Ricky Dillard – Breakthrough: The Exodus CD

Description

Iconic gospel artist Ricky Dillard’s Breakthrough: The Exodus is aptly titled, representing the first ticketed, live recording in gospel music since the interruption of the global pandemic.

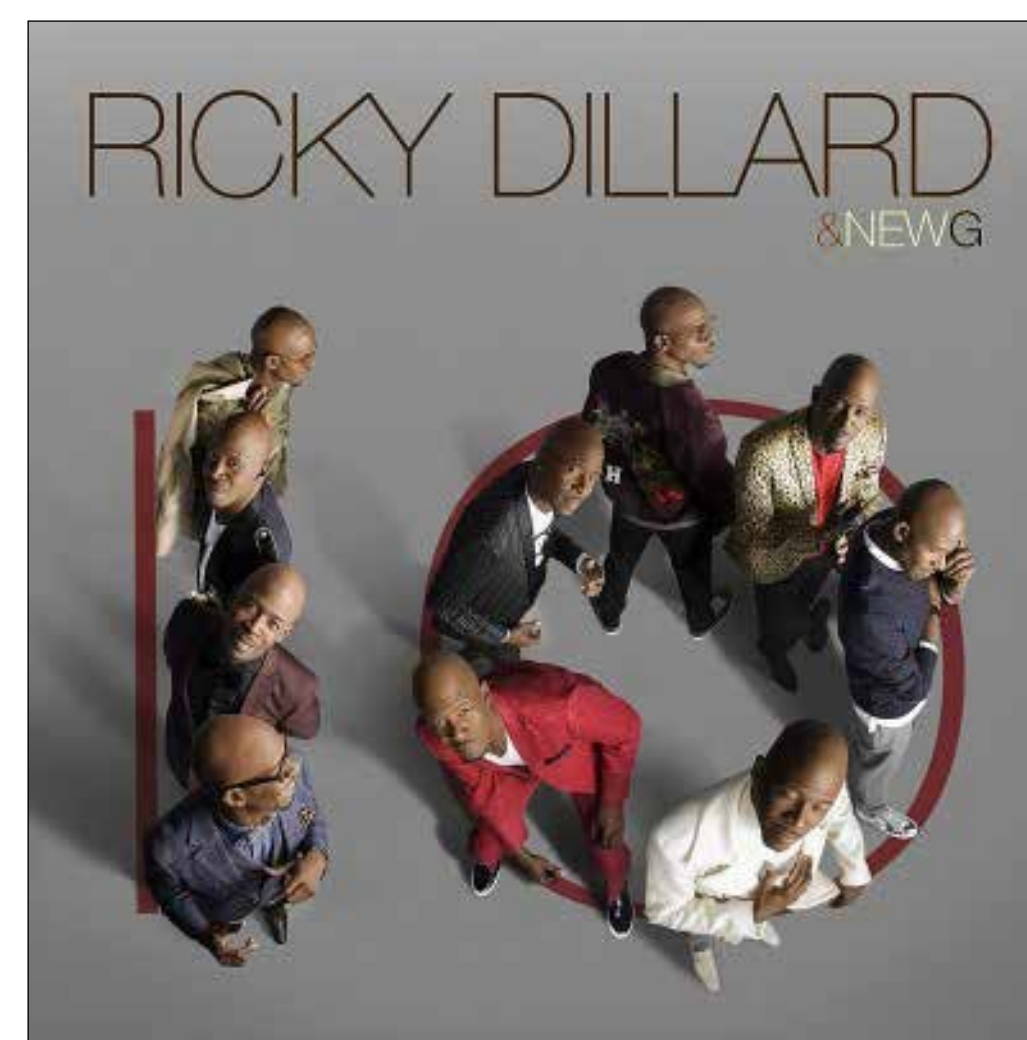

Without missing a beat, the dynamic artist breaks through the hardship of the year, directing his famed choir through rousing, uptempo songs and passionate, heart-stirring ballads that declare freedom and hope.

And true to form, this project is dynamically punctuated by Dillard’s signature band hits, staggering soloist features, and over-the-top soprano, alto and tenor parts. It is a live choir experience unlike any other.

Kim Hopper – Softly & Tenderly CD

Description

Multi-award-winning singer, Kim Hopper has released her first solo album since 2008. Her new project, 'Softly & Tenderly,' is a collection of eleven beautiful songs written by some of the industry's most talented songwriters including Sanford J. Massengale, Rusty Goodman, Stuart Hamblen, Charles C. Converse, Homer F. Morris, James Rowe, G.E. Write, Charles Austin Miles, Ira F. Stanphill, Dottie Rambo, Jimmie Davis, Barney E. Warren, and Will L. Thompson.

"I'm very excited about this collection of songs in the style that is true to my heart and home," shares Kim. "I grew up in the Appalachian mountains and wanted to pay tribute to these old gospel classics and hymns the way I grew up hearing them. This project is a little dream being fulfilled; I can only hope that the listeners will enjoy them as much as we did recording them!"

Description

There is treasure hidden in Paul’s thirteen letters, but the path to find it is not obvious. In the Bible Paul’s letters are not sequenced in chronological order. Paul wrote his letters within the two decades of A.D. 48 to A.D. 68. His thirteen generally accepted letters are arranged in the New Testament in two blocks: the nine written to churches, then the four written to individuals. The nine written to churches are generally placed in order by length. This series presents Paul’s letters in 17 segments as follows:

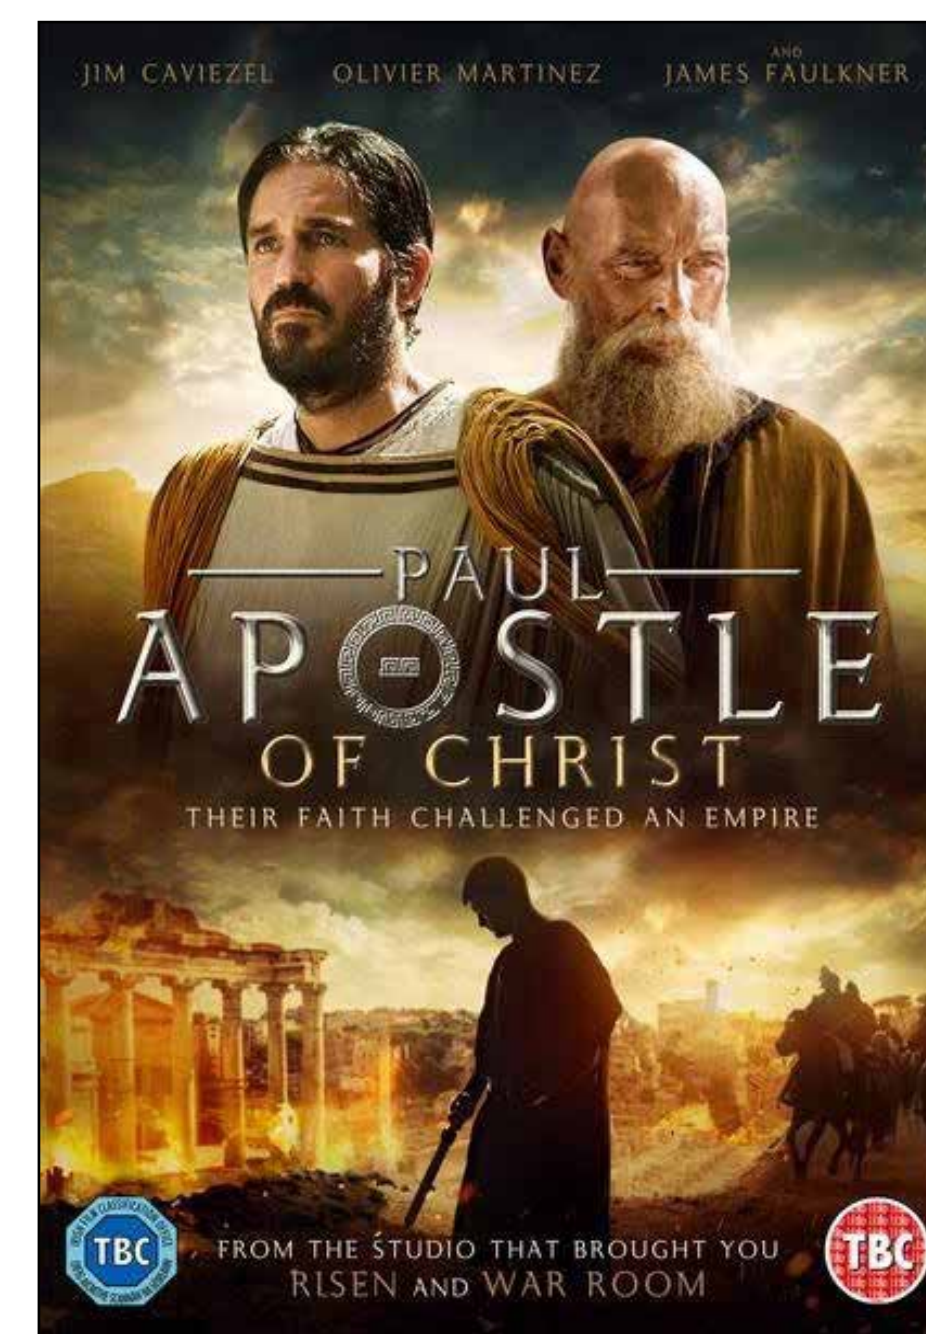

- | | | | |
|--------------------------|----------------------------|-------------------|--------------------------|
| 01. Upside Down World | 06. First Corinthians 1–7 | 11. Ephesians | 16. Titus |
| 02. Galatians 1–2 | 07. First Corinthians 8–16 | 12. Colossians | 17. Second Timothy |
| 03. Galatians 3–6 | 08. Second Corinthians | 13. Philemon | |
| 04. First Thessalonians | 09. Romans 1–8 | 14. Philippians | |
| 05. Second Thessalonians | 10. Romans 9–16 | 15. First Timothy | (Running Time: 3hr. 22m) |

Description

‘Known’ is an interactive and creative journal-style resource designed to help young women explore the subject of their identity. The book will lead the reader on a journey, through the key elements of who they are, by focusing on scriptural truth, prayer and creative exercises.

With a focus on ‘wellness’ Known will equip young women to navigate the unique pressures of life in the 2020s. They are facing increased pressure at school, disruption due to recent events and the toll that places on them, the increasing pressures of social media – especially in platforms such as TikTok, family pressures – both those struggling with separation and those trapped in difficult situation, the impact on hobbies, pastimes, and future hopes due to social and economic pressures.

‘Known’ Is a journey to healthy self-image, acceptance and full appreciation of our God-given, beautiful identity. In a society that places increasing importance upon likes, follows and shares, we will explore what gives us our true value. In a world full of comments and opinions we will meditate on what God has to say about us and what it means to be truly ‘Known’ by Him.

Every chapter has a variety of simple interactive elements to help the reader creatively explore their beliefs, values, dreams, and individual beauty.

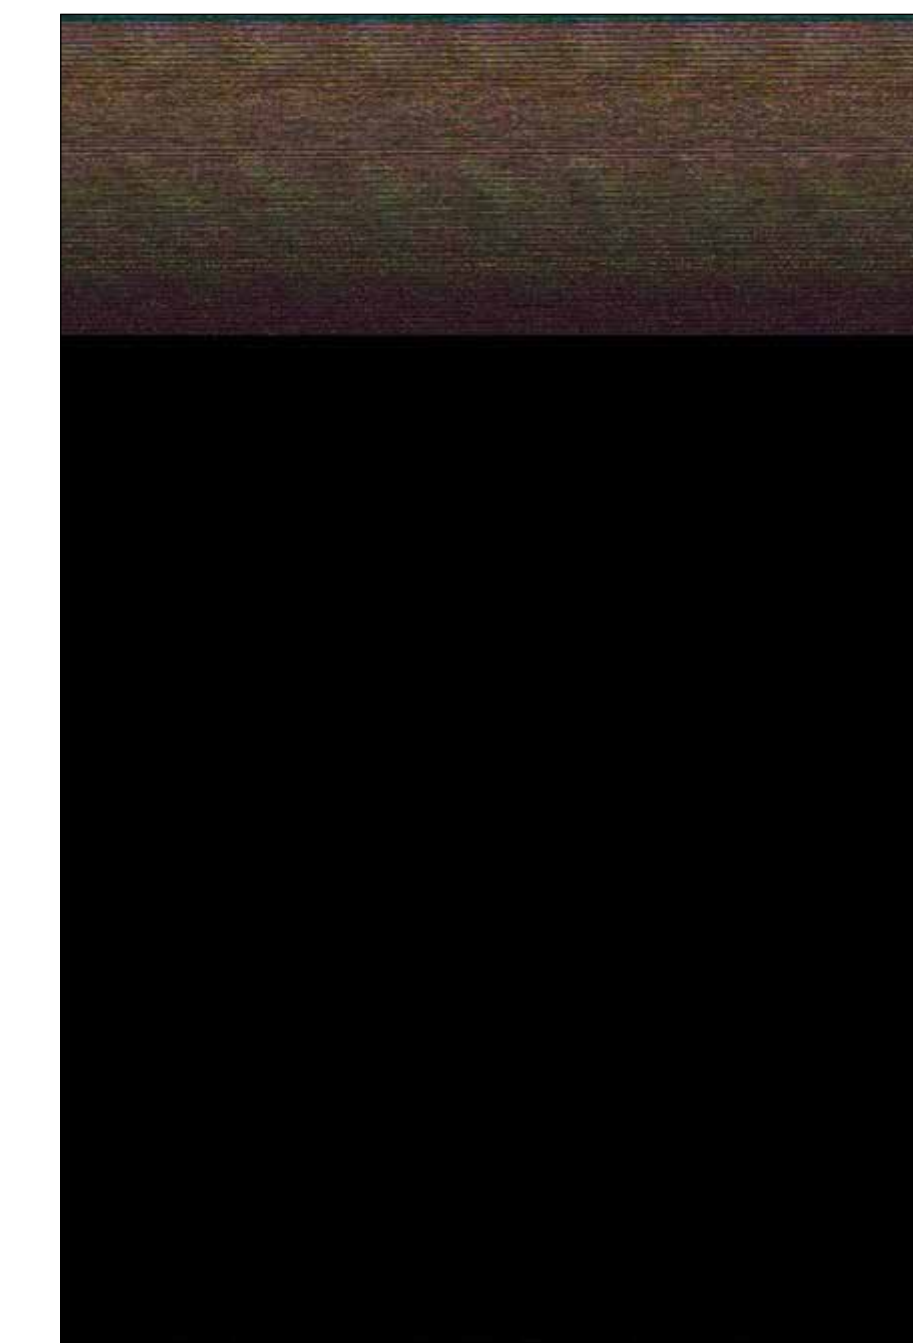

Together, we will creatively tackle our 21st century confusions and anxieties by focusing on God’s unchanging word. By meditating on the truth, we can begin to remove the unhelpful filters and develop a relationship with the child of God beneath.

Description

New York Times bestselling author Francine Rivers returns to the California frontier in this sweeping, romantic tale of a displaced New England suffragette, a former Union soldier disinherited by his Southern family, and the town they join forces to save.

1875. When Kathryn Walsh arrives in tiny Calvada, a mining town nestled in the Sierra Nevadas, falling in love is the farthest thing from her mind. Banished from Boston by her wealthy stepfather, she has come to claim an inheritance from the uncle she never knew: a defunct newspaper office on a main street overflowing with brothels and saloons, and a seemingly worthless mine. Moved by the oppression of the local miners and their families, Kathryn decides to relaunch her uncle’s newspaper—and then finds herself in the middle of a maelstrom, pitted against Calvada’s most powerful men. But Kathryn intends to continue to say—and publish—whatever she pleases, especially when she knows she’s right. Matthias Beck, owner of a local saloon and hotel, has a special interest in the new lady in town. He instantly recognizes C. T. Walsh’s same tenacity in the beautiful and outspoken redhead—and knows all too well how dangerous that family trait can be. While Kathryn may be right about Calvada’s problems, her righteousness could also get her killed. But when the handsome hotelier keeps finding himself on the same side of the issues as the opinionated Miss Walsh, Matthias’s restless search for purpose becomes all about answering the call of his heart. Everyone may be looking to strike it rich in this lawless boomtown, but it’s a love more precious than gold that will ultimately save them all.

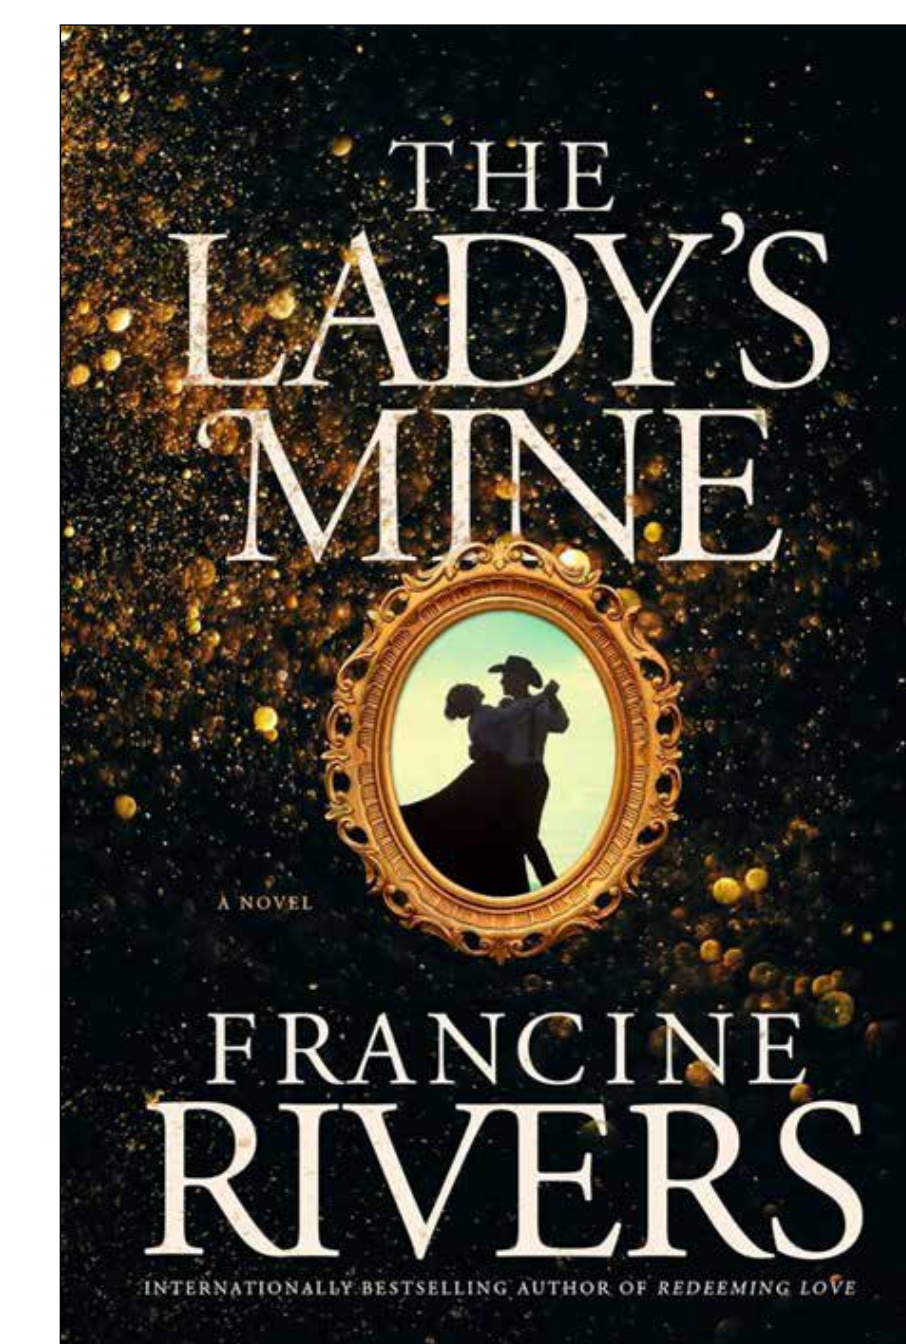

About the Author

New York Times bestselling author Francine Rivers continues to win both industry acclaim and reader loyalty around the globe.

Her numerous bestsellers include ‘Redeeming Love’, ‘A Voice in the Wind’, and ‘Bridge to Haven’, and her work has been translated into more than thirty different languages.

She is a member of Romance Writers of America’s coveted Hall of Fame as well as a recipient of the Lifetime Achievement Award from American Christian Fiction Writers (ACFW).

Description

A true story about making the most of your one incredible life.

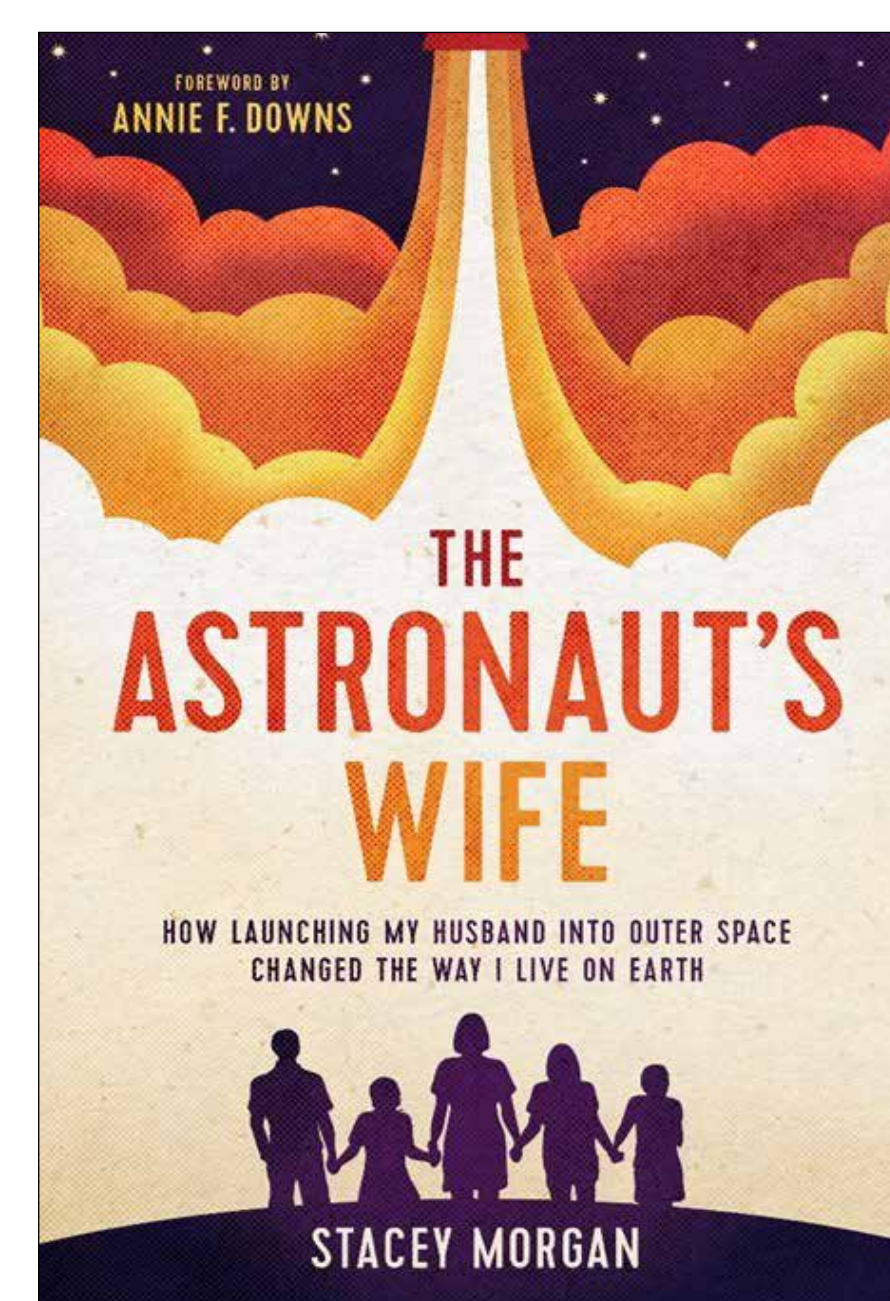

Stacey Morgan kissed her husband goodbye before he donned his space suit on July 20, 2019, and headed to his waiting Soyuz rocket. With an overwhelming mix of pride, excitement, and terror, she and her children held hands and watched the rocket ignite and lift off for a nine-month mission aboard the International Space Station.

This is the story of the astronaut’s wife—a journey full of unexpected twists and turns. While the love of her life orbited the Earth, Stacey was about to embark on a knock-your-socks-off adventure right here at home. This season would be different from any Stacey had experienced before. The risks were greater, the loneliness was deeper, and the stress was more intense. Filled with as many unique challenges as surreal opportunities, this deeply meaningful season taught her rich lessons about

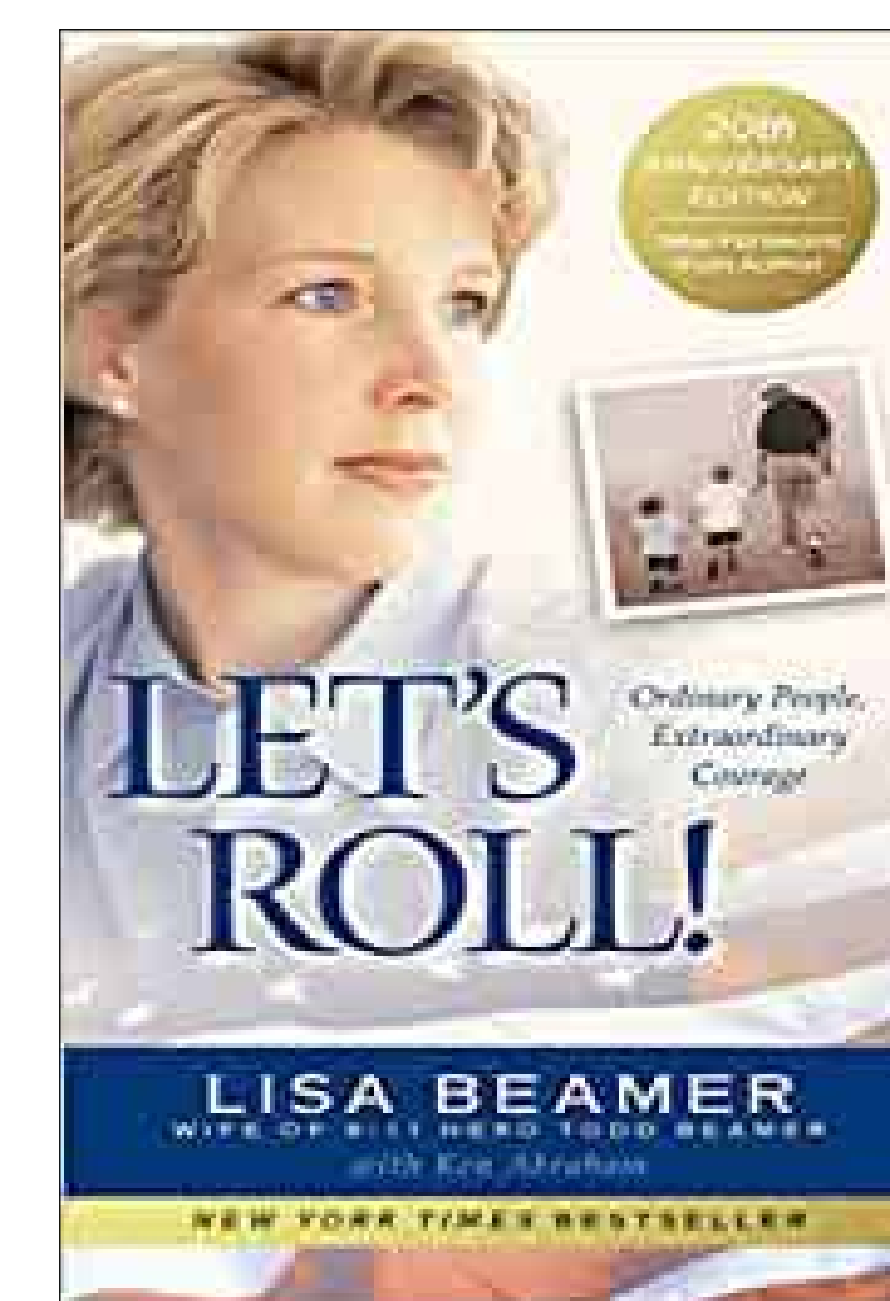

- Preparing for any mission or adventure life throws at you.
- Rediscovering your fun side when you’ve been trapped in survival mode too long.
- Trusting God when you feel weak or alone.
- Choosing hope in the face of fear and uncertainty.

Containing behind-the-scenes glimpses into a side of space flight that most of us will never experience, The Astronaut’s Wife is a funny, poignant, and meaningful exploration of living life to the fullest.

Description

Jesus commands us to love our neighbours. So why are so many Christians taught to fear their neighbours?

The church is known as a people who are afraid, who have been nurtured through fear into hatred, and who have moved from hatred to violence—or at least to neglect. This fear, too often lived out boldly in the name of Jesus, is a false religion. God instructs us to welcome strangers. We are not to withhold hospitality or help from anyone in need.

So why do we fear strangers, especially those needing hospitality, afraid that their presence may threaten what we have? Jesus taught us to love our enemies. We are to pray for those who actively harm us. Instead, we create enemies in our minds, seeing anyone who thinks, believes, looks, or lives differently from us as dangerous, a threat to our way of living. The Christian community exists to declare and demonstrate God's love and to follow Jesus in practicing love over fear, even in unsafe times and places. It's time to reclaim our brave fear of God and risk transformative love for the sake of our neighbours, the strangers among us, and our enemies. We are people of the Kingdom.

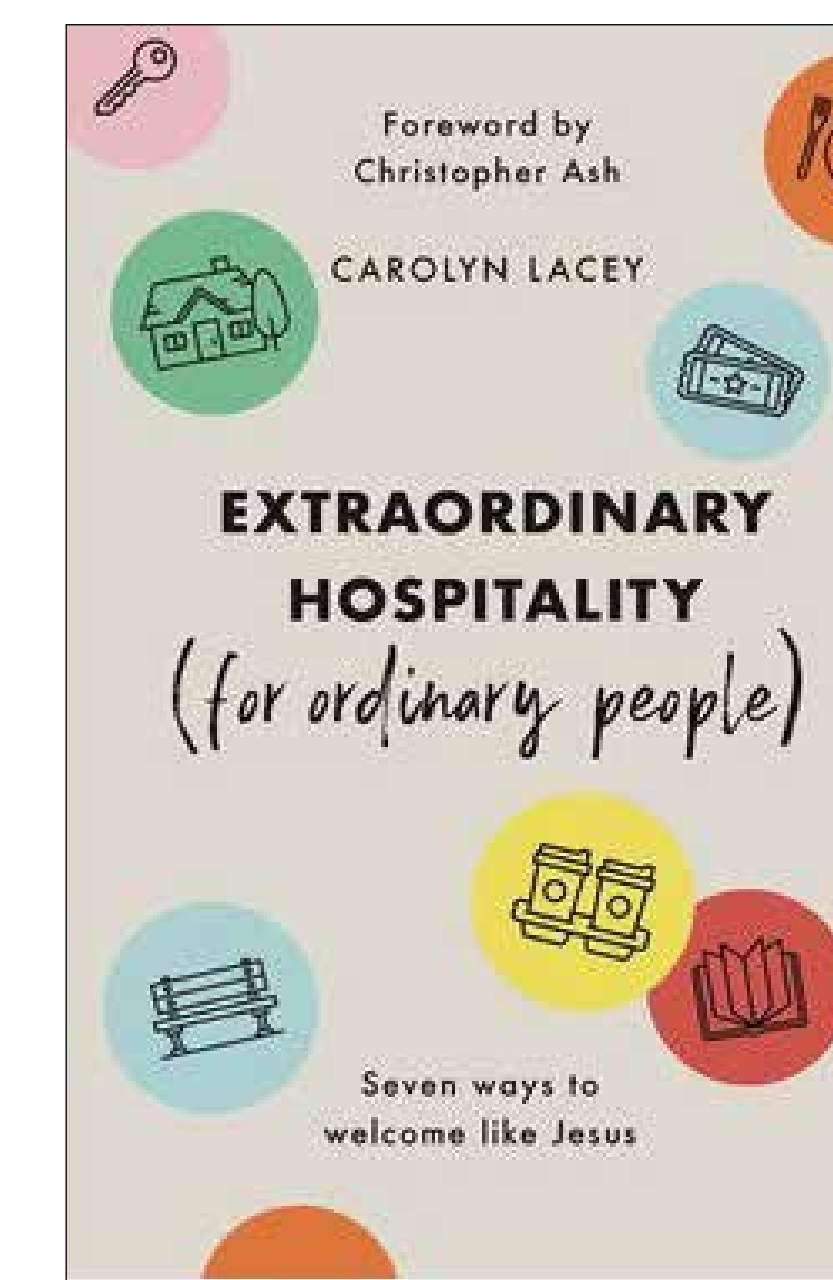

'Fearing Bravely' teaches us that we have nothing to fear. Instead, we can respond to our fear problem with a brave love that emerges from choosing to let our fear of God overcome our fear of everything else. Catherine McNiel writes with conviction, wisely guiding us to recognize our fear and, with God's help, not let it limit us to love courageously all who are among us.

About the Author

Catherine McNiel is an author, writer, editor, and speaker who wrestles with the creative, redemptive work of God in our ordinary lives. Catherine writes for several churches, ministries, and organizations, hoping to kindle conversations that mingle theology with real life on the ground and open eyes to God's ongoing presence in our world.

Catherine and her husband live in the Chicago suburbs where she cares for three kids, two jobs, and one enormous garden.

Description

Celebrate A Season of Renewal and Reflection.

The theme of bitterness runs through the Bible as a sour reminder of sin's presence in our world yet it's because of this bitterness that Jesus' grace is so sweet and satisfying. As we learn to turn from our vices and crave real beauty, goodness, and truth through the pursuit of virtues, we grow nearer to God and become more like who He made us to be.

From Tsh Oxenreider, bestselling author of Shadow and Light: A Journey into Advent, arrives a devotional to help you meditate and rejoice in the transcendent miracle of Easter. You will...

- Uncover what it means to participate in the liturgical traditions of Lent, from fasting to almsgiving.
- Experience artwork and music that illuminates the impact both personal and global of Jesus's death and resurrection.
- Contemplate the wonder of Christ's redemption of all humankind, especially as this time of introspection reveals your human limitations.

Starting on Ash Wednesday and leading you all the way through Holy Week, 'Bitter and Sweet' is an invitation to better understand Jesus's sacrifice as you delight in His ultimate love for you.

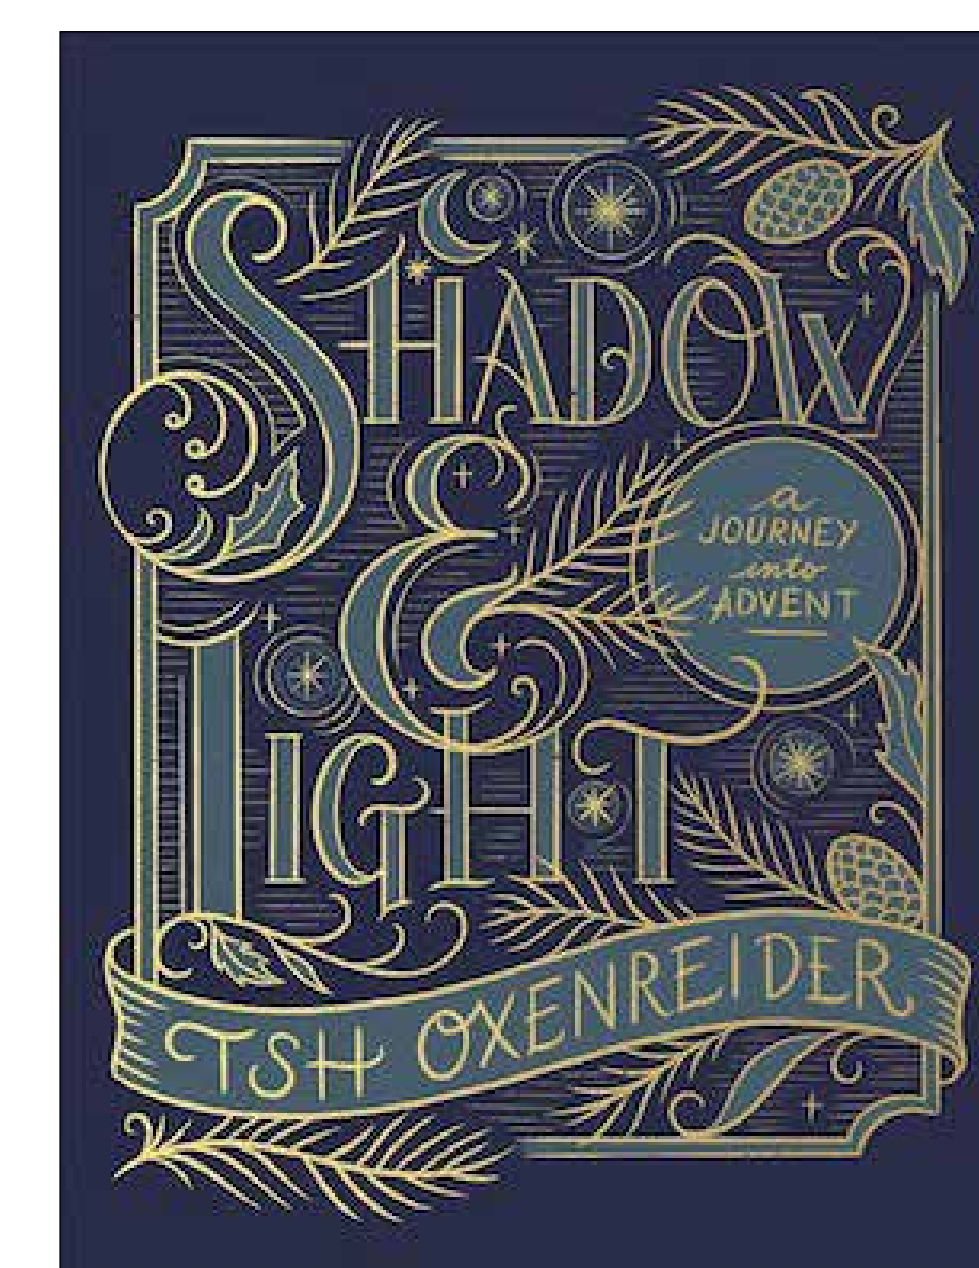

About the Authors

Tsh Oxenreider is a bestselling author, as well as travel guide, teacher, and top-ranked podcaster.

Natasha Crain – Faithfully Different

Description

Welcome to Your Place in a Worldview Minority.

In an increasingly secular society, those who have a biblical worldview are now a shrinking minority. As mainstream culture grows more hostile toward the Bible's truths and those who embrace them, you'll face mounting pressures from family, friends, media, academia, and government to change and even abandon your beliefs. But these challenges also create abundant opportunities to stand strong for Christ and shine light to those hurt by the darkness of our day.

In 'Faithfully Different,' author and apologist Natasha Crain shares how you can live out your faith with conviction, discernment, and courage. You'll be equipped to:

- Identify and respond to today's most significant worldview pressures, such as cancel culture, secular social justice, progressive Christianity, deconstruction, virtue signaling, and more.
- Engage effectively with a world that ridicules biblical truths.
- Defend your faith from misguided influences and live as a bold witness for the Lord.

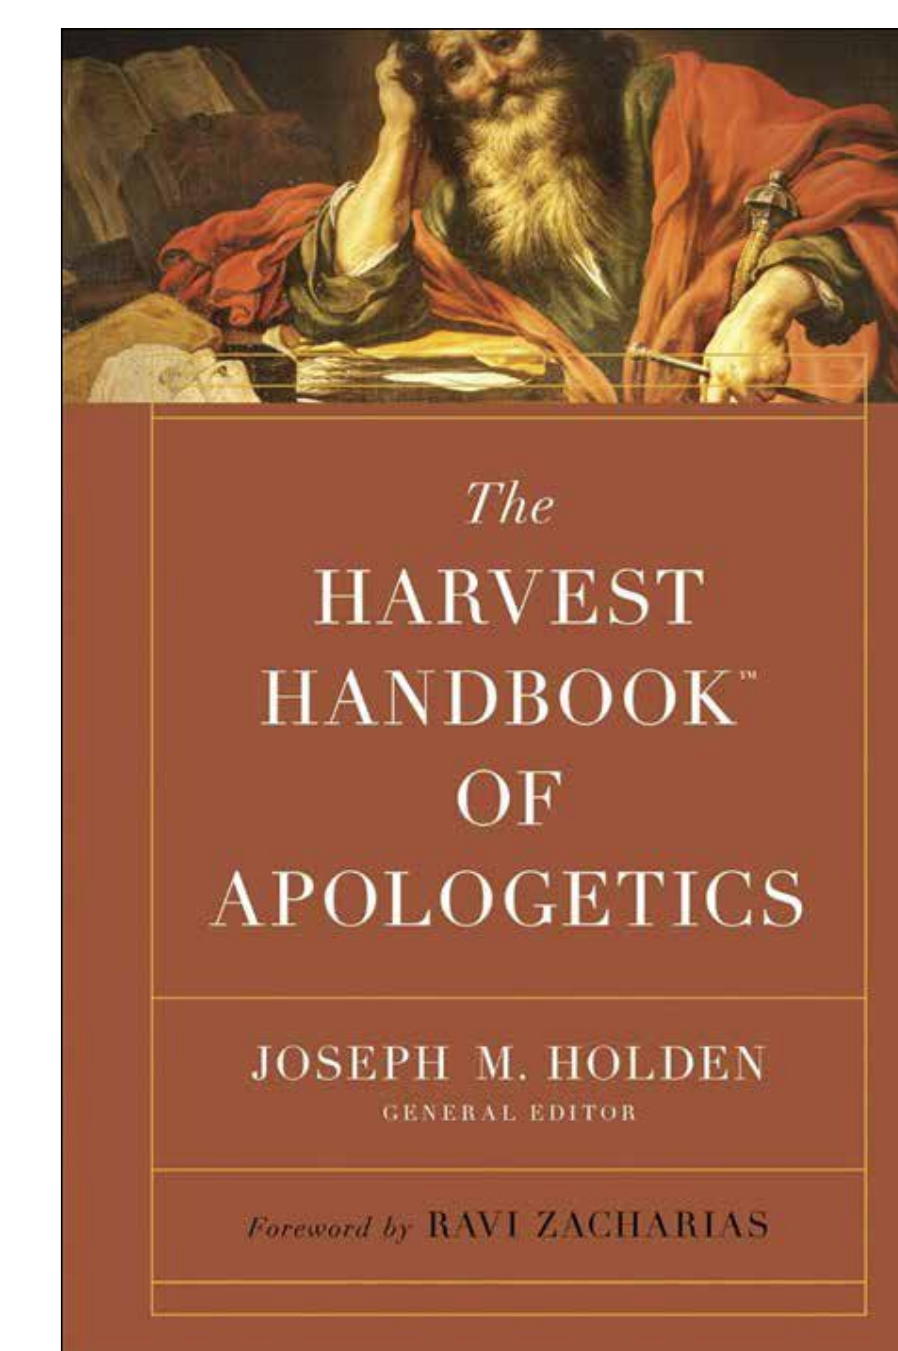

As the standards of our day mutate and devolve, Faithfully Different will give you the insight and encouragement you need to believe, think, and live biblically no matter what you face in these turbulent times.

About the Authors

Natasha Crain is a speaker, author, blogger, and podcaster who equips Christians to think biblically in a secular world. She is the author of three apologetics books for parents: 'Keeping Your Kids on God's Side,' 'Talking with Your Kids About God,' and 'Talking with Your Kids About Jesus'.

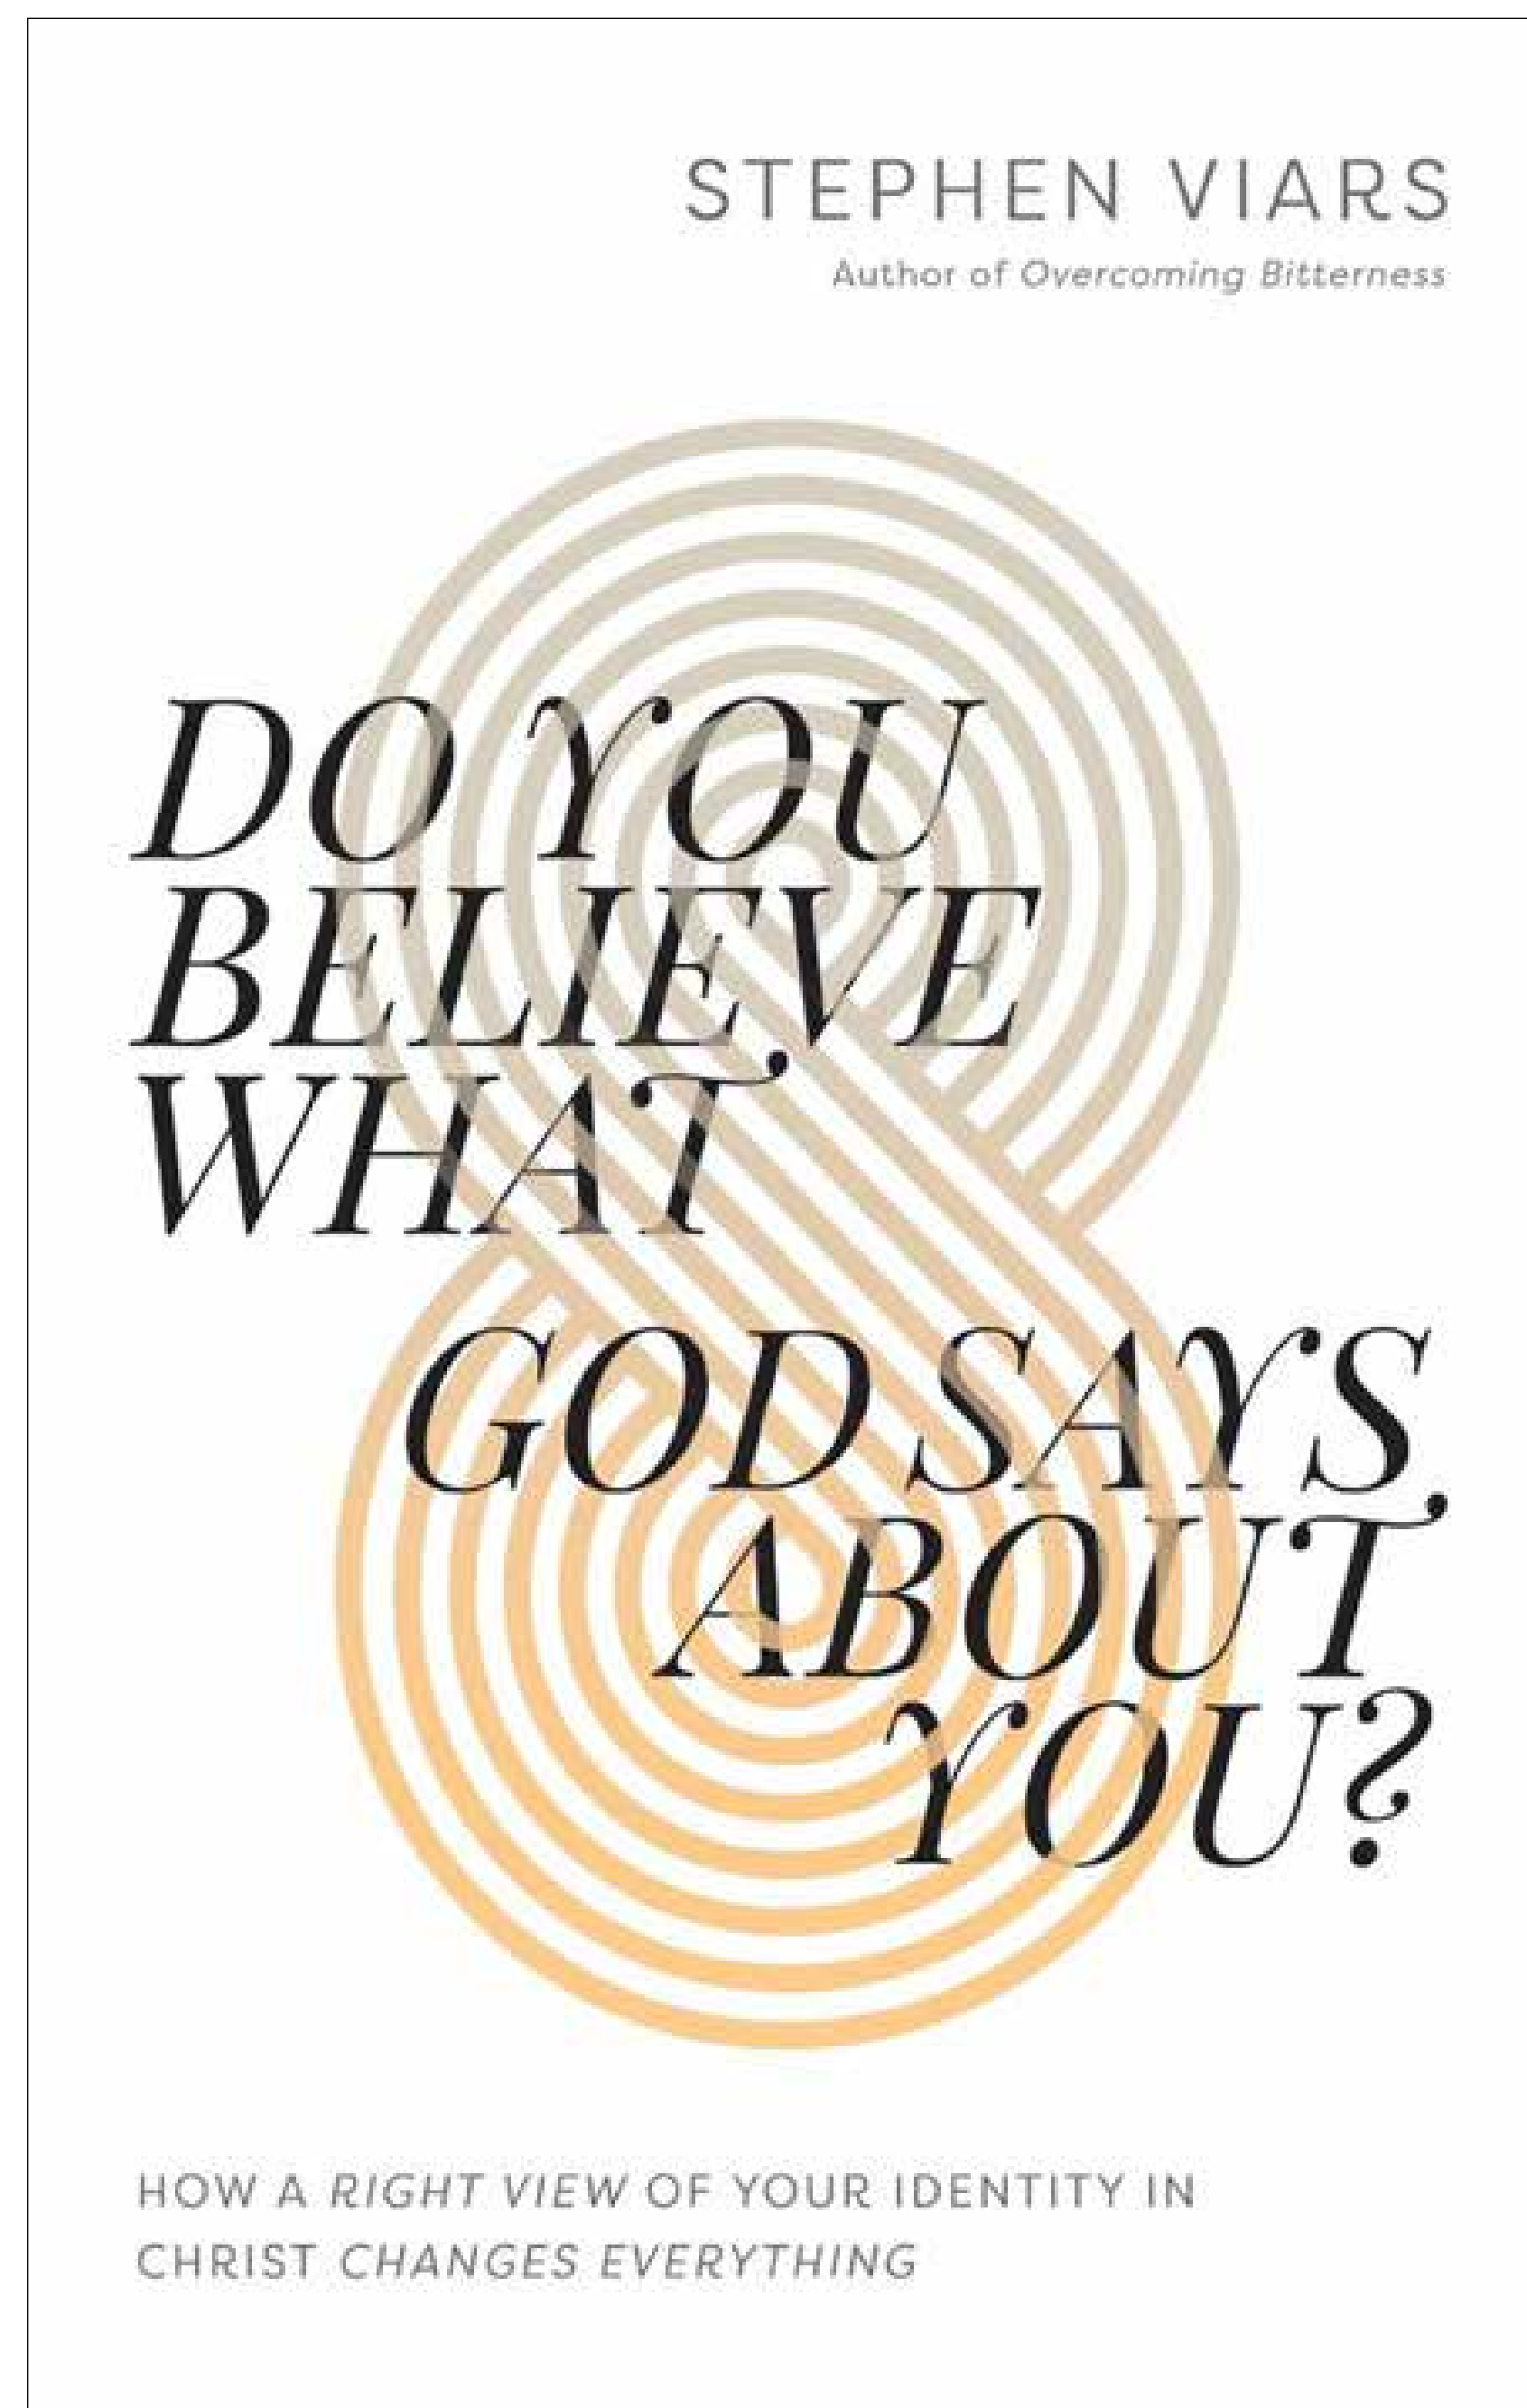

Natasha has been featured on radio shows nationwide. She has an MBA from UCLA and a certificate in Christian apologetics from Biola University. A former marketing executive and adjunct professor, Natasha lives in Southern California with her husband and three children.

See Yourself Through God's Eyes

Who are you? You carry your answer to that question around your home, community, workplace, and church. But how does your self-image compare to God's perfect understanding of you?

In 'Do You Believe What God Says About You?', pastor and Christian counsellor Stephen Viars encourages you to trade misgivings about your identity for the Bible's life-changing affirmations of who you were made to be. You will:

- Let go of the painful thoughts and feelings that accompany a broken self-image
- Develop positive habits for your mind and body that empower you to daily put God's truths about your worth into practice
- Grow in your love for Jesus as you realise how His death, burial, and resurrection have eternally changed who you are able to be

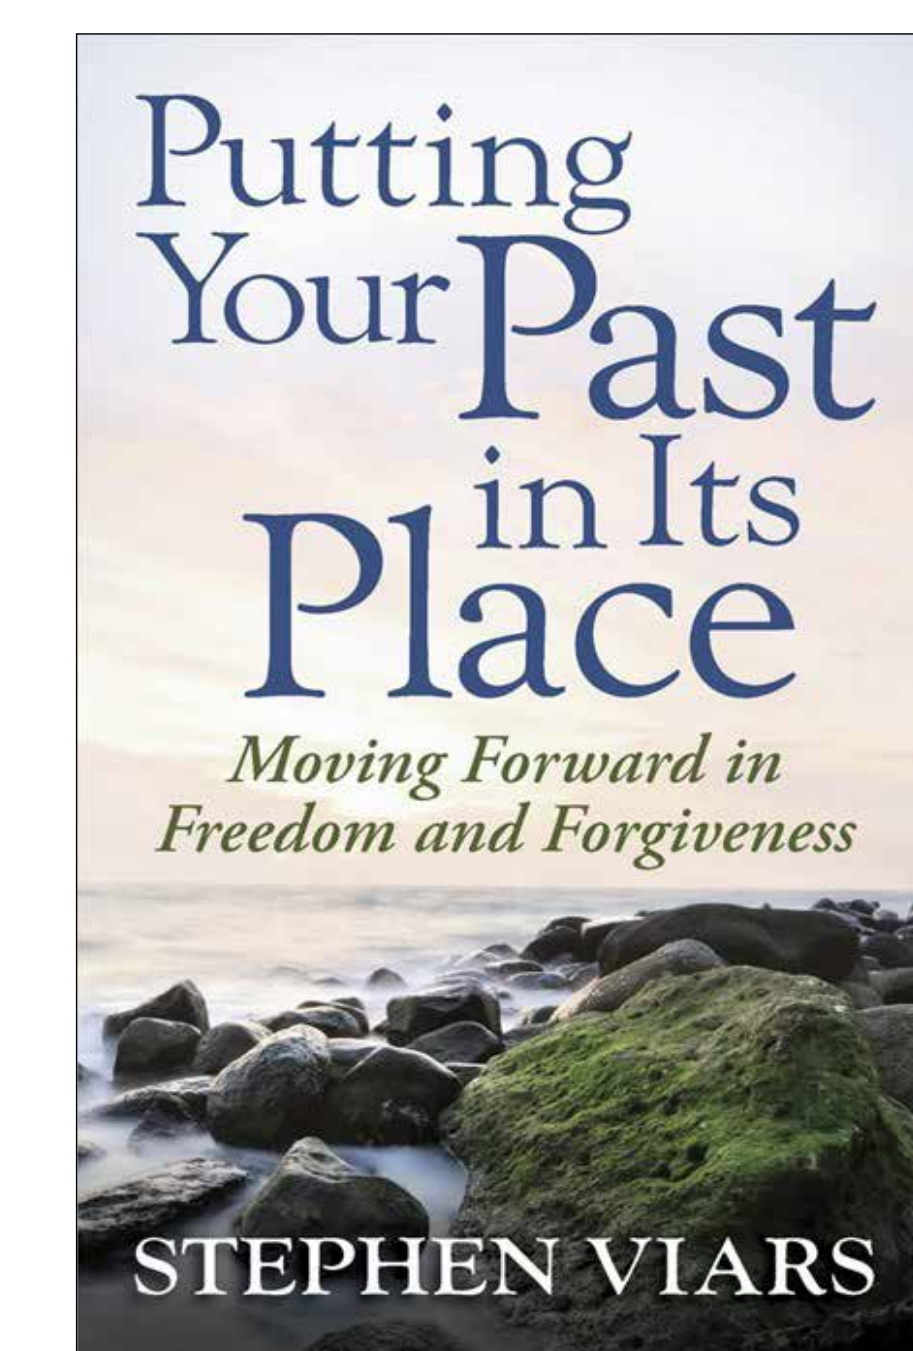

Perfect for personal use or group study, and an ideal resource for biblical counsellors, this book offers 31 chapters that feature inspiring insights, practical illustrations, helpful journalling questions, and guided prayers that will help you define your identity as God does.

About the Author

Stephen Viars earned his DMin degree in biblical counselling from Westminster Theological Seminary and has served as a pastor and biblical counselor for more than 20 years at Faith Baptist Church and Faith Biblical Counselling Ministries in Lafayette, Indiana.

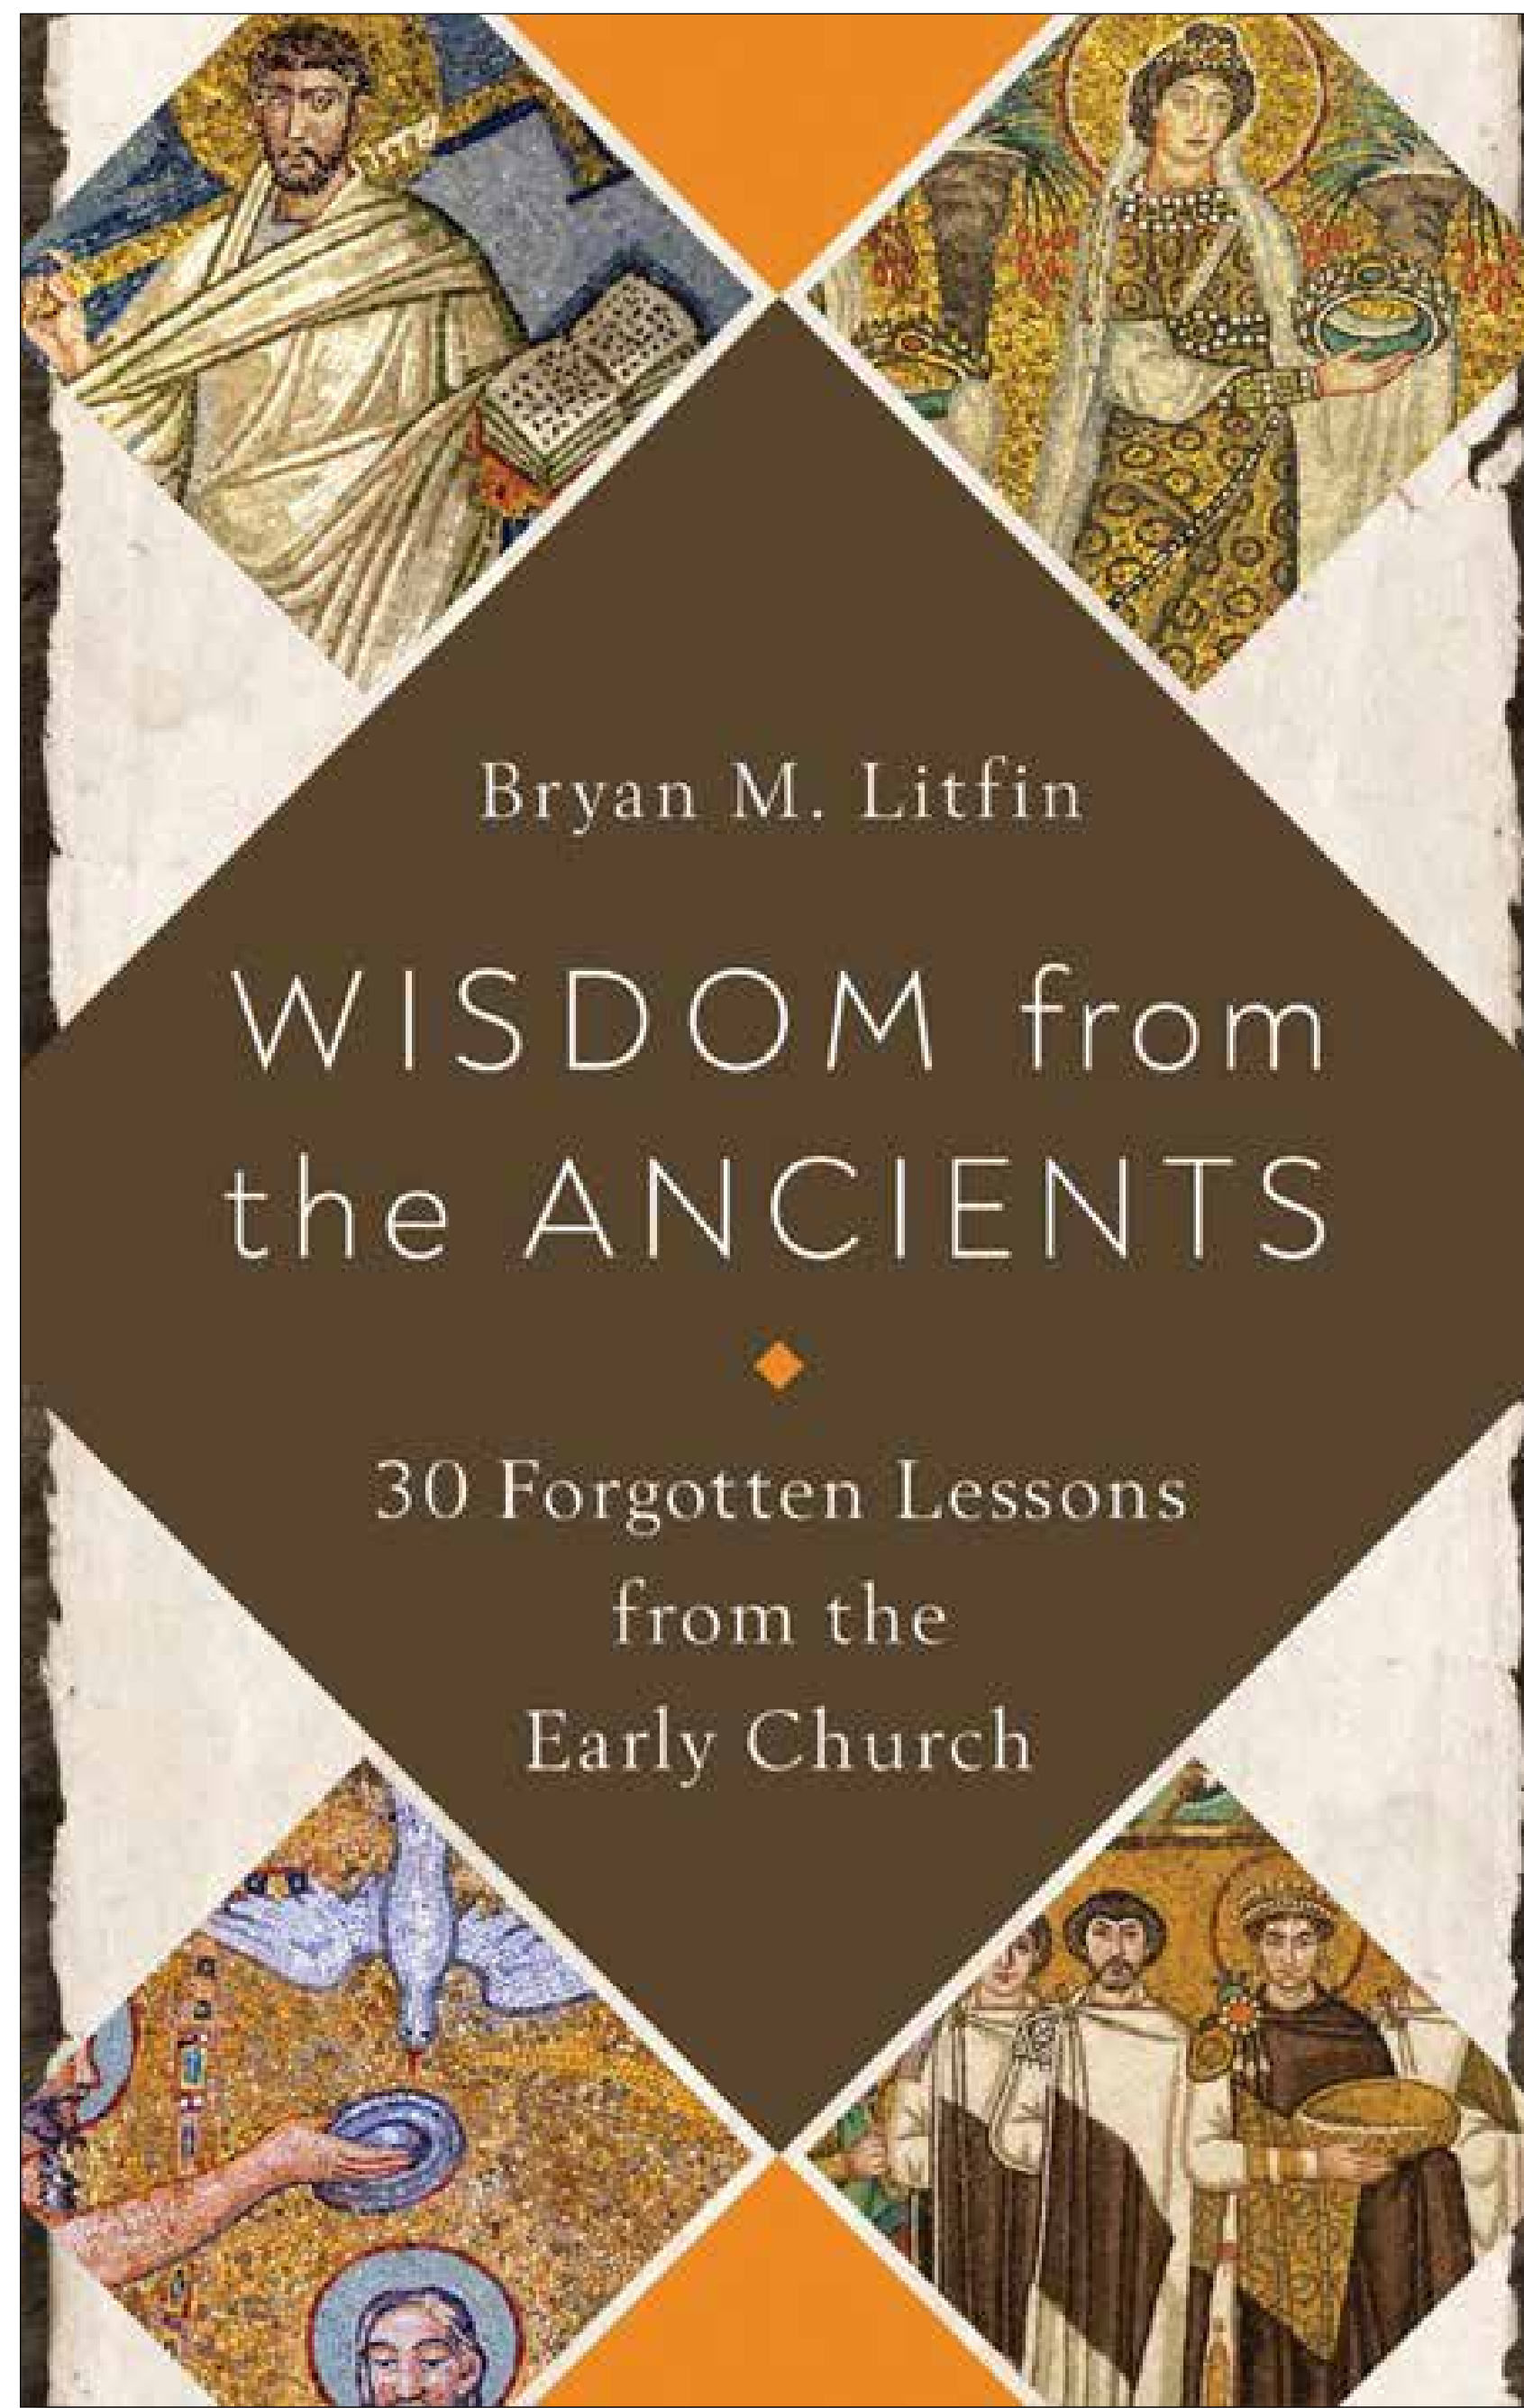

He serves as the president of the board of the Biblical Counselors Coalition, the vice president of the board of Association of Nouthetic Counselors, and is a frequent speaker at conferences, colleges, and seminaries in the United States and abroad.

Description

Old ideas. New insights. Timeless relevance for the church.

Studying the views and lifestyles of your forerunners in the faith can provide incredible guidance for how you live out your spiritual convictions today. In 'Wisdom from the Ancients,' author and scholar Bryan Litfin paints a vivid portrait of the first five centuries of the Christian church, packed with fascinating history and applicable insights for modern believers.

As you encounter the wisdom of early Christians, you'll be challenged to revisit the building blocks of your faith in light of ancient beliefs and spiritual practices. This book will help you reframe common evangelical ideas, including questions Christians face today, such as:

- When it makes sense to read the Bible literally and when God's truth shines through symbolism.
- How the beliefs and practices of early believers should inform your worship.
- Whether the church should cooperate with political power or resist it.

'Wisdom from the Ancients' reveals life-changing lessons from the early church that you can take to heart today. When you set aside your modern perspectives and approach ancient truths with an open mind, the beliefs of the early Christians will illuminate your faith in a brand-new way.

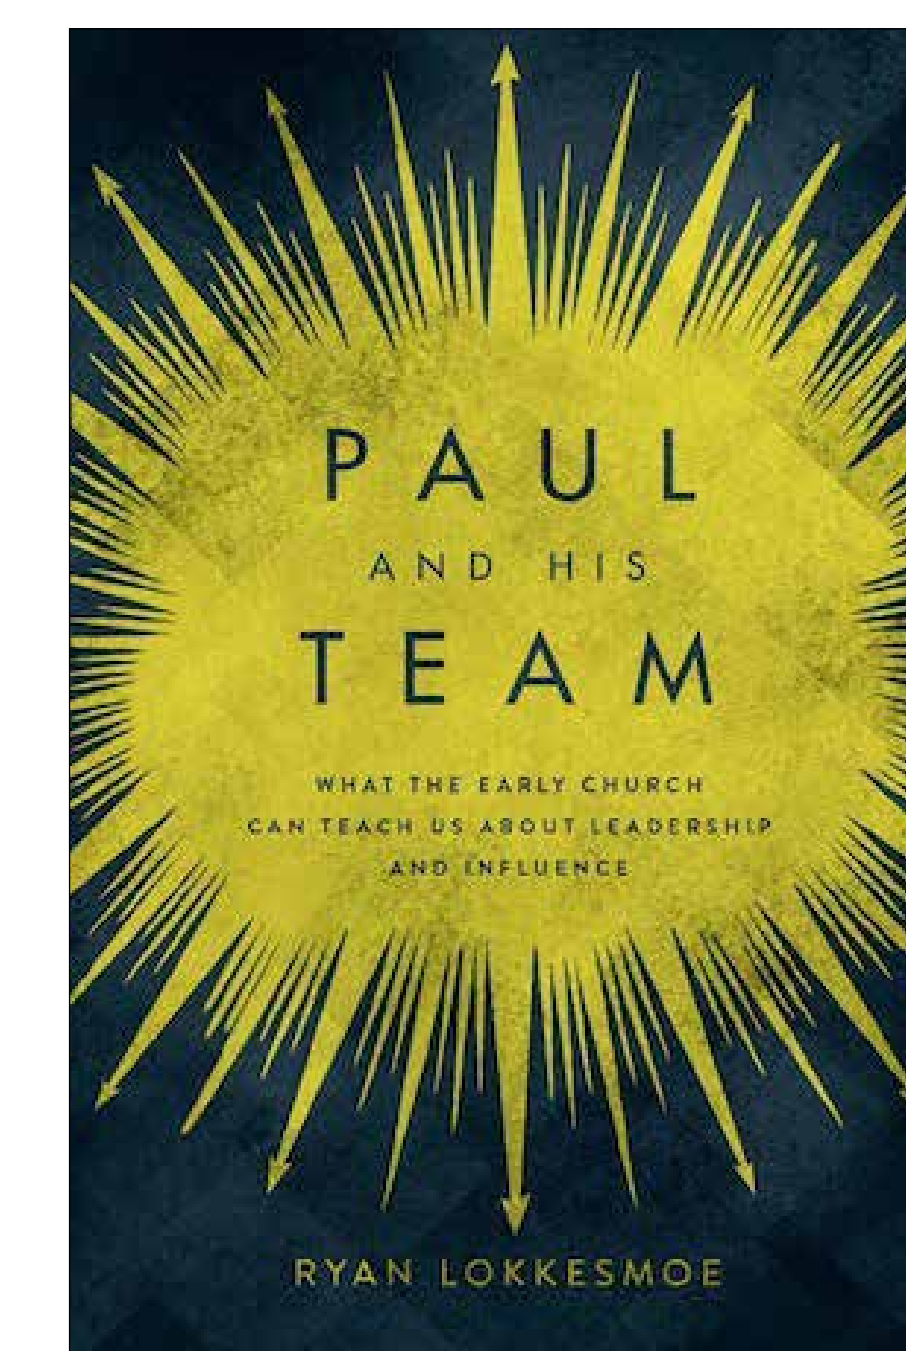

About the Author

Bryan Litfin grew up in Dallas, TX; Oxford, England; and Memphis, TN.

He earned a degree in print journalism from the University of Tennessee, a master's degree in historical theology at Dallas Seminary, and a Ph.D. in the field of ancient church history at the University of Virginia.

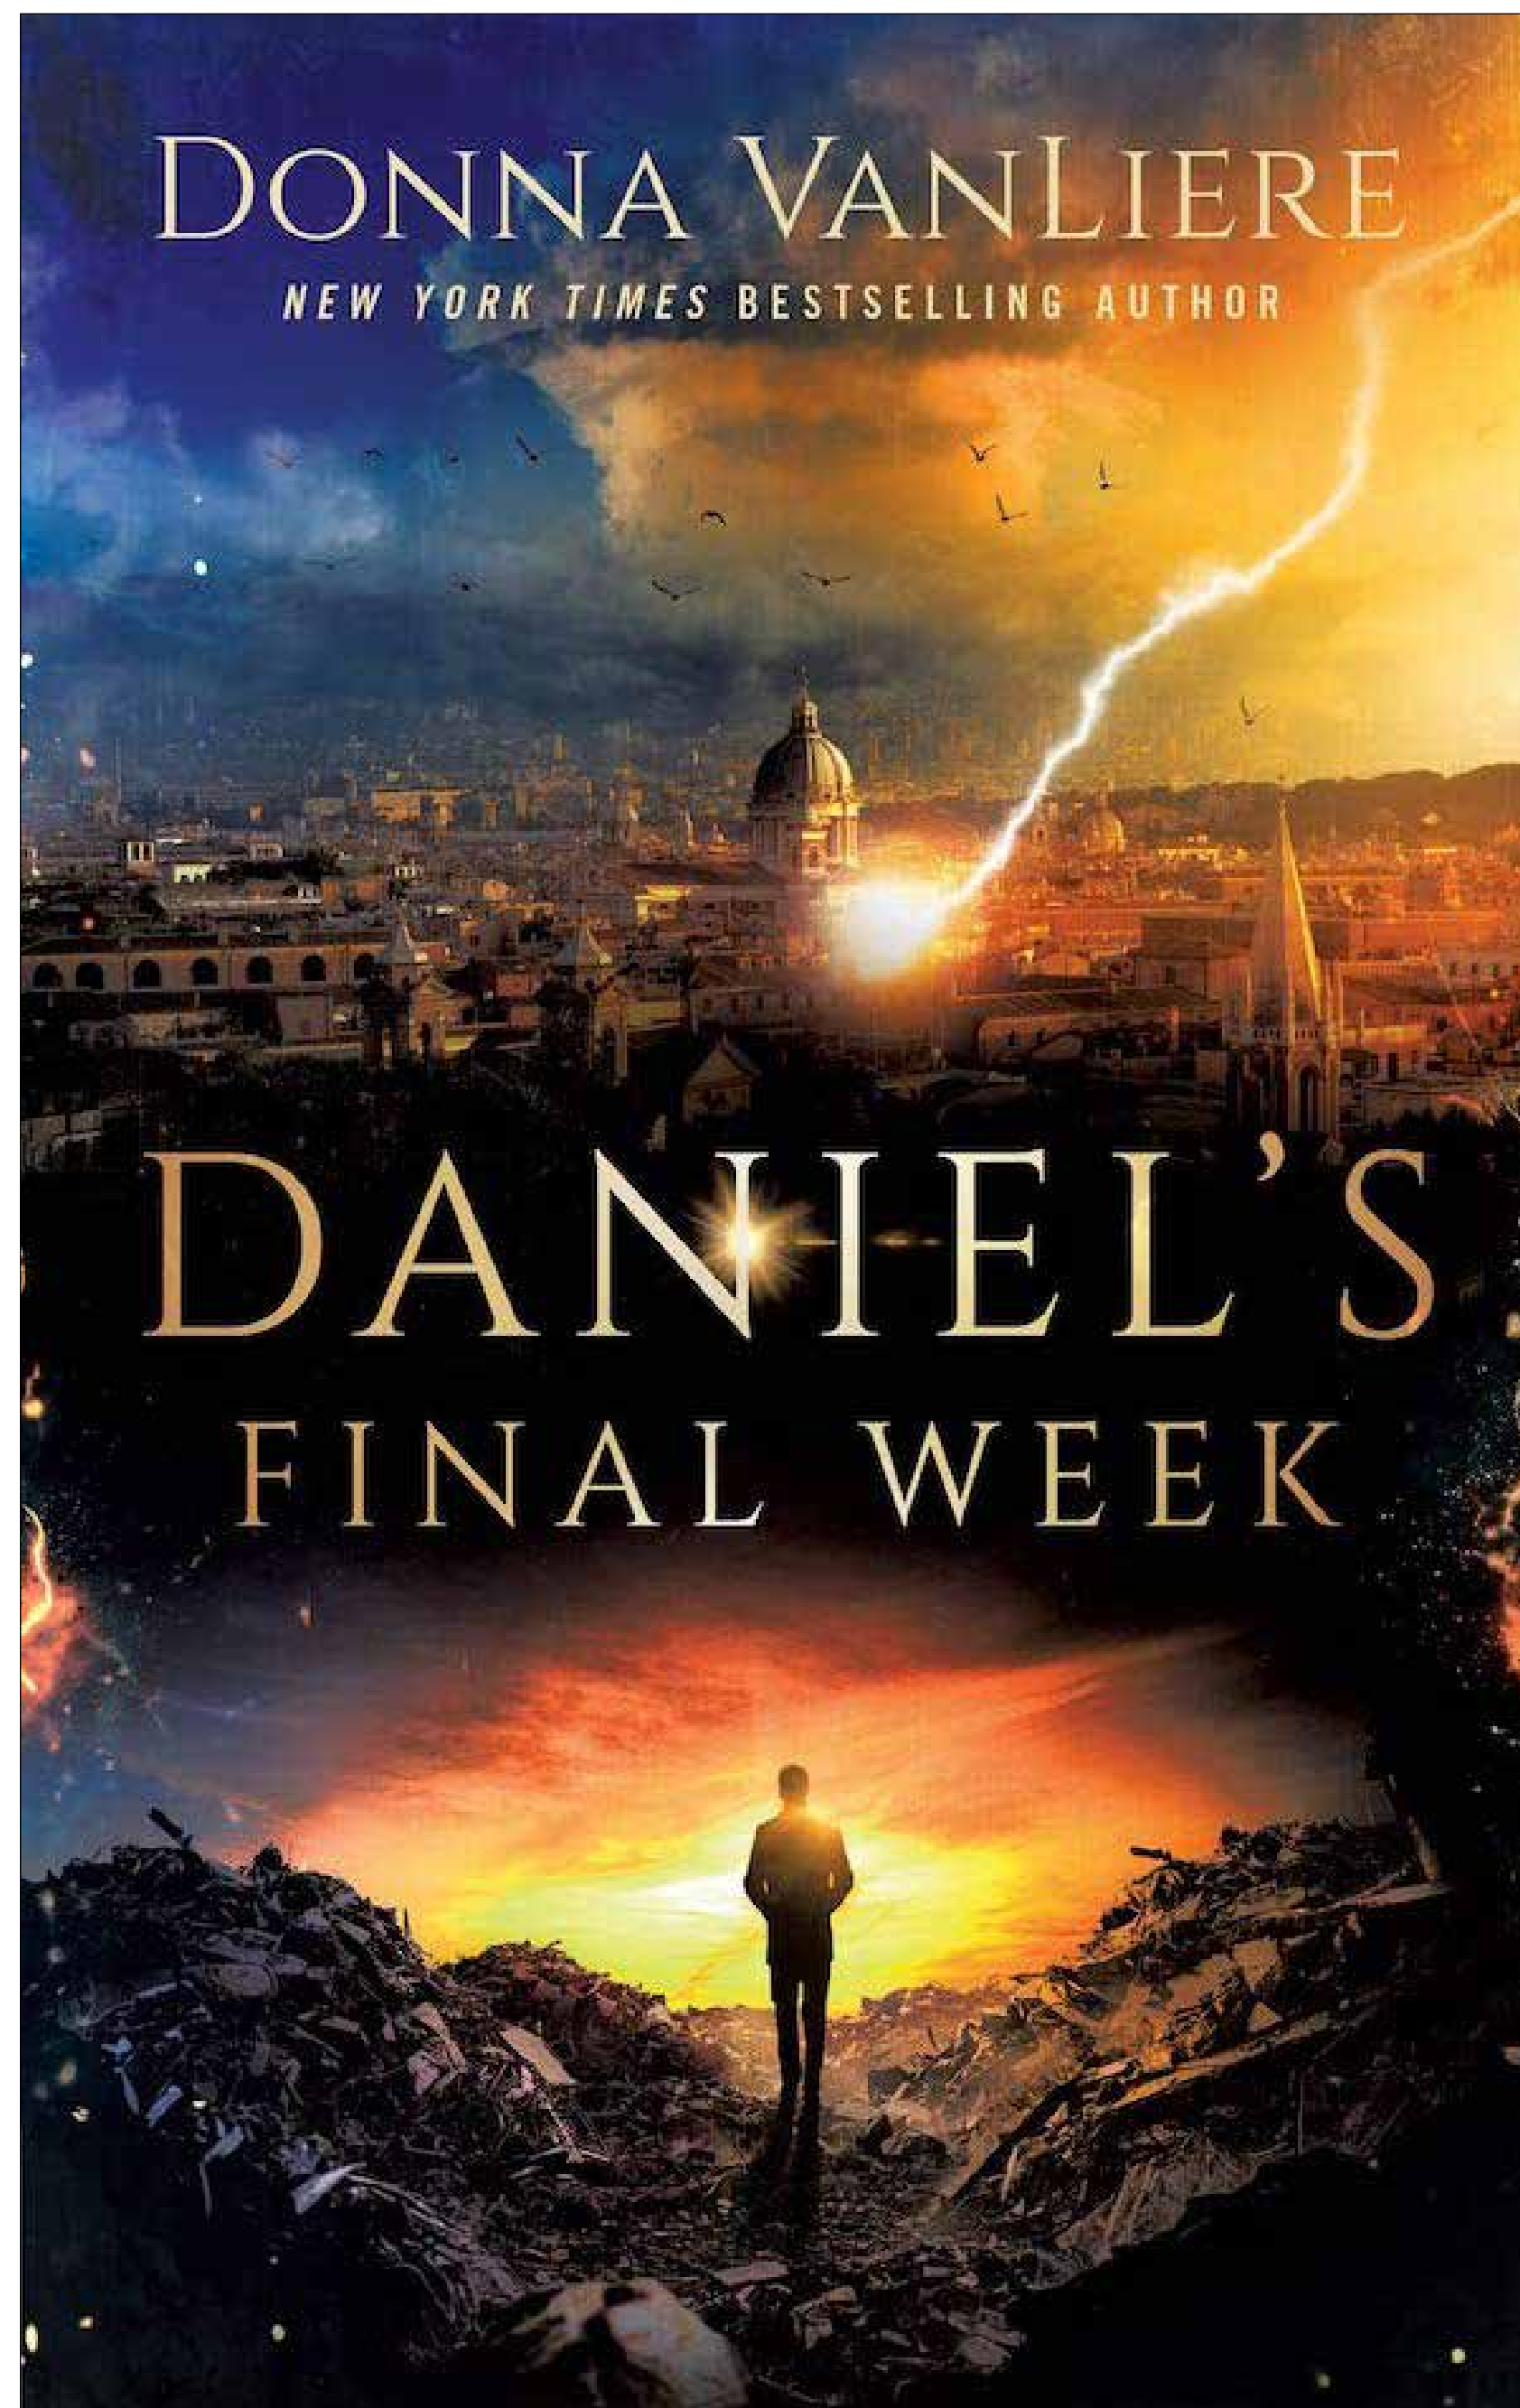

He now works at Moody Publishers in Chicago, IL.

Description

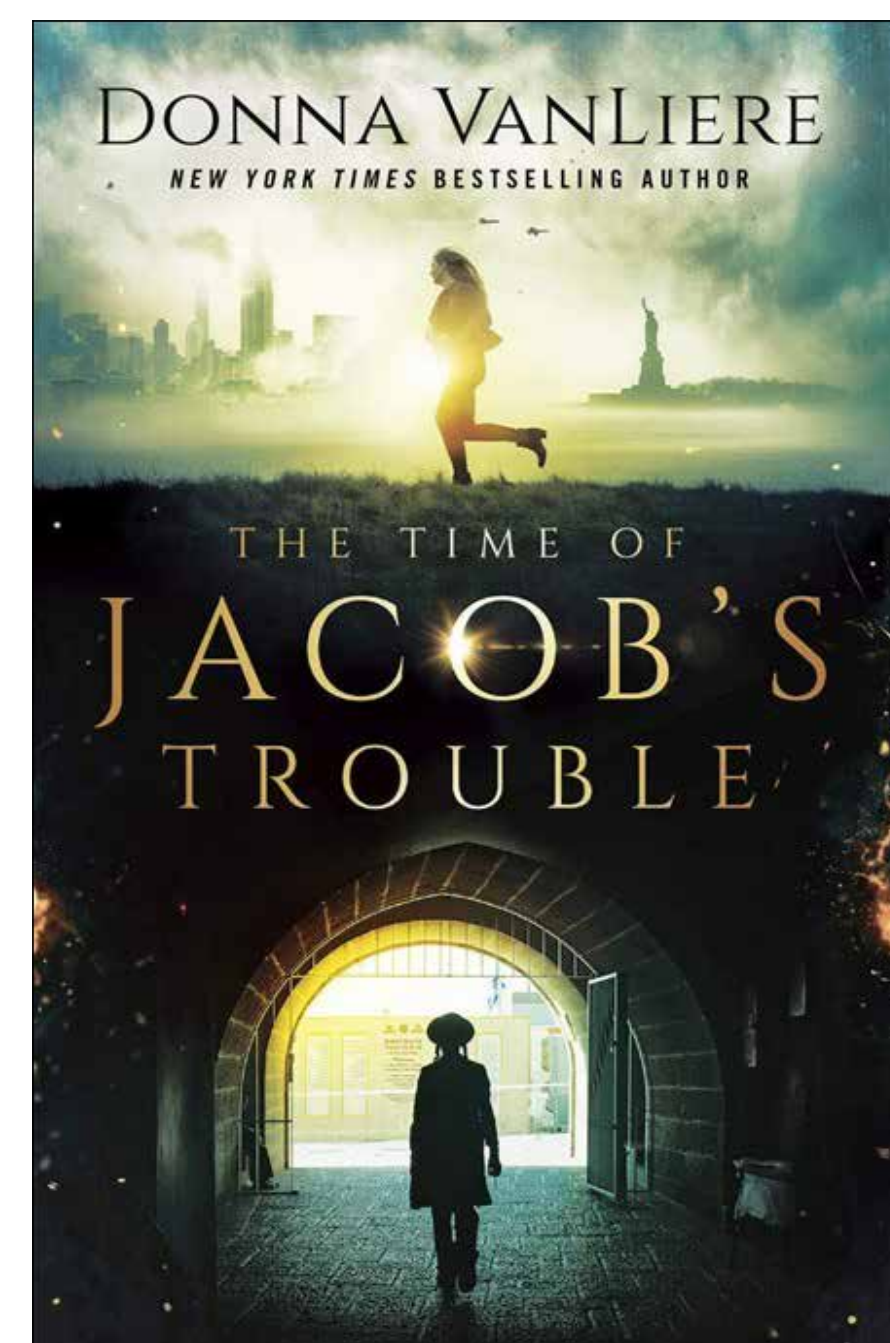

A mysterious leader returned from the dead... A planet crawling with fallen angels... Millions executed across the world... Yet amidst this evil, God’s hope prevails.

After his apparent resurrection, the beloved leader Victor Quade is hailed internationally as God. Yet when Victor mandates that everything from purchasing groceries to seeing a doctor will require a mark of allegiance to him, Emma Grady and her friends in New York City know they must go on the run, recognizing that Victor is not the saviour he appears to be.

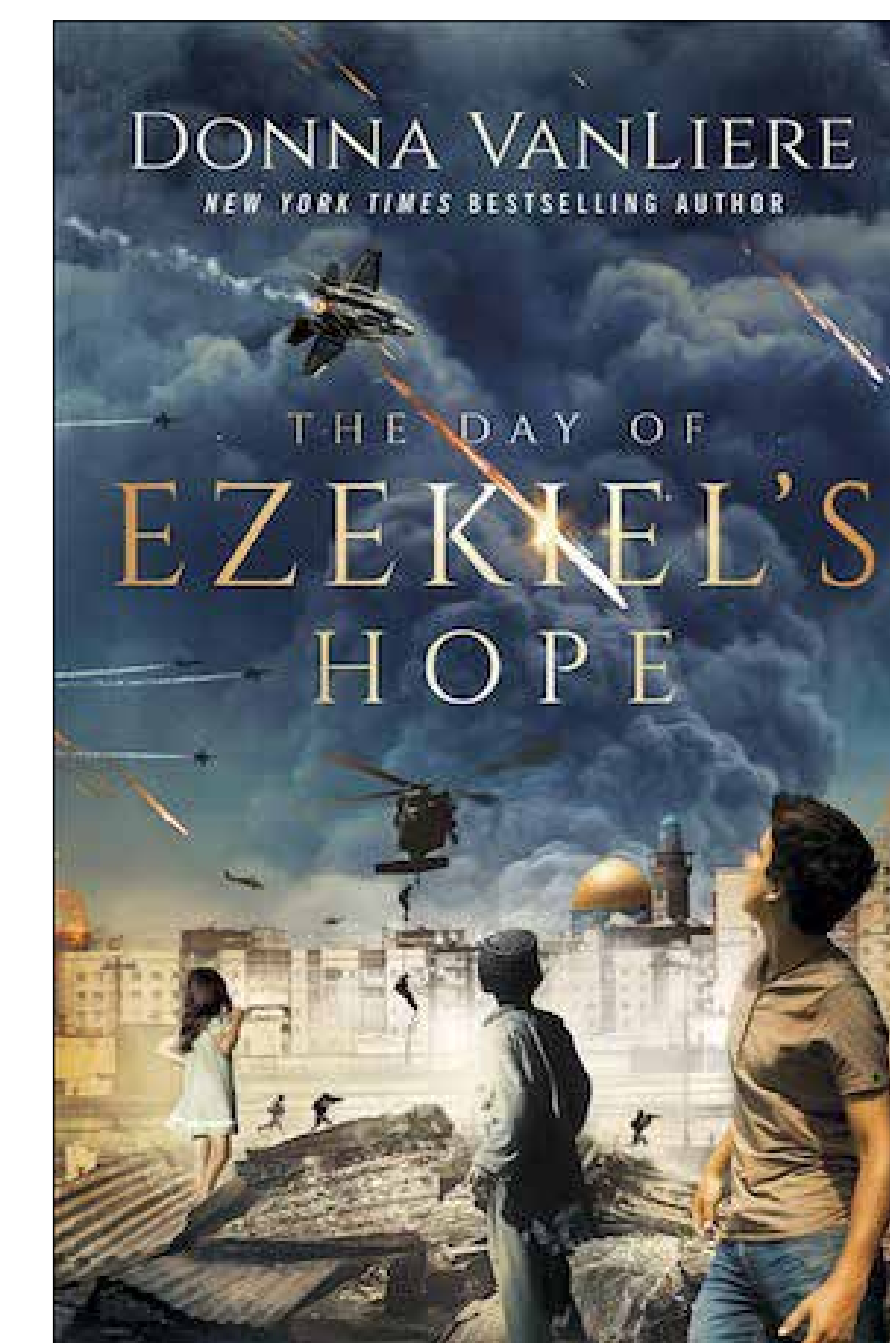

Meanwhile, in Israel, the Jewish people worship Victor as a messiah, not realising he intends to seal their doom. As Jews and Jesus-followers around the globe are losing their lives, Zerah Adler strives to protect as many as possible in this violent, volatile time.

In this spellbinding conclusion to the end-times trilogy that began with ‘The Time of Jacob’s Trouble’, the bestselling author of ‘The Christmas Shoes’ brings the stories of Emma and Zerah to a riveting close. In the final chapters, you’ll discover what God’s Word says about the glorious future that awaits you, and see that things aren’t spiraling downward but are looking up!

Trish Ann Konieczny didn't always plan to become a wildlife rehabilitator, but that changed as soon as four orphan raccoon kits fell out of a tree, and into her yard and heart.

Since then, her life has been energized by a passion to share God's love of all creatures by rehabilitating rescued birds and beasts alike. Now, Trish shares her encounters with some unique four-legged and winged friends and what they've taught her about the caring relationship God wants us to have with the animal kingdom.

You'll find enchanting stories from her time at Lion's Den Rehab, like those of...

- Spark: an abandoned baby squirrel nursed back to health and eventual freedom
- George: a homely, headstrong pigeon who loved rehab so much he wouldn't leave
- Bunny: an adorable but high-risk rescue rabbit determined to survive and thrive

Filled with both heart-warming antics and nerve-wracking perils involving orphaned animals and birds, this book will delight every lover of furry and feathered babies—and reveal incredible insights into our relationship with God's magnificent creation.

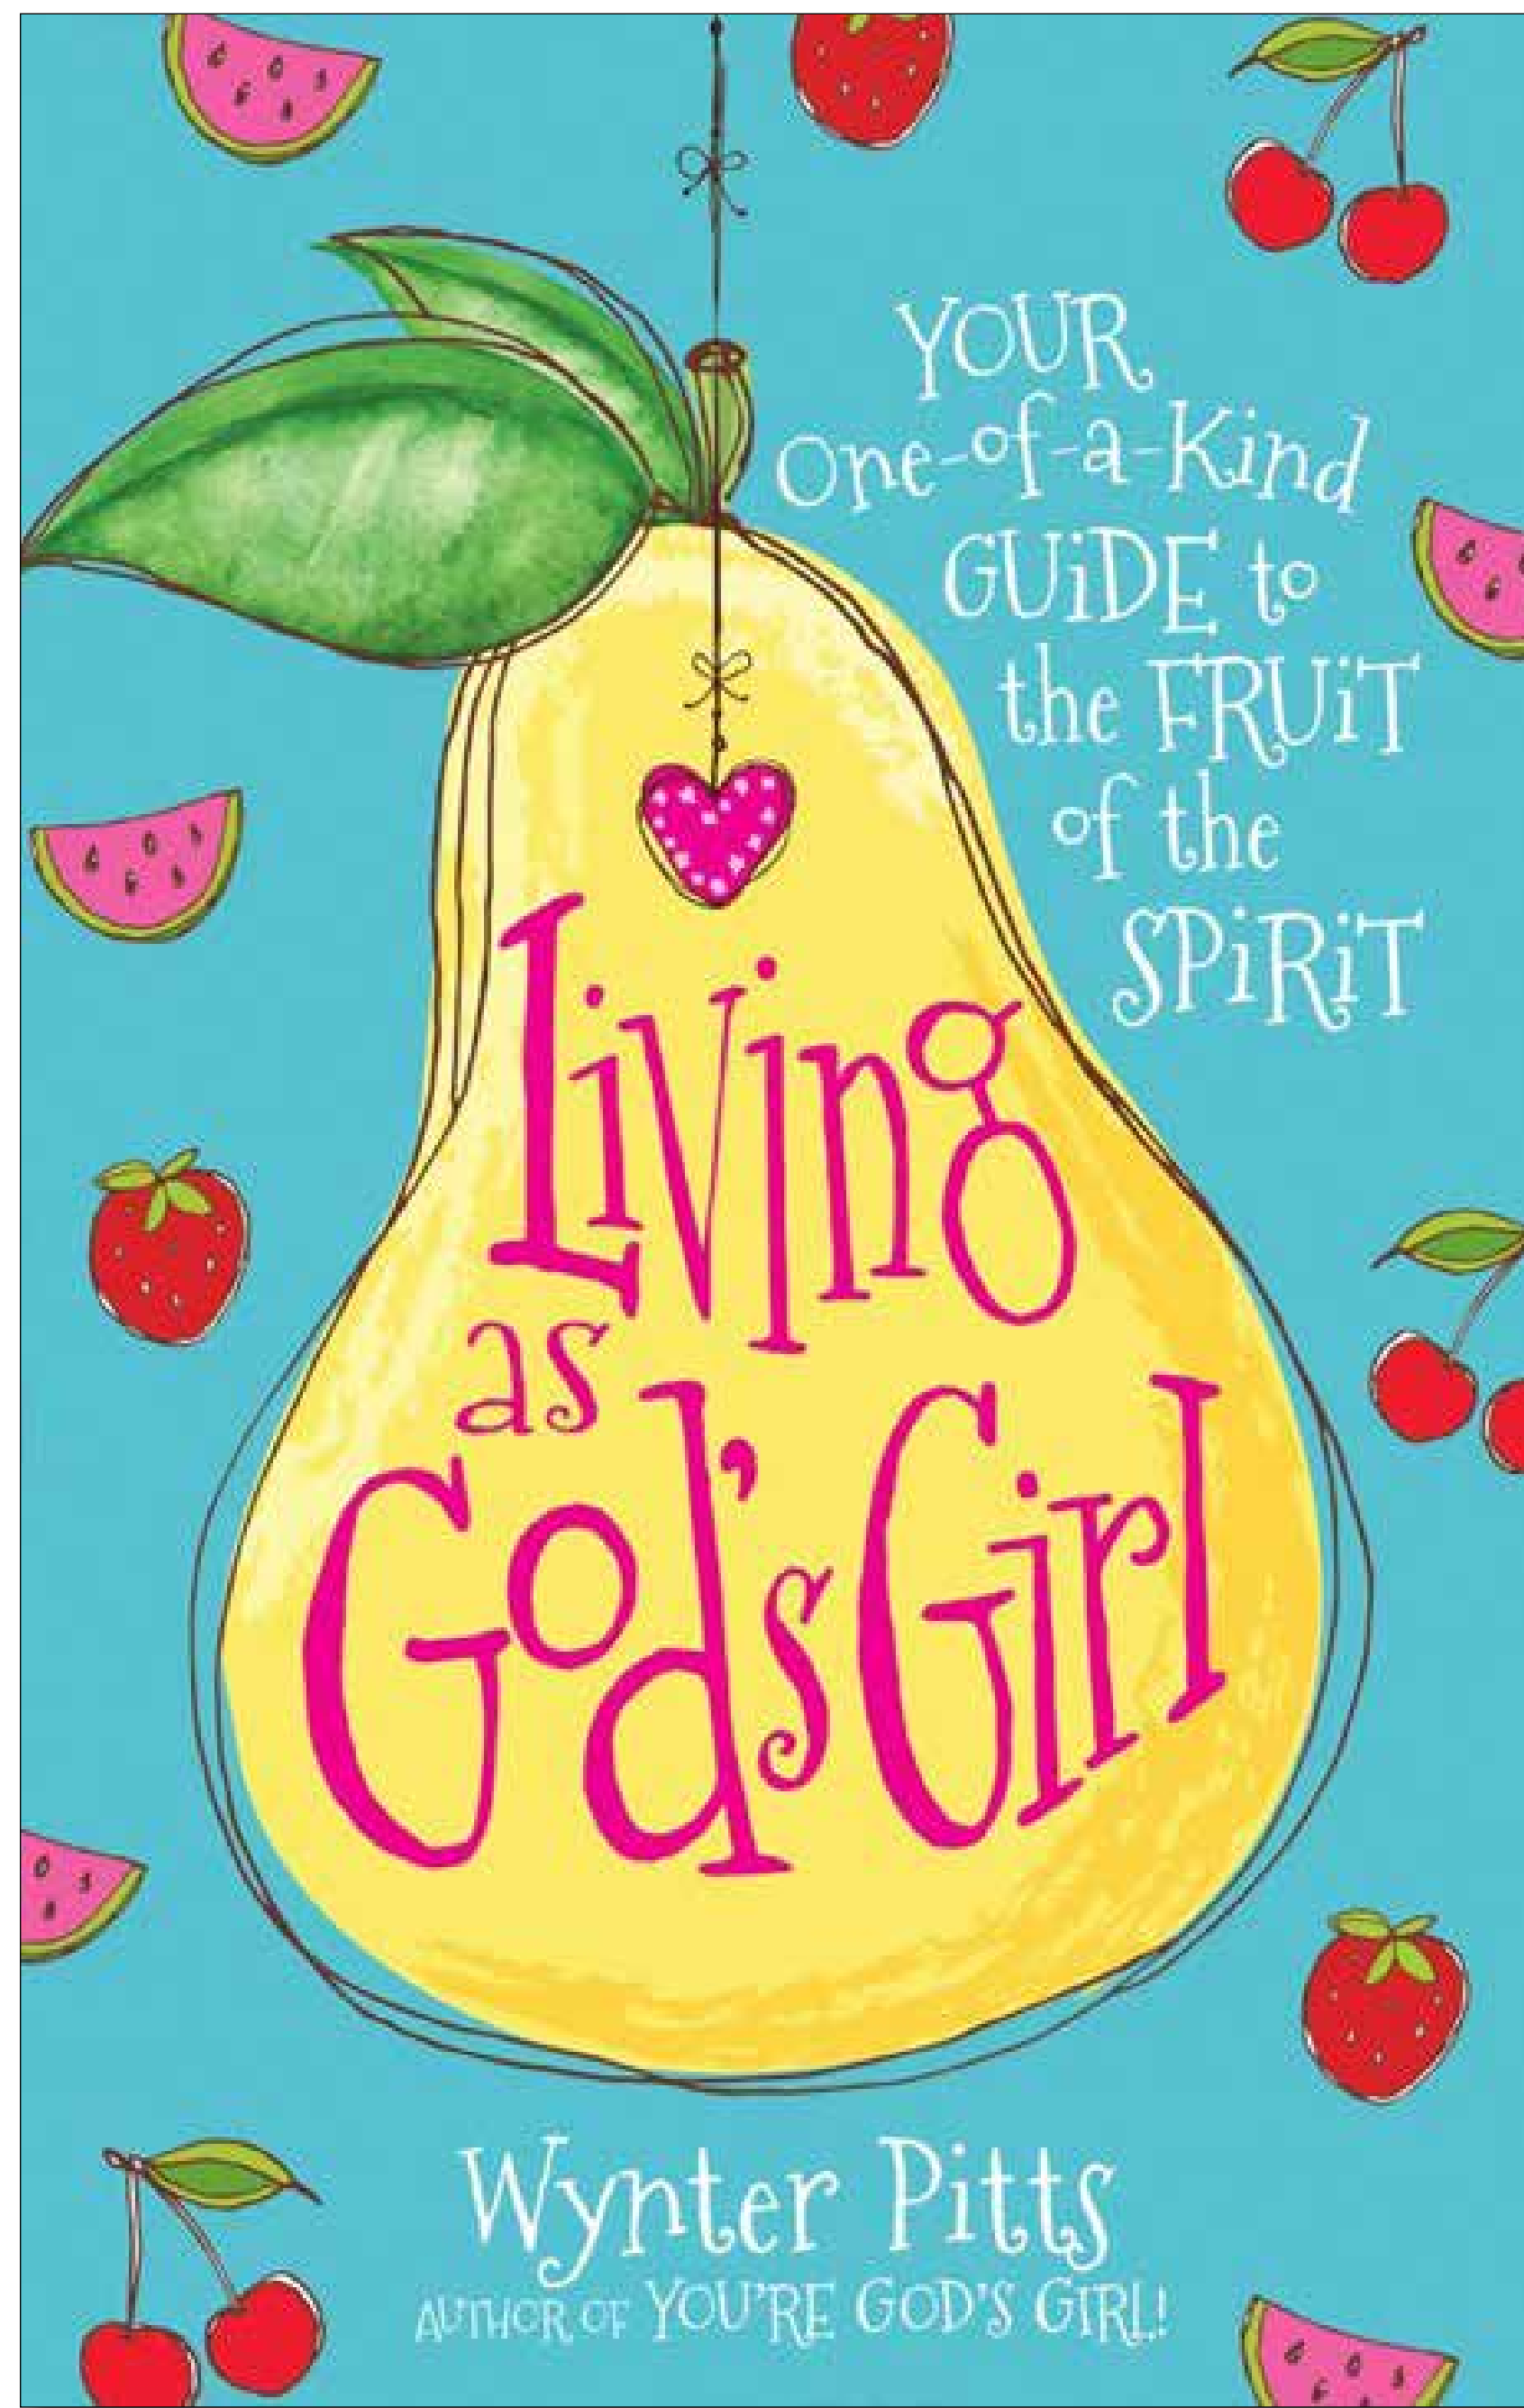

Title: Hear, O Little One (In the Morning & In the Evening)
 Author: Eric & Meredith Schrotenboer
 Price: £10.99*
 Product Code: 9780736983655
 Format: Board Book
 Genre: Children's Books
 Distribution: UK & Europe

This lyrical adaptation of Deuteronomy 6:4-9 introduces young children to the "Shema," a sacred statement of belief that has been recited in the morning and evening by Jewish believers down through the ages, including Jesus Himself.

"These commandments that I give you today are to be on your hearts. Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up. Tie them as symbols on your hands and bind them on your foreheads. Write them on the doorframes of your houses and on your gates." Deuteronomy 6:4-9

For centuries, Jewish believers have started and ended their day by saying the "Shema," a five-verse passage in the book of Deuteronomy, as a twice-daily reminder to read and meditate on God's Word.

Written in rhyme for children ages infant-to-four, Hear, O, Little One is a colourful and creative adaptation of the "Shema." This innovative board book is intended to be read in the morning and then flipped over and read in the other direction for a different version at nighttime.

Description

The fruit of the Spirit listed in Galatians 5 – love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control – gives tween girls a great guide for godly living.

Author Wynter Pitts shows girls ages 8–12 how to cultivate these traits and thrive spiritually. The character traits known as the fruit of the Spirit grow and bloom in our lives as a result of a vibrant relationship with God, talking to Him, and studying His Word.

Your daughter can develop that kind of vibrant spiritual life when she says yes to following God.

Wynter Pitts, the mother of four daughters, speaks to your child as a trusted friend or mentor would, teaching her and encouraging her. With interactive questions and helpful Scripture verses to memorize, your daughter will grow in her knowledge of the fruit of the Spirit and become the girl God created her to be.

Reading Age: 8–12

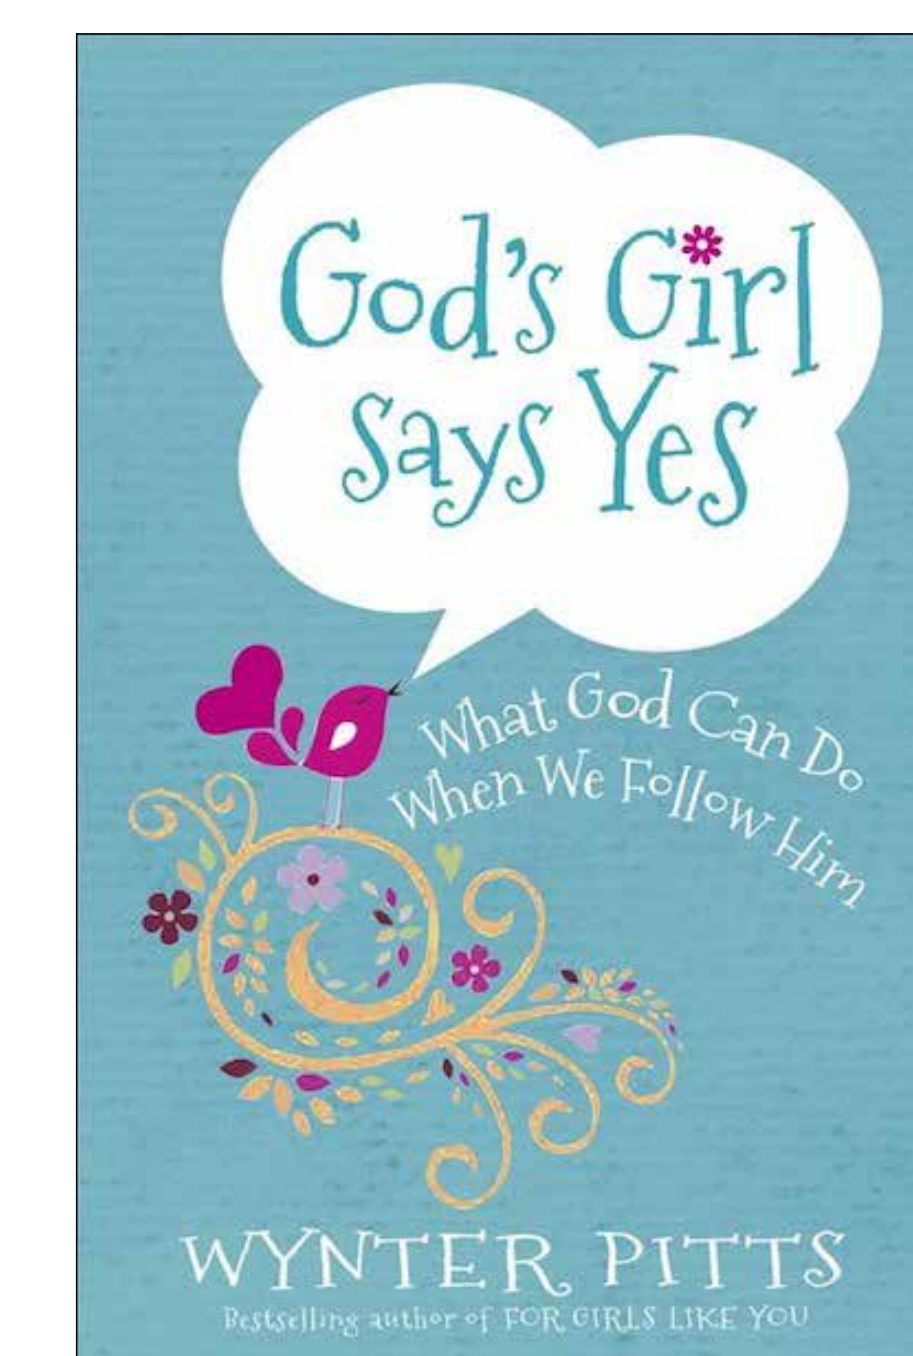

About the Author

Wynter Pitts was a gifted writer, loving wife and mother, and the founder of ‘For Girls Like You,’ a ministry dedicated to helping girls and their parents grow in God.

Wynter was the author of several books, including ‘You’re God’s Girl’, ‘She Is Yours’, and ‘For Girls Like You.’

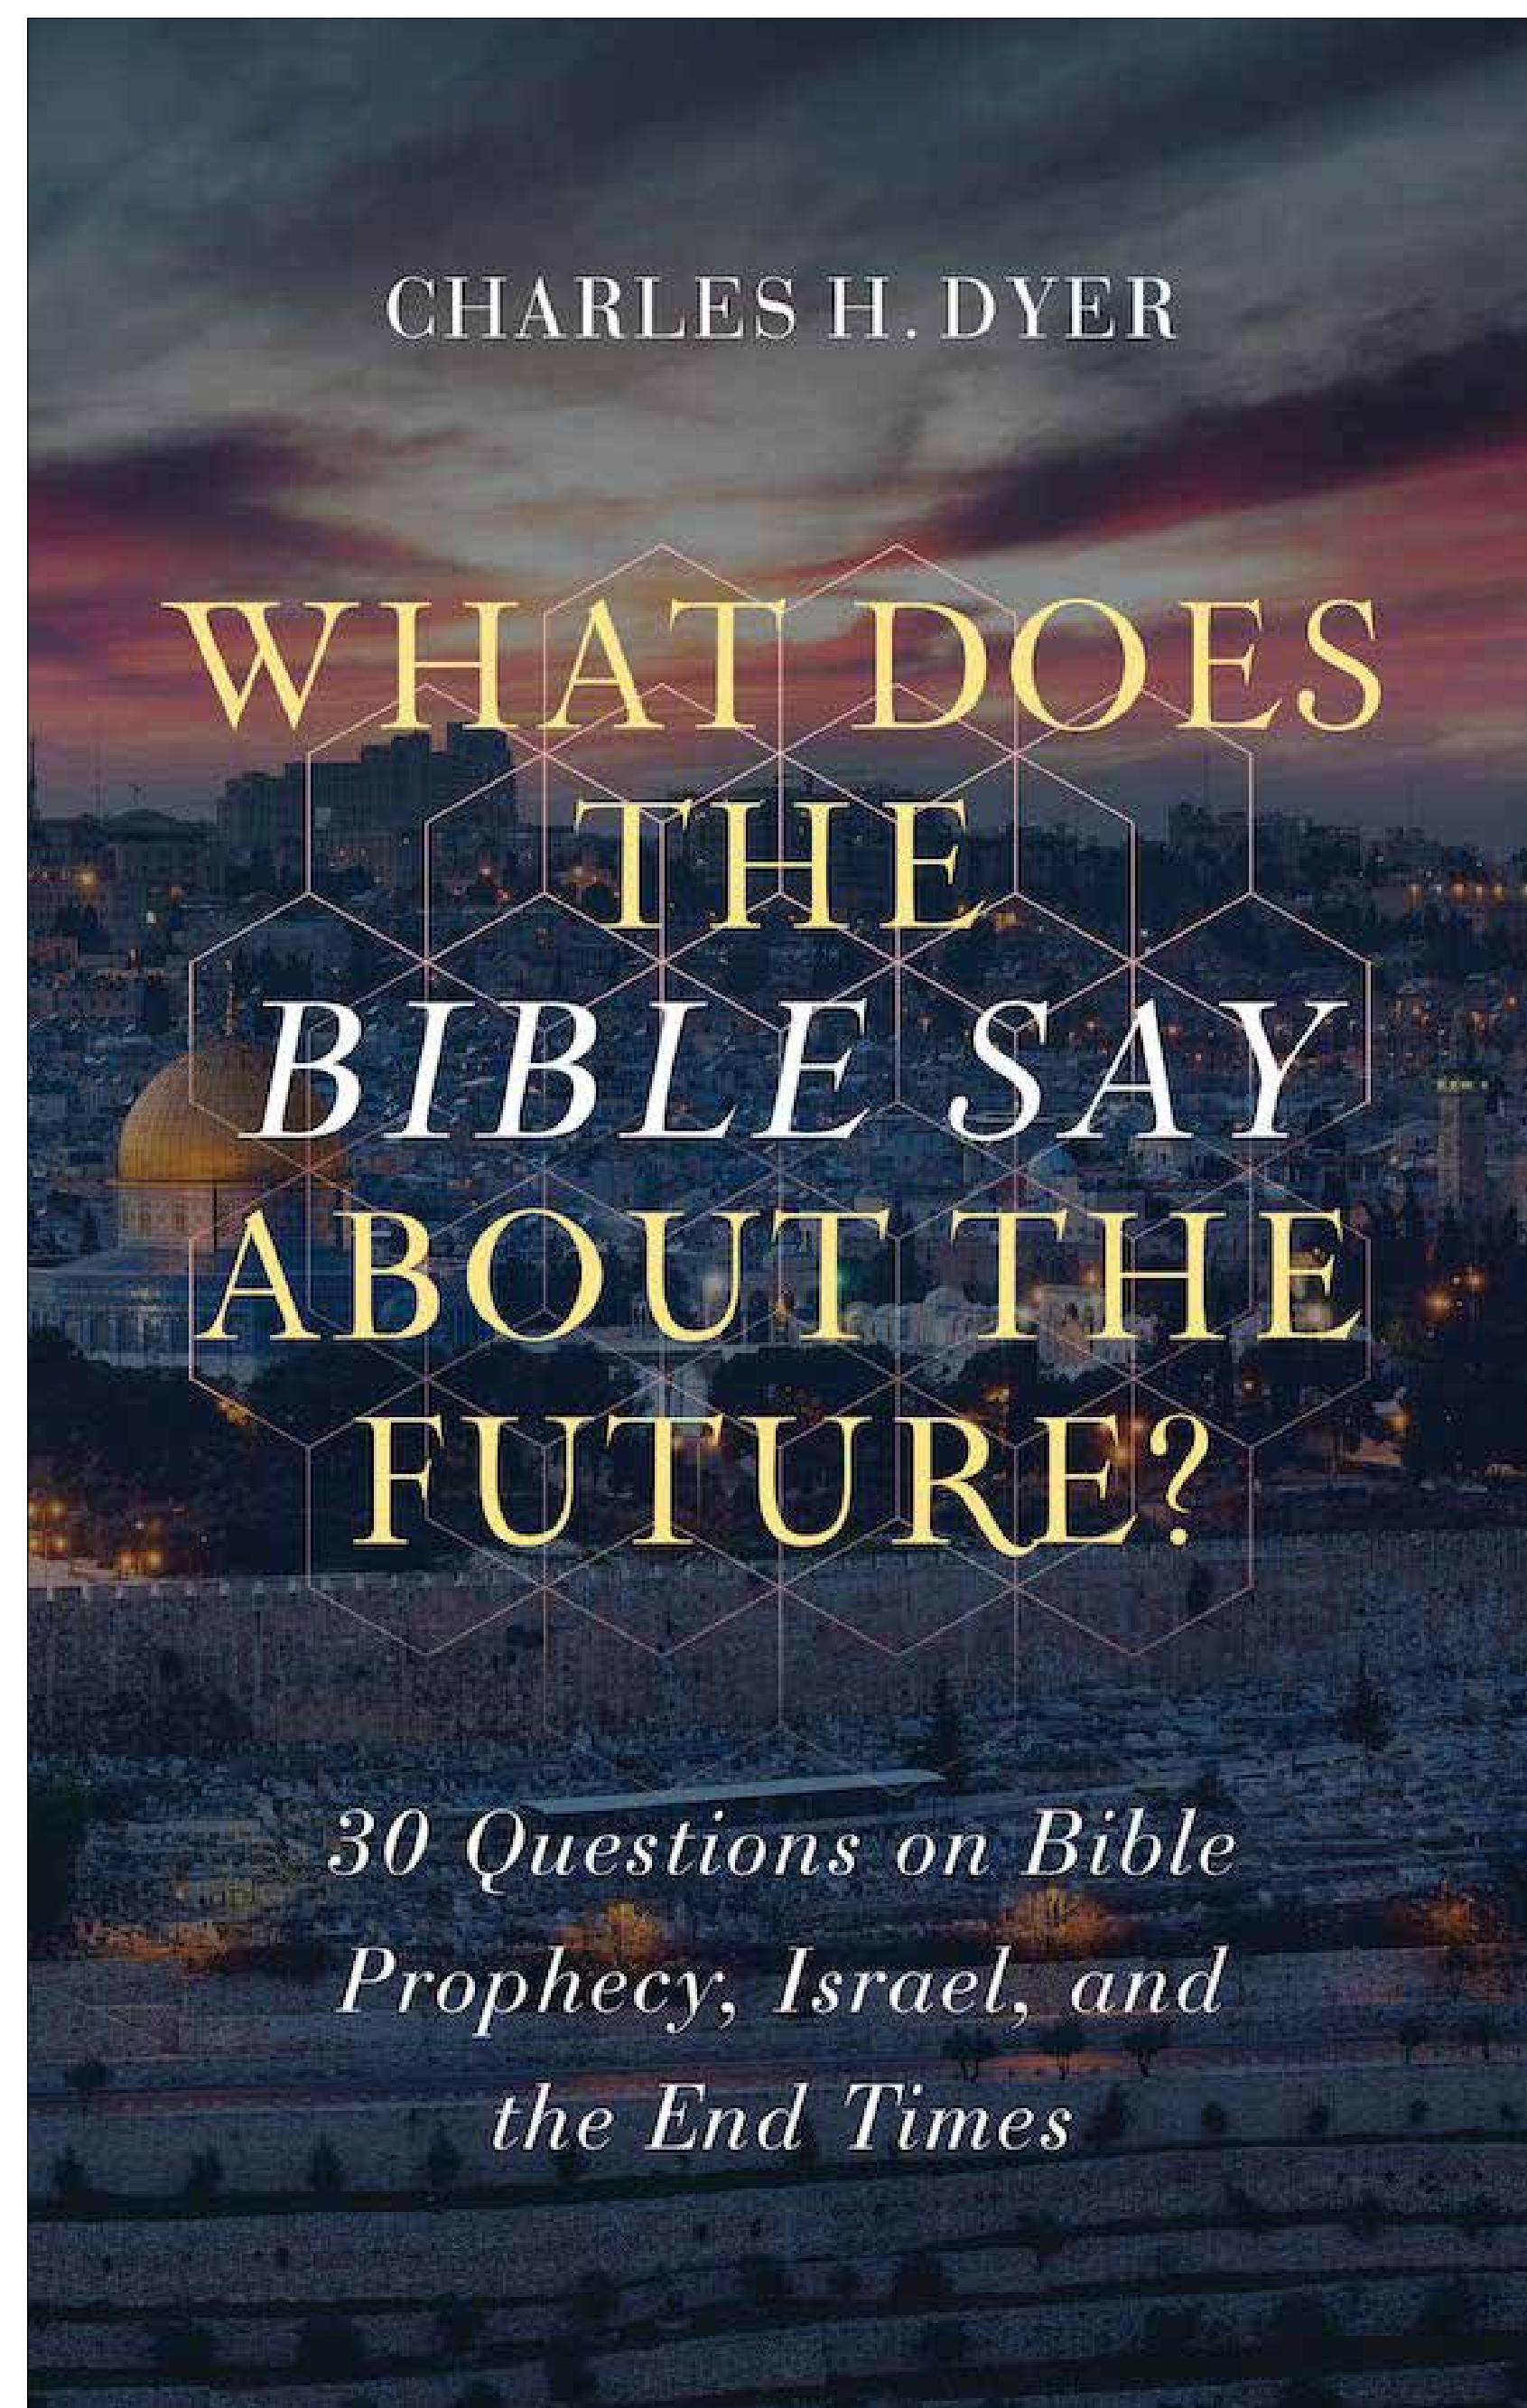

Wynter unexpectedly went home to be with the Lord on July 24, 2018. She leaves behind a rich legacy through her ministry and her many writings but more importantly in her four daughters – Alena, Kaitlyn, Camryn, and Olivia.

Description

Anyone can make predictions about the future. The real question is, “What does God have to say about it?”

The end times is one of those areas of theology where people have many wild opinions. Don’t get caught up in all the internet speculations and doomsday prognostications. The real place to find out about the future is the Word of God.

In What Does the Bible Say About the Future?, radio host and prophecy expert Dr. Charlie Dyer offers you an insightful look at the end times that’s grounded not in human fantasies but in the very revelation of God. The Bible actually does have a lot to say about the future. It’s an important topic for you to study. So instead of taking your cues from the self-appointed prophets of today, let Dr. Dyer take you right back to Scripture. You’ll get answers to questions like:

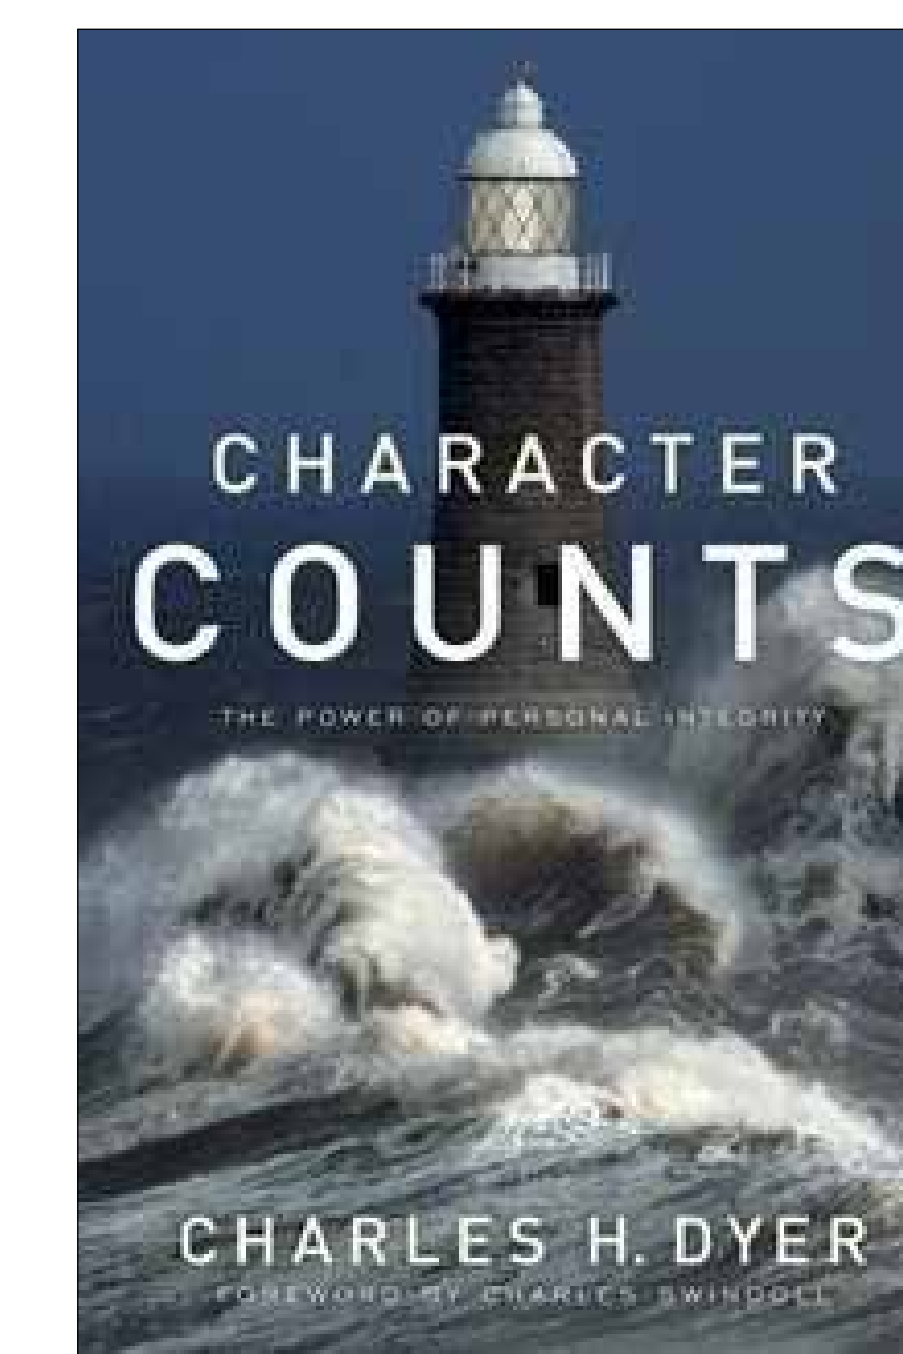

- Are we in the last days right now?
- Are pandemics like Covid-19 a fulfillment of Bible prophecy?
- What is the Battle of Armageddon?
- What is the next event on God’s prophetic calendar?
- Where is the United States in Bible prophecy?
- And most importantly . . . If prophecy is true, what difference should it make in my life?

About the Author

CHARLES DYER (B.A., Washington Bible College; Th.M. and Ph.D., Dallas Theological Seminary) served for ten years as provost of Moody Bible Institute before becoming professor-at-large of Bible and host of ‘The Land and the Book’ radio programme.

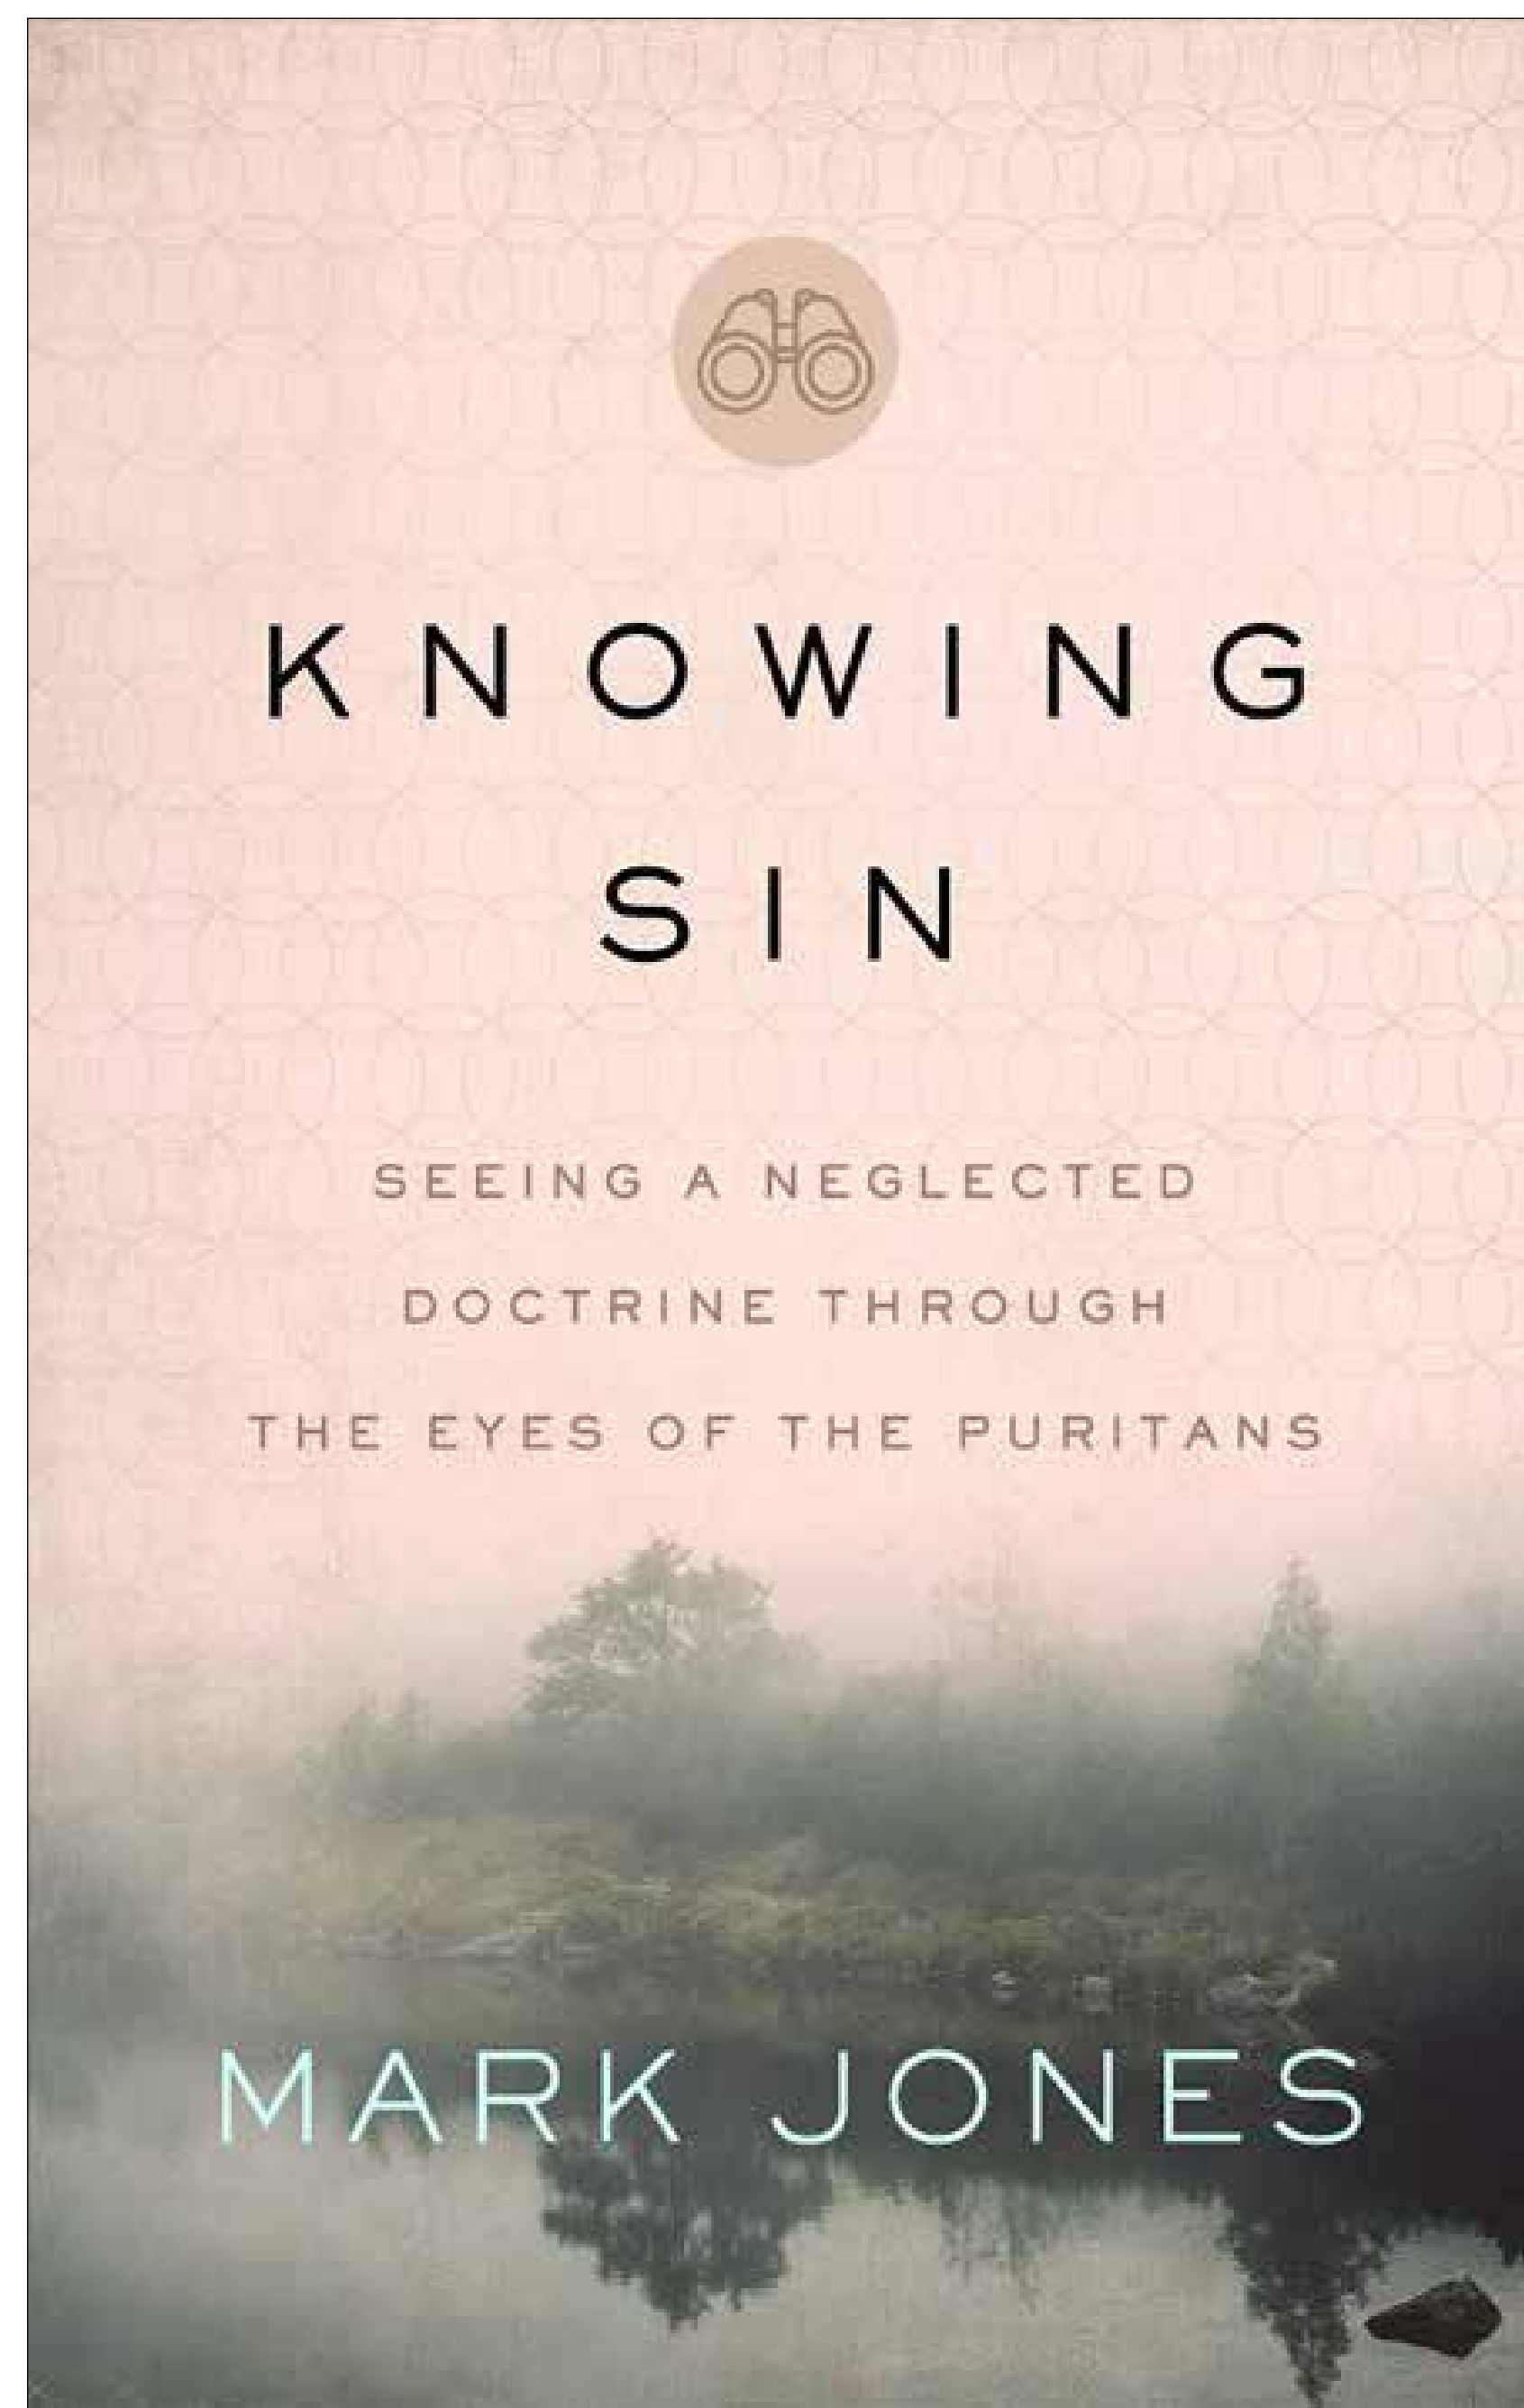

He is the author of numerous books, including ‘Voice in the Wilderness’, ‘What’s Next?’, ‘The Rise of Babylon’, and ‘The New Christian Traveler’s Guide to the Holy Land’. His most recent book is ‘Character Counts: The Power of Personal Integrity.’

Description

The first rule of combat is: know your enemy.

We don't talk a lot about sin these days. But maybe we should. The Puritans sure did--because they understood sin's deceptive power and wanted to root it out of their lives. Shouldn't we want the same?

Though many books have been written on the "doctrine of sin," few are as practical and applicable as this one. In 'Knowing Sin,' Mark Jones puts his expertise in the Puritans to work by distilling the vast wisdom of our Christian forebears into a single volume that summarizes their thought on this vital subject. The result isn't a theological tome to sit on your shelf and gather dust, but a surprisingly relevant book to keep by your bedside and refer to again and again. You'll come to understand topics like:

Sin's Origin – Sin's Grief – Sin's Thoughts – Sin's Temptations – Sin's Misery – Sin's Secrecy and of course . . . Sin's Defeat!

None of us is free from the struggle with sin. The question isn't whether we're sinful, it's what we're doing about it. Thanks be to God, there is a path to overcoming sin. And the first step on that path to victory is knowing what we're up against. Start Knowing Sin today!

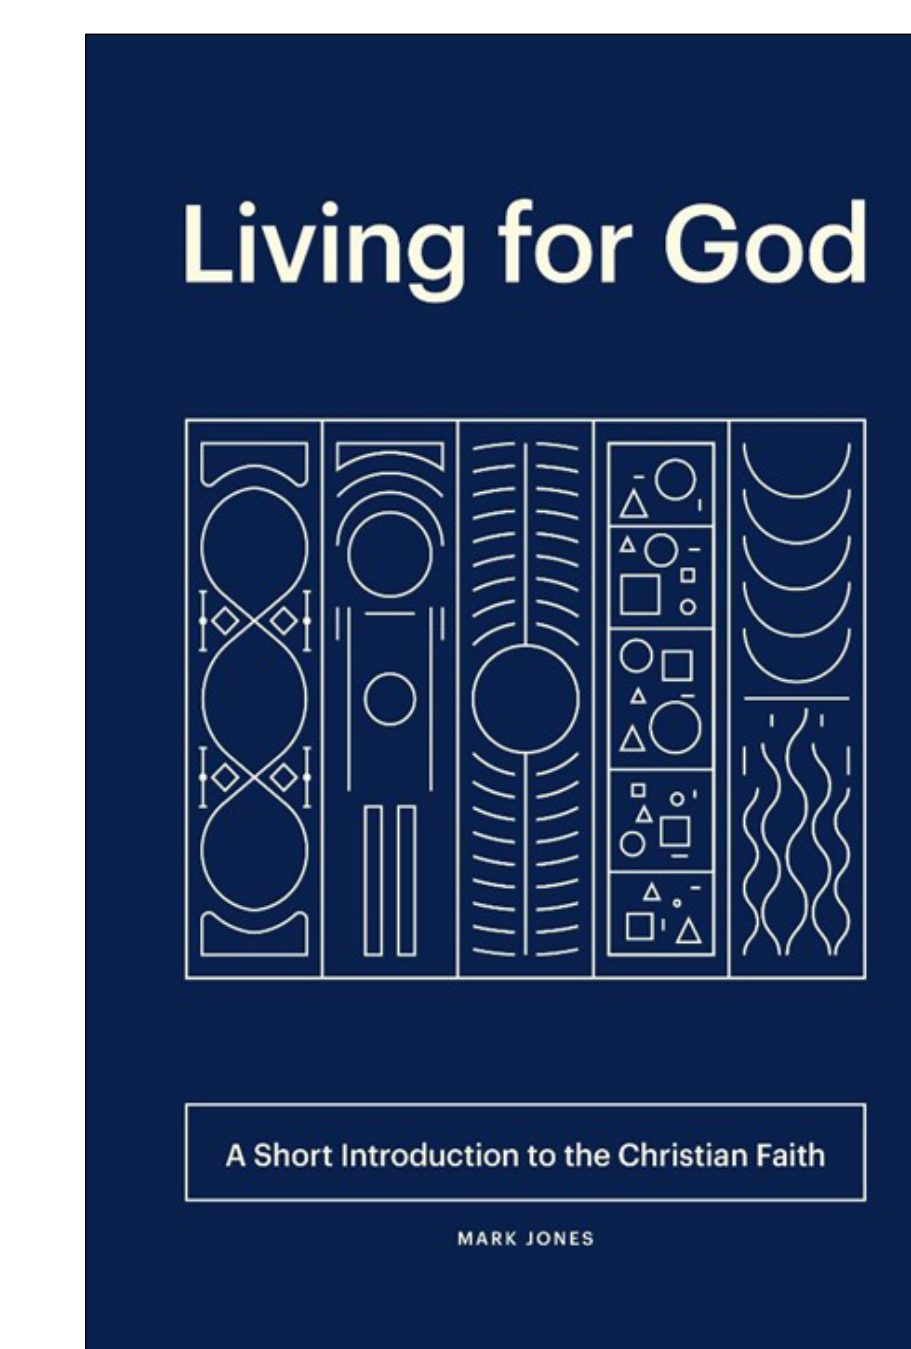

About the Author

Rev. Dr. Mark Jones (PhD, Leiden Universiteit) has been the Minister at Faith Vancouver Church (PCA) since 2007.

He is also Research Associate in the Faculty of Theology at University of the Free State, Bloemfontein, South Africa.

He lectures at various seminaries around the world and is currently finishing a book on Reformed Theology

Title: How God Loves Us
 Author: Jessica Thompson
 Price: £11.99*
 Product Code: 9780802424372
 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Personal Growth/Devotional
 Distribution: UK & Europe

Every Christian cherishes the famous passage in Galatians 5:22–23 that lists the fruit of the Spirit. Love. Joy. Peace. Patience. Kindness. Goodness. Faithfulness. Gentleness. And self-control. These are the marks of godly character that we strive to display.

But has it ever occurred to you that these are also the characteristics of God? Can it be that God loves us with the fruit of the Spirit? And only when we are secure in that love can we display it to others?

Jessica Thompson wants to take you deeper into the love that your Heavenly Father has for you. Focusing on the majority of the fruit of the Spirit, she shows how God Himself has these attributes and lavishes them on us.

In 40 readings designed for daily devotions, Jessica takes you across the whole arc of the Bible to reveal the character of the triune God. This journey will surely bless you. For the more you behold who He is and the nature of his love, the more you will, by the work of the Spirit, become like Him.

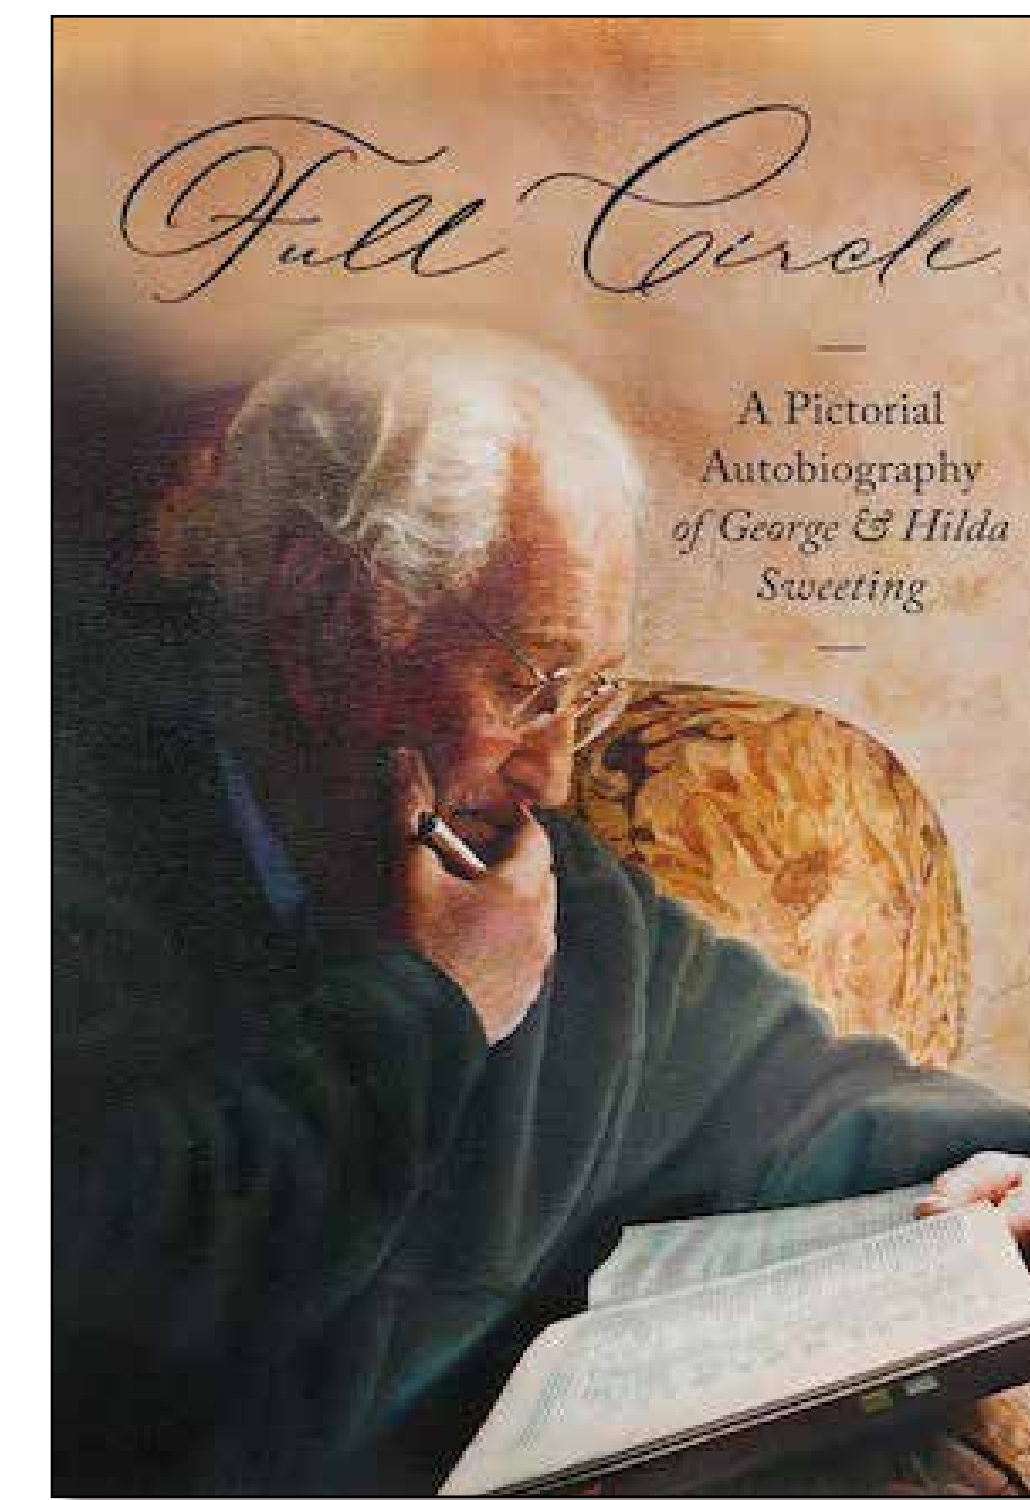

Title: Opportunity Leadership
 Author: Roger Parrott
 Price: £13.50*
 Product Code: 9780802423214
 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Professional Growth/Leadership
 Distribution: UK & Europe

What's this--a leader who doesn't plan? Isn't it up to the Christian leader to charge into the future with a strategic plan in one hand and a Bible in the other--pious faith and perfect foresight all rolled up in one dynamic package? What leader doesn't want to be a change-maker like that? We obviously know what God intends to do in the next ten years, right? So let's get after it . . .

University president Roger Parrott wants to turn your leadership paradigm on its head. Instead of being driven by the hubris of thinking we can forecast and manage the future, the opportunity leader recognizes that God brings opportunities our way and He only expects us to respond effectively when they come.

This book will free leaders from the confinement of traditional planning and teach them how to stop projecting distant destinations that aren't ours to determine, much less control.

Instead, leaders will learn to build a faith, philosophy, and team that are sensitive to the Lord's leading in the moment. Leaders must move quickly to capture opportunities whenever God's wind blows, trusting Him for both the open doors and the results.

Title: Full Circle: ...George & Hilda Sweeting
 Author: George Sweeting
 Price: £18.50*
 Product Code: 9780802425065
 Format: Hard Cover
 Genre: Autobiography
 Distribution: UK & Europe

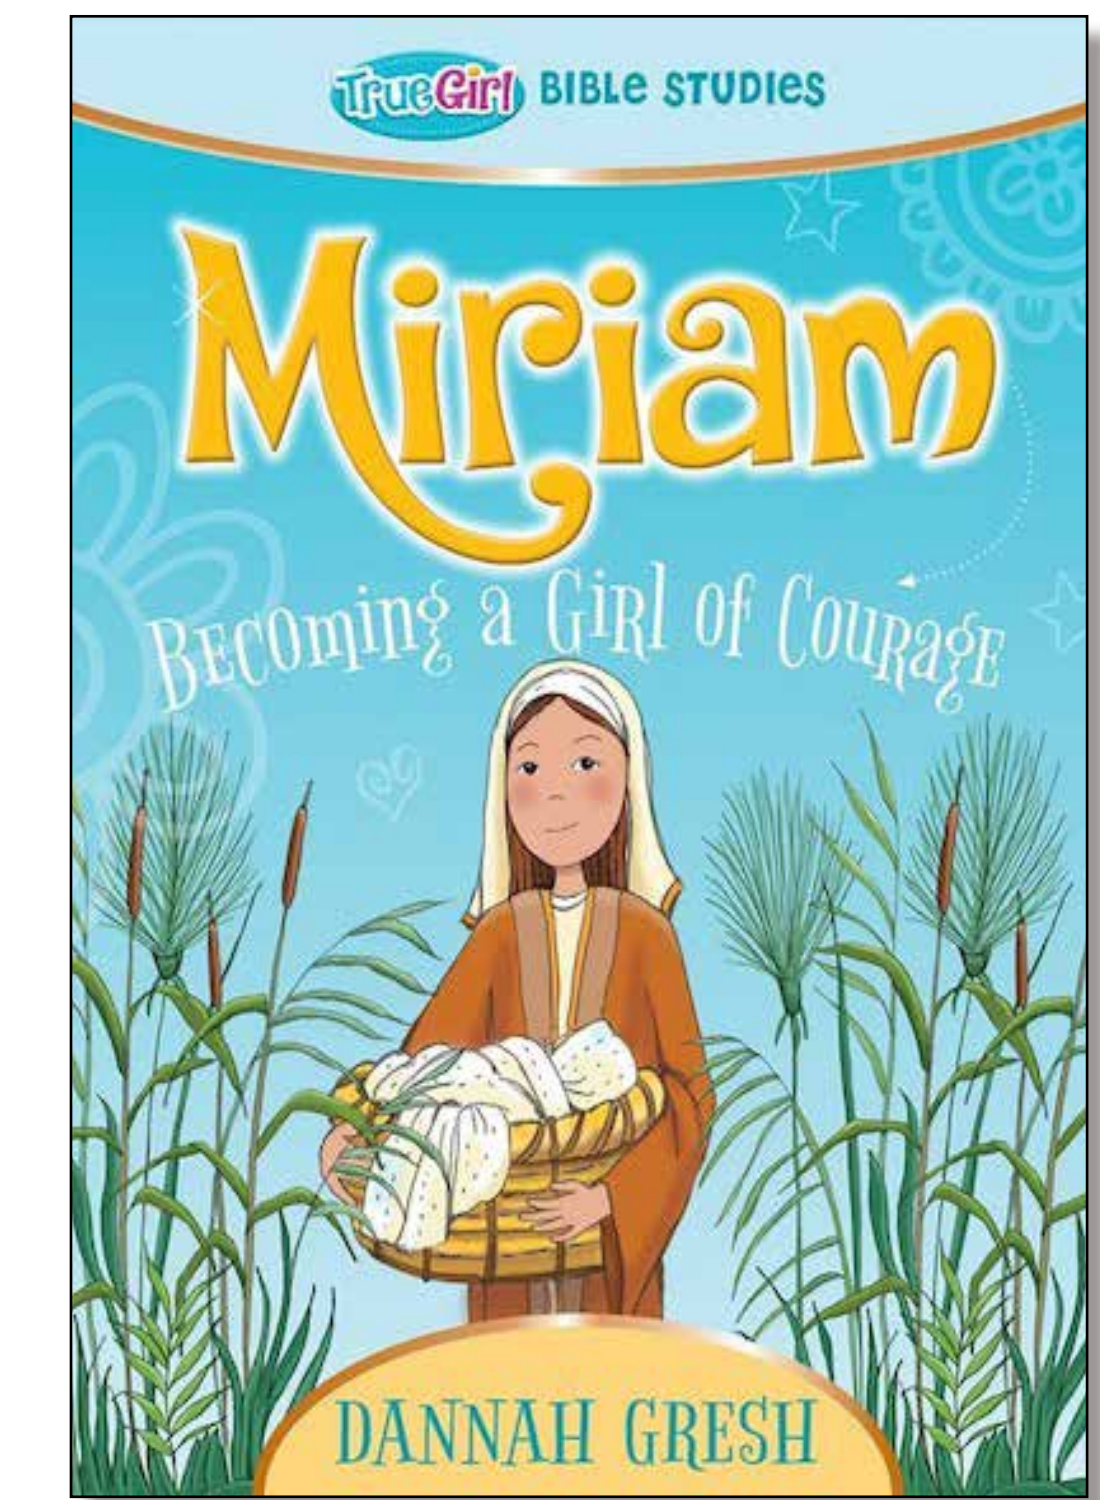

In this book you'll encounter—through words and images—the uplifting story of George Sweeting and his beloved wife, Hilda. You'll discern the providential hand of God as He brings the Sweetings' lives full circle.

Both of George's parents were converted in Scotland by the ministry of D. L. Moody. Then, in God's perfect timing, He brought George into two leadership positions connected with this great evangelist—first, as pastor of the historic Moody Church in downtown Chicago, and second, as the sixth president of the school that Moody founded: the Moody Bible Institute.

From humble beginnings, to academic leadership, to friendship with a U.S. president, God used George and Hilda Sweeting to make an impact on the world.

Lives lived for Christ from start to finish are hard to find these days—yet deeply encouraging when God brings them before our eyes. So enter into the story of the Sweetings and find your spirit refreshed by their legacy of faithfulness.

And as you read, ask yourself, "Lord, how do you want to bring my life full circle as well?"

Title: Miriam: Becoming a Girl of Courage
 Author: Dannah Gresh
 Price: £11.50*
 Product Code: 9780802422415
 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Children's Books/ Bible Studies
 Distribution: UK & Europe

Miriam wasn't perfect . . . but with God's power, her courage changed the world.

Miriam was given one of the world's hardest baby sitting jobs: to hide her infant brother in the Nile River while danger lurked. Her quick thinking protected little Moses and helped him rise to greatness in Egypt.

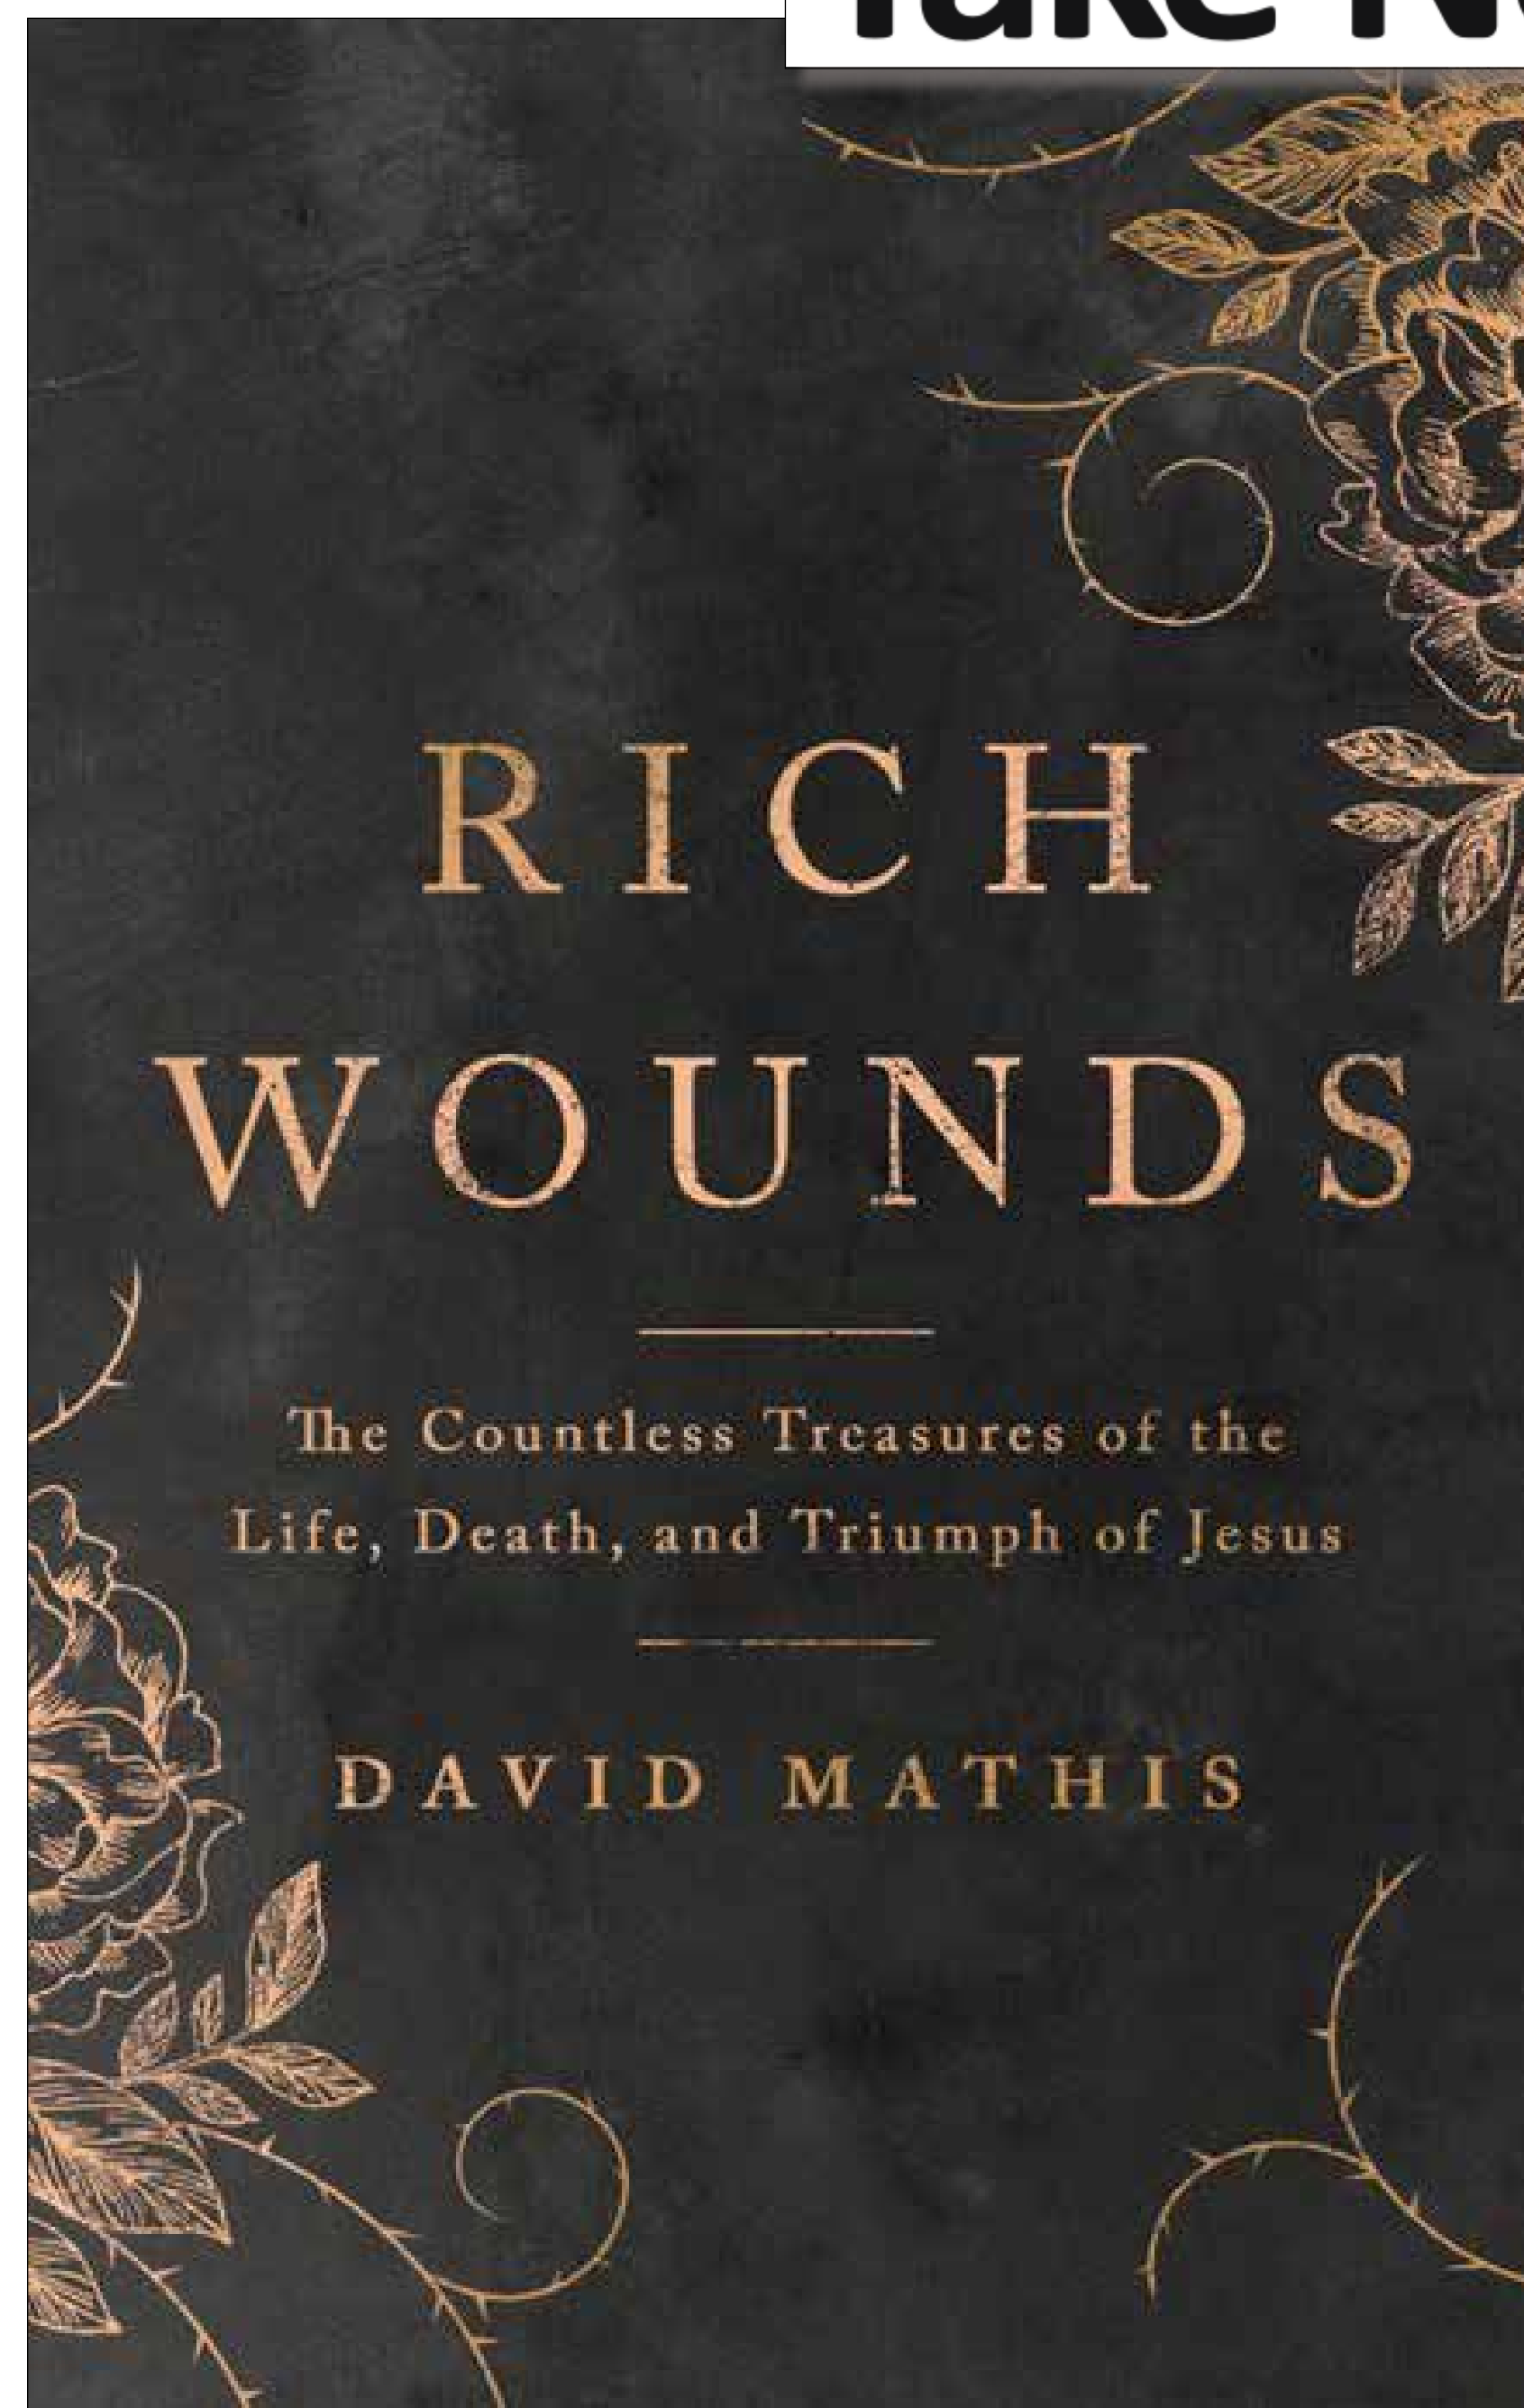

Then Miriam played a supporting role while Moses led God's people out of slavery to freedom. That all seemed to go pretty well . . . until it made her jealous. (Can you say sibling rivalry?)

Miriam's life reminds us that a True Girl practices courageous leadership right now because a leader is what she's becoming. And though the best leaders are often imperfect, God offers us a second chance to get things right.

True Girl Bible Studies feature important women from the Bible so that from their examples, we can learn what it looks like to be a True Girl. Each study is designed to help mums lead their daughters deeply into the Word of God so they can develop a steady love for Scripture. Together, moms and daughters can discover what it means to be a True Girl after God's own heart.

Description

These short but profound reflections from David Mathis, author of 'The Christmas We Didn't Expect,' will help you to look deeper at Jesus' life, sacrificial death and spectacular resurrection—enabling you to treasure anew who Jesus is and what he has done for us.

Many of us are so familiar with the Easter story that it becomes easy to miss subtle details and difficult to really enjoy its meaning. This book will help you to pause and marvel at Jesus, whose now-glorified wounds are a sign of his unfailing love and the decisive victory that he has won: "He was pierced for our transgressions, he was crushed for our iniquities; the punishment that brought us peace was on him, and by his wounds we are healed." (Isaiah 53:5)

This book works fantastically as a devotional at any time of year. The chapters on Holy Week make it especially helpful during the Lent season and at Easter.

Description

Celebrate the awesome, life-changing events of Easter with this family devotional.

Help your family to appreciate the awesome, life-changing events of Easter with this 30-day devotional.

These easy-to-lead devotions start by looking at Genesis and take us through the Old Testament to see how Easter was always part of God's amazing plan for his people. The remainder look at the Easter story itself, helping families to experience the full joy of our resurrection hope.

Each day there is a passage to read together, questions to think about, an explanation and a prayer. There are also age-appropriate application questions, with some for younger children and some for older children, as well as journalling space so that family members can write or draw their own response to what God has shown them.

So why not set aside a little time each day in the run-up to Easter with this inspiring and innovative resource to celebrate what Jesus has done for us?

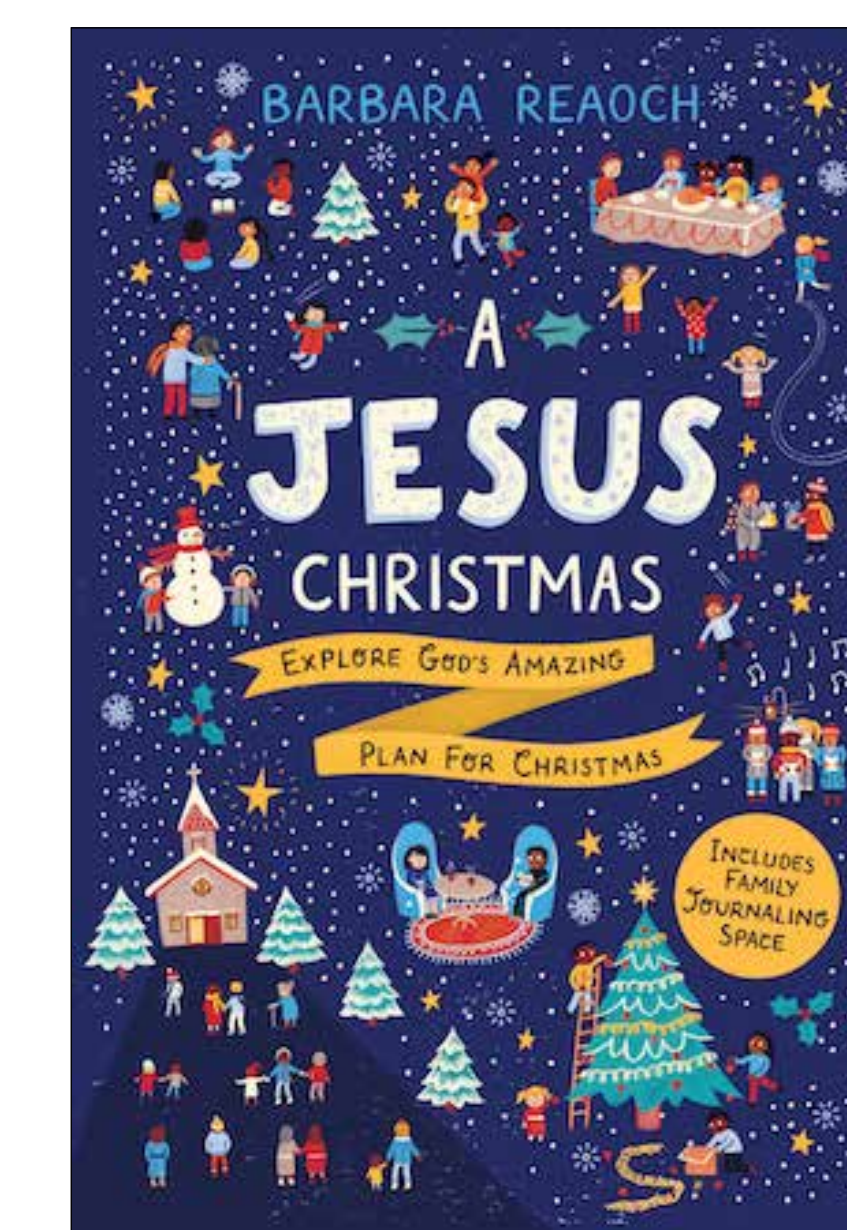

About the Author

Barbara Reaoch was Bible Study Fellowship's Director of the Children's Division for many years.

She is the author of 'A Jesus Christmas', 'Why Christmas?' and 'Why Easter?'

She loves God, her husband, their family... and writing gospel-centred children's materials.

Title: God and the Transgender Debate (2nd Edition)
 Author: Andrew T. Walker
 Price: £8.99*
 Product Code: 9781784986940
 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Contemporary Social Issues
 Distribution: UK & Europe

In the West, more and more Christians are coming across the topic of gender identity in their everyday lives. Legislative changes are impacting more and more areas of life, including education, employment and state funding, with consequences for religious liberty, free speech and freedom of conscience that affect everyone.

So it's a crucial moment to consider how to engage lovingly, thoughtfully and biblically with one of the most explosive cultural discussions of our day.

This warm, faithful and compassionate book that helps Christians understand what the Bible says about gender identity has been updated and expanded throughout, and now includes a section on pronoun usage and a new chapter challenging some of the claims of the transgender activist movement.

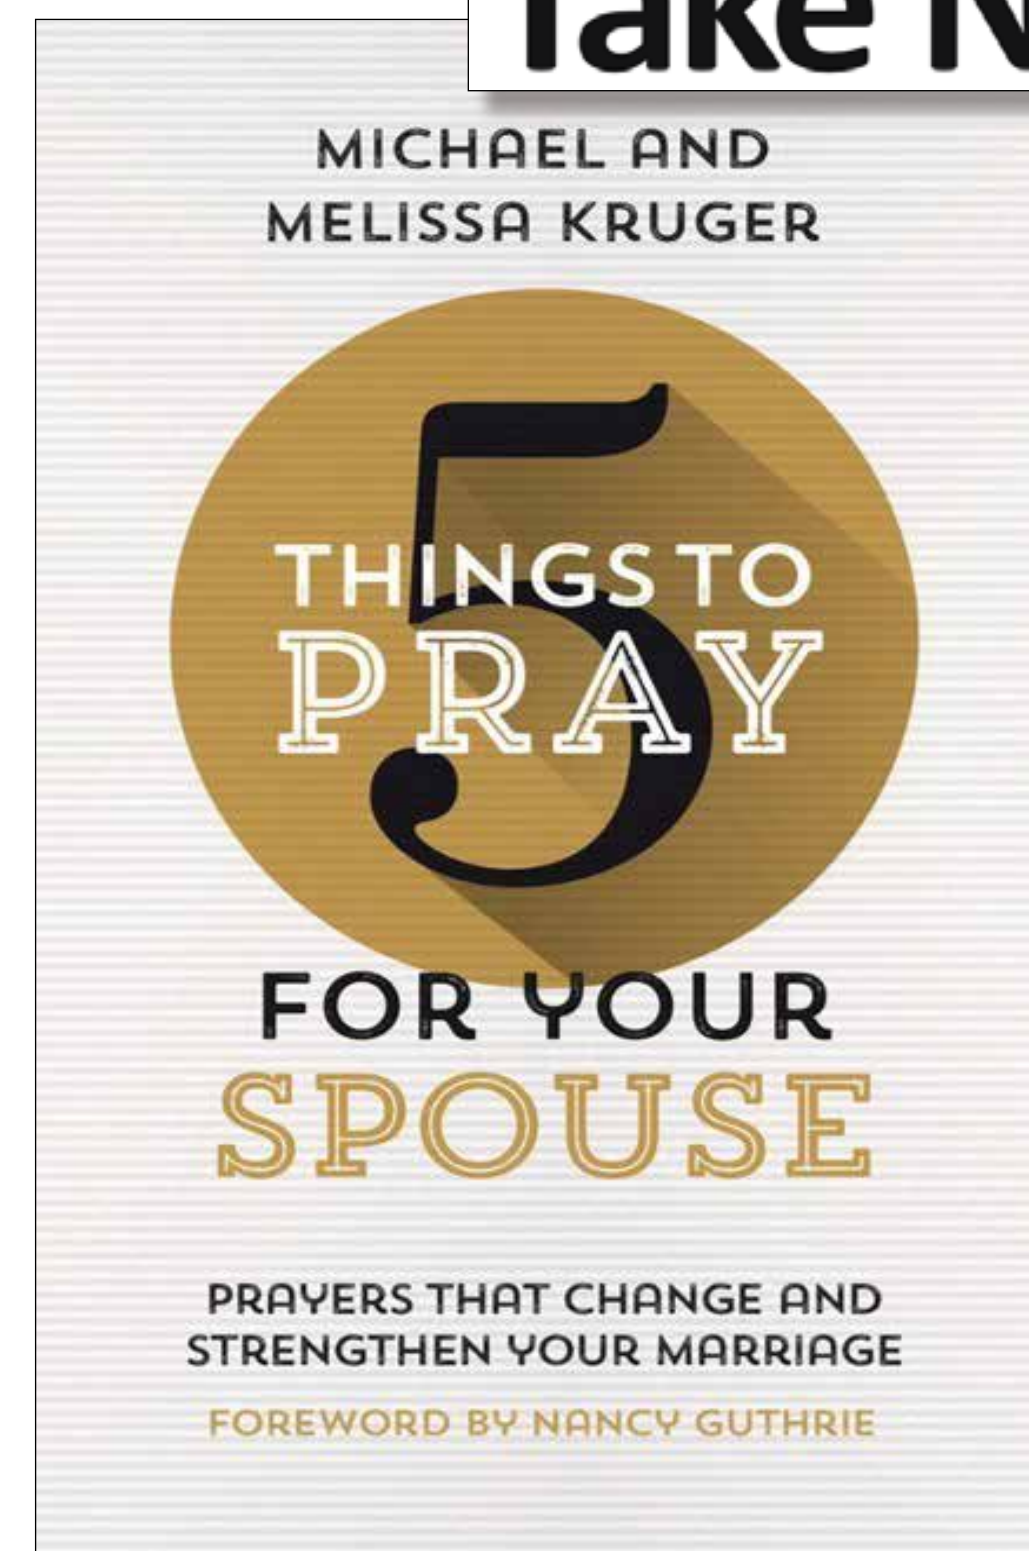

Andrew T. Walker also answers questions such as:

What is transgender and gender fluidity?

How should churches respond?

What does God's word actually say about these issues?

Title: 5 Things to Pray for Your Spouse
 Author: Michael & Melissa Kruger
 Price: £3.99*
 Product Code: 9781784986629
 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Prayer
 Distribution: UK & Europe

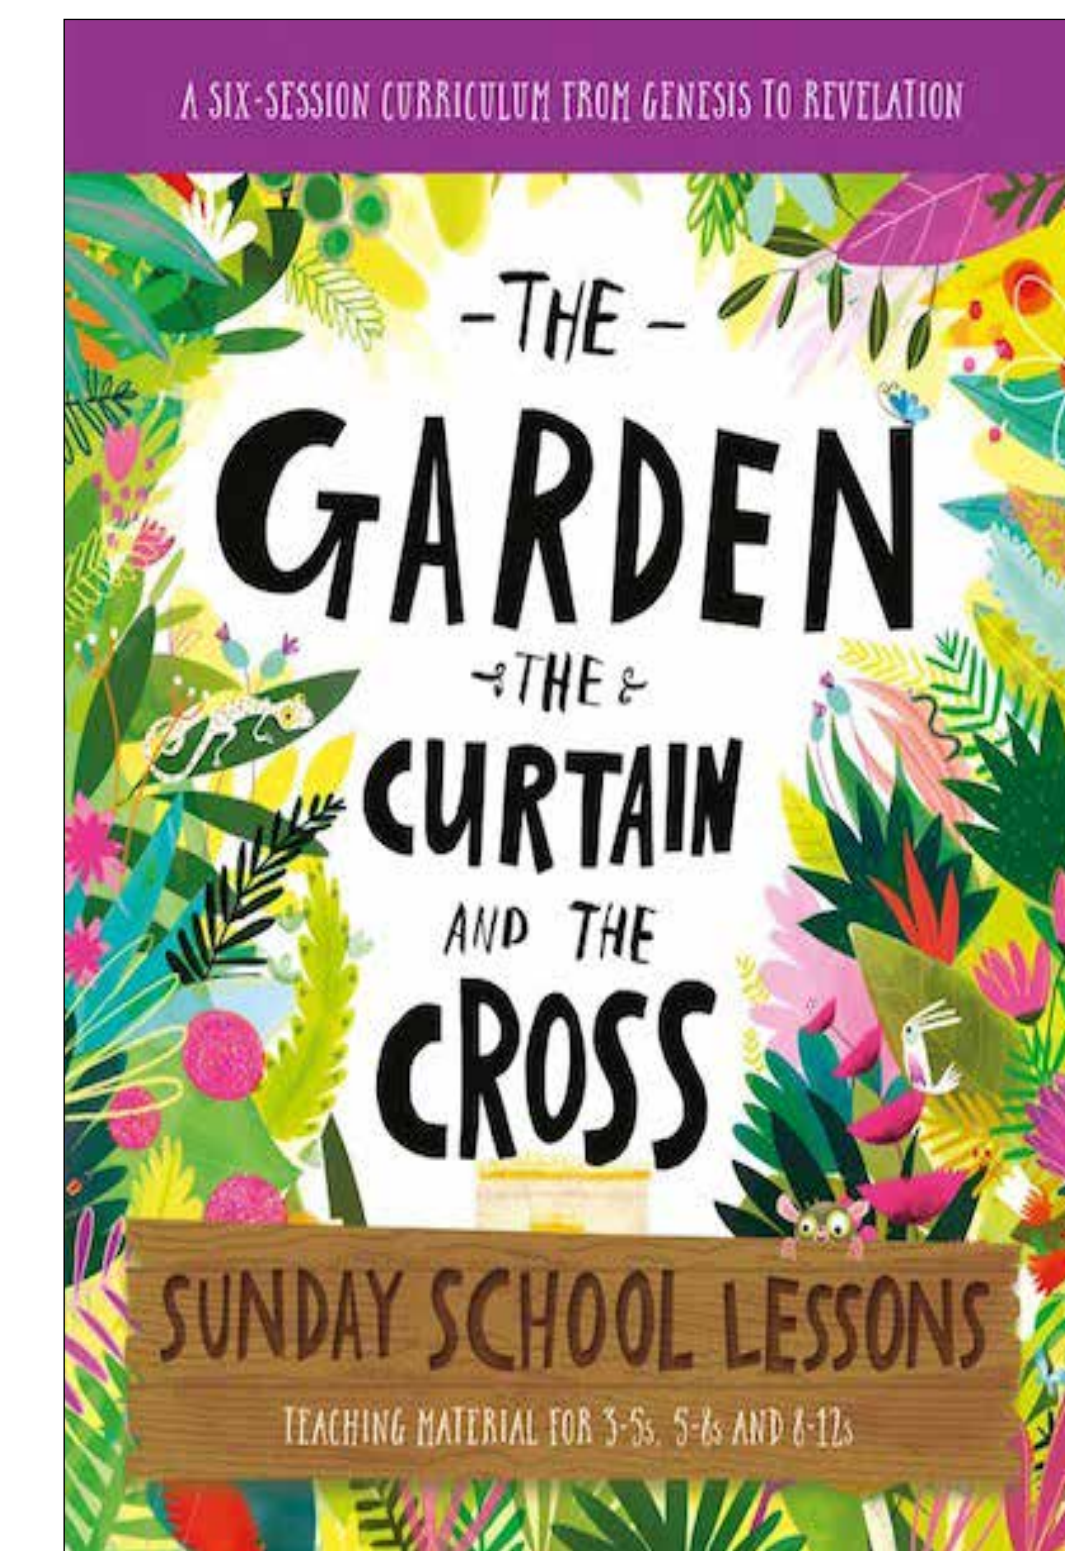

A happy and healthy marriage is one of God's sweetest gifts to us. And one of the best ways to nurture that is through the power of prayer.

This guide will help you to pray bold, Scripture-based prayers for your husband or wife that will strengthen and enrich your marriage. It covers 21 prayer themes, with each one including five prayer prompts from a particular passage of Scripture.

You'll be equipped to pray deep and effective prayers for your spouse's character and spiritual walk, for your life together as a couple and through challenging seasons.

You can use this book to help you to pray on your own or as a couple, and it makes a great wedding, anniversary or Valentines Day gift.

As Nancy Guthrie says in her foreword: "There is a great deal we can do for our spouses. But there is so much that only God can do, so much that only he can develop, and so much that only he can provide. So we pray. And as we pray instead of worry, pray instead of complain, pray instead of strategize, we find that God is not only doing a work in our spouse; he's doing a work in us too."

Description

It's time. Time to awake, time to arise, time to move.

This isn't yet another book calling the Church to arise using unrealistic, triumphalist language. Neither is it a critique of everything that is wrong with today's Church. Rather, it's an urgent prophetic cry to a very powerful but slumbering giant – the Church of Christ. It is time to realise our identity and rise to become God's agency to deliver His love to a world in desperate need.

This is an honest, positive, provocative, hope-filled, Spirit-inspired rallying call to revival; for God's people to focus on what really matters – because the Church is still God's Plan-A for His greater purposes in the world.

Often when the enemy is plotting the Church's destruction, God is getting it ready for a great resurrection. If you and your church have tried everything and are weary of old models of church that bear no fruit, read Sleeping Giant and be inspired to reconnect your heart with God's heart, passion and vision.

"A wonderful book ... I pray it will serve as a wake-up call to all of us." – Dr R.T. Kendall

"Tommy has a joyful enthusiasm for the Christian life which is infectious ... the Holy Spirit is so powerfully at work in his life and ministry." – Nicky Gumbel

"Tommy writes 'lived' truths here rather than untried theorising ... this book could fan into flames the fortunes of God's people once more. With a real urgency, we need the giant to awake." – Rev Kenny Borthwick

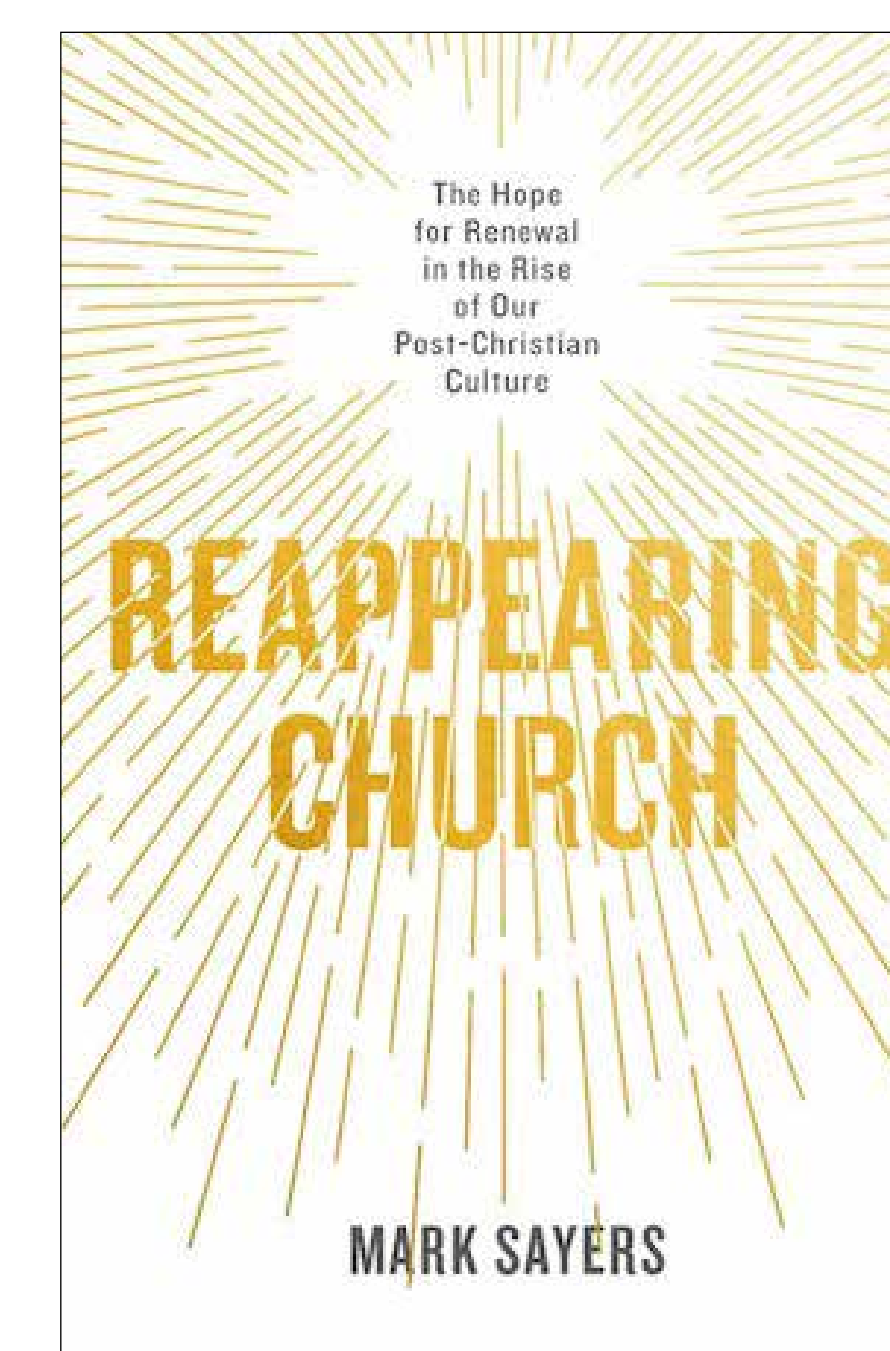

About the Author

Tommy MacNeil is minister of Martin's Memorial Church, Stornoway, where he has served for 15 years.

He is married to Donna and they have two adult children, Jo and Matthew.

He longs to see God move in Word and Spirit power in our nation and beyond.

Do we use social media, or are we being used by it?

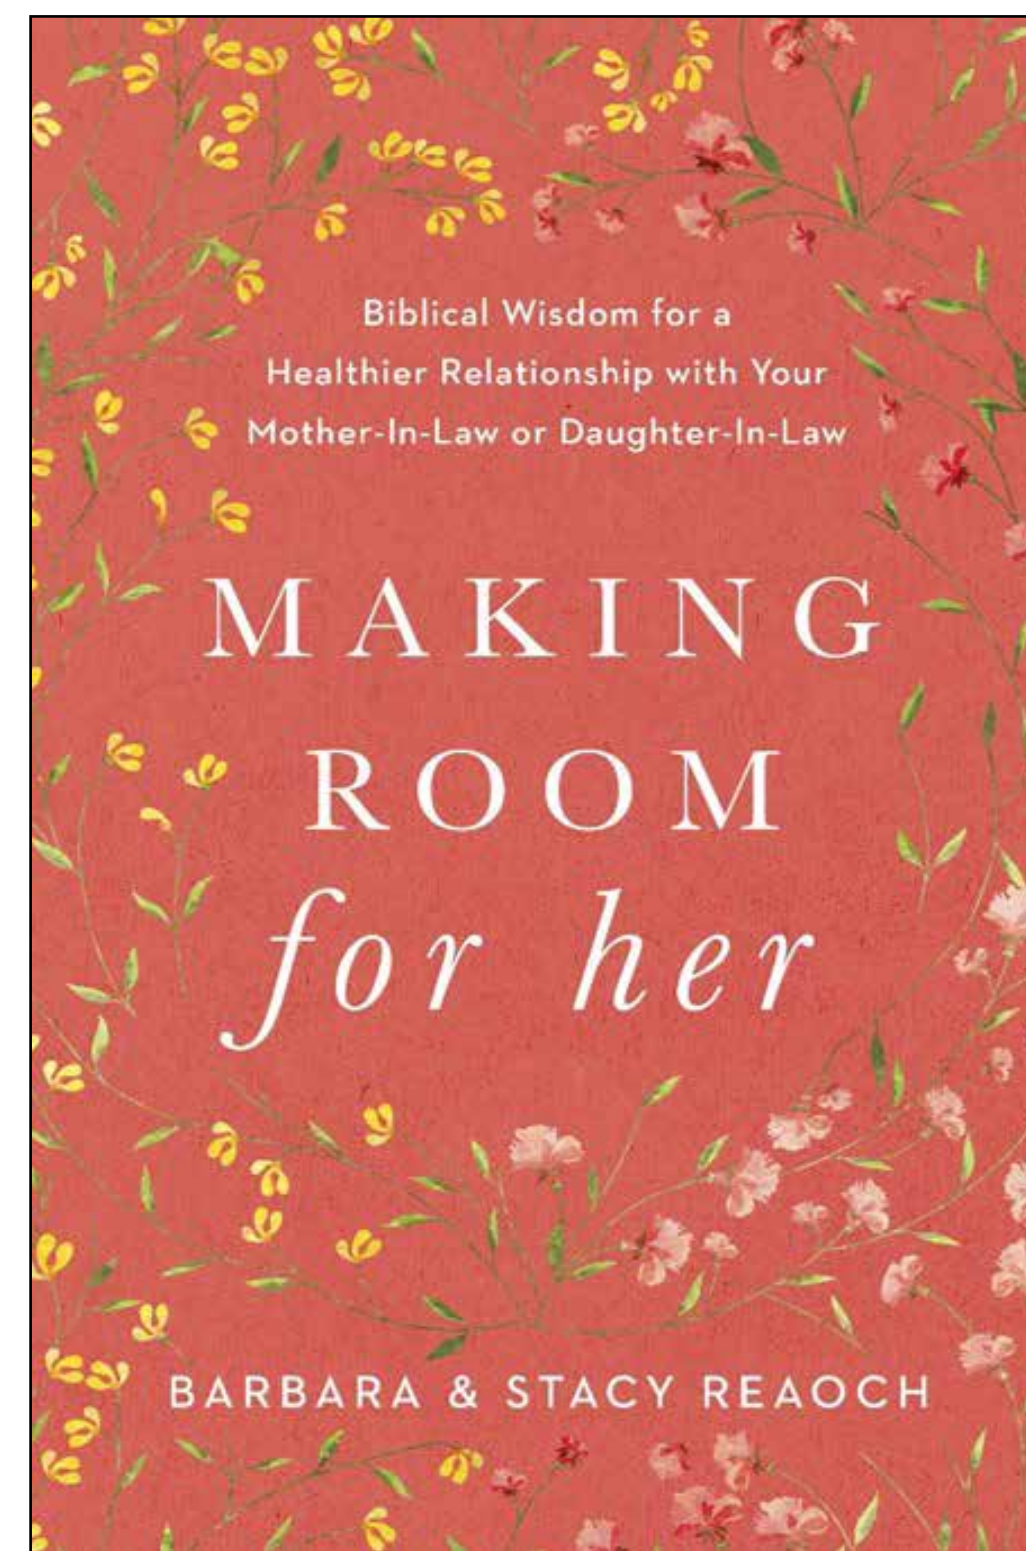

Social media is brilliant and obscene. It sharpens the mind and dulls it. It brings nations together and tears them apart. It perpetuates, reveals, and repairs injustice. It is an untamed beast upon which we can only hope to ride, but never quite corral.

What is it doing to us?

In Terms of Service, Chris Martin brings readers his years of expertise and experience from building online brands, coaching authors and speakers about social media use, and thinking theologically about the effects of social media.

As you read this book, you will:

- Learn how social media has come to dominate the role the internet plays in your life
- Learn how the “social internet” affects you in ways you may not realize
- Be equipped to push back against the hold the internet has on your mind and your heart

Title: Logic and the Way of Jesus
 Author: Travis Dickinson
 Price: £23.99*
 Product Code: 9781535983273
 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Doctrine & Theology
 Distribution: UK & Europe

Logic and the Way of Jesus argues that Christians have failed to engage the culture deeply because they have failed to emphasize and value a Christian intellect.

In part one, Dickinson recaptures the need for a Christian worldview, highlighting the use of reason, logic, and evidence to develop and defend Christian beliefs.

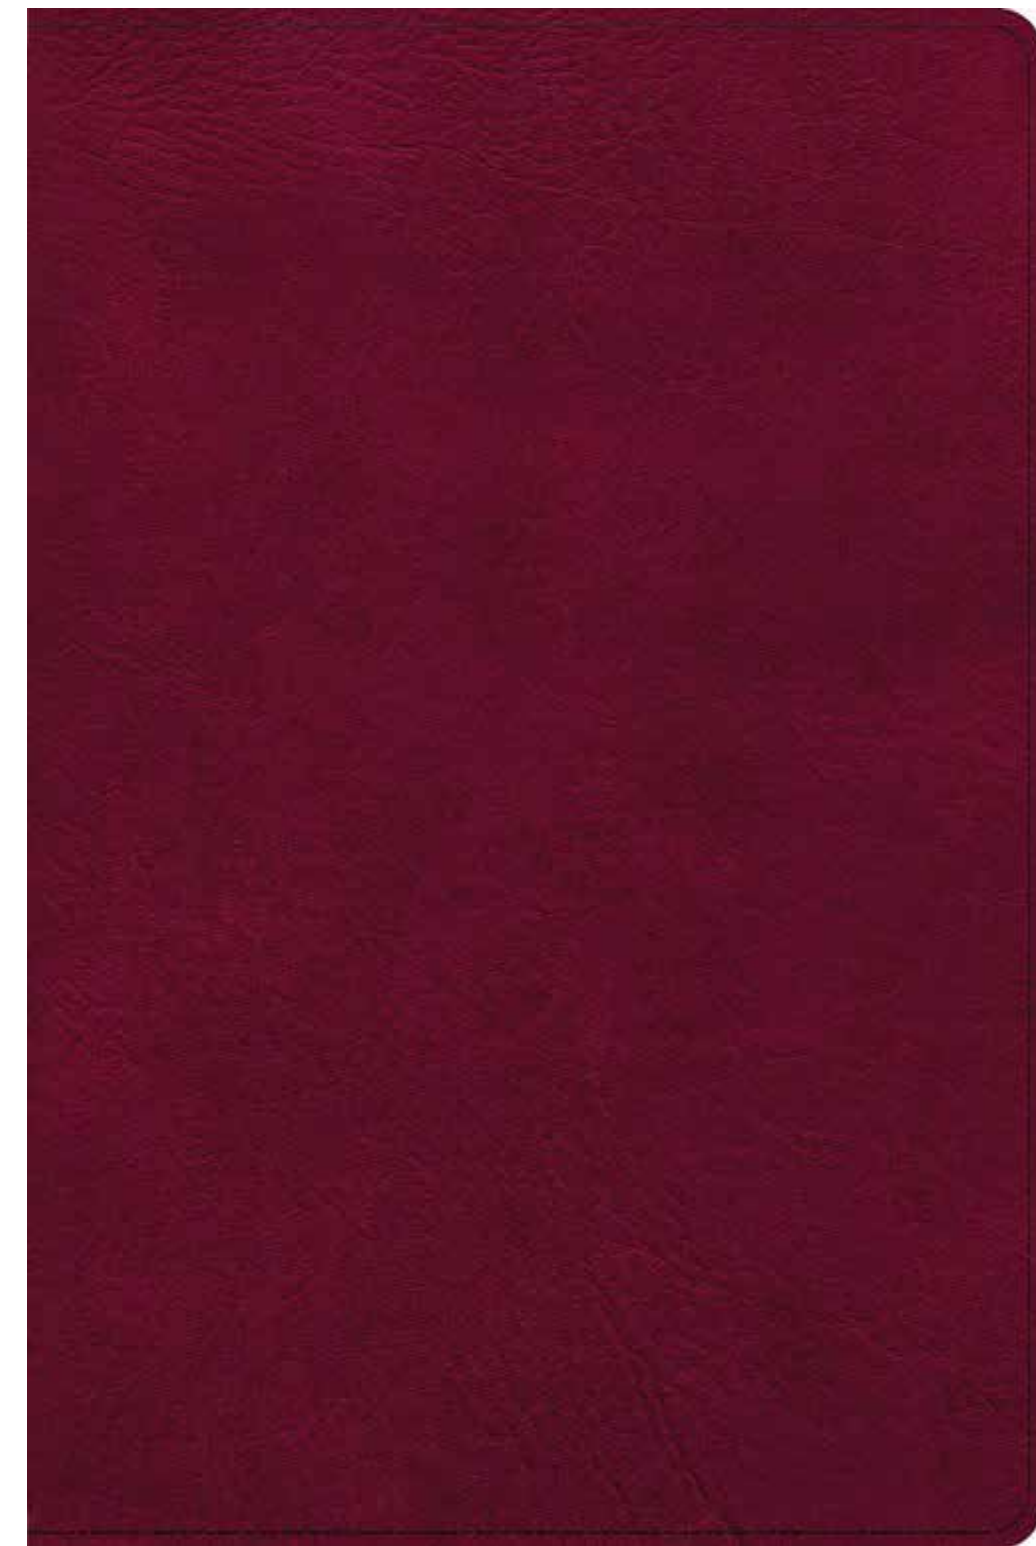

Part two highlights the way Jesus was an intellectual thinker and employed logic in his teachings.

Part three surveys the basic concepts of logic and part four marries those concepts with practical application.

The major claim of Dickinson's work is that if we embrace the life of the Christian mind, we can impact this world for the cause and kingdom of Christ.

EVEN THEN GOD HAD A PLAN.

Have you ever wondered what the Old Testament is really about and how it connects to the New Testament?

Even then, in the days of the old covenant--as the words written by Moses, David, and the prophets all testify--God had a plan to redeem and restore all who would come to Him in faith.

That plan was Jesus.

In this thirty-day devotional, you are invited to discover how the whole of Scripture is centred on the person and work of Jesus. By searching for Jesus in the Old Testament, we'll see how He fulfills God's plan with the new covenant of His blood.

Title: Latte With Luke
 Author: Sandra Glahn
 Price: £11.99*
 Product Code: 9781617155659
 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Bible Studies
 Distribution: UK & Europe

The author of the New Testament book known to us as the Gospel of Luke records many events in the life of Jesus that only Jesus's mother and those who travelled with Jesus could have revealed.

In this seven-week exploration of the life of Christ as explored by Luke, readers catch a glimpse of how much God despises pride and legalism and how much he loves the vulnerable, the religious outsider, and the repentant sinner.

Luke answers a key question about Jesus: What kind of Saviour is the Son of Man? And his answer: The one who came to seek and save the lost (Luke 19:10).

Title: Growing A Mother's Heart
 Author: Karen Whiting
 Price: £11.99*
 Product Code: 9781617155697
 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Women's Interests
 Distribution: UK & Europe

Intentional self-care is important in nurturing a mother's heart, so the weeks in this study progress from self-care to outward nurturing.

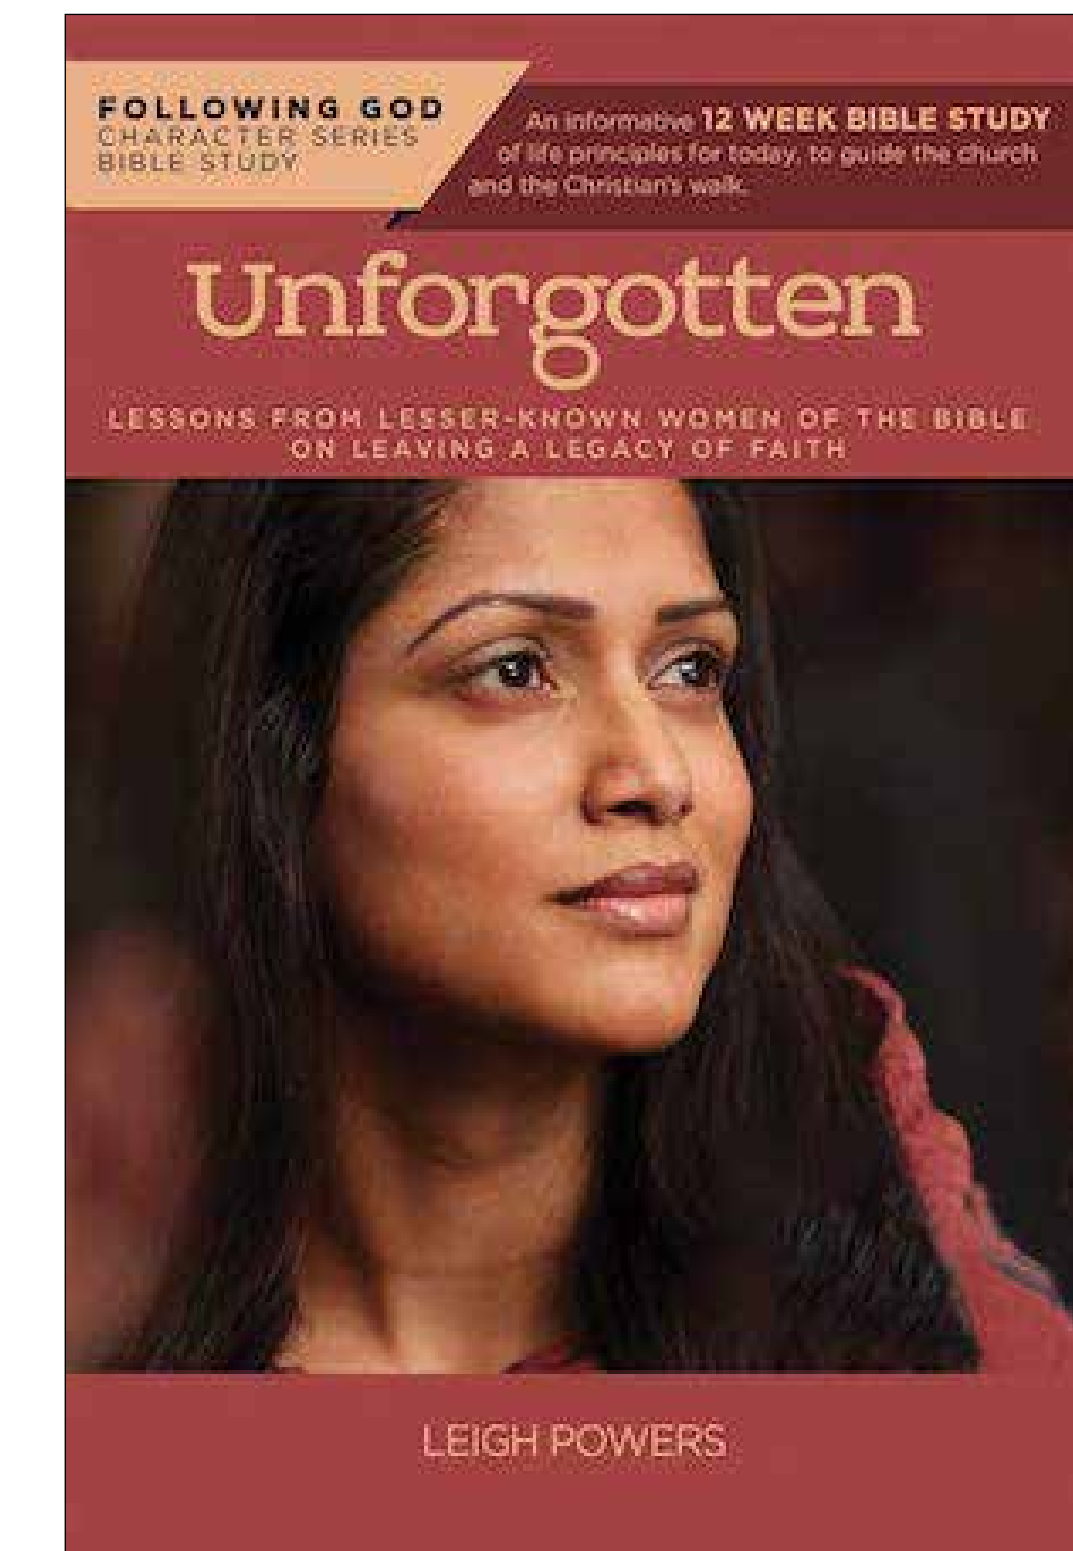

Starting with the felt needs of mums, helps women choose to move toward the outward focus of nurturing her family members and reaching out to the community.

The first weeks focus on the need for rest and balance plus meals in the home. The following weeks move toward how to make wise financial choices, meet family needs, and create a welcoming atmosphere of a loving home. The last week focuses outward to meeting the needs of others in the community.

Lessons include light-hearted anecdotes from real life and relevant Bible passages with questions to examine how Bible mums coped with stress and chaos and still embraced joy.

Scriptures meet women where they are at in life, in chaos, and their anxiety about their mothering skills, to move toward gaining wisdom from God and filling their hearts with God's love and peace that helps them create harmony in the home and find joy through their relationships.

Each week coordinates with devotional stories in Growing a Mother's Heart Devotional.

Title: Unforgotten
 Author: Leigh Powers
 Price: £15.50*
 Product Code: 9781617155338
 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Bible Studies/Women's Interests
 Distribution: UK & Europe

A quick glance at Scripture reveals the same familiar stories we've heard before. But when we slow down and take the time to look, other stories start to stand out to us--stories of women who played a role in God's great story of salvation.

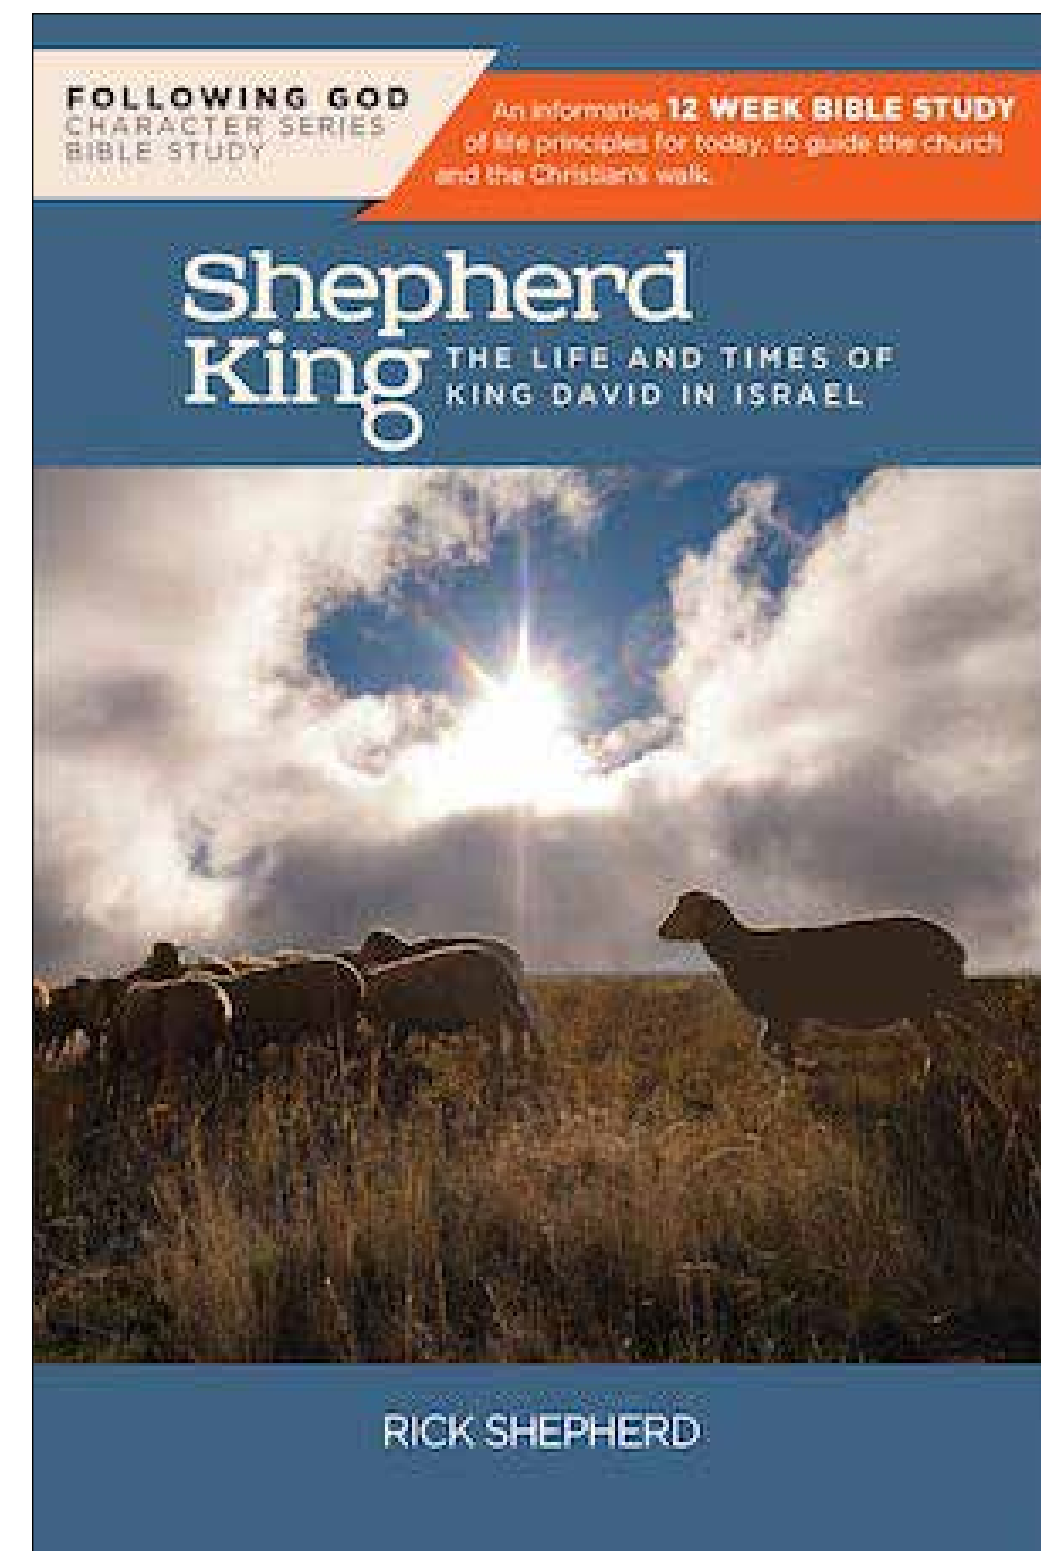

Not all of them are named. Some of them are only mentioned in a line or a phrase, but they were significant enough for their stories to be recorded in the Book of Life.

By studying them, we can learn for ourselves what it means to live a legacy of faith--what it looks like to live a life that is worthy of being remembered.

Over six weeks, you will study the stories of six of these lesser-known women of the Bible. None of them had much time in the spotlight. They are the supporting cast--the roles that get listed way down in the credits right before the makeup artists and the lighting crew.

Yet they are woven into the tapestry of faith, and we should consider their stories significant because God says they are significant to him.

 Product Code: 9781617155345
 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Bible Studies
 Distribution: UK & Europe

Journey through David's life and his reign as king, a reign with failures and successes.

More than a list of historical facts, David's life and legacy provide us with several life lessons, that can serve to guide us daily, whether we are serving only as "king" over ourselves or as leader over many.

There are many "kingdoms" one can successfully rule or one can fail to rule. Which "kingdoms"? The "kingdoms" of "self", as well as of home, church, school, a team, a neighbourhood or community, a region, even a nation.

Come along on this six week scripture adventure covering 1 Samuel 15-1, 2 Samuel 1-24.

Title: Cease Striving: Book 2
 Author: Mendy Clark, D.Ed.Min
 Price: £15.50*
 Product Code: 9781617155284
 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Bible Studies
 Distribution: UK & Europe

Cease Striving 2 is written to every believer who has been in the performance-driven, programme-oriented trap of living the Christian life.

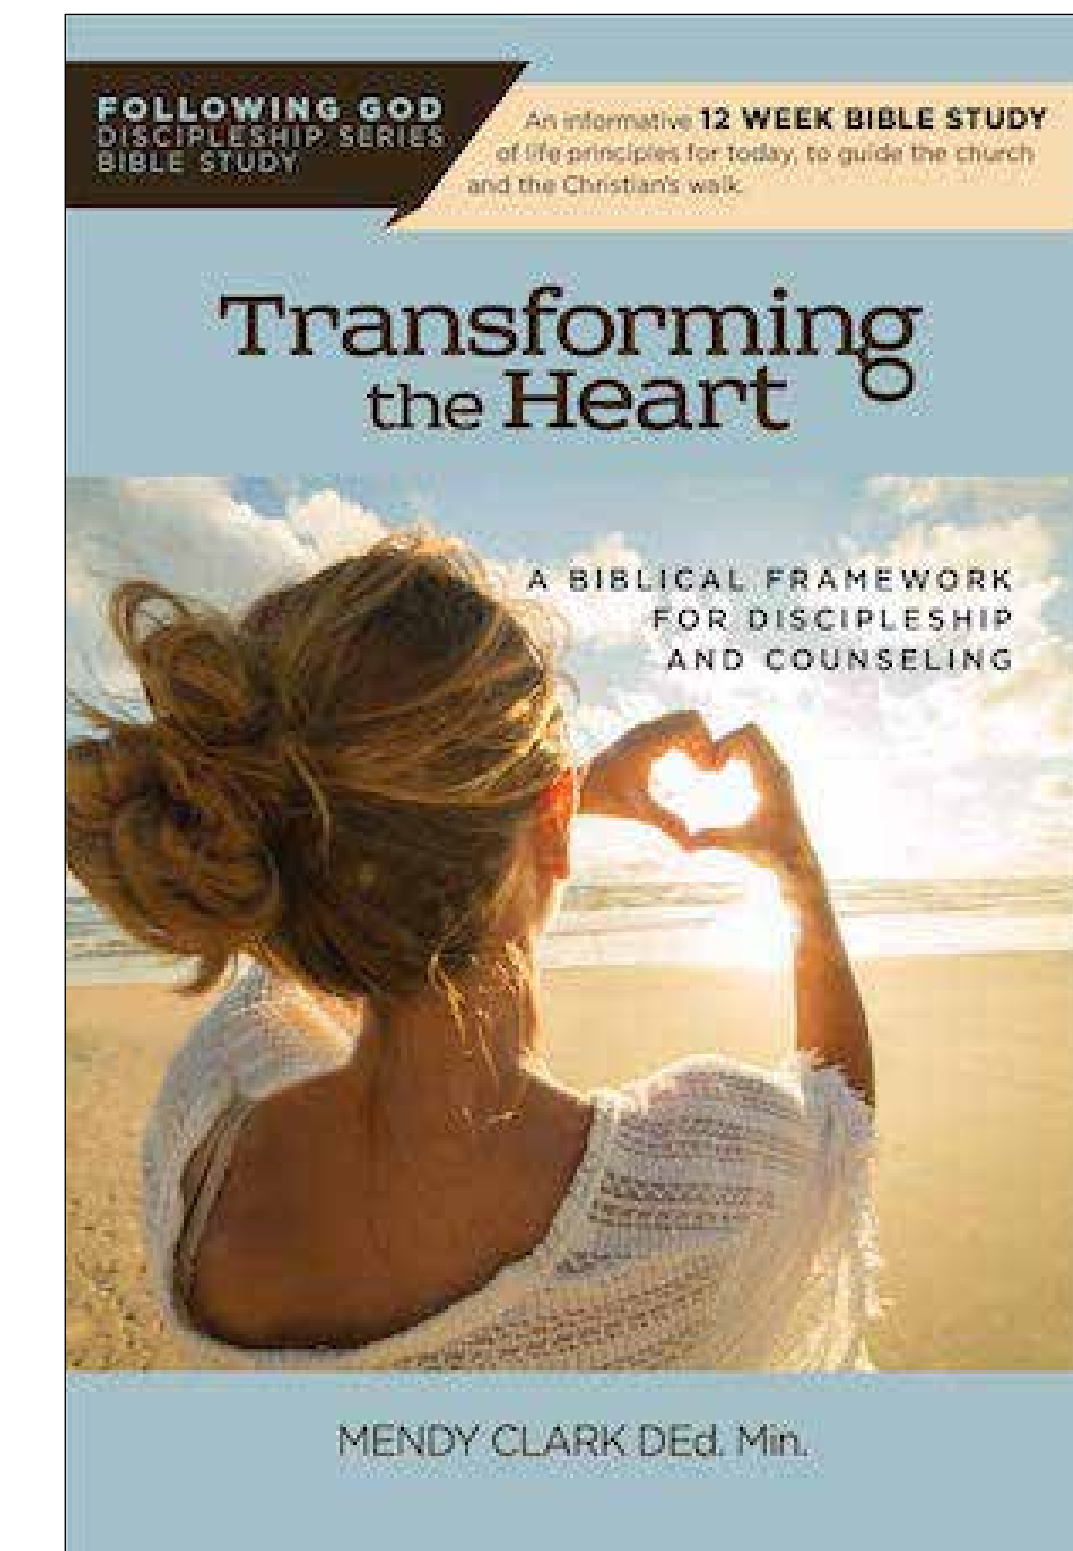

It has been written for those who have come to the end of themselves and are now willing to cry out to the Lord for help. Years of striving to live the Christian life have taken a toll.

Practically speaking, this workbook provides a detailed examination of the Book of Galatians. Paul admonishes the believers in Galatia who are struggling because false teachers have come in with the lie that man can be sanctified through his work of religious activity.

Paul warns that adding anything to God's work of grace, whether it's Christ's finished work on the cross or the work of grace continuing now by His Spirit through the ministry of His Word, is a different gospel.

Salvation, whether one is talking about justification, sanctification, or glorification, is wholly a work of the LORD God by grace alone through faith alone. The sooner we know and realize this truth, we can cease striving and rest in Him.

Not set up in a typical Following God Weekly/Daily format, but in Lessons to be divided as needed for study. Book 2 continues the in-depth study of Galatians 3:26 - 6:18

Would you like to be personally discipled by using just the Word of God?

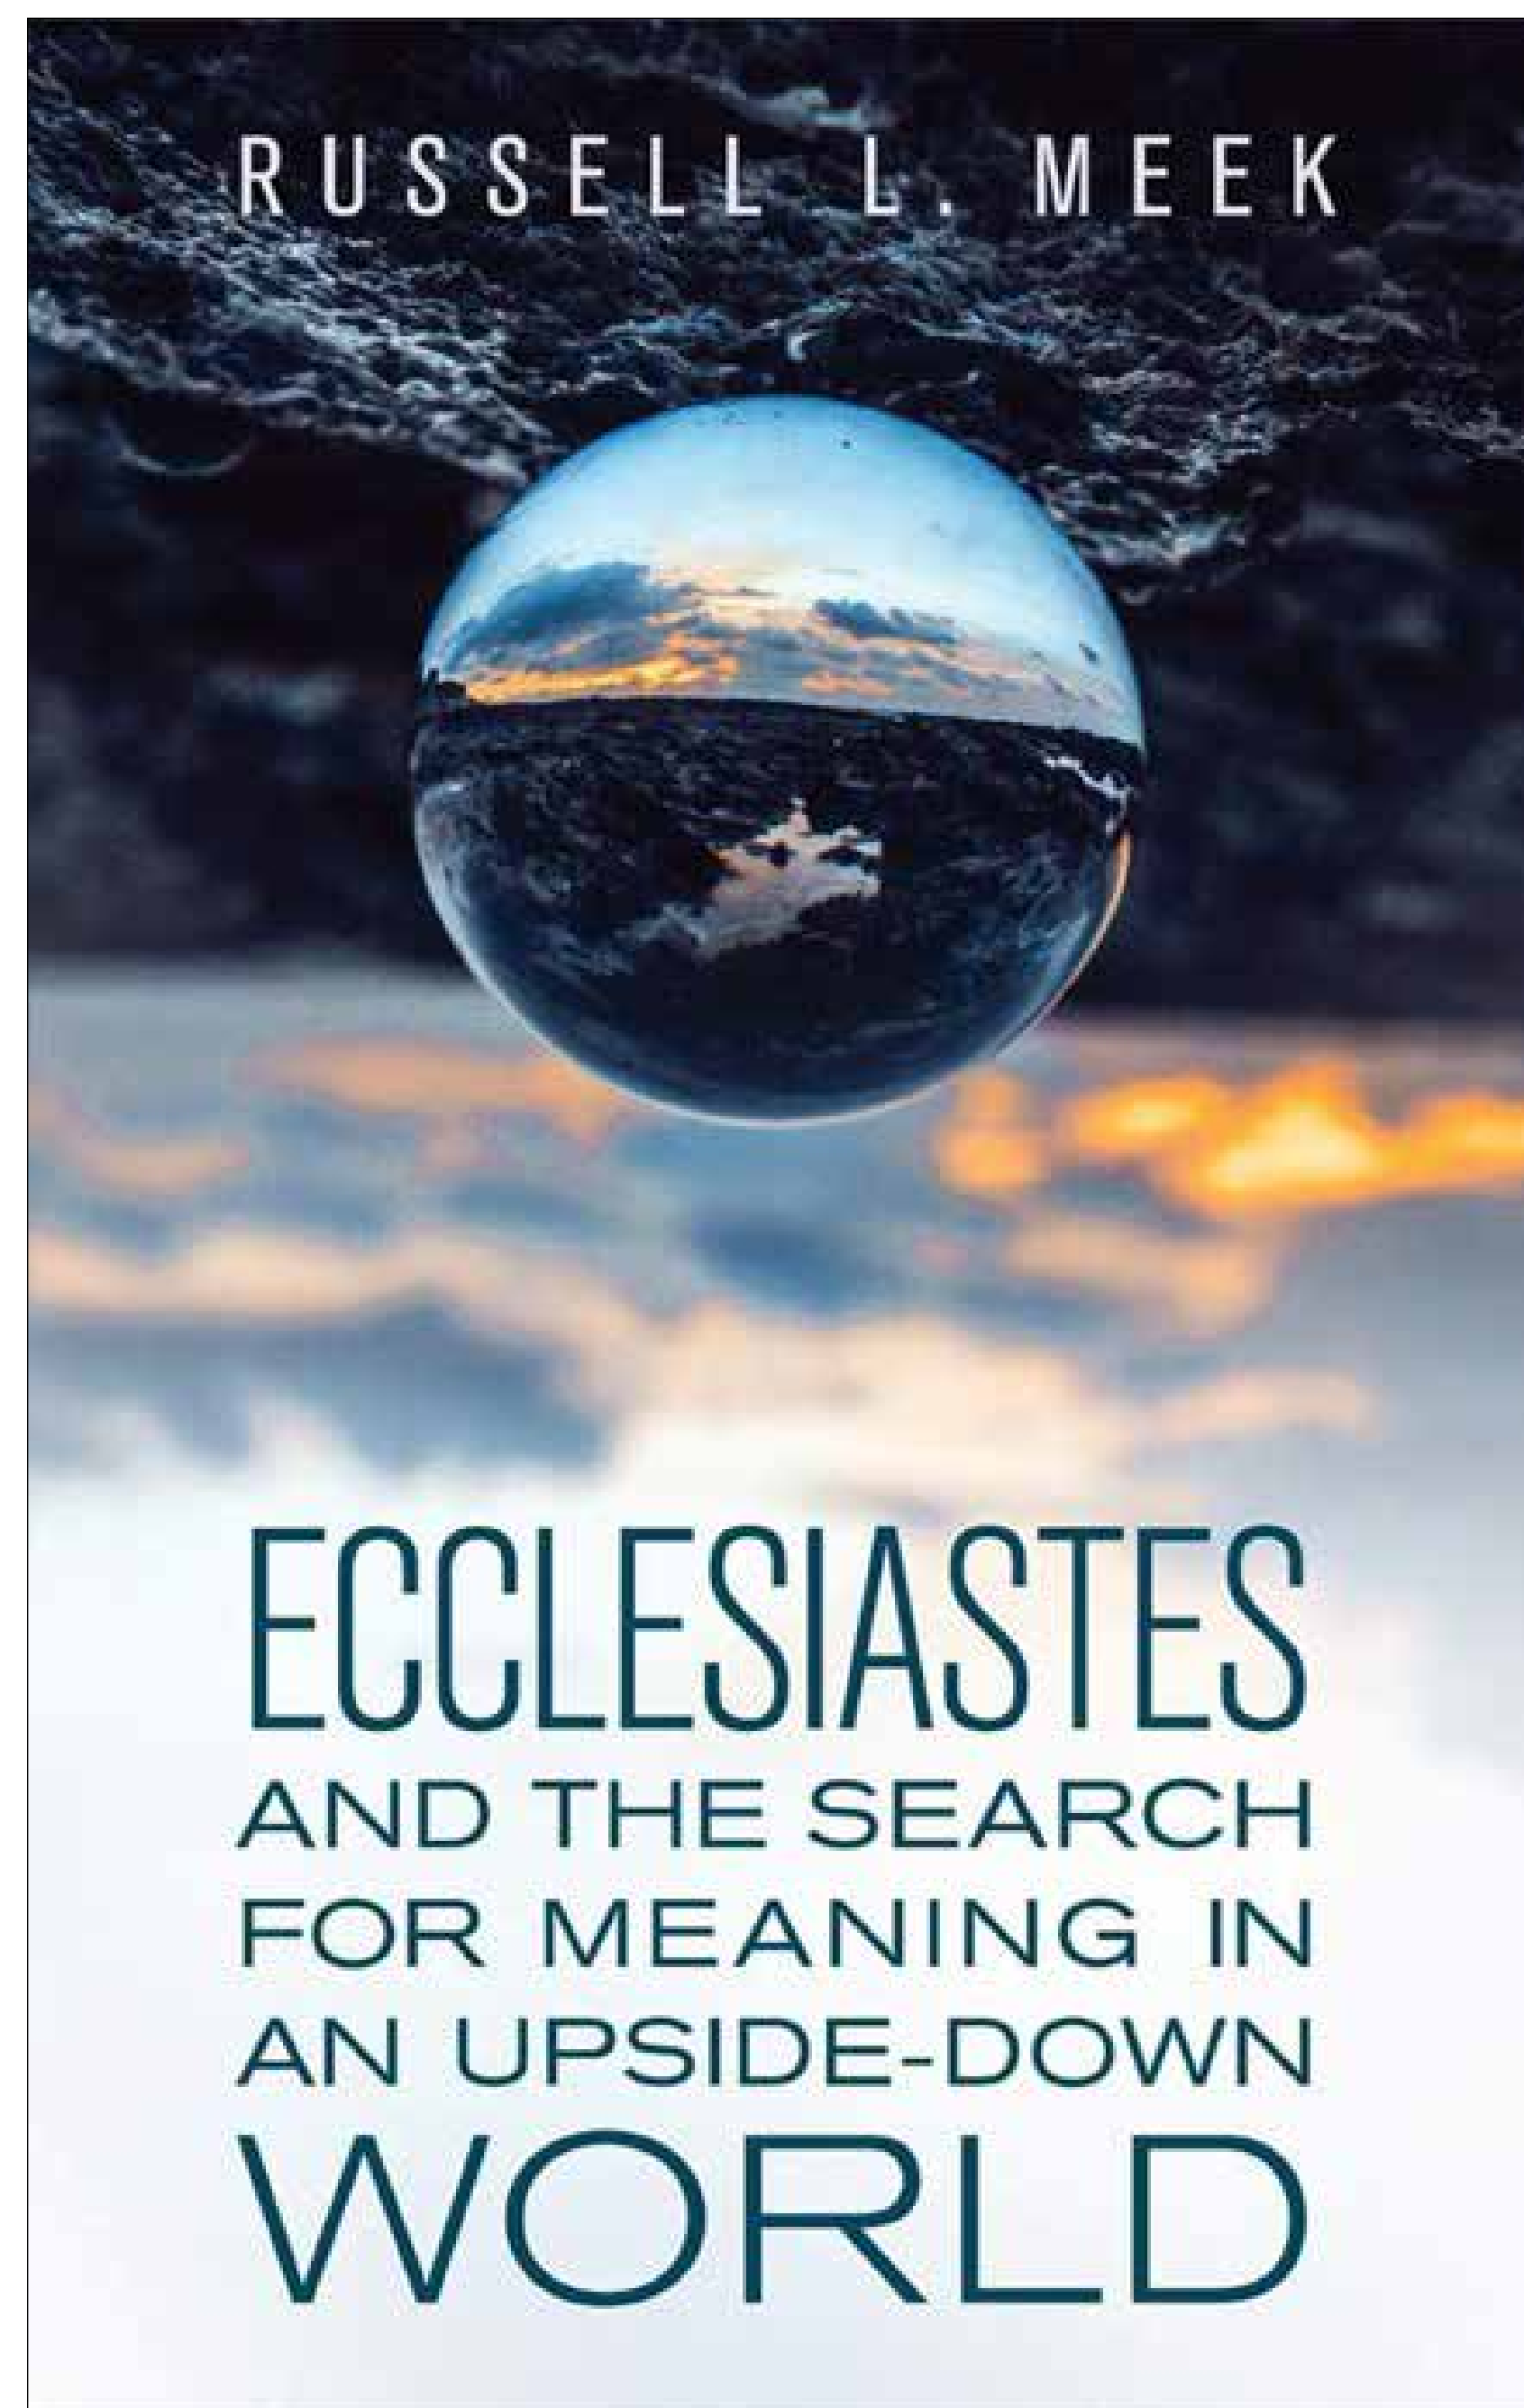

Would you like to know how to use God's Word to disciple someone else?

Would you know where to begin or how to proceed if asked to disciple another?

Would you like to know how to counsel someone who is struggling or stagnant in his/her spiritual walk, just using the Word of God?

Would you like to know how to help someone learn how to study the Word on his/her own?

If you answered "Yes" to any of these questions, this workbook is for you! Based on Psalm 32:8.

Description

This unique book combines memoir, exegesis, and theological reflection to demonstrate the ongoing significance of the book of Ecclesiastes to the Christian life in the twenty-first century. Through exegesis of Old Testament passages and theological reflections on Ecclesiastes, the author deals with issues of abuse, trauma, and forgiveness.

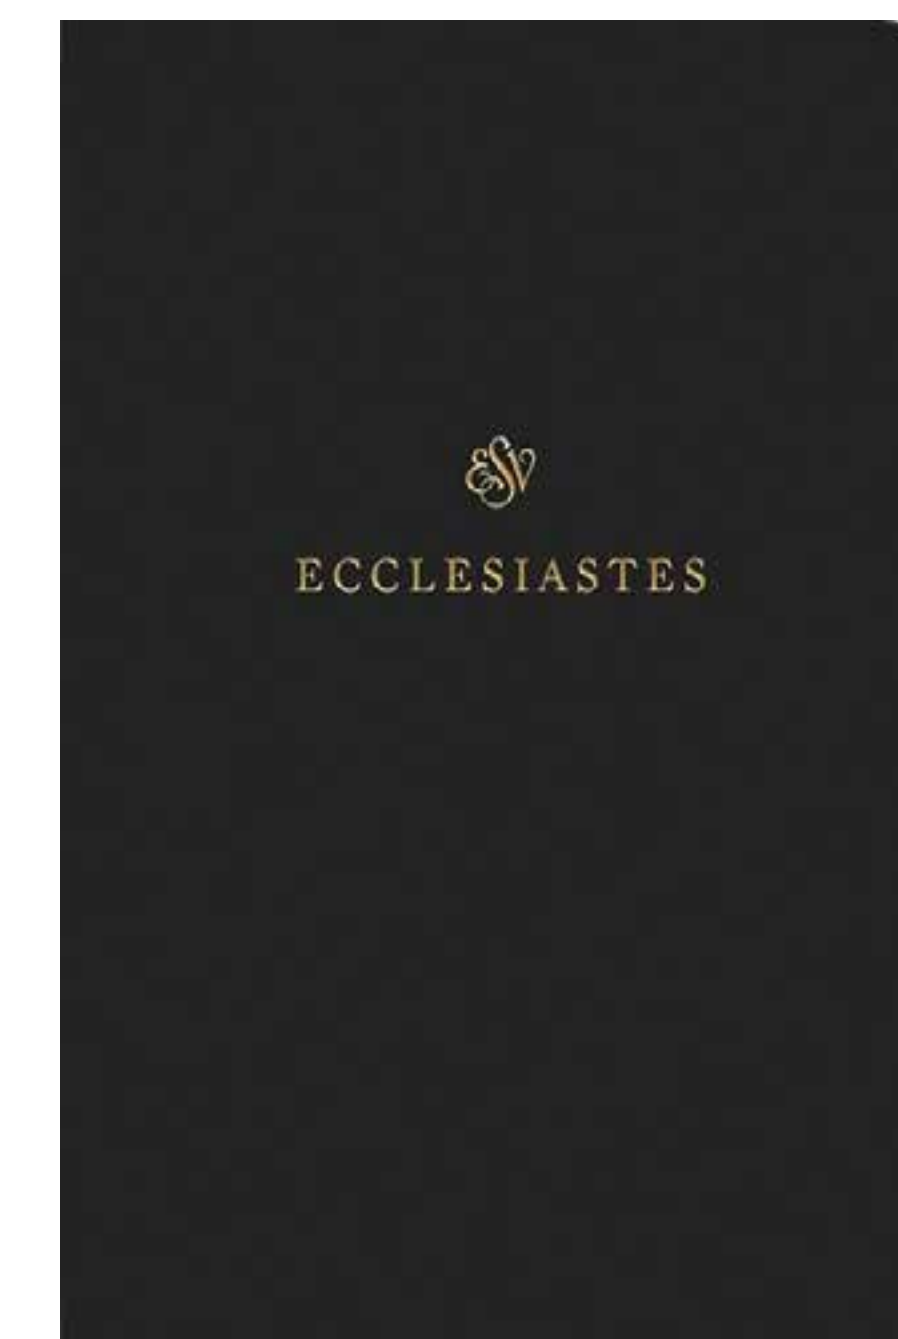

For thousands of years, God's grace and glory have been shining in the stories and poems of broken people: the Psalms give voice to our darkest moments of pain and anger, showing us that God welcomes our rawest emotions; Ecclesiastes and Job help us confront suffering and injustice in life; and the failures of Noah, Jacob, and David help keep us tethered to the God of the Bible. These stories and poems still speak to the brokenness of humans today, beckoning us into the arms of the God who made us and loves us even though we too are riddled with sin, hurt, and a longing to be loved.

By working through the book of Ecclesiastes, we can let the Teacher's words seep into our hearts and shape our understanding of who God is and how he helps us navigate this upside-down world. This short and engaging book enables us to see how one part of the Old Testament--Ecclesiastes--can help us navigate a world in which things do not always turn out as they should.

Description

Dear. Precious. Lovely. The Bible describes the church in extraordinary ways, even using beautiful poetry and metaphors. How does this compare to how Christians today describe the church? Unfortunately, many believers focus more on its mission, structure, or specific programmes than on its inherent beauty. It's time to spark a renewed affection for the church.

In 'The Loveliest Place', Dustin Benge urges Christians to see the holy assembly of God's redeemed people in all its eternal beauty. He explains what makes the church lovely, including the Trinitarian relationship, worship, service, and gospel proclamation. For those who have never learned to view the church as God sees it, or have become disillusioned by its flaws, this book is a reminder that the corporate gathering of believers is a reflection of God's indescribable beauty.

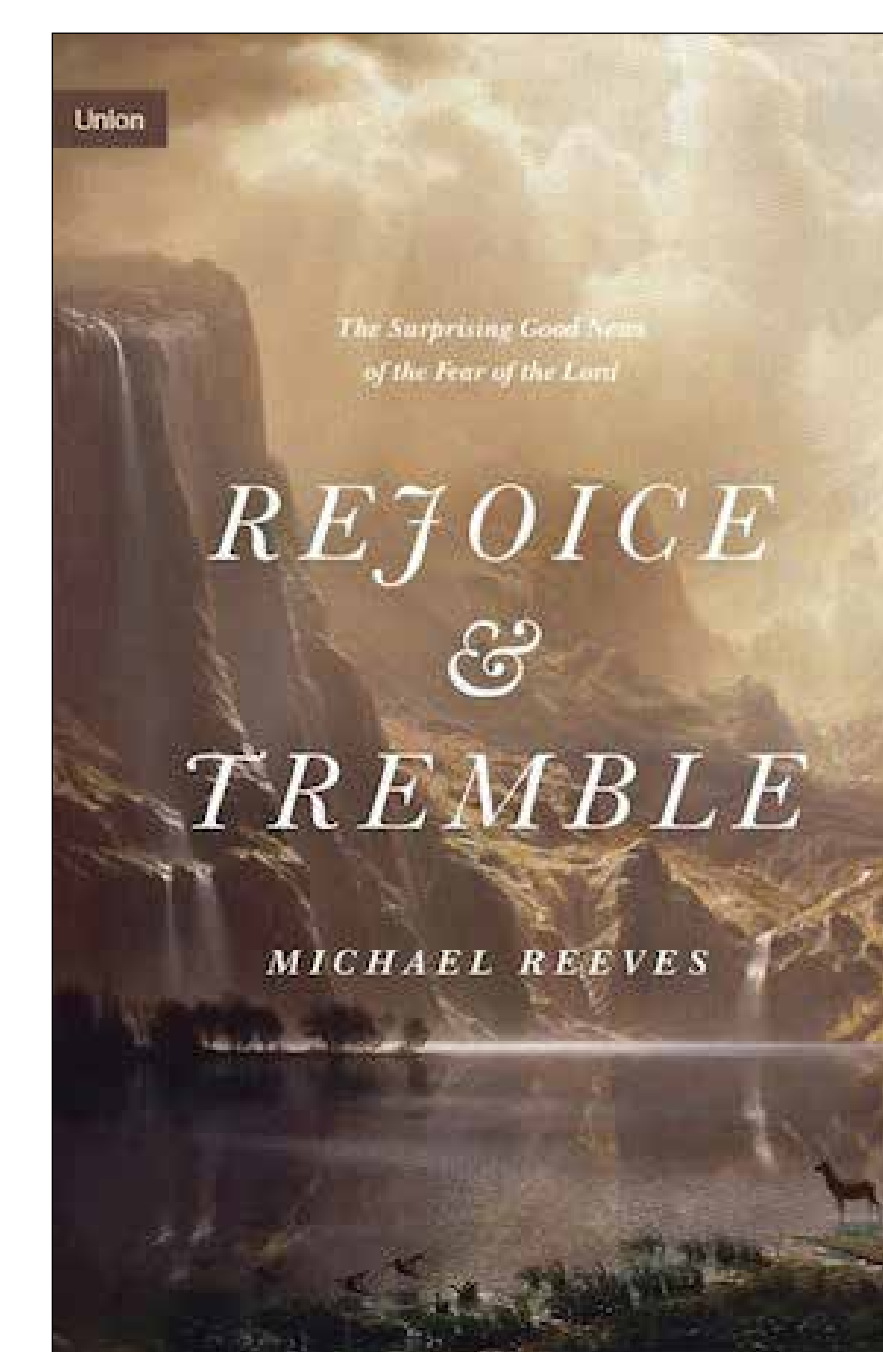

This is the third book in the Union series, which invites readers to experience deeper enjoyment of God through four interconnected values: delighting in God, growing in Christ, serving the church, and blessing the world.

About the Author

Dustin Benge (PhD, The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary) is provost and lecturer in church history at Union School of Theology, Bridgend and Oxford, UK.

Description

Why does God allow suffering?

The pain of suffering can be overwhelmingly mysterious, but the Bible does provide answers. Throughout Scripture, God allows trials in order to accomplish specific purposes in the lives of his people. When faced with suffering they experience spiritual growth; repentance from sin; or, as in the Old Testament story of Job, the chance to demonstrate devotion to God in the face of inexplicable agony.

In 'Suffering Wisely and Well', Eric Ortlund explores different types of trials throughout Scripture, revealing the spiritual purpose for each and reassuring readers with God's promise of restoration. The majority of the book focuses on Job, one of the most well-known yet misunderstood stories of suffering.

Ortlund thoughtfully analyzes the text chapter by chapter, including the doubt of Job's friends, God's response to Job's questions, and the meaning behind important imagery including references to Leviathan and Behemoth.

Suffering Wisely and Well shows readers how to deepen their relationship with God during painful experiences in their own lives and how to comfort others who are hurting.

About the Author

Eric Ortlund (PhD, University of Edinburgh) teaches at Oak Hill College in London, England.

He previously taught Old Testament at Briercrest College and Seminary in Saskatchewan, Canada, for ten years.

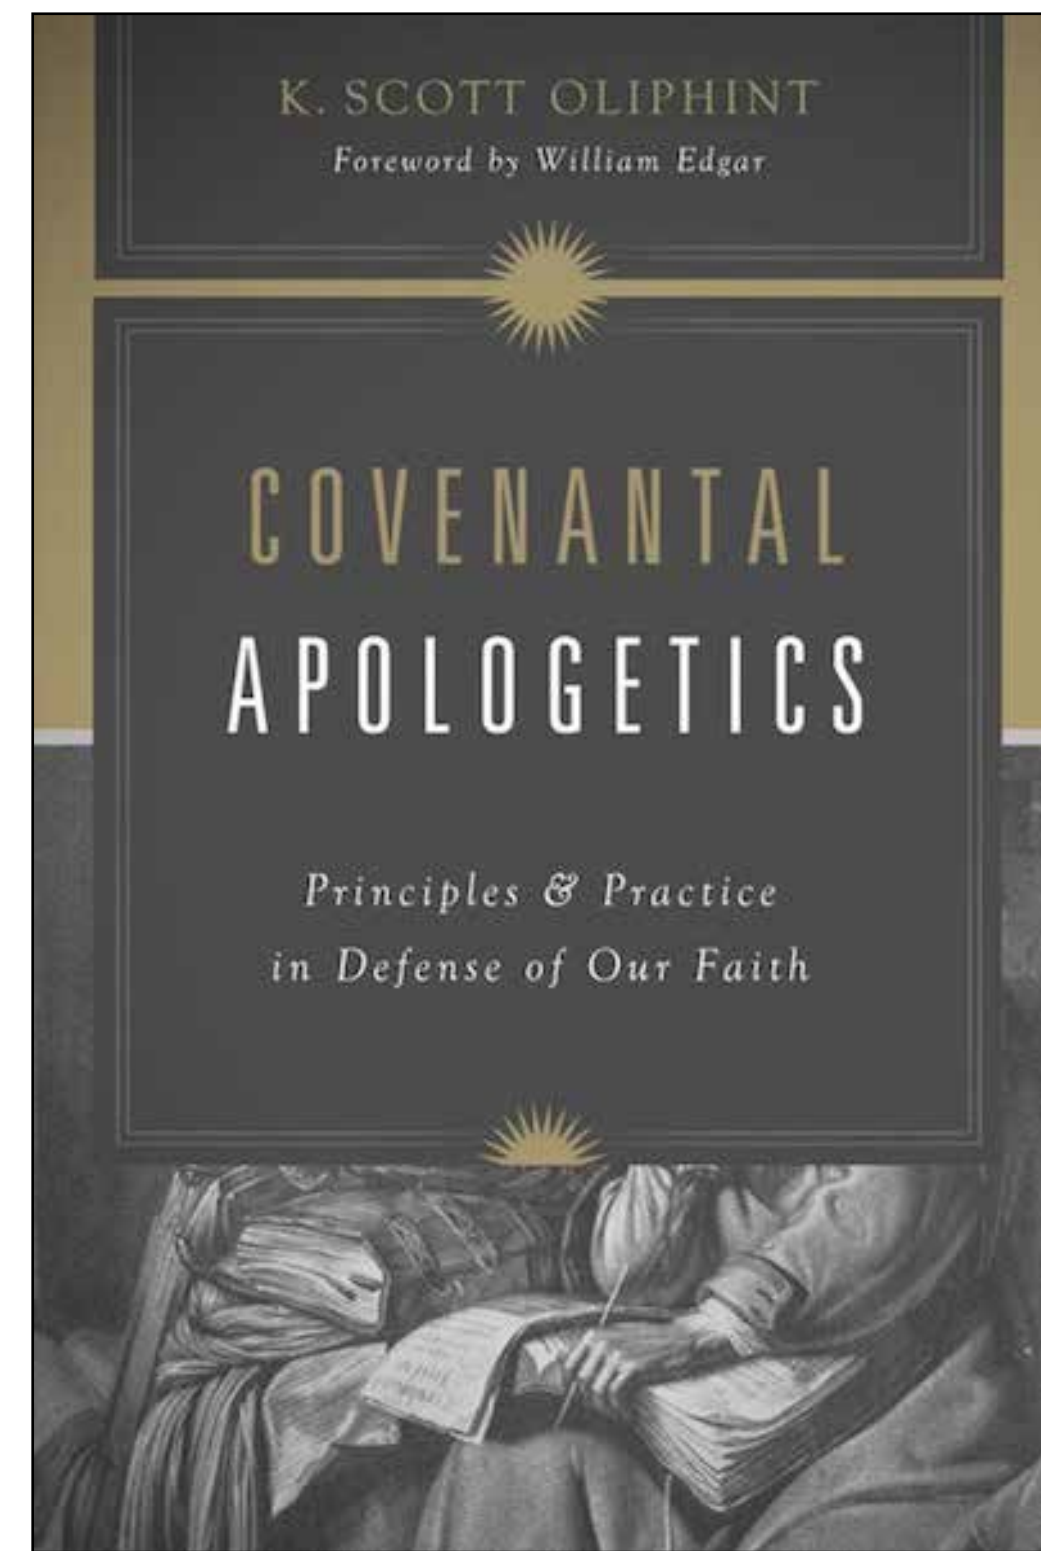

He has two children, Kate and Will, and is married to Erin.

 Author: K. Scott Oliphint
 Price: £23.99*
 Product Code: 9781433576362
 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Apologetics
 Distribution: UK & Europe

Defending the faith can be daunting, and a well-reasoned and biblically grounded apologetic is essential for the challenge.

Following in the footsteps of groundbreaking apologist Cornelius Van Til, Scott Oliphint presents us with an introduction to Reformed apologetics as he sets forth the principles behind a distinctly “covenantal” approach.

This book clearly explains the theological foundations of covenantal apologetics and illustrates its application in real-world conversations with unbelievers—helping Christians to boldly, knowledgeably, and winsomely proclaim the gospel.

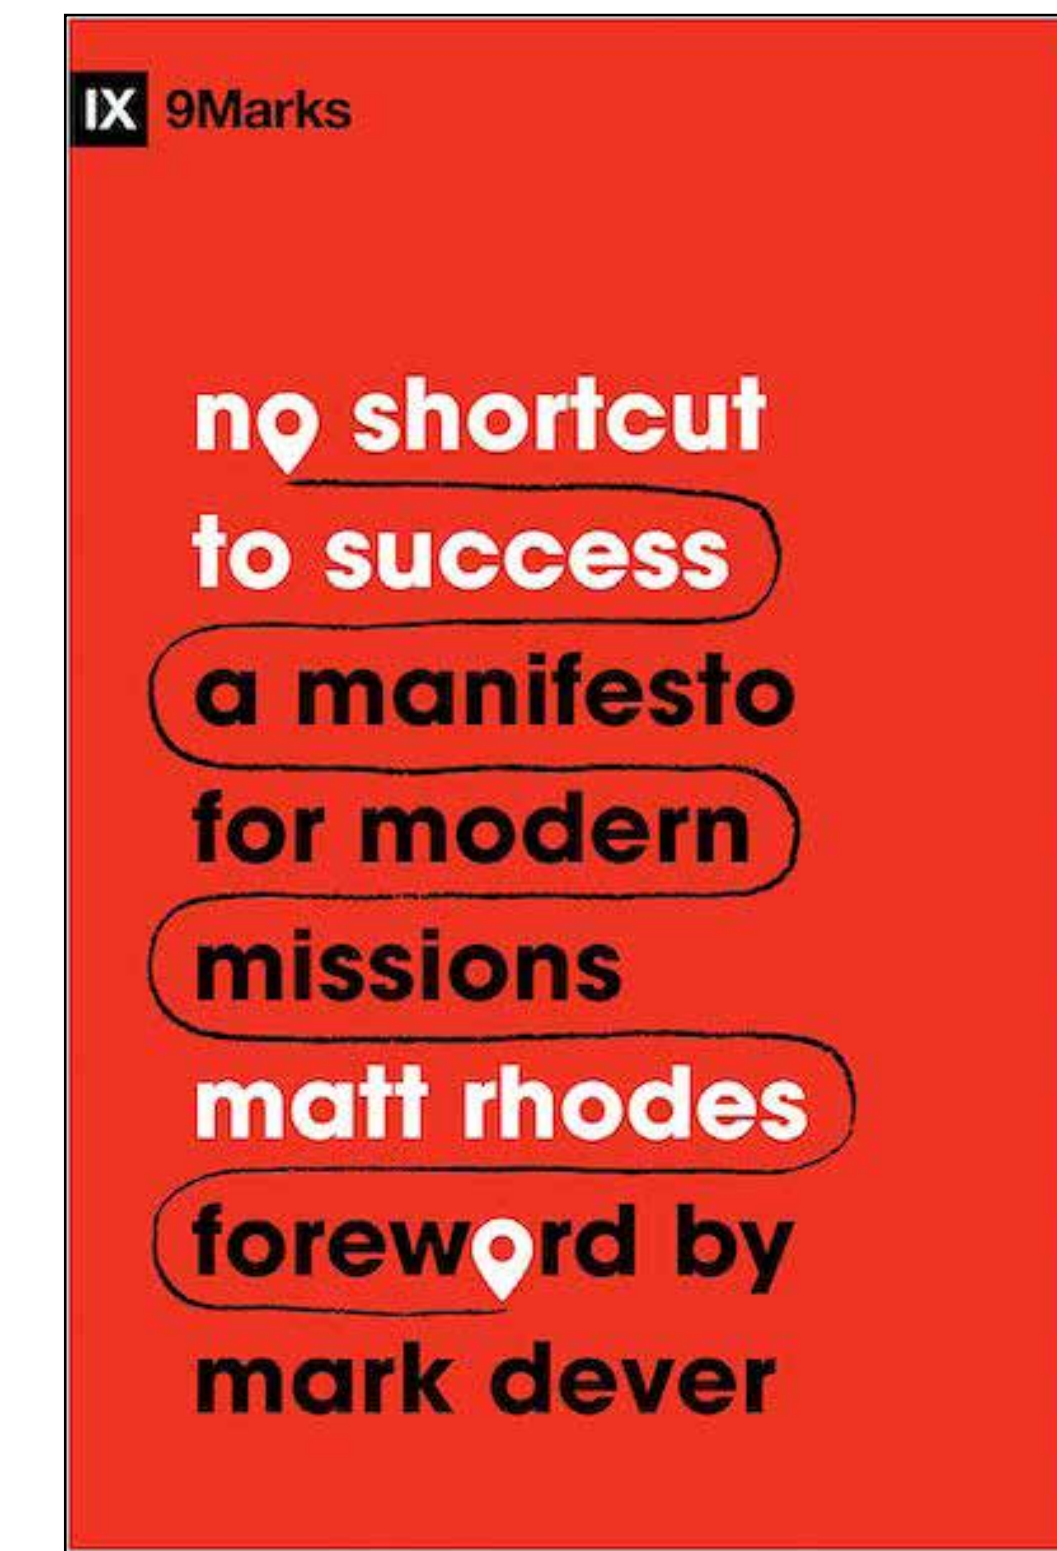

Title: The Royal Priesthood and the Glory of God
 Author: David S. Schrock
 Price: £14.50*
 Product Code: 9781433564314
 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Doctrine & Theology
 Distribution: UK & Europe

From Genesis to Revelation, the theme of the royal priesthood is a silver thread running through the biblical story from the garden of Eden through the priesthood of Israel to Jesus Christ—the true and better priest.

The theme of priesthood culminates with the creation of God’s covenant people, called out of the nations to be his priests to the nations.

In this concise treatment, David Schrock traces this theme of priesthood throughout the Bible and displays to readers how Jesus, the great high priest, informs the worship, discipleship, and evangelism of the church.

Title: No Shortcut to Success
 Author: Matt Rhodes
 Price: £15.99*
 Product Code: 9781433577758
 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Missions
 Distribution: UK & Europe

Trendy new missions strategies are a dime a dozen, promising missionaries monumental results in record time. These strategies report explosive movements of people turning to Christ, but their claims are often dubious and they do little to ensure the health of believers or churches that remain.

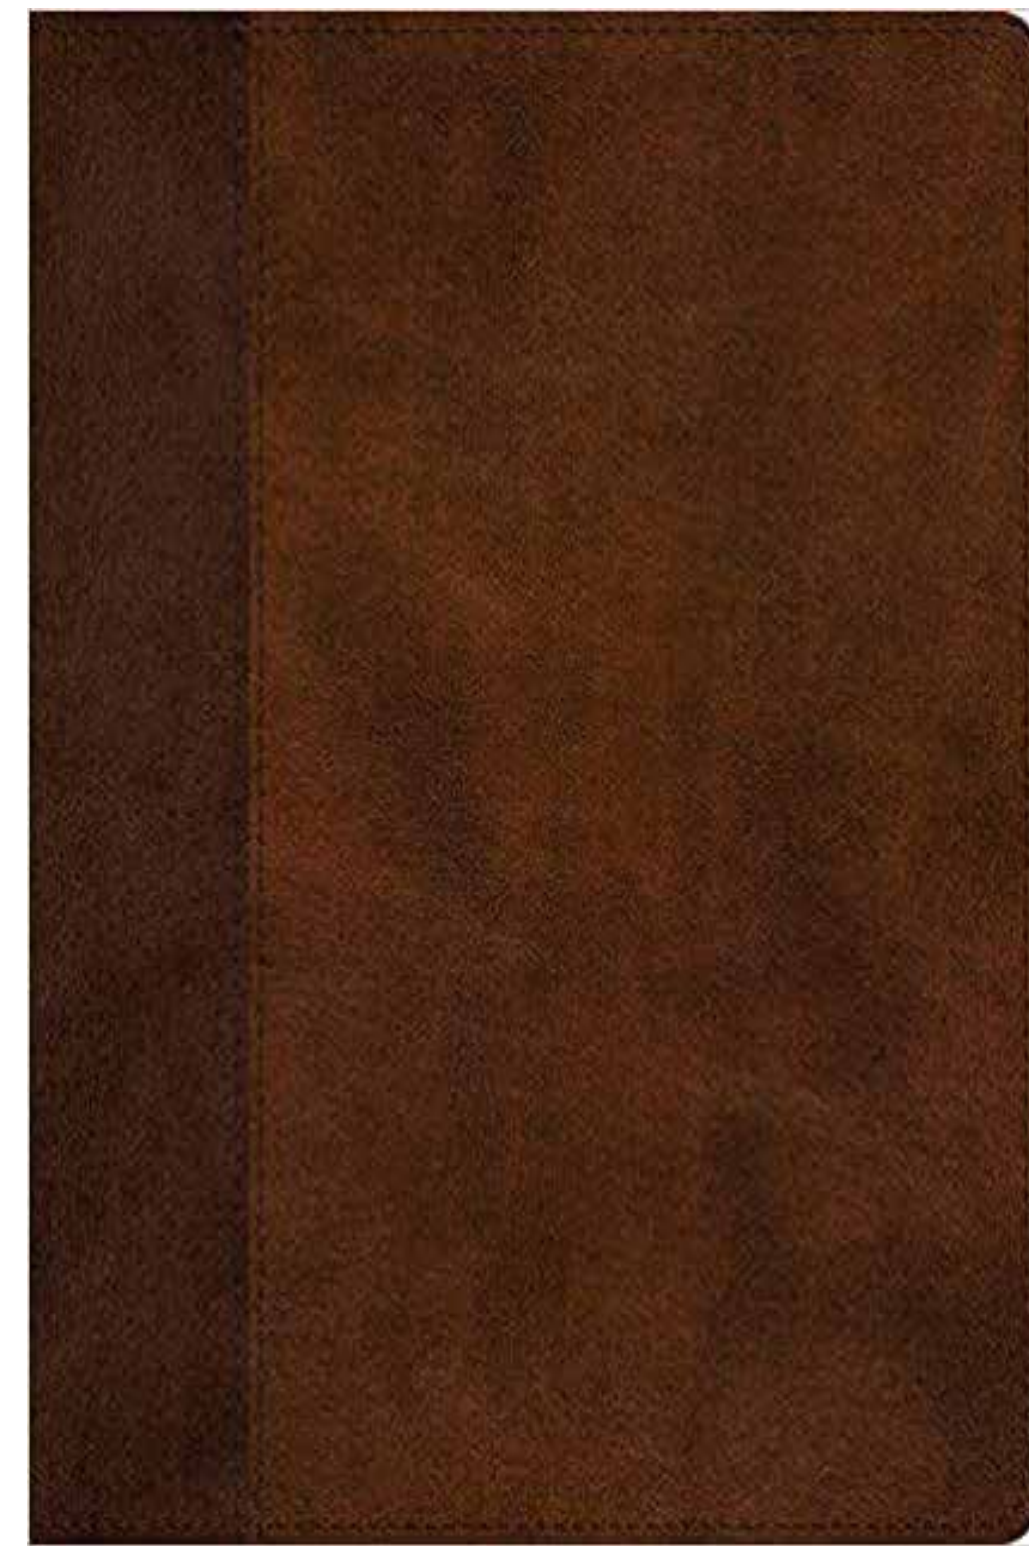

How can churches and missionaries address the urgent need to reach unreached people without falling for quick fixes?

In No Shortcut to Success, author and missionary Matt Rhodes implores Christians to stop chasing silver-bullet strategies and short-term missions, and instead embrace theologically robust and historically demonstrated methods of evangelism and discipleship—the same ones used by historic figures such as William Carey and Adoniram Judson. These great missionaries didn’t rush evangelism; they spent time studying Scripture, mastering foreign languages, and building long-term relationships.

Rhodes explains that modern missionaries’ emphasis on minimal training and quick conversions can result in slipshod evangelism that harms the communities they intend to help.

He also warns against underestimating the value of individual skill and effort—under the guise of “getting out of the Lord’s way”—and empowers Christians with practical, biblical steps to proactively engage unreached groups.

Description

Who are the Puritans? Why are they important for me today?

If you have asked questions like these and still await adequate answers, this book is for you. 'Following God Fully' provides a basic introduction to the Puritans that reveals a people intent on pursuing God with all their heart, soul, mind, and strength.

Joel R. Beeke and Michael Reeves introduce us to nine Puritan stalwarts that we should all be familiar with. Then they show us the practical contribution the Puritans made in discussing doctrines related to God, salvation, church, and daily life. Read this book and be moved to following God fully like the Puritans.

Puritans featured: Thomas Goodwin, John Owen, John Flavel, John Bunyan, Jonathan Edwards, Matthew Henry, Richard Sibbes, John Elliot and William Perkins.

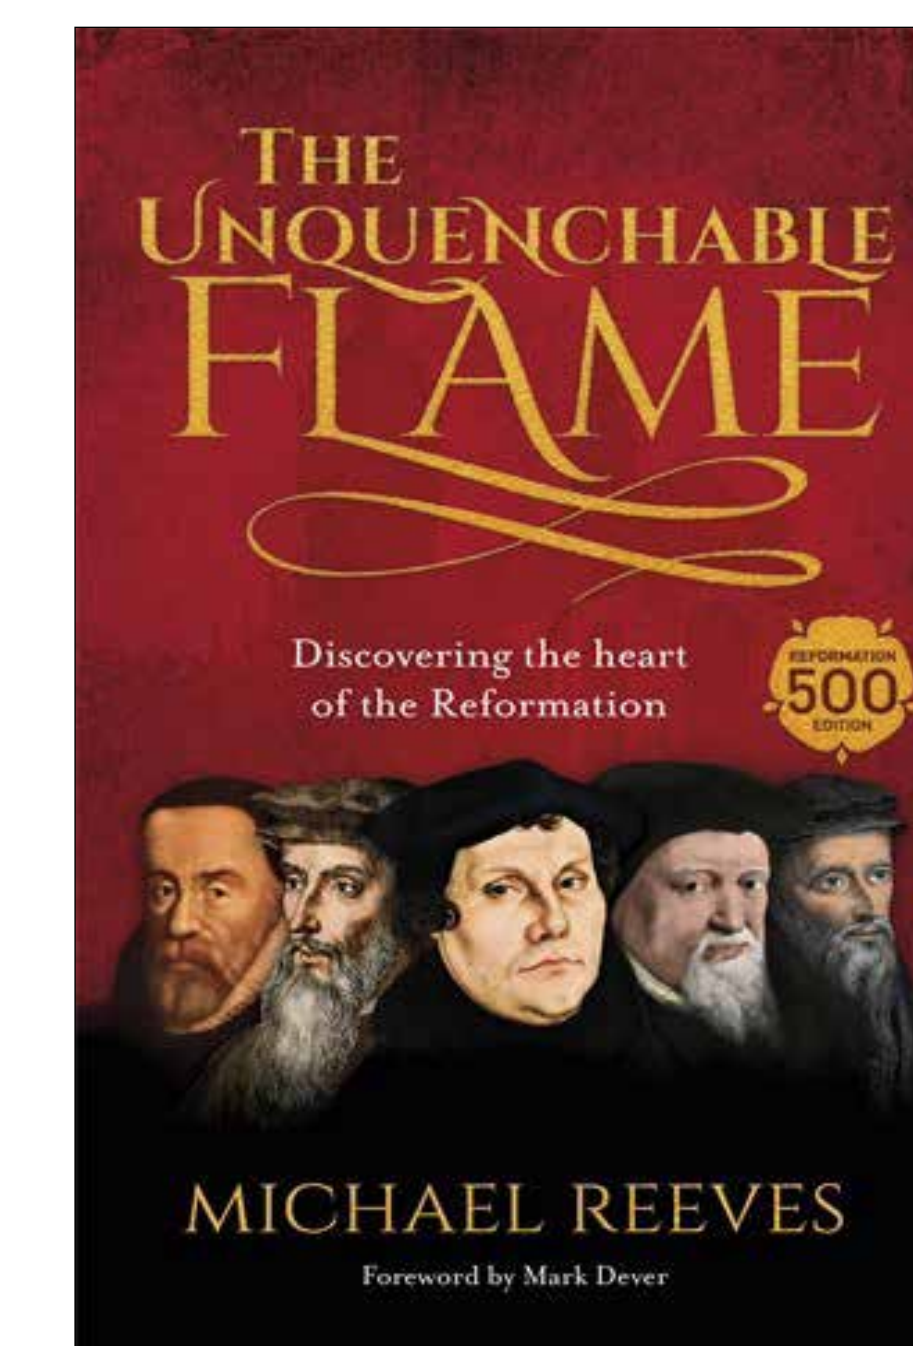

"Anytime Joel Beeke and Michael Reeves collaborate to write about the Puritans, it immediately becomes a must-read for all. These two prominent scholars combine their strengths to write in their field of expertise about our forefathers of the faith. You will find this book easily accessible to those new to the Puritans yet extremely insightful for those well studied in these spiritual stalwarts. Be prepared to be greatly edified and encouraged by this brilliant book." — Steven J. Lawson, president, OnePassion Ministries

About the Authors

Joel R. Beeke is president and professor of systematic theology and homiletics at Puritan Reformed Theological Seminary, Grand Rapids, Michigan.

Michael Reeves is president and professor of theology at Union School of Theology, Oxford, UK.

Genre: Bible Commentaries NT
Distribution: UK & Europe

Second Timothy encourages pastors to guard, entrust, suffer for, and above all, preach the gospel. Yet it is also full of encouragement for Christians living in a hostile world.

Like Timothy, we need reminding that “God has not given us a spirit of fear, but of power and of love and of a sound mind.” We need to “be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus” and confident in the Scriptures, which are “given by inspiration of God.”

And we need to hope in Christ’s return, when He will award the crown of righteousness “to all who have loved His appearing.”

Michael G. Brown’s exposition of 2 Timothy is not only Christ-centred, redemptive-historical, and gospel focused, but also packed with pastoral and practical application.

Title: Natural Theology
Author: Geerhardus Vos
Price: £19.99*
Product Code: 9781601789082
Format: Hard Cover
Genre: Doctrine & Theology
Distribution: UK & Europe

Biblical and natural theology may not appear to mix, but the two actually do belong together.

Vos’s reputation as the father of contemporary biblical theology is not negated by his earlier teaching of natural theology, appearing here for the first time in English.

Gathered from source material found in the Heritage Hall archives at Calvin Seminary and University, these are the earliest notes of Vos’s lectures on natural theology. They demonstrate his understanding of Reformed orthodox approaches as well as extensive knowledge of contemporary developments in the subject.

The present volume could be regarded as, and may have formed, a partial introduction to Reformed Dogmatics since it lacks a prolegomenon and because Natural Theology discusses religion and the proofs for the existence of God.

 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Spiritual Growth
 Distribution: UK & Europe

Following Jesus is like running a race. But it's a marathon, not a sprint.

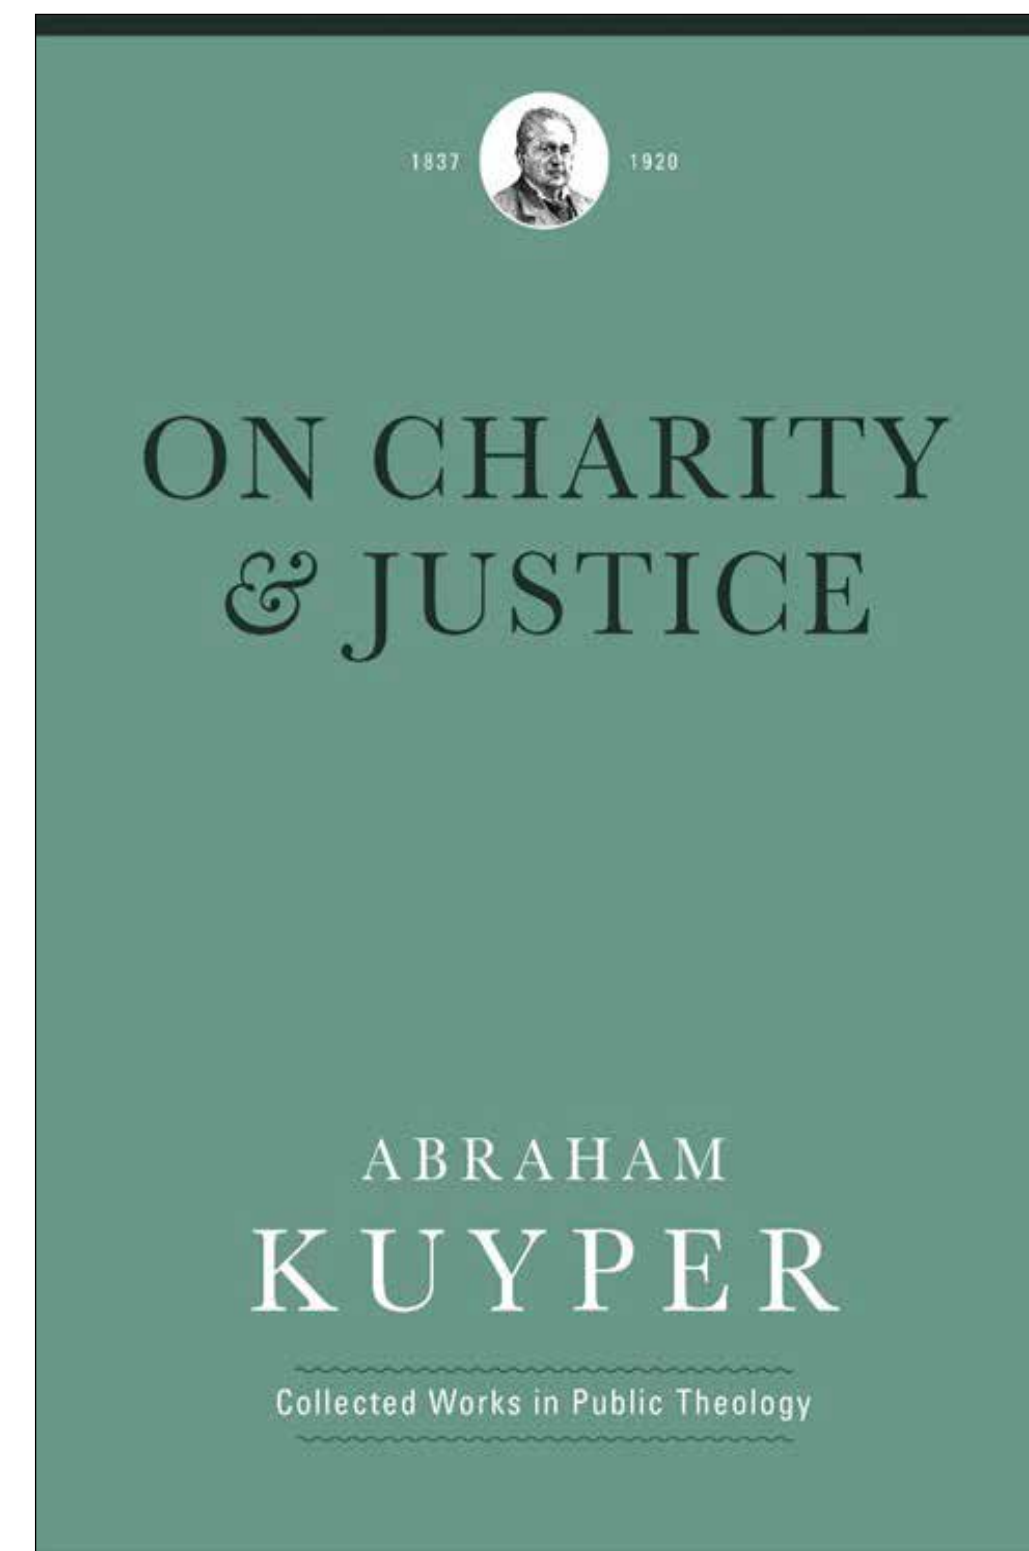

While we prefer to live in the immediate, our God is not. After quick fixes, His ways and His timetable are better. He wants to make us like Christ, and that takes a lifetime.

So how do we run the race with endurance?

In Endure, Daniel Ritchie explores how God's people run well. Within this book, you will find direction and encouragement for how to trust God in every year, every day, and every minute.

You are loved by God. And specific attitudes and habits will build your faith and connect you to God's love.

Learn how the seemingly mundane choices can be the most important—for your good and God's glory.

Title: On Charity and Justice
 Author: Abraham Kuyper
 Price: £39.99*
 Product Code: 9781577996736
 Format: Hard Cover
 Genre: Doctrine & Theology
 Distribution: UK & Europe

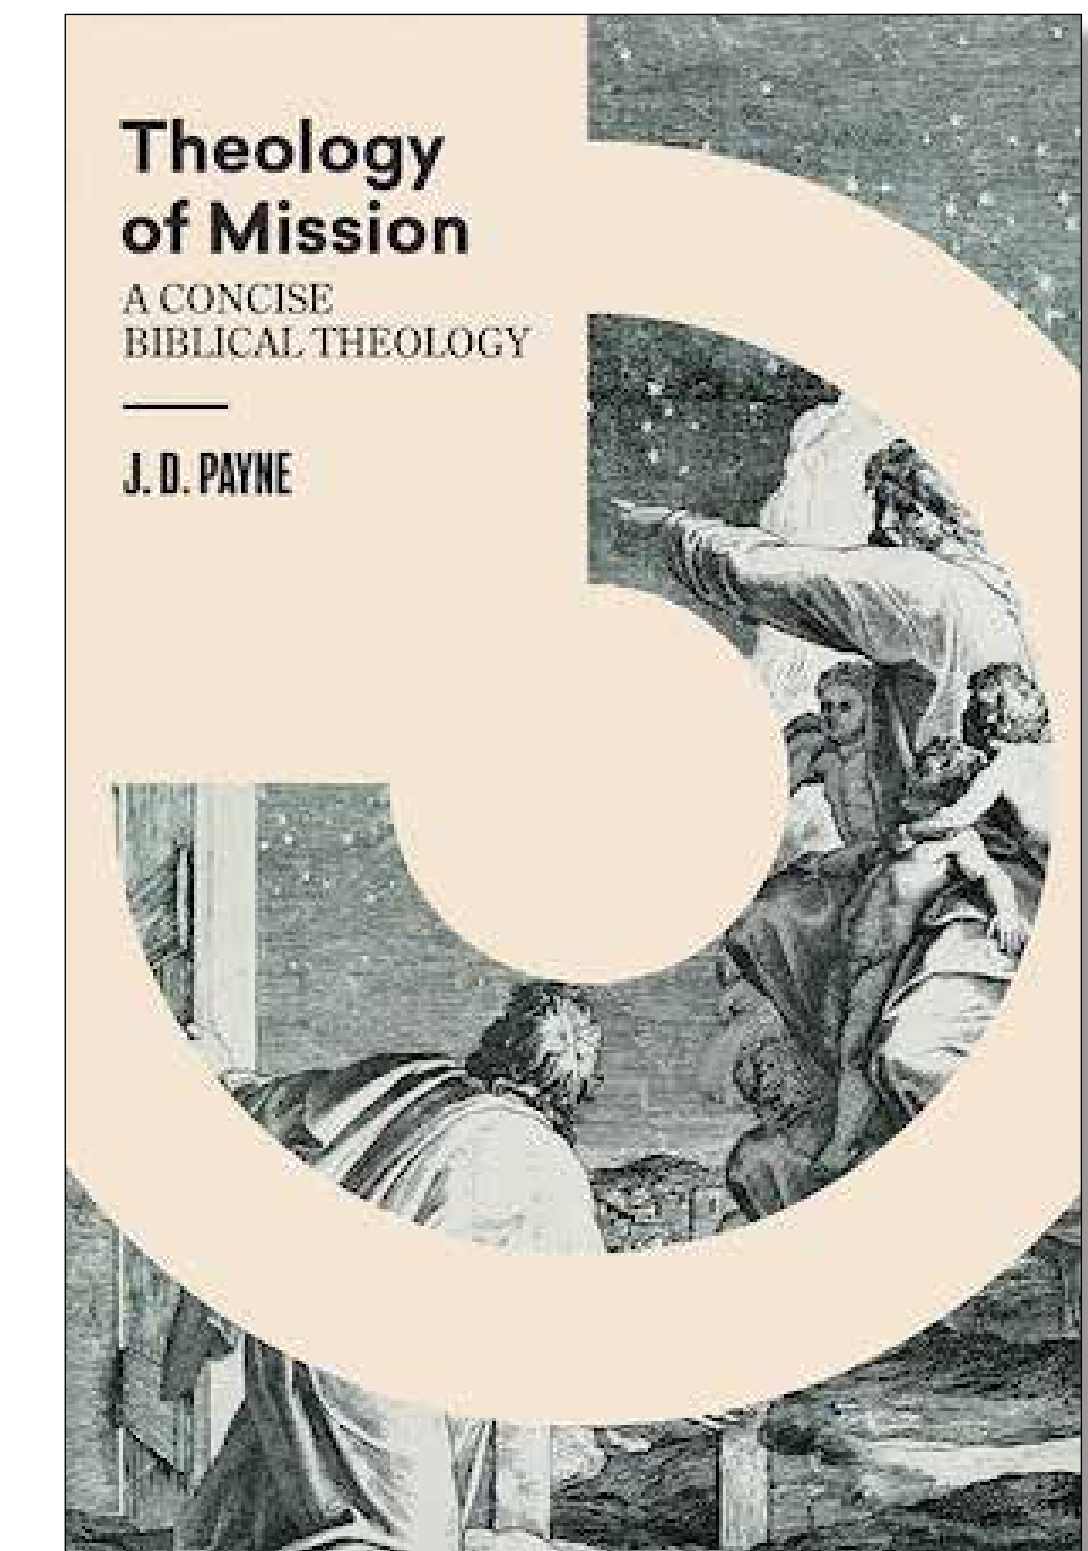

The practical outworking of Kuyper's doctrine of common grace demanded a commitment to seeking Christ's glory in every sphere of human life.

Christians are called to witness to the lordship of Christ through sacrificial service, not domination, and such service calls us to seek charity and justice for all people.

In this anthology of articles and reflections, Kuyper articulates a Christian vision for engaging with society. Though his analysis was intended for his late-nineteenth-century Dutch context, his thoughts remain strikingly relevant for Christians living in the modern world.

For Kuyper, God's law preserved civil justice, making humane life possible. However, the law itself could not save society—only the gospel can transform the heart. But the gospel is for all of life.

Kuyper elaborated a social Christian approach to politics, resulting in a distinct perspective on property, human dignity, democracy, and justice.

Title: Theology of Mission: A Concise Biblical Theology
 Author: J. D. Payne
 Price: £19.99*
 Product Code: 9781683595724
 Format: Hard Cover
 Genre: Missions
 Distribution: UK & Europe

In Theology of Mission: A Concise Biblical Theology, J. D. Payne traces the theme of mission throughout Scripture.

The Bible is a story of God's mission. God takes initiative to dwell with humanity. He desires to be known.

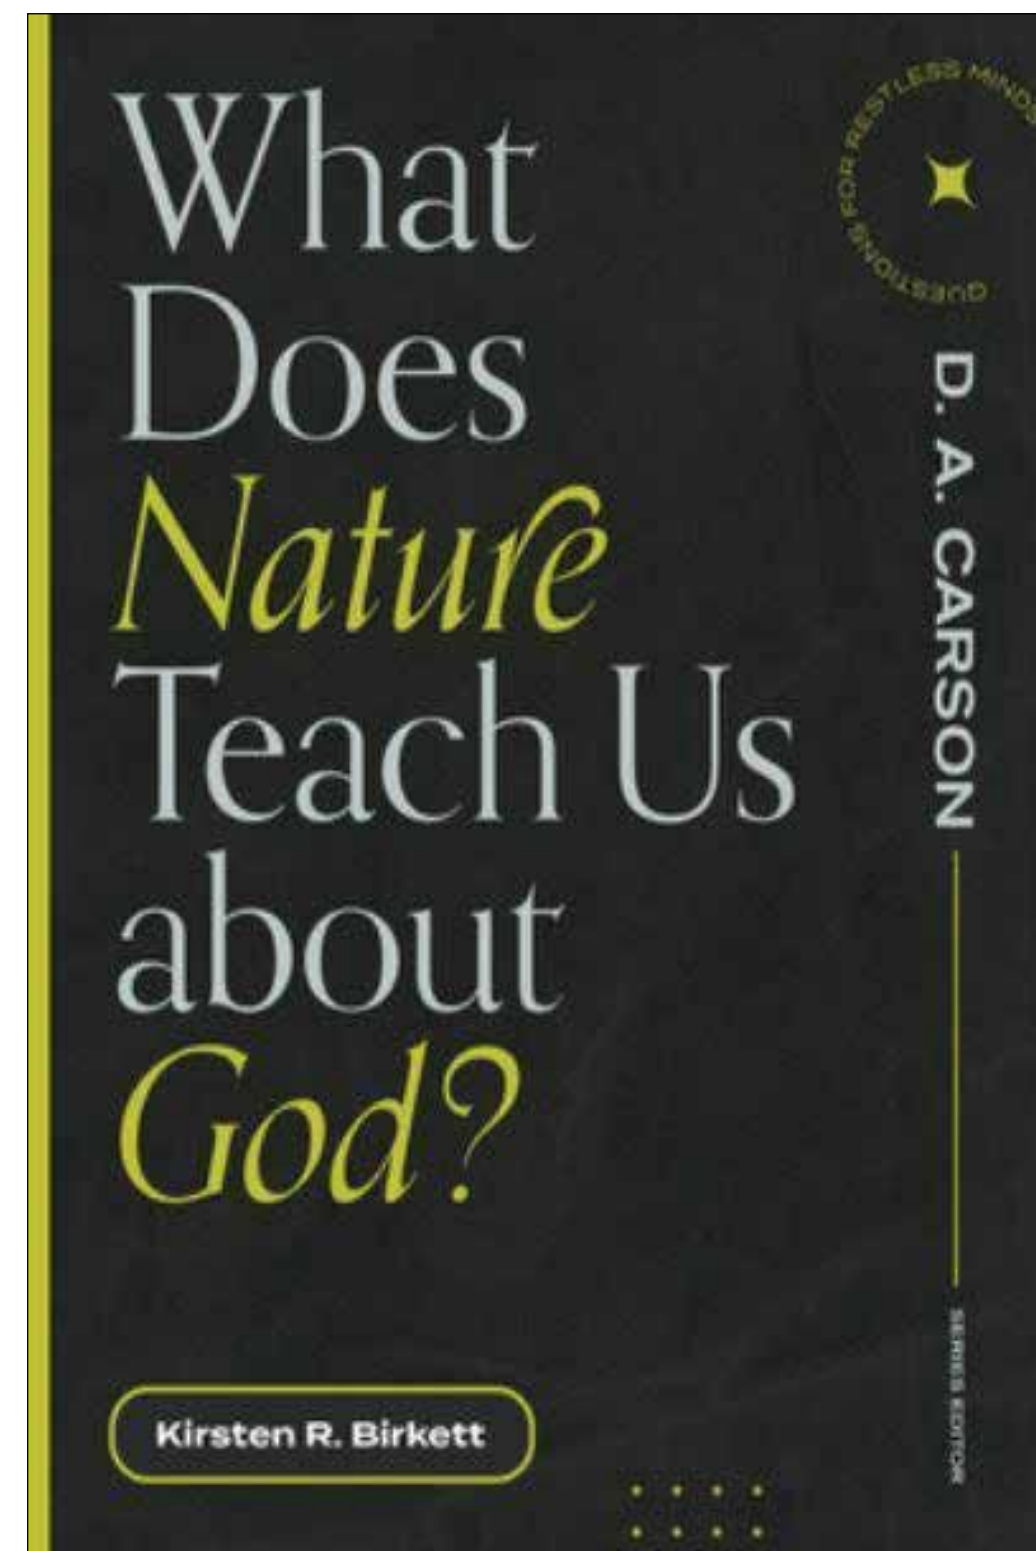

To this end, he sends and is sent.

Through Christ, God redeems sinful humans and recreates the cosmos. And he has invited his people to join in this mission.

Payne shows that God's mission is on every page of the Bible and is foundational to the church's own existence.

With reflection questions following concise chapters, all readers can consider their place in God's work.

 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Apologetics
 Distribution: UK & Europe

You can trust your Bible. Was the Bible born of a giant conspiracy?

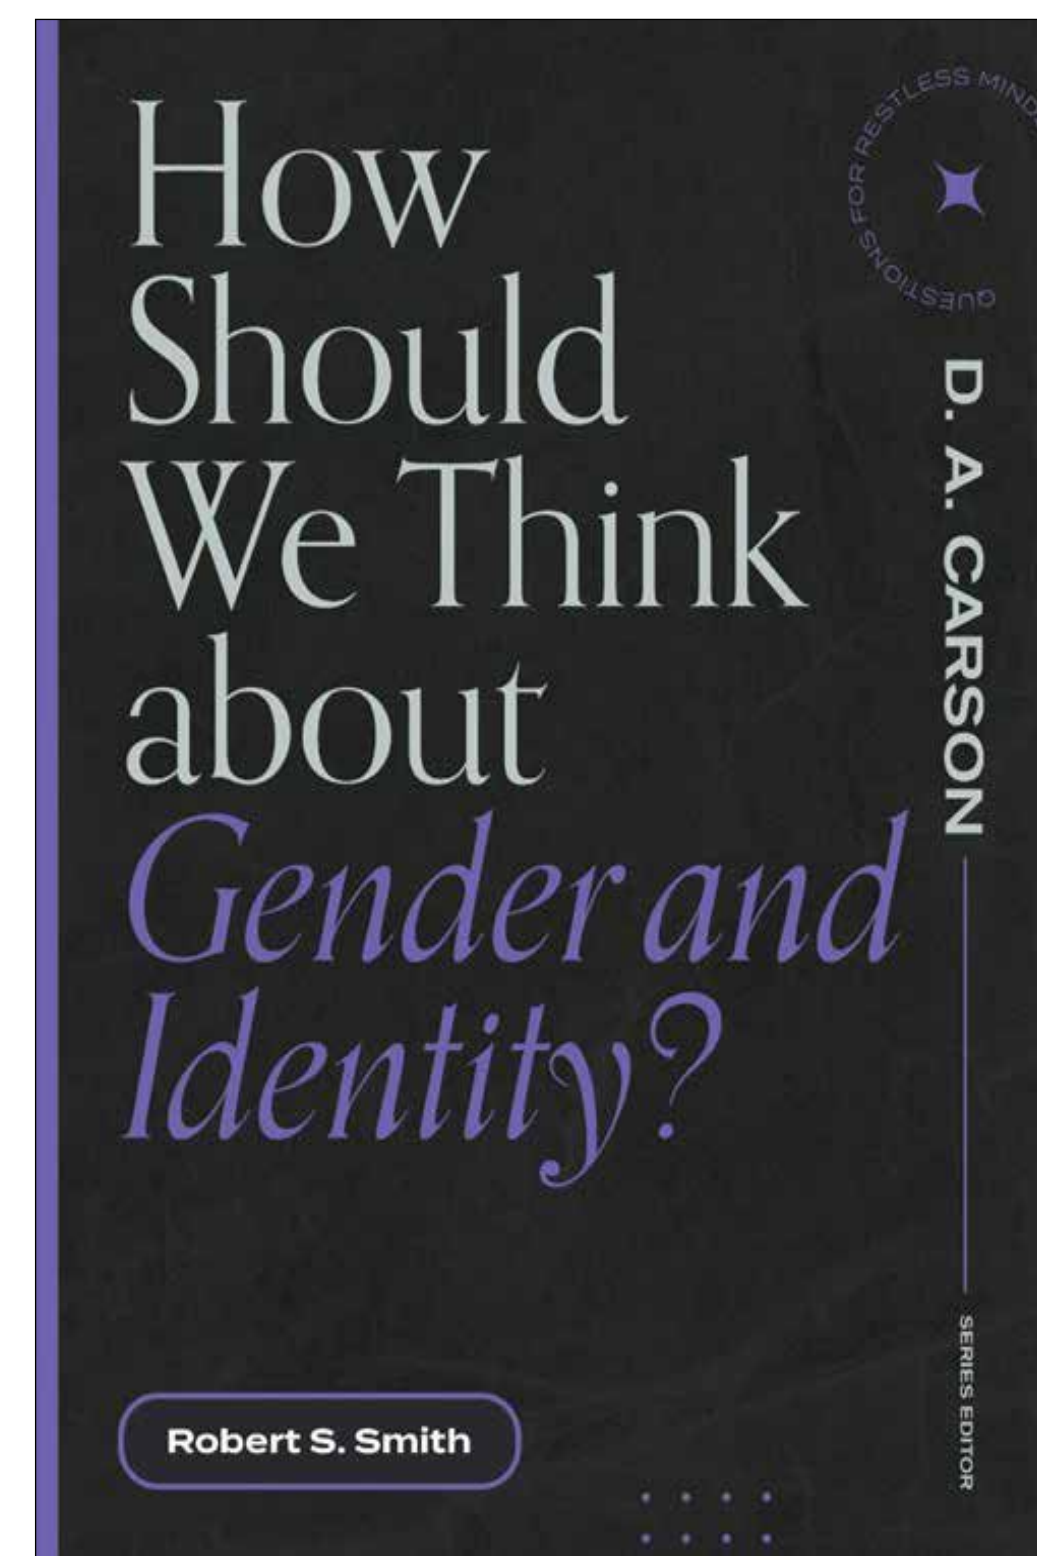

Many believe that the Bible was created as an instrument of domination by the Roman emperor Constantine and corrupt bishops seduced by political power. These men were not preserving orthodox Christianity. They were simply the winners—and thus the writers—of history.

Is this Christianity's dirty secret?

In Who Chose the Books of the New Testament?, Charles E. Hill examines the ancient evidence behind the formation of the New Testament. Hill retraces the origins of the canon and why certain books were privileged and others neglected.

He concludes that the New Testament was inherited, not chosen. The early church preserved and proclaimed what they received.

Learn how you got your Bible.

Speak with biblical clarity on gender and identity.

Can someone be born with the wrong body? This question raises moral, social, and legal implications. Do you have a biblical response?

In How Should We Think about Gender and Identity?, Robert S. Smith recognizes that to properly respond, we must first understand. Smith first defines terms and outlines the history and current debates around transgender.

God's word is brought to bear, including its perspective on creation and sin, sex and gender, and body and soul.

Learn how you can thoughtfully engage the debate with conviction and display the love of Jesus to your transgender neighbour.

 Author: Mark A. Yarhouse
 Price: £7.99*
 Product Code: 9781683595236
 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Contemporary Social Issues
 Distribution: UK & Europe

Gain an informed perspective on Christianity and homosexuality.

There are many misconceptions about Christianity and homosexuality. Christians are often perceived as being simply reactionary or behind the times. We can sometimes speak where we do not understand.

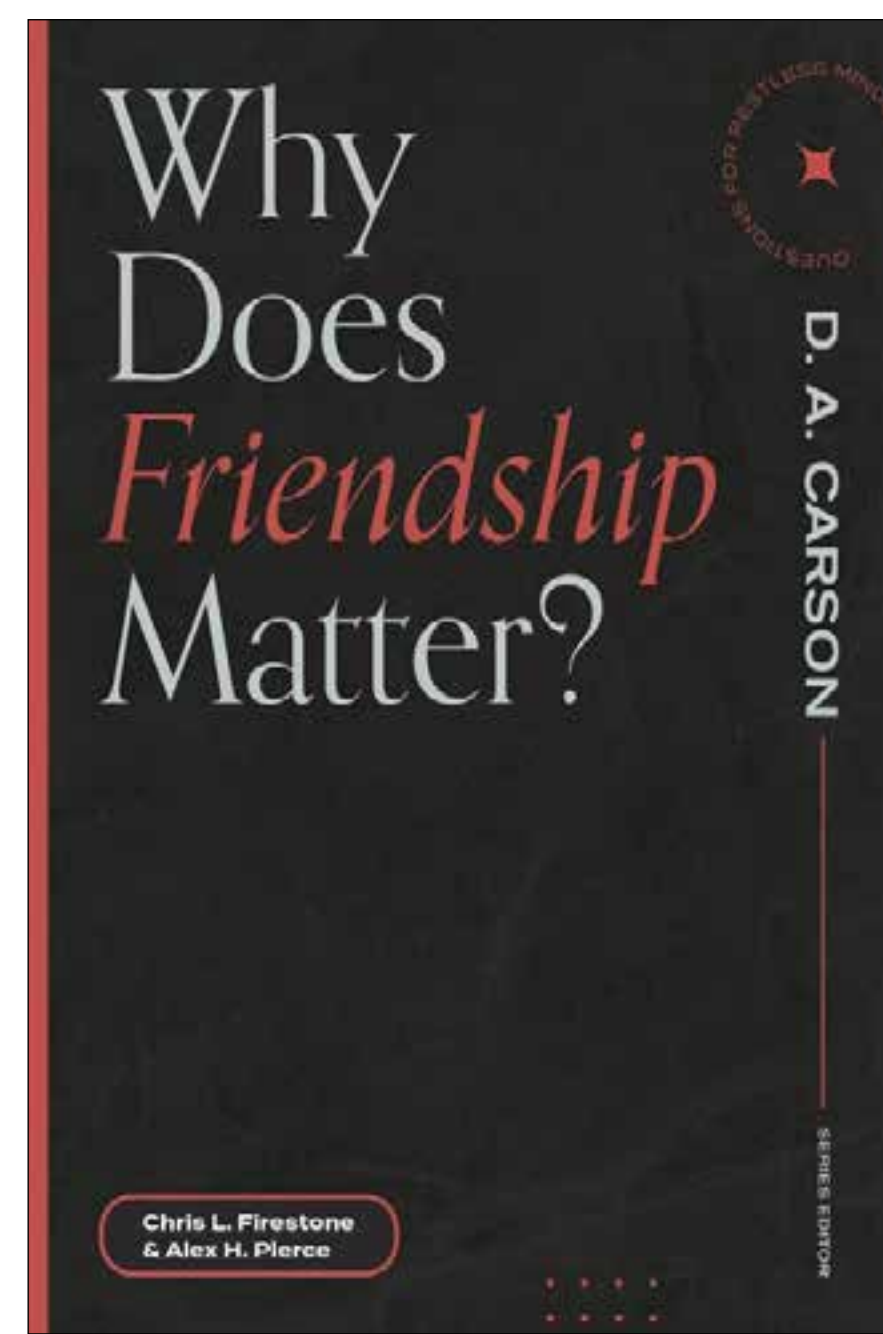

We can do better. Do you have an informed and biblical view on homosexuality?

In How Should We Think About Homosexuality?, Mark A. Yarhouse brings his expertise to bear on this question. If we are to speak with clarity and conviction, we must first be informed.

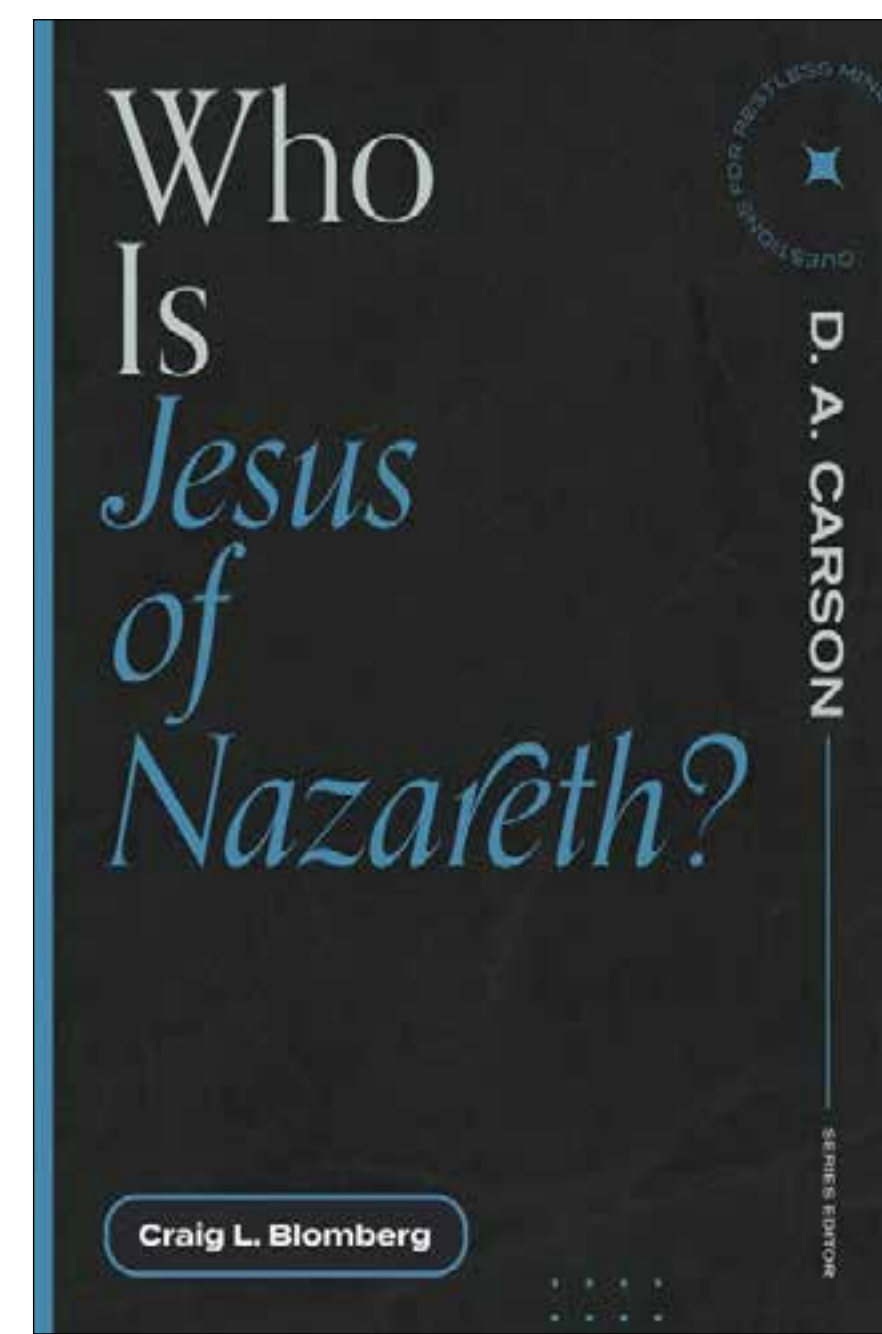

Christianity has long held a sexual ethic regarding creation, family, and sexuality, and Christians must know how to relate to other views of sexuality.

Yarhouse considers how to think about recent scientific findings and sexual identity language before suggesting avenues of fruitful discipleship for same-sex attracted Christians.

From the first page of the Bible, we encounter a God who is sovereign. By His power and authority, He created the world and governs it to accomplish His plans.

But is God sovereign over everything that happens—even our salvation? And if He is, do our choices even matter?

In this booklet, Dr. R.C. Sproul demonstrates that the sovereignty of God extends to all things, from creation to redemption.

Rather than erasing our responsibility, God's absolute power and complete authority are what enable us to know Him, obey His Word, and tell others about His saving grace.

The Crucial Questions booklet series by Dr. R.C. Sproul offers succinct answers to important questions often asked by Christians and thoughtful inquirers.

With all the suffering and evil in the world, where is God? This can be an important question for Christians to grapple with. It is also a common accusation that seeks to undermine our faith.

How should we respond to skeptics and comfort sufferers when questions about evil arise?

In this booklet, Dr. R.C. Sproul addresses the problem of evil, examining how Christians have wrestled with these questions through the ages. Together with them, we can have confidence in the God who is in control of this world and is working all things in it for our good.

The Crucial Questions booklet series by Dr. R.C. Sproul offers succinct answers to important questions often asked by Christians and thoughtful inquirers.

Description

You overcome the fear of people when the fear of God becomes your priority.

This book will teach you to recognize the fear of man and how the enemy uses it to trap you and keep you from the purposes of God for your life. It will empower you to break free from this trap and live boldly, unafraid to trust God and His promises. When you care more about what people think than what God thinks, you will miss out on the opportunities God has for you. The Bible says, “The fear of man lays a snare” (Prov. 29:25). This type of fear is dangerous. It can get you into all kinds of trouble, and the enemy skillfully uses this weapon to keep you from fulfilling God’s purpose for your life. It can silence you when you should speak or paralyze you when you should take action. It affects far more Christians than you might think, but it doesn’t have to rule your life anymore.

So how can you be freed from this trap? The fear of God leads to wisdom and worship, and there are two ways it comes to you:

- (1) it must be taught; and
- (2) the presence of God can bring fear as it did on the day of Pentecost and during the Great Awakening.

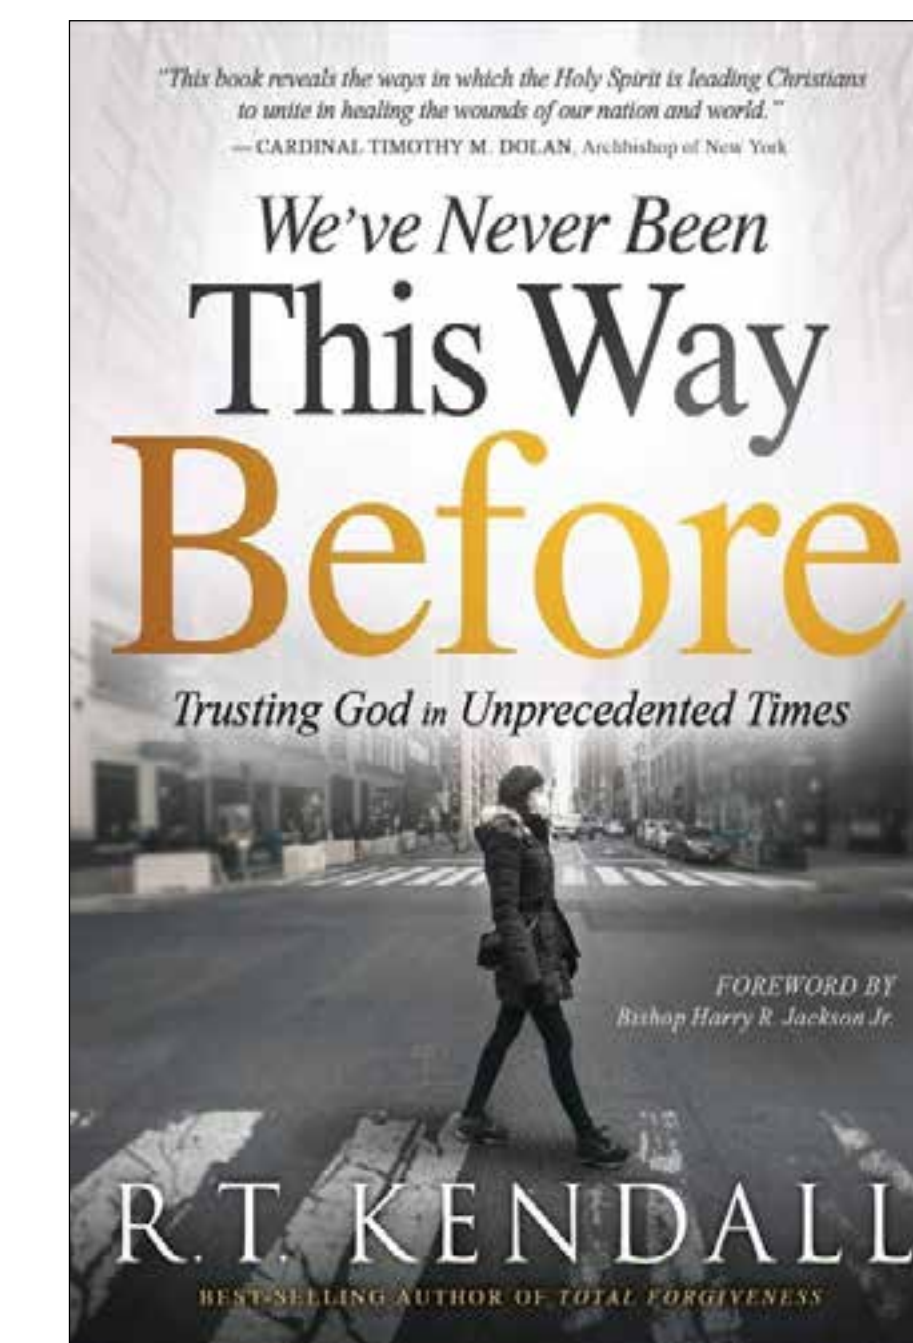

You also learn it as you step out in courage and choose to trust what God says in spite of what people say. As you do this, the fear of man loses its power over you.

Description

God has placed the next generation into our hands. Who will raise them up if the church does not?

This book will teach you how to effectively mentor the next generation of Christians. You will learn how to disciple others in their faith while getting outside of your comfort zone to increase your relationship with God.

If we want to change the world with the gospel, we must stop focusing on crowds and events and reclaim Jesus' method of relational discipleship. Jesus' final mandate to His followers was "Go and make disciples"—yet today most of the church is oblivious to what discipleship is, and few Christians are actually investing their lives in helping other believers grow spiritually. A vast paradigm shift is needed in the church today in order to reach the next generation and advance the gospel in the twenty-first century.

In 'Follow Me,' J. Lee Grady uses many New Testament examples, as well as his own experience in mentoring dozens of young leaders and a clear strategy for discipling others that can be used by individuals and churches. Grady makes a compelling case that Christianity was never intended to be a spectator sport where huge crowds sit and listen to one preacher on a Sunday. Jesus intended all believers to engage in ministry—and this includes the work of discipling other believers. So many Christians today live in a box of limitation.

We must understand that the Christian life is an adventure of the Holy Spirit working through them. This book will help believers get out of that box and begin the exciting adventure of spiritual multiplication.

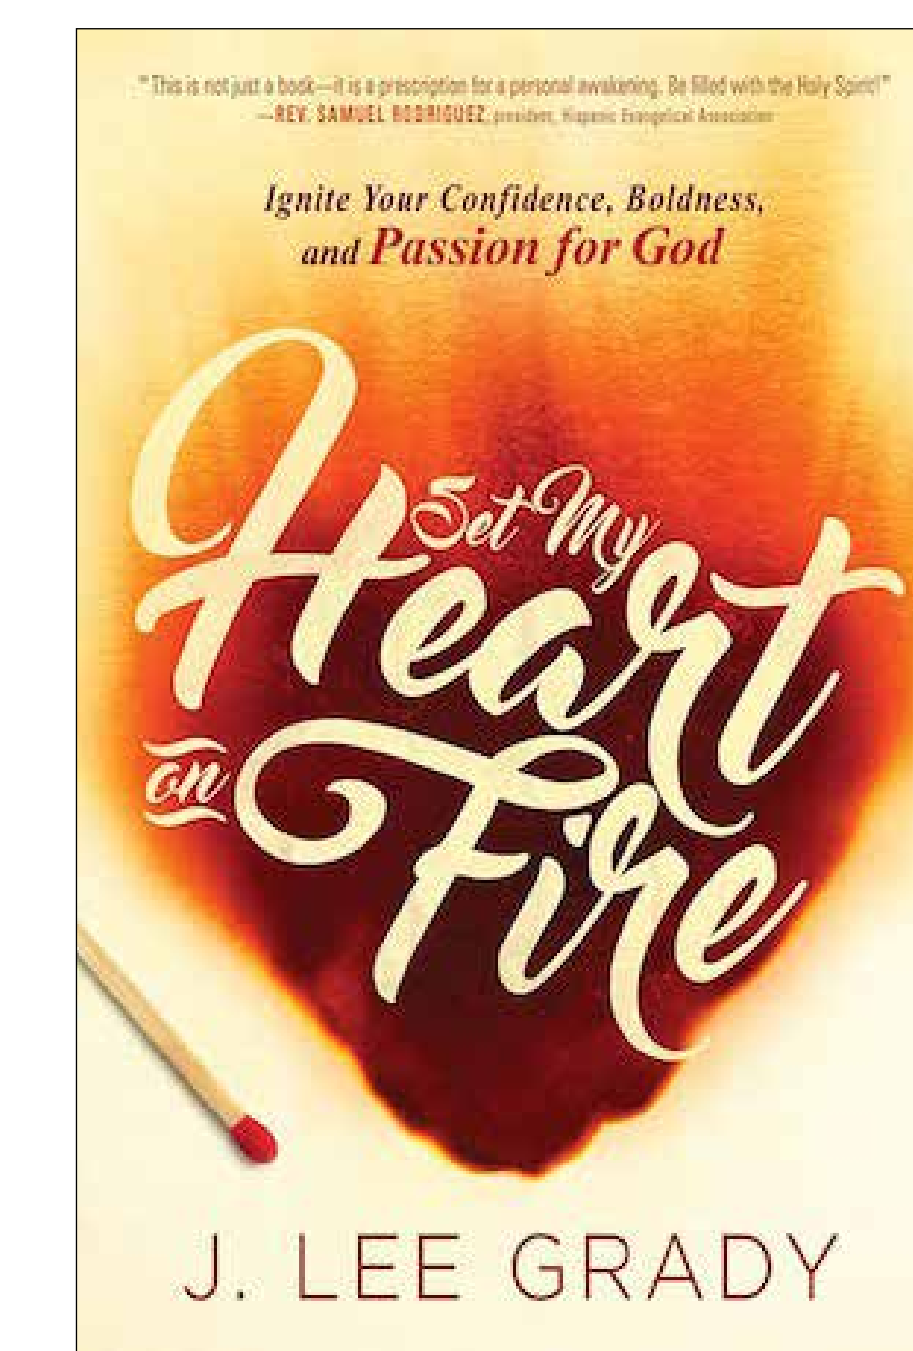

About the Author

J. Lee Grady is an author, award-winning journalist, ordained minister, and director of The Mordecai Project – an international ministry that confronts the abuse of women and challenges the church to release women into ministry.

He is the author of several books, including 'Ten Lies the Church Tells Women' and 'The Truth Sets Women Free'.

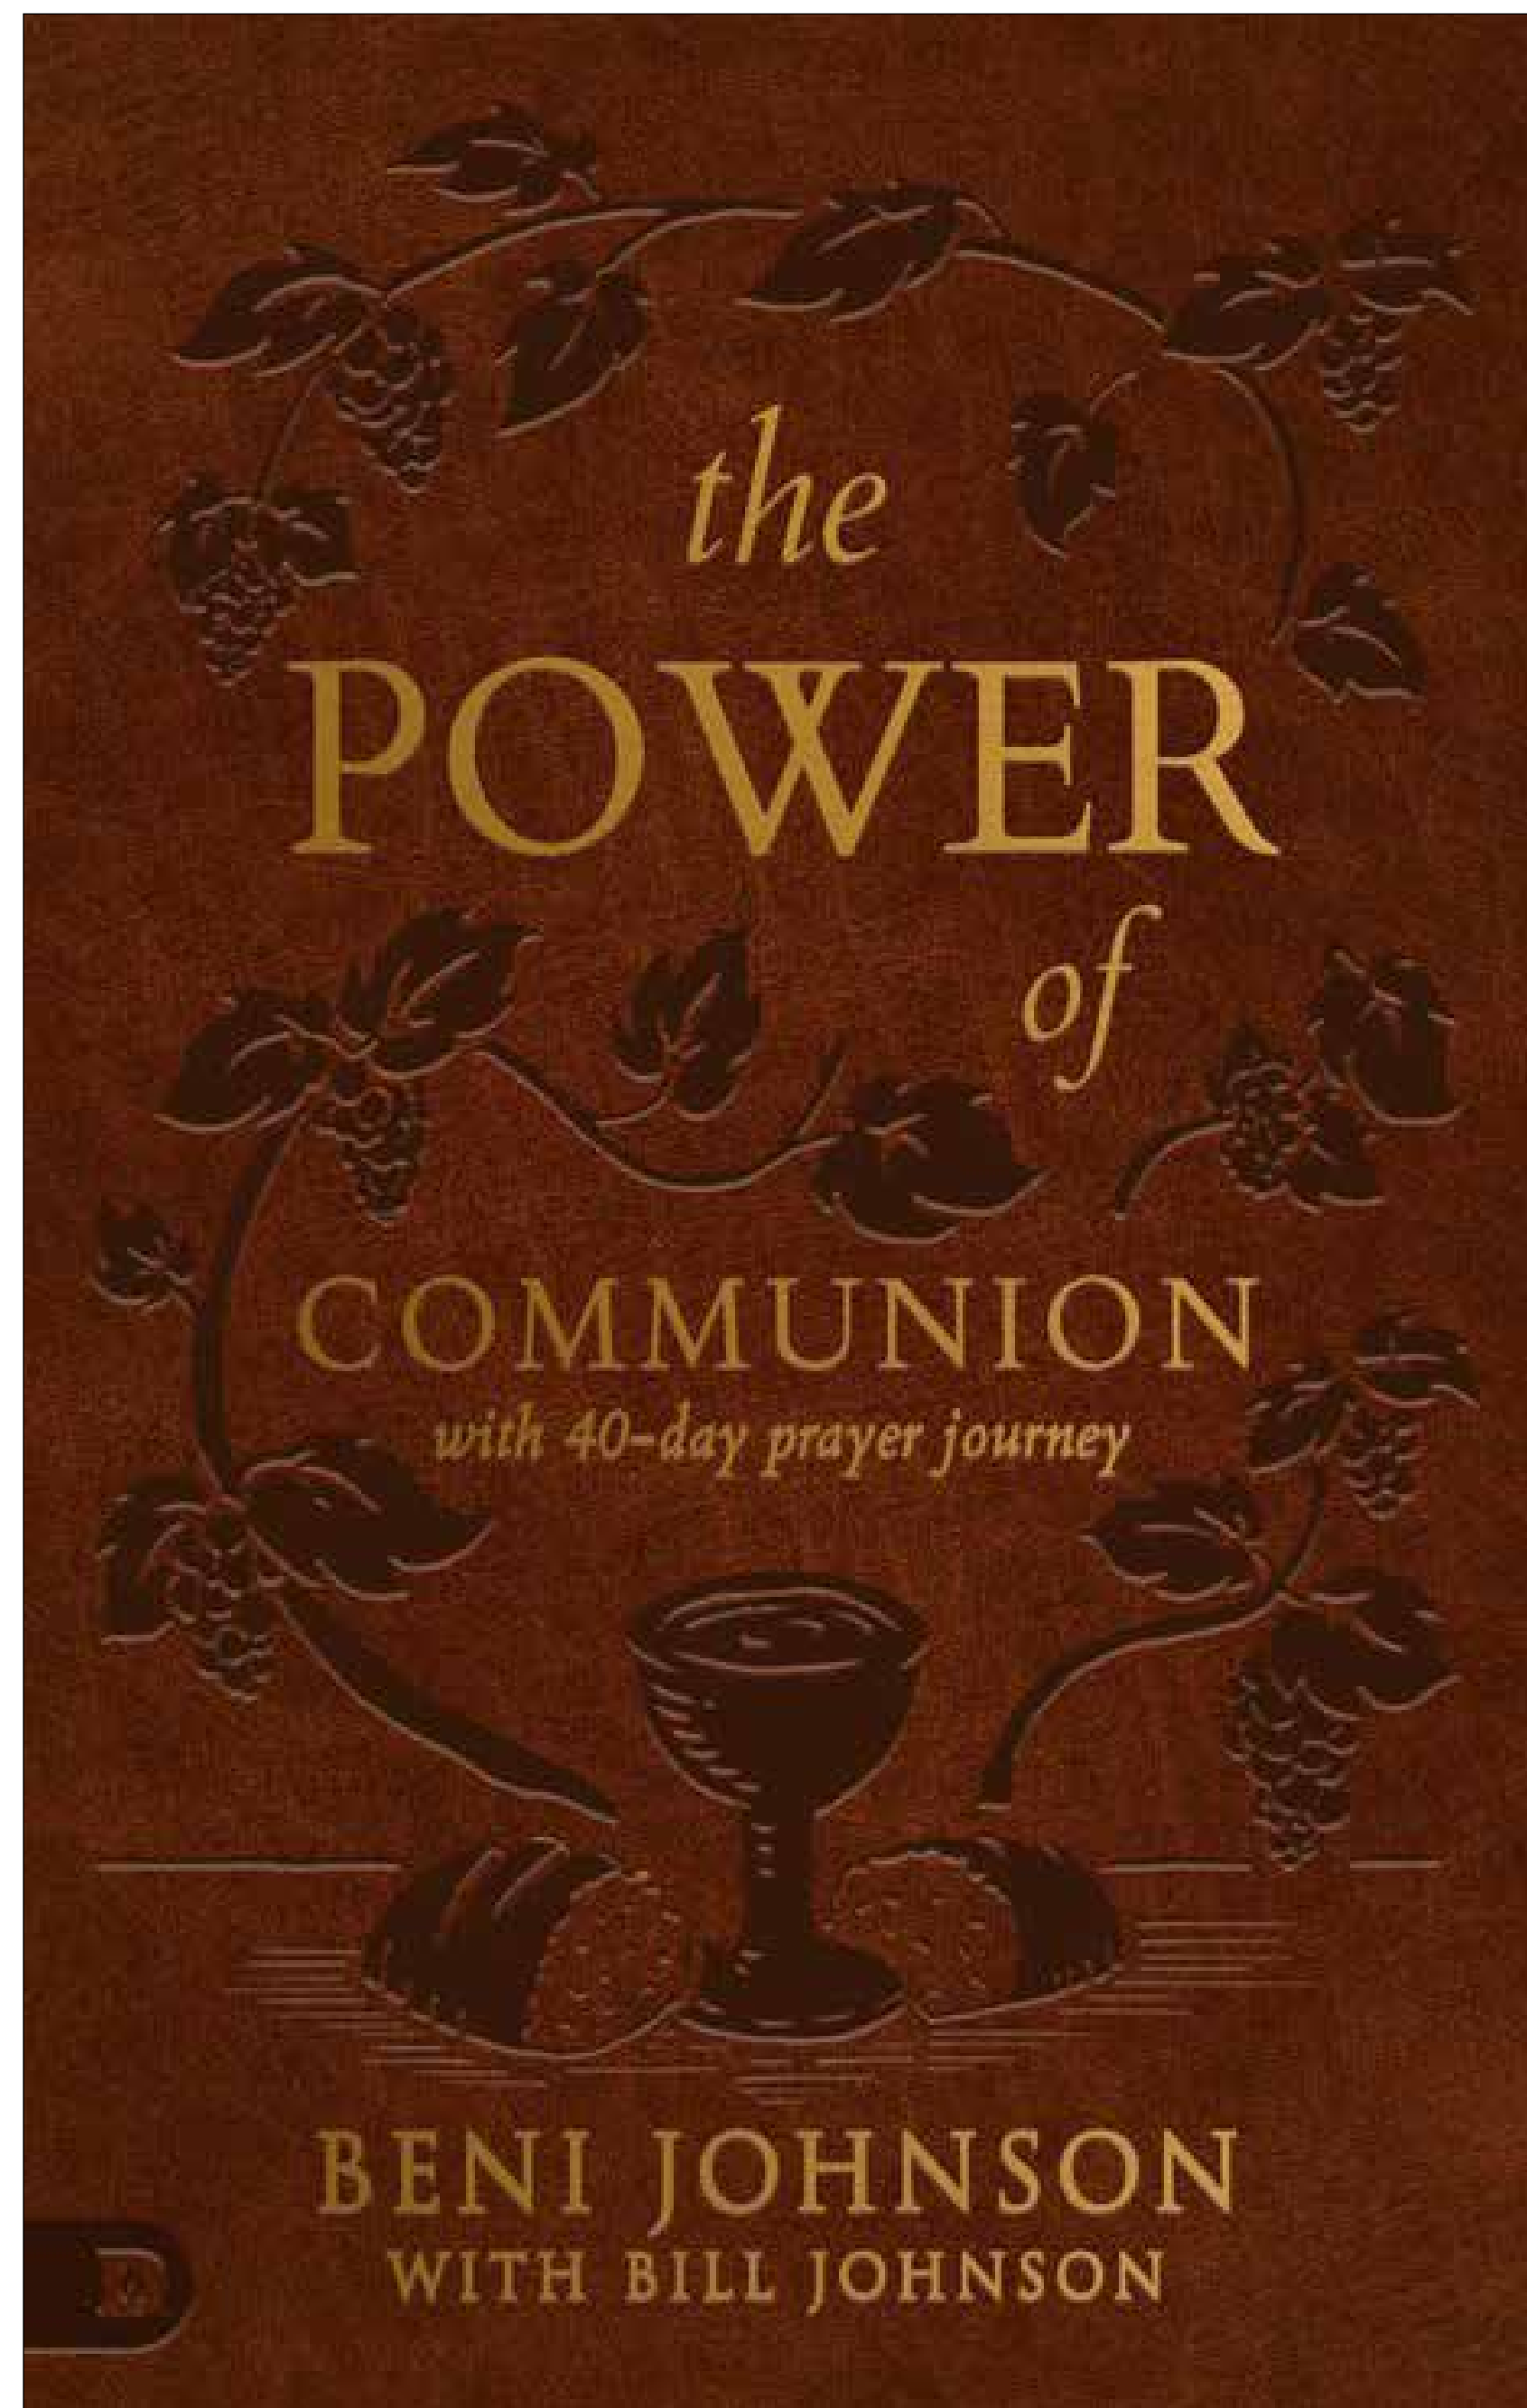

Grady and his wife, Deborah, have four daughters.

Description

Many Jesus-followers are sleepwalking through their Christian lives. They wear a smile, attend church gatherings, and try their best to make it through, but they don't really expect answered prayers, breakthroughs or miraculous change in their situations. Why? Disappointment and disillusionment. The Bible calls this "hope deferred." What we hoped for did not happen, and we are left with hopes and dreams that are dead. But remember: we serve the God of resurrection life and revival!

Robert Henderson is the bestselling author of the Courts of Heaven series, and in this latest book he challenges you to pray for miracle reversals in every situation that seems hopeless. Resurrection thunders as a verdict from the Court of Heaven, for it is God alone who gives life to the dead. This powerful new book will show you how to:

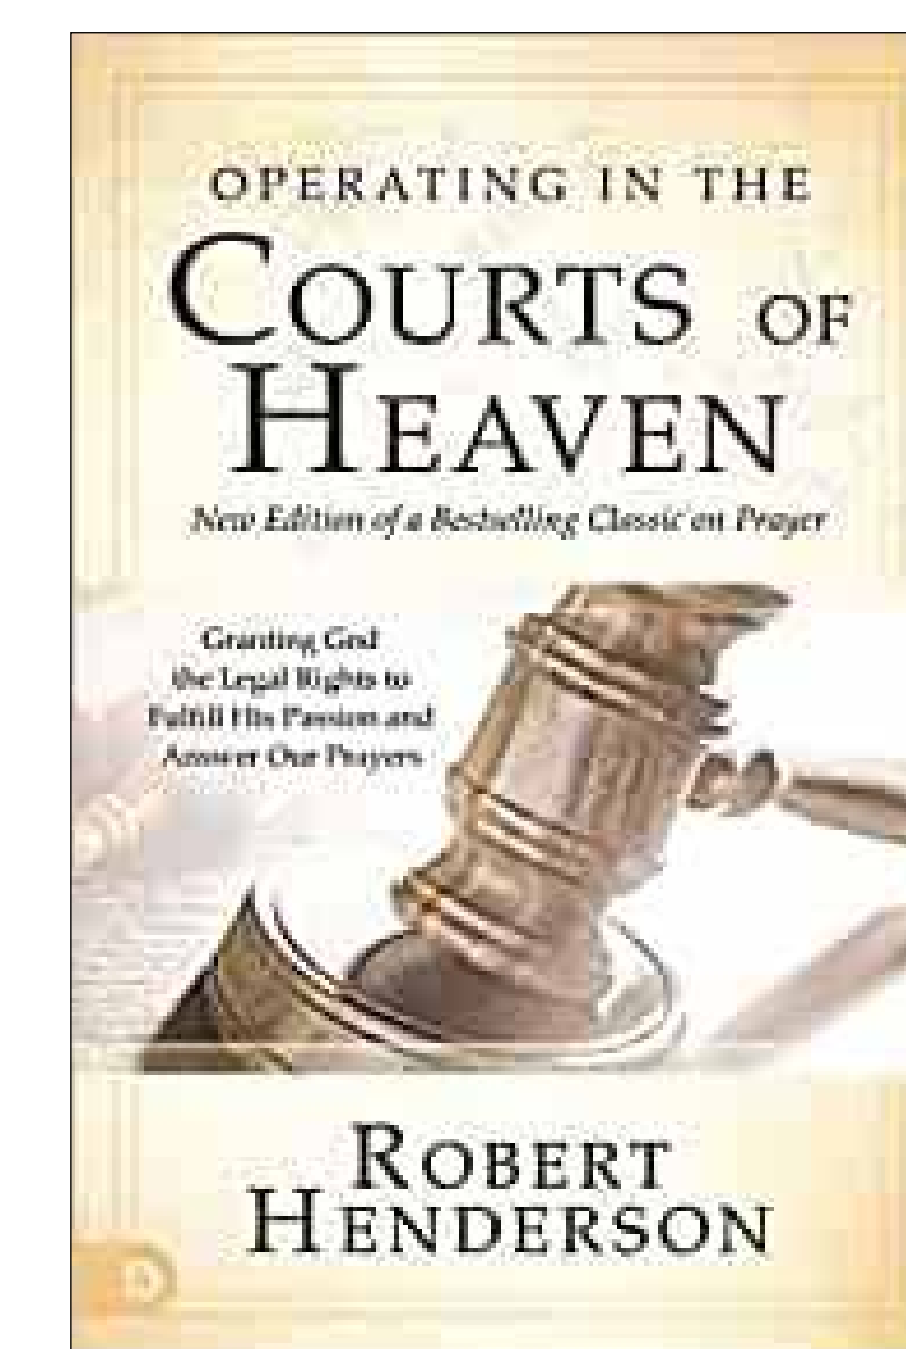

- Discover the Seven Secrets to seeing dead things revived in your life.
- Identify the spirit of sabotage in your life – and cancel its influence.
- Make "Lazarus Decrees" over those situations that Jesus wants to resurrect and revive.
- Dismantle the spirit of death – and stop it from impacting every area of your life.
- Receive stirring Biblical examples of resurrection power released into impossible situations.
- Break off the pain of disappointment and position yourself for answered prayer.

Resurrection is not a one-time event; it should be the default setting of the Christian life. We are filled with Jesus' resurrection life and power! We have been commissioned by the Resurrected Jesus to see his supernatural miracle power reverse any plan of the enemy that has sought to steal, kill and destroy.

About the Author

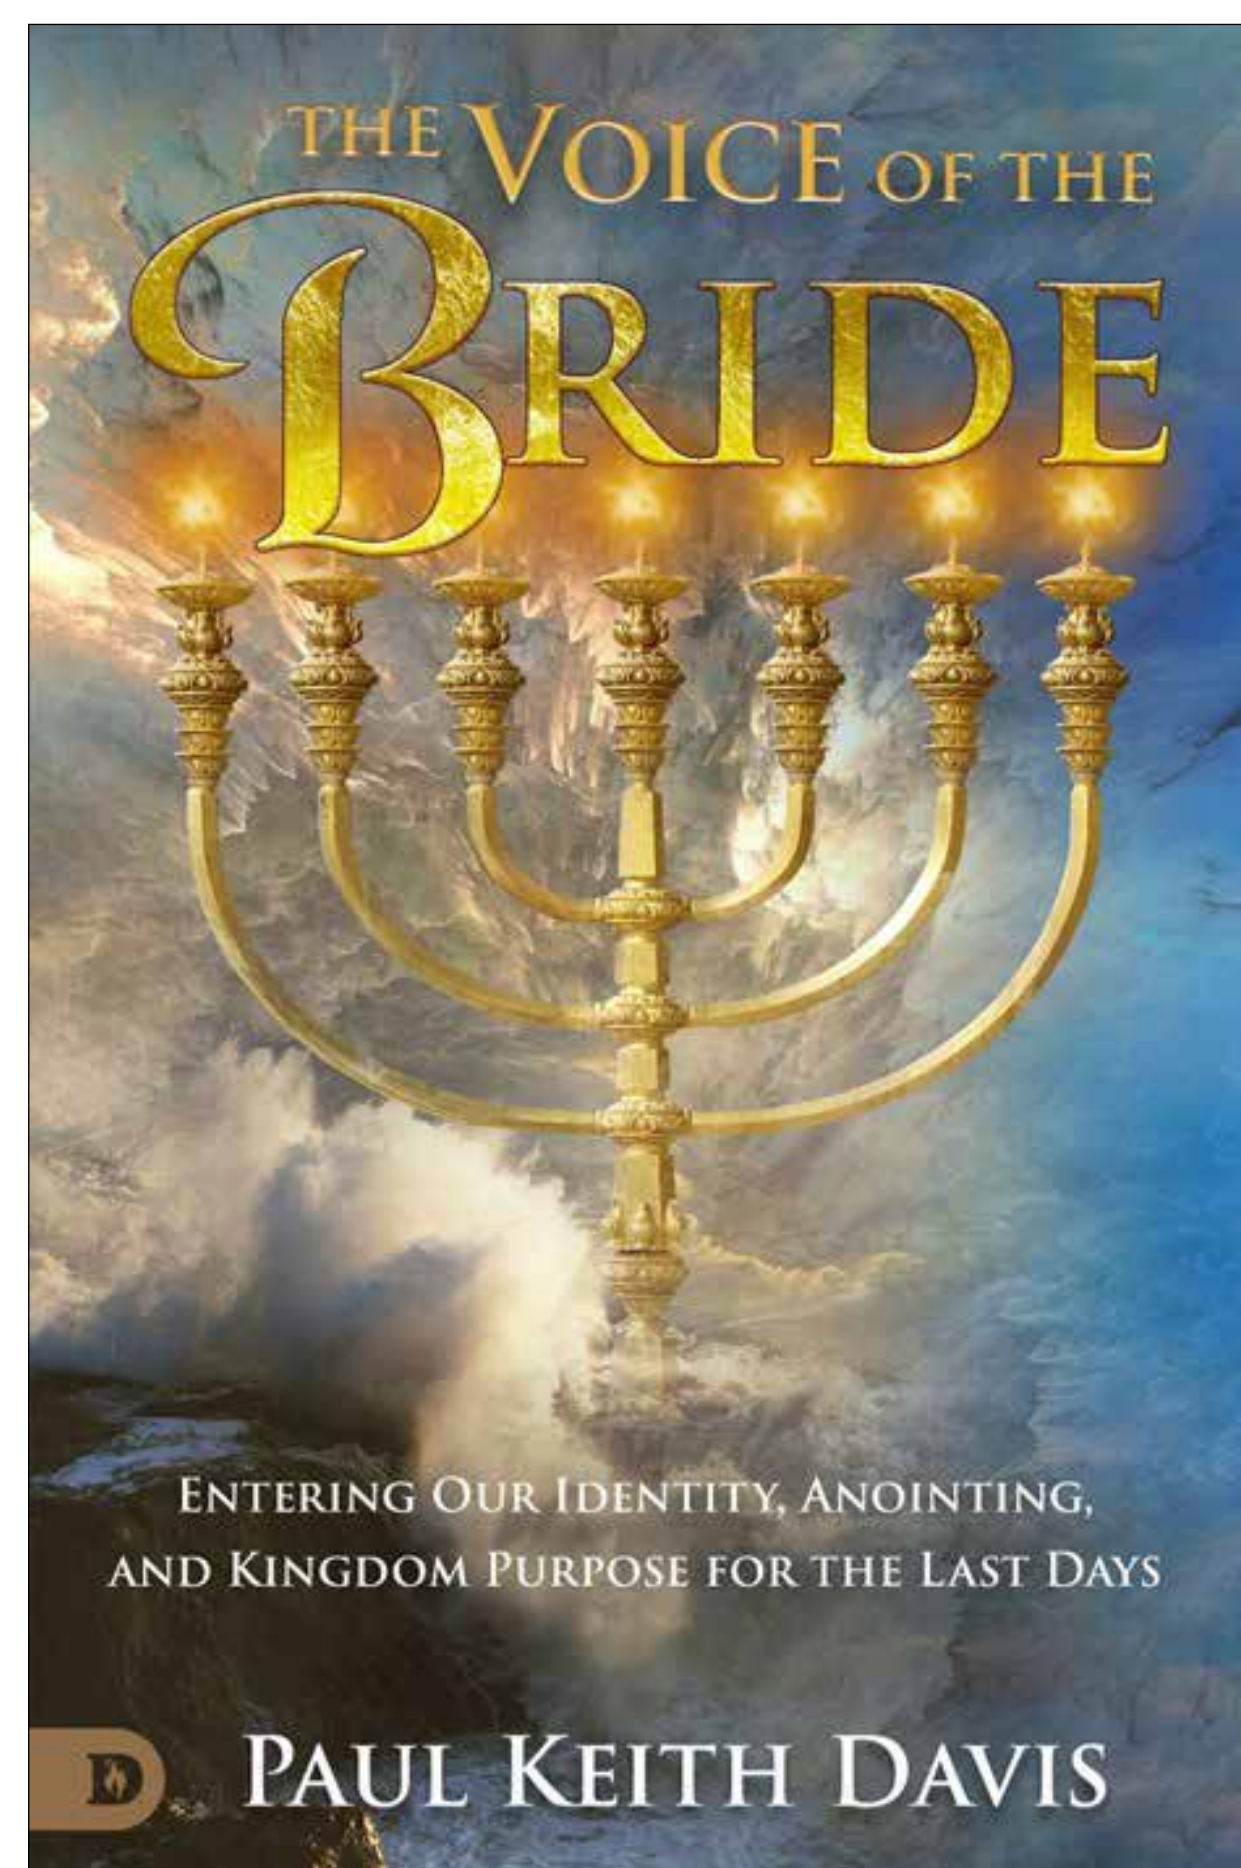

Robert Henderson is a global apostolic leader who operates in revelation and impartation. His teaching empowers the body of Christ to see the hidden truths of Scripture clearly and apply them for breakthrough results. Driven by a mandate to disciple nations through writing and speaking, Robert travels extensively around the globe, teaching on the apostolic, the Kingdom of God, the Seven Mountains; and most notably, the Courts of Heaven. He has been married to Mary for 40 years. They have six children and five grandchildren. Together they are enjoying life in beautiful Waco, TX

Description

YOU are God's supernatural solution for a world beset with giant problems.

Pastor Kerrick Butler II encourages us that the problems we face in the world today must be addressed by a church who understands that we are not merely mortal, but supernaturally empowered by the Holy Spirit to conquer the Goliaths of our day.

In No Longer Mere Mortals, Kerrick shares how to...

- Operate in God's power as a lifestyle--not a rare, momentary encounter
- Be empowered as a superhuman--not just as an apostle, prophet, evangelist, pastor, or teacher
- Grow by leaps and bounds in daily Christian disciplines
- Understand who you are in Christ and what God has already accomplished in your life
- Unleash the supernatural powers God has already given you over specific issues

Defeat the Goliaths staring you down. You may not wear a cape, but God made you superhuman just the same!

About the Author

Kerrick A. R. Butler II serves as Senior Pastor of Faith Christian Center headquartered in Austell, Georgia, with satellite campuses throughout the metro Atlanta area.

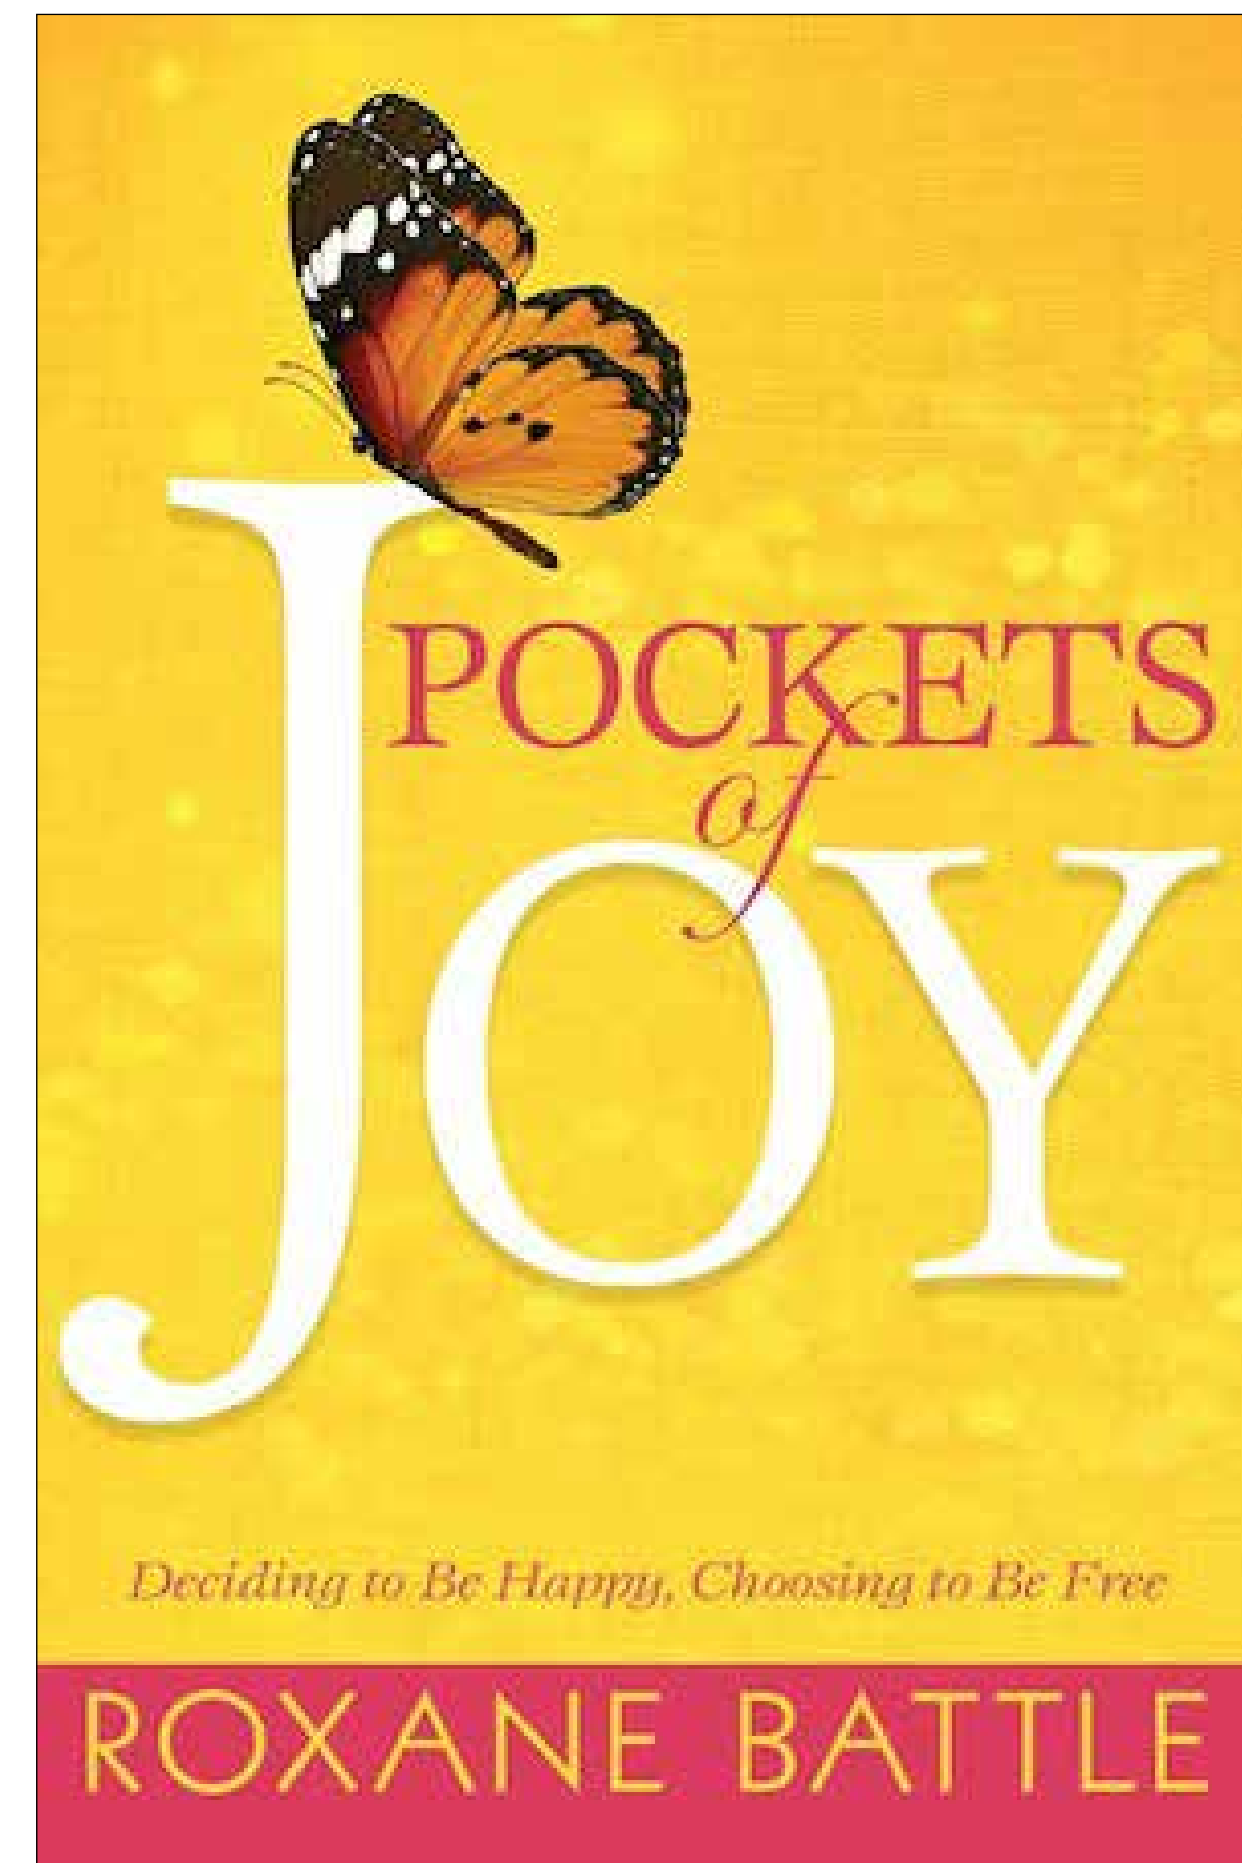

He is a graduate of Word of Faith Bible Training Center and Oral Roberts University. Kerrick believes wholeheartedly in sharing the message of Jesus through creative avenues to help readers apply Bible truths to their everyday lives.

Kerrick, his wife, Racquel, and their beautiful family reside in Atlanta.

Creative glory is the inspirational flow of the Holy Spirit that shines God's life, hope, joy, provision, and wisdom into any situation you may be facing.

Best-selling author Joshua Mills explains that when we are in an atmosphere of creative glory, it becomes easy to think new thoughts or receive fresh ideas because we are in the atmosphere of the Creator's heart and mind. Wherever we allow creative glory to flow, as we embrace the realm of divine expression, we will supernaturally flourish.

The Creative Glory Study Guide, which can be used by either individuals or groups, contains some brand-new material to further your understanding of the realm of divine expression. The guide is also filled with key points from the book, thought questions, review questions, and supernatural activations.

Wild Things and Castles in the Sky

Description

Wild Things and Castles in the Sky: A Guide to Choosing the Best Books for Children gives the reader over 40 essays that examine specific types of children's books and offer suggestions in each category.

Among the topics covered are:

- imagination,
- faith,
- classic literature,
- middle school books,
- race,
- fantasy,
- contemporary children's books,
- Shakespeare,
- art history,
- Newbery books,
- young adult novels,
- poetry, and more.

Curated and edited by Leslie and Carey Bustard with Théa Rosenburg (a mother–daughter team and a children's books blogger), Wild Things and Castles in the Sky will encourage and envision parents, grandparents, teachers, and friends—to know the power of a good story and to share it with a child they love.

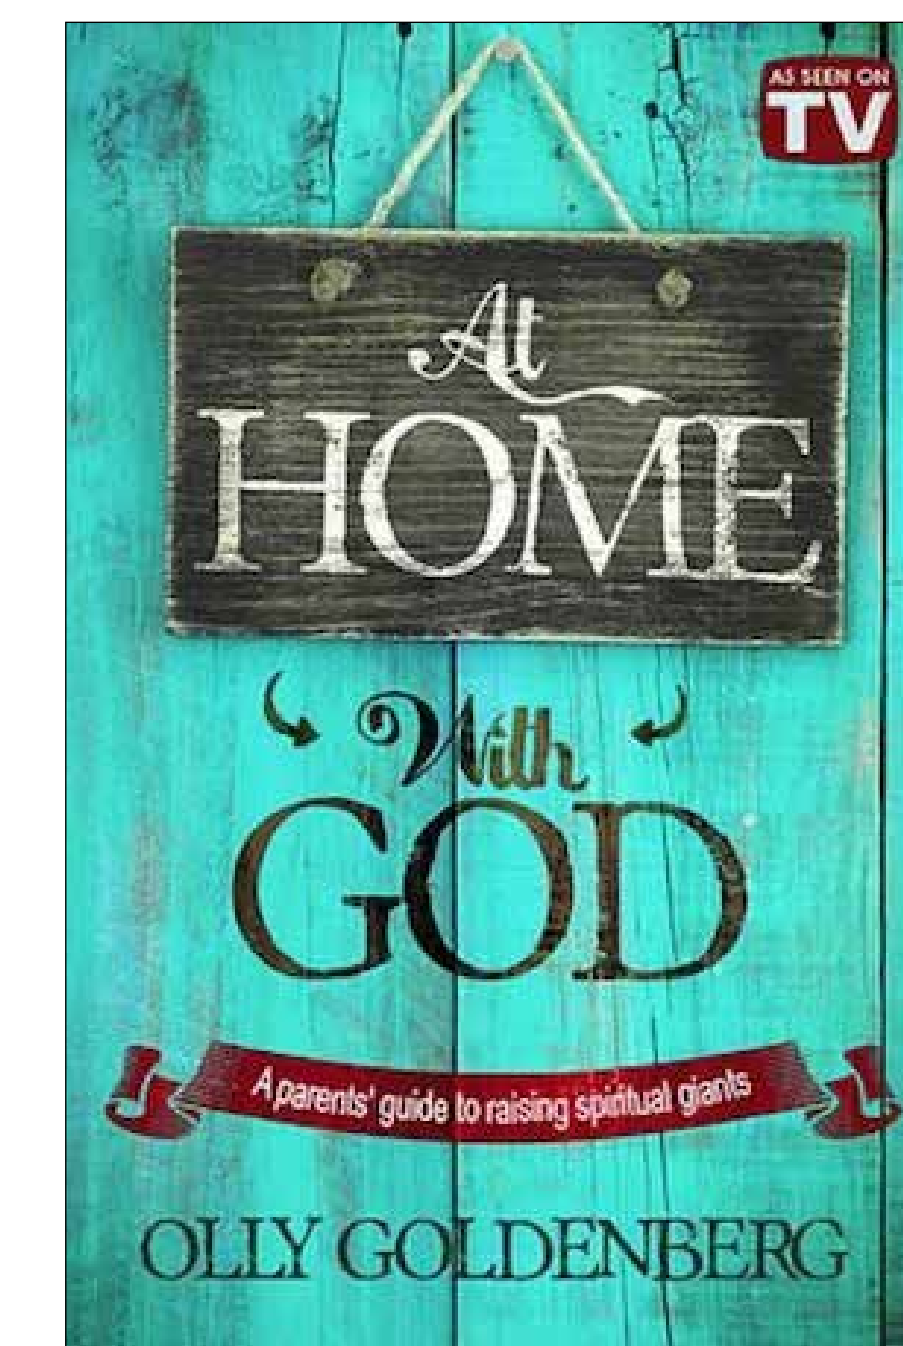

About the Author

Leslie Anne Bustard has been a homeschooling mama, a History and English teacher, and a producer of children's and high school theatre.

Of late, she has been a regular contributor to The Cultivating Project and Black Barn Online.

Leslie and her husband have been married for over 30 years and live in a century–old row house in Lancaster City, where they raised their three daughters.

Title: Student Ministry Field Guide
 Author: Weston Blaha
 Price: £6.99*
 Product Code: 9781633573888
 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Youth Resources
 Distribution: UK & Europe

Every day, godly men and women enter the turbulent world of youth ministry seeking to make a difference. They love their students, parents, and local church So, why is the average youth leader tenure a mere eighteen months?

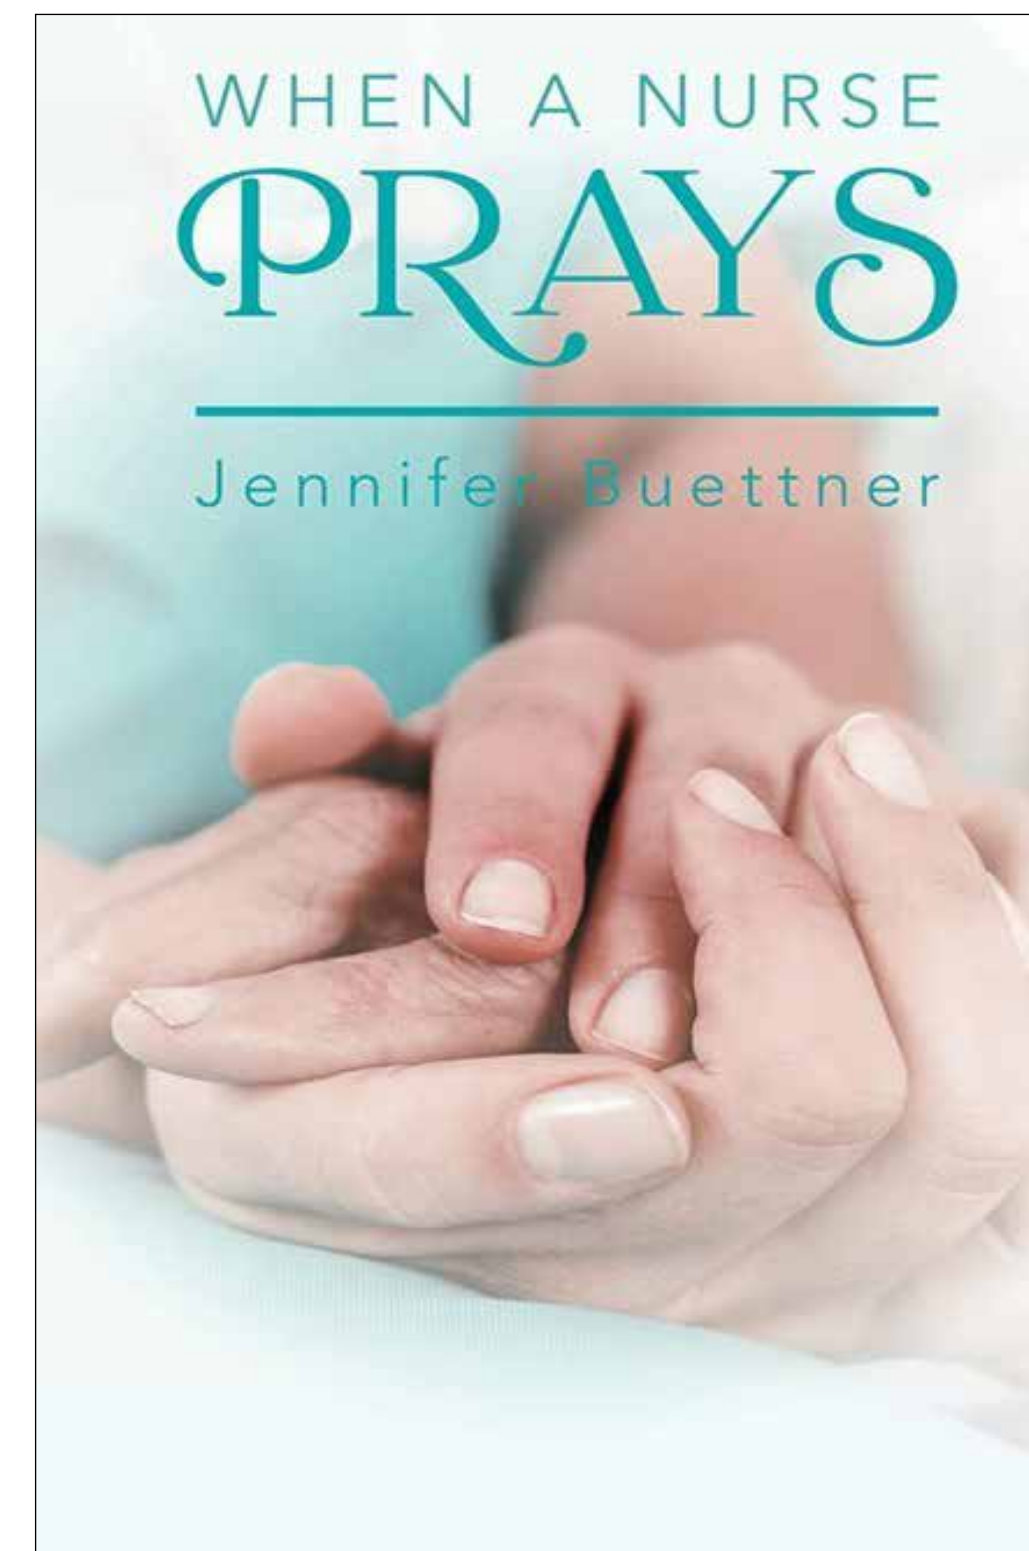

One major cause is that many youth leaders too often incur the ministry-thwarting label of being "simply a big kid"

In Student Ministry Field Guide: Debunking the "Big Kid" Label, fifteen-year student ministry "vet" Weston Blaha, reveals the many pitfalls that oft en derail a student ministry, and more importantly, how to avoid them

This book is an accessible, concise guide written to help navigate such issues as:

- Contending with your Predecessor
- Rallying Volunteers
- Establishing Organization
- Determining Ministry Vision and Strategy

And much more! In this short guide, both "rookie" and experienced student ministry leaders will learn how to play like a kid, act like an adult, and know when each is required!

 Author: Jan & Greg Naylor
 Price: £7.99*
 Product Code: 9781633573727
 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Inspirational
 Distribution: UK & Europe

Married three times to a volatile, emotionally abusive alcoholic who had multiple affairs, lied repeatedly, failed to come home hundreds of times and who used harsh anger and intimidation to manipulate their marriages, Jan suffered in silence while praying daily for a heaven-sent miracle that would change her husband's heart.

Disillusioned and upset when she didn't feel her prayers were answered, Jan turned to her own 'Janplans,' including non-stop shopping, frenetic busyness, kid's school activities and expensive vacations, to compensate for the loss of her "Janville" dream where she had fantasized about living in a 'white picket fence' town with a perfect husband and family.

Frustrated and trending toward bitterness, Jan eventually tried to run away from her family and God by moving to England to escape the dark, grinding treadmill that she felt had become her life.

However, when Jesus touched his prodigal daughter by cleansing her heart, Jan's life moved from one of chaos, severe emotional abuse, and co-dependency to one of joy, faith, stability and contentment.

You will be inspired by her true story perhaps the miracle that transformed Jan's life can also be a blessing in your life.

Title: I'll Start Again Monday
 Author: Lysa TerKeurst
 Price: £9.99*
 Product Code: 9780785232483
 Format: Hard Cover
 Genre: Women's Interests
 Distribution: UK & Europe

Based on her bestselling book Made to Crave, but now distilled down for busy readers, Lysa TerKeurst offers a new perspective to all those stuck in the cycle of losing weight but then gaining it back, equipping readers with the deeper spiritual and emotional motivation they need to make lasting changes.

In this newly revised and condensed book, Lysa shows us how to break the cycle of "I'll start again Monday" and feel good about yourself today; stop agonizing over numbers on the scale and make peace with your body; replace rationalizations that lead to failure with wisdom that leads to victory; and reach your healthy goals and grow closer to God through the process.

This is not a "how-to" book. This is not the latest and greatest dieting plan. This is the necessary resource to use alongside whatever healthy lifestyle plan you choose that will help you find your "want to" and lead to a spiritual satisfaction that goes far beyond the physical.

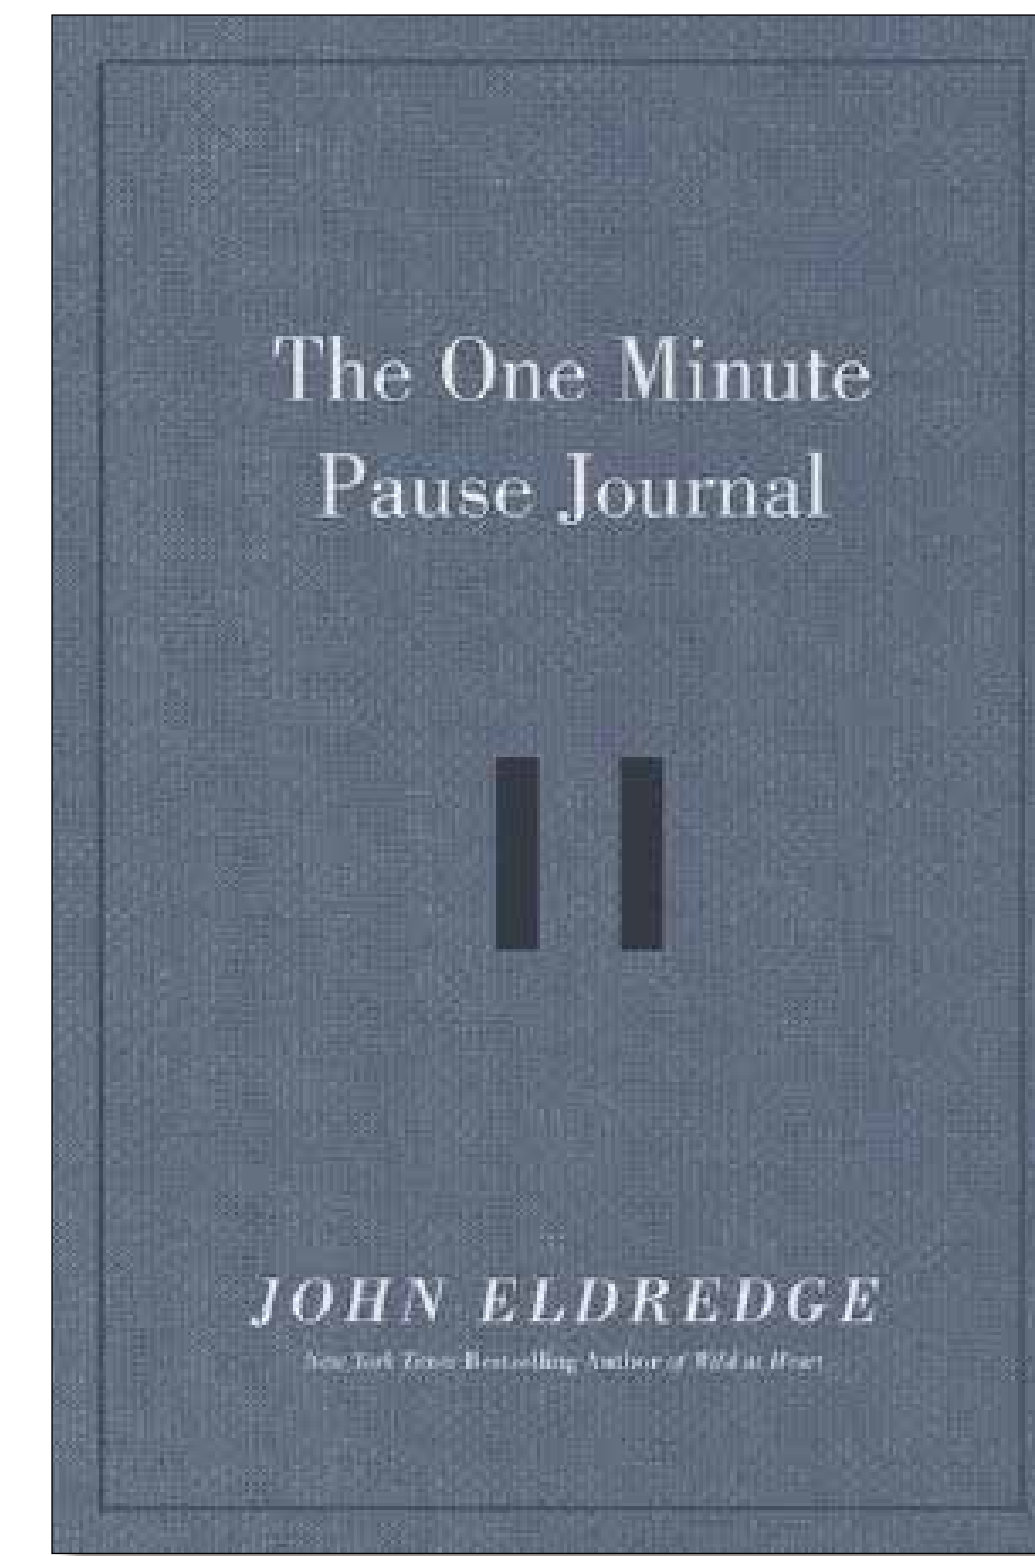

Title: The Last Supper on the Moon
 Author: Levi Lusko
 Price: £12.99*
 Product Code: 9780785264569
 Format: Paperback
 Genre: Spiritual Growth
 Distribution: UK & Europe

If there are places in your heart and corners of your mind that feel just as deep and dark and inaccessible as outer space, this book is for you.

Fight as you may, unearthing the happiness and fulfillment you long for can feel nearly impossible. In Psalm 8 David urges us to consider the heavens, to look up at the night sky. Doing so will help you discover fundamental truths about God. Namely, that—even though his love for you is as beyond comprehension as the farthest corners of the universe—through his Son, you can grab hold of it, and it has the power to transform your inner space.

Bestselling author Levi Lusko shares how you can:

- learn that life is not about "finding yourself" but discovering who Jesus is
- believe that God's love and forgiveness is grander than even your greatest failure
- buck the mundane of everyday life and start dreaming again
