Only Ever Always CD

Love & The Outcome

AVAILABLE JULY

Description

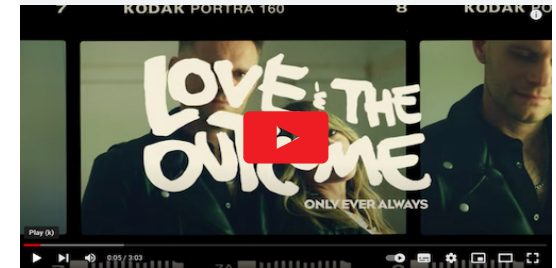

'Only Ever Always', Love & The Outcome's third studio album, finds Jodi King and Chris Rademaker choosing hope in the face of hardship.

The recent flooding of their Nashville home inspired the 13-track collection as the couple realized rain precedes the rainbow.

Produced by Seth Mosley, Mark Campbell and Colin Munroe, the album is coloured by the duo's signature blend of positive pop and a retro groove.

It boasts select songs from their 2020 EP, You've Got This, and future hits, "I'm Not Lucky, I'm Blessed," "More" and "Nothing Surprises You," featuring Maverick City Music's Stefan Cashwell.

Description

My Truth from GRAMMY®, Stellar Award and Dove Award Winner, Jonathan McReynolds, marks the fifth album release from the current 54th NAACP Image Award nominee. McReynolds is excited about the impact of My Truth, which is inspired by the concept of life and seeds. Some seeds make their way and grow without much opposition. Others are thrown on the ground and trampled or thrown amongst thorns and weeds. McReynolds relates the seed to challenges and life struggles which can create anxiety and make people feel like they are being choked.

You Are a Theologian

J.T. English, Jen Wilkin

AVAILABLE JULY

An Invitation to Know and Love God Well

Description

Theology can be intimidating. Perhaps questions like these have kept you from engaging with it: "What is theology?" "Who does theology?" "What happens if I get something wrong?"

The goal of this book, and of theology, is knowing and loving God well. This is a lifelong journey, a never-ending pursuit, not for knowledge that puffs up but with God as the prize.

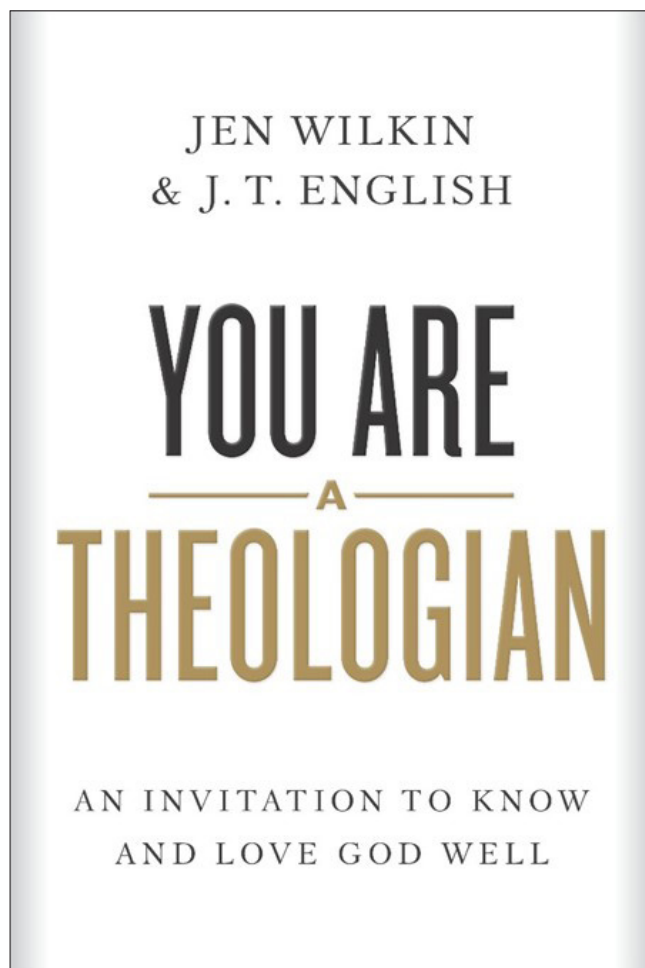

Authors Jen Wilkin and J.T. English invite you to become more than a mere consumer of theology, but a contributor to the conversation about God. You are a theologian.

You Are a Theologian addresses theological questions such as: • Who is God? – The Doctrine of God • What is God like? – The Attributes of God • What is the Bible? – The Doctrine of Scripture • Who are we? – The Doctrine of Humanity • What went wrong? – The Doctrine of Sin • What has God done? – The Doctrines of Christ, Salvation, and the Holy Spirit • To whom do we belong? – The Doctrine of the Church • How does the story end? – The Doctrine of Last Things

About the Author

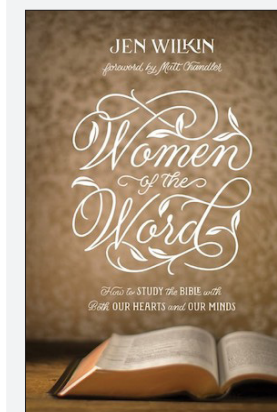

JEN WILKIN is a Bible teacher from Dallas, Texas. As an advocate for biblical literacy, she has organized and led studies for women in home, church, and parachurch contexts and authored multiple books, including the bestseller Women of the Word.

J.T. ENGLISH, PhD, is an author and teacher, and currently serves as the lead pastor of Storyline Fellowship in Arvada, CO.

The Writer Who Found Joy

Description

Not every author can write about a wardrobe and a lion and end up delighting readers for generations. But then again, not every author is C.S. Lewis.

This biographical picture book welcomes readers to get to know the man behind Aslan and Narnia and to experience the joy that inspired him. Young Clive Staples Lewis once loved imagination and play but was unable to trust God after the death of his mother. He left behind a belief in God and became an atheist and a professor. But he never stopped hoping to find joy.

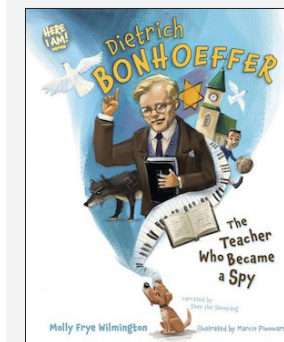

This unique picture book, narrated by a bespectacled owl, tells the tale of how the once reluctant Lewis slowly embraced Christianity, was surprised by joy, and then used his words and writings to share that joy with the world. Daniel DeWitt, author and C.S. Lewis scholar, summarizes the life of Lewis in a way that is engaging and inspiring. Young readers will walk away not only wanting to know more about the life and faith of Lewis but wanting to discover their own joy in Christ as well. C.S. Lewis: The Very Happy Christian is the second book in the Here I Am! biography series for kids, which highlights fascinating and faithful Christians in history.

About the Author

Daniel DeWitt (PhD, Southern Seminary) is a senior fellow at Southwest Baptist University in Bolivar, Missouri, where he leads the Center for Worldview & Culture and teaches courses on theology, philosophy, and C.S. Lewis. DeWitt is the author of several books and regularly writes at theolatte.com.

Defeating the World, the Flesh, and the Devil

Description

Although spiritual warfare is a recurring theme in Scripture, it is difficult to find balanced, evangelical treatments of this topic.

Drawing on their extensive expertise on this subject, as presented in their previous B&H volume Spiritual Warfare in the Storyline of Scripture, Cook and Lawless aim to equip everyday Christians to understand what Scripture teaches about spiritual warfare and how believers can practically apply these scriptural principles.

By doing so, readers can experience victory over the world, the flesh, and the devil.

About the Author

William F. Cook III (PhD, New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary) is professor of New Testament interpretation at The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary and lead pastor of Ninth and O Baptist Church in Louisville, KY.

Charles E. Lawless, Jr. is vice president for spiritual formation and ministry centres, dean of doctoral studies, and senior professor of evangelism and missions at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary.

David Livingstone

Vance Christie

AVAILABLE JULY

Missionary, Explorer, Abolitionist

Description

David Livingstone was one of the most consequential individuals who lived in the nineteenth century. An unpretentious Scottish missionary doctor, explorer and abolitionist, he opened the door for Christianity in southern Africa.

Vance Christie's biography is the most comprehensive and accurate ever written about Livingstone. During his lifetime he was a hero in Britain and beyond, and gained a degree of respect, trust, appreciation and even affection with many African people. He was a man who overcame many deprivations and discouragements, and displayed the utmost measure of courage, self-control, faith, wisdom and ingenuity.

Christie takes a balanced look at Livingstone's amazing achievements, but also at his very real flaws.

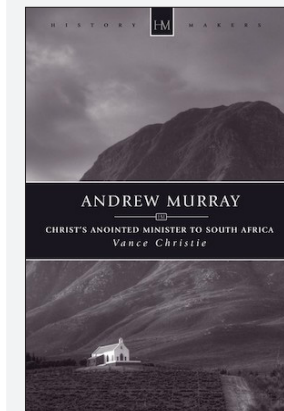

This gripping in-depth biography is a must-read insight into a fascinating man.

About the Author

Vance Christie served as a pastor for thirty-six years and to date has authored nine books in the field of historical Christian biography. He and his wife Leeta live in Aurora, Nebraska and are blessed with three adult daughters, their husbands and five grandchildren. His writing website is www.vancechristie.com.

Intentional Interruptions

Jonathan Thomas

AVAILABLE JULY

Learning to be Interrupted the Way God Intended

Description

We are busy and constantly bombarded. Notifications, pings, alerts: we carry in our pockets devices that are designed to capture and keep our attention. We are never fully present, always thinking ahead to the next thing, distracted by an email, playing worries over in our minds.

But what effect is this having on our lives, relationships and, most importantly, our spiritual health?

We need rest – the rest that only Christ can give. But this book is not simply meant to get you off your phone, make more time to stop, or help you simplify and digitally detox. Instead, you are invited into the greatest life imaginable, where we have the openness to be interrupted by God and used in a way that will bring Him glory.

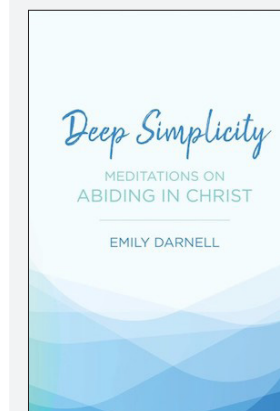

At the end of each chapter, Thomas encourages us to take time to ponder and pray – or Selah – and gives us guiding questions to consider. A challenging read for anyone who feels overwhelmed by all that calls on their attention and for those who long for peace.

About the Author

Jonathan Thomas is married to Rebecca and they have 3 boys. He is the pastor of Cornerstone Church, Abergavenny; author of 'Thomas Charles: God's gift to Wales' (EMW/DayOne), and broadcaster with BBC Radio Wales where he is one of the presenters on 'All things considered'.

Seeing The Unseen God

John Davis

AVAILABLE JULY

Learning to be Interrupted the Way God Intended

Description

No one has ever seen God. In fact, the Bible says it's impossible. And yet, to live the Christian life, you must see God.

If we can see God, the very sight of Him will fuel and motivate all the other aspects of our lives. So how do we do it?

John Davis delves into the ways that we can see God. We see God in His Word; we see Him in the person of Jesus Christ; we even see Him reflected in one another. Although God remains unseen, He has revealed Himself in a whole host of ways. Our hearts perceive Him in the beauty of creation, and in moments of wonder and transcendence. Davis also gives helpful counsel for when we feel like we can't see God, or don't want to see Him.

When we behold God's glory it changes everything about us. In keeping our sight fixed on Him, we reflect Him more and more.

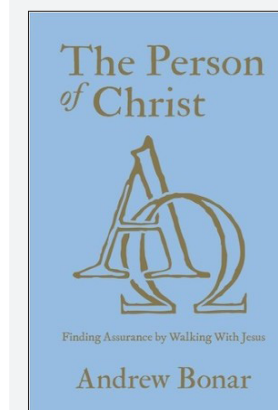

John Davis invites us to join him in fixing our eyes on the One who is invisible and look forward to the day when we will see Him face to face.

About the Author

John Davis began full-time ministry in 2011 and currently serves as the Senior Minister at Columbia Christian Church in Columbia, Kentucky, where he lives with his wife, Jennifer, and two kids, Owen and Jordyn. He has a bachelor's degree in Business Management from the University of Kentucky and a master's in Theology from Cincinnati Bible Seminary.

Why Does the God of the Old Testament...

AVAILABLE JULY

...Seem so Violent and Hateful?

Description

Atheists often level charges at the God of the Bible as being angry and hateful. They claim that God condones genocide, that He is a cruel and oppressive megalomaniac, but this doesn't seem to match what Christians claim about Him being a God of love. How can a God who provides and saves also wipe out entire nations?

Richard Belcher's addition to the Big Ten series addresses these commonly asked questions. He begins by laying out how God created humanity in His own image, but we chose to reject Him. Our very sense that things are not fair points to the perfect justice of God.

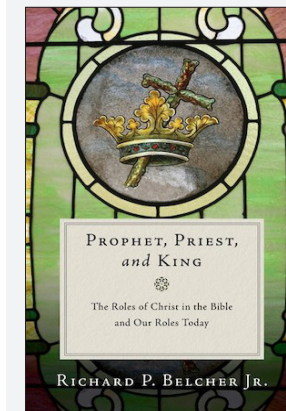

Belcher shows that God's justice, including expressions of anger against wrongdoing, is compatible with His love and goodness. Belcher then tackles specific texts in the Bible that seem to promote genocide and oppression and shows how the God of the Old Testament is the same loving, generous, gracious God that we meet in the person of Jesus Christ. An excellent read for any who struggle to answer questions about the character of God and for those looking to bolster their faith in the God of the Bible.

About the Author

Richard P. Belcher, Jr. is the John D. and Frances M. Gwin Professor of Old Testament and the Academic Dean at Reformed Theological Seminary Charlotte. He is the author of 'The Messiah and the Psalms', as well as commentaries on Genesis, Job and Ecclesiastes and has a decade of pastoral experience

Karen Martin – Memorable Loss

A Story of Friendship in the Face of Dementia

Description

Dementia is experienced in different forms, in different ways and is coped with differently by different people, but with nearly 10 million new cases every year, it is something many people face. It's tough on those with the disease, but it is also incredibly hard for the loved ones around them.

Karen Martin's story about her friend Kathleen, is overwhelmingly one of love and persistence. Despite their nearly half-century age difference, their commonality drew them to each other, and their genuine friendship uplifted them both.

Charting the story from pre-diagnosis to Kathleen's eventual passing, this moving tale highlights the difficulties and joys of facing dementia, through the lens of friendship.

Wisdom for Life from the Beatitudes

Description

An Examination of the Beatitudes and Jesus's Counterintuitive Blessings

In our sinful world, we often struggle with anxiety, loneliness, and heartache. Everywhere we look, we see broken families and divided communities. How can we truly cultivate God's kingdom "on earth as it is in heaven" in such a broken place?

In the Beatitudes (Matthew 5:2–12), Jesus urges us to set ourselves apart from the world, living in a counterculture with a new identity rooted in him.

The Upside Down Kingdom examines this counterintuitive wisdom and explores its relevance for today. Drawing on insights from the biblical story of redemption, Reformed theologians throughout history, and contemporary life, this book equips and encourages readers to get their spiritual bearings in an upside-down world.

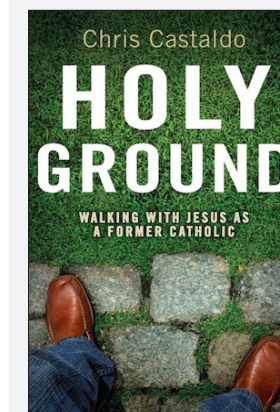

Author Chris Castaldo ultimately points readers to the kingdom of Christ—not as a set of rules, but as a means of bringing peace and blessing here and now.

Real Change for Real Sinners

Description

Grow Deeper in Faith with This Book and Study Guide Set by Bestselling Author Dane C. Ortlund.

How do Christians grow? Few question the call of the Bible to grow in godliness, but the answer to exactly how this happens is often elusive.

In Deeper, Dane Ortlund points believers to Christ, making the case that sanctification does not happen by doing more or becoming better, but by going deeper into the wondrous gospel truths that washed over them when they were first united to him.

This Deeper set includes a copy of the book and the companion study guide, with 10 reflection questions per chapter, to help readers explore the topics of despair, union, honesty, pain, and more.

Ideal for small groups and individuals, these Deeper resources will encourage readers to fix their gaze on Jesus in the battle against sin—casting themselves upon his grace and living out their invincible identity in Christ.

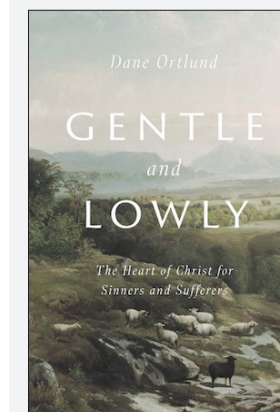

About the Author

Dane C. Ortlund (PhD, Wheaton College) serves as senior pastor of Naperville Presbyterian Church in Naperville, Illinois. He is the author of Gentle and Lowly: The Heart of Christ for Sinners and Sufferers.

The Comfort of Jesus in the Grief of Losing a Child

Description

This book has been written to help heartbroken parents know and feel the nearness and tenderness of God when they are facing the loss of a child. It takes long, satisfying looks at truths and stories from the Bible, helping you to know and be comforted by God the Father as he walks with you through your darkest seasons.

The authors write with honesty, experience and compassion to encourage those who are crushed in spirit to lean heavily on Jesus. They give lots of practical advice on processing and praying through grief as well as clarity on some of the difficult questions raised by this kind of suffering.

Readers can choose whichever chapters are most relevant to their situation. There is something here for those who have just heard the news that their child is very ill, and for those who lost a child some time ago; for those who are asking painful questions, and for those seeking practical advice; for mothers carrying a pregnancy that will likely end in loss, and for family members wondering how to help their loved ones in their grief.

Every situation is different, but our Lord Jesus is always the same—and he has a special, tender nearness to the broken-hearted.

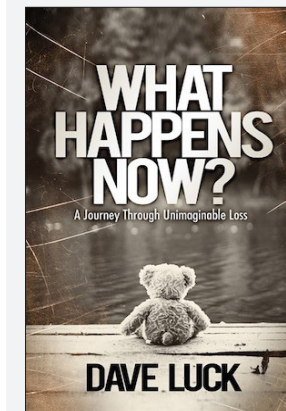

About the Author

Dan and Anna live in north-east England with their three children. Dan is a pastor and Anna an urgent care GP. In 2019 their son Jed died aged 3 weeks.

Chris is an engineer and member of Deer Park Fellowship, Newport News, VA. He and his wife Kim have 5 children and 11 grandchildren. Two of each are in heaven.

Breakthrough Into Deeper Intimacy With God

Experience God's presence in your life in a real and fulfilling way

RORY MAGRATH

Description

Many Christians have the belief and trust in their salvation, but seem to struggle to truly experience and sense God's presence on an intimate level in their everyday lives. This is what Rory experienced for nearly twenty-six years of his life, and his obsessive pursuit for genuine intimacy with his creator took him on a long and painful journey.

Through an inadvertent miracle, Rory was introduced to a solution in the most unlikely of places, which opened the door to a relationship with God that was so naturally real that it appeared almost tangible; like God was actually there in the room or in the car with him. With this close relationship came the realisation that God's power was then doing through him what he could never before do for himself.

He has written this book, as over the years he has interacted with many who have struggled yet found close intimacy with God through the same solution as he had. In the book he outlines this process step for step, precisely as he did it, including personal examples and worksheets to help.

The Apostles' Creed

A. W. Tozer

Description

We believe . . . an ancient creed is essential for today.

A. W. Tozer derived great personal satisfaction and help from the church creeds, and he used them as he preached and taught.

This new book draws on four previously published essays and several articles that have never before been published in books. Tozer brings the reader through the essential facets of the Christian faith through the Apostle's Creed:

- God the Father, Jesus Christ, and the Holy Spirit
- What it means that Jesus was Crucified, Resurrected, Ascended, and Returning
- How are we to understand The Communion of the Church, Forgiveness, and Eternity

Beginning with Why the Creeds are Still Important Today and ending with Connecting Our Creeds to Our Deeds, this book brings the reader into a rich experience of the Christian life. If you wish to study the classic truths of biblical doctrine and connect them to a vibrant spiritual life, join Tozer in a journey through The Apostle's Creed.

About the Author

A.W. TOZER began his lifelong pursuit of God at the age of seventeen after hearing a street preacher. He never attended high school or seminary; his spiritual understanding came from the power of the Word and the power of the Spirit. While serving as a pastor and magazine editor, he wrote prolifically about basic spiritual disciplines and their relationship to contemporary life. His powerful use of words continues to grip the intellect and stir the soul of today's reader.

What Neurons, Giant Squid, and Supernovae Reveal About Our Creator

Description

DNA, the Danube River, and deep-sea life. Knees and trees. The Swiss Alps, songbirds, and supernovas. God speaks through His creation. And you don't have to be naturally gifted at biology, chemistry, or physics to be awakened to His wisdom and majesty.

Pastor, teacher, and non-scientist John Van Sloten invites us to know God more deeply as we marvel at the complexities of His amazing creation. Knowing God through His written Word enables us to know Him more clearly through His creational Words. How does God speak through His creation, and what is He saying?

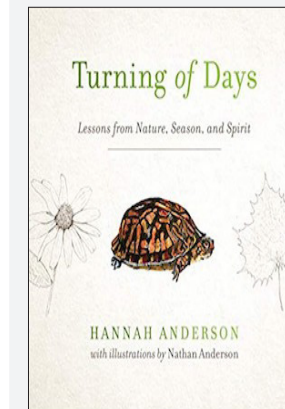

Each chapter includes interviews with leading scientists and connects creation to its Creator. With the primary foundation that Jesus is the mediator of both salvation and creation, Van Sloten fields questions such as: • Why are things beautiful and how can beautiful things be engaged? • How does the doctrine of the Trinity teach us about the nature of tree branches and wound healing? • What do the doctrines of creation, incarnation, and the resurrection tell us about phenomenon of supernovas? • How do we engage God's providence through knees and fossils?

About the Author

JOHN VAN SLOTEN is a Calgary-based writer, teacher, and pastor who is passionate about helping people engage God everywhere. Over the past ten years he has preached dozens of creation/bible-based sermons on topics like radiation therapy, DNA repair mechanisms, river hydrology, chemical catalysts, tree branches, human knees, and the Giant Squid.

How to Resurrect a Dead Prayer Life

Bill Thrasher

AVAILABLE JULY

Transforming Your Prayers into a Spirit-Empowered, Life-Giving Adventure

Description

We know that prayer is important—it's the lifeblood of the Christian life. But almost all believers find prayer to be hard. We can experience discouragement or disillusionment in our prayer lives. We get distracted and disheartened. What can we do if we're in a season of drought or have never experienced a rich life of prayer? And how can we sustain a meaningful and lifegiving prayer ministry?

Dr. Bill Thrasher—teacher, father, and husband—shares clear and applicable steps to invigorate or jumpstart a life of prayer. In How to Resurrect a Dead Prayer Life, Thrasher helps us answer important questions:

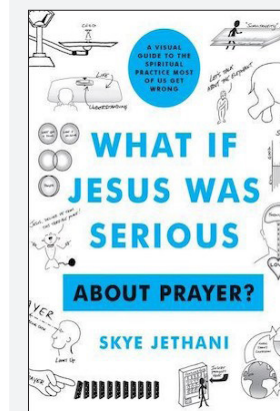

- How do you identify a dead prayer life? • How can a worried and frantic life begin to enjoy God's presence and peace? • How can you reach heaven when you don't know what to pray? • How can times of despair be transformed into prayers that even affect future generations? • How can you get in touch with the deep concerns of your heart? • How can your greatest struggle spur effective prayers that defeat the Evil One? • How does the Spirit motivate and guide our prayers?

About the Author

WILLIAM D. THRASHER (B.S., Auburn University; Th.M., Th.D., Dallas Theological Seminary) has served on the faculty of Moody Theological Seminary since 1980 and on the graduate school faculty since 1990, where he oversees the Master's Programme in Spiritual Formation and Discipleship. He is a frequent speaker in churches and retreats across the county.

The Night Is Normal

Alicia Britt Chole

AVAILABLE JULY

A Guide Through Spiritual Pain

Description

It's unnerving, isn't it? When our faith feels ungrounded, untethered ...unreal. When our certainty is adrift, as though an undercurrent has pulled us away from shore into the deep, into the darkness. This is disillusionment. This is spiritual pain. And if this is you, please know that you are not alone. (And you are not as far away from safety as you may feel or fear.) Though faith shines best in full sun, it grows depth in the dark. The night is not your enemy. In fact, the night is necessary.

In The Night Is Normal, revered author, speaker, and mentor Dr. Alicia Britt Chole offers a groundbreaking perspective that reveals spiritual disillusionment as an unexpected friend. Within these sacred pages, you'll explore how night-faith develops within your soul something far more satisfying than understanding and far more powerful than peace.

Whether you're disillusioned with God, yourself, or others, Alicia offers practical and soul-full tools to help you navigate the night and find your way to a livable and love-saturated hope. Your night will not last forever. Within it, there is priceless treasure (that's simply too weighty to be sourced in sunshine).

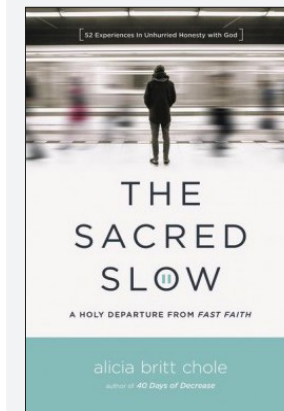

About the Author

An award-winning author and international speaker, Alicia's messages have been featured on DayStar, TBN, Propel, Christianity Today, Guideposts, Faith Gateway, and Chicken Soup for the Soul.

Alicia holds a DMin in Leadership and Spiritual Formation (George Fox Evangelical Seminary). With her husband (Dr. Barry Jay Chole) of 27 years, she joyfully parents their three extraordinary children in a country home off of a dirt road surrounded by loads of laundry, laughter, and love.

Family Worship Bible Guide

Joel R. Beeke, Michael Barrett

AVAILABLE JULY

Description

THIS BOOK IS COMPRISED OF FAMILY WORSHIP THOUGHTS EXTRACTED FROM THE REFORMATION HERITAGE STUDY BIBLE.

Leading and nurturing your family as you seek to glorify God and encourage spiritual growth in your home is both God's command and your privilege. One of the best and most effective ways to do this is through intentional, worshipful, daily family devotions where the truths of God's life-changing Word are openly discussed chapter by chapter.

Hand in hand with your Bible, this Family Worship Bible Guide presents rich devotional thoughts on all 1,189 chapters in the Bible, including searching questions to promote conversation, to help you with this responsibility. Use this resource every day alongside Scripture to read each chapter's major takeaways aloud and then discuss them with your family.

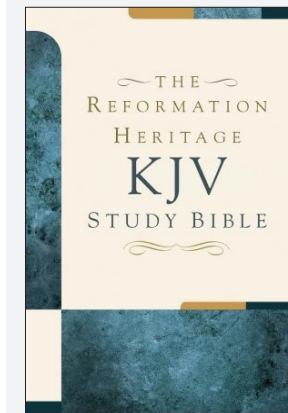

With the Holy Spirit's blessing, this book will transform you and your family!

About the Author

Dr. Joel Beeke is president and Professor of Systematic Theology and Homiletics at Puritan Reformed Theological Seminary, a pastor of the Heritage Netherlands Reformed Congregation in Grand Rapids, Michigan, editor of Banner of Sovereign Grace Truth, editorial director of Reformation Heritage Books, president of Inheritance Publishers, and vice-president of the Dutch Reformed Translation Society. Jesus Revolution Bible Study (with Video Access)

Greg Laurie

AVAILABLE JULY

How God Can Transform a Generation

Description

Jesus Revolution Bible Study Book with Video Access includes printed content for six sessions, personal study between group sessions, applicable Scripture, "How to Use This Study," and tips for leading a group. Also, each Book contains a unique code that enables you to access free session videos.

Throughout history, many cultures have experienced various spiritual awakenings. These eras are often short-lived, but the people who experienced them are transformed forever. That's what happened to Greg Laurie during the Jesus Movement in the late 1960s and early '70s. He entered these years as a drug-using hippie and exited as a new believer eager to see others come to know Christ, a quest he continues to this day.

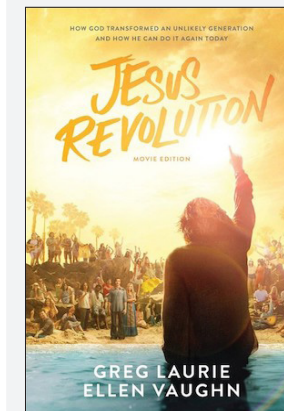

The Jesus Revolution Bible study draws important parallels between the cultural atmosphere of that period and our own time of spiritual apathy and outright hostility.

About the Author

Greg Laurie is the senior pastor of Harvest Christian Fellowship with campuses in California and Hawaii. He began his pastoral ministry at the age of 19 by leading a Bible study of 30 people. Since then, God has transformed that small group into a church of some 15,000 people, one of the largest in America.

Meditations on Practicing the Presence of God

Description

Where is God in the midst of the tumult and change of our lives? Where is He in our joys and sorrows, our difficulties and struggles, our daily tasks and responsibilities? He is not distant or uncaring. He is with us and in us—so much nearer than we can imagine. And He invites us to live in ongoing love and fellowship with Him, whether we are worshipping Him in church, cleaning the house, reconciling our checkbooks, working at our jobs, gathering with family and friends, or engaging in any other activity of life.

Nearer than We Imagine: Meditations on Practicing the Presence of God highlights pivotal areas of Brother Lawrence's renowned spiritual and practical guidance for entering into and remaining in the immediate presence of our loving heavenly Father.

As you read excerpts from his classic Practice of the Presence of God, with related Scripture verses and inspiring illustrations, you will receive spiritual strength and nourishment to meet all your daily needs, experiencing unbroken communion with your heavenly Father.

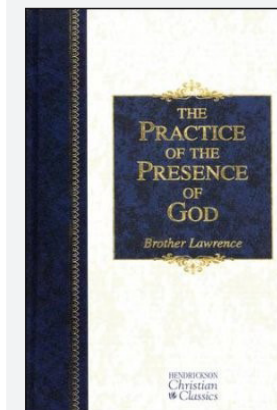

About the Authors

Brother Lawrence of the Resurrection (c. 1611–1691) was a lay brother in the Parisian Carmelite Order.

Brother Lawrence died peacefully at about the age of eighty. His writings and spiritual advice, as well as a short account of his life, were compiled and published in 1692 as The Practice of the Presence of God, of which millions of copies have been sold.

Come Out From Among Them

Todd Coconato

AVAILABLE JULY

Why You Were Made for Such a Time as This

Description

If God's chosen people were meant to be set apart, then why are we staying trapped by the world? After reading this book, you will have the boldness and the integrity to make an impact for the Kingdom of Heaven by tearing down the dark deceptions of the enemy that are plaguing our culture today.

In 2021, evangelist Todd Coconato had an angelic visitation that rocked him to the core. The angelic messenger told him two things: "Come out from among them," and, "Be consecrated." For the next year, Coconato sought God to understand the message for himself and the body of Christ.

In Come Out From Among Them, Coconato shares what he believes God is calling the body of Christ to in this season: to come out of the Babylon system and truly be set apart, not participating in the wickedness of this hour or listening to the modern-day prophets of Baal—the "fake news" media! This is a time of great shaking and awakening.

About the Author

Todd Coconato is an ordained minister and a national evangelist who is fervently praying and believing for a spiritual awakening in the United States and beyond. He speaks at conferences, churches, and faith-based events throughout the nation, and was a member of the Trump campaign's faith-based team. In addition to leading Todd Coconato Ministries, he is the president of the Religious Liberties Coalition, a nonprofit national coalition of pastors and ministry leaders..
