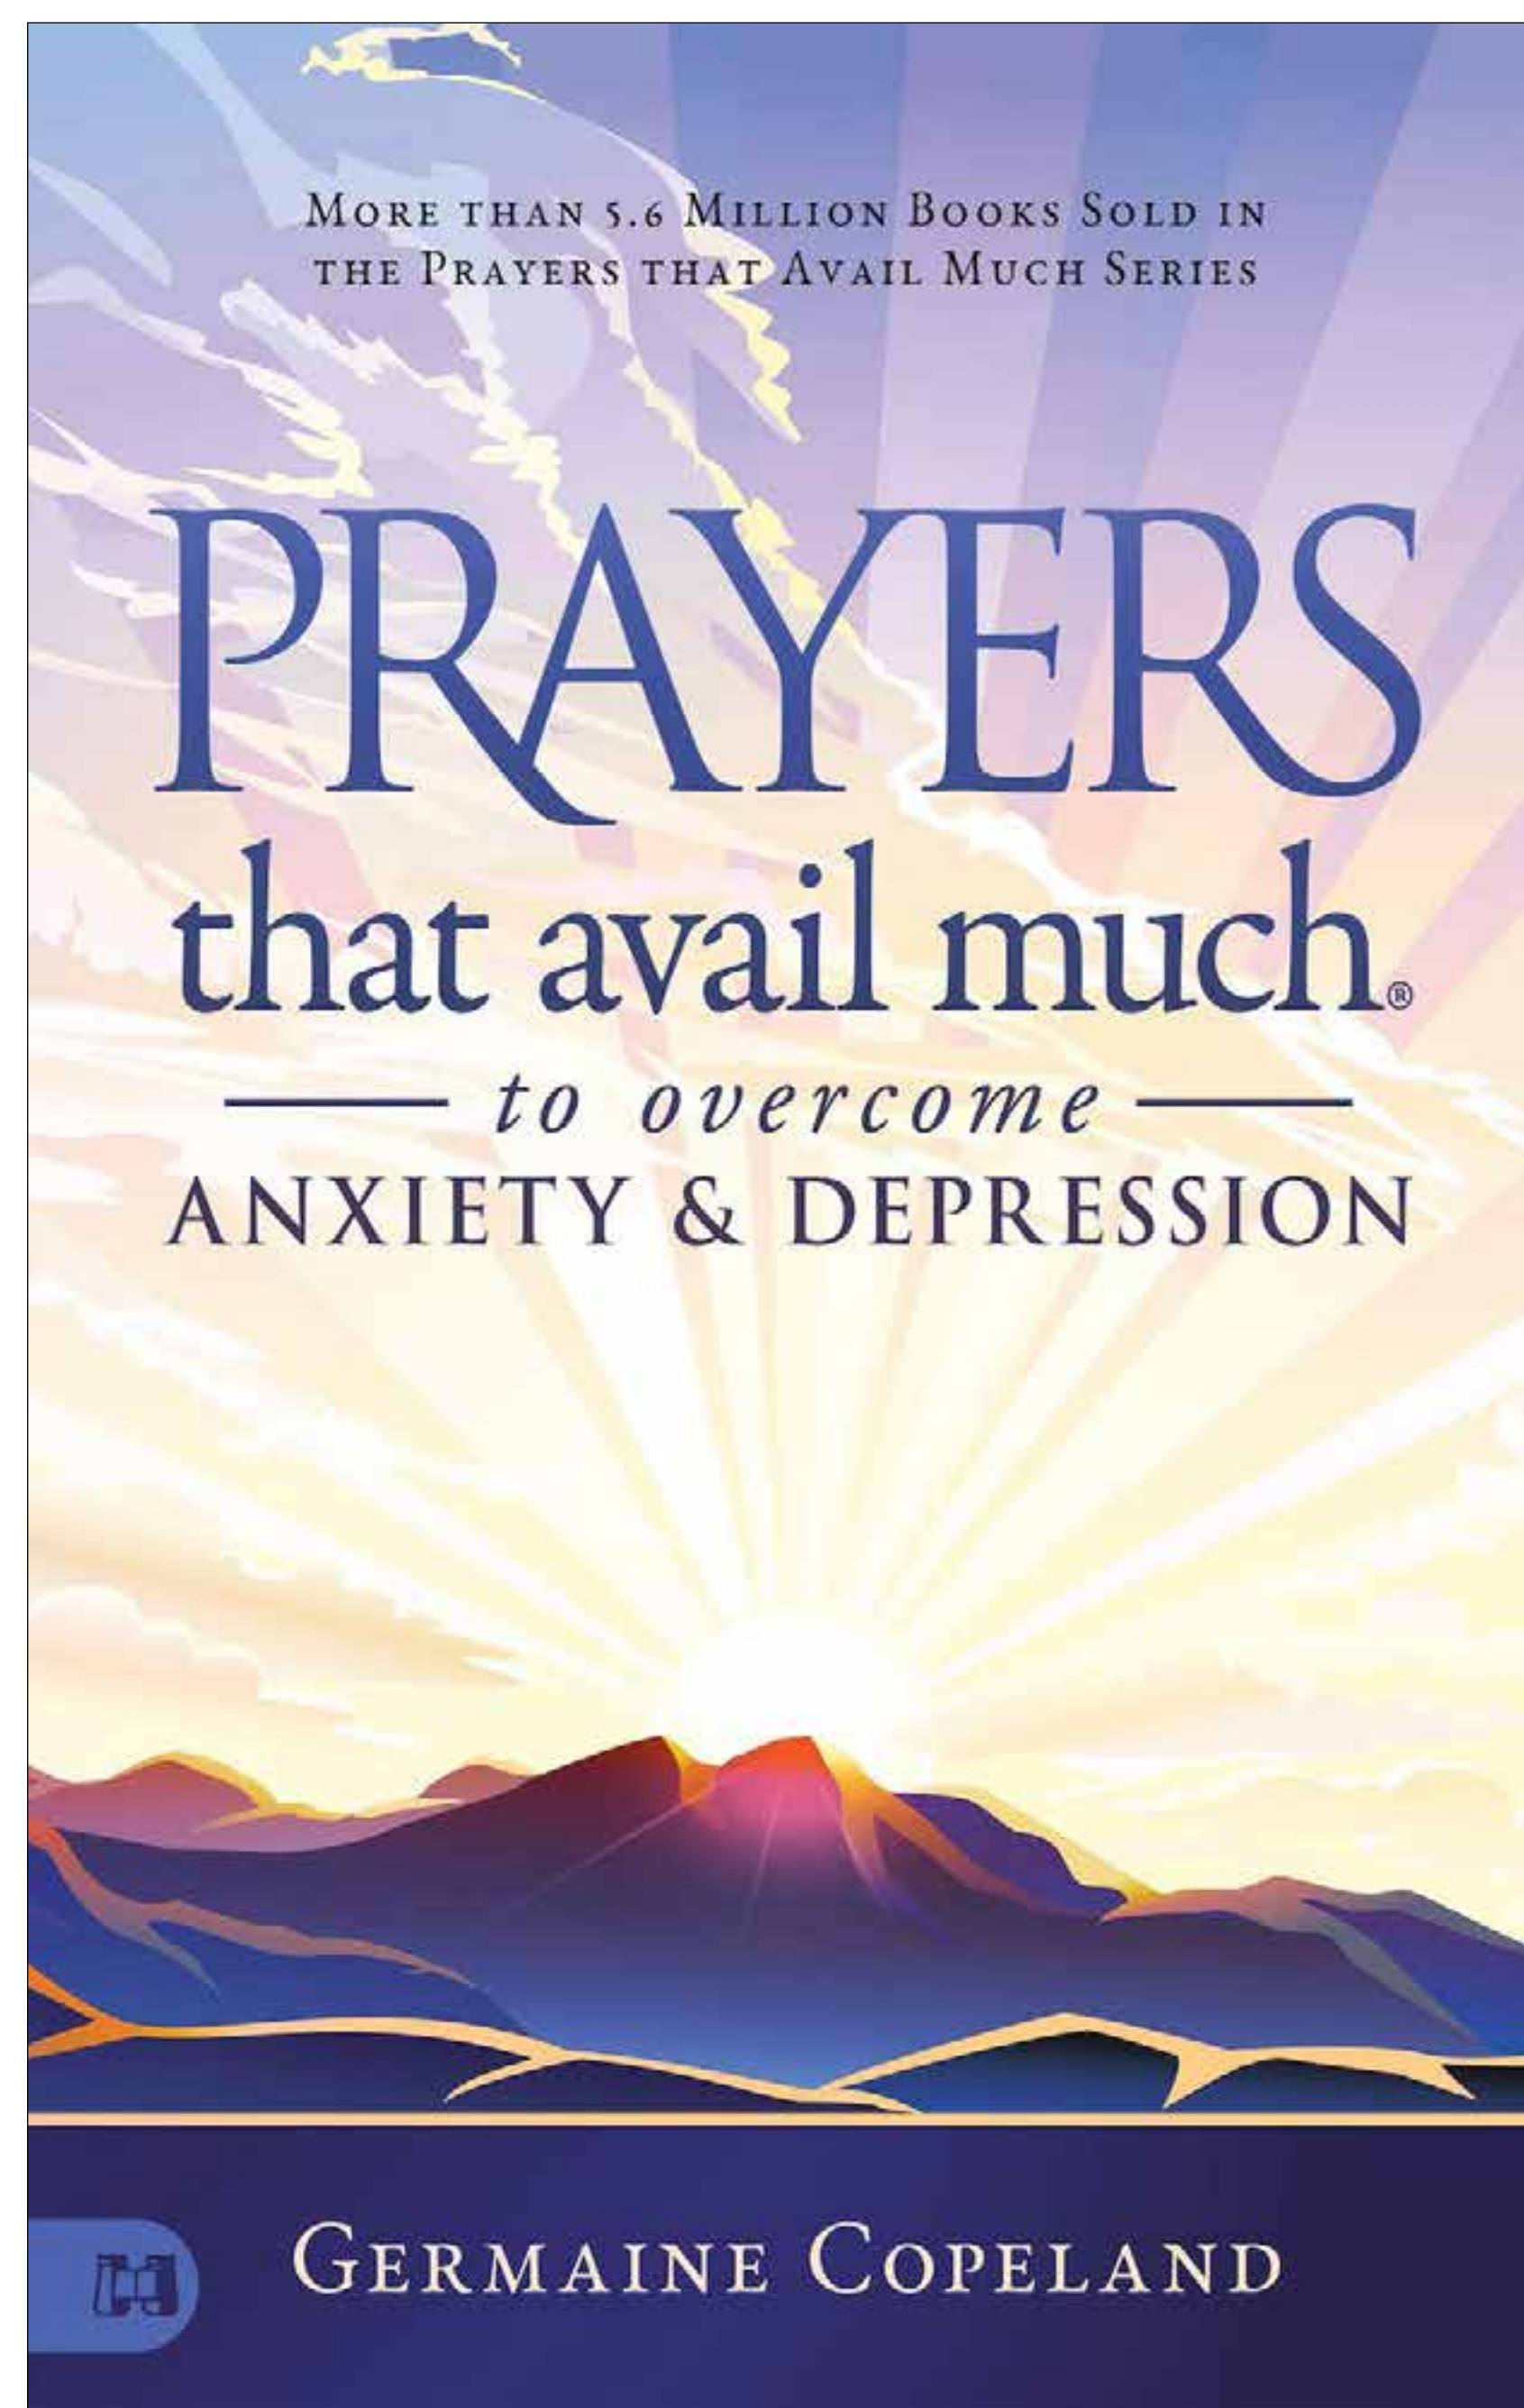

Title: Awaken The Dawn
 Author: David Bradshaw
 Price: £14.99*
 Product Code: 9781636410067
 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Discipleship
 Distribution: UK & Europe

What if the presence of God became so real in people's hearts that it revived the church and ushered in the next Jesus Movement? From the Upper Room in Jerusalem to the Moravian community in Germany, God's personal presence always changes everything.

Awaken the Dawn chronicles the story of a movement of day-and-night worship, prayer, creativity, and mission that is impacting America and the nations by bringing the presence of God into our cities and campuses.

This story is part of the same movement David pioneered when he served as the greatest king in Israel's history and that the Book of Acts chronicles as God's presence filled communities.

It's time for a generation to find their voice in the symphony of creative worship, prayer, and gospel proclamation that God is orchestrating. Jesus' way of changing the world is surprising and exhilarating and is certainly the opposite of the systems of the world. This book will equip you to be a part of Jesus' astounding storyline for a great spiritual awakening. It will give you hope and keys on how God is unfolding his mission of mercy and transformation and how you can be a part of it.

You Can Live in Peace!

Anxiety and depression don't play fair. And their partners--fear, worry, panic attacks, PTSD, and hurt--kick you when you're down and push you down further. These enemies oppress people in epidemic proportions.

If you battle for peace of mind, Germaine Copeland is living proof there is hope!

In Prayers That Avail Much to Overcome Anxiety and Depression, Germaine tells how she battled depression so severe she wanted to end her life. But while circumstances came to crush her, God taught her how to pray prayers that avail much. She shares with you the way out of turmoil into triumph.

You will discover...

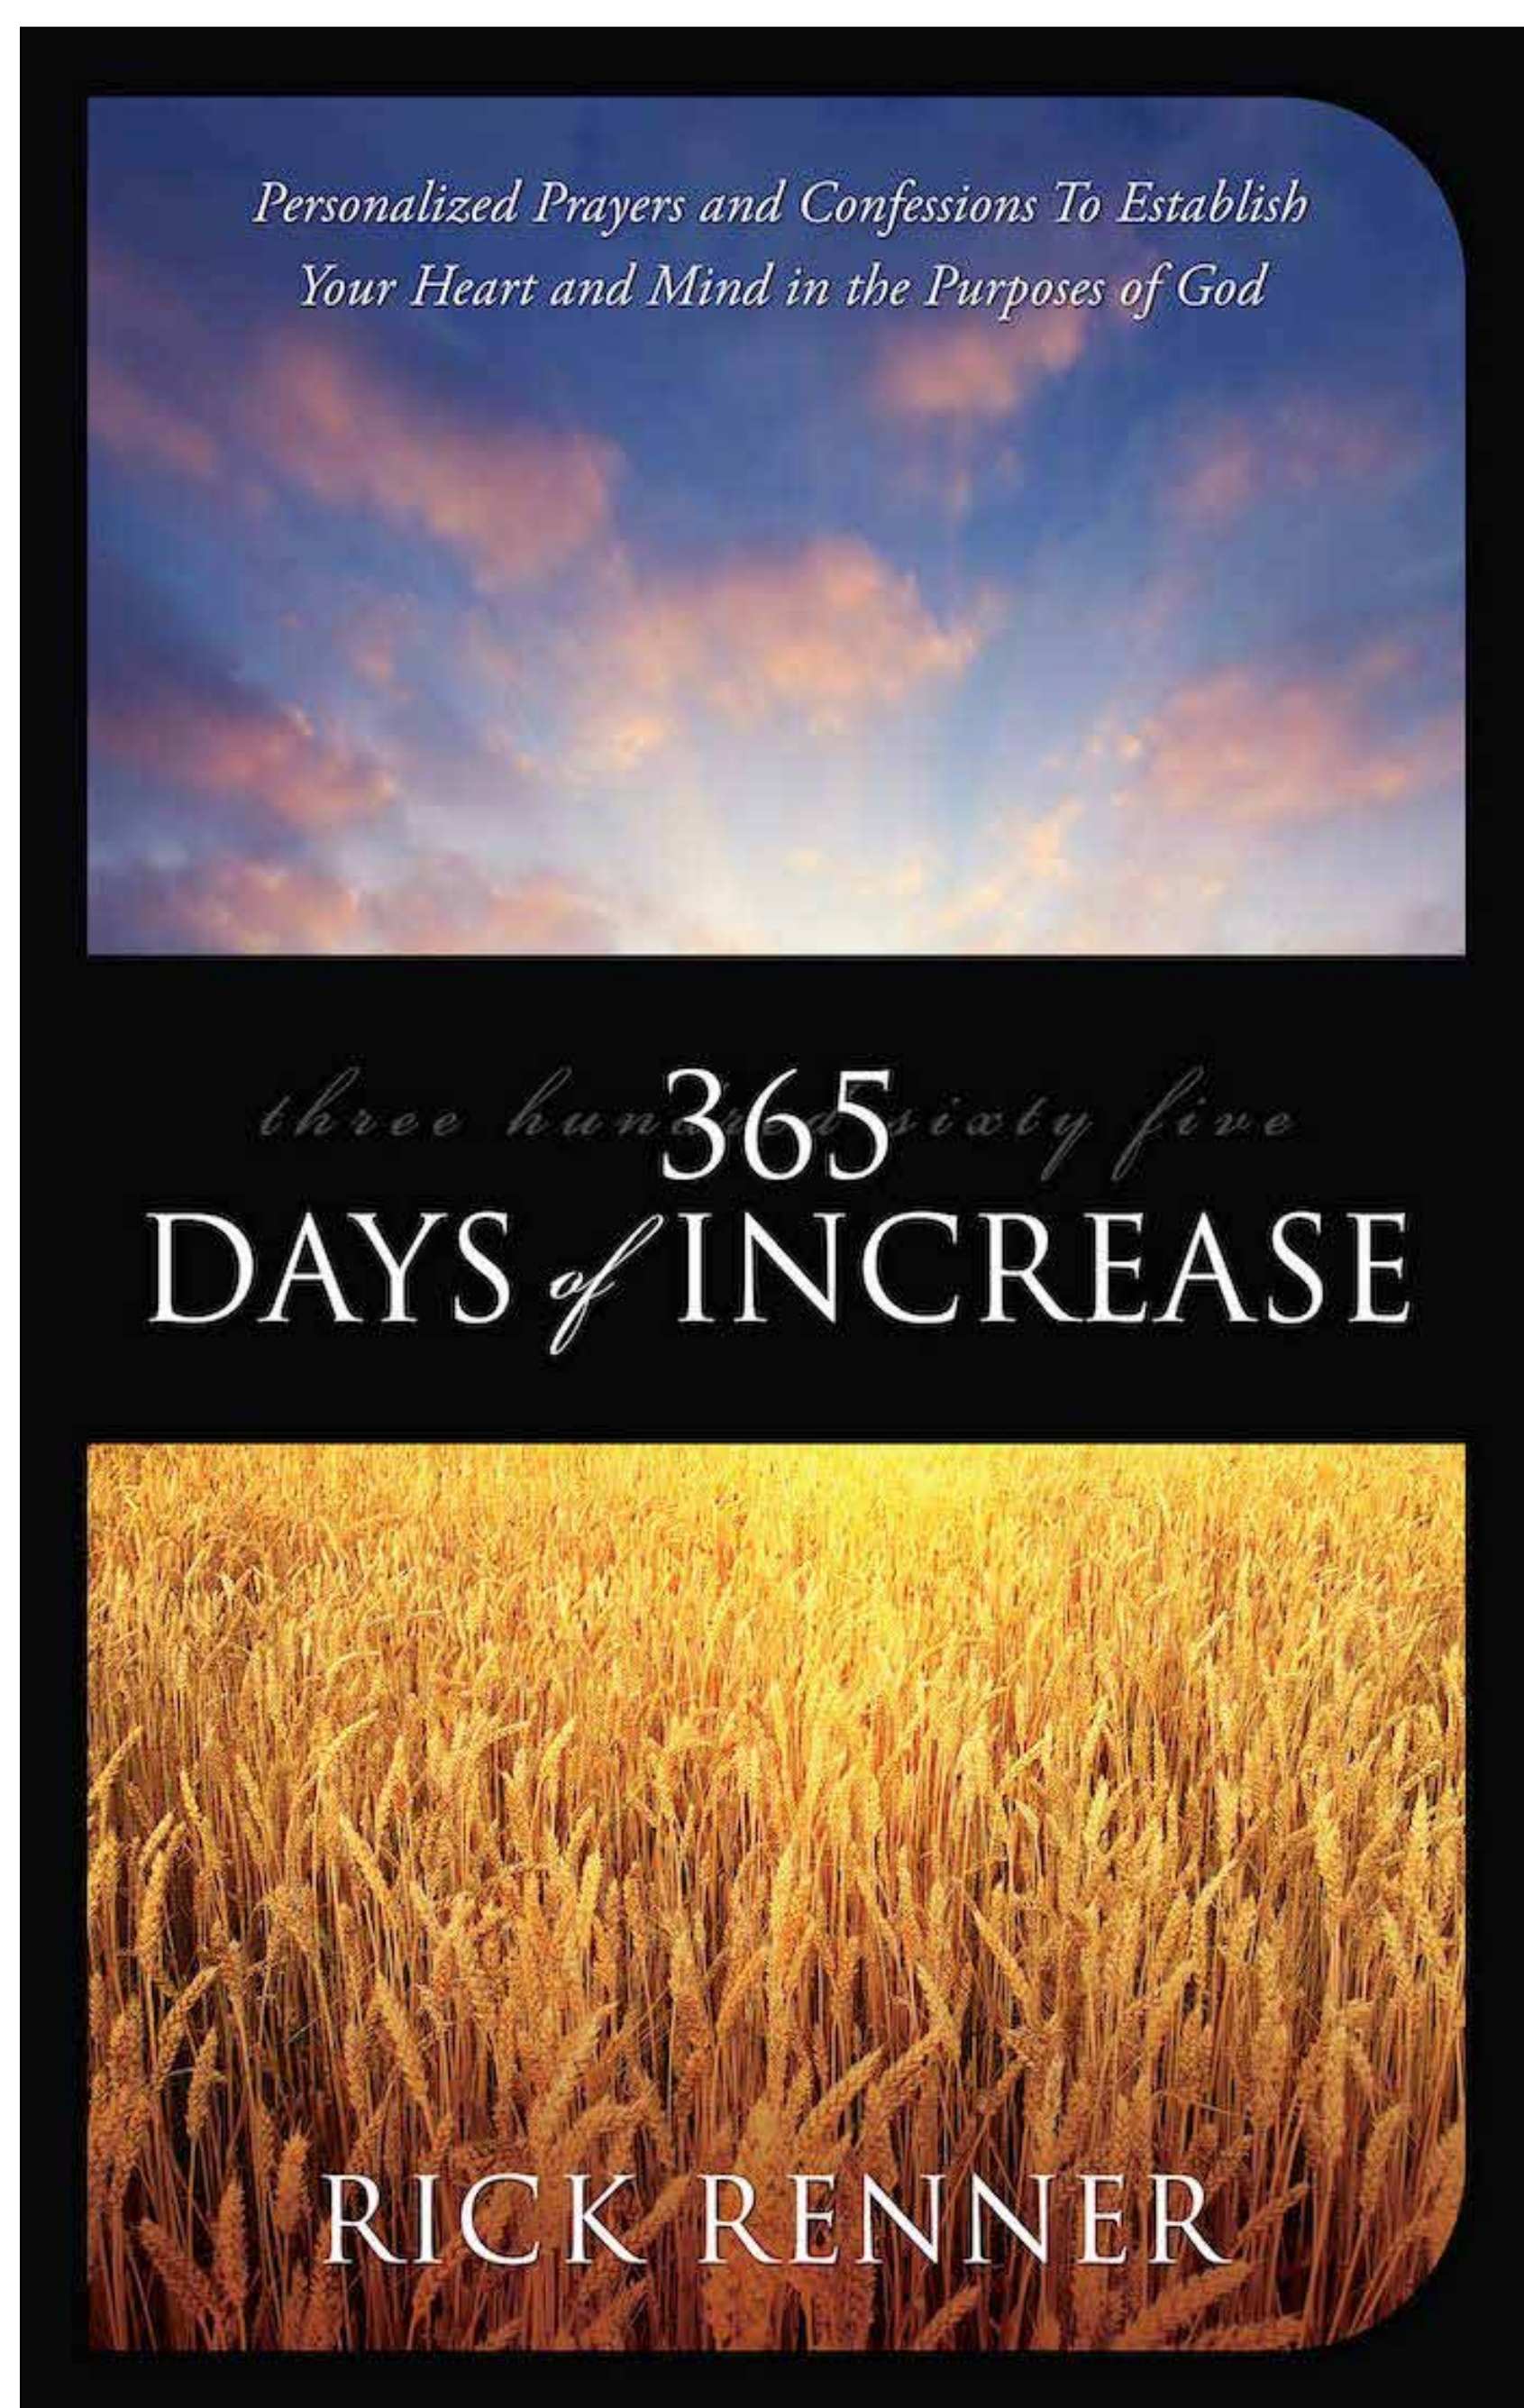

- Powerful, scriptural prayers that defeat mental torment
- Liberating and candid testimonies from others who have been delivered from anxiety and depression such as Rick Renner, Lynne Hammond, Max Davis, and many more
- How to saturate yourself in supernatural prayer therapy and praises until peace reigns in your life
- Freedom from anxiety and depression is within your reach! God's Word will show you the way.

About the Author

Germaine Copeland is the author of the bestselling 'Prayers That Avail Much(R)' book series. If you are a pastor or ministry leader, this book is for you! If you have a loved one living a homosexual lifestyle, this book is for you! If you have a desire to understand and walk alongside those who struggle with same-sex attraction, this book is for you!

Addressing this issue has never been more crucial.

Is the Word of God still relevant today? Can we as believers still be moved with compassion without compromising God's word?

As Janet Boynes gives spiritual guidance to parents and pastors around the country, she realized that many of them are flooded with questions about what to do and what to say to someone who struggles with same-sex attraction.

Many have asked, How do we respond to our son/daughter who wants to undergo reassignment surgery? or Do we attend our son/daughter's civil union?

This book will give you profound insight, biblical truth, and deeply rooted compassion when reaching out to the LGBTQ community.

Description

The “Watchman Anointing” is being released in this hour! If you seek to better understand the times and seasons, read on. If you are compelled by Jesus’ words to watch and to pray, this book is for you!

Throughout Scripture, God appointed His watchmen to guard and protect Israel. The watchman’s duty was to warn of coming danger, calling God’s people to follow the Lord’s ways. A watchman’s ministry offered both warning and hope. Though they were often not well received, their message and ministry were critical. It is no different today.

In ‘The Making of a Watchman,’ veteran prophet and seer, Jennifer LeClaire draws from scriptural examples and personal experience, revealing how to operate in this crucial ministry – not only to anticipate the enemy’s schemes, but to align with God’s sovereign plan.

The Making of a Watchman will:

- Detail the role of a watchman.
- Help you discern if you are called to this ministry.
- Offer protocols for releasing words of warning paired with words of hope.
- Provide practical prayers, exercises, and activations for operating as a watchman.

God still appoints His watchmen over cities and nations – those who will proclaim His Kingdom and offer hope in the midst of chaos. Are you called to this office? Come along with Jennifer LeClaire and learn to respond with Kingdom perspective to the changing times and seasons!

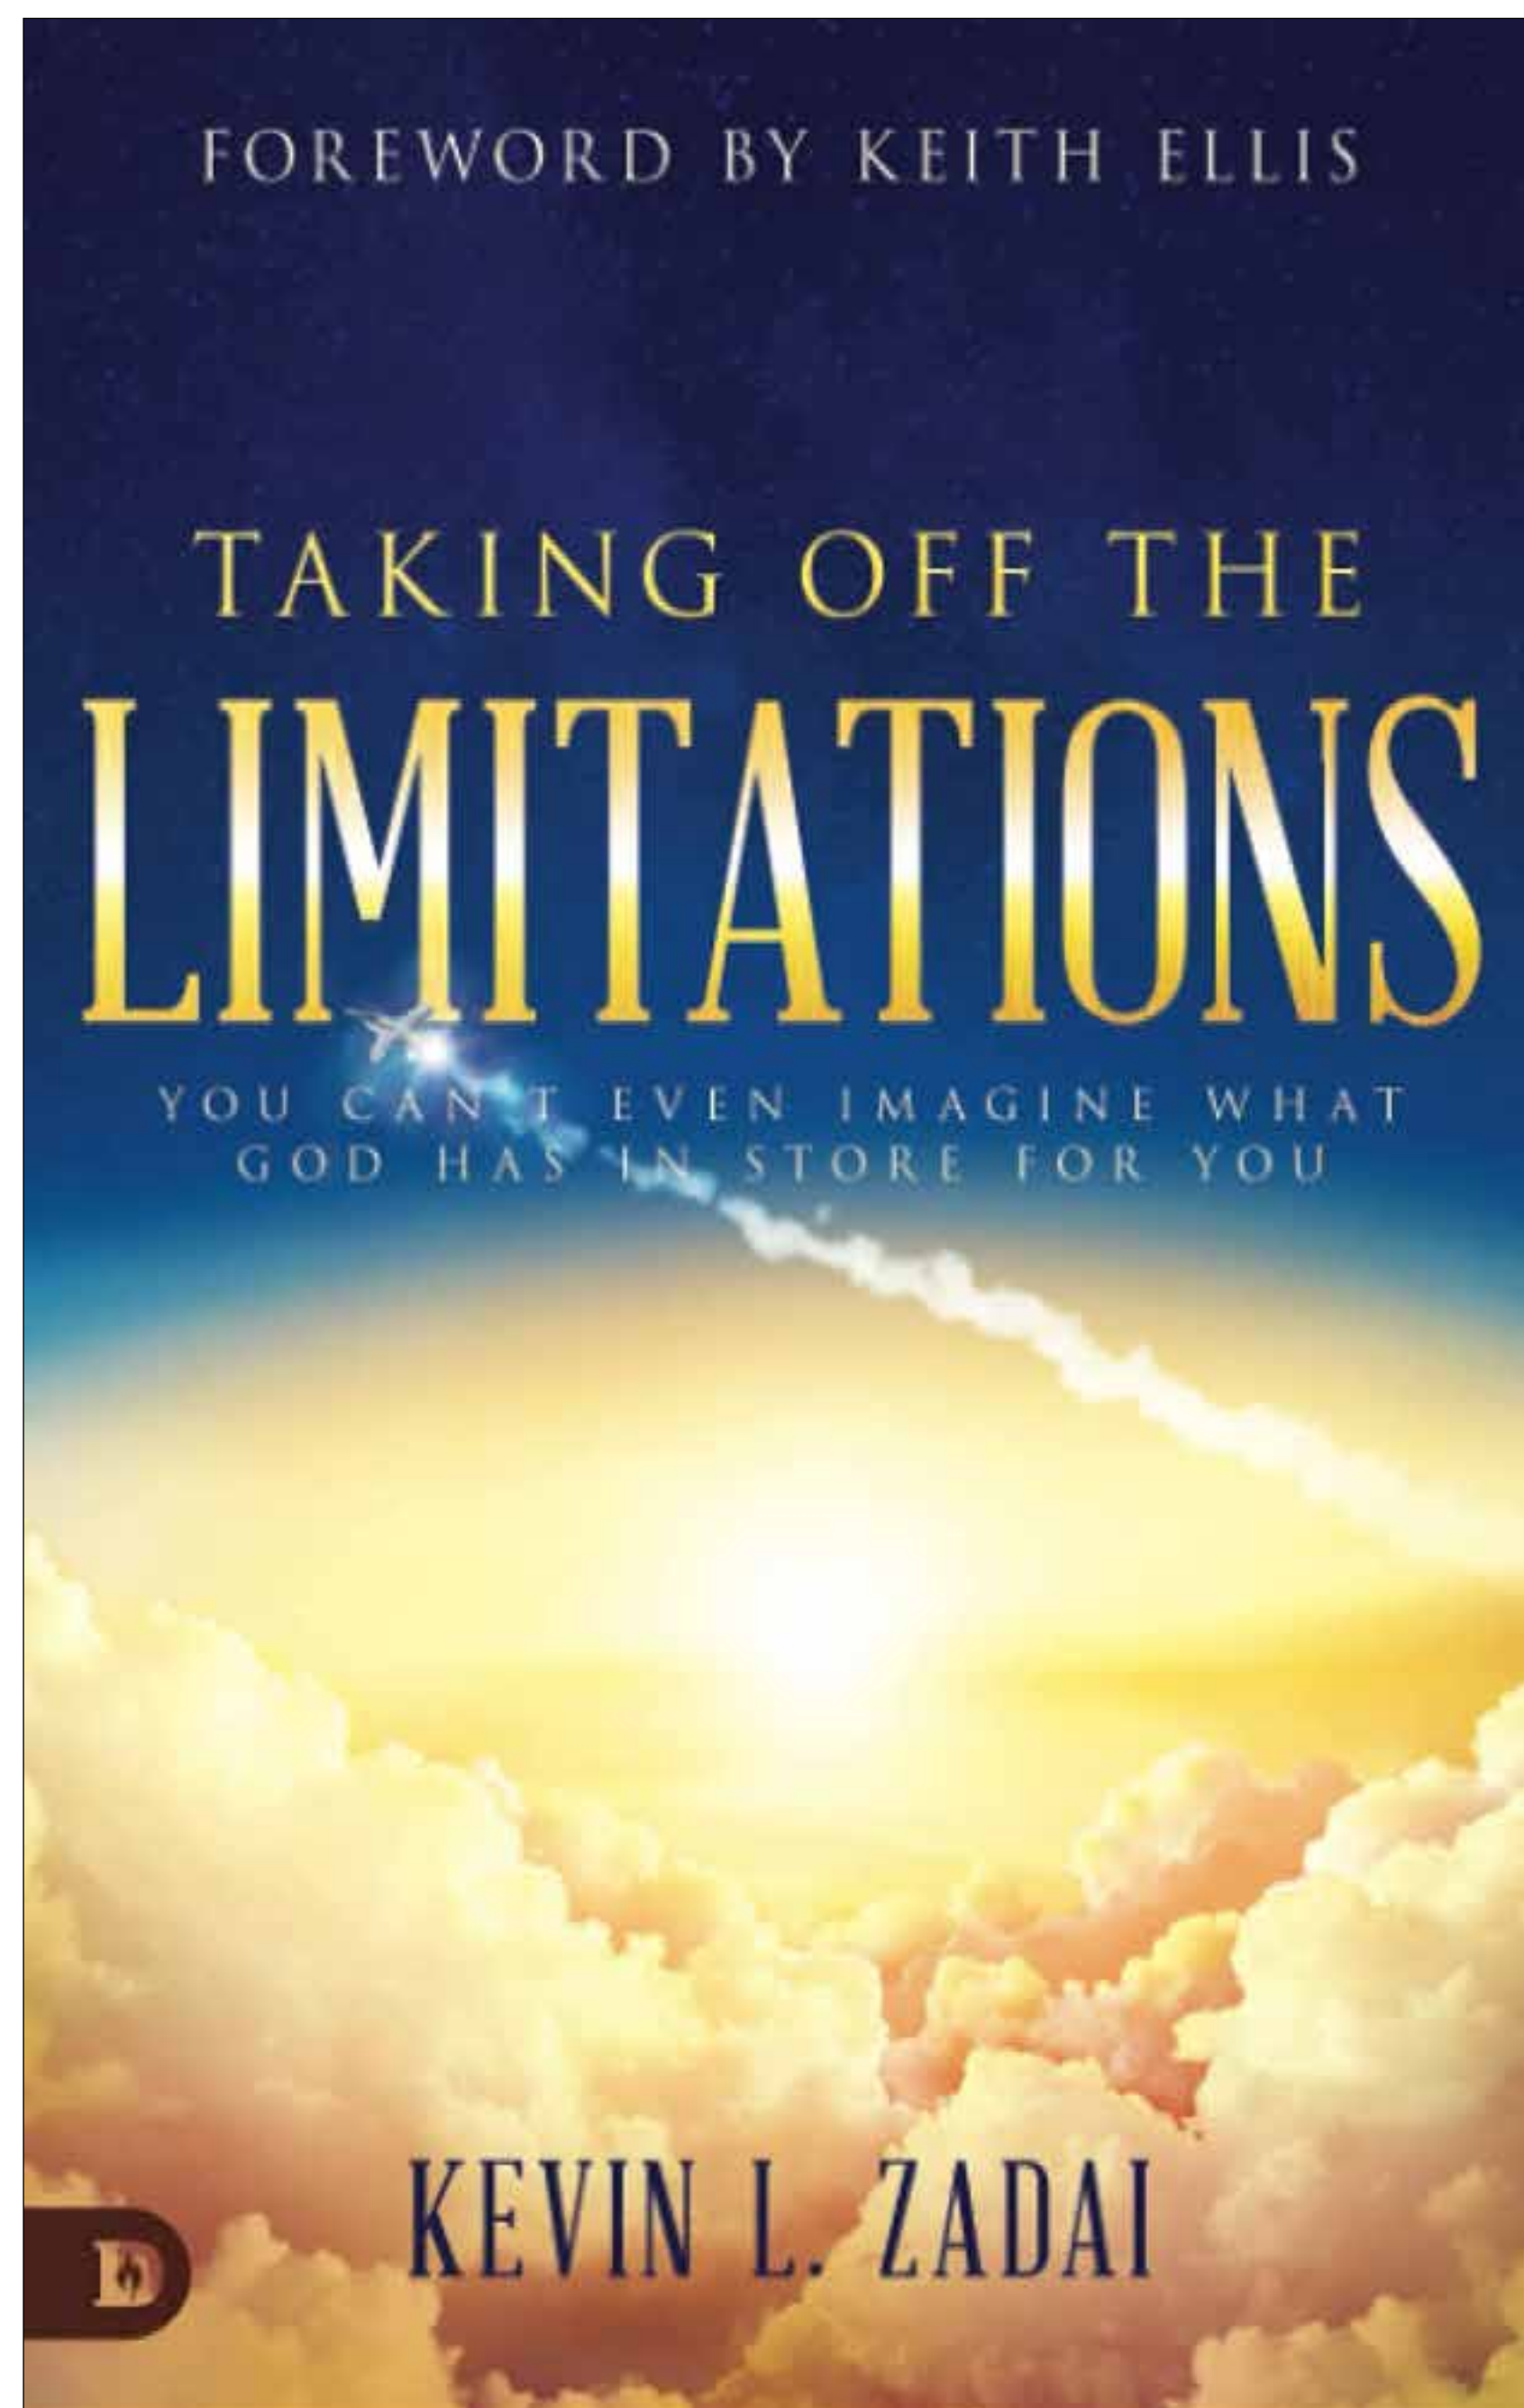

About the Author

Jennifer is senior leader of Awakening House of Prayer in Fort Lauderdale, FL, founder of the Ignite Network, and founder of the Awakening Blaze prayer movement.

Jennifer formerly served as the first-ever female editor of Charisma magazine and is a prolific author of over 25 books.

Description

You were not created to live with limitations! Jesus said that, when it comes to living in the Kingdom of God, we are called to become “like little children.” Little children do not believe they are limited by anything unless they are told. So, who told you that it’s okay to live with limitations? Heaven sees you with unlimited potential.

Kevin Zadai had a life-changing supernatural experience in Heaven that has motivated and directed every message he has felt called to share. Kevin is confident that when the angels in Heaven see you, they do not consider you a failure. In fact, they have access to divine intel from the Books of Heaven that reveal every victory, success and breakthrough you are destined to walk in. It’s time to change the way you think and upgrade the way you see yourself. This dynamic teaching will show you how to:

- Access your Supernatural Freedom as a believer created in the image of God.
- Recognize God’s Power and Provision through intimate fellowship in prayer.
- Walk in increased awareness of what Heaven says about you through connection with the Holy Spirit.
- Live from your redeemed spirit and walk in victory over the flesh.
- Function in the limitless realm of God’s Kingdom by walking in child-like faith.

Through Jesus Christ, God has removed every limitation from you. It’s time to fulfill your supernatural destiny by agreeing with what Heaven says about you!

About the Author

Kevin Zadai, ThD is dedicated to training Christians to live and operate in two realms at once--the supernatural and the natural. Called to ministry at age 10, he attended Central Bible College in Springfield, Missouri, where he received a bachelor’s degree in theology. Later, Kevin received training in missions at Rhema Bible College and a doctorate of theology from Primus University.

At age 31, during a routine surgery, he found himself on the other side of the veil; with Jesus in a heavenly visitation that forever marked his life. This encounter ushered his ministry into new dimensions of power, activation, and impartation.

Kevin is retired after being employed by Southwest Airlines for 29 years; he and his wife, Kathi, reside in New Orleans, Louisiana, and are ordained by Dr. Jesse and Dr. Cathy Duplantis.

Title: Your Friendship With Holy Spirit
 Author: Sarah Bowling
 Price: £11.99*
 Product Code: 9780768459319
 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Spiritual Growth
 Distribution: UK & Europe

Father, Son, and... Who?

The third member of the Trinity, Holy Spirit, is often only associated with unusual manifestations and “weird stuff.” In some cases, Scripture and the supernatural have been sadly mishandled, causing many to ignore the Spirit altogether. But Holy Spirit is still a very real part of the Godhead, and desires to be in relationship with us!

In this interactive guide, author and teacher Sarah Bowling introduces you to Holy Spirit by guiding you through special exercises to help deepen your relational connection to Him. Examining Jesus’ introduction to Holy Spirit in John 14–16, Sarah reveals the wonder of the One who Jesus calls our Helper, Comforter, Counselor, Friend, and so much more!

More than imparting Biblical truth, Sarah goes one step further, setting you up for deep personal interaction and encounter with Holy Spirit Himself!

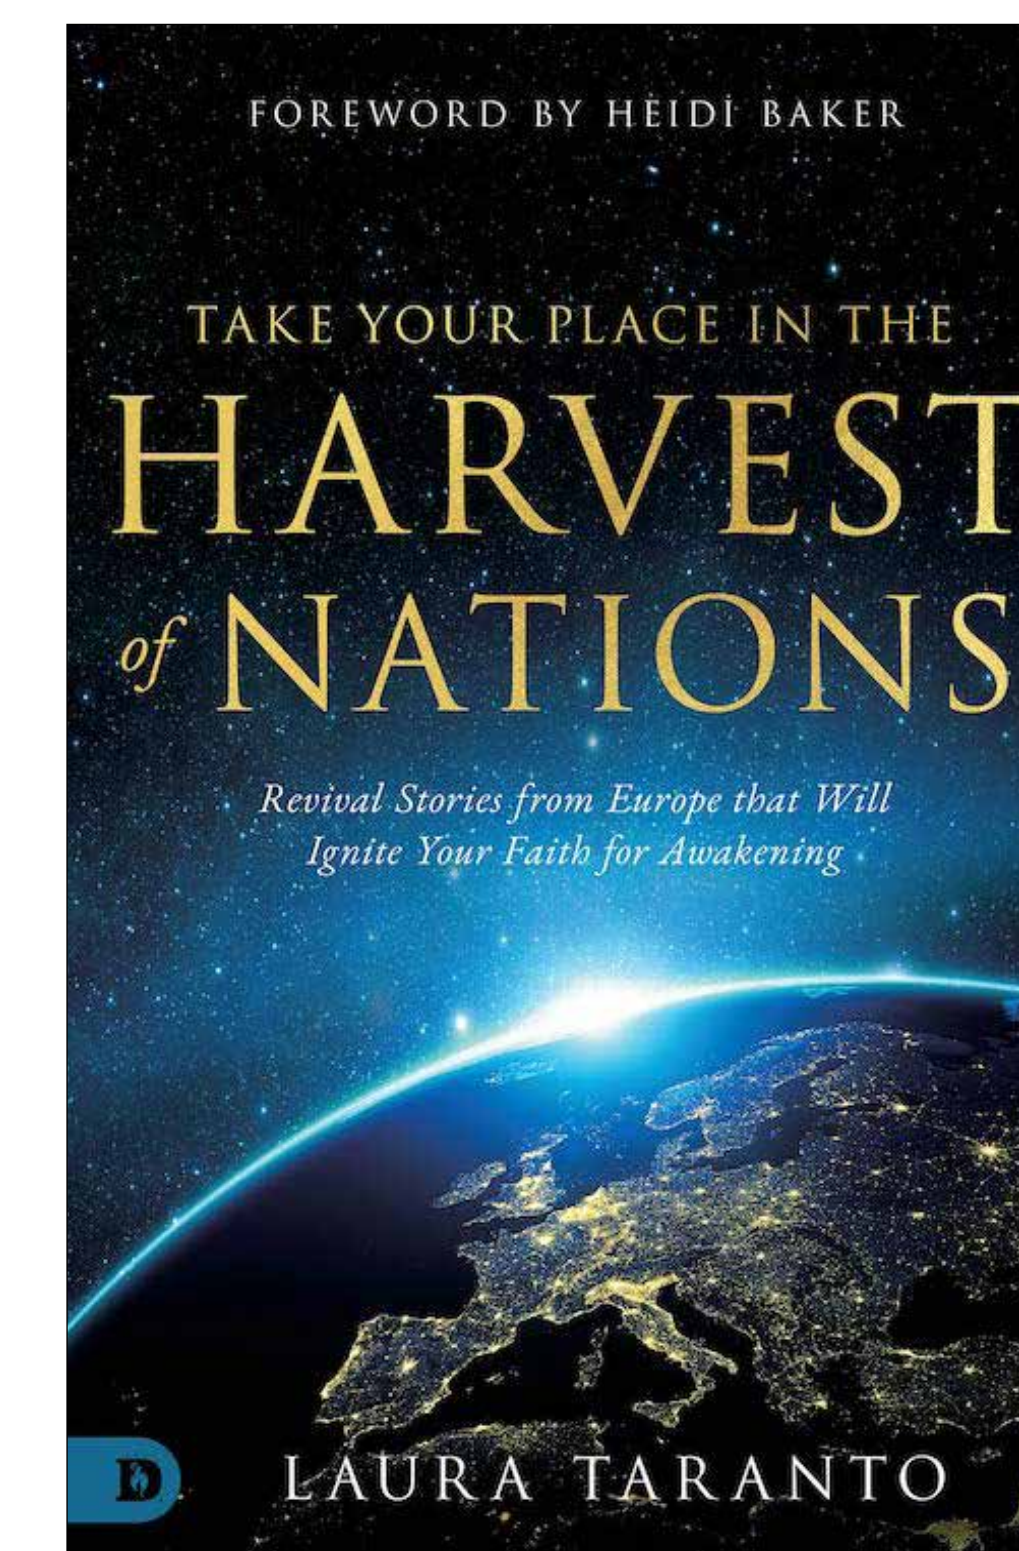

Title: The Glory of God Revealed
 Author: Donna Rigney
 Price: £15.99*
 Product Code: 9780768461251
 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Spiritual Growth
 Distribution: UK & Europe

As you read The Glory of God Revealed, you will be amazed at the wonderful things Donna Rigney saw and learned on her many spiritual encounters with Father, Jesus and Holy Spirit.

Her vivid, detailed accounts of a special golden mountain in Heaven, and all that glorious mountain holds for God’s children who hunger for His glory, will inspire you to become an avid glory seeker.

Through her book, you will learn how you, too, can access the glory in your life. What is the Glory of God? Father explained: “You cannot separate My glory from Me or from who I am. My glory is My essence, My fragrance, My nature and My being. Just as your humanity cannot be separated from you – that is who you are – human; in the same way, My glory cannot be separated from Me. Wherever I am, that is where My glory is.” “The days ahead will be marked by My glory. Being flooded with My glory will become commonplace and expected by all. A new addiction will overtake My children – an avarice addiction to My glory! In the days ahead, you will see many transformed from Saul, the persecutor of My people, to Paul, the apostle to the Gentiles. Many will leave their ignorance and embrace the wisdom, knowledge and glory of My kingdom.”

Title: Work That Makes A Difference
Author: Daniel Doriani
Price: £10.99*
Product Code: 9781629956824
Format: Paperback
Genre: Devotional Books
Distribution: UK & Europe

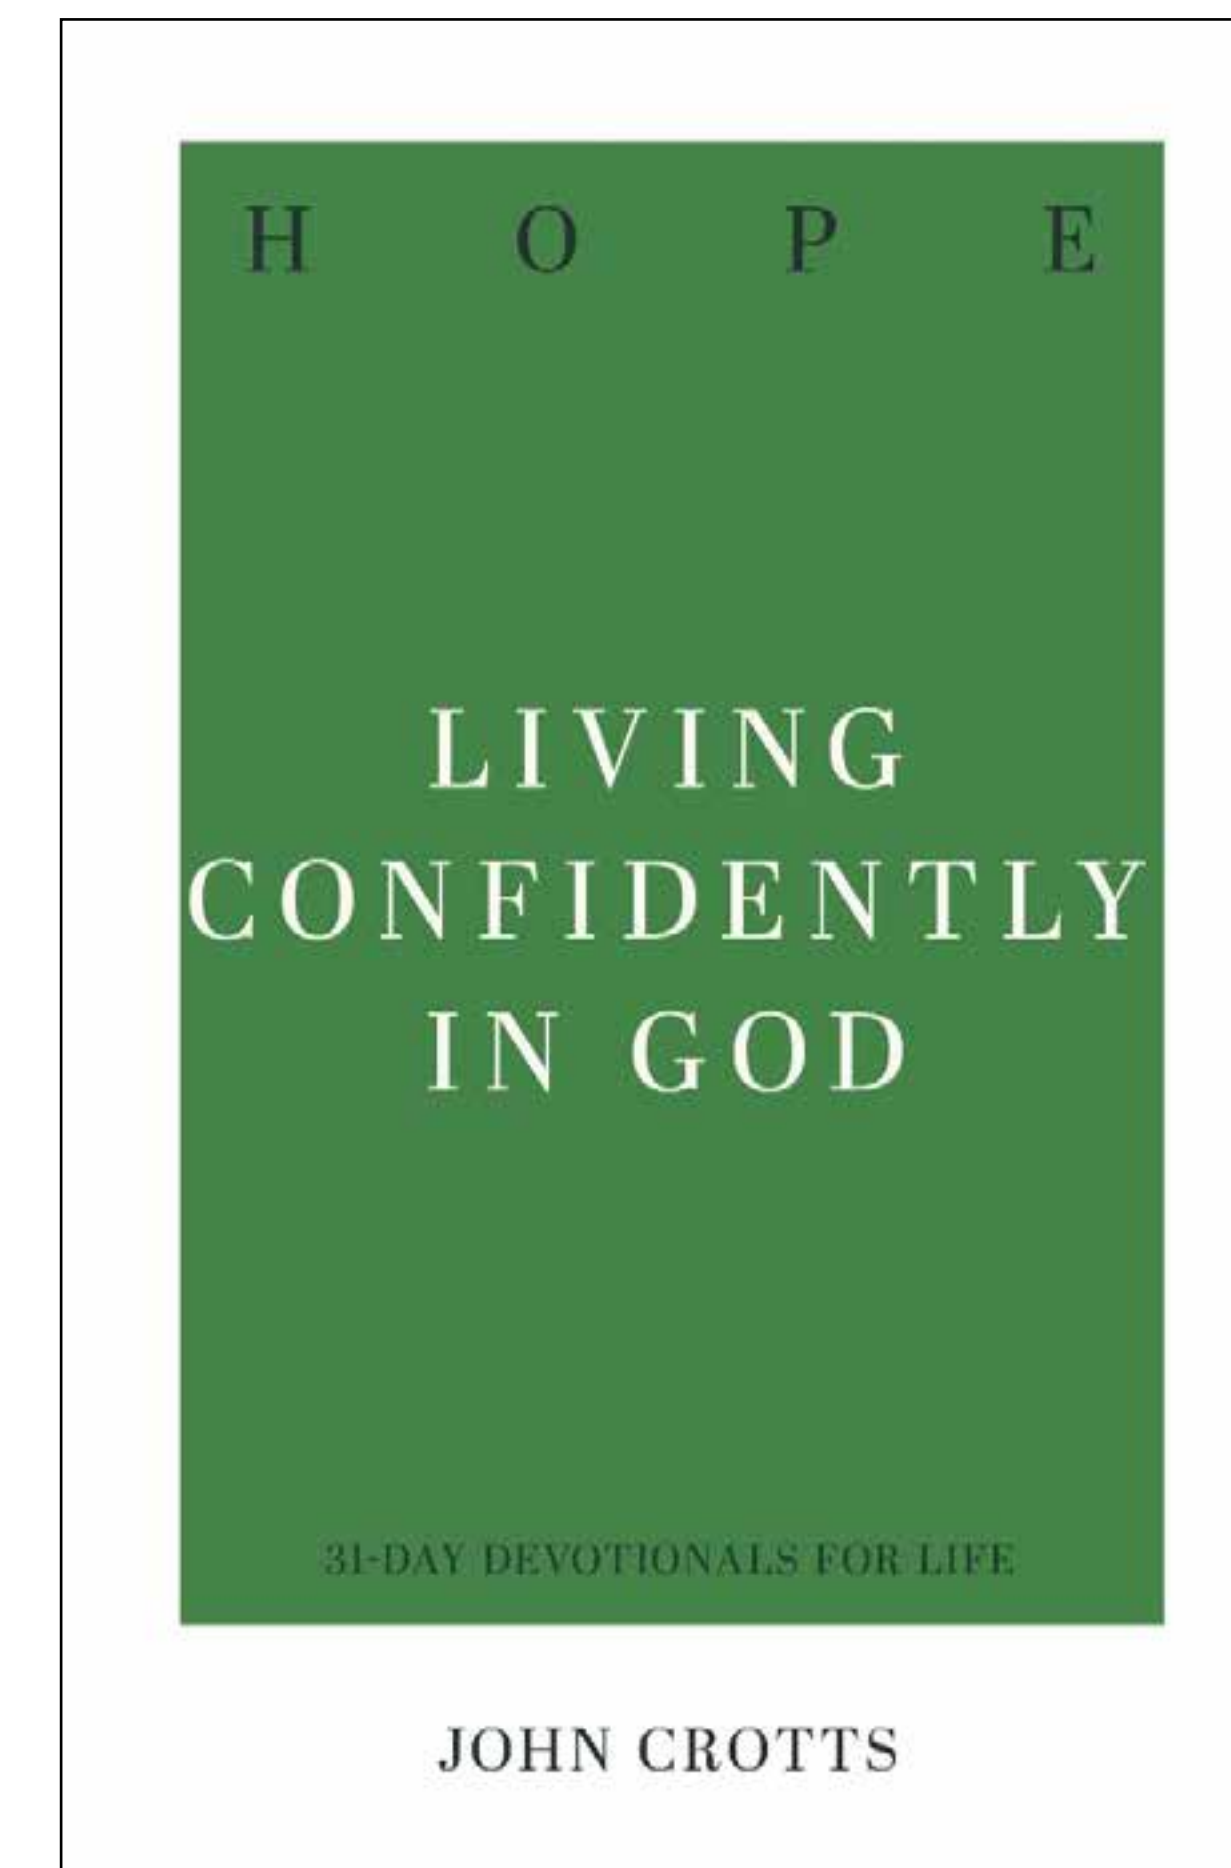

The work you do is one of the main ways you serve God and show love to your neighbour--and as you devote your time to it, it reflects, shapes, and defines who you are.

When we work faithfully in ways that please God, we act as his hands in the world, providing for one another and pushing back against the effects of the fall.

Writing to men and women who labor in any field, Dan Doriani gives a brief and thoughtful overview of the Bible's teaching on the nature, challenges, and opportunities of work.

What does it mean to be faithful at work? How do we know if we are called to a certain kind of work? When should we seek different employment? What makes our work good work?

In a format suitable for individuals or small groups, he answers these questions and more, shining encouraging new light on the familiar and providing insights for self-evaluation.

Description

Christians are counter-cultural: our primary goal should not be to raise intelligent, successful, competent, and upright citizens, our primary concern ought to be for the good of our children's souls – and so for God's glory.

Teaching our children the Scriptures in a compelling, relevant, and holistic manner during daily family worship is one of the chief means we can achieve this.

If you need help to do that – this is the series for you! It's a comprehensive guide for the entire family and particularly children between the ages of 5–12.

Using a unique Review/Read/Reflect/Request format, family worship has never been so fulfilling.

“Wonderfully written, theologically focused, pastorally sure-footed and all within the grasp of 5–12 year olds. A marvelous achievement for which parents will be ever thankful. May this series be instrumental in raising a generation of godly men and women who are biblically informed and eager to learn more of all that Scripture teaches.” --Derek W. H. Thomas, senior minister, First Presbyterian Church, Columbia SC

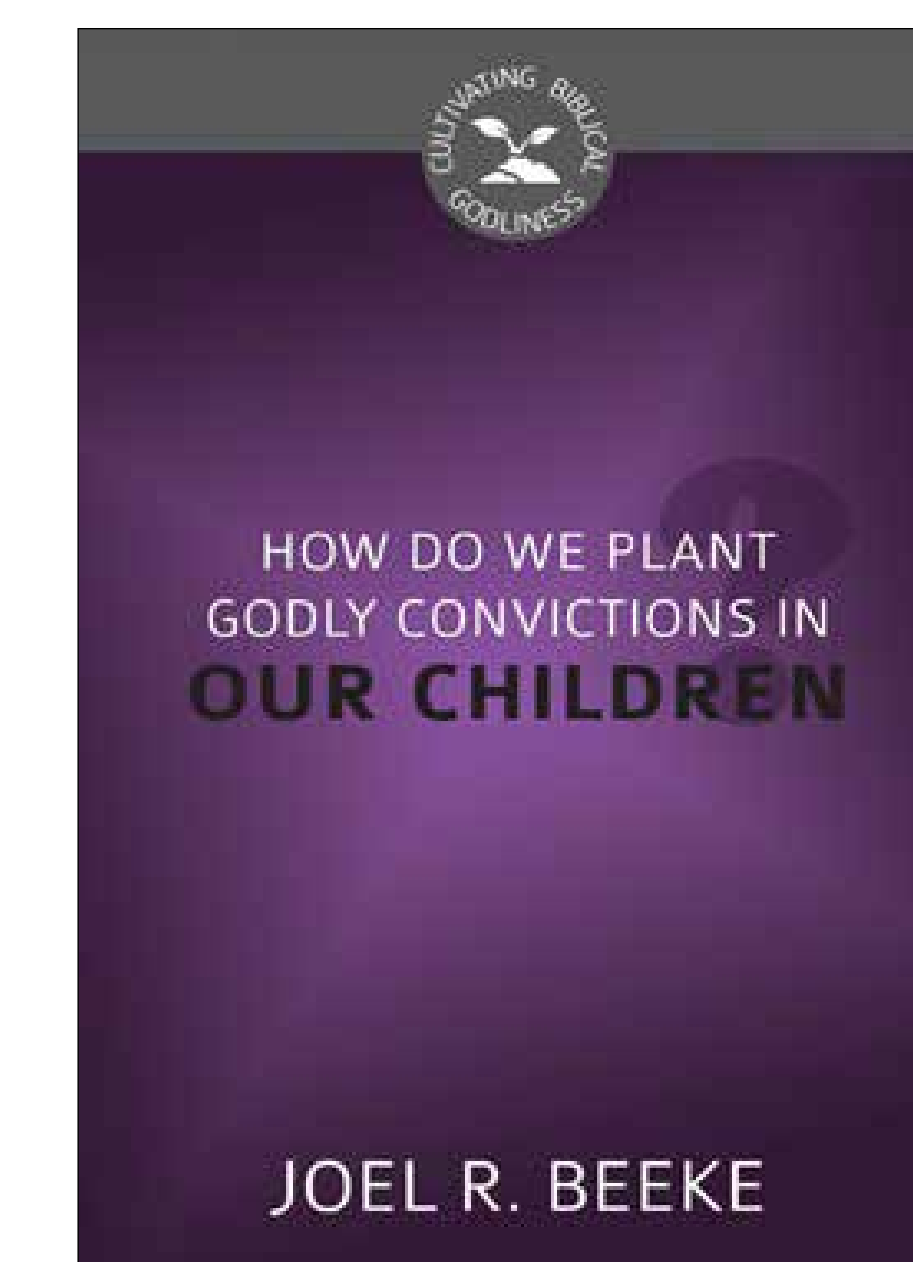

“What a brilliant aid for family devotions! Pastors Joel Beeke and Nick Thompson have found the sweet spot in this series. Both parents and children will be delighted, edified, and blessed by these books.” --Rosaria Butterfield, wife of Kent Butterfield, pastor of the First Reformed Presbyterian Church of Durham, North Carolina; and homeschooling mother and grandmother

About the Author

Dr. Joel R. Beeke is president and professor of systematic theology and homiletics at Puritan Reformed Theological Seminary, a pastor of Heritage Netherlands Reformed Congregation in Grand Rapids, Mich., and editorial director of Reformation Heritage Books.

He is author of numerous books, including 'Parenting by God's Promises', 'Knowing and Growing in Assurance of Faith', and 'Reformed Preaching'.

Author: Daniel R. Hyde
Price: £12.99*
Product Code: 9781601788658

Genre: Person and Work of Christ
Distribution: UK & Europe

How well do you know Jesus? He is, after all, the person you most need to know.

In 'God with Us', Daniel R. Hyde explores the historic, orthodox understanding of the person called Emmanuel—God with us.

Hyde carefully considers Jesus's claims about Himself in the Bible, capturing why the ancient creeds rightly describe Jesus as fully God and fully man, and yet united in one divine person.

Furthermore, Hyde shows how this mystery brings comfort to our lives, defines our witness to the world, and establishes our worship before the throne of God's heavenly grace. A clear and practical introduction to classical Christology.

Distribution: UK & Europe

We have all experienced it: that moment when Satan whispers in your ear, "You aren't really a true Christian or you wouldn't think or behave like that."

It is one of our enemy's most effective tactics to spread uncertainty and render God's people ineffective with self-doubt.

But how do we know we are a Christian? Roberts writes, "to be in a gracious state is true happiness. But to know ourselves to be in such a state is true happiness doubled upon us."

Roberts book will lend some help to Christians to discern their spiritual state and make your election and calling sure (2 Pet 1:10).

Title: Disease, Scarcity and Famine
Author: Ludwig Lavater
Price: £14.50*
Product Code: 9781601788634
Format: Paperback
Genre: Contemporary Social Issues
Distribution: UK & Europe

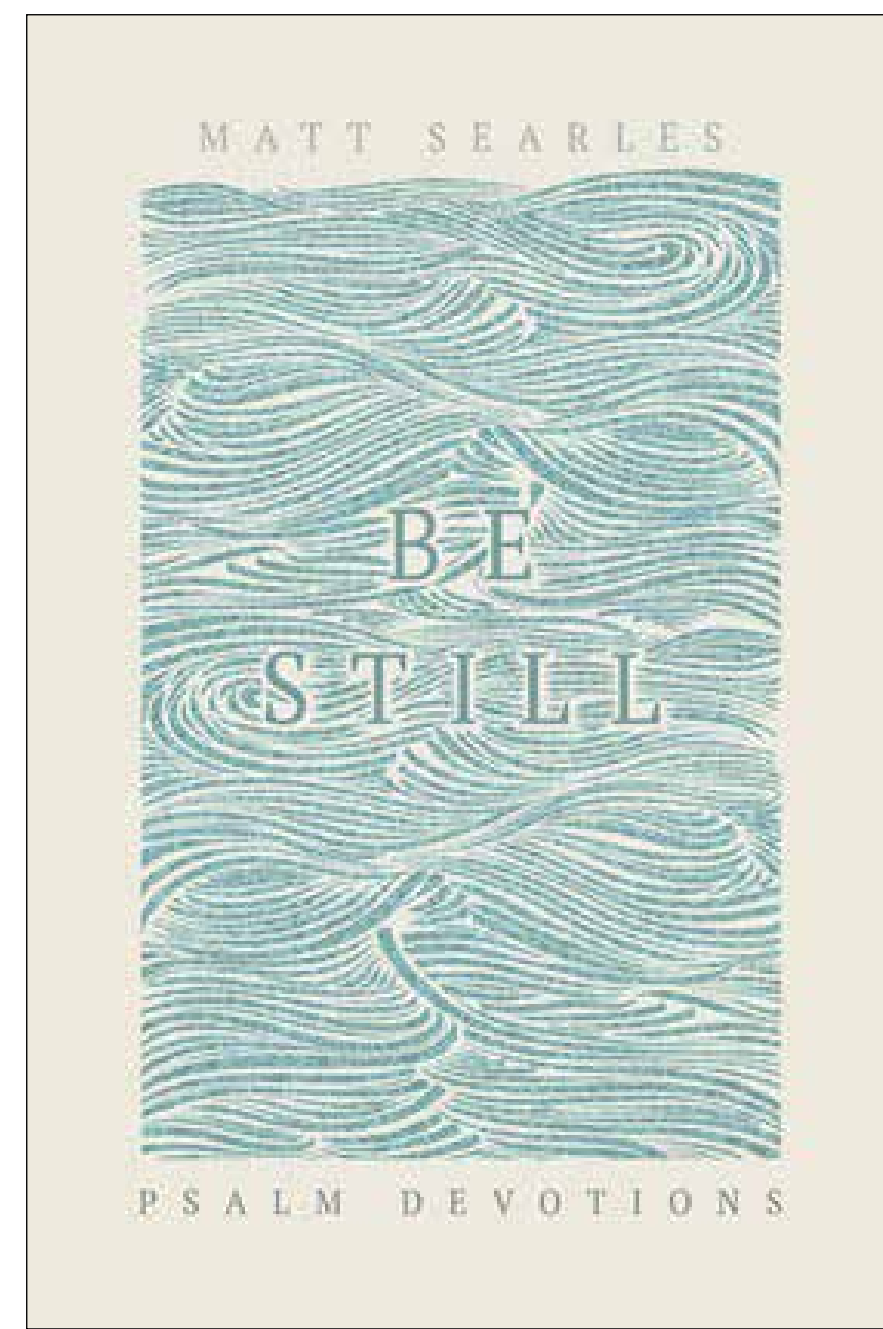

Outbreaks of disease and famine are nothing new, nor is the responsibility of Christian leaders to respond to such societal devastation.

'Disease, Scarcity, and Famine' assembles sermons from Ludwig Lavater, a leading pastor in Zurich during the sixteenth century, that deal with this subject matter.

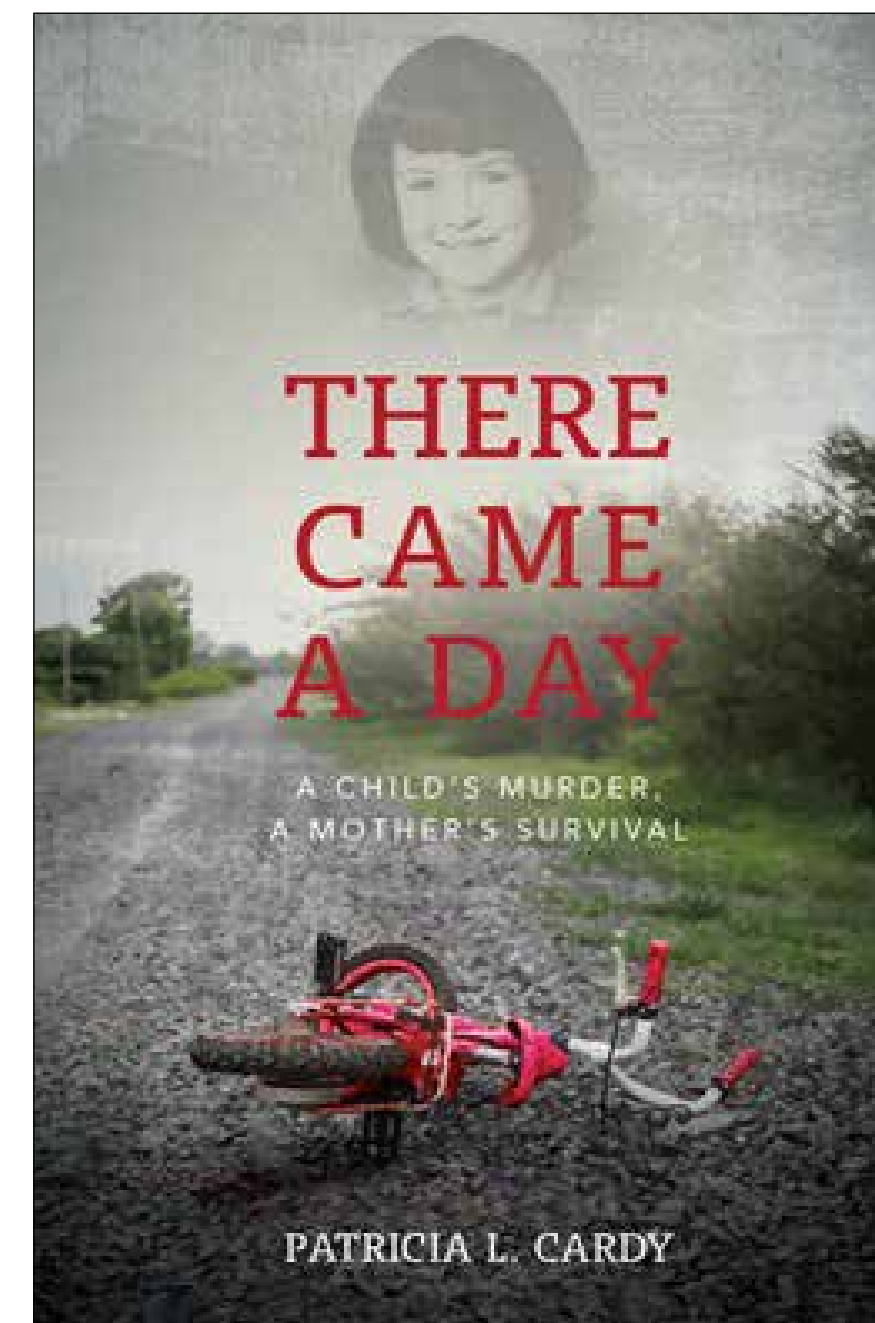

Lavater explains where plagues ultimately come from, gives reasons God chastises the good as well as the bad with them, and instructs readers on how they should conduct themselves during such outbreaks.

He also recounts the divine promises in which God offers help to His elect during trying times. Lavater provides a response to disease both grounded in Scripture and satisfying to the soul.
