Running Home CD

Cochren & Co.

Description

Gotee Records' Cochren & Co. released their debut album, "Don't Lose Hope", two years ago to much acclaim and radio airplay. Helmed by singer/songwriter and worship leader Michael Cochren joined by his wife Leah, Cochren & Co. is back with a strong sophomore offering, 'Running Home'.

The 10-song project features hope-filled lyrics and timeless melodies as Cochren & Co. blurs the line between American pop/rock and soul/blues to create a classic sound all their own.

"This album is all about running into the arms of God," shares Michael Cochren, frontman for Cochren & Co. "It's my story, but I also believe it's the story of anyone who has found themselves far from home spiritually. We've all heard the saying there's no place like home. When I think of what 'home' means, I think of comfort, rest, safety, and love. When we go off looking for these things in the broken world, we will never find them. Ultimately, we only find what we need when we return to our loving God."

Ed Harding

AVAILABLE APRIL

You Might Be Surprised!

Description

From the moment of birth we are destined to die. Sooner or later it will happen!

When young and fit we don't think about it, though we may attend the funeral of a grandparent. Then, in middle age, we lose our parents. Then it's our turn! But what then?

This short book explains what Jesus tells us and what the Bible reveals about God's wonderful future for those who trust in Christ as their saviour. For those who refuse His offer of salvation a fearful prospect awaits, but it is never too late to repent and believe the gospel that Christ died for your sin, paying the price so you would not have to.

This book explains what Jesus said and the Bible teaches about death, eternal life, Heaven and Hell and what we can expect once the human spirit leaves our physical body and returns to God .

Is there life after death? See what the Bible tells us.

Friendship With God

Mike McKinley

A Path to Deeper Fellowship with the Father, Son, and Spirit

Description

Based on John Owen's classic text Communion with God, this helpful resource answers the question, "What Does It Mean to Be Friends with Jesus?"

In John 15, Jesus says, "I have called you friends." But what does it mean to be friends with Jesus? In the early 1650s, theologian John Owen attempted to answer this question through a series of sermons, eventually compiled as Communion with God. The book is full of truths about having fellowship with God, but Owen's work is often a struggle for modern readers to understand.

In Friendship with God, pastor Mike McKinley takes a key idea or insight from Communion with God and clarifies it for readers in each chapter, giving them practical guidance for how to develop fellowship with God—such as obeying the Father's commands, acknowledgment of sin, and prayer.

Perfect for new Christians or for those without a church background, this accessible resource offers an introduction to the God who "wants you to know him and be known by him."

About the Author

Mike McKinley (MDiv, Westminster Theological Seminary) is senior pastor of Sterling Park Baptist Church in Sterling, Virginia. He is the author of a number of books, including Am I Really a Christian? and Church Planting Is for Wimps. He and his wife, Karen, have five children and live in Northern Virginia

Redeeming Reason

Vern S. Poythress

A God-Centered Approach

Description

Vern S. Poythress explains the laws of human reasoning and how to apply them in light of the Gospel.

Humans use reasoning to understand and order the world around us. We apply this logic in a variety of contexts, from classifying simple objects to considering complex philosophies. But how should our identity as Christians—made in the image of God (Gen. 1:26–27) with minds renewed by the Holy Spirit (Rom. 12:1–2)—inform our reasoning?

Vern S. Poythress explains how all human reasoning reflects God’s nature.

Providing a foundational understanding of God as the source of rationality, Poythress details the 3 fundamental laws of logic—identity, contradiction, and excluded middle—with a strong focus on analogical reasoning.

This robust guide explains types of analogy, ethics applied to logic, the use of analogies in the doctrines of God, and more to give readers a renewed perspective on how to use reason as a follower of God.

About the Author

Vern S. Poythress (PhD, Harvard University; ThD, University of Stellenbosch) is Distinguished Professor of New Testament, Biblical Interpretation, and Systematic Theology at Westminster Theological Seminary in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, where he has taught for four decades. In addition to earning six academic degrees, he is the author of numerous books and articles on biblical interpretation, language, and science.

Words are powerful. They sink deep into our minds and our spirits. They can build others up or put others down. Many of us want to “say the right thing” and make a difference to others with our words, but we don’t know how to. Others of us struggle to control our speech and want help to be more godly in this area of our lives.

This positive, constructive book delves into the Bible to show us how to overcome specific temptations, such as gossip or angry words. But it also goes much further. It shows us how we can use our speech to bring beauty, hope, truth and comfort into the lives of those around us—and to give glory to God.

Full of gracious words and practical help, this book will help readers to find out how to let the gospel shape their speech and enjoy the blessings that flow from this.

All Who Are Weary

Sarah J. Hauser

Finding True Rest By Letting Go of the Burdens You Were Never Meant to Carry

Description

You're tired. Tired in your body. Tired in your soul. At times, life feels hard, chaotic, or just mind-numbingly ordinary. But what if our souls could find rest even amid the onslaught of chaos and confusion? What if we could exchange that heavy dread and disquiet for a peace that passes understanding?

Author Sarah J. Hauser believes that while our outward lives are falling apart, our inner lives can grow stronger. Sarah, no stranger to weariness, invites us to join her in bringing our heavy burdens to Jesus and taking the light burden He offers instead. Readers find deep, lasting rest by throwing off nine soul-crushing burdens: worthlessness, condemnation, worry, self-sufficiency, insecurity, comparison, perfectionism, insignificance, and despair. We were never meant to carry these things in the first place.

Christians who feel stuck, strained, and discouraged will be equipped with Scripture and encouraged by personal stories that help us identify the burdens we need to release. Because of the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ, we can live with joy and endurance, come what may. If you're craving rest for your soul, Jesus invites you to come to Him, because only there can true rest be found.

About the Author

Sarah J. Hauser is a writer and speaker living in the Chicago suburbs with her husband and four kids. She shares biblical truth to nourish the soul -- and the occasional recipe to nourish the body. Sarah completed her B.A. and M.A. at Wheaton College, and she's a member of the Redbud Writers Guild

Receiving God's Promises

Derek Prince

Inheriting Our Earthly and Heavenly Blessings In Christ

Description

God is inviting you on a journey through the land of His promises and provision—the riches of your inheritance in Christ. The process by which you enter into your inheritance is similar to the journey made by the Israelites in the promised land. God gave them a specific way to gain possession of that land: step by step, stage by stage, area by area. He pledged, “Every place on which the sole of your foot treads, I have given it to you” (Joshua 1:3 NASB).

Likewise, as you step into each promise of God—in every area of your life—you will possess that much more of your inheritance as an heir of His kingdom. Every day, we face challenges that can be met through God's powerful provision.

In a very practical way, internationally renowned Bible teacher Derek Prince shows you how to address your difficulties and have your needs supplied by applying the specific promises appropriate for each situation.

Edward T. Welch

Overcoming Peer Pressure, Codependency, and the Fear of Man

Description

Five college students pitch a tent by their car one dark night, not realizing they've set up camp by a military runway. They awake from a deep sleep to the shaking of the earth and a roar like mountains falling—the sound of a military transport plane taking off right over their heads.

Can you imagine the visceral terror of that moment? For author and biblical counsellor Edward Welch, it was a glimpse of what the Israelites experienced in God's presence at Mount Sinai.

Our God is a consuming fire. His holiness and relentless love put our sin, our weakness, and our fears in perspective. If we can learn the fear of the Lord—a fear that in Christ is filled with gratitude, love, and devotion—we can break free of the fear of other people that so easily entangles us. We can experience joy in our Christian lives as we need other people less and love them more.

This groundbreaking work has helped countless numbers of people to confront their fear of man and live in freedom. The new edition features clarifying additions, new material, and revisions throughout.

In 1979, Dr Emma Stuart, a genealogist in London, is asked by a client from Denmark to trace a Viking ancestor who may have participated in the invasion. An eleventh century whetstone found on his farm has a puzzling inscription. She is intrigued and decides to investigate. Then, when her mother inherits a sixteenth century house in Norwich from an unknown relative, Emma's research begins to suggest possible links to her own past, links that began in a church at the Battle of Maldon.

Molly Frye Wilmington – Dietrich Bonhoeffer

The Teacher Who Became A Spy

Description

Not every story of a Christian hero includes a world war, a cruel enemy, secret missions, and even a code for you to break. But Dietrich Bonhoeffer's story does.

In the pages of this unique picture book, Shep the sheepdog narrator shares the powerful tale of how a teacher named Bonhoeffer bravely followed Jesus during a scary time in world history.

Hear how Bonhoeffer the teacher broke down racial, religious, gender, and economic barriers to teach others and how Bonhoeffer the spy used clever thinking and crucial codes to defy the Nazis and help the Jews, even when it cost him his life.

About the Author

Molly Frye Wilmington works at Love INC, Love in the Name of Christ. She studied English and children's literature at Baylor, Master of Divinity at Duke, and Ethics and Culture at Notre Dame's Vita Institute. Through the use of humour, animals, and suspense, Molly encourages children to be strong and courageous and to follow Jesus the Good Shepherd.
