

I Believe CD

Phil Wickham

Description

Celebrated worship artist, Phil Wickham releases his ninth full length project, I Believe. Three years in the making, the standout selection borrows language from The Beatitudes and serves as a personal declaration of allegiance for the singer/songwriter. The album features his No. 1 hit single "This Is Our God" as well as "Sunday Is Coming" and "The Jesus Way."

Wickham explains, "This is Our God" is song is a declaration of who Jesus is and what He's done for us. There is so much faith, hope and truth in it. It's been incredible hearing the church lift it up and sing it since its release."

Wickham continues to top CCLI, radio, and charts with his work all the while accomplishing his goal: giving people language to sing to God.

If The Lord Builds The House CD

Hope Darst

Description

In this followup to her GMA Dove nominated debut album, Peace Be Still (2020), Hope brings authenticity and conviction. According to those who know her, Hope's character is marked by humility, and that's reflected in her songwriting. There is no doubt where she places the genesis for her inspiration, creativity, and success; squarely on the shoulders of God.

"This project was a labour of love and one that didn't come easy. There were many days I thought this would never happen, but I kept sensing God ask me to keep coming back to Him and ask Him for what I didn't have and couldn't create on my own. It wasn't easy, but let me tell you, this project and these songs are a testimony to God showing up and providing what I didn't have for a long time!"

"I can't wait for you to hear them. I hope they remind you that God is Faithful, He never leaves you, He has what you need, and He deserves the Glory." – Hope Darst

Hope Darst is a worship leader at The Belonging Co. Church in Nashville.

Track Listing Includes:

1. If The Lord Builds The House
2. Breakthrough's Coming
3. Honey
4. Never Walk Alone
5. Give You The Glory (ft. David Leonard)

People Like Us CD

Micah Tyler

Description

This 6-song project from Texan Micah Tyler includes his chart-topping radio single "I See Grace."

Tyler's hope is that "I See Grace", along with the title track, will bring people together more than ever before.

"This project is super special to me and it is my hope that these songs can help us," Micah Tyler explains about his new project. "It's my opportunity, through song, for the people of God to put aside divisions that the world tries to place on us, as well as the separations we place on ourselves, and just say 'God, I believe that if You can change the life of a sinner like myself, You can change the life of everybody!' I invite everyone to celebrate in the relationship and nearness that God promises people like us."

Impossible Christianity

Kevin DeYoung

AVAILABLE AUGUST

Why Following Jesus Does Not Mean You Have to Change the World, Be An Expert in Everything...

Description

Bestselling Author Kevin DeYoung offers hope for those who feel like Christianity has become hopelessly crushing and complex.

The apostle Paul described the Christian life as a race, but to many believers it feels more like a punishing obstacle course. Fearing they'll never be able to do enough or give enough or be enough, they see themselves as spiritual failures. But Scripture offers good news: even in ordinary life, Christians can be faithful, fruitful, and pleasing to God.

Impossible Christianity reassures readers that they don't need to feel a collective sense of guilt for sins in the past and solve every societal problem in the present.

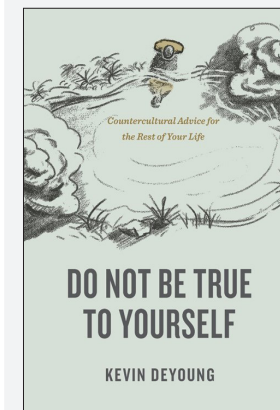

Through biblical wisdom and engaging personal stories, Kevin DeYoung challenges the misconception that we need 40 hours in the day just to be good Christians. By reflecting on what Jesus actually taught about Christian discipleship, readers will be newly encouraged to pursue single-minded devotion to God and find lasting joy in a life of sincere and simple obedience.

About the Author

Kevin DeYoung (PhD, University of Leicester) is the senior pastor at Christ Covenant Church in Matthews, North Carolina, and associate professor of systematic theology at Reformed Theological Seminary, Charlotte. He has written books for children, adults, and academics, including Just Do Something; Impossible Christianity; and The Biggest Story. Kevin's work can be found on clearlyreformed.org. Kevin and his wife, Trisha, have nine children.

Beauty Is Your Destiny

Philip Ryken

How the Promise of Splendour Changes Everything

Description

The world is full of beautiful things—the vibrancy of trees in fall, the joy of sitting around a table with family—but in our fallen world, many beautiful things have been turned into ugly distortions. How should Christians think about beauty in a world that is often ugly?

In Beauty Is Your Destiny, Philip Ryken provides readers with an introduction to the theology and practice of beauty, striving to awaken a longing for beauty that he explains “can only be satisfied in the face of Jesus Christ.”

Adapted from chapel messages given at Wheaton College, Ryken considers key topics on Christian thought—including the Trinity, the incarnation, sexuality, and racial diversity—through the lens of beauty, showing how beauty illuminates each of these biblical principles in our world today.

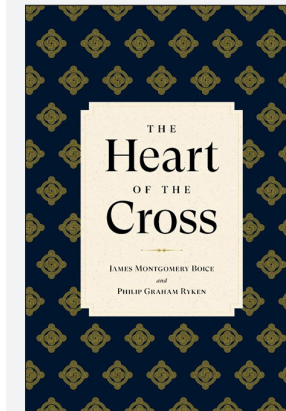

About the Author

Philip Graham Ryken (DPhil, University of Oxford) is the eighth president of Wheaton College. He preached at Philadelphia’s Tenth Presbyterian Church from 1995 until his appointment at Wheaton in 2010. Ryken has published more than 50 books, including When Trouble Comes and expository commentaries on Exodus, Ecclesiastes, and Jeremiah. He serves as a board member for the Gospel Coalition, the Lausanne Movement, and the National Association of Evangelicals.

What Did The Cross Achieve?

J.I. Packer

Crossway Short Classics

Description

Penal substitutionary atonement—the belief that Jesus’s death on the cross satisfied God’s wrath against sin—is central to the Christian faith, but frequently debated. Is it just to punish an innocent person in place of the guilty? How can the temporary death of one substitute for the eternal death of many? Why doesn’t the cross grant Christians unlimited permission to sin?

In this famous essay, late theologian J. I. Packer analyzes Scripture and the works of early Reformers to defend the truth of Christ’s substitutionary suffering and death, the heart of the Christian gospel.

Considered one of the most significant short works on penal substitutionary atonement from the 20th century, this careful, concise essay has influenced prominent theologians and is essential reading for students, pastors, and laypeople.

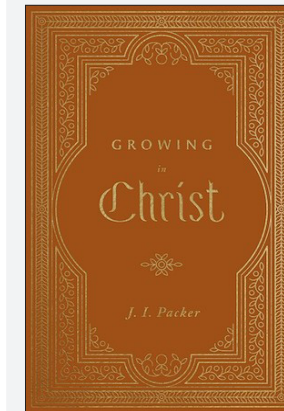

About the Author

J. I. Packer (1926–2020) served as the Board of Governors’ Professor of Theology at Regent College. He authored numerous books, including the classic bestseller Knowing God. Packer also served as general editor for the English Standard Version Bible and as theological editor for the ESV Study Bible.

All That Jesus Commanded

John Piper

AVAILABLE AUGUST

The Christian Life According to the Gospels

Description

The four Gospels are filled with commands straight from the mouth of Jesus Christ. They are not the harsh demands of a taskmaster, but Jesus's way of showing his followers who he is and how to be more like him.

In All That Jesus Commanded, John Piper walks through Jesus's commands, in 50 short chapters, explaining their context and meaning to help readers understand Christ's vision of the Christian life and what he still requires today. The result is a helpful guide for thoughtful inquirers and new Christians, as well as veteran believers, whether for their own study or as a resource in disciple-making.

Piper examines Jesus's commands and explains their context, meaning, and application today. Features Scripture, person, and subject indexes.

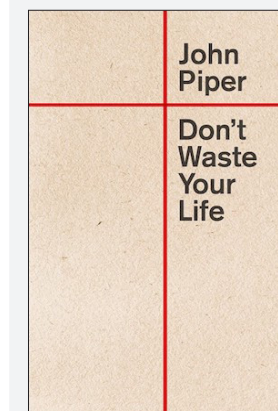

Written in a clear, engaging tone, this book is an excellent resource for new and seasoned believers alike, and for use in discipling younger believers.

About the Author

John Piper was the founder and lead teacher of desiringGod.org and chancellor of Bethlehem College & Seminary. He served for thirty-three years as a pastor at Bethlehem Baptist Church in Minneapolis, Minnesota, and is the author of more than fifty books, including Desiring God; Don't Waste Your Life; and Providence.

The Fear of The Lord Study Guide

Michael Reeves

AVAILABLE AUGUST

Description

It's not surprising that the Bible's most common command is "Do not be afraid." After all, fear surrounds us in this anxious world. Yet the remedy that Scripture provides for our fears is one we would never expect: the fear of the Lord.

In this teaching series, Dr. Michael Reeves shows how the gospel repels our misplaced fears while drawing us near to God in holy fear.

Here is the source of true wisdom and a taste of heavenly joy. As we understand the wonders of God's grace toward us in Christ, we cannot help but tremble before Him in adoration and delight.

About the Author

Dr. Michael Reeves is president and professor of theology at Union School of Theology in the United Kingdom.

He is the featured teacher for the Ligonier teaching series The English Reformation and the Puritans. He is author of many books, including The Unquenchable Flame, Delighting in the Trinity, and Rejoice and Tremble.

Reformed Worship

Jonty Rhodes

Blessings of the Faith

Description

Have you ever woken up on a Sunday morning and wondered if it was worth getting out of bed? Have you wondered why you should bother to attend corporate worship every week?

Unfortunately, it can be easy to miss the excitement of corporate worship—but the excitement is there. Because God is all-sufficient, he commands worship for his glory but our gain!

A Reformed view of worship is shaped by God's Word, with the gospel as its context: God desires to meet with his people, and that meeting comes only in and through Christ, by the Holy Spirit. Jesus is our worship leader, and as our prophet, priest and king he teaches us what worship should look like.

Writing with winsome enthusiasm, Jonty Rhodes celebrates the simplicity and freedom of Reformed worship and shows readers the joys of meeting with God in the means and manner he promises to bless.

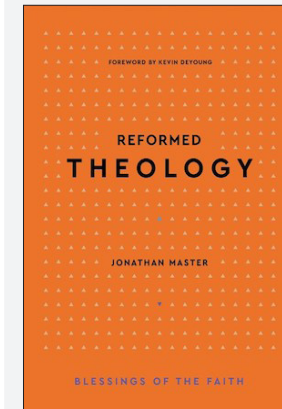

About the Author

Jonty Rhodes (MTh, Oakhill Theological College) is minister of Christ Church Central Leeds (International Presbyterian Church) in the United Kingdom. In his spare time he enjoys watching or playing a good game of cricket.

Pilipinto's Happiness

Valerie Elliot Shepard

The Jungle Adventures of a Missionary's Daughter. A Story of the Legacy of Jim & Elisabeth Elliot

Description

In 1956, Valerie's young missionary father, Jim Elliot, and four other men were speared to death by members of a primitive Ecuadorian tribe. But the good news of the gospel did not die with them.

When Valerie was just a toddler, she and her mother, Elisabeth, moved to live with that very tribe—showing the unconditional love of Christ so that the gospel could work in powerful and transformative ways.

Pilipinto's Happiness is an amazing story of courage and redemption—but it is also the simple story of a young American girl who grew up alongside the indigenous people of the 1950s Amazon jungle. That jungle, despite its dangers, became a delightful playground where Valerie learned to trust God's hand and respect all his gifts.

Beautifully illustrated, Pilipinto's Happiness is a child-appropriate introduction to several Christian heroes and heroines—powerful models in the faith who demonstrated reckless abandon for the kingdom of God.

About the Author

Valerie Elliot Shepard is the only child of Jim and Elisabeth Elliot, missionaries to the Quichua and Auca Indians (now called "Waadani, which means "the people") of the Amazon rain forest. Valerie returned with her mother to the United States in 1963 and married Walter Shepard. Walt and Valerie have eight children. They currently reside in Southport, North Carolina

When I Am Afraid

Sarah J. Najapfour

Description

"Hi, I'm Anna. I am seven years old, and sometimes I feel scared. But don't worry—I have a plan to face my fears. If you read this book, you can learn how to face your fears, too!"

When I Am Afraid is more than an illustrated children's book. It is a precious guide for parents to help their children respond to fear and anxiety in God's way.

Told from the perspective of seven-year-old Anna, this book shares ways your children can recognize anxiety and equips them with biblical truths to help them trust in God.

Each truth is demonstrated with a story from the life of King David, followed by questions encouraging parents and children to talk about what they learned.

Read this book with your children and discover practical tips that will help them—and you—fight fear, with illustrations by Ellie Westrate

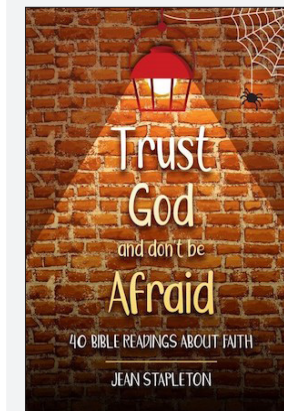

About the Author

Sarah Najapfour has a BA in English literature and a teaching certificate from the University of the Fraser Valley. She has taught at Christian schools in British Columbia and Michigan before becoming a stay-at-home mum. She is married to Brian, and they have been blessed with five children.

How Can I Be Sure What's Right and Wrong?

Chris Morphey

Description

How can I be sure what's right and wrong? Is it all just a matter of opinion? Do we really need God to tell us how to be good people, or can we just figure it out for ourselves? What about situations where there is no one right answer, or when we disagree with others about what the best thing to do is?

In this fun and fast-paced book, Christian Studies teacher and school chaplain Chris Morphey walks 9–13-year-olds through various questions about morality. He makes the case that there is such a thing as right and wrong, and that we need to go to God for solid and satisfying answers.

Features:

- Points children to the grace and truth of the gospel message.
- Includes chapters on disagreeing well with others.
- Written for kids who don't yet identify as Christians as well as those who do.

About the Author

Chris Morphey is an author, teacher and school chaplain living in Sydney, Australia. He has written over 20 novels for children and youth, including his six-book young-adult series The Phoenix Files.

Any Time Any Place Any Prayer Devotional

Katy Morgan

AVAILABLE AUGUST

15 Days Exploring How We Can Talk With God

Description

This devotional is a chance to take your family on a journey through the story of prayer in the Bible. It is based on the popular storybook by Laura Wifler, co-founder of Risen Motherhood, which explores prayer: from the Garden of Eden, where Adam and Eve talked with God face to face, through Old Testament examples and the teaching of Jesus, all the way to the promise of the new creation, where we'll dwell with God for ever.

These 10-minute devotions are designed to be easy to lead and fun to do. They will help your family to learn to pray with confidence, at any time, in any place. They are ideal for kids aged 5-11.

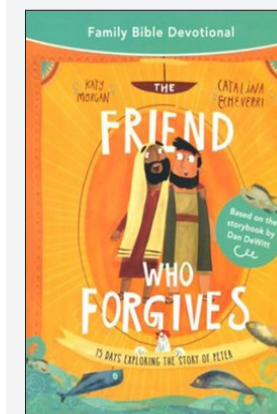

Each one of the 15 devotions includes: • a short opening prayer • a starter question • a short Bible passage, printed in full • two questions about the passage • a short explanation that can be read aloud • two reflection questions (Usually one is simpler and the other requires more thought. Feel free to just pick one!) • a prayer idea • an optional extra section that goes deeper, aimed at older or more confident children.

About the Author

Katy Morgan is an editor at The Good Book Company and loves helping children and young people grow in knowledge and love of Jesus. She was previously part of a school chaplaincy team and now volunteers in the youth work at her church, King's Church Chessington in Surrey. She holds a master's degree in classical Greek literature and is the author of The Promise and the Light.

Breakthrough Into Deeper Intimacy With God

Rory MaGrath

AVAILABLE AUGUST

Experience God's Presence in Your Life in a Real and Fulfilling Way

Description

Many Christians have the belief and trust in their salvation, but seem to struggle to truly experience and sense God's presence on an intimate level in their everyday lives. This is what Rory experienced for nearly twenty-six years of his life, and his obsessive pursuit for genuine intimacy with his creator took him on a long and painful journey.

Through an inadvertent miracle, Rory was introduced to a solution in the most unlikely of places, which opened the door to a relationship with God that was so naturally real that it appeared almost tangible; like God was actually there in the room or in the car with him. With this close relationship came the realisation that God's power was then doing through him what he could never before do for himself. He realised that to breakthrough what seemed an invisible barrier, into this level of relationship with our Lord, it required a process. He has written this book, as over the years he has interacted with many who have struggled yet found close intimacy with God through the same solution as he had. In the book he outlines this process step for step, precisely as he did it, including personal examples and worksheets to help. He believes that anyone can move into the heart-felt relationship with God that we may have heard others speak about.

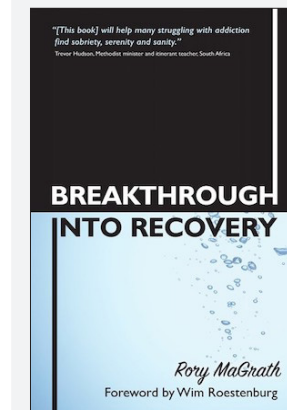

About the Author

Rory was born in South Africa, and after completing his military conscription he studied for three years as a Medical Tech., then after six years switched careers and went into construction. In 2010, he completed a certificate in Bible Theology through SATS (South African Theological Seminary).

Rory is married to Pauline and they reside in Leeds, England, where Rory is actively involved in their local church.

Winter Fire

Ryan Whitaker Smith

Christmas With G. K. Chesterton

Description

"It may be because I am silly, but I rather think that, relatively to the rest of the year, I enjoy Christmas more than I did when I was a child. My faith demands that such be the case. The more mature I become the more I need to embrace the joys of the incarnation. The more mature I become, the more I need to be but a child." – G. K. Chesterton

Experience the warmth of Christmas through the winsome wit and wisdom of beloved writer G. K. Chesterton. This devotional—perfect for the Christmas season—includes selections of Chesterton's writings, accompanied with commentary, Scripture readings, and reflections.

Be encouraged by Chesterton's insight, charmed by the Victorian-inspired artwork, and delighted by the traditional English recipes. Make Chesterton's poetry, short stories, and essays a part of your Christmas tradition!

A festive celebration of childlike wonder, the beautifully illustrated Winter Fire is a unique and meaningful gift.

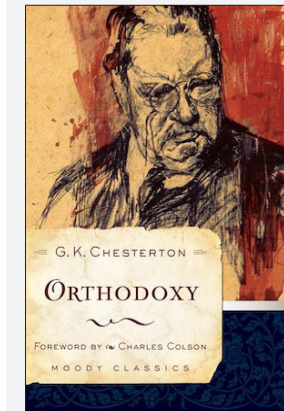

About the Author

RYAN WHITAKER SMITH is an author and filmmaker from Nashville, Tennessee. His film projects include the romantic drama Surprised by Oxford, based on the award winning memoir by Carolyn Weber, the LIONSGATE documentary The Jesus Music, and a forthcoming adaptation of G. K. Chesterton's comic adventure The Ball and the Cross. He is co-author, with Dan Witt, of Sheltering Mercy and Endless Grace, two collections of prayers inspired by the Psalms.

Chasing Proof, Finding Faith

Tom Rudelius, PhD

AVAILABLE AUGUST

A Young Scientist's Search For Truth In A World Of Uncertainty

Description

Immersed in his physics studies at Cornell, Tom Rudelius never thought much about God until his brother, a new convert to Christianity, challenged him to explore faith. To placate his twin, he reluctantly began exploring the Bible and the life of Jesus. Seeking proof of God's existence, he found himself in a world of uncertainty, faced with plenty of reasons for both faith and doubt.

In Chasing Proof, Finding Faith, Tom, now a rising young theoretical physicist, traces his journey to unexpected faith, through subsequent doubt and anxiety, and ultimately to a firmer, life-transforming allegiance to Jesus. Along the way, he explores some of the issues he wrestled with, including: *Creation and cosmic origins *The problem of evil and suffering *The compatibility of miracles with science and the plausibility of Jesus' resurrection *The reliability of the Bible

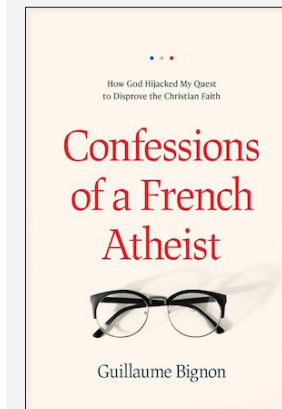

While Tom never found absolute proof of God or Christianity, he ultimately concluded that the existing evidence for both is compelling and compatible with science. His searingly honest story is a potent guide for those doubting or exploring faith.

About the Author

Tom Rudelius completed his undergraduate work at Cornell, earned a doctorate in physics at Harvard, and has conducted postdoctoral research at the Institute for Advanced Study in Princeton, New Jersey. Currently a postdoctoral researcher in theoretical physics at the University of California, Berkeley, Tom will begin a faculty position at Durham University in the fall of 2023. His research focuses on string theory, quantum field theory, and early universe cosmology. A man of faith and an avid sports fan, he is frequently requested to speak on topics related to science and faith.

Surrendered to the Holy Spirit

Hayley Braun

AVAILABLE AUGUST

A Life Saturated By The Presence of God

Description

Are you missing the presence of Holy Spirit in your everyday life? Do you long for a vibrant, biblical encounter and life-changing outpouring of His power?

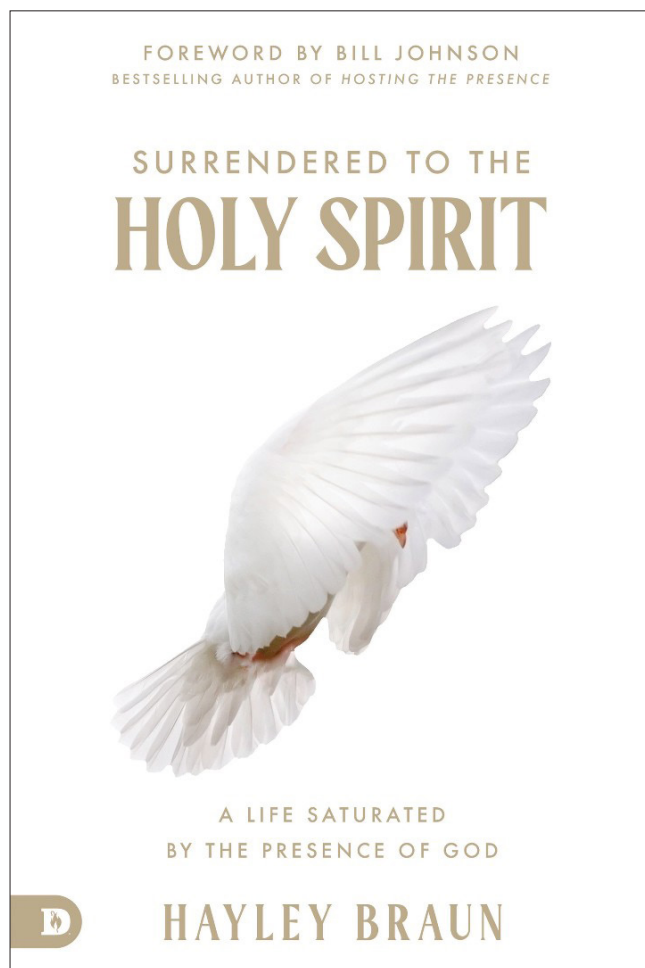

For too long the Holy Spirit has been regarded only as a doctrine, not as the powerful Person he is. But that changed for Hayley Braun when a radical encounter with the raw presence and power of the Spirit left her completely undone—and ushered in a holy impartation for her to help spiritually-hungry believers experience the same.

In Saturated by the Spirit, prophetic minister and Bethel School leader, Hayley Braun imparts a deeper relationship with the Holy Spirit so that signs, miracles, and wonders become normal occurrences everywhere you go.

Don't settle for lifeless facts when you could have a life-changing friendship with the Living God. Saturate yourself in His presence—and begin experience God more real, more near, and more powerful than ever before.

About the Author

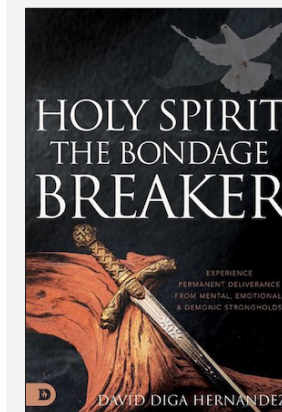

Hayley Braun is a laid down lover of Jesus and a lifelong learner of His ways. Born and raised in Port Elizabeth, South Africa, Hayley moved to Redding in 2008 to attend Bethel School of Supernatural Ministry (BSSM). She serves on the Senior Leadership Team of Bethel Church in Redding California and is an Overseer of BSSM. Hayley and her family burn for revival and to see the nations encounter the Living God in a real and transformational way.

The Anointing of Preservation

Hank Kunneman

AVAILABLE AUGUST

Living Supernaturally Shielded From the Powers of Darkness

Description

Is it possible to live in a dimension of God's divine protection where you are safeguarded from the attacks of the enemy? Jesus said that in the world we would have tribulation, but with that statement came a radical promise: He had overcome the world. This same anointing of divine preservation lives inside of you!

What is Preservation? Divine protection — a dimension where God is watching over you so no scheme or strategy of the enemy can prevail against you. Prophet and pastor Hank Kunneman teaches you how to activate God's divine protection so you are shielded from the dark strategies of the enemy.

Get ready to:

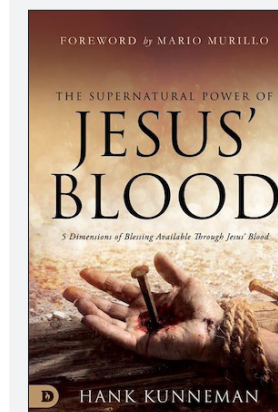

- Understand how the spirit realm operates in a greater dimension.
- Co-operate with God's supernatural activity in your life.
- Spiritually shield your life, your family, your home and nation from the plots of Satan.
- Discern how the anointing of preservation significantly impacts the natural realm in spectacular ways, confirming God's hand is at work.

About the Author

Hank Kunneman has had a passion for cartooning and art since childhood. While he has authored numerous books for adults, he has also created many children's characters that come to life with biblical principles and lessons that all ages can enjoy. He and his wife, Brenda, pastor Lord of Hosts Church in Omaha, Nebraska. Their weekly show, New Level with Hank and Brenda, airs nationally and internationally, and reaches millions around the world.

Lifeway Adults – John: Storyteller Bible Study Book Lifeway™

Signs of The Messiah

Description

The Gospel of John is one of four books that describes the life of Jesus. John's gospel is organized in two big divisions, the book of the signs and the book of the suffering servant.

The first part introduces us to Jesus through the lens of 7 key miracles or signs that Jesus does to disclose His identity and prove His divinity. These signs are meant to show us who Jesus is and what He is like. They disclose to us what He cares about and point us back to God.

For all of us following Jesus or maybe those who are just looking into Jesus, these signs will point us on a path to the Saviour.

Session Topics:

1. Follow Me
2. I Am He
3. I Am Working Also
4. Believe in the One He Sent
5. I Am the Light of the World
6. I Am the Resurrection and the Life
7. I Will Draw All People to Myself

Kat Armstrong – Sinners

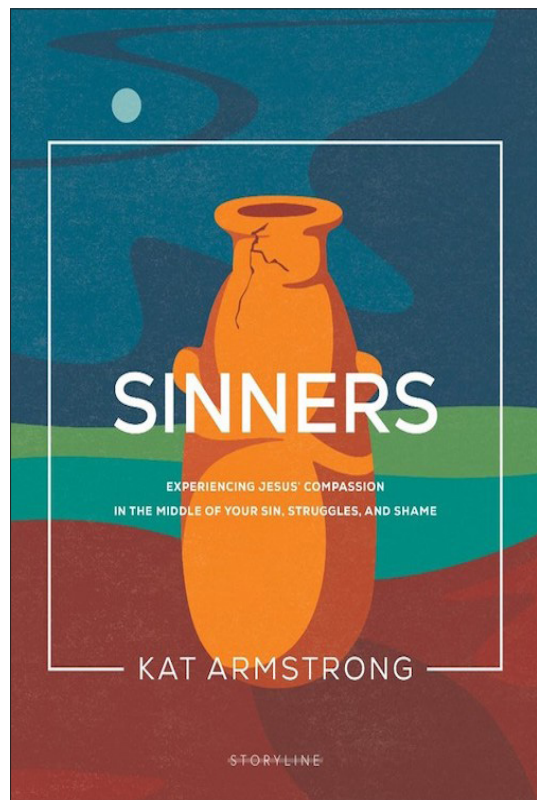

Experience Jesus' Compassion in the Middle of Your Sin, Struggles & Shame

Description

In Sinners, we will discover God's tender compassion on anyone—regardless of their social status, troubled past, or the labels placed upon them. And we are going to notice the counterintuitive ways “sinful” people respond to Jesus in righteous acts of faith. You'll start to see a theme unfold: The people considered sinful often act with greater faith than the most religious people of Jesus' day.

In the Sinners Bible study, we will explore • Luke 7: the sinful woman who anointed Jesus with the perfume from her alabaster jar and whose faith saved her; • Luke 7: the Roman centurion who advocated for his sick servant and whose faith saved the servant's life; • Matthew 9: the former tax collector and disciple named Matthew who had left his tollbooth to follow Jesus and whose faith confused the religious; • Matthew 15: the Canaanite mom who begged Jesus to heal her demon-possessed daughter and whose faith led to her daughter's healing; and • John 4: the Samaritan woman at the well who was approached by Jesus and whose faith started revival in her town.

Kat Armstrong – Saints

Enjoying a Relationship With Jesus When You're Disillusioned ... Religion

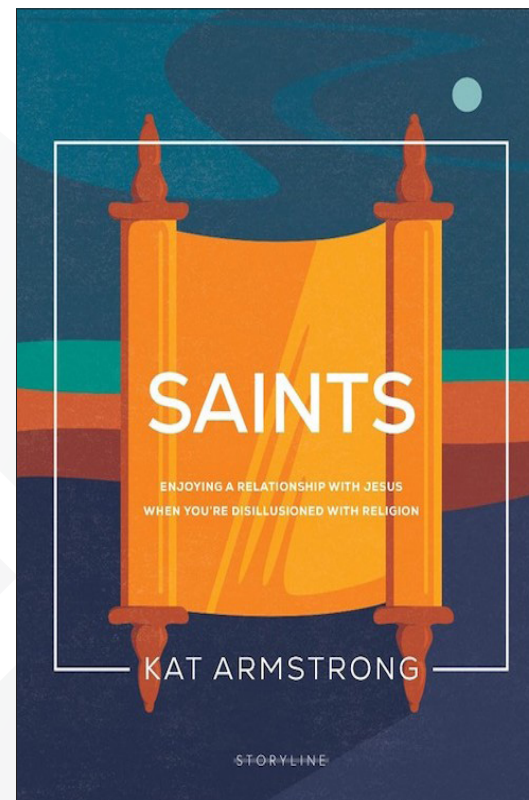

Description

Discover the storyline of Scripture as you follow people, places, or things in the Bible.

The Storyline Bible Studies help you put the pieces back together. You'll discover cohesive, thematic storylines with literary elements and appreciate the Bible as the literary masterpiece that it is.

In Saints, we will look at characters and themes that are cautionary tales for Christians and Christian leaders. None of us are above the actions described in the Bible, and all of us are in need of the redemption and restoration of God.

In the Saints Bible study, we will explore • John 3, 7, and 19: Nicodemus, the Pharisee disoriented by Jesus' testimony; • John 6, 12, 13, and 18: Judas, the disciple who sold Jesus out; • John 11 and 18 and Acts 4: Caiaphas, the high priest unwilling to steward his power generously; • John 18 and 21: Peter, the disciple who denied association with Jesus; and • Acts 8 and 1 Timothy 1: Paul, the Pharisee who persecuted Christians.

Rose Guide to Genesis

Maps, Time Lines, and Overviews

Description

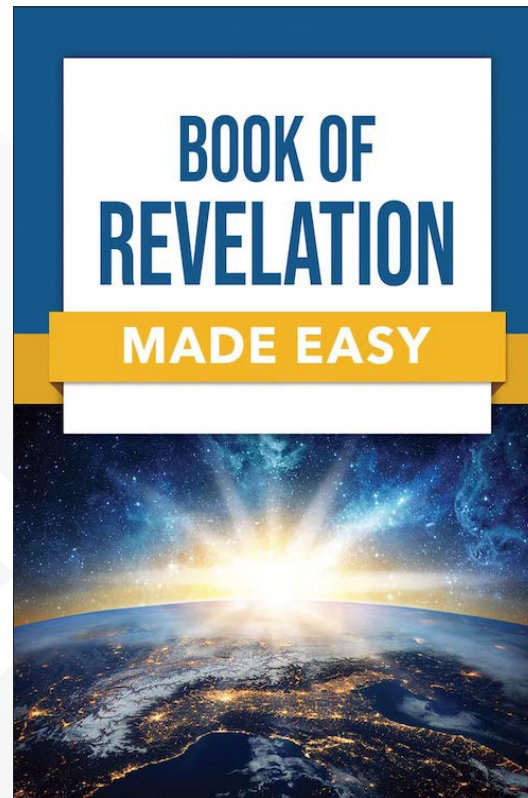

Genesis is one of the largest and most fascinating books of the Bible. Its 50 chapters span the creation of the world all the way to the lives of the patriarchs and matriarchs in the promised land.

Rose Guide to Genesis will help you keep track of the most important people, places, and stories in the first book of the Bible as you delve into the world of the ancient Near East. Learn about the people and lands of ancient world from Mesopotamia to Egypt. Discover insights into family structure, customs, and religious practices of ancient peoples to give context to your Bible study.

With pictures, charts, maps, and timelines, Rose Guide to Genesis will enhance your understanding of biblical figures like Noah, Abraham, Sarah, Joseph, and others. About the Series Rose Guides are easy-to-read reference handbooks that explore the people, places, and stories of the Bible. With the colorful maps, charts, and timelines that Rose Publishing is known for, Rose Guides provide readers with key historical and practical insights for understanding the books of the Bible and biblical topics that are important for our lives today.

Book of Revelation Made Easy

Description

Revelation's apocalyptic imagery and prophetic messages of judgment, salvation, and final redemption have captured the imagination of the church for two thousand years, giving rise to differing interpretations and confusion among Christians. Book of Revelation Made Easy presents these viewpoints in easy-to-follow charts, offering a framework for understanding how this important, final book of the canon has been historically understood. Topics include:

The Seven Churches: their historical context and modern-day application

Chart explaining four views on the book of Revelation: (1) Futurist, (2) Historicist, (3) Idealist, (4) Preterist

Chart exploring four views on the Millennium: (1) Dispensational Premillennialism, (2) Historical Premillennialism, (3) Amillennialism, (4) Postmillennialism

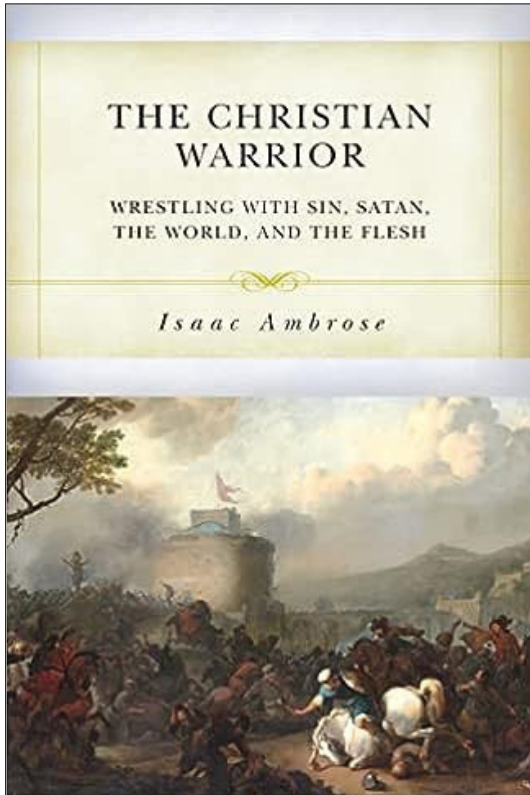

Helpful summaries of Revelation's "sevens" 7 churches, 7 seals, 7 trumpets, 7 symbolic histories, 7 bowls, 7 judgments, 7 visions
